MERRY CHRISTMAS

POINTS TO PONDER By: Bill Reed

Next Wednesday the whole world will celebrate Christmas. It will be celebrated in a great variety of ways but it will be celebrated. The Biblical tale of the birth of Jesus Christ as told in the gospels of Luke (2:1-19) and Matthew (2:1-23) is the foundation on which Christmas is based.

The babe in the manger, the joyful singing angels, watchful shepherds, and the wisemen have become cherished symbols of the first Christmas. The first recorded observation of Christ's birthday came in the year 336 in the Philocalian Calendar, a Roman Almanac. Fourteen years later, December 25 was officially decreed Christmas by Pope Julian I; It was made a civic holiday by Emperor Justinian in 529.

An article in the 'Abilene Reporter' stated that Christmas has been commercialized. There was supposed to be a second article, either I missed it or it never got printed. One of the statements made in the article was Christmas this year seems to be used as a patriotic holiday. The basis for this was because our national leaders are pleading with consumers to march to the stores and buy, buy, buy something to help the sluggish economy. It has become patriotic to use your credit card, write a check, and yes use cash, but by all means spend it. The article concluded that if everything is tied to buying and selling, what else is there to celebrate?

This year my family is making a concentrated effort to remember whose birthday we celebrate. I am sure that you are doing the same.

After having said that I would like to share with you what we shall be doing on Christmas day. As in the last two Christmas' the First United Methodist Church will provide dinner at 12:00 o'clock December 25th. Any person who will be alone this Christmas is invited to come and be with us. The church is located at 417 Elm Street Ranger. I might add couples who will be alone are also invited. The dinner provide will be the traditional Christmas meal consisting of turkey, ham, roast, mashed potato, sweet potatoes, cranberry sauce, green beans, noodles, dressing, pecan, and Pumpkin pies. There is no cost for the meal it is one of the ways we of the church want to share our appreciation for you who have made Ranger the community that it is. The most friendliest and warmest people in Texas.

If you are a shut-in and are unable to get out just call us at our home 647-3145, or the church 647-1124 and we will bring you a dinner. If you would like to come to the church and don't have transportation we would like to come and get you. This is our way of celebrating the Spirit and fellowship of Christmas.

If you are traveling somewhere for Christmas we pray for your safe journey. If your family is coming to Ranger, then we wish you the most joyful day. But if you are going to be alone on Christmas day, "You All Come, You Hear!" Take your family to Church this Sunday and get into the real Christmas Spirit.

GENERAL RAINS SOAK COUNTY - SOME DANGER OF FLOODING

Eastland County might not be getting a white Christmas this year, but there would probably be a wet Christmas.

A Pacific Front looping to the north Wednesday and a Canadian Front pushing against it brought heavy rains to the area. Downpours were continuing Friday, with a chance they might end Sunday.

Some of the totals were: Eastland County Water Supply District Plant, south of Ranger, 6 in. since Wednesday, Eastland, 3.85 in., Cisco area 4.25 in., with up to 6 in. in the town, Low-lying areas in Cisco were flooding. A report from Ranger Thursday night listed 4.6 in. at that time.

Lake Leon was reported to be running 2.5 ft. above the spillway, with water backing up toward some of the homes. Both forks of the Leon were running briskly, with Colony Creek bank full south of Ranger.

At press time Friday no highways had been closed, but motorists were being cautioned on some FM roads. Unpaved county roads were becoming almost impossible in areas not graveled.

This latest prolonged wet spell "finished off" the last remnants of the peanut crop that was still in the field, according to an ASCS spokesman. This fall has been a difficult time for the peanut harvest, beginning with heavy rains and an early freeze in late October. Rains several weeks ago kept the fields wet and continued to damage the peanut grade.

Cover crops such as rye were thriving with the extra rainfall, however. Stock tanks were running over and the soil was saturated.

Temperatures during the current rain were hanging in the 40's, and not predicted to go down to freezing here. Snow and sleet were expected as far down as Lubbock, however, dipping all the way to the Permian Basin and El Paso.

But no one could be found who was willing to bet on West Texas weather only that it still looked like rain.

Deadline for The Ranger Times Dec. 26th Paper will be Monday, Dec. 23rd at 12 noon for all ads and articles.

Church Christmas Social

Mrs. Mary Lee Masseege was so generous and graciously invited the Love Sunday School Class of Second Baptist Church into her home for a Christmas Social. The home was beautifully decorated with a Christmas tree, and the seasons decorations throughout the house. The dining room table was laden with delightful goodies which each person provided; along with Mrs. Masseege's tasty dessert.

Games were enjoyed; especially to see how many words could be made from the word of Christmas. Christ headed the list of words. Then Brother Masseege led the group in a grateful prayer before everyone gathered around the table for the eats.

Those enjoying the social were: Norma Jacoby, Fay Bargsley, Dora Caraway, Roberta and Gerry Duncan, Jayne Rogers, Christene Tanner, Becky Dempsey, Lela Rodgers, and two guests - Eltelene Morrow, and Pebbles Masseege. Hostess: Mrs. Masseege and Rev. Jasper Masseege. Members of the Love Class that could not attend were: Hilda Tipton, Ellen Dempsey, and Beatrice Bowen.

From Jeanne, Elzie and the Pilgrims To Pioneers Family, Remember The True Meaning of Christmas, and May ALL have a Happy and Joyous Holiday Season!

Announcing the all-new Third Edition of the most renowned book in Jewish genealogy. The largest compendium of American Jewish genealogy ever published has just been updated and is now available from Genealogical Publishing Co. (GPC). This long awaited 3rd edition of Malcolm H. Stern's classic, FIRST AMERICAN JEWISH FAMILIES: 600 GENEALOGIES, 1654-1988, records the family trees of every Jewish family established in America by 1840 and traces them, where possible, to the present. Derived from family records, research in libraries, archives, court houses, historical societies, congregations, and cemetery epitaphs, Stern's magnum opus inspired Stephen Birmingham's best seller (The Grandees) and has been footnoted in all Jewish historiography dealing with the colonial and federal eras of American history. The new edition contains an index of nearly 50,000 names that ties a section of updated material to the charts which appeared in earlier editions.

As in previous editions, FIRST AMERICAN JEWISH FAMILIES, is laid out in a series of genealogical charts from Aarons to Zuntz. Each chart is assigned the surname of the progenitor of the family or its first American representative and provides easy access to dates of arrival in America, birth, marriage and death information, military service, occupations, and other details relating to his/her descendants. Researchers will be glad to learn that the author has included data on the many non-Jewish descendants of these families who are linked to Judaism through intermarriage. Widely regarded as the dean of Jewish genealogists, Rabbi Stern has been careful to identify his sources in the upper left-hand corner of each chart and furnish a complete bibliography to the work as a whole. The third edition of this honored work, which is half again as big as the original (published under the title Americans of Jewish Descent), concludes with a complete index to 50,000 persons. In short, anyone interested in the genealogy or history of American Jewry before the Civil War cannot ignore this extraordinary work.

FIRST AMERICAN JEWISH FAMILIES, #5556, attractively bound in softcover and sturdily Smyth-sewn, 14 X 11 (oblong), 464 pp., charts, indexed, 1991. $77.50 postpaid from: Genealogical Publishing Co., Inc., 1001 N. Calvert Street, Dept. P/P, Baltimore, Maryland 21202-3897.

THE GLORY SEEKERS: The romance of would-be founders of the great southwest. By William Horace Brown.

"This is mainly the story of men who, standing on the rugged confines of civilization in America at an early period of our national life, sought distinction by attempting to hitch their wagons to the star of empire." Here is intrigue, politics, and battles in the deep south and Texas as expansion-minded Americans struggled to release Spain's hold on the North American continent, and Spain valiantly attempted to keep her grip tight.

Though Spain tried, she could not keep the Americans out of her vast territory. After three years in Kentucky trying to beat the foreign tariffs that regulated trade throughout the Spanish-owned Mississippi River area, James Wilkinson planned a "grand, glittering, audacious scheme" to get freedom of river travel for American traders. In Georgia, slaves escaped into the everglades of Spanish Florida and Thomas Green led an exodus of several hundred Georgians into the Spanish country near Natchez. England, at war with Spain, secretly encouraged such transgressions; "George Rogers Clark was the person through whom she schemed". Others figure prominently, including: Aaron Burr, Philip Nolan, Ellis Bean, Augustus Magee, and Colonel Perry. An energetic read. (1906) reprint, 347 pp., illus., index, paper $24.00 #B660. Prepublication Price: $19.00 till 1 February 1991.

Craw Worms. With a little room left at the top of the stocking stuff in an Eagle 29000 depth finder unit. Hypothermia, the number one outdoor killer, can occur in water on land and winter anglers and hunters are especially susceptible.

Hypothermia, simply put, means a person is getting cold. That person is losing heat faster than the body can produce it, and it can be dangerous.

Anyone who has experienced uncontrollable shivering may have entered one of the stages of hypothermia, probably without realizing it, said Steve Hall, education coordinator for the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department. "The victim many times is unaware that he is past a point of no return without assistance from a companion to warm the body."

The outdoor sportsman is especially susceptible to this "hidden danger," he said.

Hypothermia usually kills victims who fall into cold water by weakening their ability to swim or stay afloat. For the boater and waterfowl hunter, especially in the winter months, it is obvious not to fall into the water. However, even a jogger, hiker, camper or land-based hunter, exposed to wind and perspiration or moisture, is a potentially hypothermia victim.

Most hypothermia cases happen in weather between 30 degrees and 50 degrees Fahrenheit, Hall said. This is the time many outdoorsmen are unprepared, such as when a norther moves through Texas. Preparation is critical to preventing hypothermia. If you're a boater, sit low and don't move around in the boat unnecessarily. Also, don't overload the boat. Control the wake at the stern when slowing down. Avoid alcoholic beverages and always wear a personal flotation device.

Hall said hunters should dress in layered clothing with flotation-type outer wear for warmth and safety. "If you fall overboard, keep your shirt on. Your clothing and boots will provide some insulation, temporarily reducing heat loss," he said. Return to the boat or shore at once. Get out of the water as quickly as possible.

It is a good idea to always hunt or boat with a companion. Also, avoid icy areas. "The maximum survival time in freezing water may be as little as 15 minutes," he said.

The outdoorsman can beat the cold by dressing properly, staying dry, being prepared, keeping his wits, avoiding icy conditions and checking the weather before leaving home or while making plans. For more information contact the TPWD at 1-800-792-1112, ext. 4372, or (512) 389-4372.

Kokomo News

by Zelda Jordan

Glenn and I send Christmas greetings to everyone and we pray for God's blessings to be upon each of you now and throughout the New Year.

As we are caught up in the rush of preparation for Christmas with our families, let us take time to study God's word and praise Him for His son, Jesus, the real meaning of Christmas.

The Christmas program at the Kokomo Baptist Church was this Wednesday night, Dec. 18. Following the program, Santa was there to meet the children. There was a fellowship supper in the fellowship hall, and visitors were welcome.

Rev. Marion Fonville of Abilene and Gary, Donna and Lesley Gatlin of Amarillo were visitors at the Kokomo Baptist Church on Sunday morning.

Nancy Hendricks spent several days in the hospital at De Leon last week. We are glad she is home and feeling better. Her visitors were Roy and Sylvia Buchanan of Clyde, Kelly Buchanan of Fort Hood, Kay Snider, Willa Dean Ormsby of Stephenville, Wilbourne and Martha Wood of Carbon, Doris Bradshaw, Estelle Ervin, Anna Rush, Becky Smith, Glenn and Zelda Jordan, Shirley Bryan, Hope Joiner, Margaret Kinnell, Betty Sanders, Joe O'Neal, Gladys Pittman, Verna Rodgers, Bro. Ron Carroll, Bro. Clarence Wilson, Bro. Curtis Maness, Claude and Juanita Fuller, Cullen and Ava Rodgers, Catherine Eaves, Charlotte Owen, Ruth Bryant, Christine Self, Vera Rodgers, Bernice Rodgers, Wynelle Brown, Mary Jo Wood, Mildred Powell, E.J. Whitlock, Bessie Shupp, Purnia Faye Smith, Juanita Files, Lana Sharp and Sue Troutman.

Jimmy and Verna Lee Little were in Cisco on Thursday night, Dec. 12 to attend the piano recital of their granddaughter, Emily Little. Emily is a student of Mrs. Wester, and the recital was held in the Methodist Church in Cisco. Emily is the daughter of Ray Neal and Melissa Little of Eastland. Jimmy and Verna Lee Little were in Arlington on Sunday to visit with Tim, Nelda, Cody and Jarad Fails and attended the Christmas Program at the University Baptist Church on Sunday night. Cody sang in the Children's choir, and Jarad sang in the preschool choir.

The Glenn Jordans were in Abilene on Saturday to do some Christmas shopping and to visit with Glenda and Bill Priest and Sheri Miles. Wade Daniel of Buffalo Gap also visited with them.

Our sincere sympathy to the family of D. B. Crawley, who passed away on Friday. Funeral services were held at the Higginbotham Chapel at Gorman on Saturday with burial in the Simpson Cemetery.

Gary, Donna and Lesley Gatlin of Amarillo were weekend visitors with the Woodrow Brownings and Gary.

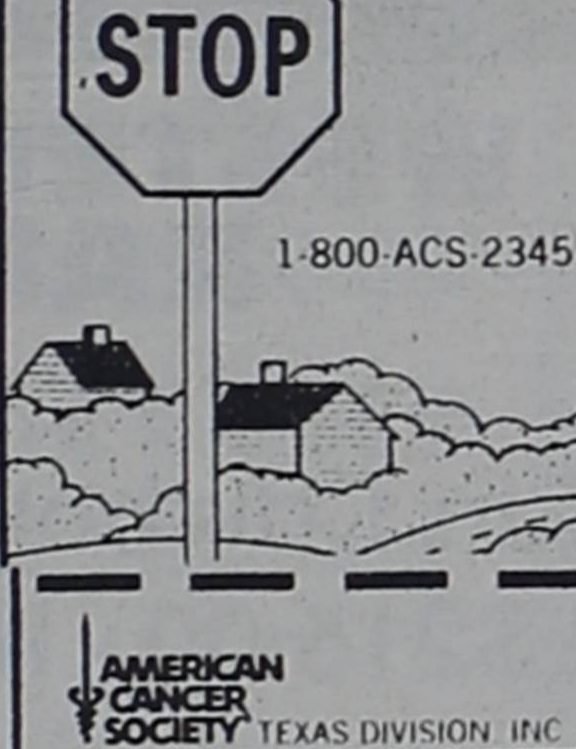

Gene Snider underwent knee surgery in the De Leon hospital last Tuesday, and is doing well.

Christmas trees are beautiful -- but watch out for mold and pollen in the home. Trees release airborne pollens and molds, especially as they dry out, and terpene, a chemical in the tree's oil, is allergenic.

Stress may exacerbate skin disorders. At least one dermatologist/psychiatrist at the University of California at San Francisco finds that anti-anxiety medication helps.

Antibiotics given before surgery lowers the risk of infection after, even for low-risk procedures, an eight-hospital study found.

New vaccines against pertussis are under consideration by the FDA, and the National Institutes of Health will start tests soon. Acellular vaccines work without the whole killed bacterial cells that cause side effects. Testing will take at least two years.

Children should be on a low-fat diet starting at the age of two to avoid heart disease later in life, says the director of the National Heart, Lung and Blood Institute.

Happy holidays to one and all from your friends at Wal-Mart Pharmacy, Hwy. 80 East, Eastland, 629-3347.

Little Man Tate Opens At Majestic Theatre This Weekend

The Orion Picture "Little Man Tate" explores what happens to a sensitive boy with exceptional intelligence.

The movie, rated PG, stars Adam Hann-Byrd as seven year old Fred Tate, Jodi Foster as his mother, Dede, and Diane Wiest is cast as Jane Grierson, the psychologist who attempts to control the future of the brilliant boy. Jodi Foster also directs this picture, which opened across the country this fall.

"Little Man Tate" is showing at the Majestic in Eastland this weekend, beginning at 7:30 nightly. The final showing will be on Monday, Dec. 23. Tickets are $3 at the box of-rice. Both children and parents should relate to this movie, which has been called "enchanted and thoughtful" by critics.

Audiences agree that Adam Hann-Byrd makes the main part in "Little Man Tate" believable. There is a light in his eye and quickness in his voice that suggests an exceptional child. Combine this with wide-eyed innocence and the loneliness of a person set apart.

The interesting thing is that "Little Man Tate" is Adam's first movie. He is no professional child actor - a roaming casting director spotted him in a New York City classroom.

And Jodi Foster? Excellent, as always. But who can upstage a child?

Morton Valley Extension Homemakers Meet

The Morton Valley Extension Homemakers met December 11, 1991 at the home of Billie Beggs in Morton Valley.

The meeting was called to order at 2 p.m. by the president, Gerry Zummer. Edith Wilson led in reading the Club Creed and prayer.

Secretary Tammy Beleyu read minutes of the last meeting. She also read correspondence received during the last month including an invitation to brunch at the Rehab Center in Abilene showing quilts and other hand work that had been received for the annual Telethon.

Because of the bad weather caused low attendance it was voted to put off most business until next meeting.

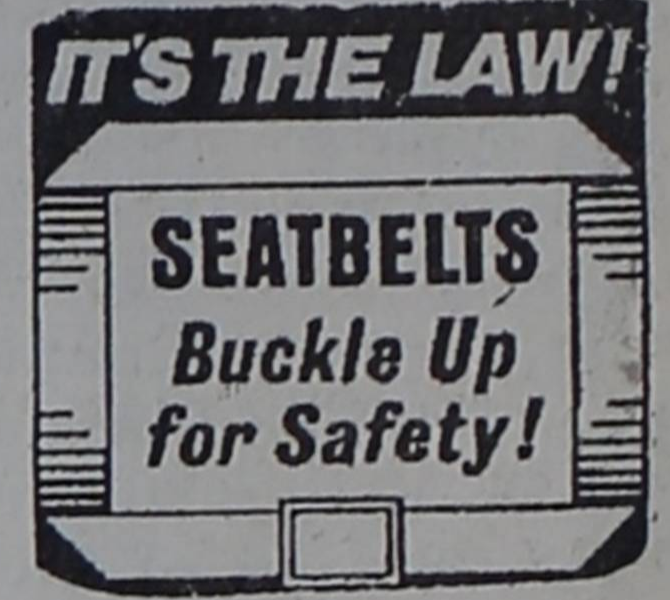

Members were reminded to bring entries to the Pecan Show the next day; also products for the Council bake sale.

Quilt pieces were cut for the next year project. Christmas snacks, brought by each member, were enjoyed by Gerry Zummer, Edith Wilson, Billie Beggs, Tammy Beleyu, Helen Phillips, Alue Brooks, Luella Kitchens, Leona Daniels and guest Chelsea Beleyu.

Next meeting will be at the home of Helen Phillips, 410 South Drive, Eastland on January 8, 1992.

Visitors are welcome.

Letter To The Editor

December 1991 Dear Friends, A busy 1991 is drawing to a close. I hope that you have had a joyous year and will have a healthy and prosperous new year. Each of you are special to me for your unique qualities and I thank the Lord for the ways in which my life has been enriched because of you. I'm using a common letter to update you on the things which the Lord has been doing in my life. Upon the advice of my physician, I have decided to obtain a seeing eye dog to aid me in my daily activities. With the Lord's help and the support of friends and associates, I will receive the dog and the necessary instruction and joint training in New York during 1992. This takes a month to accomplish and will of course take me away from my normal performance schedule and be a new adventure. Although I have travelled the world over and had to adapt to many situations, I'm regularly "blind sided" by the unexpected. A recent event demonstrates that I can use all the help I can get

I played the Arutonian Trumpet Concerto. I also enjoy giving masters classes having reached the age and stage with sufficient grey hair that someone even occasionally listens to me. I look forward to hearing from you and wish you a Merry Christmas. Warmest Regards, Stacy Dee Blair 4240 Saturn #169 Garland, Texas 75041 214-840-1328 (EDITOR'S NOTE: Gifts in Stacey's name may be sent directly to: Guiding Eyes for the Blind, Inc., Granite Springs Road, Yorktown Heights, N.Y. 10598.)

Nutrition Program

The Christmas Season is here and Christmas Day is but a few days away. The older people of this community want to wish each person in the entire county of Eastland a "Merry Christmas".

The centers in Cisco and Eastland will be closed December 22-29. The centers will be open December 30, 31 and January 3 in Cisco. Eastland the centers will be open December 30, 31 and January 2.

We want the entire county to know we appreciate our volunteers so much as they offer so much to our centers.

An artist once painted a picture of a wintry twilight, the trees were laden with snow, and dreary, dark house, lonely and desolate in the midst of the storm was shown on the canvas. It was a sad picture. Then with a quick stroke of yellow paint, he put a light in the window.

The entire scene was transferred into a vision of comfort and cheer.

Our volunteers are such people. They radiate a glow of cheer and make so much of our centers.

We appreciate everyone who attends the centers. Each person contributes to another person's happiness. So to each of you a Merry Christmas and we will be seeing you December 30.

Cisco programs for the week were: Janet Thomas, County Extension Agent, presented her monthly nutrition program. Dinner music by The Senior Center Choir and Band, accompanied by Lois Holder, Gerald Parks and Martha Shirey.

Eastland programs were: Dinner music by the Senior Center Choir, Ruth Kendrick and La Rue Broussard. Concept of Care conducted a blood pressure screening program.

Mrs. Dois Hodges of Olden was Grand Champion Winner of the Pecan Bake Show division. Mrs. Hodges' prize winning entry was an Italian cream cake.

Kokomo E.H.M. Club Attend Lucheon

The Eastland County Extension Home Makers Club banquet was held in two Women's Building at Eastland on Wednesday, December 4th at 11 a.m.

Following the beautiful program a bountiful dinner was enjoyed by a large crowd.

Janet Thomas presented the awards. Mrs. Gerry Zummer of Morton Valley Club was Named the "L.E.H.A. Club Woman of the Year". Kokomo E.H.M. Club presented Norma Webb as their club woman.

Nancy Hendricks of Kokomo Club was awarded the Press award for having the most news write ups.

The Morton Valley Extension Club was recognized as the "Extension Club of the year," in Eastland County. Kokomo Club members attending were: Wynelle Brown, Ava Rodgers, Bernice Rodgers, Velma Bennett, Johnnie B. Griffith, Mary Frances Bishop, Anna Laura Clearman, Naoma Morrow, and Jeanette Burson.

Rep. Nancy Hendricks

Mark Adams, a member of Olden 4-H Club, was first place youth winner of the Pecan Show Centerpiece Division.

Kokomo E.M.H. Club Entertain Rotarians

The Kokomo Extension Homemakers Club had a Christmas banquet for the Eastland Rotary Club on Monday, December, 9, 1991 at 7 p.m. at the Kokomo Baptist Church Fellowship Hall.

Chairman Jeanette Burreson and helpers decorated the hall with gum drop Christmas trees and mistletoes. Red plates and cup with green napkins and silver used about 35 Rotarians and guests enjoyed playing games and fellowship.

A beautiful Christmas Meal with Turkey, dressing, ham and all the trimmings was served buffet style.

Club members helping were: Ava Rodgers, Norma Webb, Naoma Morrow, Mary Frances Bishop, Nancy Hendricks, Bernice Rodgers, Wynelle Brown, Jeanette Burreson, Johnnie B. Griffith, Anna Laura Clearman, Velma Bennett, Zelda Jordan, Merle Laster and Joyce Eaves.

Husbands helping with set ups were: Delmon Eaves, Gene Burreson, Jack Bishop, Glenn Jordan, Cullen Rodgers, Aren Webb, Bill Brown and J. L. Morrow.

THANK YOU

FROM A LOVING PASTOR

TO A LOVING PEOPLE Mrs. Clark and I wish to express our deep and humble gratitude to the membership of Faith Baptist Church for your many expressions of love during this Christmas season — the grocery, the Christmas cards, and many words of love and encouragement. We have worked with many wonderful and loving people over the years, but none have ever surpassed your love and loyalty. We want to express our prayerful wishes for your joy and blessings at this time and throughout the upcoming new year of 1992. We look forward to many years as your Pastor and Pastor's wife, as well as being fellow citizens with so many other wonderful people in Cisco.

Q. What are some ways to motivate my child? (continued)
A. Create a positive successful experience. Help the child to gain the knowledge or skills needed.
2. Let there be accountability and support. When we share our goals with family and friends. We are greatly motivated to attain the goals because we know we will be held accountable.
3. Tender touching and listening pumps energy back into a child (or anyone else) and he is motivated to pick up where he left off.

The contest was held in conjunction with the 39th Annual Eastland County Pecan Show.

Tommy Seay of Olden 4-H is shown with his winning entries in the Eastland County Pecan Show. Tommy won second place in the Pecan Centerpiece Division and blue ribbons on his pecan candy and cookie entries.

Congratulations, Tommy!

Tips For Reducing Holiday Trash

Among the least merry of all Christmas events each year is disposal of huge amounts of trash. Gifts wrapping, party decorations and used Christmas trees piled at the curb create enormous problems for some cities with already glutted solid waste dumps.

However, the Texas Department of Health (TDH) offers a free brochure listing environmentally sound alternatives to some trash-producing traditions.

Distributed by the TDH Bureau of Solid Waste Management, which regulates solid waste disposal in Texas, Tips for a Happy Eco-Holiday is available from the TDH Solid Waste Information Clearinghouse, at 1-800-458-9796.

T.A. Outlaw, chief of the bureau, said the brochure encourages Texans to choose "environmentally friendly" substitutes for waste-producing packaging and decoration. For example, decorative bags can replace wrapping paper and be reused from year to year.

Outlaw said that the brochure includes ideas for selecting Christmas trees, indoor and outdoor decoration, "environmentally sensitive" gifts and advice on recycling after the holidays are over.

"Some of the tips such as the suggestion to make Christmas tree garlands out of popcorn (which later can be fed to the birds) are not new ideas, but reminders of older Christmas traditions," Outlaw said.

The brochure also encourages renewed interest in such gifts as homemade bread, toys made from natural or recycled materials, muscle-powered tools, live plants and camping equipment.

In addition to the used Christmas trees) into mulch. "Home mulching and composting of leaves and yard waste," he explained, "can reduce residential solid waste by about half the fall and winter months. Any gifts which encourage these practices greatly benefits the environment."

He added that discarded Christmas trees create such burdens on municipal landfills each year that many Texas towns offer to shred residents' cast-off mulch in parks and other city property.

According to Outlaw, such community services parallel a trend toward year-round municipal composting of yard waste. The practice helps supply inexpensive, natural fertilizer, while preserving scarce landfill space.

WHIPLASH TREATMENT BEGINS WITH EARLY CARE

Whiplash injuries commonly result when someone is rear-ended by another vehicle. The force of the impact causes your head to be "whipped" backward and forward in fractions of a second.

Fortunately, most whiplash injuries do not cause life threatening damage. Nevertheless, once the muscles have been overstretched, they often go into spasm in an attempt to protect themselves from further injury.

Occasionally a patient comes to my office complaining of headaches, back, neck or shoulder pain after an accident that occurred several weeks or months earlier. This is often the case when a patient receives no care, inadequate care or improper care immediately following an accident.

Chiropractic training, which requires a minimum of six years, includes the latest research-proven and clinically tested programs for treating a variety of pain syndromes and musculoskeletal injuries.

SUNDAY MORNING in Rome. Could it be? It was like a dream—until the taxi ride which brings you face to face with reality! Two West Texans and their youngest in the Eternal City. Cradle of civilization with beautiful ruins dating to the 1st Century. Where Peter, Paul and others trod and met their fates. Site of Caesars. Here Mussolini whipped the Brown Shirts and the populace to war and the fate that followed. Old, fascinating and beautiful in a raw, unwashed, primitive sort of way.

Termina Roma is one giant train station and we'd been warned of pickpockets, Gypsy children (who attack in droves) and hucksters selling tours, hotels and religious relics. Into a taxi, bound for our hotel (which the driver had trouble finding); bear in mind we're talking narrow, winding streets, circles, plazas, and millions of vehicles and pedestrians all straining for a little piece of space. Cabs are propelled by honking horns, obscene hand gestures, and obviously the grace of God. Police cars and ambulances "plow" through with siren and klaxon. Otherwise no one cedes right of way. Faith abounds. And yet, we did not see even so much as a fender-bender. Not one.

Our hotel, on a little street just around the corner from the famous Spanish Steps and the Piazza Spagna, was right at the city's chic shopping area with hundreds of tiny, highly unique shops along narrow pedestrian streets. Hotel Pincio has marble entry and stairs with the lobby on the second floor where there's an ancient iron "lift" and a dining room on the roof overlooking the city. The evening attendant was so straight-laced, he looked the other way as he delivered a requested extra pillow. It is Sunday afternoon custom for all to "congregate" and stroll that plaza. Nearby an exotic McDonald's with special pastas, salads and elaborate desserts. We strolled, had a light dinner and opted for the Rome Illuminated night tour, which included the Piazzas, the fountains (including Moses' and the Trevi [as in "Three Coins in..."]), ancient walls, palaces, monuments, forum, 50,000-seat colosseum completed in 1 A.D. (this is where the Christians were thrown to the lions and the tattered look is due to the fact that it was robbed for other construction, and the floor is gone exposing the underground network where prisoners, lions and provisions were kept), Palatine Hill, Circus Maximus, Castles, a quick look-see of St. Peter's Basilica and others. Say Rome, and invariably you're asked, "Did you see the Pope?" No, nor did he see us, as far as we know. (A Wednesday morning tour will take you to the Pope's public audience, and a Sunday morning tour will take you to a blessing). Our evening tour was a highlight because the lights enhance the acres of unbelievable statues and monuments. Rome's best-known symbol, the coliseum, is especially impressive at night, and to think of the ancient history there takes your breath away: the pagan spectacles, the persecutions, the pomp, and if it were so, the glory that was Rome of those days. Today's reality: that tour, 3 people, 102,000 Lira ($83.88). Hotel: 2 nights, single & double: 448,000 Lira ($369.13). An expensive city compared to the rest of Italy, and for the most part, re-constructed.

For instance, a lot of imagination is required to reconstruct in the mind's eye (and a printed guide is a help), the Forum, as it may have looked 2,000 year ago; the seat of commerce and government, where Romans conducted business. The dig continues. Main entrance is a huge boulevard created in WWII by Mussolini as a place to hold military parades.

Circus Maximus looks like a dry, sandy river bed; only an outline of the narrow oval where Roman chariot races took place. Did they say part of Ben Hur was made here? Impossible to remember all you see and hear.

Even on a crisp October evening after the tour, the trio must pop into a little really and truly Italian cafe near the hotel for a bite, including, "Daddy, we've got to try the great Italian ice cream."

WORD of GOD

What shall be the sign?

Mark 13:4

And I beheld when he had opened the sixth seal, and, lo, there was a great earthquake; and the sun became black as sackcloth of hair, and the moon became as blood;

And the stars of heaven fell unto the earth, even as a fig tree casteth her untimely figs, when she is shaken of a mighty wind.

And the heaven departed as a scroll when it is rolled together; and every mountain and island were moved out of their places.

And the kings of the earth, and the great men, and the chief captains, and the mighty men, and every bondman, and every free man, hid themselves in the dens and in the rocks of the mountains;

And said to the mountains and rocks, Fall on us, and hide us from the face of him that sitteth on the throne, and from the wrath of the Lamb:

For the great day of his wrath is come; and who shall be able to stand?

Opinion-Editorial By Ann Utley, Chairman Of The Board Texas Department Of Mental Health And Mental Retardation

It is tragic and unconscionable that individuals seeking help for emotional and psychological trauma are encountering abuse and fraud in private psychiatric hospitals. It is equally as tragic that many of these people have had no clear avenues to seek recourse.

But because of the recent hearings on abuses in the private psychiatric hospital system, new light has been shed on a problem that from all indications has been cloaked in darkness for some time. With the flood of complaints has come an atmosphere conducive to change. State agencies who regulate these facilities are joining hands in an effort to eliminate inappropriate treatment and to assure that every patient's rights are honored.

The Texas Department of Mental Health and Mental Retardation, which licenses private psychiatric hospitals in the state, has set forth emergency rules designed to broaden its investigative powers. These rules forbid the payment or acceptance of bounties for patient referrals. They pave the way for surprise inspections of private psychiatric hospitals and they establish guidelines for protecting the rights of individuals who seek discharge.

These new rules also spell out a Patient's Bill of Rights, assuring that individuals can communicate with others outside a psychiatric hospital. Also detailed are a patient's rights in receiving treatment. This important bill of rights is to be presented to each individual upon admission.

Give Your Family A Gift Of International Understanding This Holiday Season - Host An International Exchange Student

The Christmas season is upon us! Love, peace, giving, understanding, sharing, family, children are all words we hear commonly at this time of year. The International Education Forum, a non-profit international student exchange organization, would like to introduce you to a way which can make these words into a reality.

As our thoughts turn toward giving and sharing during this Christmas season, there is a unique gift that you and your family can truly share for a lifetime. That is a gift of sharing your lives with an international exchange student. During the holiday season we tend to look toward peace and harmony and how we can become a part of the international peace movement. What better way than to bring the world into your home!

Imagine learning to use chopsticks or trading your favorite recipe for one of a new exotic dish without even leaving your kitchen. How about watching your children describe the finer points of American football while learning some new moves in soccer... the possibilities are endless and the enjoyment of sharing them limitless.

Lars Plunnecke, a German exchange student, had this to say about his experience with his host family: "My family is just great. I couldn't have had better luck with picking two of the nicest people in the world. They care about me. I care about them, and this is what you need to keep you happy while staying away from home such a long time."

IEF's mission statement is "to provide opportunities for greater understanding between cultures of the world." IEF can make these opportunities available. You need to take the next step and contact IEF for the name of your nearest IEF Community Coordinator. It is certainly a gift that you and your family will have for a lifetime - a gift of friendship and love, while helping to develop a greater understanding between your family and the world.

Please call 1-800-346-2826 for more information on giving your family the gift of international understanding. You can also call the same number if you are interested in becoming an IEF Community Coordinator.

TXMHMR's toll-free telephone number for complaints concerning private psychiatric hospitals is contained in the Patient's Bill of Rights. That number is 1-800-252-8154.

TXMHMR's actions were based on a well thought-out approach with a positive "can-do" attitude. To be sure, the department is taking an active role in working to ensure abuses are eliminated.

These strides by Texas MHMR and efforts by other state agencies are important first steps in addressing this most serious crisis. But they are only a beginning. There is much more work to be done. The labors and concern of Lt. Gov. Governor Bob Bullock and Sens. Mike Moncrief, Chris Harris and Judith Zaffirini are playing a key role in this effort. Yet it will take nothing short of total cooperation among the various state agencies and the private psychiatric hospitals for this problem to be eliminated.

It is crucial in the midst of all this controversy that individuals still seek help for emotional and psychological trauma. The flood of publicity and the intensity of the investigations have obscured the fact that good programs and beneficial treatment are available. People who need help should not shy away from seeking it.

The National Association of Private Psychiatric Hospitals offers some helpful guidelines for prospective patients to use

Social Security Increases For 1992

A 3.7 percent cost-of-living adjustment will affect the amount of Social Security and Supplemental Security Income (SSI) payment received in January.

This change raises the maximum Social Security retirement benefits to $1,088 a month and the Federal SSI payment to $422 a month for an individual and $633 a month for a couple.

The tax rate for Social Security remains unchanged at 7.65 percent each for employees and employer. However, the wage base, the amount of earnings subject to the Social Security tax, increases from $53,400 to $55,500. The wage base for the Medicare portion of the Social Security tax increase from $125,000 to $130,200.

Benefits increase are made annually based on the change in the consumer price index as measured from the third quarter of one year to the third quarter of the following year.

Other changes announced by the Social Security Administration include new limits on the amount of money a beneficiary can earn and still receive full Social Security benefits. The limits for 1992 increase from $7,080 to $7,440 for beneficiaries under 65; from $9,720 to $10,200 for people 65 to 69. The earning limits do not apply to people 70 and older.

Boost Your Holiday Spirits With Store Brand

'Tis the season to be jolly, merry and...wise!
Making a shopping list for the holidays can be an overwhelming task. As the list grows, so do the prices, until the holiday budget looks more like the national debt. Don't let holiday woes affect entertaining this holiday season. Put store brands on the shopping list and prepare recipes for less.
Many ingredients for a holiday menu are readily available as store brands and are priced lower than most national brands. Substituting store brand products for national brands is an easy way to cut down on costs without compromising on quality. By comparing ingredients, often the only difference between a store brand and a national brand is the price.
Remember that entertaining costs can also be lowered by using store brand sodas and tonics as well as store brand crackers, chips and nuts. Every bit as tasty as the national brands, they make great appetizers.

YULETIDE NOG
(Serves 2)
