Deferment of the Sylvester pasture on Edgar Glasscock's ranch is paying off in increased seed production of the better grasses. Glasscock has been deferring this pasture since March 1st of this year. On a recent trip through this pasture with Soil Conservation Service personnel, Glasscock found sideoats grama, vine-mesquite, silver bluestem. Texas wintergrass and fall witchgrass growing out in the open away from protective thickets. A high percentage of these grasses were young seedlings that have had a chance to establish themselves and produce seed this year. Such plants are not likely to be pulled up by grazing livestock.

In addition to deferment in the conservation plan Glasscock has worked up with the Edwards Plateau Soil Conservation District. he has planted K. R. bluestem, little bluestem, slender grama and sideoats grama. From these plantings he will be able to harvest seed for reseeding his ranges.

The K. R. was planted in an old garden near headquarters and in an abandoned field. Slender grama was also planted in the field. This field was fenced with an electric fence to give the young plants a chance to establish themselves. Sideoats grama and little bluestem were planted on bare spots in the draws. Brush was cut and placed over seeded areas to protect from grazing.

Alvis Johnson has some of the healthiest K. R. bluestem planted in the Edwards Plateau Soil Conservation District this year.

Johnson's planting was done by hand in a garden spot behind his house. He was prepared to water it but plenty of rainfall made irrigation unnecessary.

The only help the K. R. received was in Johnson's pulling weeds to reduce competition.

The young plants are 18 inches high and have produced a large volume of forage. A few more weeks should find most of the K. R. producing its first seed crop.

Johnson, in cooperating with the Edwards Plateau Soil Conservation District, has worked up a conservation plan that included planting of seed to provide a source for further planting in his pastures.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Teague and children, Billy, Francis and Mary Jo, of Mertzon have been visiting Mrs. W. L. Teague and Mrs. Clyde Hill.

Mr. and Mrs. Julius Braner and Mrs. Rudolph Kraft of New Braunfels visited this week in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dee Word. The couples were all neighbors when the Words were residents in New Braunfels.

Mr. and Mrs. David Shurley have returned from a visit with relatives of Mrs. Shurley in West Plains, Mo. They were accompanied home by a niece, Miss Penny Millican, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Millican of Fort Worth.

DRIVE SAFELY! — Give the pedestrian the right-of-way.

He's probably correct—but just wait till the Tyler Chamber of Commerce hears about this!

Consternation prevailed in an Eastland County newspaper office a while back. There is a community called Morton Valley but, in setting a headline, the operator left out the "t" and it came out in the paper, "Moron Valley."

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kelley had as their guests last weekend Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Smith and daughter, Karen, of Ft. Stockton.

Mrs. Neffendorf and daughter of Fredericksburg are visiting in the home of Mrs. Neffendorf's sister, Mrs. S. M. Loeffler.

Did you know -- That there was a company of Mexicans who fought on the Texas side at San Jacinto?

That after the fall of the Alamo, Santa Anna had Mrs. Dickinson, mother of the "Babe of the Alamo," brought before him and tried to persuade her to let him adopt the little girl?

That a young man who became famous later as Bet-a-Million Gates convinced cattlemen that barbed wire would hold cattle by building a corral in the Military Plaza at San Antonio--and thereby revolutionized the economic history of Texas?

That Texas was under not six, but seven, flags--the "forgotten" flag being the green banner of the filibusters who in 1814 drove every Spanish soldier out of Texas for a time?

That a Texan who was "killed" in the Grass Fight at San Antonio "came back to life?"

That Samuel Maverick, who gave the word, "maverick" to the cattle industry, never owned more than 1,200 head of cattle?

These, and many other stories are told in your columnist's newest book, "City of Flaming Adventure," (Naylor Co., San Antonio), the first full length history of San Antonio, Texas' most historic city and one of the four most distinctive cities in America.

Ralph Killgore, Rosebud publisher-postmaster, feels that there is the proverbial million dollars' worth of ready-made publicity for a rose-grower if he would locate there. "Roses from Rosebud"--the phrase rolls off the tongue.

Drive one of our demonstrators and see for yourself how Ford Overdrive smooths your ride. Your engine speed actually drops 30% without any drop in road speed. For example, while your car's road speed stays at 50 m.p.h. your engine speed drops to 35 m.p.h. in Overdrive. This actually adds to engine smoothness and quietness and engine life. It saves you up to 15% on gas and oil... cuts service costs... it's like getting a dollar's worth of gas for 85¢. And for added safety, a touch on your gas pedal releases a magic-like surge that makes passing and hill-climbing a breeze.

Scout Council Gets Charter

The Sutton County Girl Scout Council today received its 1949-50 charter from the Girl Scout National Headquarters in New York City. The charter authorizes the Sutton County Council to function as an official unit of Girl Scouts of the United States of America for the next twelve months.

This is the first charter granted to the Sutton County Council under a new plan whereby charters are issued in recognition of yearly achievement. According to Mrs. J. M. Vander Stucken volume of membership, the number of volunteer leaders and the number of troops as well as the quality of the program for the girls comprise the basis on which charters are granted.

In a letter accompanying the charter Mrs. C. Vaughan Ferguson, Girl Scout national president, congratulated the Sutton County Council for its work of the previous year and stated that the charter had been granted on the basis of the council's annual report and its accomplishments during the year. Mrs. Ferguson pointed out that Girl Scouting is a nation-wide and world-wide youth movement with great potential power for the strengthening of democracy. She stated that the good work done locally by Councils determines the national and international value of Scouting and said that she hoped that before long it would be possible for any girl, in any part of the country, to be a Girl Scout if she so desired.

YOUR HEALTH

The people of Texas have been fortunate in escaping any serious outbreaks of typhus fever this year, the total number of reported cases so far being 133. This is a gratifying decrease in the incidence of this disease, but at the same time, it is well to warn that only continued stringent rodent-control measures will hold this disease in check.

This is the advice of Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer, who says that "typhus is one of the most debilitating of all diseases, and the long drawn out illness results in such loss of time that this factor is usually even more expensive to the victim, than his doctor and hospital bills."

Inasmuch as typhus fever is transmitted to man by the rat flea, the control of typhus depends almost entirely upon ridding ourselves of rats. No garbage should be left exposed where they can

For Friends — Roamers — Countrymen —

Quite literally, it's one car in a thousand— 999 other cars take the road for every Estate Wagon Buick turns out.

But it's far more than something exclusive, as you'll soon see when one takes its place in your garage.

For those times, for instance, when house guests arrive — what smarter equipage could you send to the station, what greater comfort, what handier way to manage the luggage problem?

And when the Lord and Master yearns for a few days away from it all — what's handier than this nimble gadabout, that lets him fold down a back seat at nightfall and enjoy full-length double-bed sleeping space?

And that place in the country, calling for a car that can go just about everywhere, do just about everything . . .

That's when you'll go for the ruggedness of this beauty with its steel framing, steel top and springs of durable, service-free coiled steel. That's when you'll go for Dynaflow Drive† too — and the steady, even, fluid pull that takes furrowed fields, rough pastures and narrow back roads with equal, shift-free ease.

In all truth, this is a star of many roles. Smart and sleek, finished like an express cruiser, it's a standout for style in any parking line-up, a family favorite for its quick readiness to take on any transportation job.

It's a buy, too, like all Buicks—and your dealer is offering pleasantly prompt delivery. Why not see him today about the car that both literally and figuratively is one in a thousand?

get to it to feed. Granaries and feed houses should be rat-proofed so that rats are starved out. All rat harborage such as trash piles, piles of old lumber, accessible quarters in the walls and foundations of buildings and other suitable living quarters should be denied them. Houses and business buildings can be effectively rat-proofed at a comparatively low cost, and the expense is always much less than the damage that can be done by rats, and the sickness they can spread.

"When the rat is gone, typhus fever will go also," Dr. Cox said. "Keep building out, starving out, and killing all rats, and typhus fever will no longer menace the health of our people."

PROMOTION OF GERALD M. WEST ANNOUNCED IN JAPAN

Announcement of the promotion of Gerald M. West, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. West of Sonora to the grade of Private First Class, was made recently by Colonel Walter C. Pfc. West enlisted in the Regular Army on July 28, 1948 at San Antonio, and following basic training was sent to Yokohama, on November 26, 1948. Pfc. West was assigned to the Fifth Air Force and subsequently reassigned to the 465th Signal Aviation Heavy Construction Company, Nagoya Air Force Base, Nagoya, Japan.

WEST TEXAS UTILITIES IS AWARDED AD PRIZE

The Devil's River News was advised today that a series of advertisements which appeared in this paper had been awarded first place in a national advertising contest.

A series of West Texas Utilities Company advertisements promoting the use of electric service was selected the best in Class A competition in "The Annual Better Copy Contest" sponsored by the Public Utilities Advertising Association, a Department of the Advertising Federation of America. "The Better Copy Contest" is conducted for the purpose of stimulating finer advertising and to recognize work well done. This year more than 1,500 entries in twenty classifications were judged by nationally recognized authorities.

A certificate of award "for the best public utility advertising during the preceding year" was presented to the company at the Annual P.U.A.A. Convention in Cincinnati, Ohio last week. Robert E. Kennedy, WTU Co. advertising manager, accepted the award for the company.

Mrs. Mary Shroyer has as her guest this week her son, Raymond Shroyer, of Fort Worth.

Our WASHINGTON Letter

This week we are copying a news article by Dale Miller, son of the late Roy Miller. Dale is Executive Vice-President of the Gulf Intracoastal Canal Association, and resides in Washington. "For many years the Texas delegation has been universally regarded as the most powerful and influential delegation in Congress. A number of factors probably contribute to that reputation, but the most popularly held is that the Texans 'stick together.'"

This does not mean that they vote together, or that they take concerted action as a delegation on political issues. Indeed, the converse is the rule. On many important issues the Texans are widely divided in their votes, and substantial differences in political philosophies are frequently in evidence among them.

Yet, it is undeniably true that the Texans stick together. Each member knows that he can call on any other members of his delegation at any time for help on any problem which confronts him; and this situation is much more exceptional than might be supposed by persons who are unfamiliar with the rather capricious political temperaments on Capitol Hill.

Few State delegations achieve any sort of effective cooperative spirit and none possesses it to the same degree as the Texans. The Congressional delegation from every state, however, simply reflects the political viewpoints and habits of the electorate back home, the voters who put them in office, and the Texans are no exception. Seniority is the principal source of power in Congress and seniority can only be acquired by the inexorable passage of time.

Texas voters have long had the habit of electing to Congress men who are younger than their colleagues from other States, and of keeping them in Congress for a longer period than those from other States. This custom derives at least in part from the political philosophy of John Nance Garner, long a persistent advocate of continuity in office who laconically expressed it once: "Continuity means seniority, and seniority means power."

There are occasional exceptions, of course, but it is nevertheless a fact that Texas Congressmen are considerably younger than those from other States. The average age of the Texans is 47.1 years, which is exactly seven years younger than the average of 54.1 for their colleagues from all other states. Despite this circumstance, it is a surprising fact that the average Texan has served in the House nearly a year longer than the average member from the rest of the country. At the expiration of the present term the average Texan will have served nearly 10 years although his age today is only slightly over 47.

Based on his life expectancy, and the habit of Texas voters of keeping their representatives in Congress, the average Texan, who already enjoys high rank on his committee after nearly 10 years of service, thus, can anticipate more than 20 years more in office. What this means in terms of political influence in Congress is of tremendous significance.

It means that he will become and remain chairman of his committee for many years when the Congress is Democratic or ranking minority member when the Congress is Republican. It means that he has a far better chance to become Speaker of the House as a Texan has been for seven of the past nine years, or otherwise occupy positions of considerable influence. It means further that he can expect to have other Texans as chairmen or ranking members of other committees, on whom he can rely for active cooperation and assistance.

New Motor Oil Cleans With Detergent Action

Oil company scientists have applied the principles used in the making of fine detergent washing powders to the manufacture of the new Humble Esso Extra Motor Oil. Adding a specially manufactured detergent to the oil enables it to pick up, break up and hold in suspension soot, dirt, sludge and varnish which damage automobile engines. New Humble Esso Extra Motor Oil, say scientists, keeps an engine clean as a hound's tooth. Humble station salesmen are urging customers to drain dirty, diluted oil and refill with new Esso Extra Motor Oil for extra protection. Adv.

Weekly Swing of SOUTHWEST FARM MARKETS
PRODUCTION AND MARKETING ADMINISTRATION U. S. D. A.

Although some southwest farm products brought higher prices this week than last, the majority sold at unchanged to sharply lower levels, according to the Production and Marketing Administration, U. S. Department of Agriculture. Fed steers and heifers brought strong to 50 cents higher prices at Oklahoma City and Denver. Cows lost 50 cents to $1.50 or more at most markets, but sold fully 50 cents higher at Fort Worth and steady to 50 cents lower at San Antonio. Calves and vealers sold mostly $2 lower at Denver, 50 cents to $1 lower at Oklahoma City, and $1 to $1.50 down at Houston. Calves held steady at San Antonio and gained up to 50 cents at Fort Worth.

Spring lambs held steady at San Antonio and Oklahoma City, lost 50 cents at Fort Worth, and gained 50 cents at Denver. Ewes sold steady to 50 cents higher. Goats ruled steady to strong at San Antonio, on larger receipts.

A good volume of mohair sold in Texas this week at 38 to 39 cents a pound for adult and 58 for kid. Wool prices held firm but little trading took place.

Dressed beef, veal and mutton sold unchanged to $1 lower for the week at Chicago. Pork ranged from $1 to $5 lower. Lamb varied from $1 higher to $2 lower.

All classes of livestock arrived in moderately greater numbers this week than last at both southwest and midwest markets. More cattle came to midwest markets than a year ago, but all markets received far less sheep than last year.

March Of Dimes Goes Over Top

A record total of $25,728,000 was raised in the 1949 March of Dimes to continue the fight on polio, it was announced today by Wesley Sawyer, chairman of the Sutton County Chapter of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis. The figure for last year was $21,600,020.

The Sutton County Fund Chairman also points out that not all polio cases are handled and financed by the March of Dimes funds. Those who need the financial assistance are entitled to it, and may obtain it by applying to hospital authorities, who refer the request to local chapters.

Sawyer disclosed results of the 1949 March of Dimes appeal following receipts of a letter from Basil O'Connor, president of the National Foundation, who expressed his thanks to the American people and the thousands of volunteers throughout the country who made the drive the most outstanding in the organization's history.

Half the sum raised after expenses will be used by national headquarters to support its research, professional education and training programs, and to supplement resources of its local chapters in epidemic emergencies. Local chapters retain the other half to pay for care and treatment of polio patients and epidemic aid. At the present time, the Sutton County Fund contains $715,50, Sawyer says.

O'Connor's letter to the local chapter chairman declared that despite the record breaking drive "the need for funds to fight polio still remains extremely critical" because of the unusually severe epidemics experienced in recent years.

"Last year's epidemic, the worst in 32 years, exhausted reserves of the National Foundation," O'Connor disclosed in his letter. In the five-year period ended in 1948, the 96,974 cases of infantile paralysis recorded in the nation were more than double the 42,738 cases reported in the preceding five-year period. At the same time, per patient costs of hospitalization and medical care also have more than doubled in the last decade."

Sutton Ranchers, SCS Men Make Tour Of Ranches

Thomas Espy, W. B. McMillan and W. R. Cusenbary wanted to talk grass recently so they planned a field trip to study the condition of various pastures. They invited SCS range men, Tom Darrow and Gene Alley, and spent the day on the three ranches. Espy and McMillan also wanted information about the Edwards Plateau Soil Conservation District - how it operates, and what assistance it can furnish ranchers. Cusenbary already has a cooperative plan with the district.

Thomas Espy has a pasture which he has deferred in the summer for several years and this pasture has really responded to the deferment practice. There was lots of sideoats grama, pinhole bluestem, hairy grama, silver bluestem and some plains lovegrass growing in the open. Under proper management these good grasses will increase pretty rapidly toward a better type of range with higher carrying capacity.

W. B. McMillan planted some K. R. bluestem and slender grama in his garden to observe their adaptability and to provide a small seed source for some range re-seeding. He has also reseeded a small area in his Horse Trap to these two grasses.

Rex Cusenbary, as always, had a lot to show the group. Among the many things observed were two pastures which were stocked the same until March, then one was deferred. A great deal of difference was found in the types and varieties of grasses in the two pastures. The continuously stocked pasture had almost none of the better grasses heading out in the open. Stock had already harvested most of the cream of the crop while in the deferred pasture a wide variety of the taller, higher forage producing grasses were found in such amounts as to do a very good job of seeding the pasture. Rotated and deferred grazing through the growing season in years of adequate rainfall along with proper stocking rates can go a long way toward improving our pastures and reducing bitterweed. Grass, if given a chance will reduce bitterweed to a minimum.

The group spent a profitable day checking the effects of various range practices. Espy and McMillan made application for technical assistance in developing a coordinated conservation plan with the Edwards Plateau Soil Conservation District.

Wool growers who are holding out for top prices for their products might take warning from reports issued recently by Wool Associated of the New York Exchange.

Today wool is short, both in the nation and the world. Chances are that it will remain so, because of the shortage of sheep throughout the world.

Average wool consumption in the pre-war years averaged 270,000,000 pounds of clean wool. With the increase in population and buying power of the past decade, future demand should reach well over 300,000,000 pounds of the clean product.

This year's clip should be around 111,000,000 clean pounds, which means that 200,000,000 additional pounds must be brought into use from our reserves or from other nations.

With prices as unstable as they are at present, most manufacturers will probably dig into their reserves of wool and use them, rather than risk a price drop in their inventory while paying top prices for the current clip. Current stocks, including this year's clip, now are around 325,000,000 pounds, which leaves room for this year's consumption without additional purchases.

If top prices are asked for the current clip, most users will choose to reduce their inventories, rather than pay stiff prices to keep it at the current level.

The wool growers should keep this situation in mind as he reads the headlines of the papers, which herald the sale of isolated clips for astounding prices. If all growers hold out for exorbitant prices, it might place the whole industry in a more uncomfortable position than if the growers are satisfied to take a modest yet definite profit figure. Such a course of action as the latter suggestion might save the wool market from a severe drop.

Drunk Driving Charges Filed

Drunk driving charges were filed this week against Sepiraes Fieva, Sonora, whose car collided with a car driven by Clay Atchison, Jr., of San Angelo. The collision happened Monday at the intersection of Highways 277 and 290.

Fine and cost of $72.70 was paid by Fieva plus $89 damages on the Atchison vehicle.

The condition of Mrs. Tom Darrow, who is in a San Angelo hospital, is reported as good.

Mr. and Mrs. Rip Ward and Albert spent the weekend visiting in Ozona with Mr. and Mrs. Sid Millsbaugh.

Betsy Ross has returned after a week at Girl Scout Camp.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Peeples and Carlene have returned after a visit to Marfa.
