

Bull Town Bulle- tins

By Bill Ellis

AMERICANS have always enjoyed having hometown heroes. We were reminded of this recently on our bus trip, when we made a stop at Henryetta, Oklahoma.

Quick! What "famous American" hails from Henryetta, Oklahoma? Why, it's Troy Aikman, of course.

Our Trailways tour guides took us to a large McDonald's just off Interstate 40, as they figured the men in the group would enjoy seeing a display at the restaurant. One wing of the McDonald's was practically a "Troy Aikman Museum."

They had everything from a faded, slightly torn jersey that Aikman had worn while playing sports in junior high, to all of the newspaper and magazine articles leading up to his starring role in leading the Dallas Cowboys to two Super Bowl championships.

Someone had gone to a lot of trouble to collect the Aikman memorabilia and create the display for the travelling public. If you're a Troy Aikman fan, and you ever go through Henryetta, be sure to stop at the McDonald's. You'll enjoy looking at the Aikman display.

Several of our Panhandle/South Plains towns have their own local heroes, and many of them have figured out ways to capitalize on their local boy who made good.

Turkey, Texas, for instance, came up with Bob Wills Days several years ago, to honor their hero, the king of Western Swing music. Hundreds of Bob Wills fans, and probably a number who couldn't tell you a single one of Wills' recordings, converge on Turkey every year for the celebration.

Littlefield is the hometown of Waylon Jennings, and every so often during the city's summer celebration, the old "Outlaw" himself comes to town and gives a free concert.

Jennings, who is about the same age of Ye Editor, told a reporter at his last appearance that he enjoys coming back and looking around at the old places that were such a vital part of his growing-up years. "I guess I'm trying to rediscover my youth," Jennings said.

Lee Horsley hails from Muleshoe, and they take advantage of this with the signs proudly proclaiming the fact as you approach the city. Horsley, of course, is the good-looking TV actor who starred in "Matt Houston," "Hawkeye" and "Guns of Paradise" shows. He still pops up occasionally in a starring role, and is proud of his Muleshoe roots.

Lubbock can lay claim as the hometown of several well-known personalities, such as Buddy Holly and Mac Davis, actor Joe Ely, and Governor Preston Smith, who managed to get a number of "perks" for this area, including the Texas Tech Medical School.

Plainview is famous as the hometown of singer Jimmie Dean. Somewhere along the way, Dean also got into the sausage business. Ye Editor attended the Grand Opening of the Jimmy Dean Sausage plant in Plainview a number of years ago.

Bovina's McCain brothers have had an outstanding career, and are always proud of their Bovina background, as we are of them. While with WKY-TV in Oklahoma City, Ben and Butch were billed as the only brother news-weather team in a major market nationwide. Currently the McCains are slowly but surely making themselves known in Hollywood.

Just to show you what kind of nice-guys the McCains are, they volunteered to help our youngest son, Rick, get his foot in the door at Fox Studios in Hollywood (headquarters of the Fox TV network). As a result, Rick presently has a job with Fox, working with the NFL films. He sees Jimmy Johnson, Pat Summerall and Terry Bradshaw with regularity.

Aren't hometown heroes great? Especially when they are from some of our towns!

Pheasant Outlook Gloomy

With the 1995 pheasant season set to open Saturday, December 9, sources say this year's hunting will be below average.

County Extension Agent Gary Patterson said his opinion was that there would not be enough birds this year. He did not know the reason, but thought predators probably diminished the pheasant population.

The season runs from December 9 through December 24.

Women's Club To Go Caroling

The Bovina Women's Extension Club will go Christmas Caroling on Tuesday, December 12, beginning at 6 p.m.

Spokeswoman Suzan Hughes says the group will be singing for donations of cans of food, or non-perishable food items.

The food items will be given to the Methodist Church Thrift Store to be used for the needy during the holidays.

The group will be caroling in various neighborhoods. If you want to make sure they carol at your house, or at a special function, contact Suzan Hughes at 238-1656 and make your special request.

Church To Offer Xmas Cantata

The First Baptist Church of Bovina invites everyone to a Christmas Cantata, December 17, at 7 p.m.

The title is "Celebration of Christmas Joy", written by Dale Matthews, arranged by Kingsmore.

The First Baptist Church choir will be under the direction of Grady Sorley. The cantata will feature music by the choir and drama performed by the children.

There is no charge and everyone is invited to attend.

M. Read Rolls To Victory Again in 1995 FB Contest

Picking football game winners hasn't always come easy for Mike Read. After all, it has been five years since he won the Bovina Football Contest top prize for overall point total.

In 1990 and again in 1995, Read claimed the $100 top prize for the thirteen week contest. Entering the last week tied with J.T. Roach it was anyone's call.

As it turned out, upsets caused some wild guesses. Read managed to pick 10 out of 14 correct, while Roach had only seven correct, guaranteeing top money for Read.

The final weekly winner was Cory Merhoff. He had an amazing

13 out of 14 correct guesses and a tie-breaker guess that was 24 points off.

Official tie-breaker score was Dallas 17, Redskins 24. Merhoff predicted Dallas 33, Redskins 16. His only miss was New England's loss to New Orleans.

Also picking 13 correct was regular contestant Al Kerby, Jr. who missed only the Wink win over Shamrock. His tie-breaker guess was Dallas 31, Redskins 13, 25 points off and one behind winner Merhoff.

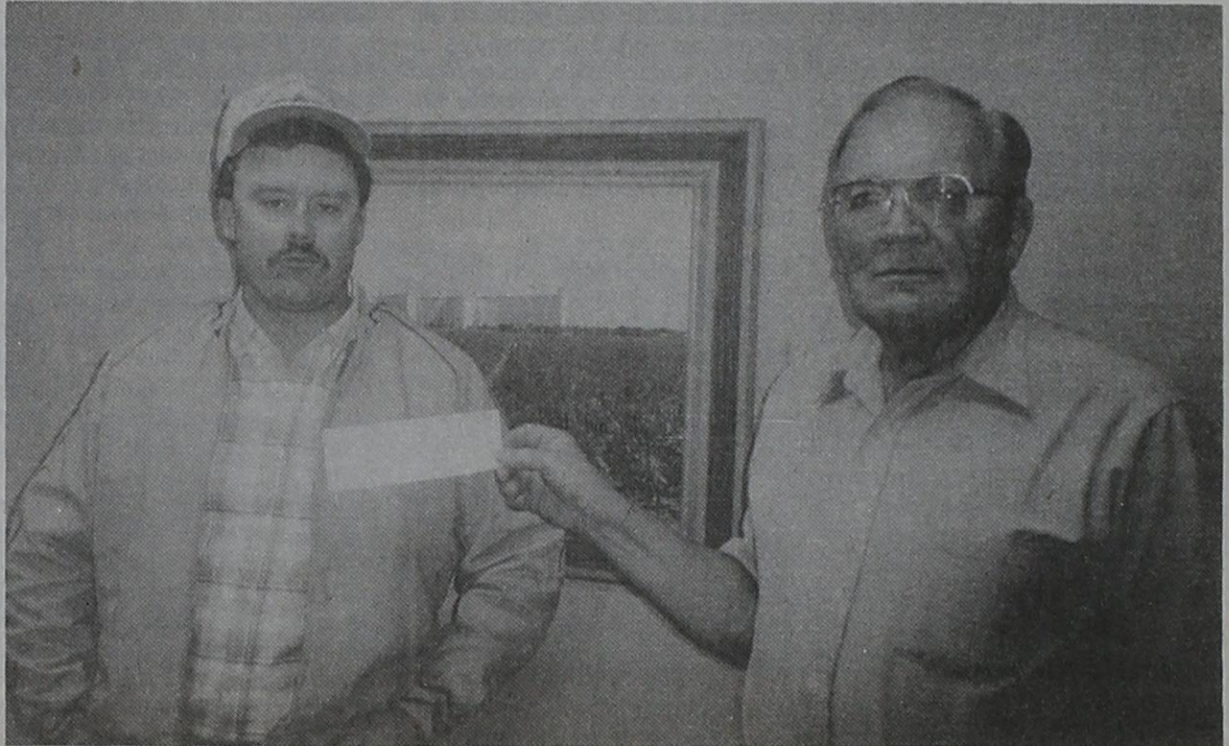

Third place prize was won by another Kerby, Al's wife Susan, who was the only contestant with 12 correct guesses. She missed the Shamrock and Navy losses.

Finishing the contest with 136 overall points, winner Read was followed by Susan Kerby with 134 points. J. T. Roach and Virginia Steele each finished with 133 points.

Eufemia Torres, another regular who had a shot at winning, had a bad day and ended with a point total of 129.

The Blade would like to thank all the loyal contestants and especially the sponsors for an exciting and fun 1995 Bovina Blade Football contest.

Dec. 20 Deadline Set For Christmas Project

The 1995 "Project Christmas Card" Fund has been set up at the First Bank in Bovina and residents are asked to donate what they would normally spend on Christmas Cards for friends and neighbors in Bovina.

Those who donate will have their names published as a community-wide Christmas greeting in the Bovina Blade's annual Christmas edition.

The Deadline is set for Wednesday, December 20 and donations may be made at First Bank or with Donna Mitchell.

The Christmas Card Fund was set up many years ago by the Bovina Woman's Study Club, but in recent years has been designated as a community-wide project to benefit the Bovina Emergency Medical Service and the Bovina Fire Department.

Children: It's Time For Letters To Santa Claus

Bovina children are being invited to write letters to Santa Claus in care of the Bovina Blade in time for the big annual Christmas issue.

Youngsters may write Santa and bring their letters by the Blade office and drop them in the Santa mailbox in front of the building or mail them to Santa at P.O. Drawer B, Bovina, 79009.

There will also be boxes placed at the Primary and Elementary School buildings where school-age children can mail their letters.

The deadline for getting letters in the special Christmas issue is set for Tuesday December 19.

THIS IS A DRAMATIZED VERSION OF FACTS TAKEN FROM THE BOOK OF AMOS, CHRONOLOGICALLY AND AUTHENTICALLY CONSOLIDATED!

AMOS THE SHEPHERD TURNED PROPHET

OBEDYING THE LORD'S COMMAND TO GO AND WARN THE SINNERS IN ISRAEL TO REPENT THEIR WAYS, AMOS, AFTER A LONG JOURNEY, FROM THE SOUTH, HAS AT LAST ARRIVED IN BETHEL....

...HE ENTERS THE TEMPLE WHERE, ALREADY, MANY OF THE PEOPLE ARE CONGREGATED TO BEGIN THE DAILY RITUAL OF PSALMS AND PRAYERS....

...NOW HE MOUNTS THE STEPS OF THE INNER COURT AND ADDRESSES THE CONGREGATION WHICH LOOKS AT THIS HUMBLE HERDNER IN CONSTERNATION!

HEAR YE, TO WHOM IT IS SPOKEN, FOR YE ARE ALL SINNERS!

WOE UNTO THEM THAT TAKE THEIR EASE WHILST THE POOR HAVE LITTLE TO EAT AND LESS TO CLOTHE THEMSELVES!

WOE UNTO ALL ISRAEL, WHO FORGAKETH THE LORD'S WAYS, WHO BOW DOWN TO THE GOLDEN CALF SET UP BY THE KING IN THIS VERY TEMPLE!

WHO IS THIS UNCOUTH HERDMAN?! HOW DARE HE SPEAK TO THE PRINCES IN ISRAEL IN SUCH A MANNER?!

THERE IS A FIERCE MUTTERING AMONG THE GATHERED PEOPLE! THE REMARKS OF THIS LOW BORN, UNEDUCATED SHEPHERD ARE NOT TO BE PUT UP WITH! THE PRIDE AND VANITY OF ISRAEL'S NOBLES HAS BEEN RUFFLED, INDEED—TO BE INSULTED IN ONE'S OWN TEMPLE IS NOT A THING TO BE CONDONED.... 269
