SIXTY-SECOND YEAR

Sonora, Texas Friday, November 2, 1951

FOURTH WEEK

... Son of a gun ...

E. A. Brodhead, superintendent of schools, advises us that his office is prepared to refund reserve seat tickets holders' money if they will telephone Mrs. Carpenter.

Sonora forfeited the Menard games due to illness of six players. The $150 guarantee was paid to Menard Tuesday.

We will bet anybody a cup of Arbucks that not over three people call in. Will let you know next week.

Mayor Alfred Schwiening breezed in with some good news this week. He said that as of today we will have one week less to wait until it rains.

Sutton County was the third county in Texas to meet its USO quota, and many thanks again to the Lions Club.

Another quota that has been met, as is the Sutton County custom, is the Gonzales Warm Springs Foundation drive for funds. The drive, directed by George H. Neill, was for $500, and began Monday morning. Tuesday morning, just 24 hours later, a check for $550 had been mailed to Gonzales.

Bennie Babb, purveyor of "Babb's Better Bitter Beer," the abbreviation for which is spelled "Pearl" was in yesterday bragging about his new warehouse and office. Here is the propaganda: the building is 28 x 56 feet and will hold 408,000 bottles of beer. This isn't quite as much as some of our friends can hold, but it's a start. Bennie invites all to attend his warehouse warming Tuesday.

Ed Mayer, Jr., has mailed us his football predictions for this weekend. If they come out pretty good we'll quiz him about when it's going to rain. Here is what he has written:

Predictions for Nov. 3rd
 Texas A. & M. 21 Arkansas 16
 Texas Univ. 21 S. M. U. 14
 Rice 21 Pittsburg 7
 Baylor 27 T. C. U. 20
 Northwestern 28 Ohio State 21
 Illinois 29 Michigan 19
 Tennessee 42 North Carolina 6
 Miami 28 Kentucky 20
 Clemson 14 Wake Forest 13
 U. S. C. 35 Army 0
 Navy 21 Notre Dame 20

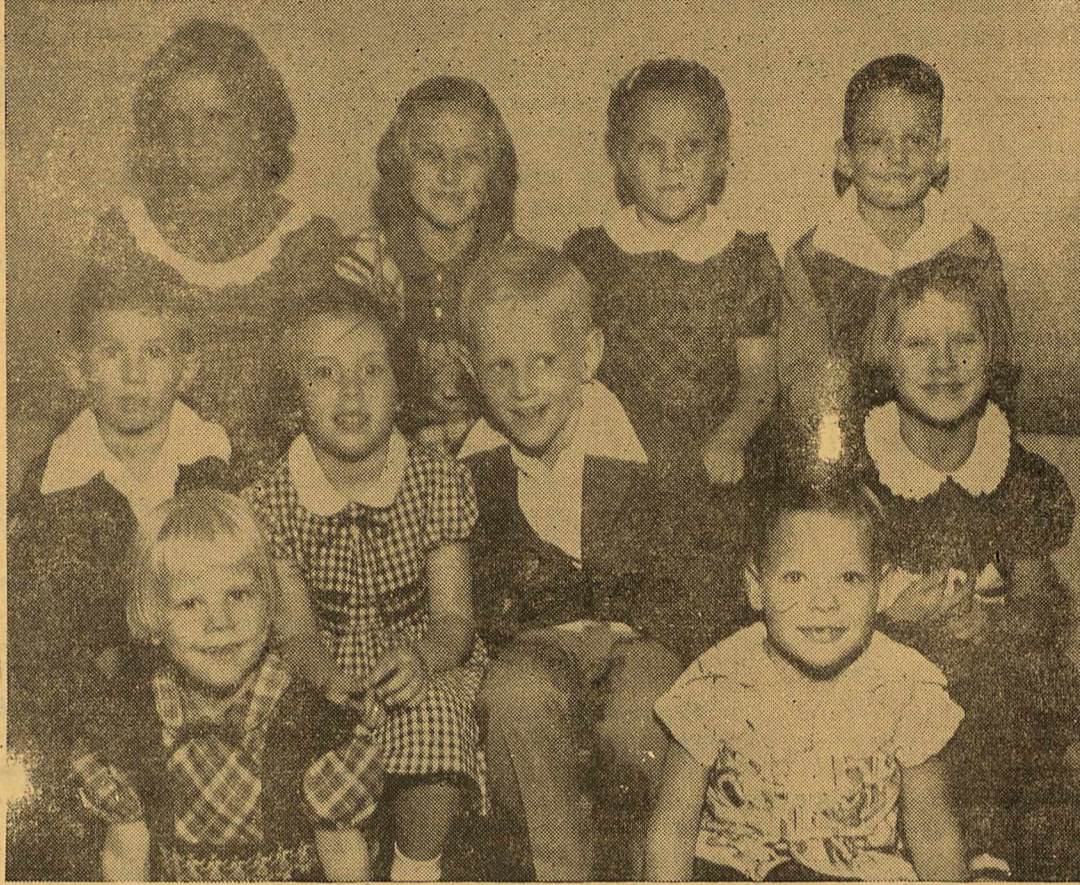

Our observations of the youth of Sonora, especially at noon and right after school, have led us to conclude that there is danger of our children being born legless. Going home the other day at noon we met what seemed to us an auto parade. Forty-two cars were leaving the schools, each with a child or two comfortably ensconced in the back seat. The day was warm and sunny and a moderate breeze was blowing. We observed four children walking home to their lunch.

Anthropologists tell us that as a result of non-use, both the small toe and the appendix will have disappeared from the American scene in a half-million years or so. We say, "Parents, consider your children's legs." We think it should become the battle cry of the P.T.A. We think the Gilmer-Aiken Bill should be revised to include a solution of this serious problem. Because after all, a half-million years go by faster than you think. There have been Sunday mornings when we feel we are at least that old.

Then there is the economy of Sutton County to consider. Let's imagine a typical scene:

Father is working at the ranch, busying himself among his $400 cattle, when he suddenly remembers it's 2 o'clock, and school is out about 3:30. That only gives an hour and a half to get things ready. So he drops his pruning shears, or whatever those things are you cut horns off with, jumps in the pickup and heads for the house. He can't take the pickup directly to school because the springs are too rough. So he hastily checks the family car to see the back is swept out, hops in and drives 40 miles to town. It is now 3 o'clock and here is where the tough part comes. Finding the right parking place is no easy matter. He needs to be close to the door so too much walking won't be involved, and he can't park across the street. So, by 3:30 he is ready for the ride back home. It is 4 o'clock before he can pick up his pruning shears and get back to work.

LITTLE CHILDREN TO APPEAR ON METHODIST HOME RADIO SHOW

This representative group of nursery-age children from the Methodist Home, Waco, Texas, are awaiting their turn to take part in a radio show, "These Are Your Children," which will be heard over Texas Quality Network and other Texas and New Mexico stations, Sunday, November 4. Program time on all stations is 8:15 A.M., according to Hubert Johnson, Methodist Home superintendent.

The theme of the November 4 broadcast will be the story of one of the girls at the Home from the time she entered in early childhood until her graduation 14 years later. This is one in a weekly series depicting various activities and true life stories of the more than 400 boys and girls who live at the Methodist Home.

The Methodist Home, founded in 1890 by the Methodist Conference, will celebrate its sixty-first anniversary during November. It is supported entirely by voluntary contributions from members of the Methodist Church and other friends in New Mexico and Texas. More than 6000 boys and girls have graduated into a successful adult life during the 61 years.

The radio series is heard each Sunday morning over WOAI, San Antonio; KPRC, Houston; WFAA, Dallas; KBST, Big Spring; KTRC, Austin; KERB, Kermit; KVAL, Brownsville; KFRO, Longview; KFDM, Beaumont; KFYO, Lubbock; KGGM, Albuquerque; KRDD, El Paso; KGNC, Amarillo; KRGV, Weslaco; and KRIS, Corpus Christi.

Pictured above is the Texas Tuberculosis Association's mobile x-ray unit which will come to Sonora Tuesday and Wednesday, November 27 and 28 under the auspices of the Sutton County Tuberculosis Association.

It is the plan of the local association to enlist the aid of in attaining goal of having 1,000 persons have free chest x-rays made.

Mr. and Mrs. O. G. Babcock are vacationing and are touring the states visiting various relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Berry had as their guest this week, Mrs. Joe Whiddon of Premont.

The effect on the local shoe business might well approach catastrophic proportions. Already, in fact, the local stores seem to have too many shoes in stock.

But we have a simple solution. All we need to do is buy some more school buses. Have the schools put in walking and schedule the course during the first period each day. Then the buses can take the students out to Simmons Park, where the theory of walking will be taught. Practice in walking could be held from there back to town, and in a half-million years our little ones will still be charging around on sturdy pins.

Of course, we only live a block from the Schools.

Note to A. & M. and Texas Exes: An amendment, second on the ballot, and up for vote Tuesday, November 13, affects Texas A. & M. College and the University of Texas. If approved the measure will permit the University Permanent Fund to diversify its investments with the aim of increasing the return on these investments from their present all-time low of 2 1/2%. To do this, the fund must be invested in securities other than the U. S. Government, State of Texas and Texas Municipal Bonds which the fund is now limited to, and which have dropped from over 4% in 1932 to slightly under 2 1/2% in 1950. Under diversification, experience of other schools has shown that the return can be increased up to 4% easily and in some cases up to 6% or more. This would mean an increase of probably $1,500,000 in income annually to both schools. It is our understanding that major building projects at both Texas A. & M. and Texas University hinge on this amendment.

Murphy New Hospital Head

Edwin M. Murphy has been appointed administrator of the Lillian M. Hudspeth Memorial Hospital, and assumed his duties last week. Murphy comes to Sonora from Bertram, where he was business manager and technician of the Bertram Hospital and Clinic. During World War II he served in the Navy as a medical technician. He was formerly a professional magician and still holds membership in the Society of American Magicians.

He is married and has three children, Bobby 7, Patrick 4, and Zelma Ruth 9 months.

SHRINE CLUB PRESENTS FIRST AID KITS TO SCHOOL

The Plateau Shrine Club, following a Shrine tradition, this week presented the Sonora Elementary School with eight first aid kits.

Presentation was made to Rex Lowe, principal, Monday by Edgar Glasscock, president of the club, and Edgar Shurley.

CHRISTMAS PACKAGES GOING OVERSEAS SHOULD BE MAILED BY NOV. 15

Christmas packages for men overseas should be in the mails not later than November 15, to insure Christmas delivery, according to local Postmaster James D. Traimer.

Trainer said that special attention should be given to wrapping and packaging. The package should be enclosed in a heavy box and secured with heavy twine, rather than tape.

GULF SERVICE STATION UNDER NEW OWNERSHIP

The Gulf Service Station, located at the corner of U. S. highways 290 and 277, had a new owner Thursday morning when Joe Brown Ross, local ranchman, took over the business from O. L. Richardson. Richardson sold the station to Ross several weeks ago.

Ross said J. T. Davis, Beeville, former employee of the Sonora Experiment Station, will manage the station. Ross said he intended to continue running the station on 24-hour basis.

Jury Finds Castilleja Guilty Of Murder; Recommends 50-Years

BRAY FILES MOTION FOR NEW TRIAL

Ben Castilleja, Sonora shearing captain, was found guilty of murder Friday and recommended for a 50-year term in the state penitentiary. He was accused of the murder of Miguel Gonzales.

Defense attorney Clayton Bray filed a motion for a new trial before 112th District Judge Garland Casebier. The motion will probably be acted on sometime next week. Castilleja is at present in county jail.

The defense based most of its case on the testimony of Gilberto Martinez, who testified that he had witnessed the shooting, and on the testimony of the defendant, who claimed that he shot Gonzales in self defense and only as last resort.

Martinez testified that he heard Mike and Ben talking and that Ben said he didn't want to fight. Martinez said Mike ran at Ben, who backed up and fired his pistol at the ground. Mike continued to advance and Ben fired again at the ground while continuing to back up. According to Martinez, Mike continued to come toward Ben and Ben backed up some more and fired in the air. Martinez said he then told Zaragosa Sanchez to hold Mike and he held Ben.

"Ben said he would rather be killed than have his pistol taken away," Martinez continued, "He said if I didn't turn him loose Mike would kill him." Martinez said they turned the men loose and Mike caught Ben. At this point there were two more shots fired.

Zaragosa Sanchez testified that he did not see Gilberto Martinez at the scene of the shooting. He also stated that he saw Castilleja and Gonzales walking toward the draw, with Castilleja about ten feet ahead.

Epefino Lumberras testified that he saw the two men walking toward the draw with Castilleja about ten feet ahead and Gonzales following, but that he did not see Gilberto Martinez.

Dr. J. Franklin Howell testified that Gonzales was shot twice, once in the left breast and once in the shoulder, the bullet traveling down at an angle, nicking the ear and striking the shoulder. Glen Crites took the stand to state that what appeared to be powder burns were on Gonzales' right ear and shirt front.

Castilleja gave his version of how the shooting happened. He said he had gone to the Sonora Cafe that afternoon for a couple of beers. That later Sanchez, Alvarado Martinez and Gilberto Martinez came in and he bought them some beer. Later, he said some of the men wanted to borrow his car and he agreed but took the pistol out of his car. His reason for this was that he thought it might get the men in trouble should they have an accident and a pistol be found in the car.

Castilleja said he put the pistol inside his shirt and in his waistband and returned to the cafe. He then left the Sonora Cafe and went to Vic's Place, where he saw Gonzales' stepfather. Castilleja said he told the stepfather he didn't want any trouble and that they had an amicable conversation.

Later on, Castilleja related to the jury, he started back to the Sonora Cafe and saw Mike Gonzales seated in a pickup outside the building. He said he shook hands with Mike and after they had talked awhile, Mike tried to get out of the pickup. Castilleja said he pushed against the door to try to keep Mike from getting out. He said he told Mike he didn't want to fight and asked him if it was true that he, Mike, and Mike's brother, Jesus, were going to kill him. Castilleja reported Mike as saying, "Maybe I won't but you had better watch Jesus." Castilleja testified that a little later Mike said, "Maybe I will too, because you said you weren't in the truck with Jesus' wife."

Castilleja said he then fled from the truck and Mike followed him. He started toward the draw and shot into the ground twice. Mike followed and he tried to shoot him in the arm to stop him. He said when Sanchez and Martinez turned them loose after holding them, he and Mike wrestled for a moment. He had the gun against Mike's chest and when Mike brought his arm down, the gun fired, killing Mike.

Castilleja had also testified that the two shots he fired into the street near some houses about fifty yards from the draw. Two state witnesses, Miguel Galindo and Raquel Lopez, testified that they were in their houses at the time of the shooting and that all shots had come from the draw.

The open house will be held in recognition of Education Week. All parents are urged to attend the meeting.

The state's case was presented by M. C. Gonzales, special prosecutor from San Antonio, and County Attorney Web Elliott. Members of the jury were S. M. Kerbow, foreman, John McClelland, Wilfred Berger, Louis Davis, Collier Shurley, Billy Galbreath, Joe Hardgraves, Vernon Marion, Artie Joy, J. E. Branscomb, Lawrence Nichols and Truman Hines.

In the last case at this court session, Bob Mantooth pleaded guilty to a charge of burglary and was given a three-year sentence to run concurrently with a seven-year sentence he is already serving at Huntsville. The charge resulted from the theft, last year, of 17 cases of whisky from Penick's Liquor Store.

Sheep and goat raisers from all over west and central west Texas are expected to start pouring into El Paso this weekend for the 36th Annual Convention of the Texas Sheep and Goat Raisers' Association to be held there November 5-7.

"We have an interesting speaker's program planned," Frank Roddie, Brady, Texas Sheep and Goat Raisers' Association president, announces. "We will also have a chance to take action on problems now effecting our industry."

Soil Conservation District News

News of Edwards Plateau Soil Conservation District
Prepared by Local SCS Personnel

Range improvement brought about by application of wise range management practices paid off for J. A. Sykes this past year.

Sykes a cooperator of the Edwards Plateau Soil Conservation District started his range improvement program by deferring his 110 acre Goat Trap in 1949. Since then this trap has made considerable improvement. Little and silver bluestem, side oats grama, tall dropseed, and nealy grama are appearing in quantity and have made substantial growth in healthy vigorous plants. Continued improvement is evidenced by numerous young plants and seedlings that have become established in the past two years.

During the growing season of 1950 the trap received its last deferment. The payoff in this range improvement came last January when Sykes weaned 17 calves and placed them in the trap. They received 1 1/4 pounds of feed daily during January and February and have not received any supplemental feed since. Ten calves comprising the steer went to San Angelo on October 1st where they averaged 678 pounds as yearlings after being in the pens without feed and water all night. This represents 61 pounds of livestock production per acre on 12 inches of rain this year.

Sykes Goat Trap is still in good shape and he plans to use it in wintering livestock again this year. The value of good grass cover is well illustrated in comparing this trap with one of Sykes adjoining pastures. One half the rain Sykes received this year came in a few hours when he received 6 inches of hail and rain. The trap held much more water and is now in excellent shape to winter livestock where as the adjoining pasture most of the rain ran off and the grass quit growing shortly after it greened up. Sykes feels like the trap is beginning to look like country looked when he first settled on the Edwards Plateau before the turn of the century.

90% For! 10% Against

Railroad workers are represented by 23 standard unions. By mutual agreement, 20 of these unions—comprising about 1,200,000 men, or more than 90%—are working under wages and rules agreed to by them and the railroads. But leaders of three unions—with only about 130,000 men, or less than 10%—still refuse, after more than a year of negotiations, to accept similar wage and rules agreements. These are even more favorable than the terms recommended by the Emergency Board appointed by the President.

Yes, it certainly seems to be finally about time that the leaders of the three unions stop their delaying tactics—their quibbling. But the leaders of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Enginemen, and the Order of Railway Conductors, continue to refuse. They continue a course of dillying and dallying. It is definitely time to END THIS QUIBBLING!

On June 15, 1950, an Emergency Board appointed by the President under the terms of the Railway Labor Act—an Act largely fathered by the unions themselves—made its recommendations on certain wage and working conditions ("rules" in railroad language) which had been in dispute between employes and the railroads.

More Than 90% of Employes Accept
Since then, terms equal to or better than the Board recommendations have been accepted by about 1,200,000 railroad employes—more than 90% of the total of all workers. They are represented by 20 of the 23 standard railroad unions.

Less Than 10% Refuse
But three unions—with about 130,000 men, or less than 10% of the total—have refused to accept, even after months of negotiations. These three unions are the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Enginemen, and the Order of Railway Conductors. These are three of the so-called "operating" unions. Already the highest paid men in the industry, their leaders demand still further advantages over other workers.

In all, there are about 270,000 operating employes. But not all of them, by any means, are represented by BLE, BLF&E, or ORC. As a matter of fact, less than half—132,000 to be exact—are in these three unions. More than half—about 140,000—are in other unions, principally the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen. What makes the whole situation so hard to understand is that these 140,000 operating employes are working under wages and rules which the leaders of the other 130,000 say they cannot agree to.

What Do the Railroads Offer?
They offer these three unions the same settlement which was contained in a Memorandum of Agreement signed at the White House on December 21, 1950, by four brotherhoods and the railroads. Later these brotherhoods sought to repudiate this agreement. But on May 25, 1951, the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen signed a complete agreement carrying out the principles of the Memorandum Agreement of December 21. They have been working under this agreement since May 25.

What About Wages?
Under the terms of the agreement, yard engineers, firemen and conductors would now be receiving a wage increase of $34 an hour ($2.72 a day) and road engineers, firemen and conductors would now be receiving an increase of 19 1/2 cents an hour ($1.56 per day). Large sums of retroactive pay have already accrued and if the agreement is carried out, will be paid promptly.

What About "Cost of Living" Increases?
The White House Agreement includes an "escalator" clause under which wages will be geared to changes in the Government's cost-of-living index. Two such increases—April and July, 1951—have already been paid to the 90% of railroad employes covered by signed agreements.

What About the 40-Hour Week?
The White House Agreement calls for the establishment of the 40-hour week in principle, for employes in yard service. The employes can have it any time after January 1, 1952, provided the manpower situation is such that the railroads can get enough men to perform the work with reasonable regularity at straight time rates. If the parties do not agree on the question of availability of manpower, the White House Agreement provides arbitration by a referee appointed by the President.

What Else Do the Union Leaders Demand?
The continued quibbling of the leaders of the three unions has to do principally with rules changes, which have already been agreed to by the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen. Of these, the principal one seems to be that having to do with so-called "interdivisional service"—runs which take in two or more seniority districts.

The union leaders would bar progress and efficiency in the industry, and better service to the public, by maintaining a situation where they can arbitrarily stop a railroad from establishing such interdivisional runs. The carriers propose that if a railroad wishes to set up an interdivisional run, the railroad and the unions should try to agree on such run and the conditions which should surround its establishment, and if the railroad and the unions can't agree, the matter will be submitted to arbitration.

But the three union leaders still refuse. Rules Can Be Arbitrated
The railroads have not only offered these three unions the same rules agreed to by the BRT and covered by the White House Agreement, but have even agreed to submit such rules to arbitration.

The Industry Pattern Is Fixed
With the pattern so firmly established in the railroad industry, it seems fair to suggest that the leaders of BLE, BLF&E, and ORC stop their quibbling and take action to make the railroad labor picture 100% complete. Certainly today's economic and international situation calls for a united front. And certainly no good reason has been advanced why these three unions should be preferred over all other railroad employes.

We are publishing this and other advertisements to talk to you at first hand about matters which are important to everybody.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS FROM VETERANS ADMINISTRATION

Q - I am a paralyzed veteran, and I received a $10,000 grant from VA to build a "wheelchair home." I want a GI loan to finance the rest of the cost. Will my loan be subject to Regulation X, such as the limited period for repayment, and the like?

A - No. GI loans made to disabled veterans for the acquisition of specially adapted housing are not subject to the terms of Regulation X.

Q - Both of my sons, on whom I was dependent, died recently as the result of injuries incurred during World War II. Is it possible for me to receive death compensation payments on behalf of both?

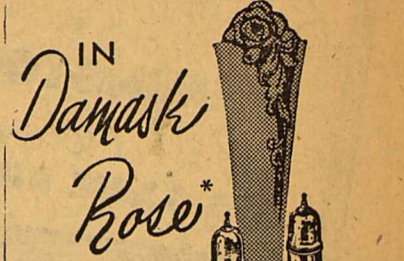

A - Yes. You must, of course, file a claim with the VA, establishing dependency, and VA must determine whether both deaths were service-connected.

Q - For some reason, I never received my addressed envelope this month for paying NSLI premiums to the VA. What should I do?

A - Make your premium payment as usual. And enclose enough information about yourself so that VA can readily identify your insurance account: your insurance number, full name and address, and date of birth.

The emotional young lady above doesn't have to cry all by herself anymore. Tiny Tears is the latest creation of a pioneer doll-designer who made the world's first all-rubber doll.

COME IN - Let us show you how low trucking costs can be!

5,500 reports! NOT the result of manufacturer's testing—but owner-reported figures from on-the-job operations!

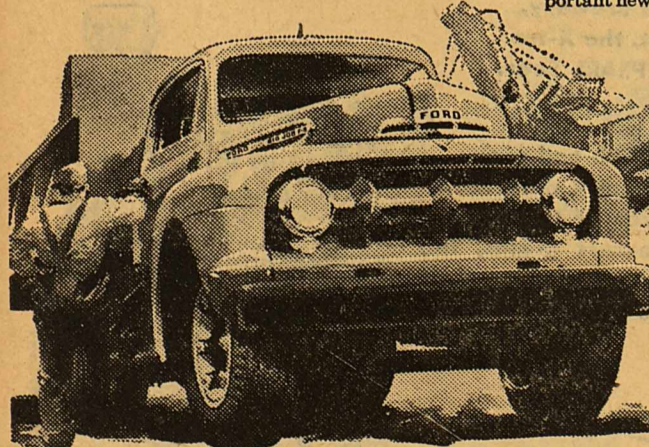

It's another Ford first! A complete record of cost-to-run reports, ranging over the whole field of trucking! It's the book of final results from the nationwide Ford Truck Economy Run! See it before you buy ANY truck—see how low trucking costs can be, for loads like yours, in your kind of work!

This book is made up from daily on-the-job running cost reports by ordinary truck operators, doing everyday truck work. There were no "special" models in the Ford Truck Economy Run. Every one of the 5,591 trucks were stock model jobs, equipped with the standard Power Pilot.

What Should It Cost per mile to run a truck? The only way to find out is to check the running cost experience of other men in your kind of work! Now you can do that—for the first time—with this important new Ford service. Only your Ford Dealer has it!

Availability of equipment, accessories and trim as illustrated is dependent upon material supply conditions.

"Only 2 1/4¢ a mile!"

Contractor C. W. Miller (address on request) ran his Ford F-1 Pickup 8,189 miles in the Ford Truck Economy Run. "We spent $181.41 for gas, oil and maintenance. A running cost of only 2 1/4¢ a mile!"

Covers every important truck-using business! Whatever you haul—appliances, bread, gravel, or almost any loads—you'll find on-the-job running cost evidence in this Book. Come in and see it!

The Power Pilot is standard equipment on this Ford F-8 BIG JOB and on all today's Ford Trucks. Gives you most power from least gas! The book shows that 1 out of 2 Ford F-8 BIG JOBS in the 22,000 G.V.W. range ran for less than 4 1/4¢ a mile!

FORD TRUCKING COSTS LESS

because Ford Trucks last longer! Using latest registration data on 7,318,000 trucks, life insurance experts prove Ford Trucks last longer!

"A Man Called Peter"

NEW YORK—Just out on the nation's book shelves is "A Man Called Peter," the story of Peter Marshall and his marriage. An ex-newspaperman who received his bachelor of divinity degree at Columbia Theological Seminary in Decatur, Ga., Peter Marshall became one of the most forceful and remarkable Presbyterian ministers of recent years. Dr. Marshall was appointed Chaplain of the United States Senate in 1947, and he held this office until his death in 1949. He was widely known for the pungency of his prayers and the originality of his sermons. His colorful career included jobs as a steel mill worker, ditch digger and newspaper employee. As his wife, Catherine Marshall tells the story in the book just published by McGraw-Hill Book company here, she quotes significant excerpts from her husband's sermons during his 10 years as pastor of the New York Avenue church in Washington, D.C. A number of Peter Marshall's sermons have already been published last year in the book "Mr. Jones Meet the Master," which was edited by his wife.

YOUR HEALTH

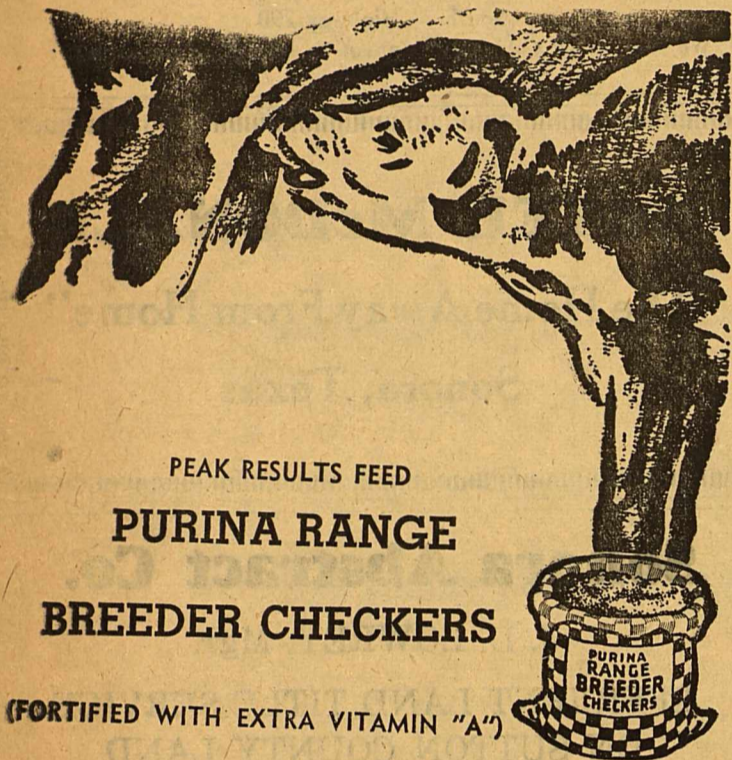

Although the high cost of food has made feeding the family a more expensive undertaking than ever before, Dr. Geo W. Cox, State Health Officer, is opposed to any lowering of nutritional standards. It is still possible for the careful housewife to provide an adequate balanced diet for her family.

"To maintain mental alertness and physical fitness certain foods should be regarded as essential," says Dr. Cox. "Each day's diet should include milk, a citrus fruit or canned tomatoes, a green or yellow vegetable, other fruit and vegetables, whole wheat or enriched bread or cereal, butter and chicken and fish have risen less meat, fish or poultry. Eggs should be eaten at least five times a week, liver once a week and dried beans and peanut butter occasionally.

"Milk remains a good buy, although its price has risen considerably, as it is an excellent source of calcium, phosphorus, protein and certain vitamins. The equivalent of one pint of milk for adults and one quart for children should be included in each day's diet.

"Although meats have become expensive than other foods they are still essential as sources of protein. It should be remembered that less expensive cuts of meat provide the same food values as the luxury items. Prices of pork, riched bread or cereal, butter and chicken and fish have risen less

COLLEGE GRADS SOUGHT BY MARINE CORPS

College graduates of the Sonora area have an opportunity to become Marine Corps officers under an expanded officer training program just announced.

Technical Sergeant Wesley Ward of the Marine Corps Recruiting Station at San Angelo said that graduates 20 to 27 years of age, including married men, are being sought to meet the expanding needs of the Marines and to fill vacancies caused by the release of reservists. The Marine Corps has openings for 1000 officer candidates immediately, according to T-Sgt. Ward.

The next officer candidate course will begin Nov. 29 with a quota of 450. Applications for this course must be received at Marine Corps Headquarters by Nov. 10.

College graduates accepted will be enlisted as privates and ordered to a 10-week basic training course at the Marine Corps Schools, Quantico, Va. Married men will receive family allowances. Upon successful completion of this training, candidates will be commissioned second lieutenants in the Marine Corps reserve and then given an additional five months of specialized training.

Applicants must be at least 20 years of age and not over 27, on July 1, 1952, and must be in good physical condition. They must be graduates of four-year accredited colleges or universities and hold degrees in fields other than medicine, dentistry and theology.

Defense is your job, too!

JUST one minute before this picture was taken you would have seen nothing here but waving grass, pine trees, and blue sky. For in only 60 seconds this alert Marine gun crew has landed by helicopter, set up its 75mm howitzer, and is ready to fire!

Precision training and maneuvering like this means that these men stand ready at a moment's notice to protect you and America. That they're doing their job for defense.

But, defense is your job, too! And one of the best ways to do your job is by buying Defense* Bonds regularly. For by buying bonds you help build the great American economic strength that backs up our armed forces. And at the same time you put your money in the world's safest place. For Defense Bonds are as safe as America!

The U. S. Defense Bonds you buy give you personal financial independence

Remember that when you're buying Defense Bonds you're building a personal reserve of cash savings. Money that will some day buy you a house or educate your children, or support you when you retire. Remember, too, that if you don't save regularly, you generally don't save at all. So go to your company's pay office—now—and sign up to buy Defense Bonds through the Payroll Savings Plan.

Don't forget that bonds are now a better buy than ever. Because now every Series E Bond you own automatically goes on earning interest every year for 20 years from date of purchase instead of 10 as before! This means that the bond you bought for $18.75 can return you not $25—but as much as $33.33—if you just hold it the extra ten years! A $37.50 bond pays $66.66. And so on. For your security, and your country's, too, buy U. S. Defense Bonds now!

*U. S. Savings Bonds are Defense Bonds Buy them regularly!
