Citizens Hear Discussion On Chances Of State Sales, Income Tax

Tom Ratliff was elected local chairman of the Texas Association of Employers, when a group of citizens met Thursday morning with W. D. Bacon to discuss common problems. Those attending the meeting, held in the district courtroom were summoned by telegrams reading: "Please meet with us and others at 10 AM Thursday August 17, Courtroom Sonora to discuss confidential matter vitally affecting our future business and state. Please believe this is an important matter." The messages were signed by Tom Ratliff and Sam Hull.

According to Bacon, a member of the association and owner of the Bacon Construction Company, San Antonio, the purpose of the association is to promote the protection and development of Texas industry.

His purpose in appearing before the group Thursday was to emphasize the facts that:

1. The electoral college system of conducting presidential elections is outmoded and unfair because such an election is controlled by thirteen northern and eastern industrial states and hence by the labor vote.

2. The State of Texas faces such a huge deficit that additional tax money must be raised and consideration is being given state income tax, state gross receipts tax, and state sales tax, while natural gas flows from Texas wells untaxed. He also pointed out that some cooperatives and educational institutions have bought businesses and yet pay no taxes. He pointed out the purchase of Joske's of Texas by Syracuse University as an example, but added that such coops as the REA, etc., which keep to their particular field, should be left alone.

3. A ceiling must be put on the Gilmer-Aiken program, although it is necessary to keep up teaching and school standards.

Following Bacon's talk, Ratliff was named local chairman and the meeting adjourned.

Mrs. Joe Hall, of Arizona, and Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Seals, of San Antonio, are guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Simmons. Mrs. Hall and Mrs. Seals are Simmons' sisters.

Mrs. Frank Turney and her granddaughter, Rose Alice Turney, have returned by plane from a visit in Fort Stockton with Mrs. Turney's daughter, Mrs. Sam Lloyd.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Stuart were in from the ranch Saturday.

Sam McKee, who ranches 25 miles southeast of town, was in Sonora Monday visiting his family and attending to business.

Fred Williams, with Geo. Lea Aldwell as passenger, arrived by airplane Saturday afternoon from Angelo. When above town they dropped a bunch of circulars advertising the San Angelo Fair. They left for Ft. Stockton via Ozona Sunday evening. A number of people made flights over town while the plane was here.

Mr. and Mrs. Mina Adams of the North Llano were in town Wednesday. Mrs. Willie Adams came in with them from the Adams Stuart ranch 25 miles southeast of here.

Miss Bertha Eaton was delegate to the Order of the Eastern Star meeting at Waco last week. She returned home Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Turney have returned from a visit to the State Fair.

Omitted from the booklet through a printer's error was Bobby Allen, another Sonora ex who is, according to Coach Jess Neely, making the grade at Rice. Bobby is a left end, and showed up very well in spring training. Rice, incidentally, is the smallest school in the conference, being limited to 1,600 specially qualified students . . . The bank got a card Wednesday from a Mr. and Mrs. Tholgeson of Baton Rouge, La., extending congratulations and thanks for the coffee . . . The Sonora High School football schedule is released this week. Coach Bill Willard starts workouts at two a day on Sept. 1, and will drop down to one a day when school starts Tuesday, Sept. 5. Sessions will be held in the new practice field which is in right field of the baseball diamond. Willard ranks Sonora about fifth in the district this year, calling Mason, Iraan, Junction and Menard the toughest in that order.

What is believed to be a new record in the Rambouillet sheep sale for a pen of five rams was established July 26 in the San Angelo Rambouillet sale when the Peterson Ranch of Brackettville paid $610 each ($3,050) for the champion pen of five rams consigned by Adin Nielson of Ephraim, Utah.

Breaking all records in the history of the San Angelo Rambouillet sale was the two-year-old ram bred by John and Stewart Williams of Eldorado. Stewart is shown holding the $1,150 champion of the show, now in the proud possession of Ted. Bailey Joy, thirteen year old Roosevelt, Texas 4-H Club boy.

Lions Club Hears Agriculturalists From French Colonies Thursday

The Sonora Lions Club met Thursday instead of Tuesday this week to hear of the work of a group of French agriculturalists and veterinarians who live in different parts of French Colonial Africa.

Each member of the seven-man group made a short talk in French telling of the geographic features of his land and methods of livestock raising. Several explained livestock program planned for the future. Interpreting was done by Marcel Schilles, Paris.

Members of the party, which was conducted on a tour of the Ranch Experiment Station by Wallace Dameron, superintendent, are: Dr. Mareel Delrieu, cattle breeder and member of the Algerian assembly; Philippe Zeller, cattle breeder and member of the French agricultural chamber of Tunisia, Tunis; Dr. Pierre Receveur, veterinarian chief inspector in charge of cattle breeding and animal industries in Tchad; Dr. Pierre Hulien, similar title in Nigeria; Dr. Alfred Mandon, similar title in French Cameroon; Dr. Edouard Pilet, leader of the group and veterinarian doctor chief inspector, Madagascar; M. Georges Robert, farmer, cattle breeder, and Morocco government delegate; Alfred Quenneec, Paris, interpreter.

The seven men are members of a livestock productivity team on a three-month tour of the United States under auspices of the Economic Co-operation Administration of the Marshall Plan.

All expressed their gratitude to the United States for its part as an ally of France in two wars, and spoke highly of the results of the Marshall Plan.

Ancient Highways Attract Tourists

As congestion increases on the motor roads, the nation's oldest highways - its rivers and streams - grow in popularity.

Michigan and New York are among the states issuing special booklets with detailed maps of canoe routes to those seeking escape from traffic and tension of the highways. Many canoe manufacturers find it impossible to fill orders. Canoe liveries on many rivers report peak business.

Several factors are sending us back to the tranquility of the Indiana. First, probably, is that many streams, even some in New Jersey, from which New York's skyline may be seen, or the upper reaches of the Charles a few miles outside Boston, offer havens of quiet and peace highly prized in a troubled world. Second, the advent of the unsinkable, self-righting aluminum canoe offers new safety margins.

In the past, a major drawback to canoeing in many streams has been the rocks and snags which made navigation in a canvas covered canoe impractical.

Evidence of the manner in which the aluminum canoe has opened these streams is the recent report of Ralph Gray in the National Geographic Magazine of a 500 mile, 36 day canoe trip down the rock-dotted Susquehanna River from the river's source in Otsego Lake, N. Y. to Ferryville, Md., where the river empties into the Chesapeake Bay.

Seven men started on the trip in three canoes, two metal and one canvas covered. Because of drought the river was so low in many places, the men had to wade and push the craft over rocks. Both aluminum canoes finished the trip but the canvas canoe was wrecked in the upper part of the river.

Not only are more of us taking again to the only highways known by the earliest explorers but some are deliberately following their paths. For instance, a Grand Rapids, Mich., librarian followed the French and Ottawa Rivers through Canada and the shores of the Great Lakes to retrace the route taken by Pere Marquette 250 years ago.

However, enthusiasm for the aluminum canoe hasn't penetrated into the reservation of the Quinault Indians on the Olympic Peninsula of Washington even though they daily traverse the Quinault River with 36 rocky rapids in 35 miles. These Indians, with a skill born of generations of practice, find the solid high-bowed dugout canoes used by their ancestors for centuries before that well known tourist, Christopher Columbus, reached these shores, is still sturdy enough to resist pounding of the rocks.

YOUR HEALTH

Parents, has your child had a physical examination this summer? Next month he will be starting school, and if he is in good health he will have a happier, more profitable year. It's up to YOU to give HIM a healthful send-off, says Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer.

After he has his check-up by the family doctor be sure to take him to the family dentist. Teeth are mighty important, and decayed ones often cause a heap of trouble. They may start infection in other parts of the body. Strong, healthy teeth add attractiveness to appearance and personality. Help your child to grow up with good teeth . . . see that he has a dental examination twice a year.

When children are grouped together in a classroom, they expose each other to communicable diseases. Has your child been immunized against diphtheria and smallpox? Does he know he should use only his own drinking glass? Does he know he should avoid boys and girls who are victims of colds? Do you keep your child at home when he shows signs of a cold?

Uncle Sam Says

There are tonics for each season of the year, but there is only one which offers a wonderful cure for headaches, worry, or insomnia. Take a good look at the label on the bottle. That is a U. S. Savings Bond, guaranteed to be safe and to pay you back $4 for every $3 you invest, after ten years. And the more of this beneficial medicine you take, the healthier will be your income-year future financial standing. So invest regularly every pay day - summer, fall, winter and spring - U. S. Savings Bonds.

Our WASHINGTON Letter

By Congressman O. C. FISHER

By a vote of 383 to 12, the House last week passed and sent to the Senate the expanded bill, giving the President sweeping powers to control the nation's economy. The measure includes permission to impose wage and price controls and rationing. The use of these powers would be discretionary with the President. There is no mandatory requirement that wage and price controls be imposed at the same time.

This failure to tie wage and price controls together was, in the minds of many of us, a mistake. Repeated attempts were made to amend the bill so as to make it mandatory that the President control wages if he should control prices. We know from past experience that if prices are controlled but wages left free to go up, the result is increased cost of production and a scramble to the black markets.

The bill goes further to empower the President to require acceptance and priority fulfillment of all national defense contracts, and authorizes him to requisition any materials or facilities he considers necessary to the defense effort.

The President could set up a system of priorities and allocations to insure a supply of critical materials for defense plants. He could also either make or guarantee loans for defense purposes up to a total of $2 billion.

The measure also includes authority to control consumer credit, but restricts the control of real estate credit to new construction or extensive renovation. And it would be a criminal offense to hoard food, clothing or other "necessaries."

IN ADDITION TO credit controls in an effort to curb the trend toward inflation, new taxes are believed essential. A new wartime tax measure is now in the making, and we can all expect our income tax bill to be upped during the life of this emergency.

The question of whether price and wage controls and rationing will be resorted to by the President will probably depend upon the success of the other controls to stem the tide of inflation and will also depend upon the people themselves. Hoarding and excessive buying means shortages and that in turn means higher prices.

Enough of this, including the abuse of credit, can, of course, cause high-price spirals which, when applied to necessities can have a serious impact upon the average family and upon the nation's economy.

FIRST OF THE FINE CARS IN VALUE

BIG MOMENT - with a Double Impact

It's a big moment when any new car rolls up to your door and you start out fresh and spanking bright.

Think, then, what it's going to mean when that new car is a ROADMASTER like this one pictured here.

You'll swing wide the door and slide into a car that's truly fine—and looks it.

You'll put foot to treadle and touch off the might of a great, 152-horsepower Fireball straight-eight that's ready to master any road—or anything it meets there.

You'll have the silken magic of Dynaflo Drive to simplify your driving, ease your way. A handsome flexible steering wheel, automatic windshield washers, soft Foamtex cushions, and many other items that are "extras" elsewhere are standard equipment here.

But even while you enjoy all that, you've a still deeper satisfaction enriching your pleasure.

For here you have not only a fine car, but a sound and frugal investment as well.

You have paid less per pound than any comparable car costs—and automotive men will tell you price per pound is the soundest measure there is of solid, thoroughgoing merit.

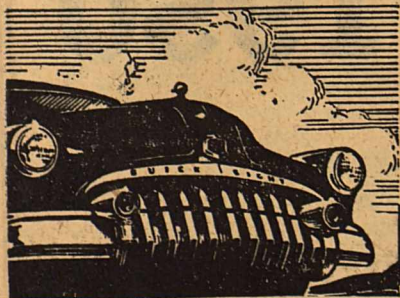

You've bought quality—top quality—all the fine things a fine car should provide. But you haven't spent a penny more than a fine car need cost.

And that can mean a lot. For instance—

Drop in on your Buick dealer. Try out a ROADMASTER. Match it, feature by feature and point by point, with any other fine car on the road.

Then get the price.

You may well find that you can get not only a new ROADMASTER for the sum you had in mind—but maybe a new fur coat for your wife as well!

FOUR-WAY FOREFRONT. This rugged front end (1) sets the style note, (2) saves on repair costs—vertical bars are individually replaceable, (3) avoids "locking horns," (4) makes parking and garaging easier.

THIS TASTES GOOD IN TEXAS
 Cream Sponge Cake
 4 egg whites
 4 egg yolks
 3 tablespoons lemon juice
 1 cup cake flour
 1/4 teaspoons baking powder
 1/4 teaspoon salt
 1 teaspoon vanilla
TO MIX: 1. Measure all ingredients. Sift sugar through fine sifter one to four times before measuring. Use pastry or cake flour and sift once before measuring. Separate yolks and whites of eggs. They will give more volume if at room temperature.

 2. Beat egg whites until stiff but not dry and beat in gradually 1 tablespoon sugar for each egg white (out of sugar called for in recipe) and set aside.

3. Add liquid to egg yolks and beat until lemon-colored and so thick that beater turns with difficulty. Beat in remaining sugar.
 4. Combine yolks and whites and fold together with spoon until mixture is even.
 5. Mix and sift remaining dry ingredients and cut and fold into egg mixture. Do not beat after adding flour to avoid breaking air bubbles.
TO FILL PANS: Pour into unbuttered tube pan (9-inch), two 9-inch layer pans, or 12 to 18 muffin tins. Cut through mixture several times to break large air bubbles.
TO BAKE: Bake 1 hour or more in moderately slow oven (325 degrees F.), if in layer cake pans or individual tins.
TO COOL: Invert on wire cooler and let stand until cold. Loosen with spatula or knife.
