YOUR MINISTER SAYS

By Rev. Alanson Brown
Saturday is Halloween or the eve of All Hallow's Day otherwise known as All Saints Day. This season of the year is most notable for the carnival air of the evening of October 31, Halloween.

Some experts say that this carnival spirit has been associated with this day for many years and is pre-Christian. November first was the feast of the Druid god Saman, the Lord of death. On this day he called up the souls of all the dead. As the day began at midnight people accepted the idea that the souls of the dead would begin to appear at that time. Thus a custom arose of gathering together in groups for mutual aid and comfort on this ghost filled night.

Being together naturally called for celebration, so why not make the best of the opportunity? Also there have always been practical jokes and certainly this was a perfect opportunity for such to practice their talents and then blame the spirits who were supposedly frolicking on the village green.

Early in Christian history there had been observed a day to commemorate the holy ones of all ages whose names are known only to the Almighty. In around 834 A.D. November 1 was designated as the Feast of All Saints in the Holy Roman Empire and has been observed on this day since that time. Therefore there seems to have been no particular relation originally between the pranks of Halloween and the Feast of All Saints. We are no longer superstitious people; therefore we can do away with the idea of ghosts and goblins and at the same time enjoy a safe and sane celebration of this evening before All Saints Day.

GIVE THANKS

America is a praying nation. Founded and built on the right to freedom of worship, we go to God in prayer and thank Him for the freedoms we have in this land.

We pray for peace. We ask for strength to meet the challenges of the day. We give thanks for our abundance.

While humble in prayer, we must remain strong. You can be a partner in maintaining this strength by investing in U.S. Savings Bonds. They now pay 3 3/4% interest when held to maturity, the highest rate in history.

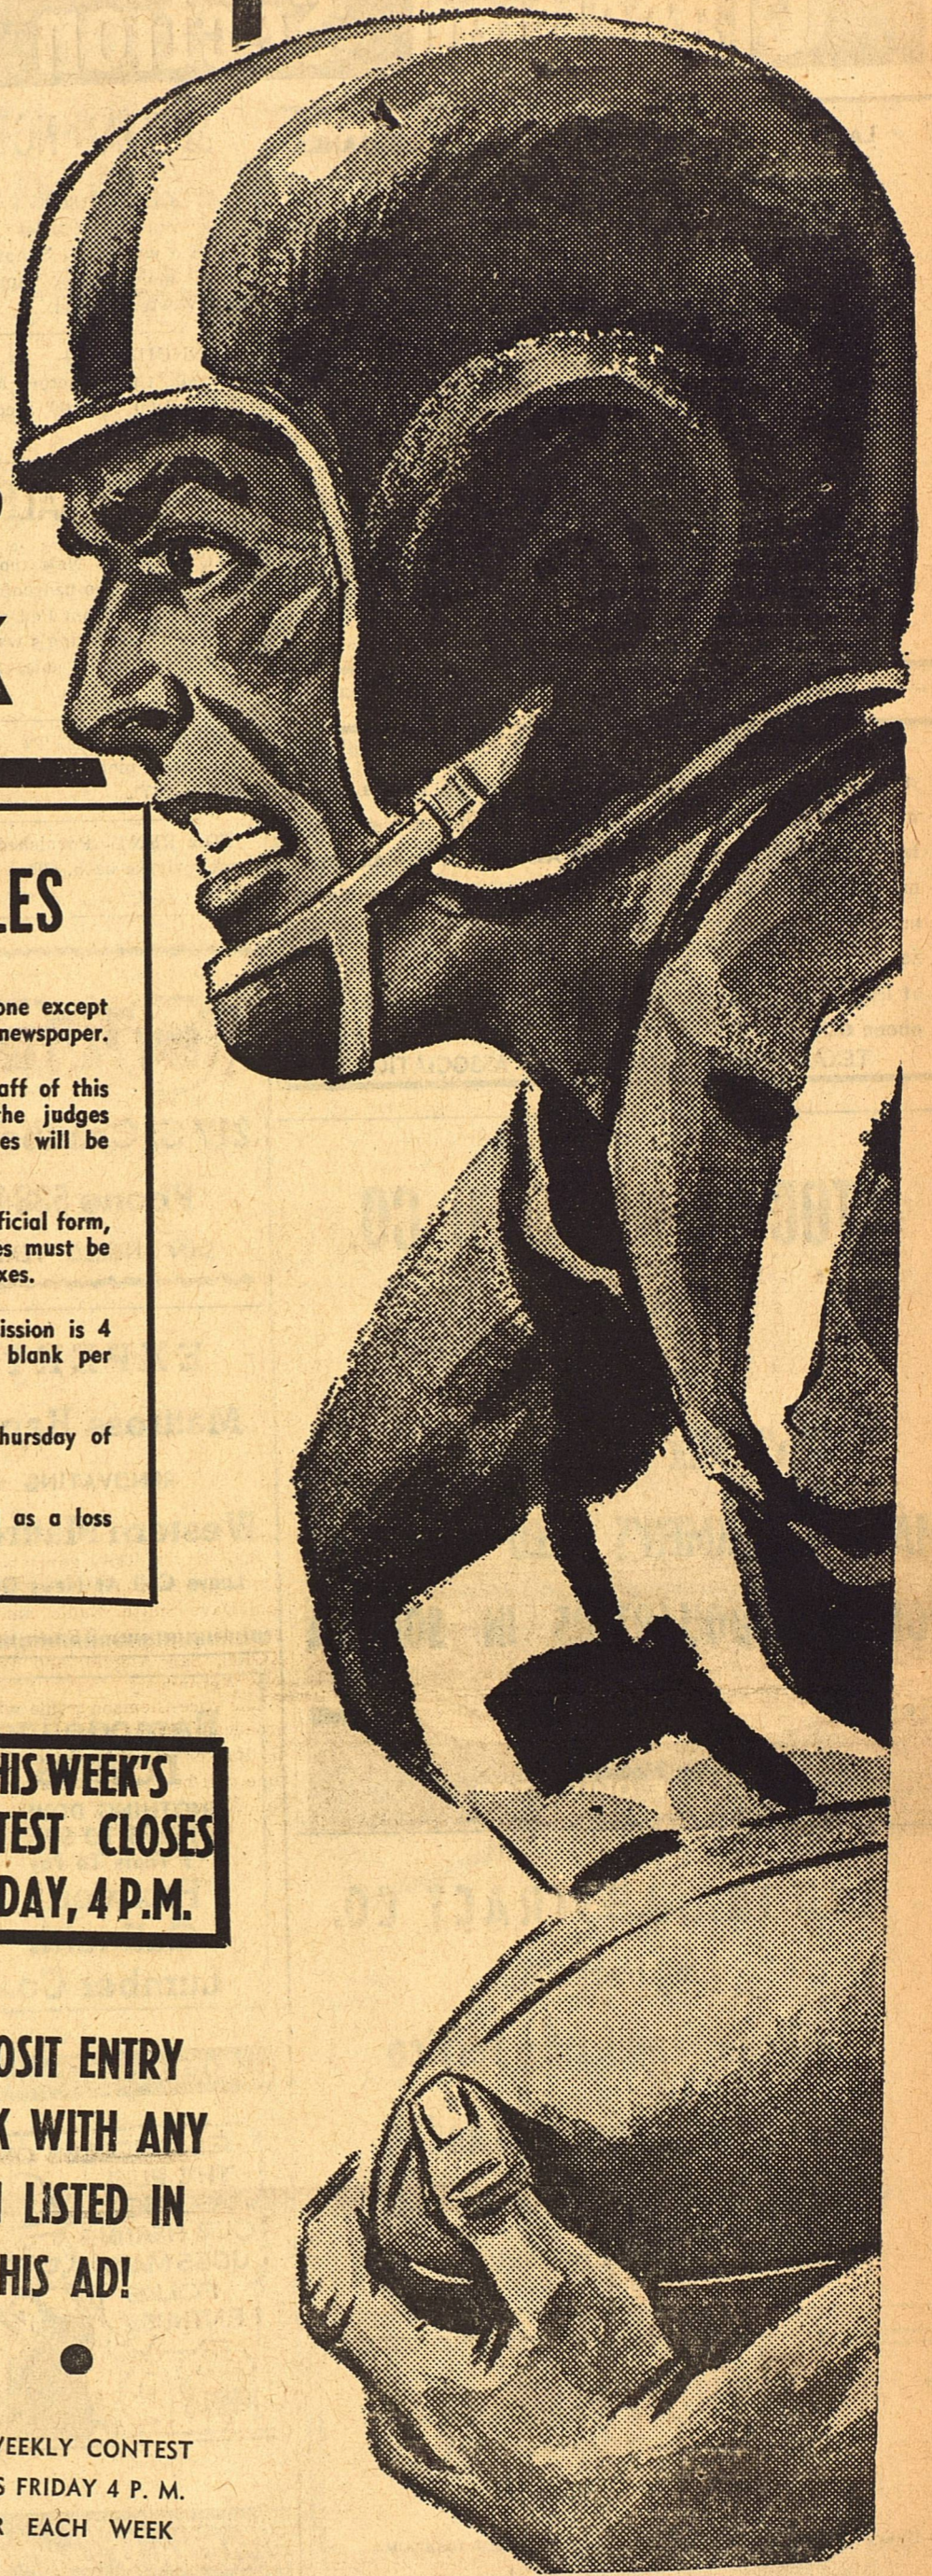

Texans, Give Thanks during November by signing up for payroll savings where you work or buying U.S. Savings Bonds where you bank.

Devil's River Philosopher Says If You Think TV Quiz Shows Were Rigged, You Ought To Try Ranching

Editor's Note: The Devil's River Philosopher on his bitterweed ranch on Devil's River brings up a novel idea this week, but he's probably confusing ranching with what he does.

Dear editor:
Now that everybody has pretty well found out that television quiz shows were fixed, I have been looking around out here and doing some heavy thinging and have come to the conclusion that the investigating committee that brought this to light has only scratched the surface.

If you think television quiz shows are fixed, you ought to try ranching.

Do you reckon ranching is fixed? Mrs. A. W. Awalt went to San Angelo recently for a visit with her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Sid Awalt.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Morrison and Greg were in Sonora last week-end visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Morrison and Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Taylor.

Mrs. Lawrence Finklea

It has a lot of the ear-marks. For example, like a T.V. contestant you start out on a ranching year feeling like you're going to hit the jackpot, you've got the answers this time straight from the experts ahead of show time, but when the time comes to cash in, it seems that the producers of the show trip you up and run in another contestant known as the middle man who winds up with the money. Or maybe he doesn't get it, but it goes somewhere, as meat on the shelf keeps going up and meat in the raw straight off the ranch keeps going down. If the middle man doesn't get it, the parasites do, or the weather. Regardless of how many books they give us to take home and read, even with the pages marked, we can't find the right answers.

I wish you would contact that Congressional Investigating Committee and have it look into this ranching situation.

On second thought, though, maybe they'd better not.

When people found out quiz shows were rigged, the shows collapsed. We can't have that happening to ranching. Just forget I ever mentioned it.
