St. Ann's Planning Church 'Renewal'

Bovina St. Ann's Church is in the final planning stages of a program of church renewal.

Known as "RENEW," the program will be established in the fall as a three-year effort to guide "the spiritual growth of the people as a vibrant faith community."

Planning for this program will begin immediately and reach all parishioners early in October.

The Reverend Tim Dran, pastor of St. Ann's, explained that RENEW is "aimed at renewed Christian living through teaching and witnessing to the work of God, developing vibrant faith communities, and establishing justice formation and action."

Joe Schilling and Vernie Schacher are the chairpeople for the RENEW Core Group.

Focus has been placed on four areas of parish activity. They are the Sunday Mass celebration and a prayer network, take home activities for families, shut-ins, etc., and small sharing groups.

Heading the various groups at St. Ann's Parish is the core group of the parish and committee leaders. The leaders are Eunice Schilling and Rita Villarreal, prayer network; Nancy Schwertner, Sunday liturgy.

Key to the RENEW program and as a result of early tests of both concept and materials, is a small group coordinating committee headed by Joe Schilling. This committee bears the overall responsibility for the selection, composition, and training of small group leaders. Recruitment for participants will be the responsibility of the Telephone, Sign Up Sunday, and Home Visit Committees, led respectively by Martha Nell Schilling, Joe Schilling and Vernie Schacher.

Norma Villarreal will head up the publicity committee. Mark Schwertner will be responsible for the on-going evaluation of the program.

"RENEW" the program's long-range goal is the building up of parish life. Its three goals are to enable people to preach and witness the work of God, to build community, and provide formation in the sphere of social justice.

HAPPY PREVAILS, 17-6

Mistakes Costly In Opening Grid Loss

Except for a pair of crucial fumbles in the third quarter at Happy last Friday, the Bovina Mustangs might have opened their 1987 season with a win over state-ranked Happy.

But the miscues cost Bovina a pair of scores, and the Cowboys held on for a 17-6 season opener.

Happy was leading 10-0 at the time, and if the Mustangs could have scored, they could have taken the lead. Bovina had the ball down inside the Cowboys' ten-yard line twice, and fumbled the ball both times.

"If we could have gotten into the end zone both times, it could have given us the momentum, and we could have won the game," said Coach Bill Talley.

Talley said that the Mustangs were their own worst enemy during the game. "We stopped ourselves—especially in that third quarter," the Bovina grid mentor said.

However, Talley said he was extremely proud of his team and the way they played.

For instance, in the second quarter, with the home Cowboys already holding a 7-0 lead, Happy drove down—and had a first and goal situation at the Bovina eight-yard line. The Mustangs dug in and forced the Cowboys to settle for a field goal.

"I thought that showed a lot of character," Talley said. "After watching the game film, it upheld my conviction that we had played a good game. We executed well...we played well enough to win. We just need to correct our mistakes," Talley said.

Still trailing 10-0, Bovina got onto the scoreboard in the fourth quarter of the game, when quarterback Scott Scaff connected with Denver Riddle on a 20-yard pass play. The kick failed, and Bovina trailed, 10-6.

Happy got the final touchdown on a 32-yard run, and the final margin of 17-6.

"I thought our special teams played well. We have done poorly in our kicking game against Happy in the past, but this time we played well," Talley said.

The Mustangs gained 216 yards offense, 174 rushing and 42 passing. Todd Ware was Bovina's leading rusher with 55 yards and Bud Venable had 52 yards. Scaff also did a good job running the ball on the option play.

Happy had a big, physical team. Their tackles weighed 260 and 220 pounds, which shows you what the Mustangs were up against.

The team came out of the game in good physical shape, just the regular bumps and bruises.

Bovina's next game is a week from Friday at Melrose.

Donations Needed For C.B.

A Bovina Emergency System is being organized and donations are being taken for a CB base station to be placed in the City Hall.

Jr. High Has 36 Boys On Squad List

Bovina has 36 boys out for football in junior high, and Coach Bill Talley says that the program may have "turned the corner."

One thing for sure. It's a 600 per cent increase from the six boys who came out three years ago in Talley's first year as coach locally.

The junior high's first game will be in three weeks against Hale Center.

BERTHA TALLEY takes a coffee break from her duties as custodian of the Bovina school. This is the third school year that Bertha has worked and lived in Bovina. She is the mother of four and wife of Coach Bill Talley.

SECOND WEEK OF SCHOOL...Shown are three Bovina students, Rudy Flores, Brandy Rocha, and Brenda Anaya, who are beginning the second week of school. The students are sixth graders and their teacher is Mrs. Heflin.

Scooter's Scoops

By Scooter Russell

Our football contest began this week and Howard Card of Canyon won first place with twelve games picked correctly. Second place went to Joe Harris and third place went to Chet Hawkins. All of them picked twelve games correctly, but Howard won by coming closest to the tiebreaker score. Howard is Cathie Lanham's dad...If you will, please have your entries at the office by five on Friday and not to my house by six because sometimes I may not be at home. Okay?...The City of Bovina received another inch of rain on Saturday night. It was rather scary for awhile with lots of hard wind and bad lightning.

We express our sympathies to Laverne Brownlow, whose husband, John, passed away and services were held in Bovina on Monday of this week. The couple had moved to Farwell a few months ago.

Dorothy Ellison's daughters, LaTrelle Miehler of Albuquerque and Treva Sapunor of Sacramento, California have visited recently in Bovina with Dorothy and Buck. Treva flew from California to Albuquerque and the ladies then drove to Bovina. They went to Lubbock one day and spent a day and night with LaTrelle's son and family, Calvin Caudle, his wife Tana and their son Eddie.

Anita Guest underwent surgery a week ago Friday in Lubbock and was released on Tuesday of last week. She is getting along fine and her daughter-in-law, Paula and her son Christopher of Oklahoma City are in Bovina spending a few days with the Guests and caring for Anita.

Ernie Rodriguez and her brother, Juvair Garza, came by the office week before last and we enjoyed a good visit with them. They are both from Mission, Texas, but lived in Bovina for several years and attended school here. Their parents are Hilda and Pablo Garza, also of Mission, and former Bovina people. Ernie visited with her sister, Evelyn Espinoza and her family here in Bovina.

Sid Lloyd has enjoyed lots of company during recent days. Her daughters, Julia and Reyes Olona of Santa Fe, New Mexico, Patsy and Larry Webb of Adrian and the Webbs' children, Kendall and Becky were here. On Sunday, Sid's granddaughter, Elyese, of Lubbock and her two children, Taryn and Jordon, came for the afternoon and spent the night.

Henry and Nelline Spicer had a great time week before last when they drove to Houston and watched the Cubs baseball game. Nelline said it was real thrilling to see the Cubs in person. They returned home the next day.

Recent visitors in the home of Joe and Sue Fowler were their daughter and granddaughters, Nancy Harden and her daughters, Ashley and Allison of San Diego, California. Also visiting were Sue's mother, Eula Gross of Floydada and Sue's sister and her husband, Olive and Henry Hinton of Dougherty.

Rose and Les McCain attended the Sanders family reunion last week with thirty-four people attending. Both of Rose's sisters and brother and their families were present. They were Ruth and James Sheek of Pettit, Tiny and Eldon Morris of Levelland and Ray and Betty Sanders of Abernathy.

The reunion was held at Ray's home in Abernathy. While there, the family celebrated Ray's birthday. Rose and Les also visited with Leslie's mother, Mrs. Leona McCain.

Dub and Margaret Brown have been having busy days. Margaret's daughter, Harriet Glasscock of the Dallas area, visited for about four days and accompanying her to Bovina was her granddaughter, Crystal. They enjoyed a good time with her and while here she visited her in-laws, Doris and Alvin Glasscock and also Harriet's dad, Harry J. and Ruthie Charles.

The Browns went to Chillicothe and spent time with family there. Dub went dove hunting with his brother, Lindsey of Chillicothe and his sister, Ruby, and her husband, Marvin, came from Arlington. Margaret visited a couple of days in Quanah with her sister and her husband, Helen and Paul Cain.

Margaret's sister, Helen, had recently had surgery in Oklahoma City and Margaret was with them for two days. They also visited a niece and nephew in Vernon, Sue and Angel Hernandez. Margaret said they really enjoyed visiting in the home of Dub's daughter, Jane Kemp, who is a nurse and a lovely person, according to Margaret.

Jeff and Karen Taylor have had lots of company visiting over the weekend from the East. Jeff said several of Karen's cousins were visiting from the state of Virginia.

Dee Terry came home from the hospital in Lubbock last week following surgery. She is getting along real well.

SMILE:

A wrestler on tour was at a village pub with friends. Despite the protests of his companions that he was drinking too much, he continued to put it away. When they finally headed home, he was far from steady.

The group took a shortcut across the fields and was accosted by a ferocious bull. Seizing the animal by the horns, the wrestler began to struggle with it, and a terrible battle ensued. Finally the bull broke loose and fled.

Prairie Acres Party Line

By DONNA ECHOLS
Greetings to all of you. I missed writing the news for Prairie Acres this summer, but I appreciate Melanie and the good job she did covering for me. I'll tell you a little about my summer. As you may know, we had a Foreign Exchange Student from West Germany who was Tamara Sotelo. Her mother came for two weeks in June and we had fun showing her this part of Texas.

Our two children were in a touring church youth choir called "Spirit Wind" for two weeks so we went to some different towns to hear them sing. We went to Farwell two or three nights a week to watch Daniel play basketball with a summer league. In July, we traveled to Flagstaff, Arizona for a week with my family for a reunion. In August, we went to Lake Texoma for a week with Archie's family reunion.

Between church camps, youth week, Tamara going home, and football workouts, I had a very busy summer and I really enjoyed having time to share with my family. It is good to be back.

This week has been fairly quiet, but everyone is beginning to get excited about going to the Maize Days parade Saturday. We are proud of Teresa Allen for her participation in the Queen's Pageant last week. Some of the residents plan to go to the football game Friday night at Chieftain Field.

Several residents went to Debbie Sweatt's home this week to pick fresh vegetables, prepare them and eat lunch with her. Genevia Williams joined them for lunch. They really enjoyed this outing and had fun together.

We really appreciate the television and newspaper coverage concerning final payment of our building. We thank the Friona State Bank for popcorn and birthday flowers they share with our residents each month.

We miss Melanie and Peg Behrendsen. Peg was our laundry supervisor and she will be teaching in Hereford this year. Melanie has returned to Portales with her husband who is attending college and playing football for ENMU. We will also miss Mary Stone who was an aide here. She will be working at the High School this year.

The kittens are growing and our back yard and patio area is looking nice since the rains.

The Bovina United Methodist Church came and held our worship service Sunday and the Calvary Baptist Church will be here this Sunday at 4 p.m. Please join us. The new schedules have been sent to each church for this fall.

The Bovina United Methodist Church Women came and did nail and hair care Tuesday. The Sixth Street Church of Christ Women will be here on September 8.

We want to thank Patsy and Calvin Talley for bringing us some fresh green beans. We also thank Cecelia and Herbert Schueler for donating magazines for us to use and to the Niberts for giving us some handkerchiefs. We really appreciate the Booster Club for donating some watermelons for us to enjoy and to Mrs. Etheridge for her watermelons.

Margareta Agee and Leora Hastings celebrated their birthdays Wednesday and Johnny Pruitt will have a birthday on September 9.

We have received memorials for Noreen O'Brian from Mr. and Mrs. Claude Blackburn, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Allen, Mr. and Mrs. J.G. McFarland, Mr. and Mrs. J.T. Gee, Raymond and Marian Redford, Conrad and Susan Renner and Mr. and Mrs. D.C. Herring. Memorials received for Alta Wyly were from Oleta Houser, Elwyn Hartman, Myra Witherspoon, Nina Simpson and Mr. and Mrs. Claude Blackburn, J.H. and Vera Clay and Conrad and Susan Renner gave memorials for Phillip Brian Jesko. A memorial was received for J.W. Blackwell from Conrad and Susan Renner.

"You're right," the wrestler said, "I did have too much to drink. I should have been able to get that guy off his bicycle."

Thank you for helping with the news and Scoops...Appreciate you...Scooter.

School Wardrobe Should Fit Budget

Buying a child's entire school wardrobe before the school year starts may mean money gets spent on clothes that will soon be outgrown or never worn.

"A few new things will help the youngster get ready for the school year," says clothing specialist Alma Fonseca. "But when children grow rapidly, clothes bought too far in advance may be outgrown before the child gets much wear out of them."

"Since children's clothing preferences are influenced by what their classmates wear, it may also be wise to delay some purchases until after the school year starts," adds the Texas A&M University Agricultural Extension Service home economist.

"This also gives parents time to plan the child's wardrobe and budget for it throughout the year," says Fonseca.

The clothing specialist suggests starting with a "try-on" session in the child's room. Have the youngster try on the clothes he or she has now to see which are still useable for school.

"Your clothing budget is another consideration," she says. "Try to set aside a certain amount each month for clothing for each family member. Some months you may need to spend all of it and other months you may want to save it to buy a more expensive item later."

According to Fonseca, you should plan to spend the most money on clothing that is worn frequently, receives the hardest wear and is laundered often. If you buy separates, they can be mixed and matched with clothes already in the child's wardrobe.

For children who are growing rapidly, she suggests buying only what is needed at one time. Seasonless clothes that can be worn as long as they fit and look good will also stretch your budget. Short sleeve tops, for example, can be layered with other tops and sweaters for use in colder weather.

The specialist notes that many families stretch their clothing budget by shopping at yard sales, thrift shops and used clothing stores. Since children frequently outgrow clothes before they are worn out, good quality clothing often can be found through these sources.

"When you shop for children's clothing, take along a list of the items the youngster needs so you can make sure the purchase fits into both your wardrobe and budget plan" she remarks.
