With Barbecue Supper Tuesday

Sonora High School's Broncos chalked up their third game of the season to maintain a perfect record by defeating the Iraan Braves here last Friday night by a score of 28 to 6.

The game was scoreless throughout the major portion of the first quarter but just two minutes shy of the end of that period Quarterback Primo Gonzales and his team mates executed a screen pass to Bobby Sosa who made it good for about 80 yards and the first touchdown. Gonzales kicked for the extra point.

In the second quarter Julio Samaniego pushed through the Iraan tackle spot for two yards and the second touchdown. Gonzales again kicked the bonus

The Braves' only tally came as the result of a Sonora fumble on their own 30 yardline. The following push ended with Iraan's Jon Scott going over from the six. The conversion try failed.

In the first minutes of the final period Back Herman Moore intercepted an Iraan pass on the Primo Gonzales (No. 10 center of picture) kicks his fourth and ten yarline. A series of down foling a 45 yard run off tackle. The the same quarter, Bobby Sosa bucked the Iraan line for two yards and the final touchdown. Gonzales's kick was good.

Statistics on the game: First downs: Sonora, 14; Iraan 8; Yds. gained rushing: Sonora 266, Iraan 98; Yards gained passing: Sonora 83. Iraan 20; Passes completed: Sonora 3 for 6, Iraan $ for 9: Passes intercepted: Sonora 1, Iraan 0; Fumbles lost: Sonora 1, Iraan 1; Penalties and yardage: Sonora 9 for 95; Iraan

Elsewhere in the district, Eldorado downed Eden 46 to 0; Junction edged Menard 2 to 0; 14, and Ozona lost to Bronte 29 to 24.
