

EARLY VOTING FOR NOV. 5 ELECTION BEGINS OCT. 16

Early voting by personal appearance for the Nov. 5 Election in Eastland County will be Oct. 16 through Nov. 1. Voting will be held in the County Clerk's office, first floor of the Courthouse, during regular office hours Monday-Friday 8:30 a.m. - 5 p.m.

This election deals with 13 Constitutional Amendments, and is considered a very important one.

Senate Bill 1186 was enacted recently to change the term in the Election Code from "absentee voting" to "early voting." This accommodates the change in the law allowing any voter to vote early regardless of whether he or she will be absent from the county.

This does not apply to the early voting application by mail, County Clerk JoAnn Johnson says. There are certain other deadlines and restrictions on this type of voting. An individual may call the County Clerk's office for information concerning an application by mail, or go in person to the office and pick up a form.

All registered voters are urged to study the proposed Amendments and cast a vote, either early or on Nov. 5.

Re: Steven Douglas Alford - Inmate # 391037
Dear Board Members:
This office is in receipt of notification that the above referenced inmate will become eligible for parole consideration in the near future.

This is to serve as a protest in the most strenuous of terms. This inmate is a serial rapist and the residents of Eastland County view the circumstances of Mr. Alford's crimes as some of the most heinous crimes ever committed in this area. Said crimes weigh heavy on the minds of the residents of Eastland County.

While Mr. Alford's parole notice and criminal history will reflect that he was convicted of three charges of burglary of a habitation, these burglaries were all in the course of committing extremely brutal sexual assaults and beatings of elderly women. Mr. Alford can only be considered as extremely violent and vicious and will continue to pose as a threat to the community where ever he may be.

The only reason my predecessor in office consented to plead these cases to burglary with a fifty year sentence was due to the fact that none of the victims were fully able to withstand court appearance. One of the victims, Mrs. Brown, was beaten so severely that she has not yet recovered from the traumatic effects of the beating and the entire experience.

To release Mr. Alford from prison in this short time considering the number of vicious crimes that he committed and the helpless and defenseless nature of his victims would be a travesty.

Prior to the parole of Mr. Alford, this office respectfully requests an opportunity to be heard further on this matter before the entire parole board if need be.

Attached hereto is a narrative taken from the statement of fact form filed by my predecessor in office, Mr. Emory Walton who was the District Attorney during the duration of the case, which gives a brief summary of the offenses for which Mr. Alford is incarcerated. I believe even these brief narratives speak for themselves to the issue of whether or not Mr. Alford should ever be considered for parole.

Respectfully submitted,
Leslie B. Vance

SADOWSKI ANNOUNCES CAMPAIGN HEADQUARTERS, TOP WORKERS

Jeannie Sadowski, Republican Candidate for U.S. Congress, 17th District, announces that her Campaign Headquarters is located at 204 West Main in Eastland. The new phone number at the office is 629-3339.

Mrs. Sadowski also announces that her Campaign Manager is her husband, Dr. D.P. Sadowski, her Press Aide is Don Jones, owner and Editor of The Western Observer in Anson. The Campaign

Treasurer is Jim Haas, owner of H & R Block in Eastland. The County Organizer is W. J. Goodwin of Eastland.

"I am pleased that all these fine people have consented to work with me in this Campaign," Jeannie Sadowski says. "Dr. Sadowski has already been of great assistance to me, and the other workers are also dedicated."

Mrs. Sadowski says she has traveled through the 17th District a lot during the year, and will continue to visit people and speak out on issues she feels strongly about. She has talked to a number of Civic groups and made TV appearances in Abilene and Wichita Falls. This week she spoke to a "Right To Life" group in Abilene.

She announced as a Candidate last July, and at present is unopposed on the Republican Party ticket. The incumbent, Congressman Charles Stenholm of Stamford, is unopposed on the Democratic ticket. The party primaries will be held in March, 1992.

Jeannie Sadowski says her campaign is "Upbeat and I would have never dreamed I would get the support and response I have throughout the District."

This support extends to the Republican Party Headquarters in Austin and Washington, D.C., she reports.

"They continually update me with information about Legislative matters," she says.

"The people of Eastland County believe in what we are trying to accomplish," Sadowski states.

"I have many issues in which I differ with Congressman Stenholm, such as his vote to fund phonographic art, his vote for gun control, and his failure to stand up against flag burning.

"We need help in this race - volunteer workers and financial assistance. A campaign can go nowhere without money."

She says that anyone wishing to assist in her campaign may call the headquarters or call 629-8283 and leave a message.

DEER FEEDERS ADVISED TO KNOW SAFETY OF CORN

"Beware, the corn, for the sake of the deer, the turkey and the quails."

That would appear to be a significant warning based on reports which are being heard here and in many parts of the state.

Suspect is that corn which reportedly has higher than acceptable alpha toxin, which supposedly can result in death for animals ingesting it.

One report indicated that a heavy outbreak of the fungus-like disease was prevalent in South Texas this year, and that much of the corn raised there could not be approved for normal livestock feeding, and might wind up being sold across the state for wildlife feed at bargain rates.

And there have been reports of wildlife die-offs in South Texas.

Local Game Warden Kenneth Payne explained that his department had warned of the dangers, and that he is advising that all corn be tested.

Joe McCollum of Eastland Farm and Ranch said that the Gore Industry in Comanche, a large dairy operation, has testing facilities, and supposedly would do testing for the public. Corn at Eastland Farm and Ranch is guaranteed alpha-toxin free and sells for $9.80 a hundred. Most other dealers in this area reportedly are selling guaranteed corn.

Feeders are being advised to buy from established sources and know about the guarantee of the product.

The toxin is the same as has been found in peanuts, and according to County Agent David Tunmire is thought to be caused by drought-stressed crops, which might indicate that this infected corn might be from a previous crop year because of this year's wet record.

Larry Holland, Texas Parks and Wildlife Biologist of Brownwood, recommended caution in the purchase of deer corn, and suggested that even though the reports that are being heard, might be from isolated areas, hunters, land-owners and others would be, should be aware of the danger of buying untested corn.

He said that it was his understanding that there is a firm in the Stephenville area, which serves the dairy industry there, that could perform tests for the public.

Agent Tunmire stated that officials at Texas A & M have advised him that research there has not, as yet, set established tolerance levels for wildlife in reference to the toxin. The officials there, he further said, indicated that they were not aware of a major statewide problem, although there might be isolated cases.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

To the Editor,

I live in Fort Worth, Texas but I subscribe to the "Ranger Times" through the mail. I subscribe mainly to keep up with the people who live in Ranger because a lot of our folks still live there. I have been doing research on our family lines for a number of years now.

In the Sunday edition, I was reading the section entitled, "Letter to the Editor," and the story about Hodge's Oak Park School and it struck home.

I felt compelled to write this letter. In fact, so much so that I didn't wait to get home to write it on proper stationery. I am listing whatever I can find here at work.

I was so moved and touched by the letter from Susan Maurine Rose Bratton and wanted to console her in some way and I hope that if you print my letter, it will help her and may be others who feel as she does.

I am a little young to have attended Hodge's Oak Park but my mother and her sister and brothers went to that school. They lived on Ranger Hill and they also walked, to school and back everyday, although, it wasn't as far as Susan had to walk. I'm sure they enjoyed many pleasurable moments together in route to and from school each day. Maybe, Susan, might remember them. My mother's name was Lois Scott but everybody called her "Honey." She had one sister named Myrl Grace and three brothers named Boyd Clarence Scott, Philo Ralph (P.R.) Scott and Charles Albert (A.B.) Scott.

The last, as well as the first, time I was at the school, it had already been boarded up so no one could vandalize it. It struck me as being a very charming building. One that almost said, "Welcome, come inside and warm yourself by the fire, if it was cold or come inside and have a glass of lemonade if it was hot outside." Just like family or friends would welcome you. It was a building with character, something you can't say about these newer buildings. I love the older buildings. They were constructed with care and attention of appeal to the public it would present hen completed. They were "one of a kind" buildings. Each one built with special touches and craftsmanship all its own. There will never be a building constructed again to remind us of Hodge's Oak Park. One to look upon and remember the good times you had, the friends, the laughter you shared with other when you were young.

My mother came with me when we visited the school and she was surprised to see the boards on the windows and doors. We sat in front of the school for a long time and I knew she was remembering the days when she was young. When life was new and troubles weren't too hard for mama to fix when you got home. We drove down the streets that she used to walk coming to school and going back home and as she remembered some of the things they used to do, her and her brothers and sister, while walking together, she spoke them out loud so I could enjoy them, too. We laughed about some of the times and cried about some of the times. Her mother died when she was nine years old. So, after that, her brothers and sister were very close and the times they spent walking to and from school were very special times of closeness for them.

The sight of Hodge's Oak Park School brought these memories flowing back to her again and allowed me to share something with my mother that I might have missed had that school not been there. I am very saddened to know that it is gone and the memories of someone who went to school there might never be spoken and shared with a loved one. This is why Susan's letter touched my heart because I grew a little closer to my mother by memories of Hodge's Oak Park. Thank God for those moments we had together that day and God bless Susan for her letter that brought memories of that day back to me again.

I had my camera with me that day and I took several pictures of Hodge's Oak Park School. I was a beautiful building.

I am enclosing the negatives. I don't know if there are any pictures other than these available of the school but I've sent these negatives so anyone that would like to have pictures can have some made through your newspaper. Please, send negatives back when everyone has pictures that wants them, in case something happens to mine, I'll be able to have some more made. Keep them as long as you need to, as long as everyone gets some pictures made that wants them.

I hope by doing this that it will help someone to hang onto their memories and share them with a loved one as my mother shared with me that day in front of Hodge's Oak Park School.

Thanks for sharing your memories,
Susan,
Sincerely,
Lois Y. Glass

Nutrition Program

Last year 12,000 people in Texas died from having the flu or pneumonia. Preventive medicine is the most essential factor of good health care. If you were over weight you would not continue to eat as if there was no tomorrow! If you had an opportunity of knowing there was danger for your health you would do everything to prevent being ill. So why not attempt to prevent having the flu. Take your shot. This year the Taiwan and Hong Kong flu virus are entering our country and causing illness and deaths. We encourage you to take the flu shot before November so it will be effective during the winter months.

After you take your flu shot come to the Senior Center. Remember we meet in Eastland on Tuesdays, Wednesdays and Thursdays, while we meet in Cisco Monday, Wednesday and Friday. Visit one or both centers if you have the opportunity.

Call the centers and make reservations for lunch—Cisco 442-1557 or Eastland 629-1382.

Cisco programs for the week were: Mina Green,

Silver Haired Legislature, spoke give an update on the changes that affect senior citizens. Dinner music by Lois Holder, David Jones, Senior Citizens Band and Choir.

Eastland programs were: Mediplex Health Care presented a program. Dinner music by Edity Wampler, La Rue Broussard, Ruth Kendrick and the Senior Center Choir.

Menus for the week: Monday (Cisco) and Tuesday (Eastland)—Hamburger pie with potatoes, pickled beets, peas and carrots, molded cottage cheese salad, apricot cake with topping, bread, butter and milk.

Eastland County Bass Club

The Eastland County Bass Club's interclub monthly tournament will be held this Sunday, Oct. 13, at a mystery lake to be named later. Club members will meet at Double Vision Restaurant in Eastland for the drawing of the lake to be fished. All anglers who enter the tournament can put the name of their favorite lake into the hat and at 6 a.m. we will draw for the lake to be fished. These lakes have to be public water within a 35-mile radius of Eastland except for twice a year we can fish lakes outside of this radius. After the 6 a.m. drawing, fishing hours will be set. One rule change we inserted this year is that we can't fish the same lake two months in a row so that means beautiful Lake Daniels can't be placed in the hat.

One other change we started this year is the Cast for Cash event. Anglers who enter this optional category can win extra money for the biggest fish over 5.99 pounds caught during the monthly club tournament. This special pot is up to $130 and will increase at each tournament until someone wins it and then it will start over. So if no one wins this special pot for several months it could be worth quite a bit of money. The ECBC would be glad to invite prospective new members to come meet with us on Sunday, Oct. 13, at Double Vision Restaurant. There are plenty of club members fishing alone who would be glad to take someone if they do not have a boat.

Area anglers are reminded that the ECBC sponsored weekly jackpot has been postponed until Sunday, Oct. 27, due to our club activities the next two weeks. Our next jackpot will be at Chock-O-Block on Lake Leon with fishing hours from 1:30 to 5:30 p.m. land entry fees have to be paid before fishing. One other reminder about the jackpots as well as club tournament is that fish to be weighed in are to be brought to the scales in a bag with water on them. This is to insure that the fish can be released back into the lake alive.

The ECBC Mini-Classic will be held Oct. 19-20. The top 16 anglers who qualified have been notified by letter as to whether

County Resource Assoc. Discusses Community Needs

The County Food Pantry was a major topic at the Eastland County Resources Association meeting Oct. 3, but there were other important items also.

As previously reported, Volunteer Lois Robinson told the group of the generosity of Eastland and the area in re-stocking the Pantry.

This facility, located in a trailer at 204 N. Lamar, furnished emergency food for 32 families last month. Supplies of staple foods are always needed at the pantry, which is kept open by volunteers Monday, Wednesday and Friday afternoons.

After this report, the problem of how needy people can get help with utility bills was discussed.

They are boaters or non-boaters. These anglers will meet at Double Vision Restaurant in Eastland for the drawing of the lake to be fished and the drawing of partners. We will have 8 boaters and 8 non-boaters who will participate. This drawing will take place at 6 a.m. Boaters who can't attend are asked to call Gary Horton at 647-3888 so other arrangements can be made.

It was reported that a number of people were having trouble paying their gas, electric and even water bills.

Peggy Roberts, Director of the Multipurpose Center (CTO) said the center had assisted a number of people with gas and electric bills in the past. But now her funds were low, with no more funding expected until near the end of October.

It was decided to study the matter of utility bills further, more information was needed on funds sometimes donated by the public with their own bill payments.

Becky McIntire, R.N. brought news of training in parenting and training in a program called "Positive Action For Youth."

She said that Janet Thomas, County Extension Agent, had scheduled a meeting at 9:30 a.m. Oct. 21 to discuss this training in positive leadership skills. The actual program would be brought here by personnel from outside the county, McIntire said. Local people would need to give support in various other ways.

County Resources Director Corrie Cowley and

A meeting will be held at 7:30 p.m. Monday, Oct. 14, in the Community Room of the First National Bank in Cisco. The purpose of this meeting is to begin an organization of a singles support group.

Anyone facing a single life in today's times come up against many problems that will be dealt with. Finding yourself "suddenly single" can be a very over powering feeling, as well as dealing with that aloneness can be a devastating battle.

We are forming a singles others at the meeting said they would support this type of training. They said low self-esteem was a problem in young people (as well as older ones) and this training might help parents and youth learn how to deal with it.

As the session ended the next County Resources meeting was set for Thursday, Nov. 7, 12 noon. The location will be at Eastland Memorial Library, 210 S. Lamar.

Keeping Up With Our Folks

629-3420 By Weems Dykes

CISCO

Your columnist would like to reminisce awhile. Last Saturday my wife Verne and I, going and coming from Albany for a women's area meeting at First Christian Church, passed by the Lake Cisco Dam. I thought, how many years has this old dam held back the water to form Cisco Lake? Since the dedication of the dam on July 4, 1925 it has faithfully fulfilled its mission to help provide a lake for Cisco. When work began on the lake in September of 1920, at that time it was the largest hollow-type reinforced dam in the world, the lake has 35 miles of shore and at one time was the center of recreation for this area, and provides water for the city of Cisco and area systems.

I remember when John Wesley Ford Methodist minister and I would go to Lake Cisco to fish back in 1946 or 47, when I served the First Christian Church in Eastland. He would bait his hook, cast his line into the water and seemingly bring out a fish every time. I would cast my line and get nothing, so I decided my body didn't possess the right kind of chemistry, or I failed to spit on the minnow, maybe it was because I didn't use Beech-nut Tabacco which at least would have some flavor to it. I don't know if Wesley threatened them with hell if they didn't bite, but I never figured out his secret. I do know he was a fine speaker in the pulpit and a good pastor of his people.

One day I remember his wife and two little girls passing by the First Christian Church and one asked their mother what kind of church it was, and she replied, "It's the Christian Church," and the little girl answered, "We're not Christians, we're Methodist, aren't we?" These remembrances are almost 45 years ago but friendships last forever and I'm thankful I knew John Wesley Ford and his family. He is deceased now. I should remember Jesus' advice to his disciples when I go fishing again on Lake Cisco, "Cast on the other side of the boat!"

Thanks Cisco for the use of your lake in 1946.

EASTLAND

F. E. "Floyd" Burke celebrated his 80th birthday. All weekend of the 28th of Sept. with all his children, 7 grand children and two great-grandchildren. First Mrs. Burke prepared a lunch for all in their Lake Leon home which was enjoyed by all with lots of talking and laughter going on.

Saturday night about 5:30 all drove to "Cat Fish Corner" in Carbon and enjoyed lots of different food. Lots of picture taking was going on, also moving pictures were taken by son, David, and grandson, Phillip. When the dinner was over, we all come back to Mr. and Mrs. David Veatch's home on Lake Leon which is Mrs. Burkes' sister to have birthday cake, tea and coffee. Those who celebrated with Floyd were his granddaughter, Kim from Houston and and girls, Nicole from Spring, Texas, Kimberly from Houston; Mrs. Phyllis Hay and family, Tamara Lea, and Derek from Arlington; Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Hay and children Chad, and Brandon from Arlington; Mr. and Mrs. David Veatch of Lake Leon; Mrs. Doris Hutcheson of Burkburnett.

All returned home Sunday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Burke lived in Hammon, Oklahoma for many years where he served as an executive officer in First National Bank.

If you have a bunch of kids, especially boys, then you probably know the person I recently interviewed.

Floyd Williams, son of Homer and Sarah Williams, of Atoka, Oklahoma, was born March 27, 1931. He and his family later moved to Comanche, and Floyd went into the USA Navy in 1948 to 1952.

He and his bride, Joy Grimes of De Leon, were married on May 29, 1950 and moved to Eastland in 1964.

To prepare himself for a vocation, Floyd attended Fort Worth Barber school in Fort Worth and graduated in November of 1953. He and his bride Joy, moved to Graham, where Floyd barbered from 1953-1958. They then moved to Bryson between Graham and Jacksboro and operated Williams Clip Joint from 1958 to 1964 and on to Eastland in 1964 where he worked for George Carter in the Modern Barber Shop from 1964-1968. In 1968 he created the Maverick Barber Shop in the East side of the court house square and is till chief barber in 1991.

Floyd has seen many methods and styles since his barbering day started in 1953. He installed the vacuum system in his barber shop in 1968. He started cutting hair at 85¢ in 1953. Today you'll pay $600 for a regular hair cut. I told him I could remember getting a haircut in the 20's for about 25¢ to 35¢. Only thing about if then was 25 or 35 cents were harder to come by and especially a young boy.

He and Joy have four lovely beautiful children, all are now ladies with families, Judy married Randy Beskow of Eastland and she was born at the San Diego Naval Hospital in 1952. They live in Midland.

Joy married Ronney Pence of Cisco. She was born in Graham Sept. 5, 1954.

Jean married Aldin Limmer and they live in Eastland. Jean was born Sept. 5, 1955.

Janet married Larry Pierce and they live in Beaumont, she was born Aug. 29, 1956 in Graham.

Floyd and Joy have eight grandchildren, four boys and four girls. Kelly and Jon Beskow of Midland, Clay and Erica Pence of Cisco, David and Sarah Lemmer of Eastland, Shane and Janie Pierce of Beaumont. One of the joyous occasions for Floyd and Joy is the three times all of the family gets together in Eastland for a reunion.

One of the codes of conduct Floyd and Joy seeks to maintain is "treat all grandchildren alike and show no partiality," for what they do for one they do for all.

Floyd loves little children, he gives them encouragement, and they are special when they come to get a hair cut at Maverick Barbershop in Eastland.

Though Floyd loves his children, his grandchildren, and his sons-in-law the best part of his life is with his wife, Joy, for she makes his life full and complete as they both share love and devotion for each other as found in the Book of Ruth, "I want to go where you go, do what you do, forever." Hope this free translation won't get me in trouble. Thanks Floyd for the interview!

FALL-TIME TO CONTROL PEACH LEAF CURL

Fall is the time when peach tree care is often forgotten or neglected. Fall is an important time for the control of peach leaf curl. Mid October till December 1st is the time to control this disease to insure a good crop next year. Applying a fungicide now can stop or reduce this disease that can attack peach trees.

Puckered and distorted peach tree leaves that were either bright red or light green in diseased areas last spring were due to peach leaf curl fungus. The only time to effectively control this disease is in the fall with a copper-containing fungicide. A commonly used fungicide is Kocide 101.

Timing of the fall spray is critical for effective control and for avoiding tree damage. Copper is a metal and can cause severe defoliation unless applied correctly. Apply the copper-containing fungicide once the tree has gone dormant.

Other fungicides containing chlorothalonil can also be used to control peach leaf curl. A fungicide in this category is Bravo 720.

Which ever fungicide you select make sure you read and follow the label instructions.

Fall spraying is important to the health and production of peach trees. This also is the only time when peach leaf curl can be controlled.

...NEWS RELEASE: ANNALS OF AUGUSTA COUNTY, VIRGINIA, FROM 1726 to 1871 by Jos. A. Waddell.

This is the standard history of Augusta County, Virginia, which at one time extended from the Blue Ridge Mountains to the Mississippi River, east and west, and from the great lakes on the north to the northern boundary of the present state of Tennessee on the south. Waddell arranges Augusta County's history according to its political milestones, thus we have chapters on the county's first settlement, first courts, Indian wars, Augusta County in the Revolution, and, of course, a number of chapters on Augusta County in the Civil War. Genealogists will most appreciate the discussion of the migration trail out of Augusta County and, interspersed throughout the work, genealogical and biographical sketches of the following Augusta County families: ADAMS, ALEXANDER, ANDERSON, BAXTER, BELL, BLACKBURN, BOWYER, BRECKENRIDGE, BROWN, CAMERON, CAMPBELL, CHRISTIAN, CRAIG, CRAWFORD, CUMMINGS, CUNNINGHAM, DOAK, FLEMING, FLOYD, GAMBLE,

...THE POWHATAN INDIANS OF VIRGINIA; THEIR TRADITIONAL CULTURE by Helen C. Rountree. Reviewer: Pat Gohlke.

In this book one seems to find everything they could ever possibly want to know about the lives of the Indians of central Virginia in the 17th century. A scholarly work well researched, documented and illustrated (twenty four illustrations throughout, 12 pages of bibliography and 40 pages of notes in the prologue).

Mrs. Rountree brings to life a period in our American history that has long been shrouded in mystery and misunderstanding. The topography of the land, what they grew, their habitats, rituals, religion, politics, interaction between tribes and white man and medical practices.

It is not an easy book to speed read because of her use of quotes in the archaic English of the period, but it is well worth the effort if you are interested in this episode in the development of our country.

For Women

Q. How does a woman's dependency upon a man affect him?

A. When a man is in the presence of a tender, gentle, trustful, dependent woman, he feels expansion of his power to protect and shelter this delicate creature. In the presence of such a woman he feels stronger, more competent, bigger, and manlier than ever. The need of the woman for protection appeals to the noblest feelings within him.

Everyone is invited to bring a sack lunch and join us during their noon hour. The program is informal and free.

FAMILY RESPONSIBILITIES

How can you strengthen your family? With too little time and so much to do, we tend to focus on the physical needs of the family at the expense of nurturing its inner core—those values that shape who we are, what we think and how we behave.

Values simplify a complex world, and give young people the strength to stand by their convictions despite contradictory messages they may receive from the world around them. A grounding in family values helps young people make positive decisions.

Fairness is one of those important values. "What you do not want others to do to you, do not do to other" - Confucius. Fairness doesn't always mean treating everyone the same. In a family, for example, fairness must take into account the ages of the children, their needs and capabilities. What is appropriate for an older child may not be appropriate for a younger sibling.

The next time someone in the family complains that "it's not fair!" hold a mock trial.

This is a meaningful exercise that also can be fun for the family and help everyone feel they've contributed to finding solutions. Have the "defendant" and a "prosecutor" present their points of view and have a non-partisan "judge" come up with a solution that everyone thinks is fair. Three days later, check with family members to see if they still believe the solution was fair and is being implemented.

Fairness isn't always possible to achieve. But trying to be fair helps to create harmony in society.

October Is Breast Cancer Awareness Month

October is National Breast Cancer Month and the Texas Department of Health (TDH) and the Centers for Disease Control are joining together to educate women and their families about the importance of early detection of breast cancer.

Early detection provides the best opportunity to treat breast cancer successfully.

"Breast cancer is the most common cancer among women—one out of every nine women in this country develops breast cancer," said Charlene Laramey, Director of the Chronic Disease Prevention Program at TDH. "Recently TDH received a $3 million federal grant from the Centers for Disease Control to screen low-income women over 40 years old for breast and cervical cancer. We expect to begin offering these services in October. This is one of the few times the federal government has awarded funds to states for cancer screening."

In 1989, 2,124 Texas women died from breast cancer; 1,663 were white, 218 were black and 243 were Hispanic. In proportion to the size of population, breast cancer mortality rates were highest (26 percent) among black women and lowest (16.8 percent) among Hispanics.

Risk factors for breast cancer include a family history of breast cancer, early menstruation, no children or first child after age 35, late menopause, obesity due to high fat intake and daily consumption of alcohol. As with most cancers, the earlier it is discovered, the more likely it can be treated and cured. Doctors suggest that women perform a breast self-exam each month, have a breast physical exam every three years between the ages of 20 and 40 and every year after age 40, and have a baseline mammogram done at age 35 to 39 with a mammogram done every one to two years for women ages 40 to 49 and every year for women ages 50 or older.

Rich - Felty

Miss Trecia Kay Rich and Michael Wayne Felty were united in marriage on Saturday, July 6, 1991, at 6 o'clock in the evening at the First Baptist Church, Dean, Texas. The double ring ceremony was officiated by Dr. Roy V. Cartee, retired First Christian minister.

Mr. and Mrs. Emmett L. Rich of Cisco are the parents of the bride. Mr. and Mrs. Marion R. (Jeff) Felty of Wichita Falls are parents of the bridegroom. Mrs. C.L. Rich of Cisco is grandmother of the bride.

Guests were registered by Alisa Mauricio of Wichita Falls. The registry tables were decorated in peach and teal. One table contained the bride's registry book and a peach quill pin. This table also had a porcelain bride doll dress in a replica of the bride's gown. The doll carried a peach and teal bouquet with peach and teal streamers. The doll was designed by and created by Junnie Green of Wichita Falls. The second registry table contained a garden basket covered with white and peach lace on the outside and lined with teal satin and peach lace overlay with peach and teal rose accents on the handle. The basket was filled with peach and teal net filled bird seed bags and white and teal printed scrolls of the wedding program. This basket was designed and created by the bride. This table was also decorated with a peach satin and lace covered photo album with a teal lace overlay framing the couple's wedding announcement which had been transferred on to peach satin with the announcement's original teal ink. The photo album was designed and created by Junnie Green and given to the bride in a wedding shower.

The church was decorated with brass candelabras entwined with greenery and white orange blossoms. There were half fan candelabras on each side of the altar with double ring brass candelabras on the altar with a complete brass fan candelabra in the center of the altar which was entwined with greenery and white orange blossoms on its base with peach and teal roses across the fan under the candles. Triple brass candelabras globes entwined in greenery with orange blossoms marked the family section. The remainder of the pews were marked alternately with peach and teal satin bows.

The bride was escorted by her father who wore a black tuxedo with teal tie and cummerbund. His boutonniere was a peach rose bud and a teal baby shaped lace covered fans with peach and teal sweetheart roses with peach, white and teal streamers.

The bride wore a gown of white satin with a Queen Anne neckline. The puffed sleeves were adorned with lace medallions with pearls and sequins. The dress had a bosque waist and a lace overlay bodice accented in pearls and sequins. The full, pick-up skirt was accented with satin flowers and pearl leaves at each gathering point around the skirt. Chantilly lace extended to the floor under the satin pull ups. The flounced chantilly lace extended into a chapel length train. She wore a floral spray headpiece of satin flowers and cascading pearls around the bride's face. Her veil was fingertip length.

She carried a bouquet of white, peach, and teal sweetheart roses with accents of pearls and pearl leaves through the bouquet. It had streamers of white lace ribbon with peach ribbon through it, accented with streamers of pearls. She wore the traditional something old which was her mother's first set of wedding rings and her maternal grandmother's wedding band. Something blue was a blue sapphire and diamond ring; something new was her wedding gown; and something borrowed was a pair of gold and pearl earrings.

Matron of honor was Sue Howell of Lawton, Okla., sister of the bridegroom. Bridesmaids were Lana Posey of Arlington and Mary Ann Stuart of Cisco. The bridesmaids' dresses were made of peach taffeta with a long dropped lace bodice of teal lace overlay which dropped into a scalloped edge waist line. The dress had a large peach bow at the waist and a teal length slightly flared skirt.

They wore white satin flower hair combs with accents of peach and teal with white and teal simulated pearls cascading toward their faces. They wore white leather heels. They carried white heart shaped lace covered fans with peach and teal sweetheart roses with peach, white and teal streamers.

The bridegroom wore a black tuxedo with tails, a white pleated shirt with black button covers, teal tie and cummerbund. His boutonniere was two peach sweetheart roses with white and teal baby's breath taken from the bride's bouquet.

Bestman was David Howell of Lawton, Okla., brother-in-law of the bridegroom. Groomsmen were David Strawn of Vernon and Greg Swindle of Yukon, Okla., cousin of the bride. The groomsmen also seated guests and lit the candles. They wore black tuxedos, white pleated shirt with black button covers, and teal tie and cummerbund. Their boutonnieres were peach sweetheart roses with teal baby's breath.

The flower girl was Miss Kimberly Howell of Lawton, Okla., niece of the bridegroom. She wore a taffeta knee length dress with a white lace overlay and round collar. Lace with peach ribbon through it, was around the neck, sleeves and skirt of the dress. The sash was peach taffeta with teal lace overlay. Her headpiece was made of white fabric flowers with peach and teal ribbon roses and simulated pearls dangling toward her face. She carried a garden flower basket lined in white carnations with peach and teal sweetheart roses. The handle was covered in white lace with peach ribbon through it, accented with peach and teal satin ribbon bows. The sides of the basket were covered in peach and white lace. The flower girl's basket was designed and created by the bride.

Ring bearer was Cason Swindle of Yukon, Okla., cousin of the bride. He wore a tuxedo that matched the groomsmen. His pillow was made by the mother of the bride. It was a peach satin pillow with a white lace overlay trimmed in white lace and rope pearls with peach and teal sweetheart roses on opposite corners with two white gold wedding bands interlocked in the center of the pillow.

Lindsee and Courtney Taylor of Lubbock, cousins of the bride, passed out wedding scrolls and bird seed bags. They wore peach and teal floral print tea length dresses. They carried white wicker baskets with peach lace around the baskets.

The mother of the bride wore a two piece rose embossed teal suit. The princess jacket had a longer back than front. It was accented in fabric covered buttons. The slimline skirt was tea length. She wore teal satin pumps. Her corsage was of peach sweetheart roses accented with white and teal baby's breath with peach and teal ribbon streamers.

The bridegroom's mother wore a two piece textured crepe dress with a round neckline. The cardigan jacket had long sleeves and fit over the tea length skirt. She wore bone leather pumps. Her corsage was of teal sweetheart roses accented with peach and teal baby's breath and peach and teal ribbon streamers.

Music was provided by Tommy Reed of Abilene, pianist; Susan Schaefer of Cross Plains, organist; and Carolyn and Ronnie Taylor of Lubbock, vocalists. Mr. Reed, Mrs. Schaefer and Mrs. Taylor are cousins of the bride.

Musical selections were "The Wedding Song" before the attendants entered the church; "Only God Could Love You More" before the bride entered the church. Mrs. Taylor sang "The Lord's Prayer" after the exchange of the wedding vows. "Household of Faith" was played during the lighting of the unity candle.

The reception, hosted by the bride's mother and father, was held in the church fellowship hall immediately following the ceremony.

The bride's table was covered in peach with a teal overlay and a peach ruffled table skirt. The three tiered wedding cake had peach and teal roses with crystal columns supporting each tier. The bride's cake top was designed and created by the bride. It was a crystal pedestal supporting a cloud of white carnations with a bride and bridegroom sitting in the cloud with a heart shaped arch above the cloud covered with white lace and pearl ropes with peach and teal tiny satin ribbon roses spaced evenly in clusters.

The centerpiece of the table was the bride's bouquet with white candles in crystal candle holders. Rose shaped chocolate mints of white peach and teal were served in a silver bowl with mixed nuts. Sparkling peach punch was served. Serving at the bride's table were Alisa Mauricio, Veda Anders, Lee Grogan and Junnie Green, all of Wichita Falls.

The bridegroom's table was covered in a chocolate brown cloth with an ivory overlay. The centerpiece was an arrangement of peach and teal flowers in a wooden basket with an artificial dove on top of the handle. Silver candle holders with teal candles were on each side of the flower arrangement. Coffee was served from a silver coffee service. The bridegroom's cake was German chocolate with chocolate roses and shelling around it. Chocolate candy boots were served along with nuts. Serving at the bridegroom's table were Pearl Thompson of Wichita Falls and Geneva Reed of Stamford, aunt of the bride.

A food table held various finger foods, including sandwiches, cheese, ham, sausage, vegetable tray, a watermelon basket filled with fruit, quiche, crackers, chips and dips. The table was covered with peach cloth with white lace overlay.

The rehearsal dinner was hosted by the bride and bridegroom in the church the night preceding the wedding.

The bride is a graduate of Cisco High School, Tarleton State University and Central State University, Edmond, Okla. She received a masters degree in gerontology. She is employed at Wichita Falls State Hospital as a gerontologist.

The bridegroom attended Midwestern State University at Wichita Falls. He has been employed at Wichita Falls State Hospital and is currently employed by Hahn Inc. of Oklahoma City.

After a wedding trip to Oklahoma, New Mexico, Arizona and Colorado, the couple is living in Wichita Falls.

'Funny Friday Funday' RJC's Rendition Of Roaring Ranger Set For October 18

Are you feeling the "Post Roaring Ranger Blues" and are not quite ready to settle down for the winter blahs! The Ranger Junior College has a cure for your hyperactivity-Funny Friday Funday! The day originated last Fall under the guidance of Dr. Joe Mills, president, and has bloomed into a popular event on the college campus. A short explanation about the event's favorite plus—it's a "down day", in layman's terms, and their are no classes or work on this day. After all, according to Dr. Mills, "All work and no play makes for dull students and employees!"

To begin the day, Dr. Mills will have a short welcome for all spectators and participants at 9:15 in the gym. An orientation will be conducted by Coach Ron Butler and sign up will begin, directed by Drs. Gresham, Glidewell and Goodyear.

The First activity, directed by Coach Butler, begins at about 9:40 a.m. in the gym. Termed "The Dormitory Sad Sack Race, it will feature teams of 20 from each dorm on campus. If you can't picture 20 people hopping across the gym floor in flour sacks, you might want to attend this one for a bird's eye view.

At 10:15 a.m., the ever-popular Bigtime Invitational Almost Basketball Tournament, will feature the college's off campus students. This event, under the watchful eye of Dean Marusak, will include the following teams: The DeLeon DooWaps, The Brownwood BeeBops, The Graham GoGos and The Brownwood Boppers. All four teams competed last year, and the spectacle was one no one will forget for years to come. Rumor has it, that the tallest player was 5'11", but that's stretching it!

Coach Downing and Dr. Gresham will begin their events at 10:30 with the Didley Domino Tournament in the cafeteria and the Spacebunny Spade Tournament in the library lobby.

At 11:00, Tammy Adams and Jeri Ponder will host the 2nd Annual Big Chicken Egg toss. This event was highlighted last year, by a spectacular toss from Mrs. Adams to Mr. Beighley.

Of course from 12:00 to 1:30 is the ever popular Lunch in the Cafeteria event. This was well attended last year, and a large crowd is expected again this year.

The Jaws Pool Shark Tournament will begin at the same time, over in the game section. Coach Badgett, director, will supervise this event, which is sure to attract a large gathering.

Three events will begin at 1:30: The Piranha Casting Tournament under Coach Flowers and Mr. Peebles will be held at the Football field. The VooDoo Volleyball Tournament, under Mr. Gann, will be held behind the gym. And, the Hot Shot Freethrow Showdown will be inside the gym with Coach Downing supervising. This event is for Non-Basketballers only!

The National Whoopee Washer Pitching Throw begins at 2:00 p.m. on the west side of Newell Hall under the guidance of Sandra Cunningham.

The Eastland County 3 on 3 Basketball, with the assistance of Coach Butler, will begin at 2:30 in the gym. At the same time, Dr. Goodyear will start up the Super Silly Softball Throw on the football field.

And for a Grand Finale, the Desert Storm Water Balloon Wargames. This event, which is in it's First year, will feature the talents of not only dorm teams, but the talents of Ranger and Strawn High School seniors and commuter students. The teams are composed of 10 players each and each team will provide their own forts and ammunition. It all begins at 3:30 behind Newell Hall and should be the highlight of

Letter To The Editor

Editor, Eastland Telegram
Maybe by the time you read this the other side of the employees insurance question will have explained their reasons for deciding as they did. Maybe but maybe not.

In many instances insurance questions can be very tricky. For instance, is a paid up policy really a definite thing to be relied on? Not in the case of group insurance as I will explain.

Though no names in the local question were printed of companies in question, I will name the one in my case. Whether it be true that, "This is standard throughout the Big Day. Of course, you must be rewarded for your accomplishments and event judges will present ribbons and trophies to the winners starting at 4:30 in front of the library.

Sound Hyper enough for you!!! Don't hibernate yet—mark your calendars for October 18th and come early—you don't want to miss a THING!!

industry" as claimed or not, it should NOT be.

When my father lost his eyes in an industrial accident the Prudential company paid face value as stated plus a "paid up policy" for any double statutory loss. For thirty years that policy was treasured with the confidence that it was like money in the bank. However, when Dad died Prudential refused to pay one dime. The reason given AND UPHOLD BY THE STATE INSURANCE BOARD was a clause saying that if at any future date the insured party, company, or agency ceased to be insured by the company then any and all obligations under this policy shall cease.

The furniture company for which Dad had worked went out of business when the owner retired just three years before Dad died. We felt that instead of "a piece of the rock" the widow got a piece of the shaft.

If at any time an agency of government might change group coverage many more widows may have to dig into meager savings for burrial costs.

In my opinion this is a dirty and deceptive practice which should not be permitted. It tends to tie the insured to the first company and either restricts their ability to shop for more economic coverage or cause added grief at the time of family loss. But as I never hesitate to admit, I've been wrong before and maybe I am again. It is up to you who may be involved in insurance questions to decide and if you want changes made write to your state representatives and state senators who (if they are not in the pockets of the insurance lobbies) have the power to order the practice changed.

Comptroller Representative To Offer Tax Help At Eastland

"Government operates best when it's close to the people it serves. The public must also have accurate information about state taxes, and as Comptroller I want to make sure they receive it. To assist local businesses with their tax questions, I'm sending one of the Comptroller's tax experts to Eastland on Thursday, October 17, 1991," Comtroller John Sharp said today.

"If you are a business owner and you're not sure how to collect sales tax, you can talk one-on-one with someone who can help. Or if you are a consumer and need information on what items are tax exempt, now is the time to ask," Sharp said.

Royce Manning, from the Abilene field office, will be available at the Eastland County Courthouse, Room #B10 (Social Security Room), in Eastland from 1:00 p.m. to 2:00 p.m.

For additional information contact the Abilene field office at 915/695-4323. Those who cannot attend the October 17 meeting can still obtain tax assistance by calling the Comptroller's toll-free number 1-800-252-5555.

hand and it damaged, I did indeed learn touch typing. I joked about wanting a typewriter with a Texas dictionary instead of that one that was Yankey programmed and each time I wrote 'youall' it beeped and the light flashed like I had misspelled a word.

One might have to wait to enter the center but I didn't meet a man who did not think it was well worth the time. Not the 92 year old WWI vet nor the young man just back blinded in Saudi Arabia.

Of all disabled veterans the blinded seem to get the best treatment. But they probably need more too.

It was not always so for indeed the time was when those who served got no more than the soldiers in the old French story of NAILSOUP. We certainly have come a long way and I hope we never slip back.

Kokomo News

by Zelda Jordan

Billy Bob Brown made his first trip to church services at the Kokomo Baptist Church on Sunday morning along with his parents and sister, Kris, D'Aun and Kristal of Carbon. The proud grandparents are Bill and Wynelle Brown.

During the song service, "Happy Birthday" was sung to Deon Fields whose birthday was on Sunday and La Von Snider whose birthday was last week.

La Von and Hazel Snider were in Breckenridge for the funeral of Leota Faye (Hamilton) Harrison on Saturday. Mrs. Harrison was the daughter of the late Bill and Winnie Hamilton, and the niece of Alice Snider. We extend sincere sympathy to the family.

Hazel and La Von Snider visited with Esther Mae Jumper in Abilene Care Center on Saturday afternoon.

Dwayne, Connie, Sheri and Lisa Snider of Stephenville were supper guests of Mrs. Hazel

Snider on Monday night.

Clifford Nelson had the misfortune to fall off a tractor wheel and broke a bone in his knee on Wednesday, Oct. 2. He spent Wednesday night in the Hendrick Medical Center at Abilene. The break did not require surgery but he will not be able to put any weight on it for two months.

Those who were visiting with Clifford and Lurline Nelson were Jimmy, Maggie and Teresa Nelson of Stephenville, Glenn and Zelda Jordan, Pleas, Pat and Sarah Reneau of Ranger, Russell and Bonnie Jackson of Pasadena, Anna Marie Rogers of Tyler, Wanda Cole and Jim and Sherry Tidwell of Gorman, and R. Lee McDaniel of Carbon.
