Colorful Parade to Open Fat Stock Show at Eastland Friday

WHAT'S...

COOKING?

By NORMAN WRIGHT

ATTENTION, BOAT DEALERS:

About the smartest thing you could do this coming Friday afternoon would be to hook one of your most beautiful boats and trailers on behind something and take it over to Eastland and get in that opening parade of the Eastland County Live Stock Show. The parade forms at 2 o'clock right there in the vicinity of the county jail, and everybody is welcome to enter.

We would like for all Eastland County to know that headquarters for BOATS is right here in Ranger. There are several excellent and outstanding boat dealerships here, and right now is a splendid time to show them off.

There are usually a lot of folks in Eastland watching the Livestock Show Parade, and there is not much bother or expense attached to showing off a boat and trailer, and take it from us, people are interested in them right now. Who knows, one of these days pretty soon, a guy may turn up with the money to buy one.

And we sure would like to see him buy it here in Ranger, wouldn't you? Entering the parade would also give you an excuse to leave your boat parked over there and on display for awhile.

If any of you church members want to get rid of your pastor and don't know how to go about it, we have run across five pretty good suggestions which we gladly pass along as a public service.

No. 1. Look him straight in the eye when he is preaching and say "Amen" once in a while. He'll preach himself to death within a few weeks.

No. 2. Pat him on the back and brag on his good points. He'll work himself to death.

Methodist Church Services To Be Early Friday Eve.

Services at the First Methodist Church revival meeting will begin at 7:15 Friday evening instead of 7:30, pastor R. Herman Boyd has announced, so that the crowd can be dismissed in time to attend the Ranger Junior College program at the city gymnasium beginning at 8 o'clock or shortly thereafter.

Interest and attendance continue to grow in the Methodist services where Rev. Chas. H. Cole, of Mineral Wells, is doing the preaching.

Rev. Cole's subject for Friday night will be "I Believe in the Communion of Saints." Friday morning will be the last of the morning services, according to the pastor. The last three services of the revival will be held Saturday evening at 7:30, Sunday morning at 10:50 and Sunday evening at 7:30.

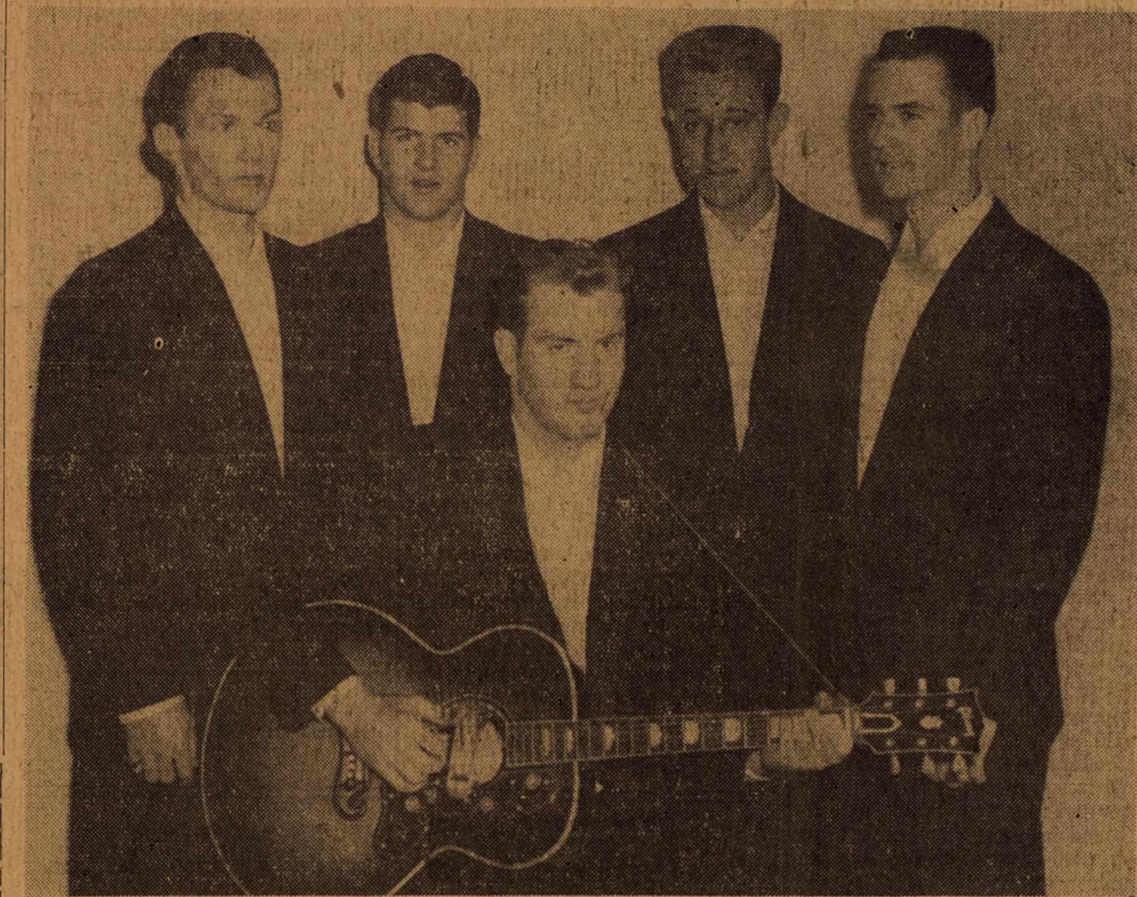

Everyone is invited to join in these final worship services.

Feature Attraction at Variety Show

THE CLEFS: RJC's outstanding Male Quintet has made a name for itself all over this region singing for various clubs and organizations. These lads will be an outstanding part of the Second Annual Variety Show to be staged Friday night by the RJC Fine Arts Department. In the picture, standing, are Bubba Canuteson, Gene Ashcraft, Bren Waldrip, and Tommy Stark. Seated, with guitar, is Dan Mitchell, who will sing Ringo Range in the Friday night performance. Packed House Expected For RJC Variety Show Friday P.M.

A packed house is expected for the Ranger Junior College Second Annual Variety Show to be staged by the Fine Arts Department in the city gymnasium tomorrow (Friday) night, beginning at 8:00 o'clock.

Tickets for admission are $1.00 on a first come first served basis with no seats being reserved.

The entire playing surface of the gym floor has been covered with chairs, in addition to the regular seats in the bleachers.

Officials of the Fine Arts and Drama Departments of Ranger Junior College say the show is worth "at least five times" the price of admission because all of the school's finest and best talent is in it. Long hours of work have gone into preparation of the show, and also into the stage decorations and lighting effects.

Every organized group of entertainers in the college including the Choir, the Madrigal Singers, the Clefs, the Stage Band, and the Glee Club, together with the swiftness and dancers and specialty acts, will take part in the entertainment. There is a number of

Youth Led Revival Starts 2nd Baptist

Rev. Tom Simms of Mississippi, has been selected to bring the messages for the Youth Led Revival which begins Friday night at the Second Baptist Church of Ranger, continuing through Sunday night, March 31.

The Rev. Simms is a student at Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary in Fort Worth and will graduate in May of this year. He attended the Seminary in New Orleans, Louisiana before coming to Texas, and was a pastor in Mississippi for four years.

Rev. Simms is said to be a forceful and inspiring speaker, a man able to bring the Word of the Lord to both old and young alike in a manner that holds their attention and interest.

All residents of Ranger, regardless of denomination, are invited to attend the services, and all young people of the town are especially invited to attend the services and to take part in them.

Lone Star Gas Employees Win Driving Awards

Six employees of Lone Star Gas Company's Ranger District of Distribution have earned certificates for driving automobiles on company duty for two to thirteen years through 1956 without an accident.

They are H. E. Lawson, district manager, thirteen years; U. L. Lennie, Strawn service representative, nine years; W. T. Eaton, five years; and George Guydis, Strawn, H. Kuhlmann and J. W. Mace, one year.

They received their awards from Lynn Covington, Lone Star safety engineer, at a meeting here March 24. In addition to a certificate, Eaton was given his choice of a pocket knife or cigarette lighter as a special five-year award.

500 Cleaners Sold to George Rogers; Cozby's Stay Here

The 500 Cleaners has been sold to George Rogers, formerly of Ranger, who has taken over operation of the cleaning plant now Mrs. Rogers and their daughter, Cathy, are supposed to move back here later in the week, probably Saturday, and thus Ranger gains another family which is indeed welcome as it returns to the city.

Mr. and Mrs. Lonnie Cozby and their two children, Richard and Fred, former owners of 500 Cleaners, will continue to make their home in Ranger. Mrs. Cozby is employed at the C. E. Maddocks company, and Mr. Cozby has taken a salesman's job on the road.

Donors of Shrubs for Teen Town Asked to Bring Plants Friday

Mrs. A. N. Larson, chairman of the shrub committee at Teen Town, has asked that all people who have promised shrub donations for the youth center, please bring them to Teen Town Friday as help will be available on that day to put them out immediately.

All the holes were dug Thursday, Mrs. Larson said.

Several Ranger citizens have already promised to give shrubs to be used around the Teen Town building, and as many others as possible can give some more as asked to please do so Friday.

Nandinas are wanted especially, and Mrs. Larson suggested that those who have large Nandinas now should look under their bushes. She said there were usually lots of little ones under there, and they certainly would be appreciated by the folks at Teen Town.

The landscaping of outside surroundings at Teen Town has been planned for several months and is being done now as a part in Ranger's Clean-Up Campaign and Plant-A-Shrub drive.

Someone will be at Teen Town all day Friday to receive the shrubs, Mrs. Larson said, and they will put out every one they can get. If you have some to spare, please take them out there Friday.

It has also been suggested that since shrubs are being offered at such attractive prices at ABC Floral during the Plant-A-Shrub campaign in Ranger, some of the friends of Teen Town might wish to place an order for several to be given the youth center. Orders for Nandinas or Grape Myrtle may be placed by calling 661.

Each team played a 9-hole round Tuesday morning, and another 9-hole round Tuesday afternoon, and the championship was determined by the total strokes taken by each team.

Lee King came within one stroke of tying for medalist, the lowest single score, which honor was won by Truman Conner of Ballinger.

The Bulldogs will enter the Regional Meet at Brownwood on April 12, which will be a 36-hole affair. In the meantime, the Bulldogs have accepted an invitation to play at Brownwood in the Brownwood Jaycee Tournament to be held Saturday, March 30.

Ranger CC Heads Attending WTCC

C. B. Pruet, president, and R. V. Galloway, manager, of the Ranger Chamber of Commerce, attended a breakfast at the Wooten Hotel in Abilene this morning opening the West Texas Chamber of Commerce Convention.

Les Crossley, Jake Lawson and A. N. Larson will represent Ranger at the convention session to be held Friday.

Pair Charged With Adultery

Acting on a routine disturbance complaint, Constable Ralph Veal of Ranger raided a residence on Highway 80 East last Tuesday morning at 9:30 where he arrested a man and woman who were brought before Justice of the Peace Charles Bobo and charged with adultery.

Veal later took the man and woman to Eastland where they were turned over to Sheriff J. B. Williams pending their making bond of $1,000 which had been set by Bobo, but in the meantime Williams is holding the pair on suspicion of a recent slugging and robbery in Ranger.

In a telephone conversation with the Times this morning, Thursday, Sheriff Williams said he had ample reason to hold the man and woman on suspicion until he had a chance to question them further in connection with several recent robberies.

The Sheriff said when the prisoner was turned over to him he was considerably under the influence of whiskey, or dope, or both, and he had been waiting for the man to clear up.

Williams said he had told both parties they were to be asked to take a lie detector test in connection with recent unlawful events which had taken place in Ranger, and both the man and woman had indicated they would take the tests.

"But a lie detector won't work on a man who has been drunk or doped," Williams said, "and for that reason we are holding the pair until they can take the tests under proper conditions."

No charges have been filed except the adultery charge.

Business Men to Get Bargain Rates On Barbeque Tickets

Ranger business men will be given bargain rates on the tickets they will be asked to buy to finance the turkey barbecue dinner to be given for all the turkey producers of this area who will be here on Thursday, April 4, attending the all-day Turkey Production and Marketing Clinic at Ranger Junior College.

Two dollars will buy three tickets. One $2 ticket will admit the business man who bought it, and will also buy the dinners for two turkey growers visiting in the city.

All members of the Lions Club and Rotary Club have already agreed that each will buy a $2 ticket. That means that every other business or professional man in town, who does not belong to either club, will be asked to buy a ticket. Practically every business man in town knows about this already as it was announced away back before the first of the year that they would be asked to help finance the banquet in this manner, and most of them are expecting it.

It is not known how many turkey growers will be here, but the Poultry and Dairy Committees of the Chamber of Commerce, headed by James Ratliff, has estimated that meals will have to be prepared for at least 300, and in all probability that will not be enough.

It is difficult to estimate how a crowd will turn out for an event of this kind. It is a known fact that this is one of the most important turkey meals to be held anywhere in the State this year. It is being put on by Texas A&M College and has been advertised practically all over the state; there could be only a handful here, but on the other hand, and what is most likely to be the case, there could be as many as 400 to 500 to feed.

Not only are the merchants being asked to buy these banquet tickets, but each of them is being earnestly solicited to attend the feast and to get acquainted with the many turkey growers who will be here, most of whom live and work and trade in this area.

After all, Ranger is the host town for this meeting, and every during the noon hour especially.

The Poultry and Dairy Committees has been working closely with Dr. Ashton at the College, and with the Chamber of Commerce, to figure out all the details connected with the meeting and to do something about them. Full and complete information concerning the final preparations will be published.

No. 3. Start paying him a living wage. He's probably been on starvation wages so long he'll eat himself to death.

No. 4. Rededicate your own life to Christ and ask the preacher to give you a job to do. He'll probably die of heart failure.

No. 5. Get the church to unite in prayer for the preacher. He will become so effective, some larger church will come along and take him off your hands.

Mrs. A. N. Larson says if you will go out in your yard and look under your Nandina bushes you ought to be able to find a whole lot of little Nandina bushes. If so, the mothers at Teen Town certainly would like to have a few of them. They are like the little girl all dressed up and no place to go. The mothers have a lot of nice round holes in the ground which were dug at Teen Town today and they are hoping and praying that somebody will bring some shrubs to put in them Friday, (tomorrow).

Several weeks ago Teen Town sent out an appeal for shrubs, and a lot of shrubs were promised. The mothers are ready for them tomorrow because, in another week or 10 days it will be risky business to move a shrub. Also, they want to finish this project in connection with Ranger's City-Wide Clean-Up and Plant-A-Shrub Campaign.

Things are beginning to look a little better around here, and if everybody keeps kicking the place is going to amount to something yet.

Everybody can keep their fingers crossed and hope the "flu" doesn't get any worse in Ranger than it already is. So far the schools have got by with only 50 or 60 cases as compared to some 200 cases in Eastland that closed the schools over there tighter than a drum Monday morning. Again we say Ranger has a corps of medical practitioners second to none in the United States and you'll find them on top of every disease there is 24 hours a day, doing their best to see that it doesn't get too far out of hand.

All members of the Lions Club and Rotary Club have already bought their $2.00 ticket to the Turkey Barbecue to be given for turkey growers from a 14-county area on Thursday, April 4, at Ranger Junior College. The $2.00 ticket buys your own dinner, and a dinner for two turkey growers who are guests of the city. When somebody comes around offering you a ticket, we hope you will not only buy one, but arrange to attend the dinner IN PERSON, and shake hands with some of your neighbors. There will be a lot of outside radio and newspaper men here, and we want to have on our best party manners and eat with our little fingers sticking out.

If you want to fold up and die with TB or Lung Cancer, go ahead and fold. But you had better take our advice and prepare to get your chest x-ray made, FREE, when the x-ray unit gets here next April 4 and 5. If there is anything wrong with you, you will be notified and cured. If you don't know, it may be too late when you finally find out.

In the meantime, a delegation of workers are to start out soon with the tickets, and everyone is asked to please cooperate by buying one.

A noon meal will be served at the show grounds and judging will then start again at 1 p.m. At that time breeding classes of beef cattle will be judged. At 2 p.m. fat steer judging will begin and at 3 dairy cattle will be judged.

Johnny Aaron and Keith McDonald are assistant general superintendents of the show. N. B. Eaves is superintendent of the swine division and Walter Kurklin, aided by Don Fox, heads the sheep and goats division. Clinton Humphreys is in charge of the fat lambs division, Jerry Colburn heads the fat steer division, Ed Harrison, assisted by A. D. Campbell, is superintendent of the beef cattle division and Earnest Reich, assisted by Marshall Berry, is in charge of dairy cattle.

Three hundred and forty-seven animals have been entered in the show by 4-H and FFA boys and girls. More entries from adults are also expected.

A showmanship award of $10 will be awarded to the boy or girl selected as the one having done the best job of showing his or her animal in either the fat animal or breeding animal division. Cash awards will also be presented to first, second and third place animal in each division, however adults will compete only for ribbons.

Most entries in the show this year are in the fat lamb division. Only 12 head have been entered in the fat steer division, "due to drought conditions in the county," according to McCain.

McCain described the show as a "very important two days in the year." He said the Livestock Association sponsors the show annually because "we want to promote foundation stock in this county."

Lone Cedar Breaks
 By President

Membership
 For some time we've spoken about the Lone Cedar Country Club, and its advantages. Now, its time we mentioned something about membership, and just who can join.

Membership, at present, will be restricted to those who have been invited by present members. If you know of someone who is at present a member, you might make your desires known to him.

At present, there is what is called a "Land Company," that is the group who formulated the plans and purchased the acreage for the club to be upon. There are still a few vacancies on the Land Company, and it is the one that present efforts are being built around.

After the Land Company is completed, the "Social Company" will be organized. However, this will not take place until a much later date.

So, there's still a chance that you might be lucky enough to be among the chosen few.

Better look into it.

AAUW Members Attend Banquet In Mineral Wells

The Ranger Branch of the American Association of University Women met March 21 with the Mineral Wells branch. The meeting, held in the banquet room of the Crazy Hotel, was a banquet honoring the State President, Mrs. Elizabeth Hindman Taylor of Greenville.

After the banquet Mrs. Taylor gave an interesting talk on the events of International Federation of University Women meeting held in Paris, France, last summer.

Mrs. Taylor and 11 women from other Texas divisions attended the meeting. Every state in the United States and 48 foreign countries were represented. The theme was, "Better Relations Between the Different Countries of the World."

Mrs. Taylor reported great progress in relationship is expected from the meeting.

Attending the banquet from Ranger were: Mmes. Arthur Deffebach, Vernon Deffebach, Walter Daniels, H. H. Oliver, Mamie Ruth Hamrick, Peggy Theberge, E. H. Bobo, and Miss Vivian Simmons.

WSCS Meets for Last Session Social Relations

Members of the WSCS met in regular session Monday afternoon at the First Methodist Church.

Mrs. A. W. Brazda, president, presided over a short business meeting. Mrs. Gaston Dixon read the minutes from the last meeting.

Mrs. E. H. Mills gave the opening prayer.

Mrs. Pat Thomas had charge of the program, which was the last study on the social relations program. The text was "Youth, A Responsible Society — A Christian's Concern." Mrs. Stanley McAnelly discussed the church and this generation. She pointed out that good standards are always found in the church. Mrs. W. F. Creager talked on the church's obligation for tomorrow's maturity.

Mrs. B. H. Peacock gave the devotional, which was entitled "The Children and Their Relations to Their Parents, Spiritually." She said that youth's viewpoints in life are different but as sincere and valuable when considered in the right spirit and broadness of mind. She also gave the closing prayer.

Former Olden Girl To Wed

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Overton of 710 Atlantic, Corpus Christi, formerly of Olden, announce the engagement of their daughter, Christine Inez, to Burley Gene Ingram, son of Mr. and Mrs. Burley B. Ingram of 2505 Koepke. They will be married June 7 at the Morgan Avenue Baptist Church.

Miss Overton attended school in both Olden and Eastland.

SHE'S SURROUNDED BY RAG DOLLS

Thirteen-year-old Annette Baker, daughter of Mrs. Ray Baker, Fort Smith, Ark., seems to enjoy being surrounded by an array of stuffed toys and dolls. The toys were all entered in a national sewing contest and show what clever use can be made of the colorful cotton bags used to package staple farm products. Annette's mother won second place in the contest which was entered by more than 2,500 women throughout the country. Information on the 1957 National Cotton Bag Sewing Contest may be obtained from the National Cotton Council, P. O. Box 9905, Memphis 12, Tenn.

Floyd H. Haynes, Oklahoma Girl to Marry In April

Mr. and Mrs. Harry W. Hammond of Lawton, Oklahoma, announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Elinor, to Floyd H. Haynes, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Dean Haynes of Olden.

Rev. J. Walter Browers, Jr., pastor, will read the double ring vows at 2:30 p. m. Sunday, April 7, in the Centenary Methodist Church in Lawton.

Since her graduation in 1956 from Cameron Junior College, the bride-to-be has been employed in the dean's office there.

A 1954 graduate of Lawton, Oklahoma, High School, her activities include membership in the Commerce club, Phi Theta Kappa, chorus and the student senate of which she served as treasurer. She also was, for three years, county secretary of the 4-H Clubs, serving 10 years as a member.

Now employed at Irish Drilling Co. in Eastland her prospective bridegroom, a 1952 graduate of Flower Grove High School, is a student at Ranger Junior College and received his discharge from the army last December.

ABOUT YOUR HEALTH

A weekly public service feature from the Texas State Department of Health.
HENRY A. HOLLE, M.D., Commissioner

AUSTIN — People who suffer with hypertension, or high blood pressure, nowadays have more reason for optimism than they would have had a generation ago. In itself hypertension is not a disease. It's a sign something is wrong, like the stuffy feeling that comes with a cold. The danger accrues because of the possibility of serious heart or kidney damage when blood pressure is consistently high.

It isn't true that the higher the blood pressure the more reason to fear heart damage. Research has shown that temporary increases in pressure do not really make much difference. But even mild elevations in the blood pressure considered normal for the person involved—if the increases persist—may cause the walls of blood vessels to thicken, exactly as callouses, are formed on hands by regular use of an axe or hoe.

In the most common type of high blood pressure, called "essential hypertension," the tiny branches of arteries which carry blood to all body tissues (called arterioles) begin to tighten up. Blood passages become smaller and smaller, and the heart has to work harder to push the blood through. After a time the blood vessels lose their elasticity and the heart muscles thicken with the extra work load. Result: high blood pressure, and ultimately heart damage.

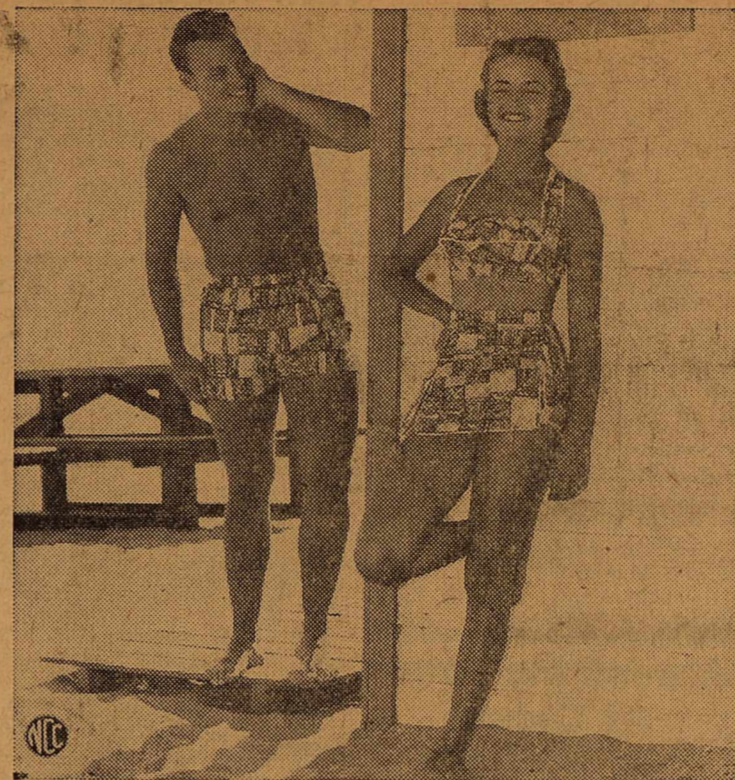

What causes the arterioles to tighten and constrict? No one knows. High blood pressure sometimes goes up for a period of days or weeks—or even longer—and then drops back to normal. Sometimes it may jump from pure nervousness while your physician is examining you. Perhaps there is a connection between hypertension and the strain of modern life. People who work under constant stress, who worry too much, are often susceptible. Heredity is a probable factor, and the condition occurs most often in persons between 30 and 50.

Low blood pressure seldom causes trouble. Afflicting relatively few people to a serious extent, the condition is usually a symptom of a specific disease which can frequently be treated successfully.

The thing which will count most in adding years to the life of hypertension sufferers is the willingness to change their living habits, following the rules of moderation in everything. By getting under a doctor's care and following a few simple rules for moderate living, they can probably work and enjoy life as long or longer than their next-door neighbors without high blood pressure.

There is nothing to gain from worrying about your chances of developing hypertension. Just make it a point to have a physical examination at least once a year. And worry and argue as little as possible.

GOING STEADY

They go together! Swim suits by Gantner for men and women feature matching tropical prints on fine cotton poplin. White pique lines the skirt panels of the girl's two-piece suit. Strap interest is introduced in the wide halter, also trimmed with white pique edging. The man's suit has an elastic waistband and is vented at the sides.

Effects of Liquor Depends More On Drinker Than Drink

"The drinking problem isn't only alcohol—it's people," says Dr. Leon A. Greenberg, who heads research in Yale University's famous Center of Alcohol Studies. "Present scientific knowledge provides no physiological explanation of why some people—4.7 million out of the 70 million drinkers in the United States—become alcoholics. It appears, mainly, to be a personality problem."

Dr. Greenberg's findings are revealed by Herbert Yahraes in an article, "What Happens When You Drink" condensed from Popular Science, in April Reader's Digest. The Yale studies show, for instance, that if you add water to your whiskey the alcohol gets into your blood stream just as fast. If you add soda water it will get there even faster, because carbonation speeds the passage through the stomach. If you are a large person you will feel less effect than a smaller person does. That's because you have more blood and other body fluids to dilute the alcohol.

Experiments at the Center of Alcohol Studies indicate that a little alcohol—the amount found in two or three cans of beer—calms the nerves and eases tensions. A can of beer contains about the same amount of alcohol as an ounce of whisky, but beer and wine contain solid materials such as protein and carbohydrate which slow up the rate at which alcohol gets into the blood.

Other facts brought out by the Yahraes report on the Yale studies: If you drink slowly enough—say half a highball or three quarters of a can of beer over 60 minutes—the alcohol will be oxidized by the liver as rapidly as it is absorbed, and you will not feel it. The chief danger in drinking after a few drinks probably lies in the fact that your confidence zooms—and you take chances.

Dr. Greenberg's answer to the question, "What about the permanent effects of drinking?" "In the moderate drinker we haven't found any. Alcoholics—people who can't stop after a few drinks—are another matter. They often suffer severely from nutritional deficiencies. Most of them have a disturbed liver, too, and one in ten has delirium tremens or some alcoholic mental disease."

Vaccination of All Dogs Urged By State Vet

COLLEGE STATION — The rabid dog is a constant threat to all children, asserts Dr. C. M. Patterson, extension veterinarian, especially on warm spring days when large groups of youngsters congregate in play areas. Rabies is currently a serious problem in several sections of the state, he adds, and should be a subject of real concern to pet owners everywhere.

Dr. Patterson says any warm-blooded animal is susceptible to rabies, but that it is most likely to be spread by the predator-type. Symptoms are hard to define, explains the veterinarian, but its a good practice to suspect any animal if it loses the fear of man.

Keep under observation a n y suspicious animal should it bite a human, advises Dr. Patterson. If the animal is not available, t h e person should be placed under competent medical supervision at once.

Texas law now empowers commissioners courts to declare the county a rabies control area, Dr. Patterson says. This should extend more efficient control programs into the state's rural areas. Vaccination of all pets and strict impoundment of every stray dog are essential features of a good control program, he adds.

Wild animals sometimes carry the danger of rabies to farms and ranches, endangering livestock as well as farmers. Dr. Patterson warns rural people to be on the lookout for strange-acting animals, particularly foxes, coyotes, skunks and civet cats. Pets coming in contact with any suspicious domestic or wild animals should be given a booster shot, he warns, even if already protected by a standard rabies shot.

Appreciation Dinner Will Honor Burleson

OMAR BURLESON

... friends will honor him

CISCO—A district-wide Omar Burleson Appreciation Dinner will be staged in Cisco April 25, honoring the 17th District Congressman and his wife.

Plans were announced by J. E. Connally of Abilene, 34th senatorial district Democratic Committeeman who is general chairman of the committee arranging the dinner.

The dinner will be held at the National Guard Armory in Cisco beginning at 7 p.m. Rigdon Edwards, Sweetwater business and civic leader, will be master of ceremonies.

Tickets will be $5 each. They will go on sale April 1 with the arrangements chairman in each county, at the chambers of commerce in the various towns, and at any other places the county chairman may designate.

The program will feature brief speeches of tribute by several of Congressman Burleson's friends and community leaders from over the district, Connally said. Speakers will be announced soon.

"This dinner" Connally explained, "was planned spontaneously as the result of expressions from people who felt that friends should have an opportunity to express public appreciation to Congressman Burleson for the fine service he has rendered his district."

Burleson has represented the 17th district in Congress since 1946. He is a member of the important Foreign Affairs Committee of the House, and is chairman of the National Security Subcommittee of that group. He also is chairman of the Joint Committee on the Library (of Congress,) chairman of the Committee of House Administration, and is ranking House member on the Joint Committee on Printing.

Before going to Congress, Burleson served as County Judge of Jones County, he was also in the Navy during World War II, and served as a special agent with the FBI.

Connally said plans are being made for 600 guests at the dinner, which will be catered by Mack Epley of Abilene.

Tickets sales will close April 15, so plans can be completed for preparing the dinner. Connally emphasized that the affair is not a fund raising dinner. "The $5 represents actual cost of serving the dinner, and other expenses incidental to the event."

Roger Parker of Cisco is Eastland County chairman.

How To Build A Better Lawn

The average lawn is only $20 to $25 and one summer away from near perfection. In this comparatively short time, you can patch up the bare spots, thicken up the thin spots, and really grow the lawn you want.

Your investments will buy an adequate supply of plant food, grass seed, weed and crabgrass killers, and enough cash to pay the water bill for a few good soakings.

To make your lawn - building program work, you will have to eliminate the trouble spots, says an article in the April issue of Better Homes & Gardens magazine. It's a rare lawn that doesn't have a few such spots - - places where grass won't grow, or just barely survives.

When these appear, the first impulse is to replant and try again. This will pay only if you also eliminate the cause for the original failure. Some of the common causes and solutions are:

Thin grass, full sun: Feed at least twice this year, once in the spring and again early fall. Feed at least once every year, and don't skip. There's no substitute for plant food.

Thin grass, shade: Reduce the shade, if possible by thinning the overhead branches. Give extra food and water. Failure is often due to competition with tree roots for available plant food and Dallas.

Mr. and Mrs. James Alford and family from Weatherford spent Saturday here in the home of his sister, Mrs. Gene Falls and Mr. Falls.

Visiting in the home of Mr. and Mrs. O. T. Hunt over the week end were Mr. and Mrs. Buck Weeks of Midland and Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Wheat from Morton Valley.

Bro. and Mrs. John Morgan entertained a group of people in their home last Friday evening. Coffee, lemonade and ice box cookies were served to 15 people.

Style Leader Of The Year Award

water. Overseed with special shady-lawn seed mixture.

Bare spots, full sun: Spade up area to see if buried debris prevent grass from taking hold. Replant usually cures.

Bare spots, shade: If shade-tolerant grass fails, use a grass substitute such as vine, pachysandra, or other groundcover suggested by your nurseryman.

Grass invaded by weeds: Mow more regularly. Use weed-control chemicals this spring. Reseed bare spots in August after weeds are destroyed.

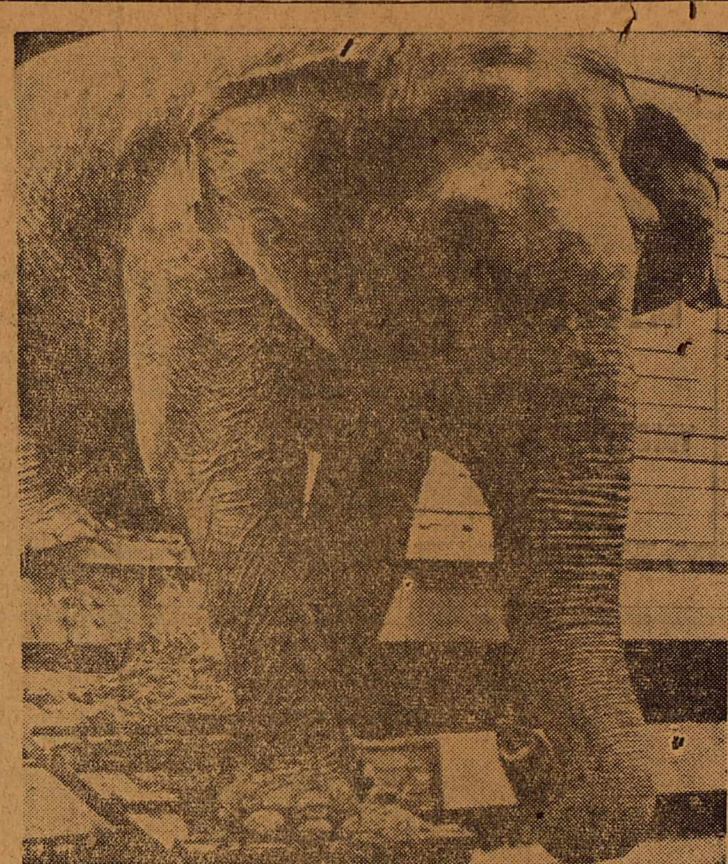

Grass worn by traffic: Build up grass by feeding three times yearly, try deeper watering. Use steppingstones or paving if paths are really needed.

Generally, for green lawns all summer long, the magazine article advises fertilizing properly, and not heavily in hot weather. Mow often, and don't let grass grow tall between cuttings. Sweep up clippings if they are more than an inch long.

Avoid excessive waterings, and especially light sprinkling in late evening. Spray with a broad-spectrum grass fungicide before trouble starts and at intervals during the summer when the humidity

To The Voters of Ranger:

I have very little interest publicly expressed about the coming City Election April 2 of which I have filed for place number four WATER AND SANITARY COMMISSIONER. I feel that I should express my gratitude to the good citizens of Ranger for their sanction when it was necessary to stand for what I thought was the right thing and the preservation of the Statutes that govern a municipal city.

I feel that I am well qualified for this official position from the past experience, and as a certified Water operator, holding a "B" Certificate from the Department of Health, The State of Texas and a member of the Texas Water and Sewage Works Association of Texas; a member and President of the Central West Texas Water and Sewage Works District Association, consisting of seven counties including Eastland County. With seven A&M College short schools and extension Service Schools. Safe Water is very important to any city for its health and welfare, and continuous supervision is necessary at all times.

I am thankful that I have had a part in improving our water system and the betterment of our City Administration with devoted service in the past.

Our City still has problems to be solved and service to render in the most economical and efficient manner, and if I am your representative as a City Official for the next two years I will be faithful to the oath of that office and the City Administration, and you as a citizen. Thanks

A H. (Addie) Williams

Status Of Main Bills In Legislature Given

Herewith is an up-to-the-minute report on the status of all the important legislation pending in the Legislature as it goes into session this week:

HCR 22—requesting the U. S. Congress to propose an amendment to the U. S. Constitution limiting income taxes to 25 per cent, approved in House last week, was approved by Senate this week without any amendments.

With reference to HCR 22, covered in preceding paragraphs, the Idaho legislature recently approved such a resolution. Article V of the U. S. Constitution says that when 22 of the state legislatures shall ask for it, Congress "shall call a convention for proposing amendments."

Bills similar to the Texas action are under consideration in current sessions of the state legislatures in California and Connecticut. Idaho and Texas are considered by many proponents of this move as being the 32nd and 33rd states to take such action. It will apparently be up to Congress to decide how many valid resolutions—some are questioned as to validity—have been acted upon by states.

The House has passed on second reading HB 32 which would prohibit city, county, state or any school employee from being a member of the NAACP. It will be up for a final vote next week.

HB 433—proposed for changes backed by employer groups in the state's workmen's compensation laws, remains in subcommittee.

HB 2—providing that only the State Department of Public Safety may issue drivers licenses to under age applicants passed the House on Tuesday.

Action in House on Ethics bill for public officials, HB 3, reported favorably by House committee on State Affairs last week, was postponed this week, could come up for vote on floor of House any day.

HB 494, creating North Central Texas Water Authority (for cities, see last week's bulletin) was approved by the House Wednesday. No Senate action.

HB 243—to make it illegal to divert water released from upstream storage for downstream users—received the support of Attorney General Wilson. This proposal will provide clarification deemed essential for construction of Diablo Dam by International Boundary and Water Commission on a 1954.

HB 468—proposing extensive changes in Texas Labor Laws and regarded by employer groups as rendering ineffective Texas' right-to-work laws, was referred to subcommittee after a hearing by House Labor Committee two or three weeks ago and is still in subcommittee.

Both HJR 13 and SJR 4, companion bills providing for State advertising for tourists and industrial development, are in Constitution Amendments subcommittee in House.

HJR 4—providing for county precinct re-districting was up for House consideration on Tuesday but was postponed. Can be brought for vote any time.

SB 32—passed by Senate on egg-grading with number of amendments.

SJR 10—providing for annual sessions of the Legislature was voted out of Constitutional Amendments committee by 6-5 vote. Opposition raised question of time and subject limitation of extra session. House bill—HJR 1—provides for annual pay of $4,800—Senate bill calls for $7,500.

SB 127—to prohibit advertising and sale of goods at wholesale unless for resale—still in State Affairs subcommittee. Bill would apparently restrict discount sales firms.

SCR 40—to petition Congress to call a convention to amend the U.S. Constitution to get the Federal government out of all business and industrial enterprises—voted approval by Senate committee. Companion proposal in House set for hearing by State Affairs Committee Monday night, March 25.

SB 9—same as HB 147—passed in House March 21 with minor amendment and sent back to Senate for concurrence. Proposes that negotiated contracts on water conservation projects be forbidden.

HB 152—creating Water Development Board—was sent to subcommittee by House Conservation and Reclamation Committee. Same as SB 7.

SB 6—providing for waste disposal by infection—same as HB 149—was approved in Senate this week.

HB 145—providing for cancellation of unused water permits, etc., was recalled from Governor's office for minor correction of clerical error.

A Senate bill to prohibit limits on quantities of goods sold below cost was approved in committee on a 12-4 vote. Applies to all merchants. Previous legislation applying only to retail grocers was held unconstitutional.

HB 170—to make parents responsible for juvenile vandalism damage up to $300 was held unconstitutional by Attorney General Wilson this week. Sponsor is reported considering corrective amendment. Companion bill—SB 34—is on Senate calendar.

LIFE, LIBERTY, AND THE PURSUIT OF HAPPINESS—Mrs. Frederic A. Groves, President General, National Society, Daughters of the American Revolution, teaches her two grandchildren, Allene and Eloise Phillips, about the rights of Americans in observance of February as American History Month. The girls, 9 and 5 respectively, are C.A.R. Members. Mrs. Groves sits at a desk once owned by John Hancock, bold signer of the Declaration of Independence. Spectacles used by Benjamin Franklin, a silver beaker owned by George Washington, and a whale oil lamp of John Adams are on the desk. The chair was used in the White House by John and Abigail Adams. All articles are in the D.A.R. Museum at 1776 D St., N.W., Washington, D. C. The D.A.R. urges nationwide observance of February as American History Month.

SB 101—providing for sale of gas to farmers for irrigation—new version of original proposal was sent to Attorney General for opinion.

House members have been named for conference committee on HJR 3 and SJR 2—Financial Assistance Joint Resolution for state aid on water projects and for conference committee on HB 151 and SB 3—Enabling Legislation for same. Senate conferees should be announced soon.

Why Should I Have An Abstract?

... is a question that all abstractors have a ready answer for. When the ownership of real estate enters your business life, title problems also enter. Buying, selling, mortgaging or otherwise conveying, demand title information. You get that information from the abstract, the only means yet devised which reflects the condition of the record title which has everything to do with the question of values. If you buy only good titles based on the abstract you will have few, if any, title problems.
