

... Son of a gun ...

Our crime reporter just rushed in, breathless and disheveled, to announce that some dastardly knave purloined the tin can containing the bank night tickets at La Vista Theatre, thereby making it necessary either to discontinue the bank night or to have everybody register again and continue the bank nights. We contacted La Vista's major domo, Edmund Robbie, and are advised that the bank night program will be continued. Theatre habitués who attend next Tuesday and or Wednesday nights will register again, and the next drawing will be for $320 Truman Dollars, less 20% tax, or $7.18 actual buying power plus a Washington D. C. street car token.

Robbie tells us that he has a pretty good idea of who the varlet is, and we don't doubt it. We agree with him that the scurrile Lupin should at least be caned.

Your car must be inspected and the windshield plastered with the correct sticker by September 6, according to the new state law. September 6 is three weeks from tomorrow. There are about 1,000 cars in the county, and so far, 781 have been inspected and passed. Sonora Motor Company has inspected 500; Lyles and Rape, 156; and Elliott Motor Company 125. Lamar Fuqua Chevrolet Co. has been approved as an inspecting station and will be ready to handle cars next week.

Mr. Louis Davis, local insurance man and boon to the barber trade, informs us that he is not, repeat not, in the cafe business. He and C. E. Scott and Son Allison own the fixtures in the S-S Cafe, and have leased them to Allison. Allison operates the cafe, and Davis just operates.

The Hill-Locklin-Valliant Telephone Company this week completed work on its new line connecting the aforesaid ranches. Many were the pitfalls the beset the builders (Wes Hill, Dave Locklin, and Roy Valliant, plus assorted relatives) but, going on the old proverb, "Patience and Perseverance Made A Bishop Of His Reverence," the boys got everything all hooked up.

Five Blocks Of City Streets To Be Paved

Paving of five blocks of city streets and two blocks of alleys, plus several private paving jobs was started here this week by the Montgomery Paving Co. of Midland and Odessa.

Scheduled for paving are two blocks at the east end of Plum Street, owned by Mrs. R. D. Trainer, Dr. J. F. Howell, Elmo Johnson, Mrs. Thelma Briscoe, Ed. C. Mayfield, W. R. Cusenbary, J. D. Lowrey, Duane Prater, R. L. Hallum, Jim Decker and R. C. Vicars.

R. M. McCarver, city superintendent of streets, said that if property owners on the west end of Plum Street, in the vicinity of St. Ann's Catholic Church, completed paving agreements by next week, those two blocks will also be paved, and Plum St. will be completely paved.

Two blocks of streets and two blocks of alleys on Del Rio Street beginning at the Bond Road and going west, will also be paved. Property owners on this project are Tom Darrow, Lum Heflin, Leslie Malmstrom, Harold Friess, H. C. Kiser, George D. Chalk, Wesley C. Young, Elliott and Aldwell, Benny Emert, Ray Stewart, Robert L. Wolff, Louie Martin, D. C. Langford.

One block of Pecan Street, the north end, will also be paved. Property owners are L. E. Johnson, Neill Roueche, Harry Kiser, Bob Teaff, J. T. Penick and Mrs. Pearl Martin.

A section of the street on the north side of the high school gym will also be included in the paving program, McCarver said.

Planning to attend the Wesleyan Service Guild Week-End at Mt. Wesley, Kerrville, are Mrs. A. E. Newton, district secretary, Mrs. Billy Galbraith, Mrs. Maysie Brown, and Mrs. S. M. Loeffler, organist.

Locklin was the climber and pole setter, Hill was the wire man, and Valliant served as public relations counsel and chairman in charge of ice water. As a result, all is loud and clear in that neck of the woods. When Locklin calls Hill, he gets Hill and the sound part of the Philadelphia TV broadcast and when Hill calls Locklin, he gets Valliant's crows in his front yard.

Valliant doesn't call either Hill or Locklin any more because, as he put it, he found out they didn't know a darn' thing when he watched them put up the telephone line.

New Veterans Bill Of Rights Provides Five Benefits

The President recently signed into law a new GI Bill for veterans who served in the armed forces any place in the world since the start of the Korean conflict on June 27, 1950.

The new law provides five benefits, all designed to assist veterans in their return to civilian life. Included are education and training; guaranteed or insured loans for homes, farms and businesses; unemployment compensation; mustering-out pay, and job-finding help.

The education and training provisions allow a veteran one and one-half days of training for each day in service after the outbreak of the Korean fighting-regardless of where the service was performed-up to a maximum of 36 months.

However, veterans who have previously trained under earlier veterans' training laws-the World War II GI Bill or Public Laws 16 or 894 for the disabled-may get up to 48 months, minus whatever time they've already spent in training under those earlier programs.

A veteran may train in school or college, on-the-job or on-the-farm, so long as the school or training establishment has been approved by an appropriate State Approving Agency and meets other qualifications of the law. Only one change of course program is allowed, except under certain conditions determined by the Veterans Administration.

Veterans in GI Bill training will receive an education and training allowance each month from the Government, to meet part of the expenses of their training and living costs. Tuition, fee, books, supplies and equipment will not be paid by the Government; instead, they will have to be paid out of the monthly allowance.

Rates for veterans in full-time training in schools and colleges are $110 a month, if they have no dependents; $135 if they have one dependent, and $160 if they have more than one dependent. Those in training less than full time will receive lower monthly rates.

Top monthly amounts for on-the-job trainees are $70 without dependents; $85 with one dependent, and $105 with more than one dependent. The maximums for institutional on-farm trainees are $95, $110 and $130, respectively.

The law requires that on-job and on-farm rates be reduced, at four-month intervals, as the training progresses and the veteran's own earnings increase.

The law also specifies that veterans taking institutional on-farm training must devote full time to their program.

The new GI Bill places a $10-a-month ceiling on job training, regardless of dependency status. Should a veteran's training allowance plus his earnings as a trainee exceed this amount, VA will reduce the allowance accordingly. There's no ceiling, however, on what he may earn.

A veteran will get his monthly allowance some time after the end of each month of training completed. Before the VA can pay him, the law requires a certification from both the veteran and his school or training establishment, that he was enrolled in and pursuing his course during that period.

This new method of payment differs from procedures followed under previous veterans' training laws. Under earlier laws, VA paid tuition and other costs directly to schools, and also paid eligible veterans a monthly subsistence allowance.

Although the new law takes effect today, no training allowances may be paid for any period prior to August 20.

The loan provisions of the new GI Bill for post-Korean veterans are similar to the GI loan program now in effect for World War II veterans. Some changes have been made, however, to protect the interests of home-buying veterans.

The amount of VA guarantee on a loan is the same for both groups of veterans. Home loans may be guaranteed for up to 60 percent of the loan, but the guaranteed portion may not exceed $7,500. Other real estate loans may be guaranteed for up to 50 percent, with a $4,000 top. And non-real-estate loans, such as GI business loans, may be guaranteed for up to 50 percent with a $2,000 ceiling as to the guarantee. All such loans also may be insured.

VA's direct loan program, now in effect for World War II veterans, has been extended to veterans who served since Korea. Under the program, VA may make loans directly to veterans, but only in certain areas where four percent GI loan money is not available.

GI loan safeguards, written into the new law, apply both to World War II veterans and those with post-Korean service. Among them are the following:

A veteran's property must or exceed minimum requirements for planning, construction and general acceptability. This provision doesn't apply to construction started within 60 days of today, nor to houses which have been completed at least a year before they were purchased with a GI loan.

VA may refuse to appraise any dwelling or housing project owned or built by anyone who has attempted to take unfair advantage of veterans in the past. Examples would be substantial deficiencies in the house, failure to discharge contract liabilities, or unfair practices in regard to contracts or marketing of the houses.

Also, VA may refuse to guarantee loans, may be lenders who have failed to service loans adequately, who have failed to keep adequate loan accounting records, who have shown poor credit judgment, or who have engaged in other practices detrimental to the veteran or to the Government.

In the case of World War II veterans who have returned to active duty, their unused loan entitlement under the World War II GI Bill will be replaced by the same amount of entitlement under the new law. The result is that they won't be bound by the GI loan deadline of July 25, 1957, set up in earlier law; instead, under the new law, they'll have 10 years from the end of the present emergency to obtain GI loans.

The new GI Bill's unemployment compensation program, administered through the States by the U. S. Department of Labor, provides unemployed post-Korean veterans with payments of $26 a week, up to a total of 26 weeks. The top amount that any veteran can get, therefore, is $676.

The unemployment program takes effect 90 days from now. It has been tied in with the new law's mustering-out program in the following way:

A veteran entitled to $100 mustering-out pay can't get unemployment compensation until 30 days after discharge or 90 days from today-the effective date of the program-whichever is later. A veteran who gets $200 mustering-out pay has to wait until 60 days after discharge or 90 days from now, while one who receives $300 must wait either 90 days after discharge or 90 days after this date, whichever comes later.

Eligibility requirements for the foregoing benefits-education and training, GI loans and unemployment compensation-include (1) a discharge under conditions other than dishonorable; (2) active service any time after June 27, 1950, and (3) at least 90 days' total service, unless discharged sooner for a service-connected disability.

The mustering-out payments, provided for in the new GI Bill, will be made at time of discharge to anyone who served in the rank of captain or less in the Army or Air Force, or as lieutenant senior grade or less in the Navy. The veteran also must have an honorable discharge.

Payments are $300 for those with at least 60 days' service who were on active duty outside the continental limits of the United States or Alaska; $200 for those with 60 days or more service who were not outside the USA or Alaska, and $100 for those who spent less than 60 days on active duty.

Veterans eligible for $300 will get $100 upon discharge; $100 a month later, and $100 a month after that. Those who are to receive $200 will get $100 at discharge and the remainder a month later. And veterans eligible for only $100 will be paid that amount all at once.

Post-Korea veterans discharged before the new GI Bill became law also may receive mustering-out pay. To obtain the money, they must apply to their branch of service within two years from today.

The mustering-out program, similar to that in effect after World War II, will be administered by the Armed Forces and the Treasury Department, and not by the VA.

The new GI Bill extends job-finding assistance to veterans with service after the start of Korean hostilities, on the same basis as veterans of World War II. The help includes job counseling and employment placement services of the Veterans Employment Service, a part of the U. S. Employment Service.

Veterans were reminded that the last three benefits of the new GI Bill-unemployment compensation, mustering-out pay and job-finding aid-are not administered by the Veterans Administration. So veterans should not write VA about them, if they want further information or questions to be answered; instead, they should correspond directly with the agency concerned.

The new GI Bill contains important deadlines that post-Korean veterans should keep in mind, VA said.

Education and training for post-Korea veterans, must be started by August 20, 1954, or two years after release from active duty, whichever comes later. No training may be given beyond either seven years after discharge or seven years after the end of the current emergency, whichever is later.

In contrast, for most World War II veterans, the GI Bill cut-off date for starting has already passed, and training may not extend beyond July 25, 1956.

The deadline for loans for veterans with service after Korea is 10 years after the present emergency comes to an end. The deadline for World War II veterans who have not gone back on active duty is July 25, 1957.

Finally, the deadline for unemployment compensation under the new law will be five years after the end of the emergency period.

The date on which the present emergency comes to an end is one that has to be determined either by Presidential proclamation or by concurrent resolution of Congress.

Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Marion have as their guest, his mother, Mrs. Nettie Marion, of Greenville. Mrs. Marion is also visiting her sister-in-law, Mrs. George B. Hamilton.

IT'S THE LAW
in Texas
A public service feature of the State Bar of Texas

HOME BUYER'S ATTORNEY PERFORMS VARIED FUNCTIONS

When the real estate sales contract proves that the seller is to furnish to the buyer an Abstract of Title, then it is up to the latter to employ an attorney who will examine the abstract. After the examination, the lawyer will give the buyer a written opinion as to whether or not the seller has a good marketable title. If the title is defective, then his opinion will state what action is necessary to bring it up to par.

In addition, the attorney usually advises on important matters not revealed by an abstract. He will ascertain whether any delinquent taxes exist against the property. He will check on the possibility of some third party being in possession, claiming the property as his own. He will determine whether a survey has been made so that the buyer may know that required footage is there and that the neighbor's fence, driveway, etc., is not encroaching upon the property being purchased. He will explain the practical effect of each legal paper which you sign or accept in closing the deal.

If the contract of sale provides that the seller is to furnish the buyer a Title Insurance Policy, then the latter should employ an attorney to examine the policy offered and advise him on other details in closing the transaction. The fact that an attorney designated by the Title Insurance Company examines the title is not sufficient to protect the purchaser in every respect.

A title insurance policy is similar in principle to a fire insurance policy. Just as you insure against damage caused by fire, so you can insure yourself against damage caused by failure of title. As is also common with fire insurance policies, you must be named as the insured in the policy, in order to collect the proceeds. You cannot recover more than the amount stated on the policy even though the damage caused by the fire or the title failure is greater than that amount. The property insured must be accurately described in the policy. There are exceptions to the coverage which may cause harm to a particular buyer who is not aware of their meaning, or even of their existence.

Insurance companies, in order to stay in business, cannot afford to accept too great a risk in proportion to the premium charged. A fire insurance underwriter decides whether your house is a safe fire risk for his company in view of the coverage provided by the fire insurance policy. An attorney hired by the title insurance company decides whether your property is a safe title risk for his company in view of the coverage provided by the Title Insurance Policy. Making such decisions is the sole obligation of that attorney in the transaction. He is not in a position that enables him to advise you as to the quality of the title you are acquiring—his only duty is to his client, the title insurance company.

What sign were you born under?

It makes a difference, some folks say! But whatever your sign — one thing you probably have in common with most Americans is that either directly or indirectly you're an owner of one of America's electric light and power companies like the West Texas Utilities Company.

It's like this: about three million people from all walks of life — teachers, housewives, doctors, mechanics, farmers — put their savings into companies like the West Texas Utilities. They're direct owners.

Another seventy-five million people, through their life insurance policies and savings bank accounts, are indirect owners. For their banks invest a substantial part of their premiums and savings in the securities of the nation's electric companies.

So, you see, these companies, like the West Texas Utilities, that serve nearly everybody are owned by nearly everybody!

Inflation, Federal Taxation Have Cut Incomes By 50 % Says W.T.C.C.

What high Federal taxes and inflation are doing to family incomes in Texas and other states is brought out today in a report by the West Texas Chamber of Commerce.

Taking an average family of four (husband, wife and two children) as an example, the WTCC showed how today's family incomes at various levels compare with those earned in 1940 after Federal income taxes are deducted and due allowance is made for the reduced purchasing power of the dollar as the result of inflation. The study pointed out:

A family in the $3,000 net income group today has $2,866.80 for living expenses after Federal income taxes. This has a purchasing power of $1,519.40 in 1940 dollars. But in 1940 this family had the use of all of its $3,000 income. A $4,000 family today has $3,644.80 left after taxes. This has a purchasing power of $1,981.74 in 1940 dollars. But in 1940 this family had $3,964.80 in 100-cent dollars after taxes.

As for the $5,000 family today, it has left $4,422.80 after Federal taxes. But this income is worth only $2,344.08 in 1940 purchasing power. In 1940, however, this family had $4,925.20 after Federal income taxes.

A $10,000 family today has $8,226.40 after taxes. But its purchasing power is $4,359.99 in 1940 dollars. In 1940 this family had $9,560 after taxes.

The $100,000 family has $43,968 after Federal income taxes today and this income has the purchasing power of only $23,303.04 in 1940 dollars. But in 1940 this family had $57,051.60 after taxes.

Looking at the picture another way, the WTCC brought out these additional facts with due allowance for taxes and inflation:

A family of four today must earn a net income of $4,165 to equal a 1940 income of $2,000.

Technical Sergeant Wesley Ward, in charge of the Marine Corps Recruiting Office in San Angelo will arrive in Sonora Saturday morning to interview young men and women for enlistment in the United States Marines. Sgt. Ward will be at the Post Office from 9-12 o'clock.

All men between the ages of 17-28 are eligible for enlistment, providing they have no dependents. Enlistments are for a period of three or four years. All men are sent to San Diego, California for basic training. Upon completion they are given a promotion and a leave.

Sgt. Ward has complete information on educational benefits to servicemen under the recently enacted Congressional law. He says that three years of active duty with the Marine Corps entitles a man to a full four year course at any college or university.

Twins United with Twins in Twin Rites

The sisters are daughters of Mrs. Katie E. Zvonek of Los Angeles. The Garo twins are 20 years old and are currently on leave from Inyokern Naval Air Station, China Lake, Calif., serving with the U. S. Navy. The girls are 18 years old.

BUICK'S POWER STEERING? It's the big NEWS of the year

THERE is a host of things that endear a ROADMASTER to anyone who loves to drive.

There's the might of its Fireball 8 Engine—most powerful ever put in a Buick.

There's the thrift of its Airpower carburetor—a four-barrel automatic that literally brings increased power right out of thin air.

There's its hushed and luxurious silence—its poised and level ride that cost a million dollars to develop—and the infinite smoothness of its Dynaflo Drive.

But the thing that has brought the most cheers for this big and obedient beauty is Buick's version of Power Steering.*

Gone is the tug of turning, parking, maneuvering in small space.

Power Steering takes over the effort of turning the front wheels—makes it a one-hand operation.

Do you have to learn to drive all over again if you have this new Buick feature?

You definitely do not. On the open road, you have that same sure sense of command that you've always had. Coming out of a curve, you can loosen your grip, and the front wheels right themselves just as they do on every Buick.

But you'll notice this: When you suddenly hit loose dirt or sand—or a stretch of rough road—Power Steering smoothly goes into action—helps take up the jerk—makes control of the wheel easier and driving safer.

Wouldn't you like to try out this newest wonder—on a ROADMASTER or a SUPER? You say the word, and we'll do the rest.

Equipment, accessories, trim and models are subject to change without notice. *Optional at extra cost on Roadmaster and Super only.

COLLEGE STATION, August—
linoleum on the kitchen floor more likely to get too much than too little. This information comes from Minnie Bell, a management specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension service.

To keep linoleum bright and shiny, Miss Bell points out that a mop or soft brush is better than a broom. Oil mops should never be used because they leave an oily coating that catches dirt. Too, oil discolors linoleum. Alkaline soap and abrasive cleaning compounds tend to soften scratch and roughen

the surface of linoleum.

It is a good idea to remove surface spots immediately, especially grease. The specialist suggests to clean linoleum use a damp mop with a solution of warm water and mild soap. This removes dirt, grease and old wax. Then use clear water for rinsing.

After the linoleum is thoroughly dry, several thin coats of self-polishing, water - emulsion wax should be used. Paste wax is less satisfactory because it is difficult to get an even coat on the linoleum and once on it is more difficult to remove when time comes to re-wax.

Manufacturers warn that plastic finishes, lacquers and varnish will dim or yellow the colors in linoleum. To insure the best care, Miss

KNOWLEDGE OF POISOUOUS SNAKES IMPORTANT TO TEXANS, SAYS CALLENDER

Someday your life may depend upon how quickly and accurately you identify a snake. Only four of the 103 species of snakes known in Texas are considered dangerously poisonous, says R. E. Callender, specialist in wildlife conservation for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service. He urges Texans to become familiar with these poisonous snakes so that positive identification can be made quickly in case a member of the family is bitten.

The four species of snakes that are poisonous are the rattlesnake, copperhead, cottonmouth moccasin
and the deadly little coral snake.
Rattlesnakes are easily identified by their rattles; the copperhead
by its chestnut brown hour glass markings over light brown or brownish gray background color;
the cottonmouth moccasin is a dirty brown in color and is usually found around water on old logs or driftwood and they can bite under water. The coral snake is the beauty of the group, but adds Callender, it's also the most deadly. Don't, says the specialist, confuse it with the more commonly found king snake because the mistake could be fatal. The color rings of the coral snake are red, yellow and black and completely circle the body and if the red ring touches the yellow, you've found a coral snake. Treat him with care.

Fangs for ejecting the poison are common to all poisonous snakes.
The marks left by the fangs are a sure identification sign. The venom injected by the rattlers, copperheads and water moccasins is known as hemotoxic venom because it effects the blood cells. The coral snake, on the other hand, injects a neurotoxic venom and it effects the nervous system. Antivenins, which are available at most drug stores, are ineffective for treating the bite of the coral snake.

Snakes can be discouraged from moving in on the home lot, says Callender, by keeping the place clean. Rubbish should not be allowed to accumulate and trash should be removed for such debris about the place is usually inhabited by rats and mice. These rodents are favorite food for snakes and unless kept under control, snakes will move in to clean them up.

Here's a word of advise from Callender on what to do in case a person is bitten by a poisonous snake. Keep the victim quiet don't let him walk, become over-heated or take alcoholic stimulants. Don't cauterize the wound with strong acids or inject potassium permanganate. Get the victim to a doctor as soon as possible but first aid measures will help. Apply a tourni-quet above the bite and make cross cut incisions at bite and on to the advancing edges of the swelling.
Apply suction with the mouth or a suction cup but release the tourni-quet every 15 minutes to keep up circulation. Inject antivenin, if available, as soon as possible. After the injection, release the tourni-quet and continue the suction. In the meantime have the patient on the way to a doctor or the doctor
on the way to the patient.

Callender warns that hunters and campers should never go to the woods without a snake bite kit. He urges home owners to keep their premises clean and to be on the look out at all times for the poisonous snakes. All except the rattler strike without warning and the rattler sometimes does his bitting before sounding off-so the safe thing to do is stay out of the way of all snakes and discourage them to stay out of your way.

burg had seen his aunt since 1916.

You Can Whisper - and Be Heard!

We should like to have you come in for a ride in a Golden Anniversary Cadillac. And when you do, we hope you will just sit back and relax . . . and listen!

And what will you hear?

Well, you'll hear the soft sound of the wind as it slips past the streamlined body . . . and, possibly, the quiet ticking of the electric clock.

But aside from these—you'll hear almost nothing. In fact, you'll find you can actually whisper—and be heard by your fellow-passengers!

We want you to experience this because nothing speaks more eloquently or more convincingly of motor car quality than—silence!

It tells you, first of all, that here is automotive engineering at its superlative best. For such silence of operation can only come when every phase of the car's performance is in perfect harmony.

It speaks of precision—for only the greatest accuracy in design and construction can result in such remarkable freedom from vibration.

It is a testimonial to fine craftsmanship—to quality materials—and to scientific styling.

And, of course, this marvelous quiet foretells many of the pleasures and satisfactions you would enjoy as the car's owner. It promises rest—and relaxation—and peace of mind . . . and a minimum of upkeep expense.

So why not take our suggestion—and come in and drive this beautiful Golden Anniversary creation? Let it tell you its own wonderful story through the things you cannot hear!

Fort Worth—Most classes of cattle and calves staged a sharp rally Monday at Fort Worth. Cows were 50 cents to $1 higher and bulls sold strong to 50 cents higher. Stocker calves were from 50 cent to $1.50 higher, and slaughter calves were strong to 50 cents higher. Stocker and feeder cattle were strong to $1 higher, and some stocker yearlings were over $1 higher. Slaughter steers and yearlings sold steady.

Sheep and lambs cashed at steady prices for both slaughter and stocker kinds.

A partial walk-out of CIO Packing House Workers at the Armour Plant in the lamb, calf and hog department had a negligible effect on the trading at Fort Worth.

Good and choice slaughter steers and yearlings sold for $26 to $32, and common and medium grassy and supplementary fed steers and yearlings cashed at $16 to $25, with cull yearlings around $13 to $16.

THINKING YOUR WAY THROUGH FACTS

The stubborn man is seldom so sure of himself as when he is wrong.

The stubborn man usually blames other people for the trouble he makes for himself.

Any man will fail who constantly holds his fellow workers under suspicion.

You can't start succeeding without starting some one to knocking.

He is a success who is doing some necessary work well.

There is no real fun in doing the thing that every one knows is easy.

You will not find any permanent success that is not built upon hard work.

The secret of success is always in the man and not in the place he works.

The best things of life are not the things we get, but the things which we become.

One kind of success is to live so that memory is your friend.

Discover how to do your work better and your boss will soon discover you.

The things that count most in success are available to every man—honor, dependability, punctuality, reliability and loyalty.

over the place. He was delivering the steers to the Corbett Ranch of Breckenridge in Stephens County. Some of the cattle rampaged for ten miles before being rounded up again. Both Gowan and Corbett are well known at Fort Worth and ship many top quality cattle to market each year. The late Quincy Corbett, in addition to being a fine ranchman, was also one of the best cattle feeders in Texas and before his death, annually topped the market with prime finished heifers or steer yearlings.

A government "specialist" this week asked an order buyer at Fort Worth why he paid $25.50 for some feeder steers, and some other brought $18. "Same reason I'd give more money for a Cadillac than I would for a Ford!" was the terse reply.

A LOOK AT THE BOOK

By DR. BOB JONES, JR.

PRESIDENT OF BOB JONES UNIVERSITY GREENVILLE, SOUTH CAROLINA

The message of those who would let a reform in our civilization always expresses itself in cry, "We must remove this difference." It may be the difference of social classes that they wish to remove. Sometimes it is the difference which wealth creates. Sometimes it is racial discrimination that they wish to see removed. But whatever it may be, they claim that the only answer to the problem is to remove some difference which sets men apart from other, and they seek to "level all mankind."

On the other hand almost never does the social reformer realize the problem is not the fact that men are different but the fact that they are basically all the same. God's Word is very plain on this point. "There is no difference," the Bible declares, "for all have sinned, and come short of the glory of God" (Romans 3:22, 23). This is the cause of the trouble in the world—that all men are sinners before God, and sin inevitably produces strife and division and chaos and trouble and war. God's answer to the ills of the world is addressed basically to this one problem—the problem of sin in the heart. We can never expect a perfect world to be built by men who are not perfect in their own lives. We cannot expect peace among nations when men are at war with their neighbors and with themselves. We cannot hope for a world where everything is right while men who make the world are all by nature wrong.

Men are at enmity with God. They cannot be at peace with one another because their selfish, sinful desires and greeds are inevitably bound to clash. The Word of God makes it plain that the wars and fightings among us come from the lust which war in our own members (James 4:1). Men do not like to admit they are sinners; but until they face the fact that in the sight of God they are all alike at this point—that there is no difference whether they be rich or poor, educated or illiterate—there is no hope for finding a solution to their problems. The blood of Jesus Christ, God's Son, cleanses from all sin. Only as individuals find peace with God and with themselves through Christ can there be any hope for a solution to the problems of our civilization.

YOUR HEALTH

The control of any disease must be based upon facts and not theory, asserts Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer. The reason for this statement is based on the numerous theories sent the State Health Department for the cure or prevention of polio, diarrhea and dysentery.

The spread of polio, for instance, has been blamed on weeds, air, bananas, milk, atomic radiation and many other items. All of these are theories and have no basis of fact. Facts in disease are arrived at in the laboratory, the sick room and the environment of the patient. Facts are necessary and must be the guidepost for the control of disease.

Dr. Cox is authorized by law to accept gifts and contributions for public health. The first gift to aid in research on the part played by flies and cockroaches in the spread of polio is two monkeys from Bellaire. Others will be needed to complete the study. Any contribution will be appreciated.

Education work in dysentery and diarrhea—which kills far more children than polio—is being hampered by lack of personnel to do the work. Cox said Texas has six times more dysentery and diarrhea than the national average. There were 1099 infants under one year of age who died of this cause in 1951.

"When we get rid of these two filth borne disease, we will have done the best thing in the world to get rid of polio," he asserted. "But it takes resources to do it. Fund and equipment shortages

Dear Folks -

"Just a note to let you know I'm still o. k. Things aren't too bad over here but they keep us plenty busy and I'll sure be glad when my time for rotation comes! Well, it won't be too long now and after all, if you're going to keep a democracy I guess everyone has to pitch in."

Just a lonesome G. I. writing home.

He's helping in the armed forces. But there are things you can do to help, too. One of the most important of these is buying United States Defense Bonds.

Tens of millions of Americans own Defense Bonds now—more than 49 billion dollars worth! And every time you add to the total, you are helping to stabilize your country's economic power, making and keeping it as strong as the G. I.'s are keeping her military power. Remember, it's your bonds and other forms of saving that keep your country strong. And in these troubled times, peace is only for the strong!

So how about starting a patriotic program of regular savings now—by buying U. S. Defense Bonds through the Payroll Savings Plan where you work. It's one sure way to save!

Here's how E Bonds now earn more money for you!

Now safe, sure U. S. Series E Defense Bonds pay an even better return than ever before.

1. Now every Series E Bond you buy begins earning interest after only 6 months. And the interest it pays is now bigger at the start!
2. Every Series E Bond you own can now go on earning interest for 10 more years after it reaches the original maturity date.
3. During the 10-year extension period, every bond earns at the new, higher interest (average 3% compounded semiannually).

Start now! Invest more savings in better-paying United States Series E Defense Bonds.
