

City Raises Rates, Taxes And Hires New Officer

The Bovina City Board of Aldermen met in regular session on September 9, 1997 at 7 p.m.

Those present were Mayor Galen Hromas, Alderman Charles Wilkins, Kevin Hughes, Radford Venable, Linda Marshall and Kenneth Waters.

Notice of tax hearing began at 7 p.m. The meeting was called to order at 7:25 p.m. with Waters opening with a prayer.

Minutes from the previous meeting were read and approved and bills were paid.

Jarrett Atkinson from the Panhandle Regional Planning Commission of Amarillo approached the council to discuss the resolution for the City's new water well and the grant from the State of Texas. The board voted to accept the resolution.

The tax hearing was closed at 8:05 p.m.

Andy Stormes approached the council about starting a police reserve program. After discussion Venable made a motion to table the matter for six months. Hughes seconded and it passed.

Don Bandy approached the council to discuss the City's landfill agreement. The board voted to table the issue until the October meeting.

Marshall made a motion to appoint the following people to serve as commissioners for building committee: Frances Johnson, Bob Owens, J.E. Sherrill Jr., George Cervantez and Al Kerby Jr. Billy Smith was named building inspector, Andres Garza was named as fire marshal and Stan Miller will be an alternate. Venable seconded and the motion passed.

The board passed a motion to increase all water rates effective October 1. The water rate inside the city limits went from $9 to $12 on base rate and from $1.05 to $1.15 on water rate per thousand. Water rates outside city limits went from $11.60 to $14.60 on base rate and $1.40 to $1.50 on water rate per thousand.

Trash rates were also increased by $1. Aldermen Venable, Waters and Marshall voted for and Hughes and Wilkins voted against the increase.

The board then passed a motion for the city to put $3,000 monthly into a savings account for the payment of the new water well.

On September 16 the board of aldermen met in special session at 7 p.m.

Those present were Mayor Hromas, Aldermen Wilkins, Venable, Marshall and Waters.

Danny Fiel with SPS came to discuss and explain the SPS Grain Elevator Service resolution with the council. The council voted and the motion passed to accept the rates.

The council and Police Chief Leon Saddler began interviewing candidates for police officer at 8 p.m.

After interviewing four candidates, Marshall made a motion to offer the position to Joe Lopez of Odessa. Venable seconded and the motion passed.

Wilkins made a motion for the City to raise the tax rate to .4904. Venable seconded and it passed.

The board voted to accept the amended budget and they declared the meeting adjourned.

Bovina Native Wins Teacher of Year Award

After 34 years in the classroom, two generations of students, and lots and lots of homework, a Bovina graduate has been recognized as the best in her field.

Helen Estlack, a 1957 graduate of Bovina High School and the daughter of Bernice Hartzog and the late Arlin Hartzog of Farwell, was named the 1997 Teacher of the Year by Region XVI Education Service Center and Southwestern Bell Foundation in a reception on September 4, 1997, in Amarillo.

Estlack, who now lives in Clarendon, Texas, received the award for secondary teachers. The elementary teacher award went to Julie Harris of Sleepy Hollow Elementary in Amarillo.

Estlack and Harris will represent some 7,000 teachers in 65 school districts and 26 Panhandle counties as they vie with winners from each of state's 20 education service centers for the Texas Teacher of Year Award.

The top three finalists in each division will be announced September 22, and the state winners will be announced on October 13. The state and regional winners will all be honored by the State Board of Education, the Texas Education Agency, and Southwestern Bell at an awards luncheon on November 22 in Austin. One state winner will represent Texas in the National Teacher of the Year Program.

Estlack's teaching career began in 1961 when she started teaching English and Language Arts at Clarendon Junior High after graduating from Texas Technological College. After a brief time in

Charles Charges Into Second Week With Win

A large number of Blade readers competed for the prize money in week two of the Bovina business football contest. Three contestants picked fourteen of sixteen games, three picked thirteen games and twelve picked twelve games correctly.

The Dallas-Philadelphia score of 21-20 was the deciding factor for the top winners. Cameron Charles was only six points off the score. He received $20.

Jerry Sherbon was twenty-four points off and earned $10.

Jessica Stowers forgot to list a tie-breaker score but still received $5.

Martin Gonzales, Walter Kessler and David Miles correctly picked thirteen games.

Will Bell, Jo Blackwell, Greg Elliott, Leonor Espinosa,

Tomas Fuentes, Matt Hromas, Tyson Kerby, Travis Lockmiller, Carmen Porras, Mike Raymond, Kay Roach and Christen Stowers picked thirteen of the sixteen games correctly.

The most missed games were UCLA-Texas, Notre Dame-Purdue and Detroit-Chicago. Contestants did not have much trouble with the high school games.

Travis Lockmiller and Jessica Stowers are leading with twenty-six points in the total scores for the first two weeks. Cameron Charles follows with twenty-five.

Tyson Kerby, David Miles, Adam Mejia and Carmen Porras are not far behind with twenty-four total points.

A complete listing of contestants' total scores can be found elsewhere in this issue.

MARTIN REYNA MELISSA CANO Students Of The Week

Bovina teachers selected two students for the student-of-the-week honors this week. Principal Jerry Birdsong said the teachers had a difficult time deciding in a close vote, so they just selected both.

Margaret Durben, Bobby Ortiz, and Linda Lewis nominated senior Martin Reyna for his leadership qualities. He is a student who does his very best in class, is a gentleman, fun to work with, and is a standout athlete.

Mike Newman nominated sophomore Melissa Cano for her 101 average in history and as a cheerleader who won first place in the Plainview cross country meet. She has a "great attitude" too.

Mustangs Surprise Again Walloping Whiteface 33-6

The score after two games is Bovina-81, Opponents-6.

The Mustangs had a shutout going for the first seven quarters of the year, until the once-tough Whiteface Antelopes managed to score 6 points in the final minutes of last Friday's contest.

"Boy, we wanted that shutout!", assistant coach Ted Maple said before practice on Monday.

"We could have had a shutout easily", echoed coach Bobby Ortiz. "Our kids played an excellent game."

When reminded that a few previous Mustang teams failed to score 81 points in an entire season, Ortiz gave a nod of confidence and prepared for next week's surprise.

Against Whiteface, the Mustangs rolled up 244 yards rushing and 112 yards passing, 356 total yards offense. The effort netted 15 first downs.

Ortiz once again confounded his opponent's game plan by utilizing a number of players in different roles.

Talented quarterback Tony Beauchamp lined up a couple of times at wide receiver and tailback while backup Derrick Vanegas ran at quarterback.

Beauchamp caught a pass for a touchdown, ran for one touchdown, and threw a pass for a third score.

Senior running back Albert Larrea peeled off a 66-yard TD run and ended the evening with 100 yards total rushing.

Sophomore Lucas Ramos scored on a 23-yard run and Adan Perez was on the receiving end of a 29-yard touchdown pass in the second quarter.

Five touchdowns in the game scored by five different Mustangs is a testimonial to the "surprises" being created by the Mustang coaching staff in their run to the playoffs.

Against Whiteface, the Mustangs were forced to punt 6 times and averaged 31 yards per kick. They were assessed 9 penalties for 75 yards and had no fumbles in the game.

The homecoming game tonight will be Mustangs vs. Mustangs as the 1A Claude Mustangs come to town.

The Claude Mustangs managed a 4-5 record last year and Bovina's Mustangs are favored to keep the win-streak alive.

Coach Ortiz and staff no doubt are at the drawing board for this week's "surprise", and aiming at yet another shutout.

JOB WELL DONE.....1957 Bovina High School graduate, Helen Hartzog Estlack, receives the 1997 Region XVI Teacher Of The Year Award from Cameron Monroe of Southwestern Bell Telephone.

Friona Principal To Head Spelling Bee

The 50th annual National Spelling Bee, sponsored by the Amarillo Globe-News and West Texas State University, has been scheduled for April 5 on the university campus in Canyon.

The area assigned the sponsors includes more than 40 counties in the Texas Panhandle, Oklahoma, New Mexico and Kansas.

All across the area, directors are being named to direct their respective spellings. The director for Parmer County is Kevin Wiseman, principal of Friona Junior High School.

All county champions are to be reported to Jeane Bartlett, Amarillo Globe-News Spelling Bee Editor by March 21, 1998.

There are two levels of competition in the AGN-WTAMU

bee. A junior bee for students in grades five and below is promoted to acquaint the elementary grade students with the program. A senior bee is for students in grades eight and below. A director has the option of combining the two levels if he/she so chooses. Each county can have only one representative in the April 4 competition, regardless of grade or age.

Each county senior and junior finalist will be guests of the sponsors at a luncheon preceding the April competition. Special awards will go to all.

The top award for the district competition will be an all-expense paid trip to Washington, D.C. in late May as the area's representative in the 1998 Scripps Howard National Spelling Bee.

A new issue of the study booklet, "Paideia," will be available from the personnel department of the Amarillo Globe-News for only 75 cents per copy. The booklet contains more than 3,400 words.

Rules state that any student who will not be in a grade higher than the eighth or older than 16 by the date of the national finals (May 25) may participate. The competition is open to students in public, parochial and private schools. Home-schooled students are eligible, provided there is a competition of at least five participants. Special instructions are available from each county bee director.

Bee coordinator from WTAMU is Amy Porus, instructor, division of education.

"My name's Tammy. I'm a single mom. I get up every morning at 6:30. Get the girls up. I work hard." (TV Commercial)

These heart-tugging words make up one segment in a series of commercials for a supermarket chain. The spots are running on Amarillo TV stations.

In addition to single moms, the commercials feature a large Hispanic family, an older black family, and a senior citizen white couple. Each of these categories of people supposedly need to save money because they are poor.

The supermarket has the solution. Come shop and just look for the yellow price tags. Suddenly your welfare and social security checks will go further and life will be better.

If I lived in Amarillo, I would not shop there. Not that they are not nice stores. They are very nice. However, I can only imagine what it would be like trying to navigate the aisles if these are their main customers.

First of all, it wouldn't do me any good to borrow my mother's car again with the handicapped license plate. No doubt, the old black and white citizens would have those parking spaces all taken up.

Have you noticed that older folks don't ever seem to be in a hurry. To them, going to the grocery store is an outing to be enjoyed. Very slowly.

"Let's go spend the afternoon looking at all the different kinds of preserves, Henry. 'Least it's cool in the grocery store and maybe they've got some new colors of marmalade."

The Hispanic man in the supermarket commercials says he likes to cook at every opportunity. "We work hard and we like to eat good", he says as smoke from his grill swirls around his face.

You can tell this gentleman likes to eat. He is not exactly suffering from malnourishment, if you know what I mean. "If it's got a yellow tag on it, buy it", he says while the camera pans around to his extended family, all of whom like to eat too.

The inference is that Hispanic families are large and it takes a lot of outdoor cooking to feed them all so saving money is important.

Now imagine after finally finding a place to park and grabbing a basket, you run head-long into gridlock in the first aisle.

The large Hispanic family spreads out to try and get around the old white guy with the walker, but they are blocked by single mom Tammy whose three kids are screaming and whining while she searches for another yellow tag.

I am surprised that some "community group" has not crawled out from under a rock to protest these TV ads. After all, it is just not accepted these days to depict segments of society as segments. There are no cultures any longer. We are all alike.

Where are AARP, NAACP, and LULAC when you need them.

But I really wanted to discuss single mom Tammy whom I mentioned at the first of this piece. I have a personal problem with all the adulation and respect which is generally accorded to single moms.

Single momhood is overrated. It doesn't seem to matter what the circumstances are that caused a woman to become a single mom. Once they pass over into the land of single moms they surpass all criticism and can enjoy our respect and sympathy for taking on the challenge of making it on their own.

To me, single moms are a lot like that one kid on the playground who was always in the game of tag, but just when you were about to tag him, he would yell "king's X". "You were late to work again Tammy." "Well, I'm a single mom."

"Tammy always looks so tired and worn out." "Well, she is a single mom, bless her heart."

The TV Tammy is an attractive if somewhat rough looking woman. She appears in cutoff jeans and a t-shirt. I'd say she is on the up side of forty but maybe she just had a hard life.

In one shot, she is coming down the sidewalk toward the camera with her three girls. Two of them are as tall as Tammy. Probably 16-18 years-old. The other daughter is in the stroller that Tammy is pushing. Less than a year-old it seems.

I've got a few questions about the family there, Tammy. You have two older daughters, almost grown, that probably work part time to help out. So where did that little one come from?

Did one of your boyfriends stop by once too often while the girls were at work?

If life as a single mom is so difficult, Tammy, what the heck are you doing having another kid at your age when you aren't even married?

Don't you know what causes kids?

"Well, I couldn't help it. I was lonely and I was under a lot of stress and...well..."

Ever notice how "well" is one of a woman's favorite words. Comes in handy in many situations when no other explanation will work. "What do you mean you wrecked the car?" "Well, it wasn't really my fault."

Sometimes they just use "well" by itself. "Why were you gone shopping so long?" "Well...." "I need to talk to you." "Well.."

I know that being a single parent is difficult in the best of times. I know at least three guys around here who are single dads and do a pretty good job of being a parent. More dads should get the opportunity.

It just bugs me that women who turn into single moms can demonstrate a serious lack of responsibility, have all the kids they want with as many men as they like, and about all society says is "you need some help and counseling."

I'm not through with the topic of single moms and there are a few things I have to say about deadbeat dads too in the weeks ahead, but my time and space is used up for this week.

In the meantime, maybe I will go shopping at that supermarket in Amarillo. Should be a great place to pickup a nice lonely little single mom.

Or maybe I'll get an invite to an outdoor Hispanic cookout and bring along a widow from the jams and jellies section.

"What'd he say?" "He says he thinks he knows you."

PUBLIC NOTICE

BRIEF EXPLANATORY STATEMENTS OF PROPOSED CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENTS

SPECIAL ELECTION NOVEMBER 4, 1997

PROPOSITION NO. 1 ON THE BALLOT

Senate Joint Resolution 36 proposes a constitutional amendment to allow a person to hold the position of municipal judge in more than one municipality.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows:

"The constitutional amendment to allow a person who holds the office of municipal court judge to hold at the same time more than one civil office for which the person receives compensation."

PROPOSITION NO. 2 ON THE BALLOT

Senate Joint Resolution 43 proposes a constitutional amendment to allow the legislature to limit the maximum annual increase in homestead appraisals for each year since the most recent tax appraisal. The amendment would also permit the legislature to allow the governing body of a school district to elect to apply the law providing for the transfer of the age-65-and-older school property tax freeze to the person's new homestead, if the move to the new residence homestead occurred before the law took effect.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows:

"The constitutional amendment to authorize the Legislature to limit increases in the appraised value of residence homesteads for ad valorem taxation and to permit a school district to calculate the school property tax freeze applicable to the residence homestead of an elderly person or the surviving spouse of an elderly person in accordance with the law authorizing the transfer of the school property tax freeze to a different homestead regardless of whether that law was in effect at the time the person established the person's homestead."

PROPOSITION NO. 3 ON THE BALLOT

Senate Joint Resolution 45 proposes a constitutional amendment to allow the legislature to authorize counties, cities, towns, and other local taxing entities to grant exemptions or other forms of ad valorem tax relief on property on which approved water conservation initiatives have been implemented.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows:

"The constitutional amendment to authorize the legislature to permit a taxing unit to grant an exemption or other relief from ad valorem taxes on property on which a water conservation initiative has been implemented."

PROPOSITION NO. 4 ON THE BALLOT

House Joint Resolution 104 proposes an amendment to update the Texas Constitution by deleting duplicate numbering in its provisions and removing certain of its obsolete portions.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows:

"The constitutional amendment eliminating duplicate numbering in and certain obsolete provisions of the Texas Constitution."

PROPOSITION NO. 5 ON THE BALLOT

Senate Joint Resolution 19 proposes an amendment to allow the Supreme Court of Texas to hold sessions at any location in this state. Currently, the court is limited to holding sessions only at Austin, the seat of state government.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows:

"The constitutional amendment authorizing the supreme court to sit to transact business at any location in this state."

PROPOSITION NO. 6 ON THE BALLOT

Senate Joint Resolution 39 proposes a constitutional amendment to repeal the current provision which provides that the board of the Texas Growth Fund may not invest money in a business unless the business has disclosed to the board whether it has any direct financial investment in or with South Africa or Namibia.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows:

"The constitutional amendment allowing the Texas growth fund to continue to invest in businesses without requiring those businesses to disclose investments in South Africa or Namibia."

PROPOSITION NO. 7 ON THE BALLOT

Senate Joint Resolution 17 proposes a constitutional amendment to create the Texas Water Development Fund II as a fund separate and distinct from the Texas Water Development Fund. The amendment would authorize the Texas Water Development Board to administer the fund and issue general obligation bonds for purposes of the fund under guidelines set forth in the amendment.

The amendment would also allow the Board to use loan repayments coming into the fund after the end of the fiscal year to make bond debt service payments, and would provide certain conditions for the flow of funds for repayment of Texas agricultural water conservation bonds.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows:

"The constitutional amendment relating to the authorization to the Texas Water Development Board to transfer existing bond authorizations for water supply, water quality, flood control, or state participation from one category of use to another category to maximize the use of existing funds and relating to more efficient operation of the bond programs."

PROPOSITION NO. 8 ON THE BALLOT

House Joint Resolution 31 proposes a constitutional amendment which would authorize home equity lending, in which a loan could be secured by a lien against the borrower's homestead. The amendment would also establish several provisions providing for consumer protection in the home equity lending process.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows:

"The amendment to the Texas Constitution expanding the types of liens for home equity loans that a lender, with the homeowner's consent, may place against a homestead."

PROPOSITION NO. 9 ON THE BALLOT

House Joint Resolution 96 proposes a constitutional amendment that would authorize the legislature to authorize a property tax of five cents for each $100 valuation in rural fire prevention districts which are located in Harris County. The constitution currently authorizes a property tax of three cents for each $100 valuation in rural fire prevention districts regardless of what county they are in.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows:

"The constitutional amendment to authorize the legislature to authorize an ad valorem tax rate in rural fire prevention districts located in Harris County of five cents on each $100 of taxable value of property."

PROPOSITION NO. 10 ON THE BALLOT

Senate Joint Resolution 33 proposes a constitutional amendment to permanently dedicate monies from the Texas Crime Victims' Compensation Fund (and its auxiliary fund) so that they are used only for assisting victims of crime and not for any other purpose. If an episode of mass violence occurred, however, money from the funds could be used to assist victims of the mass violence if all other sources of authorized emergency assistance were depleted first.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows:

"The constitutional amendment designating the purposes for which money in the compensation to victims of crime fund and the compensation to victims of crime auxiliary fund may be used."

PROPOSITION NO. 11 ON THE BALLOT

House Joint Resolution 59 proposes a constitutional amendment to prohibit the Legislature from authorizing additional state debt payable from the general revenue fund if the resulting annual debt service (the amount needed each year to make payments) would exceed five percent of the annual general revenue available over the last three fiscal years, excluding revenues constitutionally dedicated for purposes other than payment of state debt.

The term "additional state debt" does not include bonds that, although backed by the full faith and credit of the state, are reasonably expected to be paid from revenue sources other than the general revenue fund.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows:

"The constitutional amendment limiting the amount of state debt payable from the general revenue fund."

PROPOSITION NO. 12 ON THE BALLOT

House Joint Resolution 55 proposes a constitutional amendment to provide that if the Texas Supreme Court does not act on a motion for a rehearing within 180 days of the motion's filing, the motion is denied.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows:

"The constitutional amendment to establish a deadline for supreme court action on a motion for rehearing."

PROPOSITION NO. 13 ON THE BALLOT

House Joint Resolution 8 proposes a constitutional amendment to establish the Texas Tomorrow trust fund dedicated exclusively to the prepayment of tuition and fees for higher education. The amendment would guarantee that if there is not enough money during any fiscal year to pay the appropriate tuition and required fees, the needed money will be appropriated out of the first available money coming into the state treasury each fiscal year.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows:

"The constitutional amendment to encourage persons to plan and save for young Texans' college education, to extend the full faith and credit of the state to protect the Texas tomorrow fund of the prepaid higher education tuition program, and to establish the Texas tomorrow fund as a constitutionally protected trust fund."

PROPOSITION NO. 14 ON THE BALLOT

House Joint Resolution 83 proposes a constitutional amendment to allow the legislature to set the official qualifications for constables.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows:

"The constitutional amendment to allow the legislature to prescribe the qualifications of constables."

Estos son los informes explicatorios sobre las enmiendas propuestas a la constitución que aparecerán en la boleta el 4 de noviembre de 1997. Facts About The BIBLE BY JOHN LEHTI

THE PRIEST WHO KILLED!

PHINEHAS THE PRIEST, WHO WAS THE GRANDSON OF THE HIGH PRIEST, AARON, WAS SO ANGERED WHEN HE SAW ZIMRI, A PRINCE OF ISRAEL, TAKE A MIDIANITISH WOMAN INTO HIS TENT FOR LICENTIOUS PURPOSES THAT HE TOOK UP A JAVELIN AND WENT AFTER THEM INTO THE TENT AND THRUST THEM THROUGH! THIS, ACCORDING TO MOSES, PUT A STOP TO THE PLAGUE THAT THE LORD HAD PLACED ON ISRAEL FOR COMMITTING WHOREDOM WITH THE DAUGHTERS OF MOAB? AN EVERLASTING PRIESTHOOD WAS PROMISED TO HIM FOR THIS DEED! Scooter's Scoops

By SCOOTER RUSSELL

We're happy for Richard and Anita Bonham, as they have a baby boy, born Thursday, September 4 at 12:47 p.m. and this is the couple's first child. He weighed six pounds, seven ounces and measured eighteen inches long.

The baby has been named Kolby Ray and his only grandparents are Luis and Felicitas Serna. He has wonderful grandparents and oodles of nieces and nephews in Bovina, so he's off to a good start!

Pat Turner suffered injuries in a fall at the First Baptist Church, Sunday morning.

She is a patient in Methodist Hospital in Lubbock and I talked with her Tuesday morning.

Pat was coming down the stairs of the balcony and the steps are narrow and steep, plus no rail to

Bonhams Welcome Baby Boy

Richard and Anita Bonham of Bovina announced the birth of baby boy Kolby Ray Bonham.

Kolby was born September 4 at 12:47 p.m. at Plains Regional Medical Center in Clovis.

He weighed in at 6 pounds 7 ounces and was 18 1/2 inches tall.

He has a brother, Jimmy Bonham, and grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Luis Serna, Sr., of Bovina.

hold onto at the top. She said she broke her ankle in three places and had suffered pain like she had never known before. She was first taken to the hospital in Friona then transferred to Lubbock due to the compound fracture and was put in a split cast and a pin was put in her ankle, but will have to have another cast later.

She will have to be hospitalized three to five days and maybe more. Pain medicine is given to her by "IVs" to get relief but it is still very uncomfortable.

Pat is a teacher and she said some of the teachers had been walking the halls for exercise but she can't walk on the foot for three months.

She said the only thing good about it all was that no one saw her fall.

Paul and Ola Lee Jones have recently returned from a trip to East Texas.

They went to Mt. Pleasant and attended a birthday celebration for a "kissing cousin," Ola Lee said. She is Mary Lou Field Carr of Grand Prairie.

Ola Lee said nearly all their relatives lived in that area and both she and Paul grew up there. They were able to see from seventy to eighty members of their family and had a great time.

Ola Lee's parents, Charlie and Dixie Callaway, moved to the Rhea community back in 1928 and her dad was a farmer. Ola Lee's only brother, Robert, passed away about three years ago and he, too, lived in Bovina.

Artie Faye O'Hair called to tell me about her brother-in-law, Ross O'Hair of Wellington, who died of cancer and funeral services were held Friday of last week at the First Baptist Church in Wellington.

Ross was survived by his wife, Sally, children and grandchildren. He also had two sisters and a brother. He was the late Fred O'Hair's brother.

Nelline Spicer had a good day last Sunday. She went to Hereford and attended church with her daughter and family, Nena and Mike Veazey, and daughter, Kylee. Following church, the family had dinner at the Country Club in Hereford.

Erra Jamerson had to return to Dallas for further treatment after her recent heart surgery. She spent a week in the Dallas hospital but is home once again and feeling much better. She flew to Lubbock when she returned home and son, Ricky, picked her up at the airport.

We had a rather unusual medical problem with our little seven month old granddaughter, Nicki, of Spearman.

When she was three months old, she had a growth appear on her little ear lobe, that kept growing. After several different doctors examined her, it was decided surgery was necessary even though they don't like to put a baby under a year old completely to sleep.

She had the surgery last week at the outpatient facility of Baptist St. Anthony Hospital in Amarillo. They removed the growth and tests showed that the marble sized cyst was caused by an ingrown hair.

This took only thirty minutes, eighteen tiny stitches and $5,000.

SMILE:

A little boy came home from playing ball with a disgusted look on his face. When his father asked him what was wrong, he replied, "I was traded."

"That shouldn't make you feel bad. All the big baseball players get traded."

"I know," replied the boy, "but I was traded for a glove."

Have a great week.... Thank you for helping with the Scoops.
