

WASHINGTON NEWS LETTER

By O. C. FISHER, M. C.

Taxes, labor and national security were dealt with by the House last week. The compromise House Senate tax reduction bill was adopted by the House and is now before President Truman. Effective on July 1, it would reduce income taxes from 30 to 10.5 percent, with personal exemptions for all persons 65 years of age and older being raised from $500 to $1,000.

The appropriation bill to cover the War Department was passed in substantially the same form as recommended by the Bureau of the Budget. The Members took the attitude this is no time to economize very much below requirements for maintaining a fairly strong military program during the next year, and the over-all cut from estimates was under 10 percent.

Defying what old timers around the capitol said the most active pressure lobby in modern history against its enactment, the House passed by a vote of 320-to-79 the revised labor bill.

The new measure, which is now before President Truman, is a much weaker and much milder bill than the one originally passed by the House. Its enforcement provisions are very inadequate. But it seems to be the best we can hope to get at this session of Congress.

Here are a few of its principle provisions and objectives:

1. It prohibits the closed shop but permits the union shop where agreed to by a majority of employees in a plant. The bill yields to the States jurisdiction to legislate on the subject.

2. It attempts to ban jurisdictional strikes and boycotts.
3. It undertakes to restore freedom of speech to employers, which has been virtually prohibited by the Wagner Act.

4. It bans featherbedding, such as Petrillo engages in.
5. It outlaws strikes against the Government.

6. It prohibits political contributions by unions as well as by banks and corporations, and requires unions to make annual financial reports.

7. It attempts to prohibit Communists from holding office in labor unions operating under the Act. (There are now at least 9 big CIO unions that are Communist-dominated.)

8. It prohibits a check-off of money from a worker's wages for union dues unless the worker gives his consent in writing.

9. It gives the President authority to seek through the Attorney General an injunction to prevent a strike affecting the national health and safety of the people. The injunction would expire after 75 days. The President may then report the situation to the Congress with a request for additional legislation to meet the crisis.

10. It defines unfair labor practices by unions as well as by employers. Heretofore unions could not, under the Wagner Act, do anything that would constitute an unfair practice and were not even required to bargain in good faith.

11. It permits suits for damages against either side to a labor-management contract for breaches of contract.

12. Employers are no longer required to bargain collectively with foremen, and any welfare funds provided by contract must be administered jointly by the employer and union.

13. It attempts to regulate picketing and to prohibit violence to employees going to and from work during a strike.

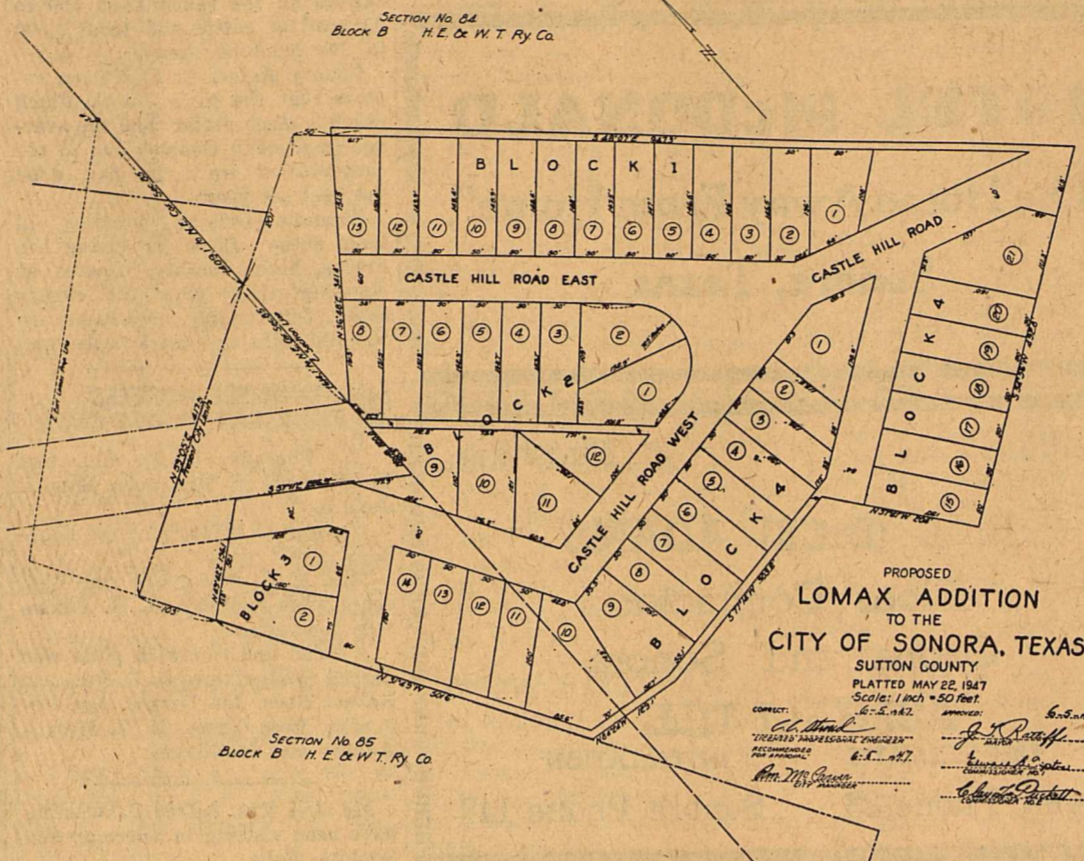

Unfortunately for the laboring people and for the general public, the new bill does not attempt to curb monopoly over human labor as now practiced by certain labor leaders. Therefore, the new law will have but little effect upon the present concentration of economic power in the hands of a few men. Industry-wide bargaining, which is the key to the power of John L. Lewis and some others, was banned in the original House bill, but is permitted in the new version.

The new law will not apply to railway employees who come under the provisions of the Railway Labor Act.

The new labor bill was enacted over bitter opposition from those who believe labor unions should be above the law and not subject to the same laws that other organizations and other people are. It is a bi-partisan measure, having received the overwhelming support of both Democrats and Republicans. It was passed by a margin of four-to-one.

Texas Members in Congress were almost solid for the new law. Of the 21 Texans in Congress, only

Final Arrangements Made For Lions 10th Annual Show And Sale June 25-26

Final arrangements were being made this week for what the Sonora Lions Club hopes will be its biggest and best show -- the Tenth Annual Wool and Mohair Show and Auction Sale Wednesday and Thursday, June 25-26. Featuring displays by 4-H Club and Future Farmers of America as well as adult growers, the show committee is this year affording over $900 in cash prizes plus a handsome array of rosettes, banners and ribbons.

This year, for the first time since the inauguration of the show and sale, the directors and the Auxiliary of the TS&GRA will not meet in Sonora during the program. It is planned, according to Chalk, to invite these two groups to hold their September meeting in Sonora.

Grower and judging contests will be held Wednesday and Thursday morning for both club members and adults with final awards being made Thursday at noon. Club members will be quartered at the High School gym Tuesday night and Wednesday night and will be served all meals camp style at the gym. Frank Bond and B. M. Halbert, Jr. will be in charge. Club members will be entertained Tuesday and Wednesday night at the Teen Canteen.

Auctioneer at the auction, scheduled to start at 1 o'clock Thursday afternoon will be Col. Nelson Johnson of San Angelo, who has presided over past sales here and is well known for his wit as well as his salesmanship. Johnson is associated with Bill in the commission business in San Angelo.

Following the show and auction sale will be a dance at the Sonora Wool and Mohair Company warehouse, from 9 till 1 o'clock.

Purposes of the show, according to Fred T. Earwood, chairman of the show committee, are to encourage the production of better wool and mohair, to encourage better preparation of wool and mohair for market and to sponsor a type of club work applicable to the range area of sheep and goat production. Earwood is being assisted on the committee by Bryan Hunt, Sutton County ranchman and president of the Texas Sheep and Goat Raisers' Association, Joe M. Vander Stucken, local ranchman, George D. Chalk, president of the Lions Club, W. H. Dameron, superintendent of the Ranch Experiment Station and Ray Shaver, county agent.

Featured on Thursday morning's program is a sheep shearing demonstration by E. A. Warner and placing of wool and mohair by club members. The presentation of awards will be made at the football field, scene of the auction, Thursday afternoon.

Provision For Tariff Increase Stays In Bill

House and Senate conferees today decided to retain in wool legislation a tariff-boosting provision which the administration contends would jeopardize the foreign trade program.

Sen. Aiken (R-Vt.), chief of the Senate conferees, told reporters that President Truman might veto the bill.

The measure continues the wool price support program through 1948, but the House added an amendment which permits the President to require that import fees be imposed on shipments of foreign wool whenever such imports threaten the domestic price support program.

Aiken said the conference committee decided to give the President a choice of import fees or quota restrictions. The fees could range up to 50 per cent of the value of the wool, in addition to the regular tariff of 34 cents a clean pound.

"The report sounds very encouraging to the wool grower," said Bryan Hunt, Sonora, President of the Texas Sheep & Goat Raisers' Association, last night when informed of the decision of the House-Senate conferees.

"The growers have desired only some protection from foreign wools, and we have worked only toward that end," Hunt declared.

Ray W. Willoughby, San Angelo, a past president of the TS&GRA, and a vice president of the National Wool Growers' Association, said the action of the conferees was: "Just about what we've been working for."

Domestic producers have been, and still are, anxious to maintain a reasonable price for their commodity against rising production costs and protection from the foreign wools which are produced at a lesser per pound cost.

Sonora Losing Streak To Three

Eola ran Sonora's losing streak to three last Sunday at the High School baseball field when Sonora errors allowed 2 runs in the ninth inning to leave the final score at 5-3 in favor of the visitors.

The teams played on even terms through most of the game although Sonora outhit Eola 11 to 5. All of Eola's runs were the results of errors.

Sunday Sonora goes to Ozona to take on the league leaders. Sonora has now won 2 and lost 3, while Ozona has won 5 and lost none.

Three voted against the labor bill. They were Sam Rayburn of Bonham, J. M. Combs of Beaumont, and Albert Thomas of Houston. Practically all opposition to the bill came from those who don't want any labor legislation of any kind and who are afraid of political reprisal by the labor unions in their districts when the next elections occur. The union bosses are now raising money and have made many political threats.

Highway Department Announces New Policy Covering Farm To Market Roads

The State Highway Commission today released details of a new state-wide policy on Farm to Market Roads, which will permit an expansion of the present state operated Farm to Market Road program.

It was explained in the Highway Commission's new policy that the Federal Funds made available by the Postwar Highway Act of 1944 for the construction of Secondary or Farm to Market Roads, covering a three year period, have all been earmarked for specific roads throughout the state. Approximately one-half of this work has been placed under contract and, consequently, no additional funds from this source are now available.

The Commission's statement also noted that no additional funds on the National or State level have been made available for the expansion of the program of construction of Secondary or Farm to Market Roads.

The numerous requests from officials and citizens from all sections of the State for the designation, construction, and maintenance of additional Farm to Market Roads indicated the need of some type of additional program to provide at least for the more urgent and immediate needs in the rural areas of Texas.

On behalf of the Highway Commission, State Highway Engineer Dewitt C. Greer explained, "This new policy of the Highway Commission has been formed to place into operation the new laws passed by the Fiftieth Legislature relative to this type of road."

TEEN CANTEEN BOUGHTON NAMED MAYOR

After a week of freedom from school, 72 high school students met for their first canteen of the summer. The group proceeded to elect, by a large majority, Al Boughton mayor of Youth City. Bitsy Chalk was elected city secretary and Wayne Ogden was chosen commissioner.

The recreation program at the gym is organized into a Youth City with a governing body composed of a mayor, a city manager and two commissioners.

Poll taxes are issued to all voting citizens at a cost of 25 cents. At the first canteen, Sue Wendt recovered her crown as ping-pong champion; Charles Lee Cusenbary and Phillip Cooper played to a tie as checkers champs; Jack Henderson advanced, through stiff competition, to the No. 1 position in badminton.

The citizens of Youth City enjoyed a program of games, dancing and eating.

Mayor Boughton urges all citizens to cooperate and support their city and its activities by active participation. He requests visitations by parents or any other interested Sonoran to see how a city government can work.

Mayor Boughton also wishes to thank the mothers of the citizens who have been so cooperative and

CAREFUL STOCKING GETS GOOD RESULTS ON FLACH RANCH

Conservative stocking and range improvement work have made the rangeland of E. K. Flach, Sisterdale, Kendall County, almost a model ranch.

One of the original cooperators in the Soil Conservation Program in Kendall County, Flach and his son, E. K., Jr., have built small contour terraces on rangeland, arranged fences for rotation grazing and cut down the number of stock carried on the ranch from 100 to 60 head of cattle and from 1,500 to 900 head of sheep.

County Agent C. E. Nelson reports that the grass on the Flach ranch is much better than the average in Kendall County, due to the conservation work he has done the past six years.

Straight Delaine breeding in their sheep flock is giving the Flachs, high quality fleeces at shearing time, says the county agent. Outstanding new rams are brought onto the ranch each year.

Baptists Name Allen Director, Public Relations

The selection of Andrew Q. Allen, assistant to the administrator of Baylor University Hospital, to head a newly created office of director of public relations for the Baptist General Convention of Texas was announced Tuesday by Dr. J. Howard Williams, State Baptist leader.

The decision was reached at a meeting of the State Executive Board of the Convention in Dallas.

Allen is widely known among Baptists of Texas and the South. He has served as business manager and assistant administrator of Baylor Hospital for the past three years, giving much of his time to public relations and personnel problems. Previously he has been assistant State Sunday School secretary for five years, State Sunday School leader in Tennessee for three years and with the Southern Baptist Board for six years.

He is a native of Petersburg, Hale County, and holds degrees from the University of Texas, Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary, Fort Worth and Peabody College, Nashville, Tenn.

In announcing the creation of the new department, Dr. Williams stated that Allen would interpret Baptist news through the press, serving as contact representative, and would also interpret the press to Baptists.

A second and vital phase of his work, the Baptist leader said, will be the creation and production of literature, posters, and other publicity matter for the various departments and branches of the Convention.

Mrs. Stella Stanley, Mrs. J. F. Hamby and John Stanley Hamby left for San Antonio Sunday where Mrs. Stanley will undergo medical treatment.

Is That MILK Really Skimmed?

The tiny globules of butterfat in milk and cream are literally liquid gold. The dairy industry in 1945 produced $3,632,146,000—or about 15% of the national farm income. Butterfat plays a big part in creating that wealth. That's why the milk you feed your hogs should be separated carefully. The butterfat is much too valuable to you to pour it into hog troughs along with the skim milk.

In more than three centuries, the American dairy industry has come a long way. But there's still a lot of hand-skimming—just the same way the Pilgrim Fathers skimmed their milk. That hand-skimming costs producers plenty, averaging 22% lost butterfat. Surveys show water-diluter separators lose an average of 18% of the butterfat, produce lower grading cream.

But mechanical separators, correctly adjusted and operated, will save all but a very small percentage of the butterfat. Moreover, tests have shown that producers who use mechanical separators market up to 71% of first-grade cream, while only about 40% of the hand- or water-separated cream marketed is first grade.

Thus, with even only three cows, a mechanical separator can pay for itself in as little as six months and begin earning a profit. The five minutes a day it takes to wash and sterilize a separator pays out well in dollars and cents.

Of course, there's a lot more to milk and cream quality than the method of separation used. It begins with healthy cows. Cleanliness every step of the way, quick cooling and frequent marketing—all count heavily. Nearly all state agricultural colleges offer detailed bulletins of improvement of the market value of milk and cream. They are profitable reading.

Improved quality* in the cream that we process

The Not-So-"Good Old Days"

In the "good old days" maybe your grandfather butchered three or four steers. The beef that he didn't need for his own use he could peddle without much trouble.

Today his grandson—perhaps it's you—may produce 30 or 300, or possibly 3,000 steers a year. It would be out of the question for you to butcher them yourself, and an utter impossibility to peddle from door to door all the beef you'd have. So you send your steers to market. There they are purchased by meat packers with facilities to handle thousands of head a day. There they are converted into meat. There's a minimum of waste. By-products are turned into useful products. And the meat is distributed to markets near and far, each weight and grade going wherever it will sell best.

Without the services of nationwide meat packers, such as Swift & Company, there would be no efficient, economical way to bridge the more than 1,000-mile average gap between producers and consumers. Without these services, livestock would have to be shipped long distances, cost of dressed meat would be higher, and consumers could not afford to buy as much meat, nor would they be as well fed.

Similarly, when some people "look at" Swift & Company, they see a big corporation. But if they look closely,

Sixty-six thousand individual people (employees) who work for the company—livestock buyers, workers in plants, salesmen, office workers and managers. Retire That Rooster

You'll get eggs that grade higher if you get rid of the roosters in your flock at the end of the breeding season. Infertile eggs keep better in hot weather. If non-producing hens are culled out at the same time, you'll save considerably on feed costs.

With more and more eggs being purchased on a graded basis, quality and cleanliness mean increased income to producers. The way to get a form high-quality eggs is to keep your flock confined to the hen-house and yard, use dry feed, feed a balanced ration, gather eggs several times a day, keep them clean and cool, market the frequently.

Early Cut Hay is Better Feed

As Reported by Mark A. Shipley University of Nevada

Steers wintered on meadow hay cut early in the season gained 151 pounds per head while a similar lot of steers fed late-cut hay lost 2 pounds per head. This interesting information was revealed in a report of an experiment conducted by the University of Nevada.

The two lots of steers averaged 535 pounds at the start of the feeding experiment in November. They were weighed again at the end of 100 days with the above result.

The hay classed as early cut was put up on July 10, and that classed as late cut was harvested on September 10.

After the 100-day period, all the steers were shipped back to the summer range which they had been on the previous summer. They were marketed in September. By that time, the lot fed the early-cut hay weighed 69 pounds more than those fed late-cut hay, according to the Nevada report. At 15 cents a pound, the extra gain was worth $10.35 more per steer.

READING & WRITING
 BY Robin McKoun

The greatest, craziest, most dangerous, least stable, most spectacular, least grown-up, and most powerful and magnificent nation ever known. Those are the words which John Gunther uses to summarize these United States of America, in "Inside U.S.A.," the latest and longest of his famous "inside" series.

In preparation for "Inside U.S.A.," which will be the Book-of-the-Month Club June selection, Gunther spent thirteen months of almost continuous travel. He visited all of the 48 states—including New York City, which he calls the 49th. In great detail, he examined 38 out of the 43 cities over 200,000 in population. (He omits Washington, D. C., whose complexities will form the subject of another book.)

Everywhere, whether he talked with the local die-hard or the local radical, the state's governor or the hotel's bellhop, he sought the answer to such questions as, "What makes your community distinctive?" and, "Who really runs it?" Clifton Fadiman, in an advance report, comments, "If any single book can tell us what it means to be an American citizen, in concrete and current details, 'Inside U.S.A.' is it."

Some of his 52 chapters handle whole regions—the Pacific Northwest or the Middle West. Some chapters deal with great social experiments such as Bonneville, Grand Coulee, TVA, and the potential Missouri Valley Authority. Others deal with people. He gives a glowing sketch of Henry Kaiser, concluding with the comment that "American men of affairs are by and large more interesting than politicians."

The cleanest city he saw in America, says John Gunther, was Phoenix, Arizona; the most beautiful house he saw was in Princeton, New Jersey. The most crowded town he visited was San Diego, with Columbus, Ohio, as a second choice. St. Louis was the least crowded. He found the most unexpectedly good hotels in Denver, Salt Lake City, San Antonio, Kansas City, and Spokane. The best beef he ever ate was in Montana, and the best ice cream in Richmond, Virginia. But it was in Milwaukee, Wisconsin, that he ate his best single meal in America.

Q. Can I go to school under the G. I. Bill while I am taking on-the-job training under the Act?
 A. Yes, you can go to school under the Servicemen's Readjustment Act (G.I. Bill) while you are taking on-the-job training if the school course is determined to be related to the on-the-job course. The government will pay your tuition.

Q. Will the government pay for tools and other equipment while I am taking on-the-job training under the G. I. Bill?
 A. Yes, if the tools and other equipment are necessary for successful pursuit and completion of the course of training and is required by all trainees.

Q. I have been told that my pension will be reduced in 60 days. What can I do to prevent this reduction?
 A. You may submit additional evidence to show that the reduction is not warranted.

Mr. and Mrs. Wendt, together with two councilors, Alice Adkins and Sue Wendt, direct the summer program.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Morgan and Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Morgan attended the pioneer celebration in Llano last week.

O. L. Richardson was named "distinguished student" at recent commencement exercises at College Station. Richardson is now employed at the First National Bank. Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Vander Stucken and daughters, Jo Bess and Jan, returned Tuesday from Rockport, where they spent a week's vacation.

Son of a gun

The fishing bug was biting hard this week as local anglers ranged far and wide in search of the magic thrill that comes when a fighting bass hits a plug with the fury of a miniature tornado. Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Miers and A. B. Hightower took off from the Fort Stockton airport Wednesday morning for Boquillas Lake for two days' fishing. The party took off at 9 o'clock and arrived at the lake, some 765 road miles from Sonora, two hours later.

Westbound Wednesday were Mrs. Scott Roberts, Norbert McIntire and J. V. Roberts, Jr., who expect to find trout in the streams near Chalma in northern New Mexico. Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Johnson and Earl, Jr., are spending a week at the upper Devil's Lake camping and fishing.

(? * 1/2 $ * ?) —
S. H. Allison sold 485 spring lambs averaging 61 pounds to John Clay Co. of Fort Worth at $23. B. W. Hutcherson delivered 3,500 yearling muttons to Russell Hayes of San Angelo at 14 1/2 cents.

(? * 1/2 $ * ?) —
The Seismograph Service Corp. of Tulsa has moved another crew to Sonora for work in Sutton, Schleicher, Crockett and Edwards Counties. Headed by C. N. Page and R. S. Philippi, the group will use Sonora as headquarters until about January, 1948. The two survey crews in the group are composed of L. W. Carter, T. A. Atchley, P. D. Manning, Louis Norton, J. H. Price, V. B. Coley, Charles Lee Cusenbary, Frankie Bond, Al Boughton, James Rutland and Jessie Caveness. In the recording and shooting crew are H. S. Platt,

D. C. Medler, W. R. Roselius, B. L. Reifle, W. A. Handorf, D. L. Hammond, W. L. Chadock, J. H. Nixon, R. C. Evans and J. L. Thompson.

In the office force are Page, Philippi, N. W. McGee and R. A. Kaminski. All drilling for this crew has been contracted to the DePauw Drilling Company. According to Page, S.S.C. has 16 crews operating in five states, and 22 crews in nine foreign countries including Iraq, Egypt, Holland and France.

(? * 1/2 $ * ?) —
Attending the State Firemen's Convention in Amarillo Thursday, Friday and Saturday of this week are John A. Martin, Jr., George Barrow, Scott Roberts, A. H. Adkins, Lee Patric and Clyde Clemens. The group has formed a team to compete in the hose and pumper races.

SWING OF SOUTHWEST MARKETS

Active demand at firm to higher prices ruled the majority of southwest farm markets last week, according to the Production and Marketing Administration, U. S. Department of Agriculture.

Spring lambs gained mostly 50 cents to $1.00 at southwest terminals last week, but aged sheep and low grade shorn lambs dropped almost as much lower. Good and choice spring lambs brought $20 to $21.50 at San Antonio; $23.50 to $25 at Fort Worth; and $24.50 to $25 at Wichita. Oklahoma City bought medium to good kinds at $20 to $24.

Generally steady to slightly weaker prices prevailed at Denver last week for steers, heifers, and cows, while low grade cows and calves moved generally lower at other southwest markets. Bulls and some stocker classes showed weakness at San Antonio and Oklahoma City. Canner and cutter cows sold at $8.50 to $10.50 at Houston; $8.50 to $11 at San Antonio; $8 to $12 at Fort Worth; $9 to $12 at Oklahoma City; $10.50 to $13 at Wichita; and mostly $11.50 to $14.50 at Denver.

BOYCE HOUSE

Some cynic said he'd rather know less than to know so many things that aren't so.

I spent 12 years in school learning things and a good deal of the time since un-learning them. I was taught that the way to pronounce Nevada was "Ne-vah-duh"; "Col-o-rah-duh" and "Hel-ean-uh" for Helena, Montana. But talking to folks who come from those places, I find they are called "Ne-vad-ur", "Col-o-ray-do" and "Hel-enuh", respectively.

Patience, persistence, proportion plus perspective, produce poise, personality, power and purpose.

Whatever happened to spam? Not that I care.

Why is a sound at breakfast time a lot louder than the same sound later in the day?

If we really were frank, we would say most of the time, "How do you feel? Not that I give a darn but it makes conversation."

Probably smallest daily in the is the Cameron Daily Herald of which J. B. White is editor. The pages are the size of a sheet of typewriter paper, but the daily is newsy and well patronized by advertisers . . . August 8 will mark the 25th anniversary of the discovery of the great Luling oil field by Edgar B. Davis.

A bill introduced in the legislature proposes to claim the Gulf of Mexico as part of Texas for 65 miles out from shore. This is all right but it doesn't go far enough. Why be a piker? Let's annex the entire gulf, renaming it the Gulf of Texas of course -- and then let Alaska come in as a state if she wants to -- Texas will still be the biggest.

Mrs. John A. Martin, Jr. is visiting this week in Lamesa with her mother and brothers.

Visiting Mrs. Lee Labenske is her twin brother, W. T. Ackleu, from Austin.

Veterans' News

Nearly 879,000 dependents of 557,000 deceased veterans of all wars and peacetime service are receiving compensation and pension checks from the Veterans Administration at the rate of over $32,000,000 a month, V-A reported this week.

More than 45 percent, or 396,000, are dependents of deceased World War II veterans. Of these, all but 3,525 are receiving compensation as the result of service-connected death of the veteran.

Another 41 percent, or 363,000, are beneficiaries of deceased World War I veterans. Only 96,000 of these receive benefits resulting from service-connected deaths. The rest are being compensated in cases of veteran deaths which did not result from service in the armed forces.

The rolls also include 78,000 dependents of deceased Spanish-American War veterans, 19,000 from the Civil War, 2,345 from the Indian Wars, 47 from the Mexican War, and nearly 20,000 dependents of veterans who died in peacetime service.

The Veterans Administration, forecasting a record school enrollment this fall, is urging veterans to get busy right now and line up their school plans for next fall.

This is especially important for those veterans who may be going to school for the first time under the provision of the G.I. Bill.

They should apply for a certificate of eligibility at the nearest V-A office. This certificate will be required of them before they can enter their school.

Since most schools have a quota for veterans, it is wise for veterans to make arrangements with schools now so that they may be assured of a place in classes starting next September.

Veterans already in training, who plan to attend a different school this fall, must obtain a supplementary certificate of eligibility.

When there's one catcher for two pitchers

It doesn't take a baseball expert to know that if two pitchers throw to one catcher, each must wait his turn. The same holds true for telephone switchboards. Present limited central office facilities enable us to "catch" only a given number of calls at a time. With present record telephone traffic, users must sometimes wait a few seconds before completing a call. We won't be able to "catch" everyone at once until additional equipment becomes available.
