Read This - Then Act Today!

Legislation making parents responsible for their offspring's malicious acts that result in damage to property was passed by the Senate and sent to Governor Price Daniel for his signature, Tuesday.

This bill, which is a revised form of an earlier one introduced by Representative Joe Burkett, Kerrville, is sponsored by Senator Carlos Ashley, Llano. The bill was revised because of objections of the Attorney General, (ie. it would be unconstitutional unless it was broadened to include all persons who had minors in their care), and apparently has his blessings.

At first glance, this legislation would appear to be the solution to Texas' juvenile and/or parent problems-but lets examine the pitfalls.

In one of Texas' larger cities last December, a 14 year old boy was brought before the juvenile judge charged with destruction of public property. In compliance with the laws of that city, the father was present, since he was responsible for the vandalism. The father was subsequently fined $66.50 and costs and was overheard to say when he left the courtroom with his son "When I get you home, I'm going to beat this fine out of you."

A deliberate attempt to tear down family harmony, the lack of which is the very basis of our teenage problem, could not possibly accomplish the job as quickly as this bill. Scores of cities have tried it, failed and revoked this type of law.

On February 16, an Ohio teen ager was summoned to appear in juvenile court on charges of vandalism. The father was made to replace 43 window lites in the neighborhood. The father punished his 13 year son with a thorough beating and by cutting off his allowance. This served only to build up a natural hate between the two.

Three weeks later the same boy was again summoned on the same charge. When asked "Why?", the boy replied that he wanted revenge against his father and sought to accomplish this by "getting him in trouble with the police."

A more understanding judge, working with a more liberal law might have averted this family tragedy, by sentencing the boy to work and pay for the damaged property or by sentencing the father and son to a five day fishing trip together.

This vicious piece of legislation would carry with it the potential power of driving a wedge into every family in the state. Wow! What a blow FOR COMMUNISM.

If you oppose this legislation, wire Governor Price Daniel, Capitol Station, Austin, imploring his to veto, on the grounds that it would contribute to and speed up the destruction of family life in Texas. Wire today-before it's too late.

22 Families Driven From Homes As Heavy Rains Continue Sunday

Sonora, Texas 1936- Dry Devil's River at flood stage, drove scores of people from their homes and got well into the business district. Water flooded the Sonora Motor Company and the basement of the McDonald Hotel. The picture above was taken from Eaton Hill looking southwestward toward the Ozona bridge. Heavy rainfall continued to ease the wounds caused from 7 drought years at the Sonora area recorded 3 to 7 inches of moisture over the past weekend. From 2 to 3.5 inches fell Sunday, bringing Lowrey Draw and the Dry Devil's River down at full channel capacity.

Water entered twenty-two homes, from a few inches to two feet deep, and stood at the floor level of many more. Water lacked only 6 to 8 inches of reaching the highway bridge on the Del Rio road.

Lowrey Draw was approximately 5 inches higher than on April 19, and the Dry Devil's River was higher than it had been since 1936-38. Many residents of low lying areas evacuated their homes, as it appeared for a time the water might get much higher.

Moisture penetrations tests made Tuesday by E. B. Keng, SCS, showed soil moisture to vary from 6 inches to over 3 feet. Bare valley soils showed moisture only 6 to 9 inches deep, while areas with a good weed or grass cover were wet from 20 to 33 inches deep. Areas with a good grass cover and receiving extra water were wet below 36 inches.

On the Edwards Plateau SCD trial area at the Herbert Fields ranch land pitted in 1955 had moisture under pits to 23 inches, while 10 feet away an unpitted bare area was wet only 6 inches deep.

Rainfall total since January 1 vary from about 5 inches to over 16 inches. The gauge at the SCD trial area has registered 8.94 inches; Sonora Wool and Mohair Company 13.07 inches; O. L. Richardson 14.55 inches; Frank Bond 12.50 inches; L. E. Johnson, Jr. 5.40 inches and Joe Logan 16.30 inches.

The approximate three day total for the past weekend includes the following reports:

Ben Meckel 4.80, Sonora Wool and Mohair Company 3.61, Hospital Ranch 4.50, Joe Logan 4.25, Edgar Shurley 5.00, Byrd Ranch 6.00, Tom Davis 4.77, W. A. Miers 4.00, Andrew Moore Thorp ranch 4.85, Jack Turney 2.30, Fred Earwood 1.80, Lea Allison 5.00, Dorothy Baker 2.50, Dew Word 5.40, Lee Fawcett 5.00, John Fields 3.00, Herbert Fields 3.15, Holman Estate 3.70, Alvis Johnson 4.30, Cleve Jones, Sr. 2.80, Preston Love 4.00.

Stanley Mayfield 4.50, Harold Schwiening 2.80, W. F. Berger 5.35, Bob Kelley 3.60, Dan Cauthorn 2.7, Duke Wilson 3.10, Gene Wallace 4.45, Frank Bond 3.75, George Brockman 2.9, Edgar Shurley (Home) 3.10, Experiment Station 1.84, City of Sonora 3.67, SCD Trial Area 3.15, Mack Cauthorn 4.00 and L. E. Johnson, Jr. 2.20.

$400 From Play

Beauty, pathos, and humor blended into a memorable whole last Thursday and Friday nights when James Robbins presented his high school production of "Teahouse of the August Moon."

Some of the characters gave outstanding performances, and the rest of the cast of 29 were usually adequate. There was a minimum of forgetting, and most of the lines could be heard. Shannon Ratliff and Butch Baker shared honors for outstanding performances in the leading roles.

Shannon was a bowing, smiling, and rascally cleaver Sakini. Butch was a Captain Fisby of many moods—bewilderment, outrage, affection, and humor. Frank Joe Potmesil made blustering Colonel Purdy's ulcers quite understandable; Jan Keng was a beautiful and attentive Lotus Blossom; and Tommy Espy was a militant Miss Higa Jiga.

The production staff handled the complicated stage business efficiently. The curtain, lights, music and sound effects were well-coordinated.

From Sakini's initial "Lovely ladies, kind gentlemen" to his "Our little play is over," "Teahouse of the August Moon" was an enjoyable and profitable evening of entertainment.

Water Wall Leaves Ruin In Lampasas...Four Die; Damage Put At $5 Million ... Town Is Smashed

These grim headlines in Tuesday's papers are but sad reminders of what could happen to Sonora. How long will our luck hold out? Floods at San Angelo, Christoval, Del Rio, Langtry, even on Granger Draw 15 miles west of Sonora... any one of these would have caused a major catastrophe in our city.

Sunday's rainfall of only 2 to 3.5 inches filled both Lowrey Draw and Dry Devil's River to capacity. Water entered 22 homes. What would have happened had the rain been 5 to 7 or 10 inches instead of 3 inches? Lampasas had 7 inches and was 90% destroyed... one of the worst disasters in the history of Texas.

Citizens of Sonora and Sutton County have worked for more than a year toward the goal of flood protection. In spite of limited facilities of flood planning agencies, much progress has been made. A preliminary survey has been accomplished, showing that Lowrey Draw is eligible to receive government assistance, under public law 566, to the tune of some $400,000.00. Local landowners involved have given easements to permit construction of dams. All but $400 of the needed $15,000 to pay for developing a detailed flood prevention work plan has been raised by Sonora people. This has served to raise our priority rating from 100th place to 3rd place for planning assistance.

A Soil Conservation Service Flood Planning Party has been made available to start work in July... PROVIDED WE CAN OBTAIN EASEMENTS FROM LONE STAR GAS COMPANY (which now serves Sonora with natural gas service), AND HUMBLE OIL COMPANY, where gas and oil lines cross the proposed dam site Number 2 on the W. A. Miers ranch. Humble officials who met with Sonora representatives, showed real interest in our problems, and indicated that Humble would stand the estimated $5,000 cost of protecting two 10 inch oil lines at the structure.

A representative of the Lone Star Gas Company met with local officials last Friday, and indicated that Sonora people would have to pay Lone Star $10,450.00 to cover the cost of relocating some 5 to 6,000 feet of 8 inch gas line. The company, however, has not reached a final decision on the

...We trust and believe that Lone Star will reconsider our problems, which are, in fact, their problems too, and reach a favorable decision to relocate their line so as to permit construction of the dam. Sonora and Sutton County people have suffered an unprecedented seven-year drought, and at present, our ability to assume additional financial burdens is at an all time low. We have raised $15,000 to finance a work plan to speed protection; local landowners have donated easements; we must necessarily reroute and pay for several miles of county roads; and local people must assume maintenance of the completed dam structures. Surely Lone Star won't stand in the way

Fisher Poll Shows

Texans Dubious About Foreign Aid

More and more people in the 21st district are becoming dubious about the need and extent of foreign aid, or the way it is being handled.

The ratio at present runs about 3 1/2 to 1 against the program, whereas in a similar poll taken three years ago the opinions took above five to three for it.

Many of the answers indicate a willingness to go along with absolute essentials, including technical aid and proper loans, but are convinced (and I think properly) that entirely too much wasteful spending is involved in the way it is being handled.

Other predominant viewpoints, disclosed in the tabulations—recently completed—show that increases in postal rates are favored by a 54 to 39 ratio, with almost universal disapproval of privileges now enjoyed by advertising and junk mail.

If the folks in our district could have their way, pending civil rights legislation would be

Looking Through The Windows Of Life

By W. H. Marshall

Dear Friends:

Did you ever take a good look at yourself? Some folk never do. I am afraid I don't study myself like I should either. You know as well as I do it is not too pleasant a job to look yourself in the face and tell the truth about yourself. That is the reason some folks are forever finding fault with the other fellow. They can't live with themselves so must find an outlet for their emotions caused by refusing to face themselves with the facts of their own life.

With his keen insight into human nature, Jesus said, "First cast out the beam out of thine own eye; and then shalt thou see clearly to cast out the mote out of thy brother's eye." It is as though he had said, "Look at yourself first."

You will pardon me I am sure, but time is running out on me and my work here. So here I sit again in my study this morning and I just wonder why I have not been able to serve the people and do a better work than I have? but I would add this: If it had not been for so many of you who have encouraged me I could have done but little I am afraid.

I would be frank now. Many of you in and out of The Methodist Church have meant a lot to me and because of your friendship, I have been made a better man. As to my work, I can see where I could have done better, but it is not wisdom, and neither does it help to stand and look back at mistakes, so we turn our faces on mistakes of the past and with hope and courage face the future believing we can do better.

I have been asked if I know where I am to move. The answer is, I do not, and I don't want to know until I get to conference and along with many other ministers, receive my appointment from the Bishop's Cabinet. Wherever I go I will be happy and of course find many fine people. I read this last night in a paper, "As you grow better, you will find the people better." What a truth that is. And on the contrary if the other fellow is a rat, you better watch that you don't become a rat yourself.

I have been asked where I will live when I retire? Well, I am some years off from retirement. Years do not make old age. The nine years I have been privileged to live with you good people has added but little to my age, really I am just about as young as when I came here. Happiness and contentment brings the years on at a slow pace; and when the heart is "merry" the soul is young. Many of you have asked Mrs. Marshall and me to consider living here after we have retired. We would be happy to live again here with you. So the future could bring us together again. Certainly, we would be happy to live here.

Soon we leave you, better for having lived with you. Many of you have been kind enough to tell me that I am better preacher than I was when I came. I hope that is true and if it is, you deserve the credit for making me a better preacher.

I want to say this to all of you: I have tried to be helpful to all of you alike. Some of my happiest hours have been spent in your homes and in the hospital visiting the sick. Some of you have talked over your problems with me, and I have talked over some of my problems with you. Thank you for helping me. Blessed is that church member whose preacher can go to him, or her for council and get it with feeling and kindness for the minister.

Seniors Honored With Annual Banquet And Dance

By Joe Potmesil

The annual Junior-Senior banquet and spring formal were held in the school cafeteria Monday night, May 6, with the Junior Class as hosts and sponsors.

Mexican Fiesta was the theme for the banquet and floral arrangements of roses and cacti were used. Place cards were miniature Mexican hats. Candles were lighted in bottles covered with dripped candle wax.

Freddy Fields, president of the class, acted as master of ceremonies. Tommy Espy gave the invocation and Freddy Fields welcomed guests. Jay Wray Campbell responded for the Seniors. Butch Baker gave the toast to the graduating class, Jan Keng read the class prophecy and Lennie Mayhew read the senior will.

Dancing to the music of Preston Love and his orchestra followed the banquet. Guests entered the dance floor through an archway of red roses and honey-suckle. The ceiling was draped with blue streamers and multi-colored paper lanterns. Silhouettes of Mexican figures decorated the windows and balloons, Mexican hats, rugs and serapes were on the walls.

The bandstand was decorated with crepe paper and red roses.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Berger, Chris and Larry, visited with Mrs. Berger's parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Christie, in San Marcos during the Mother's Day weekend.

Get More DOLLARS from Grass

A familiar call or a honk from the jeep bring cattle running when Purina Range Checkers are fed. Cattle need 'em too, when range is sparse and dry.

Purina Range Checkers have carbohydrates for heat and energy, body-building protein, vitamins and minerals for health and reproduction. They're economical, too. Come in and see us for your winter feed needs.

... and don't forget those early calves. Creep feeding pays off in added weight at weaning time and higher prices per pound. By creep feeding you save wear and tear on the mother cow and leave her in better condition for breeding season. This means a larger calf crop for you.

HERE'S WHERE THE COOL COMES FROM

THIS IS THE GRILLE OF A PARAMOUNT EVAPORATIVE Air Cooler

Multi-Directional Grilles Air Volume Control

The dramatic lines of these new air conditioning grilles are enhanced by truly functional construction. In Capri models, eight adjustable plastic directional grilles allow the user to instantly select any one of scores of different combinations of air direction control to suit the most exacting comfort requirements. For added convenience, all models are equipped with push button controls that insure immediate ease of change from stop to start through cooling and ventilating.

For the most complete possible control of air volume, all coolers feature the new fingertip air volume control. In a split second, this remarkable control will adjust cooling or ventilating in any desired volume from a soft whisper of air to full capacity. Whether you choose the glamorous Capri 4045-5 or the skillfully crafted model 4042-5 and 3085-5 coolers, you're assured quality and design established with years of cooling experience. All package models come complete, equipped with factory installed water recirculating pump and float valve. All electrical connections are complete.

HERE'S WHAT MAKES THE COOL

TWO SPEED MOTOR - Controlled Cooling

Full cooling capacity for hot torrid days to a soft caressing whisper for moderate days or late evening is at the user's command with fingertip control of the special two-speed motors on all Eastick-built coolers with a "2" following model number. Depending upon temperature conditions, with two-speed motors, the cooling can be varied to suit the personal desires and requirements of the individual user and provides the last word in modern comfort.

The use of two-speed motors will increase the use of cooling equipment as much as 50%, as there are many days when full capacity of the cooler is not required and, unless the cooler is equipped with a two-speed motor, the cooler is turned off and the users are deprived of many hours of comfort.

Be sure and ask us to show you the advantages of the two-speed motor.

Face Covering May Mean Dollars In Sheep Sales

Face covering has long been an important selection factor in breeding fine wool Rambouillet sheep! Now, Animal Husbandmen at the Sonora Experiment Station affix definite values up to $5.00 a head for sheep with medium face covering over those with near-complete coverings which pose serious wool - blindness threats.
Proper selection of ewes with an interminate amount of wool-covering on the face can mean a difference of five to nine pounds more lamb weight than either those heavily-covered or open-faced. The extra weight is due almost entirely to a higher percentage of weaned lamb crop.
Ewes with an excessive amount of wool on the face also tend to be much more susceptible to screw worm strikes in lachrymal pits below the eyes. It's a good management practice, therefore, to cull potentially wool-blind sheep at birth or as found in the flock.

Lamb is nutritious.

EDITORIAL FROM FRONT PG. of the completion of this life-saving project.

Aside from the civic consideration, Lone Star stands to gain financially from flood protection on Lowrey Draw. A disastrous flood would cause Lone Star thousands of dollars in damage to inundated gas meters and regulators, broken gas lines, and loss of business. The gas company's measuring station on the Ft. McKavitt road would be inaccessible, and it would be difficult to turn off the City gas supply in the event of fires or escaping gas. How much more reasonable and profitable it would be for Lone Star to contribute their share to the project, rather than stand in the way of progress and protection for our community. With the recent severe floods in many of Texas' cities, we face the possibility of losing our July priority for securing flood planning assistance, unless immediate action is taken. We sincerely hope that Lone Star Gas Company will reconsider and reach a speedy decision to agree to move one mile of gas line when the time come.

Edwin Mayer Elected Chairman Of Wool Bureau Board

The Bureau's board is composed of Carter, Dr. Jan H. Moolman of South Africa, R. G. Lung of New Zealand, Don Clyde of Heber City, Utah; J. K. Sexton of Willows, California; H. Wardell of New Zealand and H. O. Wood of Australia.

These same Broncos made a great showing at Austin last week by finishing only 2 points out of second place.

Speech instructor James Robbins introduced his star, Shannon Ratliff who seems to walk off with every speech honor that comes his way.

Mrs. Rex Lowe and her Central Elementary Boys and Girls Choir sang three groups of songs. The first group which included Daisy, Ida, Casey and The Band Played On featured a solo by Rebecca Babb. The second group of popular music featured Irene Davis who sang the solo part of Side by Side. The third group consisted of two spirituals and was sung by the entire chorus.
