NINETEENTH WEEK

ODDS & ENDS

We were for a short while Tuesday afternoon the rather dubious owners of very friendly puppy. Betty and Bill Stewart found the young fellow wandering around Park Inn Monday night and being afraid he might be run over, they gave him lodging for the night. When they came back to town Tuesday they brought the pup with them to see if the owner could be located. Finding no one had notified us of the puppy's loss, they left him with us.

Now, that's only half the story. Beverly Howard heard about the pup and came over offering him a home with her father until the little fellow's owner might come looking for him.

So if you've lost a very happy and friendly black puppy-he's at Bud Smith's, and he answers to every name we tried on him.

We're sure sorry to hear about John Eaton's being in the hospital. John was one of the first to make us feel at home here and to interest us in the history of Sonora and Sutton County. He can quote names, dates and events on a moment's notice and has an objective outlook which enables him to view today as history.

Hurry and get back on your feet, John. We've got lots to fuss at you about!

-oan-

Also on this week's sick list is Aubrey Loeffler but we understand he's well enough now to leave the hospital and go out to the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Si Loeffler, where he is supposed to be resting and taking it easy.

Mrs. Katie Brasher, whose name appeared on our Happy Birthday January 26 had a pleasant surprise this week in the form of a letter from Congressman O. C. Fisher. She was kind enough to let us print it and here it is: My dear Mrs. Brasher:

MEET YOUR TEACHER

Mrs. Andrew Moore, above, explains the construction and usage of the present progressive tense to her English students at L. W. Elliott School.

Here is Mrs. Andrew Moore, mother of those teachers we can't really introduce, since she's so well known here.

Mrs. Moore is a native of Mart, Texas, and a graduate of the Mart Schools. She holds a Bachelor of Science degree from North Texas State College in Denton with a major in home economics and a minor in English.

Before coming to Sonora, Mrs. Moore taught homemaking in Falls County and Limstone County schools. She also taught homemaking in the Sonora High School for two years before her marriage to Mr. Moore.

She is a member of the faculty at L. W. Elliott School where she teaches Language arts in the sixth, seventh, and eighth grades.

When her teaching duties are done for the days, Mrs. Moore enjoys being with her two children, Andy, nine, and Angie Neill, seven, and keeping her hand in at cooking and sewing.

A member of the Episcopal Church, Mrs. Moore is active in church work and formerly served as teacher of the primary department in the Sunday School.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the seal of the city of Sonora, this 17th day of February, A.D. 1956.

Mrs. Dorothy Dullnig is receiving anti-rabies injections here after being attacked and scratched by a rabid coon on the J. G. Barton ranch four miles west of Sonora Sunday night.

Mrs. Dullnig had gone to investigate her dogs' barking when she saw the coon in the doghouse. As she started back to the house to turn on floodlights, the coon attacked her, scratching her about the ankles. It is not known if the animal inflicted any bites but injections are being given as a precautionary measure. Mrs. Dullnig killed the coon with a shovel which was lying nearby.

Juan De Leon, a laborer on the Barton ranch, removed the animal's head for shipment to Austin for examination, and accidentally cut his own hand with the knife. He is also receiving injections.

The verification of rabies was received from the state laboratory in Austin Tuesday and anti-rabies serum was flown in from San Antonio to begin the injections Wednesday.

Looking Through The Windows Of Life

By W. H. Marshall

"Before Dawn"
By W. H. Marshall
We all feel the darkness
Just before the dawn.
But faith and courage
Ever lead us on,
What if yesterday was dark,
And today darker still
You and I can wait
With a wise and faithful will.
We can smile and look up
As along the way we go.
For tomorrow will be a brighter day
Many have found it so.
There is no use to sit and morn
Of the things that used to be,
Trouble can never down a soul
Whose's trust is greater than he,
Of course, the darkness you may feel

Just before the dawn
But faith and courage
Ever leads us on.

"In Memory Of My Son At His Grave"
By W. H. Marshall
We grieve I silently stood,
With bowed head,
While sorrow filled my soul,
When suddenly there came
A voice from-out the silence,
Saying, "I am not dead."
It was then that life grew sweeter,
And I raised my head.
I had never understood before,
Just how sweet life could be,
When by his grave
I raised my head,
And heard him say,
"I am not dead"

"There Is A Rainbow"
By W. H. Marshall
There is a rainbow in my sky,
I painted it there.
Storm clouds come,
And storm clouds go,
But they give me the chance,
To paint my rainbow.
I will paint it blue, red,
And green,
And with patience,
Wait to see,
What it means.
So, there is a rainbow,
Across my sky,
I painted it there;
Blue, Red and Green;
Who can tell,
Just what it means.

Life is a fight!
Not a sit-down strike.

To live that way is failure.
Why not tackle it then,
And take it on the chin,
This thing you call life,
And live it?
Of course there are problems,
Losses and Blues,
But remembers of these,
We have all passed through.
No, life is not all fun,
It will give you a run-
If you make it, you must take it,
Life must count on you.
Maybe you are trying to live it by yourself-
There too you will find folly.
It was not meant that way.
And men are finding it so
Every day.
So, whether we live it or not,
We had better make the right
Start-
Life! No, you can't beat it.
It will follow you all day,
You can never get away.
So, why not live it.

Announcement

Dayton G. (Gus) Bishop, representing The Zone Company of Fort Worth, has arrived in Sonora.

The Zone Company, known around the world for quality, is one of the older and more reliable companies of Fort Worth, manufacturing heavy duty roof-coating, water-proofing materials and products allied with the building maintenance field.

Gus Bishop comes "not as a stranger," having attended his first year in school here forty-one years ago. He has returned here many times, and stopped here many times in his forty years of travel. He stopped to see relatives and friends, to greet old timers, and hear of the arrival of blessed events, many of whom are now parents and grandparents, stopped at times on return from short leave during his more than 20 years in the Navy, just to admire the continuous progress of one of his most loved towns, paused for moments of bitter-sweet nostalgia and gone on with his duties of helping defend our country more convinced that it is indeed worth the effort.

This time he returns representing a reliable, well-known West Texas company, to offer its services in any building maintenance problem. The Zone Company manufactures a complete line of building maintenance materials. This includes virtually every maintenance item required from the "basement to the roof."

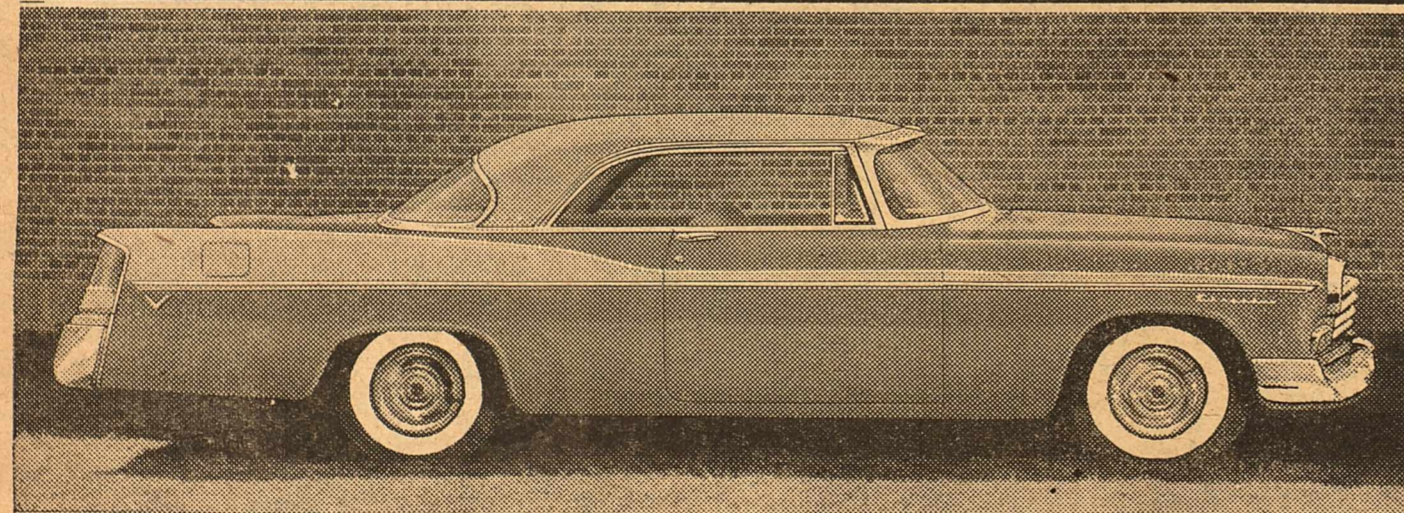

If Gus and his company cannot help you solve your building maintenance problem they will honestly tell you so.

If they can be of service to you, they will truly enjoy the privilege.

Sincerely,
Dayton G. (Gus) Bishop

Shivers Designates February As "Heart Month" In Texas

OFFICIAL MEMORANDUM

By Allan Shivers, Governor of Texas

GREETINGS: AUSTIN, TEXAS

Heart diseases take more lives in Texas annually than all other causes combined. This dread source of more than 52 per cent of all deaths has been sharply reduced in the last generation through constant research and treatment. Medical science feels that the gate is just being opened upon far broader and more effective fields of treatment and cure.

The people of Texas are privileged to join in a national campaign to further these benefits through voluntary work and contributions.

THEREFORE, I, as Governor of Texas, do hereby designate the month of February, 1956, as HEARTH MONTH in Texas, and urge the wholehearted response of all Texans.

In official recognition whereof, I hereby affix my signature this 3rd day of February, 1956.

"Why Soil Conservation Is Important To Everyone"

FIRST PLACE ESSAY EDWARDS PLATEAU SCD
By Jan Vander Stucken
Soil conservation is important because it enables people to have better homes and living conditions, therefore improving the economic condition of our nation. This is brought about by making the land more productive. This, in turn, enables more pounds of beef, fiber, and more crops of all kinds to be produced for human consumption.

It is very important to bring about the above conditions because abundant crops, beautiful supplies and strong, warm fibers give people more of the necessities of life that enables them to live in happiness and peace. It is the shortage of natural resources which people haven't realized the importance of and wasted, that has brought about dissatisfaction and discontent.

Soil conservation is important because it will make crop and pasture lands more valuable. Through this conservation, more taxes can be collected for worthwhile community projects. By this I mean better churches, schools, homes and all types of business. This is also important to the farmer and rancher. He, too, must build facilities for his livestock.

In good agricultural farming it is very important to practice soil conservation. If this is not done it will result in erosion, poor crops, and leached-out soil which produces abominable sandbars and weeds.

Conservation is important not only to the ranches but to the cities as well. The cities depend on butter, eggs and milk from the produce farms. So they too are vitally interested in soil conservation of the land.

Summing up, the importance of soil conservation can be stated in one sentence; No nation can be any stronger than its natural resources enable it to be. So this most important consideration we have as a nation, if we are to remain strong, is to conserve every grain of rich soil and every drop of precious water that God gave us.

PAPPY'S DIARY
DONT PLAY WITH OUR GAS IT'S HIGH OCTANE IT'S SO FULL OF REP IT'LL FLY A PLANE
WILLMAN'S STATION

Many people enjoy nature and work with nature, but the ranchman probably works closer and has more control over nature than anyone else.
The basic factors necessary for plant growth and vigor are water, light, chlorophyll in green leaves, oxygen, nutrients, and a suitable temperature, but more important, these factors supplied by nature, are in a sense controlled by the ranchman.
It is entirely up to nature to give us water, in the form of rainfall, but by proper grazing the ranchman can control the amount of water-made available to plants by leaving a good cover on the ground. "Its the rainfall you keep that counts". A good cover, takes up the rain that falls and allows it to penetrate into the ground where the plant roots can take it up-instead of letting it run off on the surface of the ground.
By controlling brush, the amount of light and competition that a grass plant receives can be controlled. Light is necessary for the manufacture of chlorophyll in grass leaves which in turn manufactures plant food.
Since the chlorophyll in the green leaves of a grass plant is the factory which manufactures plant food, it is important that the ranchman properly manage or control the amount of green leaves so that the grass plant can keep its factory operating. When too much grazing is allowed, there are not enough green leaves, containing chlorophyll, to produce enough plant food to maintain the plant and produce forage. A good guide for grazing is "take half and leave half".
Oxygen which is necessary for seed germination and healthy roots is, to a certain extent, managed by the ranchman. A good root system helps to let air into the soil and make it more porous, but when too much of the top growth is grazed off the root system becomes proportionately smaller. When this happens the soil becomes tight with little pore space for air and water penetration.
Soil nutrients are necessary for plant vigor, but with over grazing or when the soil is bare, the nutrients are leached out of the soil by sun and rain. Some nutrients can be replaced in the soil by the action of bacteria when there is enough dead litter left on the ground.
Temperature is another factor important to plant growth and vigor and it to can be controlled by the ranchman, by controlling grazing. Plants roots cannot survive under temperatures that are too hot or too cold. A good cover shades the soil from the sun rays in the summer and keeps the soil temperature lower. The soil temperature on a nearly bare area and on an area which has a good grass cover may vary as much as 30 degrees. During the winter, under poor range conditions when there is not enough cover on the ground and the plant roots are short and near the surface, the plants may winter kill due to the low soil temperature.

Ranchmen are dependent upon nature for the amount of rainfall received, but they have great influence on effective use of rainfall. "It's the rain you keep that counts."

PURINA FEEDS 'EM RIGHT
PURINA RANGE CHECKERS
When old-times squint at the sky when cattle start milling and bawling it means just one thing... the first "norther" of the year is blowin' in. It's the beginning of winter... a critical time for the brood cows. They're building next spring's calf and maintaining their own bodies, too!
Cows need help to stay in shape and drop strong calves next spring. They need carbohydrates for heat and energy, bodybuilding protein, vitamins and minerals. Purina Range Checkers are a welcome sight to cattle braving winter's cold. See us next time you're in town for more information about easy-to-feed Range Checkers... they have what cows need for health and reproduction.

From where I sit ... by Joe Marsh

She Knew It All The Time

Chances are, long ago your grandma knew how to keep you from catching cold. Mine did. "Stay out of drafts," she'd warn. "Bundle up. Don't get wet."

Then, maybe, when you grew up you found that the old lady's theories were considered old fashioned. Germs were the thing—and the way to avoid a cold was to avoid infection by somebody who already had one.

Now I read where scientists aren't so sure. Germs carry a cold, of course, but they now believe something else "sets it off"—something like drafts, wet feet or going without your muffler. Grandma, take a bow!

From where I sit, there's liable to be sound reasoning behind the old customs people believe in. "Early to bed, early to rise," for instance—or the practice of drinking hot milk or a glass of beer at bedtime. I'm not saying you ought to hold with these beliefs yourself... but you'd better get the facts before giving them the "chill."

FEB. 22 IS U. S. ARMY RESERVE DAY IN TEXAS!

STRENGTH IN RESERVE

YOUNG MEN WANTED

UNCLE SAM needs young men for his peacetime Army of Reservists. YOUNG MEN need what Uncle Sam has to offer.

Strong nations seldom are attacked. It is only when a nation becomes weak, when its military strength is at a low ebb... when its men are untrained for battle... that an enemy strikes. To keep peace—keep strong. For a nation to maintain military might it must have a large, well-trained Ready Reserve—well versed in the latest in military know how and equipment.

It is up to the young men of America to provide this manpower. Under the Reserve Forces Act of 1955 American youth may continue in school with a minimum of interruption, while serving in the U.S. Army Reserve.

Investigate. Contact your nearest U.S. Army Reserve Unit.

Cyclones Over Whirlwinds In MOD Cage Bout

The Sonora Cyclones, a team of town men, romped over the Whirlwinds, the team of veterans, to the tune of 36-30 in a benefit basketball game for the March of Dimes. The Cyclones took the lead early in the game and maintained their lead steadily except for one occasion when the Whirlwinds led them 6-5. After a deluge of charges, counter-charges and requests for vengeance, Cyclone Coach Clayton Hamilton made the following statement: "The Cyclones won fair and square and the Whirlwinds did not earn a chance for a re-play."

Trucks, Pickups Must Be Weighed To Get License

Word has been received at the Tax Assessor-Collector's office from the office of State Highway Engineer D. C. Greer that owners of trucks, panels and pickups must present weight certificates when applying for license plates. Heretofore only commercial vehicles have been required to certify the weights of vehicles, however the highway department has found it necessary to extend this requirement to cover all types of trucks. Pickups and trucks to be used only in carrying on farm and ranch business may file for a farm affidavit. This affidavit limits use of pickups to transaction of farm or ranch business McCarver was re-elected association secretary-treasurer. The association plans to have a race meet sometime in May. The exact dates for the meet will be announced later.

COMMISSIONERS COURT MEETS MONDAY

Sutton County Commissioners' Court met in regular session Monday. The Court passed an order for the issuance of warrants to buy a 1956 model Mack diesel truck tractor. Commissioners also reported all rights-of-way secured and fencing contracts let for construction on the Eldorado highway. Work on the highway project is under way exclusively. Vehicles may be weighed at the public scales at the Stockmen's Feed Company for a fee of 50c. Failure to comply with this law, being enforced this year for the first time, may mean a fine of as much as $200.00. All trailers having a gross weight of 4,000 pounds or more are also required to have a serial number. Applications for serial numbers can be made at the Tax Assessor's office, where 1956 license plates for passenger and commercial vehicles are on sale now. Persons applying for new license plates are required to show their receipt for last year's license and their certificate of title.

Moore Reports Four Accidents During Week

Patrolman Herman E. Moore reported a total of four highway accidents during the past week-end. The first occurred about 6:30 Sunday afternoon on the edge of the city limits on U.S. 290 east when the steering apparatus on the 1955 Chevrolet pickup driven by Jack Rape locked on a curve, sending the truck through a guard rail. Rape sustained only minor injuries and Carl J. Cahill, a passenger in the pickup, suffered head injuries. Lt. and Mrs. Roy O. Swanson of Luke Air Force Base, Arizona, received treatment for injuries sustained Monday when a house trailer pulled by their car side-swiped the car driven by William O. Aydelatt, of Flomaton, Alabama, completely demolished the Swanson car and trailer. Mrs. Swanson suffered a fractured pelvis and was removed to Goodfellow Air Force Hospital Tuesday. Lt. Swanson received only minor injuries. Aydelatt was unhurt. Charges of driving while intoxicated were filed by Moore against Pedro Torres of Eldorado after his 1950 Chrysler sedan turned over atop a fence about a half-mile out of town on the Eldorado highway Monday night. Frank Dunsmore, Jr., of San Angelo pled guilty to DWI charges in County Court and paid a fine of $79.70 plus a six-month's license suspension. His companion, Frank Owensby of San Angelo, pled guilty to intoxication charges in Justice Court, paying a fine of $21.00. The pair were involved in a one-car accident near Eldorado Monday night.
