Lions Hear Student Panel Discussion On Problems Of Local Teen-Agers

A panel of students at Sonora High School brought a discussion on teen agers and their problems at Tuesday's meeting of the Sonora Lions Club. Heading the panel was Smith Neil, speech teacher. Members of the panel were Mary Wilson, Mary John Espy, Herbert Fields and Dick McMillan.

On the question, "Are more activities needed for teenagers in our town?", the panel was agreed that there is a definite need. Mary Wilson expressed enthusiasm for the proposed teen canteen. Dick McMillan described as the only activities available now, "going to the show or riding around". Mary John Espy and Herbert Fields said kids need some place to go.

The next question, "What can be done by the community to assist students to secure part-time summer jobs", brought out that these jobs are a very real problem to local teen-agers. Corky Fields suggested setting up a clearing house of available jobs using the local paper to list businesses who need helpers and setting forth requirements for the jobs. Mary volunteered that if students want a job bad enough they will go after it on their own but that a clearing agency would be a help. Mary John brought out the point that most teen-agers are shy and don't like to ask. She thought a clearing agency would help and suggested that some organization might help. Dick agreed with Corky that help-wanted ads would help. Mary summed up by saying this is not a year-round problem but a seasonal one.

A discussion on the relationship between working parents and teen-age children followed. Mary John said youngsters should help around the home. Mary agreed but added that parents should not expect the children to take over running the home, although the children should be willing to sacrifice.

Improving relations between teen-agers and legal authorities was discussed. Corky expressed the belief that there is no problem at the present. He thought the local sheriff and deputies should be someone kids can confide in so that the teen-agers can be helped. He thought authorities should not be too tough saying that a brush with the law can ruin a kid's life. Mary disagreed, saying that teen-agers know right from wrong and that officers should not be lenient. She added that youngsters should be taught to respect the law and officers. Mary John agreed with Mary saying that teenagers should learn right and wrong now. Dick was also in agreement.

On the subject, "Do you think that confiding in an experienced adult could help you solve your problems, and if so who should it be: someone in your home, in your church, or your school?", Dick said confiding in anyone with whom the teenager is acquainted would be of value. Mary John thought confidence should be with the parents or possibly with someone from school. Mary advised talking first to parents and if that fails suggested a school counselor but not a teacher. She said ministers can help too. Corky agreed that a teacher is not the answer and backed up her point that there is a natural friction between

Bronco Fanfare

By Jo Bess VanderStucken
In district competition with 235 students representing 25 high school bands, four Sonora band students placed in the honor band. Jo Bess VanderStucken, by defeating 46 other clarinetists, sat first chair. Sitting second chair was another Sonora musician, Alice Lee Duncan, who won this position by out-playing an All-State clarinetist.

Two eighth grade clarinetists, Barbara Holland and Peggy Lynn Grobe, also placed in the first band. Missing the first band by only one chair was Mary Fae Baker, another eighth grade student. Mary Fae plays flute.

Margaret Loiry, defeating 23 other drummers, placed second in the second band. Another Bronco Band drummer, Nancy Prugel, ranked ninth out of the competing 29.

In the absence of J. L. Steed, band director, Mrs. Earl Duncan accompanied these students to Cross Plains for the competition last Saturday.

Odds And Ends

The election is over and the people have said their say. The Kennedy's will be moving into the White House come January and, frankly, we can't say we envy them the job of trying to raise a family there. We've often wondered if president's children color on the wallpaper or knock out window panes or carve their initials on the dining room table. Maybe we'll be finding out.

Wonder how long it's been since there were young children in the president's mansion? It must have been about the time of Teddy Roosevelt or William Howard Taft but maybe some reader will come to our rescue and give us a definite answer.

A little more seriously, we and many others were astonished to find that in Precinct One 85 ballots had to be declared invalid and thrown out because they were incorrectly marked. In every case the voter had failed to mark out all but one set of names for president and vice-president.

We understand that Julio Samaniego is catching a lot of kidding from team-mates. He has a sore knee and may not be able to play all the game Friday afternoon. A pig bit him!

Aggie Mothers served the Lion's their lunch this week-turkey! Loyal Texans figure it's because they know they'll be eating buzzard come Thanksgiving.

YOUR MINISTER SAYS

By Rev. Allan Guthrie

Francis of Assisi (1182-1226), one of the true saints of the Church of the Middle Ages, prayed thus:

"O Lord our Christ, may he have Thy mind and Thy spirit; make us instruments of Thy peace; where there is hatred, let us sow love; where there is injury, pardon; where there is discord, union; where there is despair, hope; where there is darkness, light; and where there is sadness, joy. O Divine Master, grant that we may not so much seek to be consoled as to console; to be understood as to understand; to be loved as to love; for it is in giving that we receive; it is pardoning that we are pardoned; and it is in dying that we are born to eternal life."

Mr. and Mrs. Jack E. Mackey and Wanda Sue had as their guests last week Mrs. Mackey's brother in law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. McMaster of Abilene, and her brother and nephew, Dell O'Neal and Mickey of Abilene.

Mrs. Oliver Rose has arrived in Sonora where she will be guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lee W. McLaury. Her husband, Pfc. Oliver Rose, will join her here in February after completing a tour of duty in Germany.

Tom Darrow of San Angelo was a Sonora visitor last week.

By Rev. Allan Guthrie

Augustine (354-430), a bishop of the early Church in North Africa, was a notable Church Father. After a reckless youth, he was converted. Mighty as was his acute theological mind, he was constantly aware of his need for God's presence in his life. As he said, "Our hearts are restless until they find their rest in Thee." He prayed:

"Come, O Lord, in much mercy down into my soul, and take possession and dwell there; a homely mansion, I confess, for so glorious a Majesty, but such as Thou art fitting up for the reception of Thee, by holy and fervent desires of Thine own inspiring. Enter, then, and adorn, and make it such as Thou canst inhabit, since it is the work of Thy hands. Give Thine own self, without which, though Thou shouldst give me all that Thou hast made, yet could not my desires be satisfied. Let my soul ever seek Thee, and let me persist in seeking, till I have found, and am in full possession of Thee."

HERE! EASIER GOING FOR THE DRIVER AND THE LOAD. LONGER LIFE FOR THE TRUCK!

'61 TORSION-SPRING CHEVROLETS

If you don't think scrapping the front axle has made a world of difference, you haven't driven a Chevy in a while. A few minutes behind the wheel and you can feel why drivers are happier and breakable loads are better protected. But the biggest advantage of all, you'll realize, is that the truck itself (sheet metal, tires, chassis components, everything) takes less abuse. With independent front suspension soaking up road shock and vibration, the truck lasts longer, goes extra thousands of miles before trade-in time. Add that to what everybody's always known about Chevy dependability and you find yourself looking at the soundest truck investment you could bet your business on.

and look! NEW REAR-ENGINE CORVAIR 95's

A panel and two pickups that put a thrifty air-cooled engine in the rear, the driver up front and as much as 1,900 pounds of load space in between! That's more capacity than a conventional half-tonner. Yet these Corvaire 95's are nearly two feet shorter from bumper to bumper. Highly maneuverable. Built to last and bound to save on a busy schedule!

CORVAIR—Side doors open a full 49" wide. Loading height is a low 14" high!

Miss Lois Perry Bride Of R. W. McCulley In Fort Worth Chapel Rites October 27

Miss Lois Imogene Perry of Fort Worth became the bride of Roger William McCulley, also of Fort Worth, in W. Ray Watson Chapel of University Baptist Church there Thursday evening, October 27. The Rev. James G. Harris, pastor, officiated.

The bride is the daughter of Clyde A. Perry of Texarkana, Texas, and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. G. H. McCulley of Athens.

Miss Shirley Jackson of Dallas was maid of honor and Bill York was best man. Groomsmen were Dickie Denson of Fort Worth and Arvin Lee Perry of Corsicana, the bride's brother.

Given in marriage by M. C. Scott of Sonora, the bride wore a gown of white Chantilly lace over satin. The molded bodice, with long sleeves, had a scooped neckline outlined with medallions of lace accented with seed pearls. The full skirt was ballerina-length. She carried a white orchid and stephanotis on a white Bible.

After a wedding trip to Oklahoma the couple are at home at 4702 Townsend Drive, Fort Worth.

Her husband is a graduate of North Texas State College and is at present attending Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary. Mrs. McCulley is employed as home economist for Texas Electric Service Company in Fort Worth.

Woman's Club Meets Thursday

Mrs. Rex W. Lowe was guest speaker at last Thursday's meeting of the Sonora Woman's Club. A panel of four high school students and school librarian Mrs. W. H. Dameron spoke on libraries in general. Gerry Mayfield moderated the discussion. Annette Johnson spoke on vertical files and card catalogs, Barbara Gatlin talked on who is in the news and on current biography filed. Nancy Reed discussed home libraries and book classification. The group also reported on present needs of library supplies at the school.

At the social hour which followed autumn arrangements were used and coffee and pecan pie with whipped cream were served. Hostesses were Meses. Louis, J. Wardlaw, Clayton Hamilton, Ed Hawkins and Bill Whitehead.
