Ranger High Band Receives No. 1 Rating

The "Spirit of Ranger," the Ranger High School marching band, under the direction of Richard Helmcamp, participated in the Region VII, University Interscholastic League marching and twirling contest held in Coleman Saturday, Nov. 18. The results were outstanding as Ranger returned with five first division ratings, one second division rating, and six gold medals.
 The marching band received a first division rating from all three of their judges making their final rating a unanimous first division.
 The two majorette tries, one composed of Patricia Wheat, Rhonda Reid, and Jeanine Monroe, and the other composed of Suzann Rouke, Betty Jo Weekes, and Nancy Newham, both were entered in Class I competition and both received a first division rating from the judges. The same six girls also performed in a sextet and was awarded a second division rating.
 The judges for the band were Mr. G. T. Gilligan of Kermil, Mr. Warren Thaxton from Cooper High in Abilene, and Mr. Bill Brady of Lewisville. Mr. Gilligan had these words of praise for the band, "Excellent posture and carriage, beautiful uniforms, nice twirling line with instruments, real neat drill (four times)."
 Mr. Thaxton, who had no criticisms, said, "Very good posture, excellent show—fine drill, good music selection, excellent show, very refreshing to see a 6 to 5 band for a change, some very fine teaching being done here, keep up the good work."
 Mr. Brady said, "Beautiful uniforms, excellent posture, and carriage, very good drill, beautiful marching and posture." Mr. Brady and Mr. Gilligan both criticized the brass section for overblowing on the last song they played, "Brasses To The Fore." Mr. Gilligan added for the woodwinds to be more careful of their tuning.

There were 38 bands participating and 12 of them were awarded a first. The bands and their ratings are: Class A: Bertram, 5; Gorman, 3; Baird, 4.
 Class A: Goldthwaite, 2; Junction, 3; Menard, 3; Marble Falls, 2; DeLeon, 1; Glen Rose, 5; Dublin, 2; Santa Anna, 4; Albany, 2; Ozona, 3; Ivanger, 1; Sonora, 2; Cross Plains, 1 Eldorado, 1.
 Class AA: Cisco, 2; Hamilton, 3; San Saba, 4; Eastland, 2; Granbury, 3; Coleman, 1; Mason, 2; Ballinger, 2; Clyde, 1; Llano, 2; Winters, 1 Comanche, 1; Burnet, 2; Brady, 1.
 Class AAA: Breckenridge, 2; Brownwood, 2; Lampasas, 1; Gatesville, 4; Stephenville, 1; and Sweetwater, 1.
 Mr. Helmcamp would like to take this opportunity to publicly thank the 60 members of the "Spirit of Ranger" for their excellent work and wonderful attitude and cooperation. They have put forth a tremendous amount of time and hard work to become a first division band. He would especially like to thank and congratulate the six members of the majorette line for their excellent work. None of these girls had ever been a twirler in the senior high school band before this year. The showing they made at contest shows how far they come in such a short time. Special thanks goes also to Lewis Pounds, drum major of the "Spirit of Ranger." He has done an outstanding job of leading the band on the field and also of helping to work out marching routines for the band.
 The entire organization would like to thank the many wonderful people that have helped along the way, such as chaperones, bus drivers, Band Boosters Club officers, and members, and the Fighting Bulldogs for helping us to earn the title of "Spirit of Ranger."

In this corner, with COLLINS

We congratulate the High School Band and the Fighting Bulldogs for winning the Marching Contest at Coleman Saturday and for winning the Bi-District game in Brownwood Saturday night. We are backing the band and the football players all the way this year and hope the Bulldogs come out on top Friday night as they play Keller for Regional. Ranger should be very proud of the way the high school has represented the town and the school in the various contests they have participated in this year.

A report from the Ministerial Alliance Monday shows that the offering taken during the Thanksgiving Service Sunday night amounted to $140.71.

Future Teachers Attend Meeting In Breckenridge

Members of Ranger Chapter, Future Teachers of America were among delegations from 22 counties attending the District VII Convention held in Breckenridge on Saturday, Nov. 18.

Of particular interest to the Ranger group was the keynote address by Ex-District President Bob McKelvin of Ranger, now a student at Abilene Christian College.

Following the theme, "Invest, Innovate, Improve", workshops and open discussions stressed the importance of wise investment of time, talent and energy which will render the teacher open for innovation that will insure improvement in teaching.

The state FTA Convention will be held in Dallas in February. Representing Ranger in Breckenridge were Cheryl Mahaffey, Jane Pearson, Donna Johnston and chapter sponsor Mrs. Richard E. Henderson.

Final Rites Held Nov. 20 For Harvie Coffman

Harvie Coffman, 63, was pronounced dead of natural causes following an apparent heart attack suffered at 11 a. m. Saturday while driving his car on Highway 601 ten miles northeast of Albany.
 Mr. Coffman and Mrs. R. R. Mason of Breckenridge had gone bird hunting when Mr. Coffman collapsed and the car careened into a ditch and hit a fence. The couple was uninjured.
 Funeral was held at 3 p. m. Monday in First Baptist Church of Breckenridge with the pastor, Rev. James Thomas, officiating. Burial was in Breckenridge Cemetery under the direction of Melton Funeral Home.
 Born Aug. 22, 1904 in Ranger, he attended school here and on Sept. 20, 1923, married Georgia Bargsley in Eastland. They lived in Brownwood and Lueders before moving to Breckenridge in 1950.
 He was a drilling contractor and oil operator and a member of First Baptist Church of Breckenridge.
 Survivors include his wife; a daughter, Mrs. Gerry Ford of Austin; a sister, Mrs. Paul Peach of Carmichael, Calif.; a brother, David Terrell of Dallas; two grandchildren. A son, W. H. Coffman, Jr. died in 1955.

Community Thanksgiving Service Is Held Sunday

"Thanksgiving to God should be a daily occurrence in the life of a Christian," said the Rev. George Wilson in his message to worshippers attending the Community Thanksgiving Service on Sunday evening.
 The pastor of St. Rita's Catholic Church told the capacity audience in the sanctuary of First Baptist Church: "Don't go to God only when you are in trouble but thank Him constantly for who you are, what you have and what you may become." He cited the fact that the first Thanksgiving 346 years ago was for a harvest—a very meager harvest, and then raised the question, "Are we big enough to live in prosperity?"
 Inspiring music by the 30-voice Ranger Junior College Concert Choir, under the direction of Edmond Lewis with accompaniment by Mrs. R. P. Brasher, Jr., organist, and Jimmy Wilson, pianist, provided an atmosphere conducive to a true worship experience.

Three Persons Injured In Wreck Monday

Three persons were taken to Ranger General Hospital Monday morning following a two-car accident which occurred on Highway 80 West of Ranger.
 Injured in the accident were Mrs. Flossie Mae Watts, age 57, Sharon Gladding, age 26, and Robert Gladding, age 2. The injured were taken to the Ranger Hospital by a Killingsworth ambulance. They were treated and later released.
 Involved in the accident was a 1963 Rambler station wagon, driven by Theo Watts of Vista, Calif., and Travis Webb of Ranger, driver of a 1966 Plymouth.

Ranger Police Chief J. W. Vinson investigated the accident.

Larry Hunt Gives Talk To Lions Club

The Ranger Lions Club met last Thursday for their regular weekly meeting at Bryan's Steak House on Highway 80.
 Thirty-six members and guests were present for the meeting with Lion President Glyn Gilliam presiding at the meeting.
 Lion Floyd Walker was in charge of the program. Lion Walker introduced Larry Hunt, student counselor of Ranger Junior College who gave a very interesting talk on the number of students attending colleges and universities on the national average.
 The Lions' Club will not meet this week due to the Thanksgiving holiday but will meet next week at the regular time with Lion Lloyd Bruce in charge of the program.

Postmaster Urges Patrons To Mail Christmas Packages, Cards Early

Postmaster Ross Hodges today urged the citizens of Ranger to be sure to use the correct address on their letters and packages going to servicemen overseas to avoid serious delays in delivery.
 Postmaster Hodges reported that millions of letters and packages going overseas have been delayed because they were insufficiently addressed. He said that one of the biggest problems has been the failure of persons to include the very important five digit APO or FPO number in the military address. Mail not containing this number is incorrectly addressed.
 He said that last year more than 9 million pieces of mail were delayed in delivery. Of this number, 3 one-half million pieces failed to include the complete 5 digit APO or FPO number in the address. This improperly addressed mail had to be sent to a military locator directory where time-consuming searches were made to determine the proper addresses.
 "As the Christmas mail volume going overseas is expected to increase up to 30 per cent or over 4 million pounds above last year, every precaution should be taken by friends and relatives of servicemen to address their letters and packages properly to assure rapid delivery to its destination," Postmaster Hodges said.
 There are four essential elements to an overseas military address. They are:
 1. The serviceman's identity - grade, full name, and service number.
 2. His military unit - complete.
 3. Gateway post office - New York, San Francisco or Seattle.
 4. APO or FPO - a 5 digit number.
 When any of these elements is missing, the letter or package will be delayed in delivery.

Wouldn't it look great in your driveway?

This new Cutlass S has a way of making things look younger. Even driveways. That's because of all the young ideas we built into it. A bigger 350-cubic-inch V-8, for instance. (Or, if you prefer, an Action-Line 6.) And a taut coil spring suspension that makes it easy to cut and turn in tight places. And you can order a whole carfull of young-it-up accessories like bucket seats, stick-shift or stereo. But if you think Cutlass S is young all over, don't forget that it is Olds all over, too. Olds quality, Olds engineering and the new GM safety features are all standard.

News From RANGER JOURNALISM CLASS

By MARILYN GOODWIN

Both the RJC basketball teams are on the road to victory. The Rangers and the Range Anns brought home victories Monday night from Weatherford. Keep up the good work... RJC boys better watch it. New draft regulations state that students must file a written request with his home draft board if he wants a student deferment. Merely enrolling in college no longer does the trick. Mrs. Allen, the RJC registrar, has the details for the asking... Jean Plummer, Sue Morrison, Teri Hendricks, and Mary Jane Lee will be glad when the football boys get back. They seem to think it is quite lonesome around RJC... It is going to be deserted around the entire campus for a few days while everyone goes home to enjoy Thanksgiving with family. Then it is back to the campus for that long haul until Christmas holidays begin.

that it is only 34 days till Christmas?

Speaking of football, the Rangers met Taft Junior College at Taft, Calif., last Saturday night. The score was 60-7, but even if we didn't win, we know the guys gave them a good fight... Thanksgiving Day the boys play the boys from New Mexico Military Institute at Roswell.

Words cannot describe the pride everyone on campus feels after last Sunday night's Community Thanksgiving Concert at First Baptist Church. Our choir performed beautifully. They are a real credit to our college.

Have you heard about the nicknames at Nicksick? Lulu, Skipper, Jeep, Snoopy, Scooter, Peanuts, and Olive Oil need just ask Jean Plummer... Wonder what this pocket business is with Jo White... Wonder also what Droopy find so interesting in Arkansas... and while we are wondering, wonder who the mysterious phantom is who keeps putting the signs on dorm doors.

Any family in Eastland interested in entering their home in the Christmas tree lighting contest, may receive an entry blank from the Home Demonstration Agent's Office, Courthouse. More information will appear soon in the local paper. The contest offers many prizes and is sponsored by the Civic League and Garden Club in Eastland.

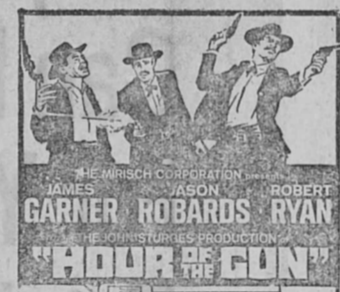

Thanksgiving is almost here and turkey is one of the most economical protein foods on the market — and just in time for the holiday season. Cranberries are also available — but the cranberry season is short so you may want to freeze a few cartons for future use.

We are still Pilgrims

We no longer give thanks around a rough wooden table in a forest clearing. Our problems and rewards have taken different shapes too, but they are basically the same.

We are still making a pilgrimage, the same search for a fuller and more fruitful life under freedom of religion. And we are still thankful for the faith that sees us through adversity and guides us on that pilgrimage.

Thanksgiving Day was named for its meaning—the day that we come together to give thanks for our faith and our full life . . . and to remember that we are still pilgrims.

This Thanksgiving Day, give your thanks, strengthen your faith, enlighten your pilgrimage, at your place, of worship.

REPORT FORMS SENT OUT BY WATER RIGHTS COMMISSION

The Texas Water Rights Commission has announced that it has begun distribution of reporting forms required by the Water Rights Adjudication Act of 1967.

Persons using public surface water in Texas for any purpose other than for domestic or livestock uses without a permit are required by recent legislative action to file a sworn statement with the Texas Water Rights Commission for recognition of their claim. This must be done no later than Sept. 1, 1969.

The Water Rights Adjudication Act, effective Aug. 28, 1967, provides that all claims of water rights must be recorded with the Water Rights Commission. These claims must be valid under existing law and will be limited to actual use. All water rights are to be adjudicated and administered by the Commission "to the end that the surface water resources of the State may be put to their greatest beneficial use, "to quote the new law.

This Act will not affect users of ground water. Users of surface water for domestic or livestock purposes only also will not be affected. The new law applies to and may limit claims to riparian waters, waters diverted or impounded for use other than for domestic and livestock purposes, "... claims to water rights under the Irrigation Acts of 1889 and 1895 which were not filed with the State Board of Water Engineers in accordance with the Irrigation Act of 1913, as amended..." and all other claims to water rights for which permits or certified filings have not been granted.

Only the maximum volume of water beneficially used by claimants during any one year from 1963 to 1967, inclusive, will be recognized under the new law. If an individual has expanded his water application facilities prior to this Act but has not fully used the facilities, the volume used without waste from 1963 to 1970, inclusive, will be recognized. These individuals will need to file an additional sworn statement on or before July 1, 1971 to include the additional two years.

Water authorities have explained there will never be enough water in Texas for each individual to have an equal share. Therefore, available public waters must be appropriated to individuals (based on priority, necessity and legal right. The Water Rights Adjudication Act is designed to protect the rightful users of public waters from waste and unlawful users.

The Act empowers the Commission to adjudicate water rights in the State. Adjudication of a stream may be initiated upon the Commission's own motion, by a petition signed by ten or more claimants of water rights on the same stream, or upon a petition by the Texas Water Development Board.

The new law contains detailed procedures to insure due process and notice. Judicial review of the Commission's final determination is mandatory.

The eventual determination in every water right adjudication will be final. The Water Rights Adjudication Act provides, "Except for domestic and livestock purposes or rights subsequently acquired by permit, not water rights shall be recognized in the adjudicated stream or segment unless included in the final decree."

Upon final determination of water rights on a stream, the Commission will issue a certificate of adjudication to each person found to have a water right. All permits for unappropriated water granted after a stream is adjudicated will be administered in the same manner as an adjudicated right.

During drought periods, especially on larger streams, it will be necessary to closely supervise all rights. The Commission will divide the State into water divisions and appoint watermasters to regulate stream flow and water usage. Any person dissatisfied with the actions of a watermaster may appeal to the Commission and then to the courts.

The watermaster and necessary assistants will be paid by the Commission which in turn will be reimbursed by the holders of water rights.

Water users on non-adjudicated streams may enter into a written agreement with the Commission for administration of the stream flow and a special watermaster will be assigned.

The Water Rights Adjudication Act involves three basic premises. The Act provides for up-to-date recording of all water right claims in the State, for the adjudication of these rights on streams upon filing of necessary petitions, and for administration of adjudicated rights during times of water shortage to insure that rights and priorities are protected.

The Recording Forms may be obtained free of charge from the Texas Water Rights Commission, P. O. Box 12396, Capitol Station, Austin, Texas 78711.

AUSTIN — Gov. John Connally did what very few people in your capitol city expected him to do when he announced that he would not be a candidate for re-election in 1968.

About the only person who really felt that he would not run, and said so, was Lt. Gov. Preston Smith, an already-announced candidate for Governor.

Connally's declaration brought forth many reactions. Republicans felt it would impetus to their 1968 campaign plans... which seem to include former attorney general Will Wilson in the governor's race.

Liberals cheered for word from Sen. Ralph Yarborough, Houston lawyer Don Yarborough and other potential gubernatorial candidates.

Conservatives began a sudden gussing game, with former attorney general Waggoner Carr apparently high on

Exam Due Soon For Summer Jobs In Government

WASHINGTON, D.C.—Congressman Omar Burleson (D Texas) said today that the Civil Service Commission is now receiving applications for the 1968 competitive examination for summer employment with the United States Government. The examination leads to eligibility for appointment to most temporary summer jobs at Grades GS-1 through 4, and also Post Office Seasonal Assistant jobs at PF-S4 level.

Those who are interested in the summer jobs covered may apply to take the written test on or before three filing dates—Dec. 8, 1967, January 5, and February 1, 1968. Representative Burleson stressed that no application postmarked after February 1 will be accepted. If you miss the test you can't be considered for jobs filled by this application and for maximum consideration, you should apply early.

The Congressman noted that last year's eligibles, including those who were elected for a summer job, must take this new examination. This will provide an equal chance for all applicants to compete for one of these short term non career jobs.

Congressman Burleson pointed out that one significant change in this year's program will permit applicants to be considered for Post Office seasonal assistant jobs, which, in prior years, were filled by taking a special examination.

Any application forms needed to apply for jobs described in Civil Service Commission Announcement No. 414 may be obtained from high school counseling offices, college placement offices, most post offices, and Civil Service Interagency Boards.

Copies of Announcement No. 414, entitled "Summer Jobs in Federal Agencies", which provides complete information about summer job opportunities in Federal Agencies is currently available on request through Congressman Burleson's Washington office, located in Room 2369 Rayburn House Office Building, Washington, D. C., 20515, or at the Congressman's district office, 2101 Federal Building, Abilene, Texas, 79601.

"Thanksgiving? Thanks for what?"

Most everybody asks a blessing over his Thanksgiving turkey as a ritual. But how many of us remember that giving thanks is the deepest, most meaningful sort of prayer?

These cynical days, of course, you'll hear some people say, "What have I got to say thanks about?"

The answers to that never change: Thanks for what we have, no matter what that is.

Thanks for what we are, and can be.

Thanks for all God's blessings on us and on others.

This Thanksgiving, think of what giving thanks really means.

In the truest sense of gratitude, it means each of us must re-dedicate himself to the idea that "God's work must truly be our own." Everywhere, Every day.

People change the world. Thankful people change it for the better.

ROME: the eternal city

BY MRS. JOE STEPHEN
How can one describe Rome, one of the most magnificent and historic cities of the world?

As we drive through the streets and Piazzas we are impressed with so many, many fountains. There are fountains in the parks, fountains in the piazzas, and then more fountains, all centered with a statue of some historical figure. When I asked our guide why so many fountains he answered thus:

"You remember in the Bible, Christ turned wine into water; well, here the Pope reversed this."

There are Cathedrals, Palaces, museums, statues, obelisks, chateaus, and then more. Of course the Trevi Fountain (Three Coins) was most popular with thousands of folk tossing coins into it. The coins are thrown over the left shoulder with the right hand and three wishes are made: the first, that you return to Rome; the second, that you will either get married or divorced (whichever); and the third wish is a secret one. We took pictures at this spot.

We come to the Vatican, the residence of the Pope for about six centuries. A tour through this architectural masterpiece fills one with awe and humility. Outside, we purchased some rosaries for friends back home. St. Peter's Square with its fountain by Bernini (1675) is something to behold!

This square which is the more imposing in Rome is 240 metres wide by 340 metres long. In the center stands a splendid obelisk 25 metres high on top of which can be seen a cross, which is said to contain a relic of the Holy Cross. This obelisk was transported from Heliopolis, and Caligula ordered it to be placed on the "Spina" of the Vatican Circus. Sixtus V had it finally transported into the center of the square where it now stands... the Colonnade... St. Peter's Basilica... In the first chapel, we admire the "Pieta", one of the most beautiful works of young Michelangelo. His name is chiseled on the sash that goes over the Madonna's shoulder. On the knees of the immortal young Virgin lies the body of Christ who seems to be asleep. I brought home a miniature Pieta which I treasure very much.

The Vatican Library in the Sistine Hall is the foremost in Europe for the amount of antique manuscripts and rare books... the Sistine Chapel is beyond description, as far as I am concerned. It was built by the architect Giovanni for Sixtus IV in 1470. The frescoes that decorate it were begun in 1481. In 1508 young Michelangelo was ordered to paint the ceiling of the Sistine Chapel. The gigantic task was begun in May, 1508 and finished in November, 1512. Twenty-three years later the great artist began "The Last Judgment". I am sure we walked miles and miles through this magnificent Chapel and I wish we had had a pedometer to ascertain just how many miles we did walk and how many hundreds of stairs we climbed!

We arrive at the Colosseum, which at one time could accommodate more than 50,000 spectators. It became famous both for the wrestlings of the gladiators and for the persecutions of Christians... an immense amphitheatre, whose real name is Flavian Amphitheatre. The Colosseum, of elliptical form is 205 yards long and 170 yards wide... the Temples of Venus and Roma were on the tour, as well as the Arch of Titus... the monument to Victor Emmanuel II (II)... the Trajan Forum... the Capitol (designed by Michelangelo) for Pope Paul III, the Temple of Esculapio... the Piazza Navona... Pincio-Moses' Fountain... Fountain of the Naiads... the basilica of St. Mary Major, the fourth church of Rome, is so called because it is the largest dedicated to the Virgin.

The Cathedral of Rome, the mother of all churches in Rome, and in the world. Founded by Constantine, it has been destroyed and rebuilt many times. The statue of St. John is prominent in front of this cathedral. The statue of Moses by Michelangelo, stands in the center of the church of St. Peter's. The Pantheon, the most perfect of all classical monuments in Rome, is dedicated to St. Mary of the Martyrs. And now we drive along the "Appian Way". No other road is so well known in the world... St. Paul's Basilica... sumptuous and impressive with its endless rows of columns and the mystic light from the double row of alabaster windows above them. And now we come to the Roman Forum, the most celebrated place of ancient Rome. Here we see the remains of ancient Temples of all ages as that of Castor and Pollux, as well as the Julia Basilica, the most extensive building of the Forum. Imagine our delight when our directors told us they had tickets available for those who wanted to see "Sound and Light" in the Roman Forum in the evening! This is a performance of magic impressiveness which recalls the life of ancient Rome, and which is displayed in a SET, unique in the world... from May to October... the "Evocation of Rome." It takes you back to the spirit, the history, and the destiny of the light and sound engineering 2 show one of the great attractions of Rome and a MUST on your visit to Rome! It was different to take notes in total darkness, but I do remember one sentence that stands out in my mind:
