Red Tape Cut For Hiring Braceros

If Texas cotton cannot be harvested by local labor this year and farmers are forced to contract for Mexican Nationals to get the job done, they will find a considerable amount of red tape snipped from old procedures, the Texas Employment Commission announced today.

Effective July 1, the procedure, which originally took from five to six weeks to obtain Mexican Nationals, will be shortened to the extent that farmers will be able to get these workers in a week or ten days, TEC said.

Not only has much red tape been eliminated, but the farmer's cost has been reduced from $15 per worker to $11 on the original contract and from $7.50 to $5.50 for recontracting, the agency pointed out.

Under the old contracting procedure, farmers submitted orders all the way from 30 to 60 days in advance of actual need. This procedure worked a hardship on the farmer because information given today possibly would not be valid 30 or 60 days hence because of weather, crop conditions or some other reason. On top of all this, the order for Mexican Nationals had to be reviewed and approved by the Washington office of the Bureau of Employment Security. This delay was cumbersome and irritating to the farmer. This plan has been junked for one more workable. Now, the farmer needing workers goes to an office of the Texas Employment Commission and places an order. If TEC determines that local or migratory workers are not available to do the job at the time and place specified by the farmer, then the local office will prepare an "Authorization to Contract Mexican National Agricultural Workers." The farmer will then select one of three Reception Centers—El Paso, Eagle Pass, or Harlingen—where he intends to pick his workers, and the local office of the TEC then mails the authorization to that point. The farmer then must send his check ($11 per worker) to that Reception Center. As soon as the check is received by the Reception Center, machinery is set in motion to get the workers from the interior of Mexico. The farmer is notified by the Reception Center when the workers are available, TEC said. The farmer must also submit a "Statement of Housing and Facilities," which describes the housing and living facilities of-

The City of Sonora is continuing its water and paving extension program this summer with four water extensions and several blocks of paving slated at present.

About 1,000 feet of two-inch pipe has been laid on the west side of town in the vicinity of Zolas Courts. This area has been served by the city but has grown so much in the last few years that more pressure was needed, R. M. McCarver, superintendent of utilities, reports.

A one and one-half-inch booster line is now being laid south from the Willman Texaco Station to the 6-inch main which crosses the draw. This line will complete a loop in that area and pressure will be increased, McCarver said.

A third extension is being run from the corner by the J. F. Hamby home across the draw to the new Mexican Baptist Church. This line will tie in with lines serving that area and a fire plug will be installed near the church. This line will be a 6-inch primary main and will eventually be run to the Elliott School.

Also scheduled is the running of a 2-inch line from the Central Elementary School southeast to the Lee Patrick residence. This line will be run inside the curb on the east side, McCarver said, and will increase pressure in that neighborhood.

Also scheduled is two blocks of paving from the draw on Tom Green Street to Highway 277. The city also shares in the paving of the Bond Road from the city limits to the intersection by the Stockman's Feed Co.

In the park department, the city has spread 400 pounds of vigoro on the Veterans' Memorial Park and has a crew working on other parks this week.

Summer Range School To Complete Field Course At Experiment Station

Final plans have been completed for the beginning of the sixth summer range school on June 29 at Tarleton State College. The school will be attended by 16 county agricultural agents or assistants and 9 teachers of vocational agriculture. The Range and Forestry Department of Texas A. & M. College again has supervision over this field course.

Instructors will be Dr. Vernon A. Young, head of the department, Dr. O. E. Sperry, professor in the department and A. H. Walker, range specialist for the Agricultural Extension Service. Major items to be covered in the June 29 to July 17 school include range plant identification; proper stocking rates for ranges; brush control; deferred and rotation grazing and range economics. During the three weeks the class will visit 13 ranches, two experiment stations, the Luling Foundation and will travel some 1,500 miles, says Walker.

The first class session is scheduled for 9 a. m. in the Agricultural Building at Tarleton State College on June 29. The final session will be held at the Sonora Experiment Station on July 17. Between these dates will come the visits to the ranches and research centers. Travel will be by college bus with each student providing the equipment needed for working and sleeping in the field.

Ranches to be visited during the first week include the Collier Ranch, Frambro, Clayton, Richards, Steele and Miller Ranches. These will be visited along with the Stephenville Experiment Station while the group headquarters at Tarleton. The last named ranches will be visited when the group travels to Jacksboro and Graham. They will be guests of the Graham Chamber of Commerce at a noon barbecue on July 3.

During the second week the Lee Campbell, R. S. Miller, Fitzsimmons, Haschke and Blackwell Ranches plus the Luling Foundation will be visited. Class and field work will be about evenly divided during the final week of the school. From Luling the group will go to Sonora and enroute will visit the Rompel, Nordan and Thonton Ranches in the boerne area and the Gus Schriener Ranch near Kerrville. The final two days will be spent on the Sonora Station.

Those who have attended the schools in the past have been able to use the information gained to further range improvement programs in the counties, says Walker. County range schools and more nearly complete range improving demonstrations have been two of the chief methods used by the county agents in passing information to the ranch operators. Too, adds Walker, 4-H boys have used the information in the form of team demonstrations. They have also conducted supervised demonstrations on their home ranches dealing with soil and water conservation, plant identification, stocking rates and deferred and rotation grazing.

Despite the drought, points out Walker, progress is being made by ranch owners in their range improvement work, especially, in controlling brush. Rains are badly needed in most section of the state at the present time and his lack of moisture is curtailing range work, adds Walker.

District Extension Agents R. G. Burwell, R. S. Miller, Joe Glover and V. G. Young will assist with the school while the group is in their respective districts.

SONORAN VOLUNTEERS FOR ALL-TEXAS UNIT

The Marine Recruiting office in San Angelo announced today that over 125 men have been enlisted in the Alamo Marine Company.

So far, only one Sonora youth has applied for enlistment with the all Texas Company. He is Lionel Sanchez, a recent graduate of Sonora High School. Ward said any one interested in this unit can contact the Marine Recruiting Office in San Angelo. Some of the Advantages, he pointed out are that men from this area will join together, will travel together and train together, and will be given their first leaves to come home together.

Slated to leave San Antonio on July 4th, the unit is expected to be filled at least a week prior to the shipping date. TSgt. Wes Ward, NCO in charge of Recruiting in this area, said he is very well satisfied with the results so far and if enlistments continue at the present rate he expected to have at least 200 men in this all-Texas group. Ward said that originally he planned on sending 150 men but was now taking the ceiling off.

Men enlisted in this unit are enlisted for a period of three or four years. They will train together for nine weeks of basic and then will be given a promotion. They will then be transferred to Camp Pendleton, California for four weeks of individual combat, and they will be given a leave to come home. After that they may be assigned to Marine Aviation, Sea Duty or to a technical or training school.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS FROM VETERANS ADMINISTRATION

Q - I wrote a letter to VA and stated that I wanted to apply for disability compensation payments. Is that letter all I'll need in the way of an application?

A - No. VA will send you a formal application, which you must fill out and return. If you send it back to VA within a year from the time you received it, VA will consider as the effective date of your application the date that it received your original letter.

Q - As a disabled veteran, I received an automobile, under VA's program of paying up to $1,600 of the cost. Will VA also pay for any repairs that I might need?

A - No. Under the law, no payment may be made for repairs, maintenance or replacement of your automobile.

Q - I'm taking on-the-job training under the Korean GI Bill. What does VA consider as full-time training?

A - Full-time training for job trainees consists of the number of hours which make up the standard work week of your establishment. The minimum, however, is 36 hours a week, except in cases where bona fide collective bargaining between employers and employees have established a standard work week of fewer hours.

Q - I'm going to school under the Korea GI Bill, and my wife just had a baby. What must I do in order to get an increased education allowance from VA?

A - You must apply for the increase. If VA receives your application within 45 days, the effective date of the increased allowance will be the date of the birth of your child. Otherwise, the effective date will be the date VA receives your application. In either case, you must submit satisfactory evidence of the birth of the child within a year of the time you asked for the increased allowance.

Everyone who knows anything about the Bible recognizes that it not only contains God's commandments to men, but it is also full of advice and good examples; but men who are so quick to break the laws and violate the commandments are slow to heed the advice and follow the good examples.

Speaking of examples, Hezekiah set one for us. Sennacherib, the king of Assyria, had sent threatening letters to Hezekiah. Sennacherib was a powerful monarch with strong armies; Hezekiah's kingdom was relatively weak. Hezekiah did a wise thing. He took the letter into the presence of Jehovah, spread it out before him and appealed to God to solve the problem (Isaiah 37:14). Hezekiah felt a divine assurance that the Lord was interested in the matter, since the threatened kingdom was the kingdom of His people and he knew that Judah's only hope lay in the power of God.

If we have by faith identified ourselves with the Lord and if we are willing to bear the reproach of His name before men, everything that touches us is a matter of interest to God. We have a right, then, to believe that He is willing to solve the problem. That He is able to do so should be evident, for He upholds all things by the Word of His power, and He Who is the Lord of heaven and earth can

LITTLE THINGS about the Stars

By GEORGE LITTLELEY HOLLYWOOD—Right on schedule, "Our Miss Brooks," the Eve Arden show, has turned out in its first season on television to be the pleasant success almost everyone guessed it would be. Miss Arden's is an unusual case where a good Hollywood performer has gained overwhelmingly revitalized stature by way of video (Friday nights, CBS-TV). As the bright, human, young schoolteacher, "Connie Brooks" has problems, that are the type all listeners, as well as schoolteachers, understand—a fearsome boss in principal "Osgood Conklin," played by Gale Gordon, and romantic interest in fellow teacher "Mr. Boynton,"

"Osgood" ... problems viewers understand among them. Her characterization has come to be one of the most viewable—and is probably destined to be one of the most enduring—on the air. Eve Arden, born Eunice Quendon, graduated from high school in Mill Valley, Calif., got a job in a city department store, spent her salary studying dramatics, and hasn't been out of show business since. Like schoolteachers do for a vacation, this month she'll go to Europe with hubby Brooks West. They have just adopted another child, four-months-old Duncan Paris West—companion for adopted daughters Liza, 8, and Connie, 5.

HOPE FOR DAYTIME HOUSEWIVES "The Bob Hope Daytime Show"—Hope for the housewives—is an outstanding example of radio's strengthening itself by scheduling top-flight night entertainers on the daytime channels. The Hope program, a compilation of stunts, chatter, interviews and gorgeous Lady Editors (among the editors: Jane Russell, Marilyn Maxwell, Linda Darnell and Anne Baxter), has been going strong mornings on NBC since November and will run through the summer. Little Things about Leslie Townes Hope, 49, Cleveland-reared, Eltham, England, born Fifth of a stonemason's seven sons (no girls). Started as a dancer, switched to gags in a break-in act in Newcastle, Ind. Soon after was $4,000 in debt, had holes in his shoes, ate doughnuts and coffee. Proposed to singer Dolores Read over the phone, was married in '32. Today they have four children, Linda and Nora, Tony and Kelly—all adopted.

YOUR HEALTH

The Texas State Department of Health, after consideration by the Crippled Children's Advisory Committee, has been approved as sponsoring agency for a 5-state regional congenital heart disease center to be operated with funds provided by the Children's Bureau, Department of Health, Education and Welfare, State Health Officer George W. Cox has announced.

Details of the program were outlined in a report from the Children's Bureau and the Dallas County Medical Society, many of whose members make up the staff of the Children's Medical Center in Dallas, where treatment will be given children admitted under terms of the program.

Five states—Louisiana, Arkansas, Oklahoma, New Mexico, and Texas—have been combined into a single region for convenience. Applications for admission of children to the Medical Center in Dallas will be accepted from all five states.

Children's Bureau officials said the Children's Medical Center in Dallas was selected as the treatment and diagnostic site for the five-state region because it has facilities for medical and surgical care for children with all types of heart disease, because of its geographical location in respect to the other states involved, and because the Dallas County Medical Society gave its approval and support to the program.

Upon approval of an admission application, the child will be admitted to care. The bills, including board and room for the parent while the child is in Dallas, will be paid with funds provided by the Children's Bureau.

Parents financially able to pay part of the cost are expected to do so, the plan states. The plan pointed to the need for the program by declaring that congenital heart defects in children in southern states account for approximately 50 percent of all cardiac lesions. Dr. Cox's announcement said objectives of the program were to "provide a mechanism whereby children in this area may have access to existing diagnostic and treatment facilities for congenital cardiac diseases, and to augment training facilities whereby young physicians may become intimately acquainted with the various aspects of this type of disease."

LET'S TALK LIVESTOCK

Fort Worth—The first marketing day of the Summer season at Fort Worth Monday was a typical blazing hot one which saw liberal receipts in the cattle yards off Texas fields and ranges. The sheep run was seasonally large, too.

Trade in the cattle yards was about on par with last week's low close, and prices were at the lowest ebb on most classes of cattle and calves in over ten years. Grain-fed steers were lacking, and creep-fed heavy calves and a few yearlings made up the choice fat offerings in the cattle division.

Pat and Wren Jackson, Lampasas, had two toppy loads of cows at $12, that averaged 1,059, and C. P. Gray & Son, Brady, had 45 cows and heiferettes averaged at 1,081 lbs. that topped at $13. Most other butcher cows sold for $8 and $11, and canners and cutters drew $5 to $8. Bulls sold from $7 to $12.50, odds to $13.

Good and choice fat yearlings and heifers drew $17 to $22, and common and medium grassers sold from $8 to $15, with rannish kinds in the $5 to $8 field.

Good and choice stocker steer calves sold from $12 to $17, and heifers sold from $14 down. Stocker steer yearlings drew $10 to $14, a few to $15. Heifer mates to steer calves and steer yearlings usually sold around $3 under.

Good and choice fat calves cleared $13 to $17, a few to $18, and some fancy creepfed yearling weights to $20.50, from Lloyd Henshaw of Iredell. Common and medium kinds sold for $8 to $12, and culls drew $5 to $8.

Sheep and lambs were steady, some fat lambs a little stronger. Good and choice fat Spring lambs $17 to $23, and common to medium sorts $10 to $15, with culls from $5 to $10. Stocker and feeder lambs $9 to $14.50.

Fat yearlings $9 to $13, and culls around $5 to $8. Feeder yearlings $10 down. Old wethers $6 to $8. Old ewes $3 to $4.50. Hogs topped at $25 to $25.50. Sows drew $18.50 to $22, and feeder pigs sold at $20 downward.

Citizens of Colorado and Texas are being offered the opportunity to express their view as to the agricultural program this week through publication of a ballot in their weekly papers, and in Texas, the editors of the home town papers are helping in the survey.

The secret ballot, which need not be signed, is being carried this week in regular edition. The reason for this poll is the apparent differences of opinion between some organized groups and the rank and file producers who say that statements of a few members of these organizations do not reflect the true feeling of the majority of the livestock producers and farmers.

The state livestock paper of Colorado, The Denver Record-Stockman, last week ran the ballot. A partial count of the ballots revealed that 43 percent voted in favor of livestock and grain supports. Thirty-eight percent favor removal of all supports. Only one and one-half percent favor the present rigid supports of grain, while livestock remains unsupported. Let's see how Texans feel about it and what type program is favored.

The (name of your paper) will co-operate in this poll and Ted Gouldy of the Live Stock News Service in Fort Worth has offered to tabulate the returns from the some 350 Texas county newspapers and we will carry a complete story of the results of the Texas opinion poll when this is completed.

Independence Cupcakes

These spicy Independence Cupcakes topped with Browned Butter Frosting mean wholesome eating to giant-size picnic appetites.

As a climax to a hearty picnic "get together," these golden spice cupcakes are the answer to hungry diners of all ages. Wholesome food and easily prepared meals are a "must" for picnics.

Plan picnics often this summer. Everyone enjoys relaxing out of doors whether the site be ocean front, woods, park or just the wide open spaces. Homemakers enjoy the outing too when they let these lightning-quick cupcakes with their Browned Butter Frosting take their place at the picnic table. Lazy appetites come alive as everything tastes special when you're eating out of doors.

If it's a Fourth of July outing you're planning, individual cakes are good company to sandwiches, potato salad, crisp relishes and tall glasses of cold milk, iced tea or lemonade. It's fun to take an extra minute to top the cakes with a bit of decoration. When the picnic is one of those "spur-of-the-moment" things, pick up some cakes from the bake shop.

There will be added food energy, essential B-vitamins and iron in store for your family in these cakes when enriched flour is used in the baking. All this is offered to you for no extra cost and the family needs extra energy as activities and appetites increase.

Plan on seconds of these tempting cakes because picnic appetites are king-size. The children will want extras for the mid-afternoon snack, too.

There's only one answer...

Chevrolet trucks must be the best buy!

Fleet operators, farmers, independent truckers—truck users everywhere—buy more Chevrolets than any other make. There can be only one reason for that: Chevrolet trucks offer more of what you want.

As the official registration figures keep rolling in, they keep telling the same positive story about truck popularity and truck value: Again in 1953, for the twelfth straight production year, truck buyers show a clear-cut and decisive preference for Chevrolet trucks. If you're a truck user, this fact is mighty important to you. Why? Well, as you know, trucks are built and bought for just one reason—to do a job. So isn't it logical then that since Chevrolet trucks outsell all others, they must do a better job at lower cost?

That's why it will pay you to stop in and see us before you buy your next truck.

MORE CHEVROLET TRUCKS IN USE THAN ANY OTHER MAKE!

MUCH OF SOUTHWEST Texas is suffering from the drought to an extent never before experienced in recorded history. After four continuous years of low rainfall there is little left for a good many except parched lands, accumulated debts, over-due feed bills and high taxes. I know of ranchmen who have been feeding every head of their livestock continuously for more than three years. Few people outside of those who are in the midst of it can realize how serious the problem has become.

In an attempt to provide some aid to alleviate the conditions, a number of us from stricken areas have met with the House Agriculture Committee and government officials in an attempt to paint the true picture of what so many of us are actually faced with. For immediate relief we have urged:

1. Sale of cottonseed feed products from government stocks at reduced prices in the disaster areas.

2. A study of a more realistic credit program by lending agencies, and additional legislation from the Agriculture committee if present laws on the subject should be inadequate.

As this is being written the Budget Bureau (which is really an agency of the White House) is studying procedure and policy. That was worked out last year when the government hay program was put into effect. But the Administrations have changed and more green lights are required by the government policy-makers in order to get a protein feed project put into operation. We should know within a day or so just what to expect from that approach.

Cattle growers in the Uvalde area have suggested that the Government buy two million head of cows, slaughter them and can the meat for the school lunch program. There seems to me to be merit to this suggestion. Although I doubt that the slaughter of two million would help very much. Perhaps twice that number would be more likely to stabilize numbers with market demand. The meat could be canned and stored and the best possible use made of it in the future. The Administration attitude on this suggestion is being sought. Legislation would probably be necessary. On projects of this nature there is always considerable opposition. There are now more than 94 million cattle in this country, according to the Department of Agriculture. The number is in excess of normal needs of consumers and has resulted in a nose dive in cattle prices during the past 12 or 18 months.

exists, he has a duty to correct it and can be held liable for accidents which might happen if he doesn't. For example, a rotted tree branch fell to the sidewalk, injuring a passerby. The general rule here is that the owner was responsible because he knew of the defective condition and should have remedied it.

HOMEOWNER'S LIABILITY EXPLAINED

Can a homeowner be held responsible for accidents that happen to other people while they are on his property? Lawyers say it is difficult to state a hard and fast rule about liability for such accidents because the facts differ so much from case to case. However, some conclusions can be drawn by noting how the courts have decided in specific cases which have been brought before them.

A postman delivering mail slipped on a child's roller skate one morning. He sued the homeowner for damages. The court held that the delivery of mail is for the benefit of the homeowner and that he must take care to remove conditions on his property which would make delivery of the mail dangerous.

Then there was the case of the meter-reader who slipped and fell on the basement steps and the courts held the owner responsible because the steps were defective.

On the other hand, a guest sued her host because she slipped and fell when she stepped on some beans strewn about the owner's

We're growing pullets on less than 50¢ worth of GROWING CHOW, plus grain

You can do it too. On the Purina Program the cost is low—less than 50¢ worth of Purina Growing Chow—plus your grain—to raise a good production-type pullet. We're doing it right at the ranch. After a Chick Startena start, pullets just naturally race to the nest on Purina Growing Chow and grain.

But come out and see for yourself. Our pullets and their records are on display. You'll see why it pays to feed a Purina pullet growing ration to your pullets for economical, early fall eggs.

... But don't take our word for it. Try Mobilgas and see. Since one out of every three dollars you spend on your car goes for gasoline, mileage economy is mighty important. So do as the experts do in the Annual Mobilgas Economy Run: 1. Give your car regular Mot 1-Care. 2. Drive with care. 3. Always use Mobilgas or Mobilgas Special.

OUR DEMOCRACY—by Mat
FREEDOM STILL RINGS

AMERICANS HAVE HEARD THE LIBERTY BELL echo their FEELINGS MANY TIMES. IT HAS TOLLED MOURNFULLY FOR VARIOUS STATE DEATHS AND WARS—PEALED JOYFULLY FOR JUBILEES AND HOLIDAYS AND PEACE.

ON JULY 4, 1776—THE DAY WE CELEBRATE OUR NATION'S BEGINNING, THE DAY WHEN THE CONTINENTAL CONGRESS ADOPTED IN CLOSED SESSION THE DECLARATION OF INDEPENDENCE, WITH A FIRM RELIANCE ON THE PROTECTION OF DIVINE PROVIDENCE—THE LIBERTY BELL HUNG SILENT. NOT UNTIL JULY 8 WAS IT RUNG—TO CALL PHILADELPHIANS TO A PUBLIC READING OF THE DECLARATION, AND THEN TO JOIN ITS GREAT VOICE WITH THEIRS, IN REJOICING. YET, FOR AMERICANS TODAY, THE DURABLE OLD BELL NEVER RANG AS LOUD AS ON THE DAY IT DIDN'T RING AT ALL.

Hawkins - Amos Nuptials Read In Pecos

Miss Peggy Jean Amos became the bride of James W. Hawkins Saturday afternoon, June 20, in a ceremony held at 2 o'clock at the First Christian Church in Pecos.

The double-ring ceremony was read by the Rev. Earl Bissex before an altar flanked by two baskets of white Gladioli and a background of greenery and palms. The bride was given in marriage by her father.

Miss Amos is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy O. Amos of Sonora and Hawkins is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Hawkins of Pecos.

The bride chose a ballerina length dress of nylon lace over white satin. The dress had a fitted bodice, long pointed sleeves and a low scalloped neckline trimmed with seed pearls. Her waist-length veil of illusion was caught to a cap of lace-covered white satin dotted with seed pearls. The very full skirt had a matching scalloped hemline. The bride carried a white prayer-book topped with a white orchid and stephanotis trimmed streamers.

Miss Joanne Amos, sister of the bride, was the junior bridesmaid and Miss Alice Mills of Pecos was the maid of honor.

E. F. Wise was best man and Sonny Hudson was the junior groomsman.

Traditional wedding music was played at the organ by Bobby Poor. Miss Betty Lockett sang "Because" and "Always".

The junior bridesmaid wore an orchid nylon net dress over taffeta with matching headpiece and veil. The maid of honor wore an identical dress and headpiece of green. They each carried a colonial bouquet of pink roses.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the church parlor.

Miss Anne Tyler was at the registry book.

Miss Laura Bonney served the cake and Miss Alice Mills served punch. Following a wedding trip to Denver, the couple will be at home at Durango, Colorado.

AS I SEE IT

By W. H. Marshall

Real poverty is only a temporary handicap for an ambitious boy. Honest praise is most appreciated from those who are most worthy of it themselves.

Blessed is the man to who poverty is less a disaster than dishonor.

The worst poverty is not to live in a small house, but to live in a small world.

No man is so poor that bitterness of heart will not add to his poverty.

Hard times are made worse by low thinking.

Honest praise is seldom wasted on a faithful employee.

No man is ready for praise who cannot stand criticism.

The poorest are not those who have nothing to give, but those who have no desire to give. Thiers is the worst poverty who, having lived a long life, can point to nothing done for others.

The church has need of preachers who fear their conscience more than their congregations.

Another good way to improve the preaching is to improve the audience.

No man is free who cannot dismiss his prejudices and show his jealousies to the door.

Prejudice never appears in a more virulent form than when it breaks out in a religious form.

The big difference between a prejudice and an opinion is the open mind.

Mrs. Bryan Hickerson and daughters, Bryna and Beth, are here as the guests of her mother, Mrs. E. C. McGilvray, and family.

it was about you!

says Madeleine Carroll

HAVE YOU EVER HEARD A STORY about someone that made you want to meet him? Well, I've just heard one. A story about a sincere, patriotic citizen who is doing something practical about his future and the peaceful future of his country. Investing in U. S. Savings Bonds. A story about you! And one that ought to make you feel proud.

I felt good, too, when I heard what a great success story the Savings Bond Program has turned out to be. For you see, I'm a Bond owner, too! And when you stop to think about how you and I and millions of our friends and neighbors all over America now own more than 49 billion dollars worth of our country's interest-earning Bonds—it makes you proud to be an American!

Great News!
New money-earning features for U. S. Savings Bonds!

FIRST—Thanks to new Treasury regulations, every Series E Bond you invest in begins earning interest after only 6 months. It earns 3% interest compounded semiannually when held to maturity.

SECOND—Every Series E Bond you own can now go on earning interest for 10 more years after it reaches the original maturity date.

THIRD—All maturing E Bonds automatically earn interest at the rate (average 3% compounded semiannually) for 10 more years.

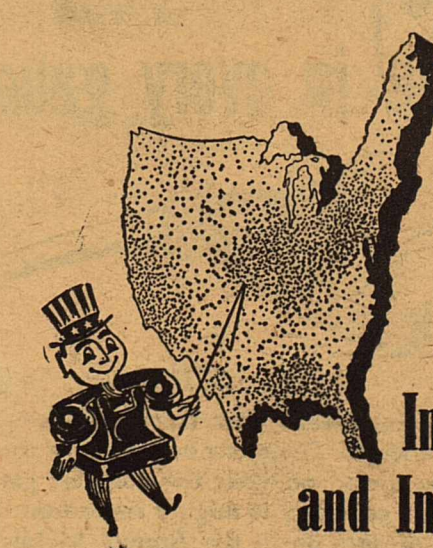

FOURTH—If you want to be paid the interest your Bonds are earning every six months, ask at your bank about the new Series H Bonds.
