Did you ever stop to think that as you sit perfectly still in one spot on this old earth, you are traveling in five different directions at once?

In the first place, as the earth spins on its axis, you will be 1,-000 miles further East an hour from now than you are right this minute. In the second place, in one minute from now you will be 1,200 miles farther away in some other direction as the earth whirls around the sun at 20 miles per second. In the third place, in one minute from now you will be 780 miles from here in a direction different from the first two as the sun revolves around its star system at the rate of 13 miles a second carrying the earth with it. In the fourth place, the star system, with you in it, is moving in the Milky Way at the rate of 200 miles a second and in one minute from now that will put you 12,000 miles farther away in still another direction. In the fifth place, the entire Milky Way carrying the sun and its star system along ,is traveling in another direction at a speed not yet determined by scinetists.

And here we are, in the midst of all this, and if you are like us, you don't feel very big or

Ranger Hit By Coldest Spell Of the Winter

The weather which Ranger citizbeen the coldest of the entire winand sleet and other things associat-ings even lower. The sharp wind hasn't helped things any because it not only plays havoc on the outside but causes the inside of stores and houses to be colder because it manages to get under windows and through cracks around the doors.

Elsewhere in the country they ecorded the lowest thermometer readings in history this side of Lower Slobovia when the mercury reached 55 degrees below zero in Central New York State and then froze at that point. Everything in the northern and eastern and western parts of the US has been cov ered with snow and freezing rain, and treacherous mixtures of snow and sleet and rain combined. There has been no moisture anywhere in Texas with the exception of a few spots on the coast where it rained in small amounts in scattered places.

Working On Another Eastland County Asset

THIS HUGE ROCK CRUSHER is set up near the Staff bridge on the Eastland-Staff road and is crushing rock for the road-building project on the far side of Lake Leon. It takes a fleet of some 20 fast gravel trucks to keep ahead of the machine, and actually the trucks have damaged a large part of the road that had been previously built. But these hills and small mountains of rock are just more assets for Eastland County and there is probably enough of this commodity here to put a rock base on every new road in the state for many years to come. If the picture is dim, the whole operation was almost covered with a cloud of dust when the picture was taken. (Capps Studio Print)

Recreation Meet Held By Mansker Lake Community

Recreation for old and young alike was the program schedule carried out at the first meeting of the new year, and members of the Mansker Lake Community group pronounced it a success. Elmer E. Blackwell is chairman of the group. All business is set aside for the first meeting in each month and everybody has an opportunity to join in the fun of entertaining or being entertained. Richard Tucker gave the involution, and Alton Underwood led the group in singing several songs. John Love presided in the absence of Mr. Blackwell.

A welcome reading was given by tiny four-year-old Nancy White.

A quartet of girls, Rita and Jessie Underwood, Loresta Love and Patsy Nail, sang hymns and novel-Outstanding performance by a trio of youngsters, Susan, Wayne, and Zach White of Gunsight, a sister and brothers combinationbrought the house down in ap-plause with their excellent singing. This group of visiting young singers were secured for the program by Mrs. John Love, program leader for the meeting.

At the close of the song-fest, re-freshments of sandwiches and hot chocolate were served to the 40 or more persons attending.

Indian Mountain Club Studies Gardens Tuesday

"A well planned garden is a source of food the year round, with the many kinds of vegetables and fruits that can be grown successfully in the family garden plot' was the statement made by the home demonstration agent, Mrs. Mary Jo Blackwell, to members of the Indian Mountain Home Demonstration Club, during a lesson on gardening at the club's first meeting of the new year, at the club rooms.

The growing of tomatoes, with emphasis on selection of seed, preparation of soil, variety of kind pest suited to the area, climate, innoculation of seed, and cultivation of tomatoes was discussed at ength during the lesson period.

Mrs. Blackwell, who met with the Indian Mountain club for the first time Tuesday, was introduced by the club president, Mrs. Lee Anglin. Mrs. Henry Iley gave the devotional and led a short recreation program, followed by a roll call and reading of minutes by Mrs. E. L. Curb, secretary. Announcement of committee members to meet at one o'clock Monday, at the County HD Council meeting were made. Mrs. Bill Tucker, chairman of the County Council Recreation Committee attended the council committee meet-

He said the vaccine is now in plentiful supply, "but it doesn't do any good in the bottle." National vaccine supply sources have indicated that enough of the protective fluid is on hand to vaccinate anyone desiring it, regardless of

As the year ended, a total of 732 cases of polio in its paralytic form had been registered in Texas for 1956. Of that number only 48 were reported as having received at least one shot. Only two had received all three shots.

Dr. Holle also appealed to parents of children who had received one or two shots to be sure the youngsters completed the third shot on schedule.

"The vaccine may give over 90 percent protection when all three shots are administered as recom-mended." The recommended sequence calls for the second shot to be given a month after the first, and the third shot seven months after the second.

The commissioner called for a concentrated drive throughout the state to get "all Texans-from infancy to maturity and beyond" to begin the three-shot series at once. 'It is a major medical miracle that so many people have been vaccinated in such a short space of time, but we cannot rest on that laurel with less than 10 percent of the job done and with another polio season coming up," the commissioner said.

with Purina's modern caged hen plan...

you can build steady year-round income...

Producing eggs with caged hens the Purina way has caught the fancy of hundreds of poultrymen for these reasons:

Constant culling and replacement help keep production steady and high. Hens produce each dozen eggs on about 20% less feed than average. Assembly-line type operation greatly reduces labor needed to feed, cull, gather eggs, and clean. No previous poultry experience is necessary-if you follow simple instructions available at our store. Caged hens can be handled efficiently on fulltime (commercial) or part-time (family) basis.

Purina was the leader in introducing caged hens to the Southeast. Purina Chows are used by most cage operators in this area because they have found them profitable. We always have fresh Cage Hen Chows, as well as detailed instructions and service to help you succeed in, and enjoy, your caged hen business. See us now and learn about this new way to make a steady year-round income.

Chevrolet shows you some important differences in low-priced cars just by the look on its face!

There's a look of substance and character and quality about that new Chevrolet front end that reveals a lot. Feel the strength and solidity of the grille and you learn even more.

Wouldn't you say that most of the '57 cars look good from 50 feet away, but what about from 50 inches away? What does a close-up of the grille tell you, for example? Is it solidly made like the new Chevrolet grille? Or, in comparison does it look less rich in design-feel less strong and solid? Compare the quality and construction of the bumpers and headlights, the fit of the chrome

The more closely you look all around the car, the more clearly you'll see that Chevrolet has the edge in the way it's put together. You'll find, for instance, that Chevrolet is the only car in its field with a lacquer finish . . . that only Chevrolet Bel Air models give you foam rubber cushions in front and rear seats as standard equipment. These are just a by Fisher. And Chevrolet, you know, is the only low-priced car that has a Fisher Body.

We'll be glad to give you a closeup, comparative look at this new Chevy any time you care to come in. This week, maybe?
