GENERAL RAINS WELCOMED

Sunday, June 2 appeared to be just another hot and humid day in Eastland County. The winds were in the right direction - south, southeast and bringing up moisture. A'dry-line' was sitting in its usual spot somewhere west of Abilene.

But nothing really happened until about 4 p.m., when clouds began to pull into a dark line across the northwest. By 4:30 p.m. heavy thunderstorms rolled in from Callahan and Shackelford counties, raked through the Cisco area and turned through Eastland north. Hail was predicted, but none fell

About 5:15 p.m. another line of clouds came through, and this one made up for everywhere the other one missed. There were heavy downpours of rain, lightening, and flickering interruptions of electricity. Some wind and hail was reported around Rising Star, but the county generally escaped much damge.

The rain fell so hard that it packed some of the dirt roads in the country, but also washed through low areas and along creeks.

Totals on Sunday's rainfall were reported as: Cisco 2 inches in town; 1.9 on the Rising Star Highway and further south, over 2 inches.

Eastland had 2.05 inches, according to Ron Bailey of the Soil Conservation Office. Other reports listed Ranger as 1.25 inches, Eastland County Water District Pump Station, 1.40; Lake Leon, 1.40 inches; Carbon, 2.50 inches and Gorman, 3 inches.

The area west and NW of Rising Star reports some of the largest totals in the county. The town of Rising Star received 2.8 inches, 3.5 northwest and 5 inches at Pioneer. The heaviest of the rain came around 7 p.m.

By mid-morning Monday clouds came in from the northwest again, bringing more general rainfall to the county.

ASCS Director Ron Bailey checked his records and found that Eastland hadn't received this much rain for 10 months - since July, 1990. A rain of 2.23 inches fell in Eastland that month.

Bailey also noted that Albany in Shackelford by Monday morning, and Breckenridge 4 inches County reported 6 inches Sunday night.

RAINS BENEFICIAL TO AREA COUNTY AGENT SAYS

The general rains which fell in Eastland County Sunday and Monday are of great benefit to agriculture in the county, says David Tunmire, County Agent.

He said that of course theremight be some isolated places where hay had been out and was on the ground, of course that would not be good. But most of the county really needed the rain, including many peanut farmers who did not have enough moisture to plant, he said. Now they can get their crop planted as soon as the ground is dry enough. 'In addition to the peanuts, the rains will help range conditions and fields where coastal bermuda has been cut,' Tunmire says. They will also help sudan, sorgums, and just about anything else that needed water. 'I sure hope the rains will do something to eliminate the grasshoppers they are really a pest out in the county. But we won't know until the water dries up how many of the young ones are going to come back out.'

Move To Resuscitate IRA Deduction Picks Up Steam

(Reprinted from AARP choice of splitting their Bulletin.)

A move to revive individual retirement accounts (IRAs), once America's most widely used tax break, and make them even more attractive is gaining momentum in Congress.

Legislation to restore deductions repealed by the 1986 Tax Reform Act quickly picked up 75 cosponsors after being introduced in the Senate by Sens. Lloyd Bentsen, D-Texas, and William V. Roth Jr., R-Del.

With Bentsen, who's chairman of the powerful Senate Finance Committee, leading the way, the bill has a good chance of passing the Senate this session. But prospects in the House aren't as bright, primarily because of opposition from President Bush and from Rep. Dan Rostenkowski, D-lll., who can tie up the legislation in the Ways and Means Committee, which he chairs.

Both the White House, which hcks a more modest proposal for improving IRAs, and Rostenkowski contend that the bill would cost the government $25 billion in lost revenue over five years, and thereby jeopardize efforts to control the federal deficit.

AARP has taken no position on the Bentsen-Roth measure. "The question is what kind of taxes would be put into place for making up the revenue loss," says AARP legislative director John Rother.

Rother adds, however, that "AARP encourages the development of mechanisms to help people save for retirement," and increasing public savings is what the bill's sponsors aim to do.

First of all, the Bentsen-Roth bill would restore a flat taxdeductible contribution of up to $2,000 a year to IRAs for all Americans, no matter what their income (the White House alternative would not permit this up-front deduction). Under present law, this option is available only to persons who have no pension plan, or those who have a plan but earn $25,000 a year or less ($40,000 for a couple).

Further, the bill would permit individuals to forego the up-front deduction and collect tax-exempt interest instead if they keep their money in the IRA for five years. And, they would have the Comanche County Elec-Cooperative Association's Centsible Saver Programs, which began June 1 and include the Centsible Cooling Rebate Program and the Centsible Water Heater Rebate Program, offers cooperative members cash rebates for installing energy-efficient cooling and heating systems and high efficiency electric water heaters. Besides putting cash in the consumer's pocket, the CENTSIBLE SAVER PROGRAM will bring additional benefits for years to come. A high efficiency air conditioner or heat pump will continue to save the consumer money by lowering his average monthly electricity usage. This conserves energy and lowers the cooperative's long-term electricity demand and the need for new, expensive power plants.

The CENTSIBLE SAVER PROGRAM is just one more way Comanche County Electric Cooperative Association is trying to help its members. For more than 50 years, Comanche County Electric Cooperative Association has provided reliable electric service at competitive rates. Now, by offering rebates for high-efficiency units, consumers save money and the cooperative saves money, which keeps our rates down. It's a win-win situation."

Comanche County Electric Cooperative Association invites its members to visit with one of its trained professionals about the new CENT-SIBLE SAVER PRO-GRAM and the long-term benefits of energy efficient appliances. The cooperative's phone number is 915-356-2533.

Two Distinguished Alumni Honored At TSU And Texas A&M

Tarleton State University and The Texas A&M University System Board of Regents Friday honored two distinguished alumni - one for distinguished service in the Texas Senate and one a distinguished scientist who will fly aboard the space shuttle this month. The regents unanimously adopted formal resolutions honoring State Sen. Robert L. Glasgow and shuttle astronaut Dr. Millie Hughes-Fulford. The resolutions were passed upon the recommendation of Dr. Dennis McCabe, interim president of Tarleton State.

Tarleton is in the 22nd Senatorial District that Sen. Glasgow represents Stephenville institution and was named a Distinguished Alumnus of the school in 1987. He also served as governor for a day last Saturday.

Hughes-Fulford, also a graduate of Tarleton, was named the university's 1990 Distinguished Alumna. An associate professor of biochemistry at the University of California Medical Center at San Francisco, she conducts an extensive research program, including cancer research. She has been designated a payload specialist for this month's NASA Spacelab Life Sciences I shuttle mission. She also is a major in the Army reserve. The regents' resolution honoring Sen. Glasgow specifically cited his service to education at all levels in Texas.

"He has been a loyal friend and supporter of public and higher education in general and of Tarleton State University and The Texas A&M University System in particular," the regents said, pointing out that he has also brought honor to Subscribe Today! them through "his many accomplishments and contributions."

The regents closed their resolutions by formally expressing their admiration and gratitude to the senator and to Hughes-Fulford. They directed that copies of the documents be presented to each of them and to the archives at Tarleton.

June 1, 1991, your columnist attended the reunion of the class of 1941 of Eastland High School at the Lone Cedar Country Club as they celebrated their 50th anniversary since graduation. In fact his wife, Verne Allison Dykes was a member. of that class who had come to renew old acquaintances and to swap stories to each other about memories in high school, and about their families and how wonderful it was to see each other again. How much fact and fiction went into these remembrances only the Lord knows.

Virgil Seaberry, Attorney at Law in Eastland, who followed in the footsteps of his father in the field of law, presided at the reunion. Not only was he president of the class of 1941, but also he had the honor of being the valedictorian of the class through disciplined study and ability to keep fact from fiction through Proper watering saves lawns and water is the final part of the Water Quality and Conservation Series. Homeowners in Texas estimate that 30 percent of lawn maintenance costs is for watering. Thus, good water management is essential.

Newly seeded or sprigged lawns should be watered lightly at frequent intervals while established lawns should be watered heavily at infrequent intervals is stressed by Dr. Bill Knoop, Extension Turfgrass Spe- least 5 days between cialist.

There are a number of factors that should be considered when developing a watering program for lawns according to Knoop.

he said. Water penetrates a sandy soil much faster than a clay soil, so lawns grown on sandy soils will require more frequent watering than those grown on soils that are high in clay. Because water moves fairly slowly into a clay soil, the rate at which water is applied to this type of lawn should be as slow as possible.

Another consideration is the slope of the lawn. Lawns with a high degree of slope present a particular problem. It is very easy for water to run down the slope without penetrating the soil. Water must be applied at very slow rates from sprinklers near the top of the slope. Sprinklers near the bottom of the slope may prove ineffective, the turfgrass specialist said.

factor in the watering program for a lawn. The faster the lawn grows the more water it requires, Knoop explained. "The new slow-release fertilizers do not tend to produce high growth rates. Heavy applications of fertilizers high in soluble nitrogen should be avoided," he said.

Management factors also play a part in the watering program. "The use of an aerifier or coring device will aid in increasing movement of water into the soil. A surfactant or wetting agent may also aid the movement of water into high clay soils," Knoop said. Knowing when to water is important in developing and maintaining an attractive, efficient lawn. Ideally a lawn should be watered just as it begins to wilt, the specialist said. Most grasses take on a dull, dark appearance and the leaf blades begin to fold or roll at this time. Grass under stress also shows evidence of tracks after someone walks across the lawn. "A common bermudagrass lawn should be able to go at waterings," Knoop said. Early morning is considered the best time to water. "The wind is usually calm and the temperature is low, so less water is lost to evapora-One is the type of soil, tion. The worst time to water is late evening because the lawn tends to stay wet all night, making more susceptible to disease." Applying the proper amount of water is critical, Knoop said. When a lawn needs water, enough should be applied so that the soil is wetted to a depth of 4-6 inches, he advised. One to 11/2 inches of water should wet the soil to a depth of 4-6 inches.

If the water applications are too light and too frequent, the turf tends to become weak and shallow-rooted, which makes it more susceptible to heat and drought stress.

Knoop suggested a simple plan by which homeowners can find out how much water their sprinkler puts out in an Fertilization is another hour and check its distribution pattern at the same

* Set out 3 to 5 empty cans in a straight line going away from the sprinkler. Set the last can near the end of the sprinkler's coverage.

* Run the sprinkler for a period of time such as an hour.

* Measure the amount of water in each can.

* If each can has a different amount of water in it, the sprinkler is not providing an even cover-

From this test, determine how long your sprinkler must run to apply an inch of water to your turf. Then run the sprinkler long enough to apply at least one inch of water or until runoff occurs.

If runoff occurs first: * Stop the sprinkler.

(Note running time.) * Allow the water to soak into soil for half an

* Start the sprinkler. (Note running time.)

* If runoff again occurs, repeat steps two and three until at least one inch of water has been applied and allowed to soak into the soil.

Do not irrigate again until the lawn has completely dried out and shows the drought stress symptoms. This usually means four or five days, Knoop said.

The turfgrasses used in our lawns vary in their need for water, Knoop said. In order of increasing water requirement, they are:

1. Buffalograss (requires the least)

2. Common Bermuda

3. Zoysia 4. "Tif" Bermuda

5. St. Augustine 6. Tall Fescue (requires

Texas Republicans are not the only ones unhappy with the redistricting bill now on the governor's desk.

Houston Hispanics, contending they were short-changed in the Scnate, want Gov. Ann Richards to veto the bill, thereby throwing to a board controlled by Democrats.

Daily Crude Average Rises In March

Texas crude oil production averaged 1,769,614 barrels daily in March, according to preliminary figures released by Railroad Commission Chairman Lena Guerrero. March 1990 preliminary production was 1,734,639 barrels daily.

This figure compares with preliminary February production of 1,764, 042 barrels daily. Final production reports for February indicated average production at 1,794,384 barrels daily.

The preliminary Texas oil production figure for March is 54,858,047 barrels, up from 49,394,721 barrels in February. March 1990 preliminary Texas oil production figure was 53, 773, 804 bar-

Guerrero said the state's top producing counties, rank ordered by preliminary March production, were: Gaines, 3,632,997 barrels; Andrews, 3,143,104 barrels; Ector, 3,060,925 barrels; Yoakllm, 2,714,461 barrels; Hockley, 2,531,815 barrel s; Gregg, 2,274,186 barrels; Pecos, 2,084,862 harrels; Crane, 1,565,369 barrels; Frio, 1,319,155 barrels; and Scurry, 1,089,110 barrels.

Eastland County produced 79,834 barrels of crude oil in March, which was up from previous figures.

Fishing Outdoors

By Terry L. Wilson

NATIONAL FISHING WEEK

The first week of June has once again been declared National Fishing Week. Many organizations will be sponsoring informative and fun events for all ages. The center for this year's week is once again the youth, tomorrow's outdoor persons. So let's everyone set a day aside to take a kid fishing.

It has come to our attraction that the West Texas Tournament Trail Classic has been announced for Leon. This will give area businesses another boost during our saging economy.

With this addition and future events already announced for 1991, Leon will have hosted five major fishing events, all bringing out of town visitors to local businesses.

Anumber of area teams will be traveling to Lake Twin Buttes June 8 and 9 for the Anglers Choice Northwest Team event.

Local teams in the race for the October Classic include 26th place James Fullen and B.J. Johnson; Bud Wood and Buth Willingham, 22nd place; Bob and Joe Bob Moore,

There is no need for concern about mercury contamination in fish on Red Bluff Reservoir near Carlsbad, N.M., and Lake Meredith near Amarillo. Based upon fish sampling by the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department and analysis by the Texas Department of Health, officials said fish consumption advisories are not warranted.

All fillets analyzed for mercury from the two reservoirs had concentrations lower than the federal Food and Drug Administration action level

The sampling was initiated after New Mexico officials issued fish consumption advisories because of elevated mercury levels in fish at Santa Rosa and Ute reservoirs, located on the Pecos and Canadian rivers. Those rivers drain into Red Bluff and Meredith, respec-

Two sets of fish were collected from Red Bluff Reservoir, said Bill Follis, TPWD fisheries biologis whose crew collected the samples. Six hybrid stripers from 5.6 to 8 pounds were sent to the TPWD Resource Protection Central Laboratory in San Marcos, and six hybrids (2.7 to 12.3 pounds), two carp (3.4 and 4.8 pounds) and two smallmouth buffalo (5.7 and 9.7 pounds) were sent to the TDH laboratory. TPWD analyzed fillets and livers to obtain environmental information. while TDH analyzed only fillets, since their primary interest is human health, he said. Fillets from both samples had comparable concentrations of total mercury, said Ted Ground, manager of the San Marcos lab. Congressmen Charles Stenholm and Pat Roberts, co-chairmen of the House Rural Health Care Coalition, today announced the introduction of 15 bills aimed at improving health care access in rural areas.

"Our package covers the full gamut of rural health concerns and, while ambitious, is also very realistic, both politically and fiscally," said Stenholm. "We're not introducing bills simply to make a political statement or to catch a newspaper headline; we're introducing bills which should have a good chance of being implemented and, ultimately, of improving rural health care."

Stenholm authored two of the 15 bills. The Rural Hospital Medicare Certification Due Process Act of 1991, H.R. 2240, attempts to ensure that termination of a hospital from the Medicare program occurs only in a process that is substantively and procedurally fair. The bill would: 1) require that the hospital

RuthStewart, M.Ed. Q. As a wife how can I be a better follower of my husband's wishes for our family?

A. 1. Let go: The first thing to do is to let go fo the reins of the family. Step out of the leadership position. Let him lead and you follow.

2. Have a Girlish trust in Him: You will have to allow for his mistakes and trust in his motives. The man will feel more responsible when someone places childlike trust in hime. (There will be more on this next time.)

Letter To The Editor

Dear Editor,

the voters to sign something and get a vote and you haven't even figured out what we are going to vote for. I'm all for providing emergency medical treatmentviaambulances staffed by trained EMT's, but I'm not real happy by the unthought out way ya'll are going about it. First off, I always thought there had to be ten percent of the registered voters to sign a petition to get a vote on something, Ya'll seemed to have come up with an awfully low number to sign. I also seem to remember in the articles in the paper that it was said that the cities could participate. Seeing as how the people in town have to pay county taxes too, I would sure hope they are included. As the city voters pay county taxes and vote in county elections, I don't see that you could exclude any of the cities or charge them a fee. The same goes for the differenthospital districts, they are all county residents and pay county taxes.

If the voters pass this new district, are ya'll going to buy out the different ambulance services or are you going to buy all This letter is in regards new equipment and comto the proposed county pete against them until wide ambulance service. you force them out of It is also an open letter to business? Are you just the county commission- going to try and take them ers. You are trying to get over without any compensation, or will you just step in and take up operations and paying out and receiving all monies? If any of the ambulance services don't want to be controlled by the county, will the county have to set up a second service to cover the taxpayers along with the others service? Will the wages of the EMT's be sustained at a level that will keep good EMT's here or will you drop it to minimum wage and make it just a job until they can find something better? How much revenue do ya'll predict this 10 cents per $100 taxation will generate? Will the members of the proposed board in charge of this county wide service be appointed by ya'll or elected by the voters?

I'm not real happy with the idea that you said you would cut off funding to the ambulance services in September and then push thru a vote by August. Is it only me, or does it seem like arm twisting to you voters also? I for one will not support this effort or vote for it until there are some real plans made and we the people" are inof Texas has announced the award of a $1,791,000 low-interest loan to the Comanche County Electric Cooperative Association.

The funding provided by the Rural Electrification Administration will finance construction of new electric facilities, including 115 miles of distribution line, as well as other system improvements. The expansion will allow the cooperative to serve an additional 1,428 customers.

The loan is for 35 years at 5 percent interest.

"I believe in assuring that Texans get a fair return on the tax dollars we send to Washington," Gramm said in announcing the project.

"So I am pleased that this loan will provide permanentimprovements which will benefit local residents," the senator said. REA operates both electrification and telephone service programs and has provided low-interest loans and loan guarantees to small companies and cooperatives for over 50 years. The agency was authorized by Congress to

The Eastland County Bass Club will hold its monthly meeting Thursday, June 6, at the Eastland National Bank. It will start at 7:30 p.m. All members are urged to attend because we will select a committee to nominate members for offices that will become open in September.

Wednesday, June 5, is our next ECBC sponsored jackpot at Lake Leon with headquarters at Chock-O-Block. Fishing hours are from 6 to 9 p.m. and anglers are reminded that they have to pay before fishing. These jackpots are open to anyone wanting to fish with us.

The next scheduled monthly interclub tournament will be Sunday, June 9. Anglers will meet at Double Vision Restaurant in Eastland for the drawing of the lake to be fished.

This drawing will take place at 6 a.m. Fishing hours will then be set. The race for Angler-of-the-Year and for the Top Six in our club is still wide open and club members need to be reminded that our new year starts in September.

On Saturday, June 15, the ECBC will sponsor a jackpot on Lake Leon with headquarters at Chock-O-Block. Fishing hours will be from 7 a.m. until 2 p.m. This jackpot will have a $15 entry fee with a big bass calcutta that is optional. These jackpots are in addition to our weekday jackpots and give anglers more time to fish. Anyone wanting more information about these jackpots or any club activities can contact Gary Horton at 647-3888 or Butch Willingham at 442-3142.
