Odds And Ends

Editors probably receive more mail than anybody else, though we can't provide actual proof for our case. Most of it falls into the category of somebody wanting something for nothing.

Occasionally, however, you find a request which you can't refuse, and in trying to comply find yourself learning something. We were asked this week to furnish information on Sutton County history and its present contribution to the state. The letter came from a member of a Texas history class in Graham High School.

Naturally, we couldn't pass up the opportunity to enlighten the city of Graham on the superiorities of our home county so we referred to old files and found a brief history of the county written by the former Erna Meckel.

From this we learned that Sutton County was created by a bill passed by the Legislature of 1887—House Bill No. 387—entitled "An Act to create the Counties of Sutton and Schleicher from the County of Crockett."

L. J. Dunagan was first County Judge; Perry McConnell, Sheriff; W. S. Strader, Clerk; W. R. Rudicil, Assessor; W. H. Sowell, Treasurer; John McNichol, first Surveyor; George Travick, Justice of the Peace; W. A. Glasscock, Hide and Animal Inspector.

As for its contributions to the state of Texas, we find that we are located in the center of the sheep and goat raising area of the state, producing millions of pounds of wool and mohair annually.

The Sonora Wool & Mohair Show which is held every summer is now ranked as the top show in the nation, drawing entries from wool and mohair producing areas all over the nation. The Ranch Experiment Station is conducting ram progeny tests which are proving most valuable to breeders.

Sutton County is also one of the two major known reserves of natural gas in the state, and production is being stepped up at a rapid rate.

See? You learn something every day!

Lions Excellent Salesmen; Broom Sales Total $973.45 In Tuesday Campaign

A concentrated effort by local Lions Club members, for a few hours on Tuesday, resulted in the sale of $973.45 worth of brooms, mops and other cleaning aids manufactured by the Texas Blind.

Sales were made during the day from the sidewalk in front of the bank, and during the afternoon, as Lions called on local business firms. The project gained momentum after five o'clock when some 15 to 20 Lions loaded brooms, mops, door mats and other items into pickup trucks and station wagons and made house to house calls in the residential section of the city.

Team captains for the sale were Jack Mackey, R. S. Teaff, Stanton Bundy, and Mack Owens. Teaff's team reported the greatest volume of sales, turning in about $250.00.

Clayton Hamilton, chairman of the sale committee, indicates that he is well pleased with the sale and expresses thanks and appreciation on behalf of the local Lions Club to those who helped make the sale a success.

Seventy-five percent of the proceeds, $730.09, was turned over to the Texas Blind Shops Caravan, while the local Lions Club retained 25 percent, $243.36, for use in worthwhile community projects including aid to the visually handicapped.

Heaviest rainfall occurred in a strip about ten miles wide running north from the V. J. Glasscock ranch to the Hospital ranch, then northeast to the Joe Logan ranch. Much heavier rains occurred in parts of Edwards County, with Bryan Hunt receiving 3.00 inches and Byron Newby recording 2.40 inches.

soil loss. The Hospital ranch recorded .70 in ten minutes, which indicates an extremely high intensity of over 4.00 inches per hour. Soil Conservation Service infiltration tests show that valley soils, denuded of vegetation, will absorb less than .30 inches per hour, so most of a high intensity rain is lost on bar soils. The same soils under a good grass cover will absorb up to four inches per hour.

Wednesday's rain was followed on Saturday and Sunday by one of the most severe wind and dust storms of the past several years. Bare rangeland and cropland suffered heavy soil losses. Seven years of drought has resulted in a powdery surface of finely ground soil on fields which is readily subject to blowing. The weekend storm emphasized the need for growing a good litter crop of cane or sudan to control wind and water erosion prior to seeding grasses on fields.

Development of a work plan on Lowrey Draw, the first step in securing flood protection, is tentatively planned for early May.

Who Will Teach Your Child In 1960?

There is a keener awareness of the importance of public education to the individual, to our state, and to our nation than ever before in history. There is also a growing awareness on the part of the citizenship that to supply adequately trained teachers for our rapidly increasing scholastic population and to provide the improved quality of education which these times demand will require more recognition for teaching as a profession and improvements in the salaries paid teachers.

Texas will have approximately 359,000 more students by 1960. This increase will require 12,000 more teachers, plus 20,000 more teachers to replace those who will leave the profession. This will add up to a grand total of 32,000 teachers to be recruited.

In order to secure this many teachers, one-half of ALL college graduates would have to enter the teaching field. Unfortunately, only one out of every five is now doing so. Consequently, our schools are being filled each year with poorly trained inadequately educated teachers. How startling is the fact that the Houston schools could absorb all the teacher graduates from all the colleges in Texas each year!

Most teachers are sincere people, dedicated to their profession, which they feel is a calling. But they have to eat, buy clothes, pay rent, pay doctors, etc. On the basis of U. S. Bureau of Labor statistics, the teacher earns considerably less in 1956 than he did in 1949 in terms of actual purchasing power. When competent teachers leave the profession in droves, the reason lies not in a lack of loyalty or dedication to their calling. Rather, it is a matter of actually making enough money to buy groceries.

Who will teach your girl or boy his reading in 1960? Who will teach that sixth or seventh grade child his science and mathematics by 1960? If you are really concerned, write to your state congressman and senator today, and ask them to support Senate Bill 80 and House Bill 8, which are bills providing for teacher pay increase.

Do Good Fences Make Good Neighbors?

By Joe de Berry

In the past ten years, I have done a lot of traveling, both at home and abroad. I've lived in large towns and small villages, in rural areas and cosmopolitan centers. In all of these places I've found the same thing: a prevailing attitude of distrust and suspicion of strangers. The New York businessman looks upon the Texas cattleman as a quaint and rather untamed frontiersman, while the Texan regards the New Yorker as a queer freak with a funny accent. The tourist from Chicago thinks of Paris as the fountain-head of all sin and corruption, while the Parisian sneers at "le sauvage Americain." Only in Switzerland are they above this sort of thing; and they only avoid it there by adopting an air of infinite superiority to all other nationalities—which comes to the same thing in the end.

Why is this so? Why do we all distrust each other? I think it is because we are just a little bit afraid that the other fellow, whoever he may be, might try to take something away from us if we are not on our guard at all times. To a certain extent, of course, this feeling is justified: people have been trying to take things away from other people since history began, and we've all learned to protect ourselves. In the last analysis, self-preservation becomes the ultimate law of survival.

In this day and time, however, mere self-preservation against everyone else is not enough. If I may be allowed to repeat a line from last week's article, "No man is an island," and no single community or way of life is self-sufficient. The world has grown too small and too crowded for the complete individual. No matter which way you turn you are bound to tread upon someone else's toes, and he is bound to tread upon yours. It behooves us, then, to learn how to avoid these encroaching toes and still maintain our own values and personalities. Good fences no longer make good neighbors, because there is no longer any room for fences; they have become a barrier to the future where they were once a protection of the status quo.

THAD SAYS . . .

"In 1952 and again in 1956, we Texans endorsed President Eisenhower and his policies by landslide majorities. His leadership, I believe, has been good for Texas and the entire country."

Thad Hutcheson

"The President's task has not been made easier by a Congress controlled by the opposition party. Legislation he has asked for has often been delayed or thrown out altogether. An unfriendly committee recently cut 26 million dollars from the drought relief appropriation he asked for. My election would provide the President the friendly Senate he should have to hasten and complete his programs. Thad Hutcheson is the only candidate for the Senate who has been endorsed by the President. I urge you to send me to Washington to work with Mr. Eisenhower."

BUDGET

By O. C. Fisher

CAPITOL HILL CONTINUES to buzz about the budget. And so last week another one of the 13 major appropriation bills that will be acted upon was approved, but with a half billion dollar reduction from budget estimates. It was a 5½-billion dollar bill.

That makes 5 out of the 13 already acted upon, and the total cuts up to now amount to $798,500,000. The $35 billion defense appropriation and the four and a half billion foreign aid bills will be acted upon a little later. Thus, it now looks like the eventual reductions may run anywhere from two to five billion.

SPEAKING of the money bill acted upon last week, it included an item of $95 million for subsidizing public housing obligations that are outstanding. That serves as a good reminder of what it means for chickens to come home to roost. As a result of the Congress-over the protest of many of us-year in and year out authorizing more of these projects to be built at taxpayers' expense, we are called upon to pay more and more each year on the amortized obligations. And the amount increases each year as new projects are built and more obligations are added.

ORIGINALLY JUSTIFIED by sponsors as a way of providing housing for low-income and welfare families, Uncle Sam has now built about a half million units, making the Government the biggest of all landlords. Tenants pay only a fraction of the actual rental value of the public housing apartments they occupy.

Getting away from the original concept of helping the needy, it has been revealed that many of these projects are now occupied by families earning several thousand dollars annually. In debate last week, I cited an example of this: A housing project in Pittsburg is occupied 80% by steelworkers who earn more than $100 per week, while American taxpayers are, in effect, paying a sizeable part of their rent bills for them each week. We have registered vigorous protest against this kind of business.

better health practices for the patient and his family. The physician can discuss such problems as diet, exercise, rest, work and play habits, and other activities that affect health. He can make a tentative appraisal of the patient's need for psychotherapy, and educate him toward a better understanding of himself.

How often and what type examination should be given varies with the patient's age, sex, occupation, heredity, past health, place of residence, and economic status.

No single examining routine can be applied to all persons, but all check-ups include a medical history, the actual physical examination, and certain laboratory and x-ray procedures.

Part of the examination will include a check for birthmarks and moles with cancer potentialities, particularly on body areas subject to repeated irritation. A blood-sugar test may also be included if there is a family history of diabetes.

Edwards Plateau Soil Conservation District News

By E. B. Keng
Soil Conservation Service

The 2,500-3,000 acres of cropland in the Edwards Plateau SCD have been placed in the Soil Bank program. These fields will be planted to native grass, and will be grazed for five years.

In Sutton County ranchmen will have an option of either planting a litter crop of cane or sudan this spring, followed by native grass next spring, or to plant native grass this spring. Though some native grass seed is available locally, the short supply will cause many ranchmen to plant a litter crop of cane or sudan this year who might otherwise plan to plant grass.

The severe soil blowing from fields over the past week-end emphasizes the need for a protective cover of plant litter on the land before planting native grasses. Young grass seedlings on the cultivated fields cannot survive a severe dust storm. The blowing dust cut the young plants loose from the roots, dries out the surface moisture and ruins the grass stand. The main objective of a litter crop prior to seeding native grass is to provide a protective cover on the soil surface. Wind erosion is prevented, moisture is absorbed, into the soil and saved, and a stand of grass is much easier to obtain.

Ranchmen should confer with the Sutton County ASC office, or with E. B. Keng, SCS, before buying and planting either grass seed or seed for a litter crop. Grass or sorghum varieties, purity and germination, methods of land preparation and rate of seeding must conform to standards if payment is to be made. Grasses vary greatly in quality, so purity and germination information must be obtained from dealers.

Litter crops of cane, sudan or hegari may be planted at the rate of 5 to 7 pounds per acre. Ranch-

Oscar Groff of Ozona was in Sonora Tuesday on business or monkey business, maybe.

IKE SAYS

... both for Texas and for the advancement of the general principles of government in which you and I believe, I reiterate my wish for your success in this campaign.

THAD SAYS

I BELIEVE that States' Rights is one of the most important concepts in the American scheme of government. It will keep the majority of your government near your home and in the hands of your neighbors, whom you can observe and hold accountable for their actions.

I BELIEVE we can and must reduce the cost of government and we must require by constitutional amendment a balanced budget and a reasonable limit on income taxes. We must have an honest fiscal policy in government, and we must cut taxes.

I BELIEVE we must re-evaluate our foreign aid program, looking toward a reduction of expenditures and the substituting of loans for direct donations.

ting of loans for direct donations.

I BELIEVE that education and all matters related are best handled at the state and local level. I oppose the principle of federal aid to education.

I BELIEVE the time has come for new names and new faces in Texas politics--a time for an end to political bossism, political professionals and political scandals. Only a two-party system, with its checks and balances, its healthy competition, can restore to Texas and Texas voters integrity in public office and the respect we deserve from both national parties.

A familiar call or a honk from the jeep bring cattle arunnin' when Purina Range Checkers are fed. Cattle need 'em too, when range is sparse and dry.

Purina Range Checkers have carbohydrates for heat and energy, body-building protein, vitamins and minerals for health and reproduction. They're economical, too. Come in and see us for your winter feed needs.

... and don't forget those early calves. Creep feeding pays off in added weight at weaning time and higher prices per pound. By creep feeding you save wear and tear on the mother cow and leave her in better condition for breeding season. This means a larger calf crop for you.

Vaccinate Now Before Polio Season Starts

With the polio "season" only weeks away, physicians have been urging that all persons under 40 years of age have the Salk vaccine injections. The National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis has now added its voice.

While supplies of the vaccine are tight in some parts of the nation, local physicians have an ample supply and H. E. Smith, chairman of the Sutton County Chapter of the Foundation, has stressed the need for everyone to take it upon himself to have himself and his family vaccinated.

The Salk vaccine has been proven 85 to 90 percent effective against all types of polio and almost 100 percent effective against paralytic polio. Many doctors call it the safest of all known vaccines and say that the injections themselves are less painful than most.

The Weekly Health Bulletin of the Connecticut State Department of Health published this reminder recently:

Children, parents and grandparents, too,
Polio immunization is protection for you.

There's no time to lose: It's foolish to wait,
When Polio strikes, a "shot" is too late.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Westfall, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Crosby, Jr., and Mrs. Maggie Williams returned Tuesday from New Smyrna Beach, Florida, where the Eldorado Palmetto Polo Club won the world's championship trophy. The trophy is on display at Shaw's Drug Store in Eldorado.
