Jockeys To Wear New Racing Silks At Race Meet

Racing fans will have a great assist in watching their horses run in the racing meet here Friday through Sunday.

Jockeys will be attired in special blouses in all races so that the color of the jockey's shirt will always denote the horses starting position in the race.

Red shirts will always mark the number one jockey; white blouses appear on the number two rider; blue blouses attire the number three jockey and following colors mark the riders: yellow on number four; black on number five; purple on number six; green on seven and a brown and orange blouse will mark the jockey riding horse number eight coming out of the starting gate.

This plan of special blouses has been popular over part of the Texas Racing Circuit for the past three years. All races run at Fredericksburg, Boerne and New Braunfels have used that system of jockey colors. The innovation will be started here in Sonora at Junction and Brady this year. The latter three tracks jointly bought the racing silks, especially made for the purpose at Fredericksburg.

Fans have praised the system for it always helps to spot their horse even if they are running closely bunched in the race.

Other race meets to follow the running here at Sonora will be the July Jubilee at Brady, July 3, 4, 5 and 6; the July Races at Fredericksburg, July 4, 5, and 6; the Junction Fair and Race Meet at Junction, August 7, 8 and 9; the Gillespie County Fair at Fredericksburg, August 15, 16, and 17; Kendall County Fair at Boerne, August 30, 31, and September 1, and the Comal County Fair at New Braunfels September 26, 27, and 28.

Sonora's annual race meet will open here at two o'clock Friday afternoon with about one hundred entries expected. Among the entries are many outstanding horses. Eighty-five of the 90

Pioneer Gathering Purchases Gas In Crockett Fields

Burton P. Smith, President of Pioneer Gathering System, Inc., Amarillo, Texas, has announced the signing of gas purchase contracts with Magnolia Petroleum Company and Pan American Petroleum Corporation covering the purchase of gas in the Clayton Ranch Field and the Addie Field in Crockett County, approximately 26 miles west of Sonora.

So that these wells may be tied into its gathering system, Pioneer Gathering has applied to the Federal Power Commission for the construction of 14 miles of four and a half inch pipeline and a dehydration plant.

Construction is expected to begin as soon as a Certificate of Public Convenience and Necessity is granted by the FPC.

Smith also announced that at a meeting of the board of directors of Pioneer Natural Gas Company held in Amarillo, a dividend of 35 cents per share was declared on the outstanding common stock, payable June 6, 1958 to stockholders of record at the close of business on May 23, 1958.

Major C. T. Driskell, who is stationed in Burtonwood, England, will return to the United States, with his family, early in August. He has been assigned to weather headquarters as operation monitor for several weather stations and will be stationed at Langley Air Force Base in Virginia.

stables at the track have been reserved ahead of time and entries began arriving early in the week.

Six races will be run daily with $950 in purses plus entry fees.

Officials of the Sonora Park and Horse Show Association, sponsoring organization, say the track is in good condition and arrangements are complete for the event. Judge Mays of the Texas Racing Circuit will be on hand as will be photographers for handling finishes officially. Arrangements have been made for announcing over the public address system.

This year for the first time, dances will be an added attraction with Johnny Dutton's orchestra being engaged to play for dancing Friday and Saturday nights in the hangar at the airport.

The race meet is held annually under the regulations of the Texas Racing Circuit, of which the local organization is a member. Other member towns include Boerne, Brady, Fredericksburg, Junction and New Braunfels.

Helicopter Spraying For Bitterweed Being Tried In Southeast Sutton Co.

Whirlybirds, one of aviation's lesser known quantities, found their first use in Sutton County recently when Cecil Woodard who ranches about 35 miles southeast of Sonora hired a helicopter and pilot for aerial spraying of heavily bitterweed-infested range.

A Bell 'copter with 225-horsepower Lycoming motor from Hawk Helicopters, Fort Worth, subcontractors, handled the spraying for Stull Chemical Co. of San Antonio. Flying at very low altitude and only in perfectly still weather the pilot sprayed in swaths of 45-foot width allowing an overlap of five to ten feet per strip.

A mixture of two and one-half pints of 2-4-D in solution with four gallons of water per acre was used at a cost of approximately $2.75 per acre. Liveoak and other brush is defoliated at least temporarily, Woodard said, and defoliation may be permanent in the case of drought-starved brush.

Woodard plans to repeat the process over the same 600 acres next year to kill out anticipated reseeding. He hopes in this manner to cut down the incidence of bitterweed in the plot in order to allow good weeds and grasses to cover.

Effectiveness of the plan will be watched with interest by ranchmen in the bitterweed country.

Showers Fall Tuesday But Rainfall Still Under Normal

By E. B. Keng

Scattered light showers fell early Tuesday morning over some three-fourths of Sutton County, but only a trace in a large area southeast of Sonora.

Torrential rains covering small areas occurred at Del Rio, Ozona and San Angelo. Rainfall at Ozona put the first floodwater in three recently completed flood prevention structures, almost filling the sediment pools. Heavy rains in the Barnhart area put Granger Draw through the Mayer ranch on a small rise.

Rainfall reports gathered by Soil Conservation Service in the Sonora area Tuesday include the following rains:

Woolhouse .67; Mrs. R. M. Carver .59; Tom Davis .60; Hospital ranch .70; Collier Shurley .50; Joe Logan .60; Frank Bond .30; G. H. Davis 1.00; Cleve Jones .25; George Brockman .35;

Rip Ward .60; Edwin Sawyer .25; and W. B. McMillan (Edwards) .25.

Below average rainfall for March, April and the first half of May, plus a heavy weed crop, has retarded grass production on most ranges. Dry weather has also hastened the maturity of bitterweed, which is handicapping the efforts of many ranchmen who are trying to pull a light stand carried into clean areas by wind during the drought.

Poison Centers Offer Antidotes, Treatment

Suppose your youngster swallows a substance you know is poisonous. The label is missing and you don't know the antidote. All you know is the name of the product.

Grim supposing? Yes, but it happens every day to adults as well as children. How would you react? You should call your doctor at once, but what would he do? He must know exactly how much of what is in the poison before he acts. And time is all-important.

If your community had a poison control center, the problem would be much simplified. By checking a master index the center could give your doctor a quick run-down on ingredients in the substance. If necessary the child could be rushed to the center for emergency treatment with special equipment.

Unfortunately there was only one complete local center in Texas, operating in Austin's Breckenridge Hospital, until Galveston, Houston, and Fort Worth established poison information centers more recently.

This clearly is a dangerous situation. The State Department of Health, through its Division of Occupational Health, for over a year has been seriously intent on encouraging formation of poison control centers wherever there is local willingness.

The Department will furnish free an index information file, together with periodic supplements. Additionally, the Department offers counsel in organizing a center, and will make the resources of its extensive toxicological library available. The Division itself serves as a poison information center on an around-the-clock basis.

A complete local poison control center does three things:

1. It keeps information instantly available on compositions of poisonous materials, together with antidotes. It keeps up to date with a reference library on toxicology, and maintains a master index of poisons.

2. It maintains all emergency drugs, oxygen equipment, catheters, tubes, syringes, needles, etc., for immediate life-saving use in treating poisoning cases. A treatment center is usually located in a local hospital emergency room.

3. It conducts continuous public education on the hazards of literally thousands of poisonous agents available on today's market. Educational activities might be handled by persons other than the information or treatment staff.

For maximum usefulness, information and treatment phases must be operated 24 hours a day, supervised by a competent physician.

There you have it—a realistic, inexpensive plan for coping with the everconstant danger of accidental poisonings. Your town deserves the advantages that come with having a poison control center.

DEVIL'S RIVER NEWS

Driver Responsibility Law Explained

The Texas Department of Public Safety reported today that a Texas law, only moderately understood by the general public, has directly affected one-fourth of our drivers since being passed six years ago.

The law is the Motor Vehicle Safety-Responsibility Act which went into effect Jan. 1, 1952, requiring drivers and vehicle owners involved in traffic accidents to show proof of financial responsibility.

The information released by J. B. Alderdice, manager of Safety Responsibility, states that more than 550,000 traffic accidents have come under the law since it has been in existence. Specifically, the law requires drivers and vehicle owners to show proof of financial responsibility—that is, the ability to pay damages—if traffic accident damage to the property of any person is $100 or more, or if a person is injured or killed. It applies to all drivers and vehicle owners, regardless of fault, involved in such accidents.

This is apart from the requirement of another law for a person to file an accident report with the Texas DPS when involved in an accident in which there is a minimum of $25 aggregate, or total, damage to property, or if a person is injured or killed. This report merely lists the facts surrounding the accident, vehicles and drivers.

The safety-Responsibility Act is designed to protect the rights of the driving public. It requires the operator of a vehicle, who is to blame in an accident, to show he is financially able to satisfy any judgments for damages assessed against him.

A driver, or vehicle owner, is not affected by the law until becoming involved in a traffic accident. When the accident occurs, the driver and the vehicle owner may satisfy the requirements of the law by doing one of the following things: (1) showing that he is properly covered by a motor vehicle liability insurance policy, (2) depositing with the Texas Department of Public Safety sufficient money to pay any judgment for damages up to $15,000 resulting from the accident as may be recovered against each operator or owner.

(This deposit will be refunded after one year when satisfactory evidence has been filed with the Texas DPS that no action for damages has been started during that period.), (3) showing that he has been released from liability by all injured or damaged persons, (4) showing he has been finally adjudicated not to be liable in a civil suit for damages in a court of competent jurisdiction, or (5) showing he has signed a written agreement with all injured or damaged parties providing for payment of an agreed amount in installments of all claims up to $15,000.

No action is taken against the driver or owner if he complies with one of the five items. Should he fail to comply, the operator's license of the driver and the registration of all vehicles of the owner will be suspended as required by the act.

The suspension will remain in effect for one year from the date of the traffic accident provided no civil suit for damages has been filed against the vehicle owner or driver. If a legal suit has been filed, the suspensions will remain in effect until the case is tried.

Should a judgment for damages be rendered against the driver and-or owner, the suspension will remain effective unless the judgment is satisfied. If he does not satisfy the judgment within 60 days, he will be faced with the additional demand to show proof of future financial responsibility with the Texas DPS.

This proof may be shown by (1) obtaining the proper liability insurance, (2) depositing $15,000 in securities with the State Treasurer, (3) filing with the department a real estate bond signed by two persons, each owning real estate valued at $15,000 and free of encumbrances. This proof must be maintained for three years from the date required.

YOUR MINISTER SAYS

By Rev. Luther Roehrs

"He ascended into Heaven"—thus the Christian Church from its earliest history confesses its faith in the incident that took place 40 days after that first Easter when Jesus Christ, the only-begotten Son of God, rose victoriously from the tomb, and with this act showed that the sins of the world—of yours and mine against the holy God—had been paid for. Yes, God forgives sins for Christ's sake, to YOU.

But is this, that Jesus ascended into heaven, meaningful for you and me, living in this scientific age of 1958—this age in which we are able to drive cars down the highway to great speeds, in which we are able to zoom through the air swifter than the speed of sound, in which we are able to place man-made moons into the heavens? What can something which happened more than 1,900 years ago mean to us today?

Here is Jesus' answer: "It is expedient for you that I go away; for if I do not go away, the Comforter will not come unto you; but if I depart, I will send him unto you." (John 16:7). Jesus says that it was expedient, necessary, essential that He go away, go back to heaven, that the Comforter, the Holy Spirit, could come to us. And how we today need comfort, heavenly, divine comfort! We need it especially in this our age when there is so much world tension, social tension, family tension. And the Comforter has come—you will find Him active in the pages of your Bible as you read it in your private life and family circle and hear it taught and proclaimed in your Church. The Comforter is here for you; He is ready to help; USE HIM BY LISTENING!

Though Jesus has ascended back to heaven from where He came, He is still with us. Yes, that's true for He says: "Lo, I am with you always, even unto the end of the world." Matt. 28:20). This, too, is a comfort for all of us to know that Jesus, Who lived and died and rose again for our sins IS WITH US. But this is also a warning, a reminder which we should remember each and every moment of our lives—that Jesus, Who is our Savior because He died for us IS WITH US and watches our every act, knows our every thought and hears our every word. Yes, He Ascended into Heaven, but Is Always With Us!

A FREE PRESS... and CENSORSHIP

America is at peace. While we have men in uniform stationed over the world, we are not at war. In every way, we are working to preserve our peaceful relations with other peoples whose ideologies and aspirations differ from ours.

Figuring largely in that huge undertaking is America's Free Press. Even during the peaceful years, it has become necessary that certain information regarding discoveries and inventions be protected. Security has become big business.

"Keep this out of the newspaper," are fighting words to any newspaper editor who is a conscientious craftsman. Yet editors of all newspapers, large and small, realize the responsibilities facing them, to help preserve the securities that are so important to all of us.

Government, the military, and the scientific fields, receive full cooperation from the men and women who, by training, are accustomed to dig out and know the news... and who, by instinct, strive to keep the people fully informed.

Americans have a right to expect that full freedom of the press be preserved, within the bounds drawn by these securities.

For a completely free press is the only safe foundation on which government of the people can build all other freedoms.

AUTO - LIFE - TRUCK - FIRE - BUSINESS — ALL your insurance needs

DEAR FRIEND

Some people are under the impression that FARMERS INSURANCE GROUP is a mutual company. We are not a mutual company. All our policies are non-assessable, National Standard policies. Our rating is A Plus: AAAAA, the highest rating obtainable in Best's Insurance Guide. This company's assets are well over $192,000,000 with over $64,000,000 surplus. Is it any wonder that we are the largest writer of auto and truck insurance West of the Mississippi? Farmers Insurance Group has an unexcelled record, among all insurance companies, for the fastest, fairest possible payments of claims.

Has it ever occurred to you that you are paying as much for your automobile insurance as the reckless drive does? From the multitude of car owners in this vicinity, we have selected only those whom we consider careful drivers.

By insuring careful risks only, FARMERS INSURANCE GROUP have fewer claims to pay; so naturally they can pass the savings on to you in dividends. Currently we are paying a substantial dividend on auto and truck insurance. We have a 30% rate discount on fire insurance.

Before you renew your present policy, come by my office and I will be glad to quote you our rates, or phone 25151 or 25341, and I will come by to see you. Join the more than 2,000,000 policyholders we now have and cash in on some of these dividend savings.

Hoping to see you soon, I am,

Very truly yours,

Devil's River Philosopher Wants Scientists To Turn Efforts To Leaky Faucets, Dent-Proof Cars

Editor's Note: The Devil's River Philosopher on his bitter-weeds ranch on Devil's River assigns the scientific mind some old problems, his letter this week reveals.

Dear editor:

I know everybody is supposed to be concentrating all his efforts these days on keeping up with Russia in guided missiles and space exploration, but the way I see it is, even if we make a landing on the moon and open up a lot more planets for occupation, somebody is going to have to stay on this earth, and I've been thinking.

We don't want to get so busy we neglect life around here, and I would like to propose a few problems for the scientific minds to tackle.

For example, up to now, the scientific mind, with all its vast accomplishments, has never been able to permanently stop a leaky faucet. They can stop one from leaking temporarily, but sooner or later it'll start leaking again.
What I'd like to propose to the world of science is a rubber washer that'll last a lifetime, or else throw out the whole washer idea and invent a hydrant that works without one.

Also, while I have given up expecting the automobile industry to build a car that'll last a lifetime, if I was in the business I wouldn't be interested either, you don't catch me urging anybody to invent a cow that'll supply meat to one family forever, still I would like to see the scientific mind perfect a tail pipe that'll last at least four years, certainly longer than one or two.

Another thing the scientifimind ought to be turning its attention to is a wrinkle-proof car fender. If they can do it with shirts and pants, why can't they do it with car fenders?

I could go on listing a lot of other things, but you are as familiar with them as I am. I'm in favor of the schools turning out more scientists, but not just scientists to work on satellites and guided missiles. What we need is a great body of scientific brains tackling the every day problems.

I still contend there's nothing more ridiculous than a space scientist, just after launching a new satellite, having to come home to a leaky faucet and a bill for straightening out a car fender his wife has just dented because somebody apparently narrowed the garage door during the night.

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

Neighbors help us to live longer and enjoy it more

Most of the comforts and conveniences that we enjoy today are accessible to us more or less in proportion to the number of people who live near us.

Schools, churches, doctors, electric power, stocks of foods, medicines, and clothing, trained technicians to service our needs, customers for the products of our own labor . . . all of these are ours to enjoy . . . as long as there are enough PEOPLE in the community to support them.

Every dollar that leaves this community helps to move somebody out. Every dollar that is spent here, helps to bring more people in.

O. C. Fisher Writes From Washington

By Congressman O. C. Fisher

LAMPASAS HIGH SCHOOL got nation-wide attention the other day when it was chosen among the 36 schools in the country for major awards by the American Freedom Foundation because of that school's special program to prepare youth for citizenship, loyal to the principles on which the American Way of Life was built.

P. V. Patrick, a Lampasas teacher, and Don Wykes, a high school student, received the award in a three-day visit to Valley Forge during which the ceremony was held. It was a most commendable achievement.

EDWARDS COUNTY is commemorating its historic past and its centennial. Created in 1858 that county was organized in 1883. In a recent special edition of that county's newspaper, The Texas Mohair Weekly, the editor traces the history of that ranching area, beginning with the Canyon Missions some 200 years ago. Replete with Indian raids and frontier skirmishes, the county story is a tribute to the pioneering men and women who braved the frontier and built homes in the face of danger and adversity.

LLANO COUNTY is the site chosen by Civil Aeronautics engineers for a high frequency omni-directional radio range, to be built soon 8 miles west of Llano on Highway 734. This will be one of 500 similar small igloo-like installations over the nation and will enable pilots to fly a true direction at all times. A little later an addition will be made which will send up distance-measuring signals that will tell pilots just how far he is from any given point. This brings close to home an example of amazing electronic achievements.

Be Afraid Of That Power Mower, It's Safer That Way

"Power mowers are a real boon to father's back, but if they are improperly handled they can be more of a hazard than a help."

J. O. Musick, general manager of the Texas Safety Association made the above statement today as he warned Texans to take extra common sense precautions in handling power mowers and edgers.

"Such power tools have not been in use long enough," he said, "for us to have any accurate accident data, but we do know that thousands of persons are injured, and several hundred killed, each year as a result of unsafe handling of power lawn tools."

Musick offered the following 12 safety suggestions as an aid to reducing hazards to a minimum when working with power law equipment:

1. Never permit pre-teenage children to operate any kind of power mower, edger or clipper.
2. Know how to throw mower out of gear quickly.
3. Know how to stop engine or motor immediately.
4. Allow for gas expansion when filling tank and be sure engine is turned off and cool before refueling.
5. Use approved fuels and store them in safe containers.
6. Clear yard of debris before mowing; i.e., sticks, bones, rocks, etc.
7. When starting mower, maintain your balance and have solid footing.
8. Do not allow pets, children or other bystanders near mower during operation. This will prevent their injury by objects thrown from the mower blades.
9. If using an electric mower, be sure motor is grounded and wiring is in perfect condition. NEVER mow when grass is wet.
10. Maintain firm control of mower. Mow hills sideways—not up and down.
11. Disconnect spark plug, or electric plug, before working on mower's parts or while oiling. Always keep hands away from blades or other moving parts if possible.
12. Be AFRAID of all power mowers and other tools—you are not as apt to become careless.

A Tribute

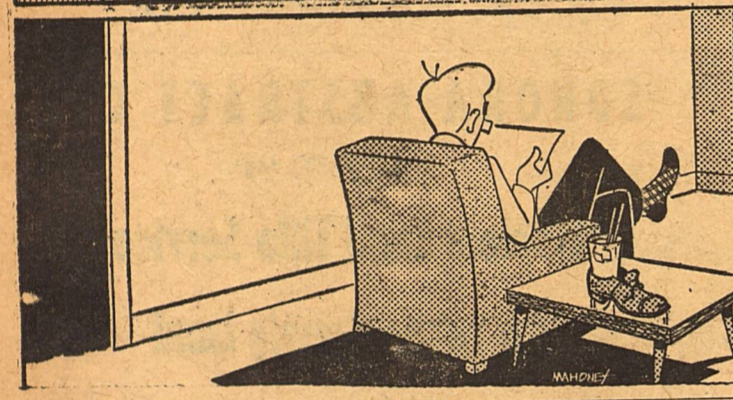

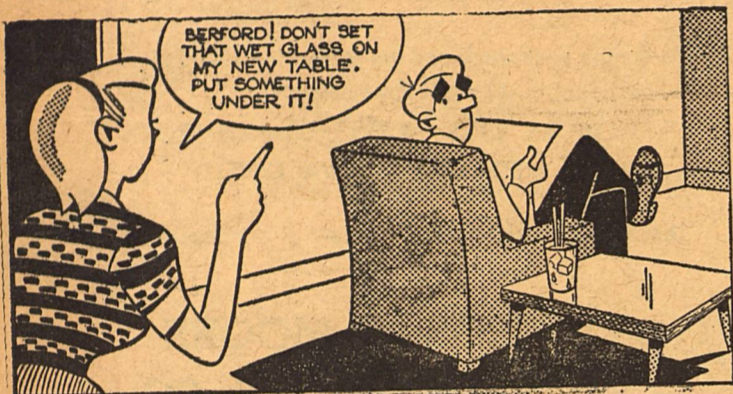

To Our Lawyers!

The astute lawyer is a philosopher as well as a humanitarian. Your troubles are his troubles. He knows people. He understands character. He is kindly and considerate. On occasion he can be a firebrand, but always in the defense of the client whom he believes in the right. Poring over huge legalistic tomes or sincerely defending you in court, he is truly your friend and counselor against the unjust and avaricious: In this community our excellent lawyers stand as a bulwark against inefficient government. Civic pride and betterment are their goals. We salute them today for their magnificent achievements!

Boys Ranch Reaches New High In Enrollment

Boys Ranch reached a record 43 enrollment this week and prompted serious planning to expand its capacity, according to Morris Craig, executive director. The Ranch, wholly dependent on contribution, has a 44-boy capacity at present, Craig said. The expansion to 65 would require one extra staff member, he said. There are now eight staffers on the ranch.

One of the ranch boys, who attended San Angelo High School will be graduated from Crane High School this spring. Special arrangements were made to let the boy complete his high school education at Crane, his home town, Craig said. The boy plans to study law at Texas Tech Lubbock, next year, he said.

"Boys Ranch is not a reformatory or orphanage," Craig said, "but offer a constructive program on a preventive basis." "Only a small percentage of our boys have had any contact with courts," he said, "and the few who have were first offenses."

Craig said the ranch hopes to ultimately reach 100 spaces for West Texas boys. He said all are from West Texas with one exception, a boy from Tyler. Expanding to 100 would necessitate a new dormitory, additional staff members and an increased budget. The present annual budget is $78,000.

Booster clubs aid the ranch in raising funds, Craig said. Two are now being organized in Midland and Odessa, he said and the ranch hopes to organize one in San Angelo in the near future. Clubs are now active in Ozona Snyder, and Big Spring, he said. He said the club's primary responsibility and goal is to help improve the ranch's program. The clubs take an active part in the overall planning. "The ranch was built for and by West Texans," he said, "and so we feel that West Texans want to participate in the planning and support of the ranch."

Recent visitors to Sonora include Bill Shurley of Marfa flying a Tri-Pacer, Dick Nolan and companion of Greeley, Colorado, flying an Ercoupe and Mooney. G. M. McFadden of San Marcos flying a Navion. Jack Frost of Seminole, Texas spent two days spraying in Sutton County in a Piper Super Cub.

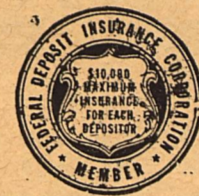

One of our favorite poems is one by a fellow country man from Canada, John Gillespie Magee, Jr. He wrote it back in pre World War II but it still stands as the "Airman's Creed" and is appropriately named "High Flight".

HIGHT FLIGHT

By John Gillespie Magee, Jr
Oh, I have slipped the surly bonds of earth
And danced the skies on laughter-silvered wings;
Sunward I've climbed, and joined the tumbling mirth
You have not dreamed of—wheeled and soared and swung High in the sunlit silence.
Hov'ring there,
I've chased the shouting wind along, and flung
My eager craft through footless halls of air.
Up, up the long, delirious, burning blue
I've topped the windswept heights with easy grace
