Ranchmen Urged To Attend Brucellosis Meeting October 26

All owners of cattle in Sutton County are urged to attend a Brucellosis meeting at 7:30 p.m. Monday, October 26, 1959 at the Central Elementary School auditorium.

Dr. C. M. Patterson, Extension Veterinarian, will be on hand to discuss with ranchers the new Texas Brucellosis Law, which is designed to let each county decide what approach it will take to the Brucellosis problem. It is also hoped that Dr. James Henderson, State Veterinarian, will be able to attend the meeting, since he has a first hand knowledge of the Brucellosis testing that was done in the Davis Mountain area.

If you own cattle and are interested in the Brucellosis problem, please make plans to attend this meeting so that you can formulate your own opinion concerning the problem and if you desire, express your opinion. Ralph Mayer and James Hunt, chairman and vice-chairman of the Sonora Chamber of Commerce Agriculture Committee, will be in charge of the meeting.

Weather Brings End To Street Paving

A paving program inaugurated by the City a few weeks ago is coming to an end this week, beating the weather deadline. Nine and one half blocks are being topped at this time and curb and gutter is being completed on several more blocks, preparing for a spring paving program.

The paving being finished now consists of 3 1/2 blocks on Iva and Manor Streets, four blocks in the Latin-American section and two blocks in south Sonora. The curb and gutter work is being done by Wallace, who is becoming a citizen of Sonora, the base work is being done by the City crew and the topping by Strain Bros.

It is agreed that nothing adds to the attractiveness of a town as does paving, hence the large paving program planned for Sonora next spring. A paving program must originate with the property owners and several block groups are now organizing.

Water Works Progress

Another City project is beating the weather deadline also, that of the water storage and distribution program. The 400,000 gallon storage reservoir on the Clarkson Hill is 85% complete and the distribution system is about 95% complete, estimates R. M. McCarver, Utility Manager. The new distribution system calls for 18 inch main from the storage tank feeding 14 inch laterals. This program calls for a new 6 inch main to the Cemetery which has been installed.

The new water well, East of the Boy Scout Hall, is to be activated upon completion of the new reservoir. It has been equipped with a 75 hp. electric motor and a pump staged for 500 gallons per minute. The entire water system will be integrated to maintain equalized pressure.

Other Improvements

The City of Sonora has recently purchased a MM tractor, an Austin street sweeper with spray attachment and a roto-mower. Commissioner Hightower, Commissioner Copeland, at that time, and Manager McCarver recently visited San Antonio where they saw various makes and models of machinery in action. They selected those that seem to be doing the best jobs.

Two other activities are going on at the City Hall. The evaluation program is progressing nicely. This is a joint program by the City, the County and the School District. Then the annual audit is in progress at this time. Rodgers, Chorpene and Jungmann of San Antonio are conducting the audit.

Permanent water can stand to the top of the automatic drawdown tube inlet (center, right), and will cover 10 acres with 46 acre feet of water. The fenced structure will be mulched with hay and seeded to grass next spring. The structure was built by R. L. McQuatters, superintendent for Cage Bros., at a contract cost of $47,547.

Lions Take 44-6 Win Over Broncos Friday

The game started off great for the Broncos. Ben Castillo took the opening kickoff and raced 95 yards for a touchdown. Everything would have been great but the Ozona Lions rallied and maneuvered three touchdowns before the first quarter was over and then went for another one in the second quarter, making the halftime score 26-6.

The Lions scored twice in the third quarter and once in the final quarter and left the game with a victorious 44-6 win over the Broncos.

Detailed engineering plans on flood prevention structures No. 5 and No. 6, located on the ranch owned by Mrs. Pearl Martin, were received this week by Judge J. W. Elliott. As soon as the bid specifications can be prepared by County Clerk F. L. McKinney and staff, prospective bidders will be notified. The bids will be opened in approximately 30 days.

Bids for construction of a dam at Site 7 on the Ben F. Meckel ranch, and at Site 8 on the G. H. Davis-E. M. deBerry ranches, will be opened November 4.

The contract for construction of a large dam on the Homer Byrd ranch and a small dam on the Ben Mittel ranch is expected to be awarded early in December.

Construction of these six dams on Dry Devil's River were made possible when all easements were obtained before June 30, 1959, and the Soil Conservation Service allocated an additional $600,000 to the project. Completion of the six structures is therefore expected to be about two to four years ahead of the original schedule.

The remaining two of eight structures planned on Dry Devil's River are expected to be contracted in May, 1960. These two contracts will cover large structures located on the R. D. Johnson ranch in Schleicher County and on the Ben Mittel ranch.

During the recent 5 to 7 inch rain at Ozona, Site 7 on Gurley Draw was credited with preventing considerable flood damage in south Ozona. The structure caught about 650 acre feet of floodwater, allowing it to drain slowly through the automatic drawdown tube.

Following a week of wet weather, construction work on flood prevention dams on Lowrey Draw was resumed. Ford Allen will practically complete Site 12 on the W. A. Miers ranch within 10 days of good weather, and will then resume operations on Site 13 near the hospital. Reg. McQuatters, superintendent for Cage Bros., should be nearing completion of Site 10 on the Ada Wynn ranch in 30 days, and Site 9 on the James and Nancy Hunt ranch is complete except for fencing.

The deep core trench on Site 11 on the W. A. Miers ranch has filled twice with runoff water in recent weeks and had to be pumped out and cleaned. Core filling operations should be resumed within the next day or so.

The original application for flood prevention work on Dry Devil's River and Lowrey Draw was submitted on July 18, 1956, by the Edwards Plateau SCB board of supervisors. The preliminary work progressed step by step, and was completed in June, 1959, assuring protection from both Dry Devil's River and Lowrey Draw. Splendid cooperation and interest by landowners, county and city officials, oil and gas companies, and our neighbors in Schleicher County enabled the project to move forward to the construction stage. When other projects in Texas and other states failed to complete easements by June 30, Sonora could well become the first city in the U. S. with extreme flood potential to obtain flood protection without first experiencing a devastating flood.

Game Violators Now To Be Tried In County Court

All future game violation cases, involving the forfeiture of hunting or fishing licenses, will be filed in county court, according to H. D. Dodgen, executive secretary of the Game and Fish Commission.

The higher courts have held that a justice of the peace is without jurisdiction to try prosecution wherein money, penalty and option or forfeiture of license are both involved. Accordingly, instructions have gone out to all wardens to take these cases to county court.

Cases still may be filed in justice court where no license is involved, such as an arrest for fishing with a rod and reel in a home county without a license.

Several counties in Texas already have been filing cases

Russia's Space Work To Fall Off As Installment Buying Increases

WEATHER BRINGS END TO STREET PAVING

Free Deer Hunts Announced By Game Commission

Persons interested in a free deer hunt on the game management areas of the Game and Fish Commission this year are asked to write to the Austin office for application blanks. The names of the lucky hunters will be drawn from the hat Friday, October 30, under county court law, according to the director.

Editor's Note: The Devil's River Philosopher on his bitter-weed ranch on Devil's River believes he has discovered a fatal error by the Russians, his letter this week indicates.

Dear editor: I've got other things to worry about which I haven't gotten around to worrying about yet, without spending too much time worrying about the Russians, but since everybody else seems to be concerned about them and what they're up to, I think it would be a public service to point out anything we can find that indicates the Russians aren't perfect and a race of supermen.

Well, I have now found a chink in the Russian armor, or a break in their bobwire fence, if you want to put it in modern terms.

According to a small item on an inside page of a newspaper I read last night, sort of one of those items a newspaper fills up with to have something to go around the advertisements, the Russians have now inaugurated installment buying. They can now go into a store and pay 10 per cent down and come out with a refrigerator.

As far as I'm concerned, this is one of the most satisfying news items to come out of Russia in years, and a smarter editor would have put it on the front page.

I figure installment buying will slow down the Russian outer-space work and the Russian war maneuvering by years, as one of the hardest things on earth to do is to get excited about what's on the other side of the moon when the finance company is hounding you for a payment on your washing machine.

If the United States is smart about this, it'll rush a squadron of credit managers and super-salesmen over to Russia right away and get everybody over there trying to out-buy and out-install everybody else.

You let two-thirds of the Russians get saddled down with a long series of installment payments, and we'll be on even terms with them when it comes to conquering space.

It's almost impossible to keep your head in the clouds when you've got your nose to the grindstone.

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

If convenient, you may contact that office any day; however Ellington advises that Neil Tarvin, field representative from the San Angelo District Office will be in County Judge's Office, at Sonora on November 13 from 9:30 a.m. to 11:00 a.m. to answer questions or assist anyone in filing application for retirement, survivors, or disability insurance benefits.

After Frost Watch For Prussic Acid

Johnsongrass or sorghum after a frost is sometimes extremely high in prussic acid content and is very dangerous to livestock, warns Dr. C. M. Patterson, extension veterinarian.

Certain chemical changes sometimes occur in the plant and it develops a content of prussic acid, or hydrocyanic acid when wilted by frost or drouth, he explains. The poison acts quickly and can kill an animal within a short time after the damaged plant is eaten.

An appearance of nervousness, difficult breathing and difficulty in standing are symptoms of the poisoning. Whether a poisoned animal can be saved depends upon how quickly a veterinarian can get to it. Treatment involves injecting antidotes directly into the blood stream.

Young plants will develop more prussic acid after frost or drouth than those approaching maturity, points out the veterinarian. Their leaves will contain from 3 to 25 times more acid than leaves of plants in the boot stage. Also, upper, younger leaves will contain more acid than lower leaves.

Dr. Patterson cautions against grazing frosted Johnsongrass or sorghum before it is completely dry. If Johnsongrass or sorghum is ready to cut for hay before a frost, it may be cut the first day after the frost, if care is taken to see that it is completely cured before baling.

It may also be used for silage, he added. Generally, enough prussic acid is lost in gaseous form during the ensiling process and as the silage is removed and fed to make it safe for livestock. However, animals shouldn't be allowed to self-feed from a silo filled with frosted sudan or sorghum. If the silage is questionable it should be chemically tested by a local veterinarian or by letting one or two inferior animals eat it.

NOTICE

622,534-plus Texas—more persons than live in Dallas—suffered accidental injuries during the past year, according to the Texas Safety Association.

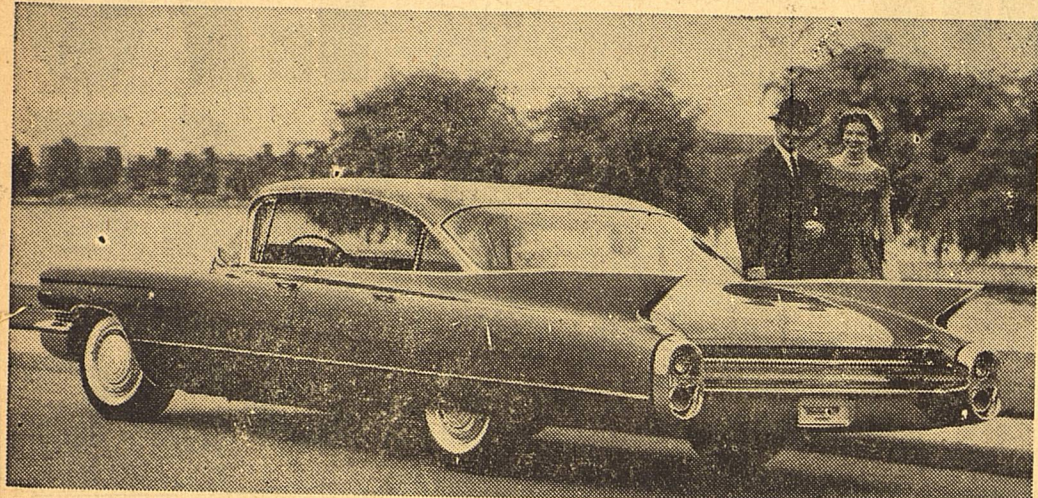

Among these injuries, the Association reports more than 70,000 persons were injured in home accidents. That is roughly the population of Abilene or Midland.

TSA also notes that as many persons as live in Austin were injured while at work in 1958. And more Texans suffered injuries in auto accidents than live in Amarillo, Waco or Beaumont.

Furthermore, the cost of all Texas' accidents, for 1958, exceeds $445-million, or approximately $49.50 for every man, woman and child in the Lone Star State.

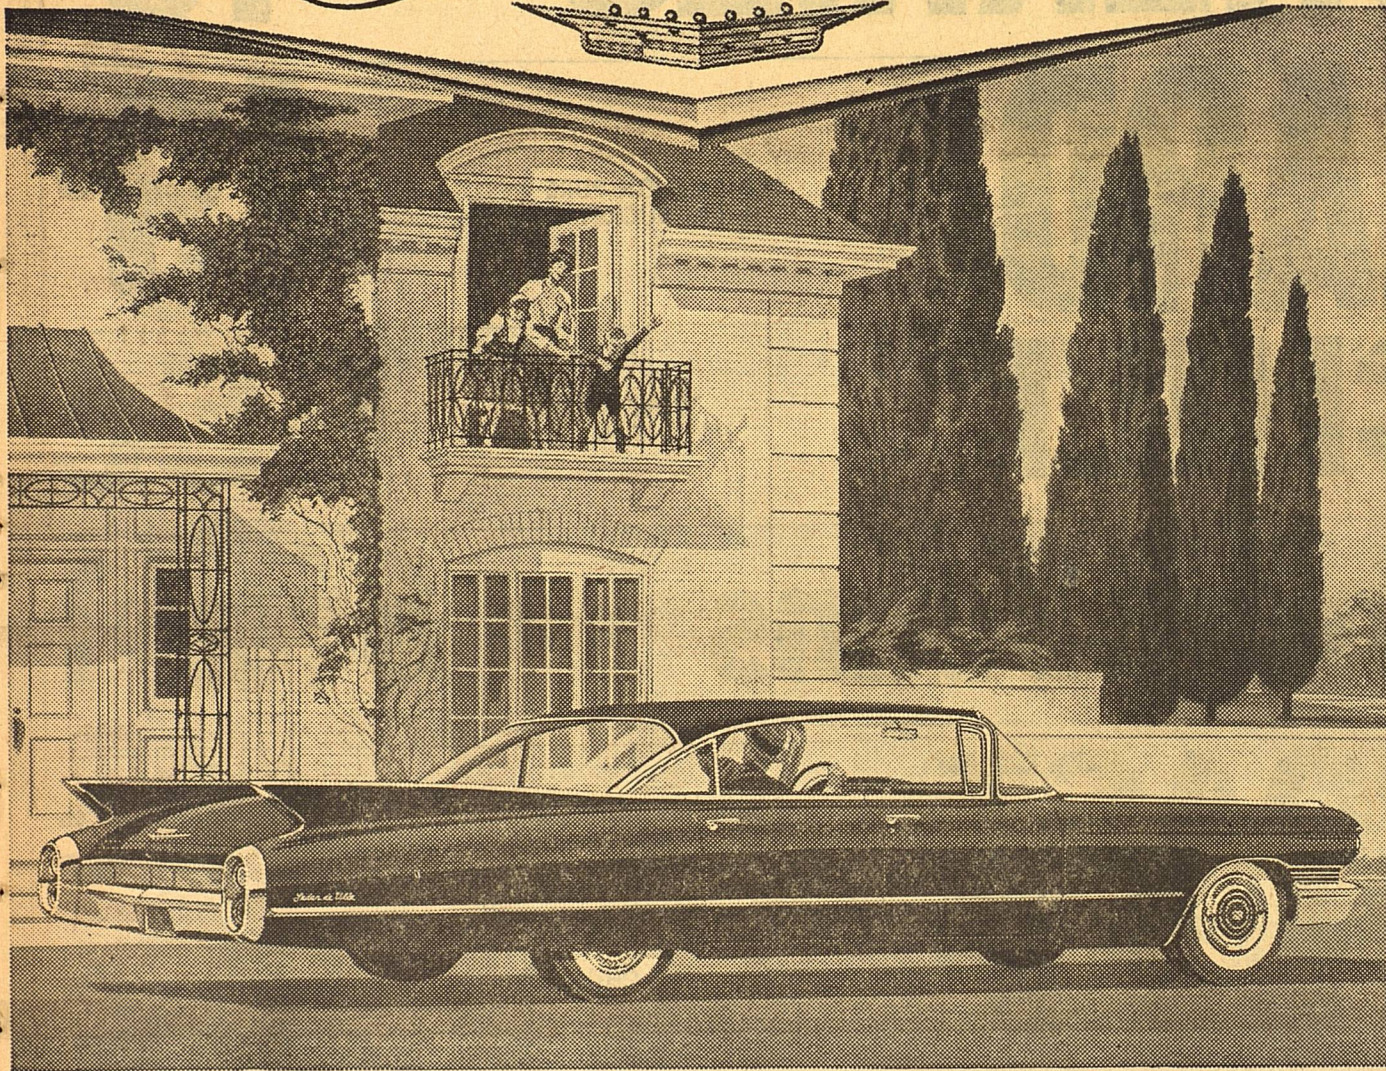

Pat Thompson, who is attending San Angelo College, was recently home visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Thompson.

Mrs. Oliver Rose, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lee McLaury, left last Friday for Germany where she will join her husband in Bamberg.

The sweeping elegance of the newly created silhouette of the Series Sixty-Two six-window Sedan typifies the handsome lines and simplicity of design of the 1960 Cadillac. The popular six-window Sedan features all of the advanced engineering and design characteristics of the new models.

group of three Delaine ewe lambs, 3rd and 5th place Delaine ram lambs, 3rd place group of three Delaine ram lambs and 1st place lamb flock. Ray exhibited his sheep in the junior sheep show and reports that the competition was unusually stiff. Tom Glasscock chose to show in the adult division of the Rambouillet Sheep Show at the State Fair and made an excellent showing against many veteran showmen. Tom placed 5th in the Rambouillet Yearling Ram Class, 9th and 10th in the Rambouillet Ram Lamb Class, 4th in the pen of three ram lambs, 6th and 10th in the yearling ewe class, 8th and 9th in the ewe lambs and 4th in the pen of three ewe lambs and 4th in the exhibitors flock class. Site 11, on the W. A. Miers ranch 3 miles north of Sonora, showing the excavated core trench. This trench, dug 20 feet deep to insure a solid foundation for the dam and to reduce seepage, has filled twice from runoff water during the past 10 days. Three pumps can be seen draining the trench when the photo was taken. Site 11 will control floodwater from 17 sections of rangeland, and will detain 5,189 acre feet at emergency spillway level. The dam will be 47 feet high and contain 347,680 cubic yards of earth and rock fill. A 250 foot rock spillway can be seen in the background, and a 150 foot spillway will be constructed on the south end of the dam. Contract cost is $226,200 and R. L. McQuatters is building the structure for Cage Bros.

Site 12, on the W. A. Miers ranch near the Texas New Mexico Pipeline Station, lacks approximately 10 feet of its 35 foot height. Controlling floodwater from 4.38 square miles, this dam will hold 1,157 acre feet at emergency spillway level. Both sides of the structure will be blanketed with rock from the 150 foot rock spillway. Ford Allen is building this dam, and the contract cost is $73,664. It is expected to be completed in approximately two weeks.

Site 13, on land owned by Bryan Hunt and George H. Neill, is shown holding some water at this early stage of construction. Note hospital in background. Ford Allen is the contractor, and contract cost is $45,206. Construction will be resumed in about two weeks, and the dam should be completed rapidly. Though Site 13 is on a small watershed (700 acres) a 10 to 20 inch rain could cause heavy damage to homes below. In addition, the construction of this dam helped get sufficient flood control to eliminate the necessity of widening Lowrey Draw through Sonora, which would have been much more expensive.

RAILROAD FEATHERBEDDING:
$500,000,000 LOSS TO THE NATION—INCLUDING YOU—EVERY YEAR

Featherbedding on the railroads — pay for work not done or not needed — is costing the American people the shocking total of more than $500,000,000 a year.

You pay for it every time you shop, because featherbedding costs are hidden in the price of everything you buy.

Obsolete union work rules, involving the railroad operating employees, are responsible for this gigantic burden. Right now, for instance, these rules require every diesel locomotive to carry a fireman — even though diesels have no fires to stoke, no boilers to tend.

The forthcoming negotiations between the railroads and the unions are urgently important to the whole nation.

In asking the unions to drop these featherbedding rules, all the railroads ask for is a fair day's work for a fair day's pay.

PRISON RODEO STAR— Steve McQueen, one of the nation's fastest rising television stars, will make a personal appearance at the 28th Annual Texas Prison Rodeo as an added attraction for the world's best known entertainment feature. McQueen presently stars in "Wanted—Dead or Alive." He will be one of the stars at the Sunday, Oct. 18 performance of the rodeo. As usual, there will be a host of convict riders fighting prison-produced rodeo stock. Net proceeds from ticket sales aid 12,000 inmates of the Texas Department of Corrections.

PRISON RODEO STAR— Johnny Horton, whose recording of "The Battle of New Orleans," skyrocketed his fame all over the nation, will make a personal benefit appearance at the Texas Prison Rodeo in Huntsville on Sunday, Oct. 18. Horton, along with convict riders and entertainers are just part of the bill of fare offered during the thrilling two-hour show. The rodeo is held each Sunday in October in the prison's $1 million stadium. Because of the rodeo, nearly 12,000 inmates of the penal system receive a number of services—such as education, recreation, spiritual guidance and other important services.

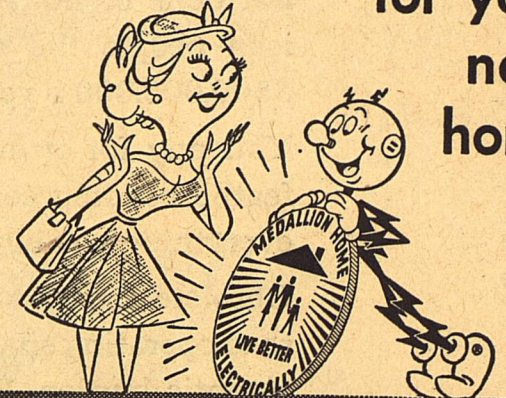

PRISON RODEO STAR— Dale Robertson of TV's popular series, "Tales of Wells Fargo," returns to Huntsville on Sunday, October 11 to present a special show for the 28th Annual Texas Prison Rodeo. Robertson was one of the stars of the 1958 rodeo series which attracted upwards of 100,000 persons for the four Sunday performances. In addition to top TV and recording stars, the rodeo features convict riders who match wits with prison rodeo stock. The prison rodeo earns funds which are earmarked to give inmates rehabilitative services not supplied by the State Legislature.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE COMMENTS

FALL- October is indeed a wonderful month, especially with the ground wet, the grass green, the skies clear and a chill in the air. October brings different reaction in the minds of men.

Some head West looking for a bear, some live it up at football games, some give old Betsy a good greasing but as for us, it makes us wonder where our summer wages went. We have never seen a prettier October than that of '59.

BOOSTERS- This organization is sponsoring the annual football banquet, late in November. We are asking each fan to buy two tickets, one for himself and one for a football player. A fan, in our books, is one who is a booster for his team, win or lose. This will be a chance to show who are the real fans.

ALL SHOOK UP Sonora is again a divided town. We remember when Sonora was divided between those who had rubber tired buggies and those who didn't. Then we divided later between those who had cars with self starters and those who had to crank. Much later we were divided, between those who washed their own Cadillac and those who had their Cadillacs washed. And now we are divided again between those whose house is numbered and those whose ain't. So, to erase this division among our citizens, please go to the Sonora Gas Co. and arrange for a number for your casa. Just that simple.

NOTICE RANCHMEN: If you haven't listed your livestock sprayer with us, do so at once for the grass fire hazard is still with us, come frost.

IDIOTS- When voting time comes in 1960 we hope Sutton County has few idiots. The word "Idiot" comes from the Greek work "Idiotes" which means "citizens who take no part in public voting."

So to be sure you are not an idiot pay your Poll Tax now. 1960 promises to be the most razzle-dazzle election year in history; city elections, the county, the district, the state and the nation. Be prepared, Pay Your Poll Tax Now.

NOTICE to Hub Hale and Speck McClelland, you can now legally keep all bass caught, regardless of length. Heretofore, it is reported, these fishermen threw back everything under 15 inches, just to be sure.

One fisherman explained, "fishing does man lots of good and seldom harm to the fish."

Captain Morris Nethery of Junction, Commanding Officer of Troop B, Army Reserve, was here this week working with the local troop. Troop B is a split troop between Sonora and Junction. Capt. Nethery implies that Sonora needs more members in its unit.

We are wondering if the American people and particularly the Sonora people fully appreciate the program and purposes of the Army Reserve. We hope they never have to find out the hard way but should this happen they will find the members of this group prepared to defend their home and their country. Terribly important, their training program.

CALENDAR- At our last directors meeting of the Sonora Chamber of Commerce it was suggested that we organize a calendar of community events that conflicts might be avoided in scheduling activities. We are willing.

And speaking of events, the 4-H Club field day at the C. T. Jones ranch scheduled for next Saturday, the 24th has been changed to Nov. 7, too much Circus this weekend and to much Halloween Carnival the next.

HAWK EYES—Looking for out of this world like a BEM ("Bug-Eyed-Monster" of science-fiction), this radar used in the modern Army's HAWK (Homing-All-the-Way-Killer) missile system gives the missile its outstanding ability to hunt and destroy low-flying attackers even at tree-top level. The radar automatically tracks the target, ignoring unwanted reflections from stationary objects such as trees, hills and buildings.
