Playing of taps will close the program.

No admission will be charged for the morning program, and admission for the movies will be the regular price, except that any amount donated over the regular price will go to the Army and Navy Relief Fund.

A speaker for the morning will be announced later.

What You Buy With WAR BONDS

The 75-millimeter gun is a divisional weapon used by the Artillery as an anti-tank gun. It has been replaced to some extent by the more modern "105", known as the heaviest of divisional weapons. The 75-mm gun costs $12,000 and has been converted by our Ordnance into a "blaster" twice as efficient as in the first World War.

This gun gets maximum power for minimum weight and cost, and the American people are providing the finance through the purchase of War Bonds. If you do your share and invest 10 per cent of your income in War Bonds, adequate supply of this efficient gun can be assured our fighting forces. Buy War Bonds every pay day. U. S. 3,000 Acre Tract To Be Farmed By Ex-Service Men

300 IRRIGATED PLATS MADE AVAILABLE

DALLAS — Veterans of World War I from many parts of Texas will gather at Uvalde Sunday, November 1, to select sites for homesteads on a 3,000-acre irrigated colonization project, sponsored by the War Veterans Relief Association.

A barbeque dinner will be served those who attend.

The tract has been divided into 300 plots for the average family to become self-sustaining, since the entire tract is in the winter garden area, and is now under irrigation. "Food for Victory" is the basis of the entire program. Eventually 300 ex-service men and their families will be settled on the tract to raise food for the army.

More than twenty of these tracts were sold when the first contingent of veterans visited the site on Oct. 18 for the dedication program.

Further information on the project may be had by writing the War Veterans Relief Association 1007 Main, Dallas, Texas.

Two films, with sound tracks were shown by Winton. Oneshowed the work of the F. B. I. and the other showed the bombing of Dorsetshire, England, and the defense organizations used to clear away the debris left by bombs. Also shown were the methods of caring for the wounded.

Agent Winton also told of the capture in San Antonio of Lt. Peter Krug, German Luftwaffe officer who escaped from a Canadian internment camp. In this talk he mentioned the importance in catching criminals of observing those features that are not readily disguised, such as the mouth, ears, nose, and eyebrows. He said it was by such observation that a hotel operator in San Antonio recognized Krug and notified the F. B. I. agents who apprehended him.

TRUCK CERTIFICATES TO BE ISSUED AT A. A. A. OFFICE

Registration for mileage rationing will begin Thursday, November 12, and continue through Friday and Saturday, according to John Lee Nisbet, chairman of the local War Rationing Board.

Those on the Mileage Rationing Board are Dave Locklin, chairman and C. A. Tyler and Cashes Taylor. Application forms will be available at garages and filling stations, and should be presented at the schools on registration days.

Schools will be dismissed on Thursday, November 12, only. "A" ration books will be issued, except in the cases of those entitled to supplemental ration, who will make out another application form at the place of registration.

Those receiving supplemental ration will get "B" or "C" books. Commercial vehicles, trucks or farm trucks must obtain a Certificate of War Necessity from the Farm Transportation Committee at the A. A. A. office before they are registered for mileage rationing. After November 15, it will be mandatory that every commercial vehicle carry such a certificate at all times.

Car owners will be allowed only five tires for each vehicle registered. Registrars cannot issue mileage rationing books on cars that have an excess of that number. Excess tires should be turned in by November 2 to the local Railway Express Agency, which will tag the tires, the owner later receiving a check from the government.

When you know something of interest about a member of the armed force from the Sonora area, write or telephone us. We'll appreciate it and the men in uniform will be glad to hear about their friends and buddies in other parts of the world. This feature page will act as a clearing house for the activities of the service men, many of whom receive the News.

Cadet Charles E. "Bill" Caraway, 5463 Blackstone, Chicago, writes, "I don't think I've ever told you about this course. Well, get up at 6:30, make formation at 7:30, march to class (3-4 mile.) Class starts at 8 o'clock and lasts till 12 o'clock. Formation and march back home. Eat, another formation at 12:40 and back to school. We have lab, which consists of drawing and planning maps etc. Well, that's over at 5 o'clock so we have exercises until 6:15, then go home completely fagged. Two nights a week we have class from 7:30 until 10:30 and then once month we have to go out at 4 o'clock Sunday and stay all day on a field trip. Usually get in around 10 o'clock at night. That's about all I suppose except, of course, the other meetings we're required to attend.

Thank goodness it won't last much longer. You can't imagine how tired I am of the same old routine every day. Three of our boys flunked out the other day. Sure glad it wasn't me.

We graduate November 31, and will be commissioned second Lts. Then I don't know where we go. It is rumored that we'll be stationed in the U. S. for a while, but that is not certain. I may be back in Texas as a large group of us will be sent there. Then again I may be sent to California or some other place. I really wouldn't mind being back in Texas for a while. Chicago is a place I'm glad I got to see, but I'm ready to get back south and talk to some good old country folks."

ARMY 111

Vincent Rouche, U. S. Naval Training Station School, Navy Pier, Chicago, states "Every minute of our time is taken up now. We are going to get through two weeks earlier and we have to make up the time. We get a 15 day leave so I will probably make it home Christmas. I am nearly sure to be sent to Corpus Christie or Kingsville."

W. C. Gilmore dropped the following line as he was leaving Dallas for Davisville, Rhode Island.

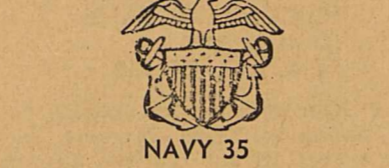

"Have just completed my final examination here and have received our traveling orders. We report at the train at 7:15 this evening. They will not tell us at what time we leave or what route we take. However, my guess is by St. Louis and I did find out that we will ride the Cotton Belt. There will be 26 men to each Pullman and by some hook or crook, I was placed in charge of our car.

We were also given instructions not to leave the train at any time during the trip, as we will be fed on the diner."

Pvt. Clayton White is now stationed in Glendale, Cal. He writes,

"In about two hours school will start and I am happy. School will begin today at 2 o'clock and we'll get off or supper, then go back to school until eleven tonight. This place is swell and the grub is fine. We are served boarding house style and whoever gets the last bite gets up and fills the platter.

ROLL OF HONOR

All the boys I knew at Camp Kearns came with me and are in the same barracks and class. This California weather is crazy. It's warm enough in the daytime but at night you need at least three blankets."

Pvt. Paschal Odum, who is stationed at Camp Edwards, Mass., states, "I am still here, but I don't expect to be here long. We are going to move but where and when I don't know. It isn't cold up here yet, but I expect it to be soon. It does really get cold up here, so I have heard."

Cpl. A. W. Awalt, of Camp Wolters Texas, says, "Wednesday when I was in charge of quarters the First Sergeant asked why I didn't go to officer's school? I told him that I had not thought of it much. He told me that I should go if I would like a commission. You know I'm just getting settled down here good, and all of these non-coms that are here are the best bunch of men that I've ever met. I enjoy working with them. I like the work here and the officers treat us just like a bunch of kids. I'll be here longer if I want to. Another thing I have been told that I was next in line for a platoon sergeant's rating. If I go to officer's school I'll probably be shipped out right away after I got my commission. So a person might as well stay on this side as long as he can shouldn't he?

I really don't know what to do."

Pvt. Edmond B. Heinze, AAC 1032nd. TSS (SP) FL. 47, BAR. 26 26, Camp Kearns, Utah writes "This is a large camp but only partially completed. It was built in the middle of a wheat field so you can imagine the dust that we had before the rain last week.

They have me clasified as a radio mechanic so I will be sent to school-probably at Chicago. I have been expecting to leave any day. After I finish my school I'll probably get foreign service.

We drill six hours a day and have two hours of calisthenics. Have been on K. P. duty twice since I have been here. I get up at 3 o'clock and get back to our barracks at 9 at night. How's that for banker's hours?

In The Service

COAST GUARD 1

Was all set to go see the sights in Salt Lake City, but all passes were cancelled as they were expecting some shipping orders, so for all I know I may be on the move by night. You never know what you are going to do here. You always obey your last command first, and that can cover a lot of territory.

It has been pretty cool here lately, especially early in the morning. The mountain tops are covered with snow, but so far we haven't had any time in the valley.

Pvt. Carley B. Barker, Co. B. 55 Bn. MRTC, Camp Barkley, Texas, writes, "Well I am a corporal now, but just for the weekend. Then I become a candidate, which rates above master sergeant, but carries only a corporal's pay. I have ten more weeks up here, then I am through, maybe before then because I may not make it. I'll tell you the truth it is hard. The military part is hard and the academic work is hard. There is no let up. I have finished O. C. Prep school, and go to the real thing Monday."

Herbert Andrews, who is stationed at Kingsville, Texas, says, "We were supposed to have a picnic yesterday. The chief asked how many wanted to go. Of course we all did. Well we marched five miles to a tract of land given over to the Navy for a park. The picnic was for us to clear that land of all bushes, sprouts, and etc. We really had a full day of working. They furnished the picks and we furnished the "pic." I swore I'd never go on another picnic as long as I live.

We are supposed to put on an inspection drill for the Admiral this evening, so most of the morning has been spent in shining shoes and other little things for the occasion. I have been expecting to get transferred any time, but so far I haven't. We heard several times last week that we would be transferred this week but lately we haven't heard anything else about it. They will probably send us some where to school before long.

Ralph Crowe wrote the following letter while on the road.

"I left Springfield, Mo. yesterday and was supposed to get into Memphis by 7:15 to change trains for Chattanooga. I got here at 8:15 and missed connections. I am on my way to Fort Oglethorpe, Georgia, to attend Military Police Officers Training School. Got my appointment six weeks in advance, and have been promoted to the rank of Corporal."

Gayle Grant, Phm. 3-c, Unit 285 U. S. M. C., c-o Postmaster, San Francisco, California, writes, "Here goes another one of those dry letters. I haven't done anything except go to a picture show. That's all I do at night. I go every other night. I saw "Lydia" last night. It was pretty good. It rained on nearly all of the show. The show is open. We had on rain coats, though."

Pvt. O. H. "Digger" Murray writes from somewhere overseas, "I am writing a few lines to let you all know that so far I am all right. We have stopped for a few days. We are going lots farther than this. I will write as soon as we get there. Sure have seen lots of strange sights. I didn't get seasick. Sure was hungry, though. We didn't get but two meals a day. Since we landed I have been eating everything in sight. Everything sure is high here. This is really a big ship. Boy, it is pouring down rain now. I am writing in a USO and it is really nice. I never saw so much water in all my life. I'll sure be glad to get to some camp. I'm having a big time."

Cpl. Edgar Nelson Stubblefield, c-o Pickwick Hotel, Room 500, Kansas City, Mo., says "I'm still enjoying school because I'm learning something new every day. We started our transmitter laboratory today. That means we're handling 500 and 600 volt equipment. We only have two weeks in this lab, but it is going to be pretty simple after the superhettodyne and receiver circuits.

I'm still holding my averages up pretty high. My laboratory average dropped one point.

Johnston Replaces Siddall In Extension Work

Dr. H.G. Johnston, Arizona extension entomologist for the past three years, has accepted an appointment as entomologist for the Extension Service of the Texas A. & M. College. George E. Adams, vice director and state agent, has announced. Dr. Johnston succeeds Cameron Siddall who was commissioned in the U. S. Army early in September.

The new entomologist, whose full name is Horace Greely Johnston, is a native of Mississippi. He received his B. S. degree from Mississippi State and was awarded his M. S. and Ph. D. degrees from Iowa State College at Ames, Iowa. His doctorate was obtained in 1936.

Dr. Johnston was associated with the A&M College in the entomology department for 12 years, serving first as an assistant and later as an associate professor. As extension entomologist for the University of Arizona he directed the general entomological program for the Extension Service, and his duties in Texas will be similar.

"We feel fortunate in obtaining an entomologist with such excellent background and qualifications," Mr. Adams said in announcing the appointment.

Summer Cooking News
HOT weather is no excuse for the disappearance of hot meals. Eating habits can't be radically changed on short notice without danger of a digestive upset. It is hunting for trouble to serve entirely cold meals to a family accustomed to hot food.

Mrs. Kiene

Isn't your family more active in summer than winter? If it isn't sports nowadays, it's victory-gardening. When I lived on the farm, long summer days from dawn to dusk worked up a terrific appetite—and used up a lot of energy besides. It takes as much food to replenish energy in summer as in winter, and this cannot be done without hot, healthful meals.

But where do you come in? The consolation of doing your duty by the family doesn't make it easier to turn out piping hot platters in scorching weather. Why not meals that literally cook themselves? Oven meals, one-dish surface meals and deep-well cooker dishes provide vide tops in nourishment with a minimum of attention. Best of all, such simple meals can be served on the lawn or front porch. To save trips to the kitchen, load everything on a tray or baking pan, including a thermos filled with iced tea, lemonade or milk.

Choose from your favorite cookbook the menus that will keep your family well-fed and yet won't be a hardship on you. This meal's a sample:

 *Macaroni Loaf
 Buttered New Peas
 Sliced Cucumbers in Sour Cream Dressing
 Hot Rolls - Butter
 Chilled Baked Custard
 Milk - Coffee
- *Macaroni Loaf Recipe
 1 cup elbow macaroni
 1 1/2 cups hot milk
 1 cup medium fine dry bread crumbs
 1 tablespoon chopped parsley
 1 teaspoon salt
 1/2 teaspoon pepper
 1/2 cup grated cream cheese
 8 eggs, slightly beaten
 1 tablespoon melted butter
- Cook macaroni in one quart boiling water with 1 teaspoon salt until tender. Drain and rinse in cold water. Pour hot milk over the bread crumbs, add other ingredients. Mix lightly. Pour into well buttered loaf baking dish. Pour melted butter over top of loaf and bake for 45 minutes in preheated 375° oven. Remove from oven, let set 5 minutes. To loosen from dish, insert a knife at the edge and at sides. Shake loose and invert on heated platter.

CENSORED

IT'S ALL YOURS

...and the Japanazis Have Nothing Like It!

You: And, pray tell, what is it we have that the Japanazis have nothing like—and is censored?

Reddy: It WAS a road map of Uncle Sam's electric power. It DID show how high voltage transmission lines criss-cross the country—carrying power to busy war plants and to 27 million homes. It's censored as to location of cities and plants because we're glad to cooperate in concealing information that might aid the enemy.

You: What else can you tell me about it?

Reddy: This: It's the greatest electric system in the world. No other nation has anything like it. The famous British "grid system" could be dropped into one small section. It carries more power than all the Axis countries combined.

You: And how did we obtain it?

Reddy: This nation-wide transmission net work was put together in peacetime to serve you and all Americans. It was built with the savings of the people it serves... individual citizens, churches, colleges, savings banks, insurance companies, all of whom invested their savings in sound electric securities. It is operated under the American system of free enterprise by men and women trained and experienced in good business management. Their success depends on bringing the greatest service to the greatest number of homes at the lowest possible cost.

You: H-u-u-m-m. Quite different from the Nazi system. Under the Japanazis, and their system of political management and state slavery, the individual, or his institutions, is nothing. Only bureaucrats and political favorites have anything to hope for.

Reddy: Yes. And in the long run, that won't win wars! Here in West Texas... in this whole country... everybody has a personal stake in Victory—and in preserving the American way of living which has made us the strongest nation on earth!

From where I sit...

by Joe Marsh

LAST Saturday night we were settin' around Jeb Crowell's house, and from upstairs we hear the squawks those Crowell youngsters put up while their Ma was dunkin'
'em in soap and water. Causes Jeb to comment:

"Just shows how times change.
Used to be a law here in America that nobody could take a bath without a doctor's prescription!"

Then we got talking about the funny laws some people have put through in this country—like the state where they made it against the law to wake a man up if he's sleeping on the railroad tracks.

"Railroad law I once heard about," says Basil Strube, the sta-tionmaster, "said when two trains meet at an intersection, neither can proceed until the other one has gone ahead."

"How could that be a law?"
asks Pete Swanson. "That just don't make sense."

"Lots of laws don't make sense," says Jeb. "Why just think! We're livin' in a land where most folks hold for tolerance and understanding. And yet it wasn't so long ago we had a law of Prohibition. Account for that, if you can."

Well, he had us there. Here's America—where we set so much store on seein' the other fellow's point of view—havin' such a law.
Now that it's all over, it's hard to realize how people put up with a law like that, even as long as they did.

From where I sit, a man's got every right to enjoy a satisfyin' glass of beer when he wants to quench his thirst. Beer's a friendly drink. It's a drink of moderation, too. And most folks—even the ones that don't drink beer themselves—are tolerant enough, nowadays, to respect the rights of folks who do.

I reckon Jeb was right—we've had some mighty strange laws in this country.

Hunters Warned Fire Hazard To Wildlife

Forest and prairie fires entail long-time consequences to the well being of Texas wildlife, says R.

specialist of the A&M extension service. Fires not only maim and destroy many of the most desirable species of birds and animals, but also hamper their perpetua-

THINK about it as revenge—a way to get back at the scum who have attacked us. Or think about it as a little more protection for our fighting men—some-many as possible home alive.

But think about it now—for the scrap in homes, farms, and factories has got to be moving to stock piles within the next few weeks OR IT MAY BE TOO LATE!

Maybe you don't know what it means to have production fall off. Maybe you can't imagine how it feels to be hunkered down in a foxhole wishing for just one more clip of cartridges. Or to see the enemy rolling through your lines because you didn't have just a few more tanks.

Or Maybe You Don't Care!

We think you do. We feel that our whole community is ready to rise up and bring in the scrap as soon as you get a
