Reading.—Mr. John Garrett.
Recitation.—Miss Fay Collier.
Reading.—Miss Rosa King.
Talk.—Mrs. C. Bovels.
Reading.—Miss Lala Emmons.
Programme for Junior C. E. S.
Leader.—Mattie W. C. Fowell, Cash.
Reading.—Irene Franklin.
Recitation.—Lora Franklin.
Reading.—Robt Schwartz.
Reading.—Pearl Parry.

These programmes will be rendered at the C. P. Church Sunday November 4th. The Senior at 4 p. m. and the Junior at 3 p. m. All cordially invited to attend.

The above programme are only a part of the exercises that will be enjoyed at the church.

The young people, and older ones as well, should attend the Senior Society because there is no better place to go at that hour; you will get food for thought and truth upon which to build character.

The children should attend the Junior Society, because it is a pleasant and instructive meeting for them. They will gather there where that will last. They will learn to exercise in public and are always in good company. Come next Sunday and see if you don't enjoy these meetings. Attend either one or both, they only last one hour each and you will not get tired.

GERMAN GREETING

In the Form of a Serenade is Given Nebraska at Houston.

FATHERLAND SONGS RENDERED

By Five Thousand of Them. The Lamented Republic to Its Citizens.

New York, Oct. 27.—W. J. Bryan Friday concluded his campaign tour of the state of New Jersey. His day was a successful one in that the crowds which he addressed were both active and of fair size, but the majority of them were neither so large, nor so demonstrative as those of New York.

The tour was made over the Delaware and Lackawanna railroad and the towns at which speeches were made were Hoboken, Harrison, Orange, Summit, Montross, Easton, Paterson, Belleville, Newark, Trenton, Philadelphia (three) and Dover. In reality Mr. Bryan's Thursday work extended into Friday for he did not retire until morning and about 2 o'clock, and the day was the last of the series. When he reached his hotel in Hoboken, after his carriage tour of the city, he found about 500 German citizens awaiting his arrival. They presented him a serenade and sang several of the songs of the Fatherland.

Mr. Bryan is highly gratified with the New Jersey campaign. He says that he is an ardent student of the day at Dover. His speech at that point lasted about an hour and was made to a large crowd. He referred in his speech to the republicanism of the effect that he made a longer but his campaign speech, saying:

"According to the Republicans, they say that I am an ardent student of the day at Dover. His speech at that point lasted about an hour and was made to a large crowd. He referred in his speech to the republicanism of the effect that he made a longer but his campaign speech, saying:

DEALY'S STATEMENT.

The Chairman of the Galveston Relief Committee Reports.

Galveston, Tex., Oct. 27.—Following is the report of Mr. John Dealy, treasurer of the Galveston Relief Fund, made to the Galveston Relief Fund. Contributions received to Oct. 15, inclusive, were $1,140,569.

For labor 124,554
Supplies 65,500
Special donations placed as indicated by the committee 2,525
Drifts returned 710
Transportation of cadavers 1,585
Hospital 2,000
Incidentals 290

Total expense to date $193,231
Funds set aside—
For repairing and building homes $100,000
Tools, etc. 30,000
School books 10,000
Total disbursed and set aside $78,231

Balances cash on hand $612,160
The committee has set aside an additional $100,000 for the building funds, $142,500 to pay remaining labor claims, ordered the distribution of $300,000 to defray food sufferers who left homes or contents, and ordered the remaining funds held as a special reserve, not to be expended until Jan. 1, 1901.

Being Proposed.
Capt. Wm. Hugh Smith, of the William Bolles, who have been for weeks working with the Harris county relief committee, are now giving the finishing touches to their reports to be forwarded to Gov. Wainwright. His reports are to show how much money and merchandise they handled and from whom it was bought. His reports will be very exhaustive. They will be forwarded in a day or two. Mrs. Quailrough, Mrs. Saxe and the other ladies who have been working in connection with the Harris county relief committee, are well at work disposing of supplies and money they donated, among Harris county sufferers. They had a large number of applicants and have been busy all the forenoon and most of the afternoon.

They received word this noon in the shape of an application for space in the hall, that Miss Clara Barton; the noble Red Cross worker would be here shortly to join in the work of helping to needy.

The space was readily accorded. They, however, did not learn the plans of Mrs. Barton, nor how she will carry on her work, nor what territory she proposed to add. There is, however, plenty of room in the large hall for her to work separately if they should deem it best.

Nobody Was Injured.
Kennett, Tex., Oct. 27.—A head and collar accident occurred here today. A freight train, both engines No. 63 and 41, being badly torn up, together with several cars of cotton and machinery. A car of iron machinery was next to one of the engine, but none was killed.

The scene of the accident is about five yards from the bridge. The wreckage caught fire, but was quickly extinguished. None of the train crew were injured.

Greatly Thought.
Hempstead, Tex., Oct. 27.—The relief committee in winding up affairs here. It seems that there was more loss of life and property than was at first supposed. Many homes were destroyed, and little is to be seen except ruin and desolation. The worst yet to come. The county has a large colored population. Many of them are without money, yet they are trying to do the best they can. A large majority have gone to the cotton fields of north Texas.

Creditors Meet.
Houston, Tex., Oct. 27.—Mayor J. C. Smith, today was here. He was the guest of the creditors of T. M. Richardson & Son. There were present over two-thirds of the creditors, and Mr. T. M. Richardson, Jr., was present as well as the condition of affairs. The trustee, Edgar Watkins, reported the sale of lumber and livestock to W. R. Smith of Houston for $750. The report was approved. The condition of affairs was reported by the trustee.

On Bond Success.
Austin, Tex., Oct. 27.—Mayor J. C. Smith, today was here. He was the guest of the creditors of T. M. Richardson & Son. There were present over two-thirds of the creditors, and Mr. T. M. Richardson, Jr., was present as well as the condition of affairs. The trustee, Edgar Watkins, reported the sale of lumber and livestock to W. R. Smith of Houston for $750. The report was approved. The condition of affairs was reported by the trustee.

SAVINGS and DOINGS

Face Muff for Football Players

Now that the football season is approaching, parents will begin to worry about broken noses and disfigured faces, without thought of the fact that past experience have proved. Perhaps the nose and mouth guard illustrated below will be the means of preventing the breaking of a face or two. The guard only touches the head at the forehead and chin, where it is provided with inflated rubber rings, which would deaden the force of any blow that fell on the face. The attachment to the head is made by strong elastic straps, which can be tightened to the right position, and the supple chin portion of the guard prevents any side motion or accidental displacement. As the guard does not come in contact with the mouth or nose it will not interfere with the breathing in the least.

The Late Charles Dudley Warner.

Charles Dudley Warner, who died in Hartford, Conn., last week, was born at Plainfield, Mass., on Sept. 7, 1825. He was graduated from Hamilton College in 1845. While in college he contributed to the magazine and at his graduation received the prize in English. In 1853 he was a member of a surveying party employed on the Missouri frontier. In 1854 he entered the law department of the University of Pennsylvania, was graduated in 1856, and for four years practiced in Chicago. He accepted a position as assistant editor of the Hartford Press in 1860, and was assistant editor the following year, and in 1862, the Oriental solidation of the Press with the Hartford Press. In 1864 he became one of the editors of the Hartford Magazine. He has traveled widely in Europe, the Orient, United States, Canada and Mexico. He was an abolitionist previous to the civil war, and was always a member of the Republican party. He always took an active interest in prison reform and verily extreme. He received the degree of A. M. in 1872 from Harvard and from Dartmouth (1874). He first appeared before the public as an author in 1870, and his writings, which have been very popular, have all been marked by grace, subtle charm and great versatility. Among his best known works are "My Summer in a Garden," "Backus Studies," "1872," "Winters on the Nile," "1878," "Being a Year, 1877," and "Our Daily." In 1873 he wrote, in collaboration with Samuel Clemens, "The Gilded Age," the most serious story that was afterward dramatized. His works displayed humor and paradox, always tinged with a native fancy that sometimes would rise into imagination and satire. He was never active and sarcasm that was never average.

Among the stories being told of Joseph Chamberlain is one to the effect that while in Paris some time ago he was an exceedingly rare orchid. Mr. Chamberlain, who is an enthusiast in the matter of orchids, asked its price: "Twenty pounds ($100)," said the florist, "and it is the only specimen in France. Chamberlain paid over the money and tore up the beautiful flower, saying: 'I have a duplicate in my own collection and I object to a Frenchman owning this.'"

W. P. Dillingham.

PURELY PERSONAL

Princess Eulalia Aja.

Princess Eulalia will be remembered as the Spanish girl of royalty who honored the World's Fair with her personal presence. Her late husband, the Prince Antonio, son of the Duc de Montpensier, was in Chicago with her in 1893, but attracted little attention. This couple had a son who remains in the care of the Princess at Valencia. She is now the wife for many Princess Eulalia. Years only third in the succession to the throne of Spain. She was popular at Madrid, and it was openly said that she would have made a better queen than her sister-in-law, Christina. That, however, was before the latter had been tried with the expectation that she would be deposed her to the Spanish throne. The princess was married when she was twenty years old, and she is now on the steady side of 49. For some time past her home has been either in England or France. With the political life of Spain she has had very little to do since her own chances of ascending the throne disappeared. At the age of 19 she is called in Paris "a gay duck," and as having an eye for a great man things not approved by royalty or even common people. When in Chicago he appeared to be a devoted husband.

Colonel Marchand being leaving Paris has a remarkable landlord. He has a flat near the great office building, and he is now on the steady side of 49. For some time past her home has been either in England or France. With the political life of Spain she has had very little to do since her own chances of ascending the throne disappeared. At the age of 19 she is called in Paris "a gay duck," and as having an eye for a great man things not approved by royalty or even common people. When in Chicago he appeared to be a devoted husband.

Roosevelt as an Author.

Lord Bessborough is about to publish a book on the "Napoleon—The Last Phase," a study of the emperor during the closing years of his life at St. Helena. With the political life of Spain she has had very little to do since her own chances of ascending the throne disappeared. At the age of 19 she is called in Paris "a gay duck," and as having an eye for a great man things not approved by royalty or even common people. When in Chicago he appeared to be a devoted husband.

LOUIS MONROVIER.

(Former Premier of England is to Publish a Book on Napoleon.)

The earl, however, has marked history and success for his work on Napoleon on his own merits. Roosevelt is a deep student. He has a master actor of much ability and a fine raconteur. Still he is not a socialite man in the usual sense of the word. He is a quiet, steady, and at Montmore he leads a lonely life, fond of reading fiction and acquiring a taste for practically 1,700,000 inhabitants, and Philadelphia, which hold second and third places in 1900, the same as in 1890, although as the census of 1890 their positions were reversed. Philadelphia then having nearly 800,000 inhabitants, as compared with not much more than 500,000 for Chicago.

Among the most notable changes in the rank of cities which have taken place in 1900, as compared with 1890, is that of Seattle, which has advanced from the 150th to the 48th place; Los Angeles, from the 134th to the 56th place; Duluth, from the 124th to the 123rd place; Kansas City, Kan., from the 123rd to the 76th place, and Portland, Ore., from the 104th to the 42nd place. Other notable changes in rank from 1890 to 1900 are Birmingham, from 154th to 91st; Tacoma, from 155th to 103rd; Spokane, from 172nd to 102nd; Dallas, from 177th to 83rd, and Saginaw, from 195th to 57th.

CENSUS OF CITIES.

Some of the Figures in Connection Therewith.

ONE OF GREAT MUNICIPALITIES

Becomes Greater New York. While Numerous Places Have Had a Very Decided Growth.

Washington, Oct. 28.—The census bureau in a bulletin issued summarizes the returns of population of cities having 25,000 inhabitants or more in 1900, the individual census of each of these cities having been announced heretofore.

There are 159 of these, and the bulletin shows that the percentage of increase in their population from 1890 to 1900 was 22.5 as against 42.5 for the same cities in the previous decade. The absolute increase in the population of these cities from 1890 to 1900 was 4,825,152 less than the absolute increase from 1880 to 1890, when it was 4,921,562. The 159 cities combined had 44,885,459 in 1890 and 59,943,227 in 1900.

Of these 159 cities divided into four classes, 19 had 200,000 and over, 19 had 100,000 and over, 200,000 to 400,000 and under 190,000, and 11 had 25,000 and under 100,000.

In 1880 there were but twenty cities of 100,000 and more than 100,000 inhabitants, but in 1890 this number had increased to twenty-eight, and in 1900 to thirty-eight.

There are 159 of these, and the bulletin shows that the percentage of increase in their population from 1890 to 1900 was 22.5 as against 42.5 for the same cities in the previous decade. The absolute increase in the population of these cities from 1890 to 1900 was 4,825,152 less than the absolute increase from 1880 to 1890, when it was 4,921,562. The 159 cities combined had 44,885,459 in 1890 and 59,943,227 in 1900.

The combined population in 1900 of the sixteen cities of the first class was 17,792,809 as against a population in 1890 of 8,870,105, representing an increase of 99.2 per cent. The same cities in 1880 had a population of 2,567,452, or 68.6 per cent.

The sixteen cities of the first class were New York, which with more than 2,000,000 inhabitants outside of the state by two cities, Chicago and Philadelphia, each of which has a population of more than a million, three cities, St. Louis, Boston and Baltimore, which have a population of half a million each; five cities, Cleveland, San Francisco, Cincinnati and Pittsburgh, which have a population of between 500,000 and 400,000 each; and eight cities, New Orleans, St. Paul, Milwaukee, Washington, St. Paul, N. J., Jersey City, Louisville and Minneapolis, which have a population of between 200,000 and 300,000 each.

New York, under the act of consolidation which became effective Jan. 1, 1898, has grown to be a city of very nearly 3,500,000 inhabitants in 1900, as compared with a population for 1890 of 2,097,000, which was formerly New York city of a little more than 1,500,000 in 1890, and of substantially 1,200,000 in 1880. The population of the territory now comprised within the limits of New York was approximately 2,500,000 in 1880 and 1,900,000 in 1890. It is the pre-eminence of the country in point of population, a position which it has uniformly held at each decennial census since and including 1790.

Chicago, with practically 1,700,000 inhabitants, and Philadelphia, which hold second and third places in 1900, the same as in 1890, although as the census of 1890 their positions were reversed. Philadelphia then having nearly 800,000 inhabitants, as compared with not much more than 500,000 for Chicago.

Other notable changes in rank from 1890 to 1900 are Birmingham, from 154th to 91st; Tacoma, from 155th to 103rd; Spokane, from 172nd to 102nd; Dallas, from 177th to 83rd, and Saginaw, from 195th to 57th.

AS WAS WELL RECEIVED.

The Democratic Presidential Nominee in W. V. Belmont.

Jersey City, N. J., Oct. 28.—The first day of Mr. Bryan's tour of New Jersey was a successful one. His meetings Thursday, may be described as a mad rush. From the time he entered Washington Park, opposite Philadelphia, and on his way to the meetings Thursday, he had made five speeches. The average of their duration was greater than usual. He spoke in succession at Washington Park, Haverhill, Trenton, Trenton (twice), Princeton Junction, New Brunswick, Elizabeth, Marlton and Jersey City (six times).

His tour through the state was a surprise to those accompanying Mr. Bryan, if not to him, for new states, if any, has had larger or more demonstrative audiences. His meeting at Washington Park was almost a record breaker in both these respects, and his reception in Trenton and his reception in this city were second only to the Washington park meeting in numbers and in feeling displayed.

Probably no candidate for the presidency was ever so well posted and pushed around in one day's time as Mr. Bryan was. At most stopping places he was found it impossible to protect him from the hundreds, not to say thousands of persons who thronged his pathway and followed him wherever he went.

Begin Negotiations.
Washington, Oct. 28.—Minister Conger has begun negotiations with the Chinese envoys on the basis of the points in the German and French statements. His meeting at Washington park was almost a record breaker in both these respects, and his reception in Trenton and his reception in this city were second only to the Washington park meeting in numbers and in feeling displayed.

Probably no candidate for the presidency was ever so well posted and pushed around in one day's time as Mr. Bryan was. At most stopping places he was found it impossible to protect him from the hundreds, not to say thousands of persons who thronged his pathway and followed him wherever he went.

Baird and Callahan County's ONLY GOODS, AND CLOTHING STORE!

We Sell More Dry Goods, Clothing, Shoes, Etc., and We Carry More Dry Goods, and We Have more Customers, than all the balance of Callahan Co.

The Reason for all this is: We carry the Largest Stock—this pleases the Trade. We Sell Goods Cheaper than any one else—this holds the Trade. Everytime we sell a Dollar's Worth We give you One Hundred Cents Worth of Goods, and have done so for the past 15 years, and you can't show a man with 3 in a family, in Callahan County, but what is my customer this year, and I defy it to be done.

BUT YET I WANT TO SELL MORE GOODS AND TO DO THIS I HAVE LOWERED THE PRICE OF EVERYTHING IN MY HOUSE.

In my Dress Goods Department you will find over 3,000 yards of the best brands of Calico ranging from 2 1/2 to 5c per yard.

In Wool Dress Goods our shelves are full and nearly breaking with the finest the market produces, such as Broadcloth, Coverts, Dress Flannels, Silks and Satins, and anything you may name that pertains to this department.

UNDERWARE I have the best 50c Men's Underware ever seen in Baird, I also have all wool goods for $1 that others ask you $1.50 for. Ladies Vests worth 50c. for only 25c. Other articles in proportion.

Millinery Goods,
In this department we will guarantee satisfaction, as Mrs. Miller has it in charge, and you all know her too well for me to say anything else in regard to this magnificent line.

In Domestic, we have hales upon hales on hand to sell you for only 3 1/2c per yard.

Clothing,
My Clothing Department is the grandest ever seen in Baird. I have a suit of clothes for every man and boy in Callahan Co., all I ask is to come and look at my Goods—if you want good goods—if you want shoddy goods go some where else.

No Trouble to Show Goods.

DEPARTMENT.

As For The Shoe Department

We have a tremendous stock, the neatest, the nicest, the finest the market affords, Vici Kid Silk Vesting Top, or anything you may want in the shoe line. We have a Ladies Shoe for $2.50 that none can equal in West Texas, call for the "Sophia" brand, style durability and comfort all combined. All kinds and colors in the Children's Department. In the Men's department we have anything you may call for, our $1.50 shoes is finer, neater and nicer than any in the West. Every pair guaranteed to be solid leather—no paper or pasteboard, or your money refunded. Can you beat that.

My Boot Department is also Crowded, Come Look Through our Stock.

In Conclusion, I want your trade, I will give you more for each dollar than any other house. So come to headquarters, No trouble to Show Goods.

T. E. Powell.

LOCAL NEWS

W. R. Harrell, of Dudley, was in town this week.

John Bloom, of Deep Creek, was in town, Monday.

Isham G. Harris, of Eagle Cove, was in town Monday.

J. L. McLaughlin has moved back to Baird, and is working for J. B. Maxwell.

District Court convened last Monday Judge Lindsay and District Attorney Spann present.

Mr. and Mrs. Pressley are visiting their daughter, Mrs. W. V. Hamilton, at Eskota, Texas.

Mose Jones was up last Thursday, and by the way, we notice he has lost his whiskers again.

Mrs. Corbett and other ladies of Baird, shipped a large box of clothing to Galveston flood sufferers, Monday.

Rev. J. S. Chapman, Presiding Elder of the M. E. Church, South, preached at the Methodist church last Sunday.

Two persons will certainly win a year's subscription to THE STAR if some one may win five years subscription. Read our other and get your guess in by next Monday. Open to all alike, whether subscribers or not.

Henry Sackett, the well known Coleman county merchant, called at this STAR office Tuesday to renew old acquaintance with this scribble begun nearly thirty years ago. Mr. Sackett has changed some since we last met twenty years ago. We are glad to know that Mr. Sackett has succeeded in business, first at old Camp Colorado and later at Bartlett. He is up attending court as a witness.

W. G. Crowder, formerly of Baird, but now of Spanish, Texas, is in town visiting relatives. Mr. Crowder says they have a fine country and everything is booming in his section. We learn from him that they have an industry not generally known. They have two or three cement works, one of which is the largest in the world, and have an inexhaustible supply of raw material to work on. The cement is used for plastering interior walls, but will not stand water. The works are kept busy all the time.

FULTON'S BARBER SHOP.

For An Easy Shave and Stylish Hair Cut, SHAMPOOING, HAIR DRESSING, etc. We open every day, and have a full stock of McFarlane's Shave Cream, Courtenay's Hair Oil and Fulton's Hair Dressing. Agent Model Steam Laundry. Laundry Basket Leaves Wednesday. All Work Guaranteed.

J. F. Luce, of Cottonwood, called at THE STAR office Tuesday and left two dollars on back subscription and one dollar for a year in advance. The difference between Mr. Luce and some others is that he did not blame us for his subscription getting behind. He said hard times had prevented him from paying up before, but that he had made a good crop this year and could pay up, and thanked us for waiting on him, all of which is appreciated, and Mr. Luce can get THE STAR as long as he wants it with or without the money, because we know he will pay when he can. We have lots of others just like him, but merely mention his name to emphasize a point, and it is this, help THE STAR when you can and THE STAR will return the favor.

FRESH YEAST.—I have fresh yeast for sale at all times. MRS. E. K. KANE.

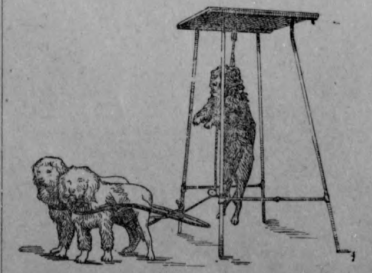

We sent out lots of bills last week, and our subscribers are responding liberally. Of course in sending out so many bills, made out hurriedly, it is natural that some mistakes should occur, but we have invariable rectified such errors when notified of them. We have some amusing bills with names of those who are several years in arrears. One or two dollars don't look big, but let it run up to ten and twelve dollars it looks huge to the subscriber and the mischief of it is, in many instances, the subscribers show a disposition to lay the blame on us. Of course we can not help it, as we are always anxious to give credit each year, but if eight or ten years elapse without payment, it is our fault. Well, naturally. Look over your account and if you know it is incorrect, notify us as soon as possible. We have two objects in view in sending out accounts, and the first is to collect, of course, and the next is to get every subscriber's account absolutely correct.

STAR FREE.

Do you think you know how the election is going Tuesday week? If you do make out your guess on that. This Star no later than Monday, November 20th. Our proposition is this:

First—To the person who will guess the exact number of Electoral votes (not popular vote) that either Bryan or McKinley will receive, we will give a year's subscription to each.

Second—To the two persons coming nearest the electoral vote, either Bryan or McKinley will receive, we will give a year's subscription to each.

Two persons will certainly win on the last proposition, provided as many as two send in guesses. Try it. It will not cost you anything but a two cent stamp.

Cut out the map and blank and make your guess on that. Write plain so there can be no mistake about your name or figure. Give your name and P. O. address.
