Lions Club's Annual Broom Sale Scheduled For Tuesday Afternoon

The Sonora Lions Club Annual broom sale will be held next Tuesday, March 14. One of the big objectives of Lionism is "Sight Conservation" and "Aid to the Blind." Each year Lion's Club members help sell brooms, mops and other articles made by the blind. At a number of "Lighthouses" in the state, the blind are trained to make useful articles and these products are sold by Lions Club members each year. Next Tuesday afternoon a group of hard working Sonora Lions will drop their work to make a door canvas, displaying articles for sale. Your purchase of a useful product will do double duty-you will help a handicapped person, and 25 per cent of the sale proceeds remains with the local Lions Club for aid to the blind or near blind in Sonora. Articles for sale will include brooms, mops, brushes, mats, ironing board covers, hot pan holders, etc. Your purchase of needed articles will be appreciated.

WATCH THOSE KITES, KIDS! YOU MAY GET A SHOCK

Local children are cautioned about flying kites near electric wires by Boyd Lovelace, Local manager for West Texas Utilities Co. Lovelace warned that if a kite gets caught in electric wires, a child may receive an electrical shock.

It is suggested that only dry string be used for kites since wet string, wire or twine with metal in it are good conductors of electricity and increase the danger of electric shock, either from electric wires or from atmospheric conditions.

Eight high schools will be represented at Sonora High School's 14th annual invitation speech tournament which is getting underway Thursday.

No admission will be charged and the public is invited to attend this and all events comprising the meet. Judges for the plays will be coaches of three non-participant schools.

About 200 students are expected to begin arriving Thursday afternoon. The annual barbecue will be held at the school cafeteria Saturday night and will be sponsored by the Sonora Chamber of Commerce. A dance will conclude the meet at the 4-H Club Center following the barbecue.

Contests include both boys' and girls' divisions of debate, oratorical declamation, extemporaneous speaking, senior poetry reading, junior poetry reading, original oratory, dramatic interpretation, after-dinner speaking, Bible reading, and impromptu speaking. Minimum Wage Hike No Solution To Unemployment Problem, Says Fisher

By Congressman O. C. Fisher
TWO SUBJECTS OF INTEREST are being pressed right at this time to Congress, in which there is much public interest. One is a proposal to increase minimum wage to $1.25 per hour and add about five million to coverage. Another, by Senator Paul Douglas of Chicago, would expended about $3 billion a year to help "distressed areas".

With five million unemployed, it looks like a bad time to increase the minimum wage and expand coverage. Some say that with the expanded government relief program, the tens of thousands who admittedly would be thrown out of work with the increase, welfare agencies would be able to take care of the new charges, and that it would cause more money to be circulated. That would, of course, simply cause the government to get deeper and deeper into the welfare state business, and would solve no problems. Likewise, even though every effort should be made, in line with good business, to help distressed areas, the better approach would seem to be to study the cause of the distress, then treat the disease rather than the symptoms. In studies conducted in several afflicted areas it has been found that factories have been closed down because of high wages and high taxes and other costs. When it is no longer profitable to operate the plant closes down and seeks other locations where the labor market is more to their liking, and unions are not so prone to engage in strikes.

Devil's River Philosopher Takes A Look At Weather Forecasting, Still Relies On His Own Feeling

Editor's Note: The Devil's River Philosopher on his bitterweed ranch on Devil's River takes a look at weather forecasting this week, we're not sure with how much success.
Dear editor:

As everybody knows, we've had a lot of weather this winter, not only here but all over the country, and I have been thinking lately how lucky weather forecasters are that they aren't elected to office. Be the biggest turn-over in the history of politics.

The trouble with predicting the weather is that the job too frequently is hopeless, like predicting women or a mis-fired satellite in orbit. Weather men, like economists, are a whole lot better at telling you what happened than what's going to. Yesterday's weather is a lot easier to report than tomorrow's.

Don't misunderstand me. I listen to the weather forecast nearly every day, read it whenever I get my hands on a newspaper, and I'll admit these fellows are pretty good at predicting when a cold front is going to hit my bitterweed ranch if somebody way up the country has stuck his head out the window and discovered it and found out how fast it's moving in my direction and wired the news ahead to the nearest weather bureau, and it's good information to have, I depend on it.

But the weather doesn't always move in a straight line. Sometimes it seems to come from all directions at once, and this is when it rains on a predicted fair day and the sun shines when the forecast called for rain. It accounts for a two foot snow when a light frost was predicted.

It's at times like this that weather predicting takes on the same impossible job of a public opinion poll. Sometimes a poll is right, sometimes wrong, and a citizen is left with the job of predicting for himself which poll and which forecast is right. The weather, like people, doesn't always follow a predictable pattern, which is the reason no candidate knows what the voters thought until all the votes are counted and I don't always know what the weather will be tomorrow until I get up the next day and look at my thermometer. And sometimes then it seems like it's colder than the thing shows. Weather forecasting has a long way to go before it can tell me today how much clothes I need to wear tomorrow.

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

I Give You Texas

By Boyce House
One of the most resounding phrases I ever heard in a political campaign goes back to a race for governor in Arkansas many years ago. The leading contender, as the contest began to shape up, was a big impressive looking attorney who was considered by some as being a bit on the egotistical side. He hailed from a town on the bank of the Ouachita—(pronounced "Wash-eta-w")—river.

The field was large and one of the entries seemed to have filed for the sole purpose of seeing that the favorite was defeated. At any rate, this candidate devoted his speeches almost entirely to criticism and ridicule of the river-town aspirant whom he called "the proud peacock Napoleon of the Ouachita." (Another candidate was the victor.)

Some time, one wonders how some businessmen have been able to keep their doors open, they know—or practice—so little of good public relations.

For instance, a store in a large Texas city, a while back, had a window filled with shoes and a large sign, "Big Sale—Save up to Half!". A small sign read, "Shoes on display not included in the sale."

One year after a big bowl game (not in Texas) the coach of one of the teams complained that he had been unable to obtain hotel rooms for two friends, whereupon the head of a leading hotel was quoted in the press as saying, "I doubt that Coach So and so has two friends."

Do you know what "Alama" means? Cottonwood.

James Stephen Hogg was the first native Texan to be elected governor of Texas.

Adams Charolaise Bulls Bring Top Price At Auction

Two Charolaise bulls from the herd of Mr. and Mrs. P. E. Adams of Sonora brought second and third highest prices at the San Antonio Charolaise Sale Friday, February 15.

"Thunderhead," a 19-month old full-blood Charolaise bull weighing 1,650 pounds brought $1,750.00 and "Mighty Man" a 20-month old weighing 1,435 pounds brought $1,600. Buyer was Tom Johnson of San Marcos.

Mr. and Mrs. Adams, their daughter Fae La Rae and son Junior purchased the Lum Adams Estate Ranch last year. They were former residents of Sutton County but had been operating ranches in the Big Bend country for the past 21 years. Adams now raises registered Charolaise cattle and other livestock, having bought his foundation Charolaise stock from veteran breeder Cap Yates. Besides operating the Adams ranch on the Llano the Adamses have other ranching interests in Brewster County. They invite those interested in Charolaise cattle to pay them a visit.

State Accreditation Team Visits Here, Makes Laudatory Report To Legislature

The state Legislature required routine visits by state teams for the purpose of accrediting schools. Last fall such a team visited the Sonora schools and excerpts from its report follow:

"Operations of the school board indicated a sound relationship between the board and school staff, and utilization of the superintendent as administrative head of the system. Minutes of board meetings were well maintained with individual folders containing records of all board business for each member. Board policies have been collected, printed in a single booklet, and approved.

"Three campus units are required for the Sonora school program. The main campus of several acres contains buildings for the high schools, a limited junior high operation, and Central Elementary School; administrative offices, a cafeteria, gymnasium and homemaker cottage are on the same campus. The Elliott School, a second elementary unit, occupies a second campus. The Negro school occupies the third campus.

"All the buildings used for instructional purposes were in excellent physical condition, clean, and reflected a superior level of routine daily janitorial and maintenance service.

"At the time of the accreditation visit, total enrollment had reached 931 pupils, including eleven in the elementary school for negro pupils. High school enrollment accounted for 210 pupils and the remaining 710 were divided between two elementary programs, including approximately 70 in an eighth program on the main campus. Classrooms are large and well-equipped and facilities were generally excellent in all schools, with teaching aids and supplies readily available and in use. One possible exception was the high school science laboratory which was drab and needs some attention as to re-modeling. (Note: the local board, administration and science department has already undertaken a study of this criticism with a view to possible future re-modeling.)

"Sonora schools use an instructional staff of 44, which includes the superintendent, an elementary supervisor, a vocational homemaker teacher, a kindergarten teacher and a librarian. Six teachers are employed in addition to the Foundation Fund Allocation; teachers are paid $600 above the State minimum salary scale. (Note: These extra teachers and above state schedule salaries are possible because the people of Sutton County choose to tax themselves enough to make it possible to create more than a minimum educational climate.)

"A program of great potential is in operation for parents of four and five year old children in the Elliott School; instruction is concerned largely with English language use, and although not yet fully developed, has been received with enthusiasm and good support by the parents concerned.

"Instruction presented much evidence of careful planning and attention to development of desirable and necessary skills in pupils. Work of the instructional staff appeared of above-average grade.

"A six-period day is used in high school. Eighteen and one-half units are required for graduation, but the requirement will be raised to 20 units next year; both figures include two units of required physical education. Four units of English were scheduled, along with instruction in general science, biology and chemistry and physics; also, courses were available in general math, algebra, plane geometry and trigonometry as well as world history, American history and civics. Pupils were able to select other courses in business education; industrial arts, homemaking, Spanish, speech and band. All athletic practice was conducted after school hours.

"An excellent library of over 6,500 volumes was provided for high school pupils and those in the junior high program when desired. An annual budget of over $300 per pupil served as a base for a generally excellent library program throughout the school.

"Despite some items in need of attention, the superior qualities of the Sonora school program far exceeded deficiencies and any over-all evaluation must be proportionately good.

"Recommendation: It is recommended that the Sonora Independent School District be continued as fully accredited."

These comments from the official report by the State Accreditation Team are excerpts from the full reports. Although the team made a few recommendations for improvement here and there, they stated both orally and on paper that we have a school system of which we can be proud. It is indeed rare that they visit a school and do not officially advise or warn that some corrections must be made. They made only a few suggestions and the school was not advised nor warned officially to alter, add, or change anything. Of course, any good organization is continually evaluating itself in order to improve, and your schools are no exception.

Perry Como
... new series

April. Actor Laurence Harvey will be a singing and dancing emcee, hosting the 24 Tiller Girls—described as the English Rockettes—and 100 Scots Guards... The Ubiquitous Mr. Clink gets the prize for the most interesting title. The new series is a hot fall prospect on NBC... Tying in with Israel's trial of Eichmann this spring, ABC's Naked City has scheduled "The Deadly Guinea Pig," about the apprehending of an escaped war criminal in New York. Sharing the leads are Eugene Leontovich and Viveca Lindfors, who co-starred several seasons back in "Anastasia" on Broadway.

NOW IS TOMORROW, a new series produced by Perry Como's Roncom, is now making the network and sponsor rounds in New York. Hosted by Charles Bickford, the series is based on illogical events coming true, such as the breaking of Babe Ruth's home-run record and the election of a female President... Producers of a German-language Hamlet, done originally for the Eurovision network, are trying to interest United States sponsors and networks in the show as a special. Maximilian Schell, who played the title role, is in this country making a movie and would be available to dub his lines into English... Gertrude (Molly Goldberg) Berg and Sir Cedric Hardwicke have been signed to co-star in Mother Was a Freshman, which debuts next fall on CBS. They co-starred on Broadway last season in "Majority of One."

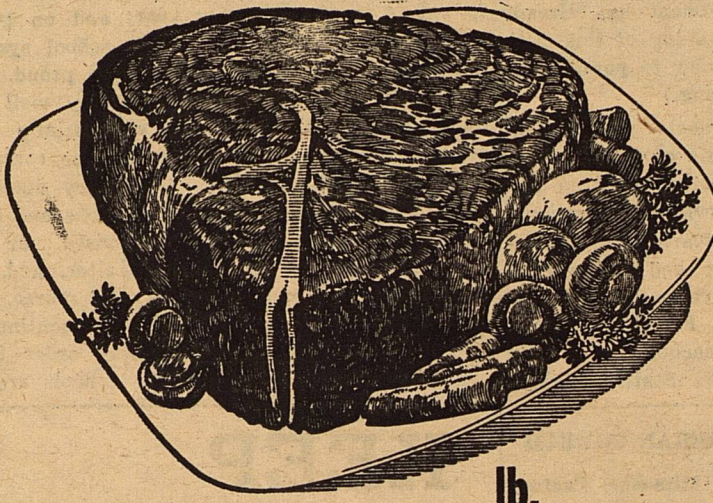

Jack Kelly
... stuck

JACK KELLY OF MAVERICK snapped this one off: "Ever since Jack Warner, the studio boss, got a medal from the Queen of England, I've been stuck with Limeys." Kelly was referring to the English director of the show and co-star Roger Moore... Father of the Bride has so far found a willing sponsor for next season but no network. Leon Ames and Myrna Fahey will play the roles created by Spencer Tracy and Elizabeth Taylor in the MGM movie on which the series is based... John Larch landed the starring role in next season's Counter-Intelligence Corps. David Wayne was first choice but signing him would have meant giving him a 25 percent piece of the series, a deal which Larch did not get... CBS is developing a Roy Huggins script for a series described as "Route 66 at the turn of the century." It's to have the light touch of the Huggins-created Maverick.

Your RIGHT TO VOTE

MR. AND MRS. VOTER, do you feel that you should have an opportunity to vote on legalizing Parimutuel Horse Race Betting?

A constitutional amendment (H.J.R. #4) is being considered whereby Texans will be given an opportunity to legalize horse race betting in Dallas, Tarrant, Harris, Galveston, Bexar, Midland, Hidalgo, Cameron and Webb Counties, subject to approval by LOCAL OPTION.
H.J.R. #4 provides for distribution, ANNUALLY, among all counties that do not have race tracks, one-half of the STATE TAX REVENUE obtained from horse racing. Each county would receive approximately $1.00 per capita population the first year. Counties where the tracks are located would receive 2% of parimutuel handle. The state's tax income from horse racing alone would run close to $12,000,000 the very first year—possibly more—besides all the income tourists would bring to Texas—which would amount to millions of dollars, plus a great ad valorem tax on race tracks, breeding farms and many valuable race horses.

Please express your opinion by checking the appropriate box below. You do not have to sign your name unless you like, but we would prefer it.

 YES: I feel that the people should have an opportunity to vote on horse race parimutuel betting.
 NO: I am not in favor of letting the people vote on the subject.

Texas Exchanges Quail For Chicks With Nebraska

Greater prairie chickens from Nebraska will be given an opportunity to get a foothold in Texas, according to H. D. Dodgen, executive secretary of the Game and Fish Commission. Twenty of these birds were flown into Texas last week and released on the Flat Top Ranch, southwest of Fort Worth.

More of the birds will also be brought in as they are trapped in Nebraska, according to the secretary. Texas is giving scaled quail in exchange for the prairie chickens. These quail are being trapped in the Trans-Pecos country, where there is an abundance of birds and a short supply of feed.

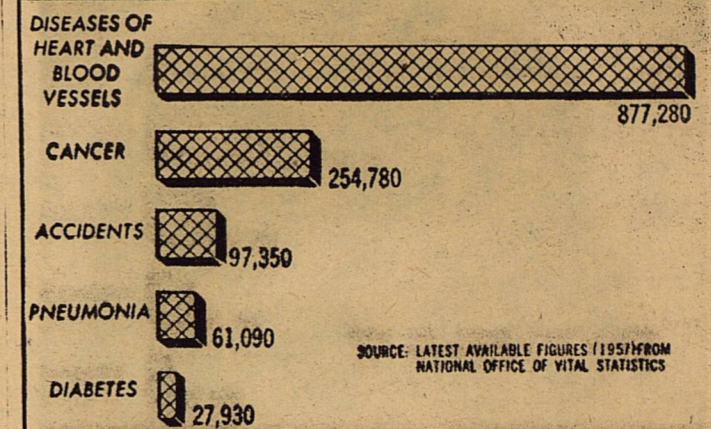

On another exchange, more than 100 Rio Grande wild turkeys from the King Ranch have been shipped to Hawaii. This also is on an exchange basis, and will give the newest state a start of Texas propagated birds.

"Say, Reddy, does your company make a profit?"

We try Mister—we sure try!

Yes, Mister—the answer is Yes! You see, we are an investor-owned company, so one of our aims is to make money for our investors—the people who own us (after we pay our taxes, bills, and employees)... you know we are owned by many thousands of individual investors.

We don't have any special privileges from the government, to borrow money or to be excused from any taxes. We operate just like any other "free enterprise" business. We manufacture and distribute electric energy and we must make a profit to stay in business. So again, Mister—the answer is Yes—we sure try to make a profit.

HAVING HIT THE JACKPOT with Winston Churchill:

The Valiant Years, ABC is now planning a similar biographical series. Network officials are tight-lipped about the project, will say only that they're working on a sequel to Churchill. But it's our bet that former Presidential press secretary Jim Hagerty, now holding down a vice presidency at ABC, will clear the way for Mr. Eisenhower to be the subject... When ABC's The Islanders is replaced in April by Asphalt Jungle, theme music for the new series will come from Duke Ellington... NBC has definitely set "Thirty-five Years of Broadcasting" as a two-and-a-half hour special for next fall. You Are There producer Robert Lewis Shayon will be the head writer. The program will be simulcast stereophonically on radio and color TV.

He... a new role?

WHEN RICHARD BOONE QUILTS Have Gun, Will Travel, the show may go on without him. One of the plans calls for Paladin to be killed and a passing stranger to pick up the fallen knight's gun, holster and calling cards. Another idea has a brother of Paladin showing up and gradually taking over the show... ABC is so convinced that Hong Kong can make the grade that they will switch the show to a later time period if it fails in its present 7:30 P.M. Wednesday spot... Bell Telephone is planning a Shakespearean hour for March or April in which Sir John Gielgud will star. Dr. Frank Baxter, who broke into TV as a teacher of Shakespeare, will be the host.

THE SCRIPTS FOR DAY IN COURT identify the real lawyers who play lawyers on the show only as Attorney White and Attorney Black. Their real names never appear in the cast of characters, to conform to the legal canon prohibiting any such identification as a form of advertising and, therefore, unethical... Jim Garner will play Jim Garner in an episode of Angel to boost that show's ratings. It's an expensive boost: the former Maverick star picked up close to $10,000 for the job. Garner, who had forewarned TV for movies after his bitter court fight with Warner Bros., will also make appearances with Dinah Shore and Bob Hope... Arthur Godfrey will be featured in a CBS special in May. Godfrey will show films taken last spring on his Indian tiger hunt... Another CBS special may star Lucille Ball. Desi Arnaz wants to produce the show as a musical-comedy study of "Lucy on Broadway," where she's found new fame in "Wildcat."

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE COMMENTS

ALERT— Sonora's first annual Chamber of Commerce banquet will be on March 31. The past two years this event was passed for lack of the proper speakers. This year we have the speaker. This is ladies night and the tickets will likely be a buck and a half. Tickets for sale soon.

ALSO— President Charles F. Browne has decreed that we need a membership drive, our first one. The membership of 130 grew voluntarily. We have taken in several new members already this year and have some fine prospects awaiting an invitation. After all, our sole purpose for existing is to work, to plan, to serve in a united effort to make Sonora better place in which to live and in which to do business.

SCHOOL— This is school visitation week. The Lions ate at the Cafeteria Tuesday and visited some of the rooms. Our school system is our biggest business and has the largest payroll. We have a good school and an excellent group of teachers. They appreciate your interest.

SPEECH MEET— This weekend is the time, as you might be reminded, seeing several hundred high school kids traipsing around town. This is the 14th annual meet and really taxes our capacities. This organization will host them, the judges, local participants and others at a barbecue Saturday evening at the Cafeteria. The finals and judging will take place in the Auditorium immediately following the meal and this will be followed by the party at the 4-H Club Center.

MORE OF THE SAME— We reported recently the coming happenings in Sonora which included The Fling Ding, the Speech Meet, the race meet (two week-ends), the Presbytery of South-West Texas meeting here early in June, The National and State 4-H Club Wool and Mohair Show, sponsored by the Lions Club, the Junior Rodeo, the Quarter Horse Show, the Al Texas Air Tour and the Peace Officers convention. Add to this list a meeting of the Western Square Dance Assn. here June 17. This group comes from Lubbock to Eagle Pass and from Austin to El Paso and this promises to be quite a singd. Some fifteen to twenty-five of Texas most outstanding "Callers" will be here. Then in October the 11th District of Federated Music Clubs will hold their convention here. Estelle McConnell promoted this with an invitation from your Chamber of Commerce last year at the San Angelo convention. This reminds us, the McConnells have moved to Fredericksburg where Mac is on duty with Humble. Others we are going to miss.

LITTLE LEAGUE— It won't be long. Work is already being done on the grounds, the organization is being set up and the boys are ready and rearing to go. This is a wonderful summer-time youth project and the Lions put forth much cash and work in its behalf. They do need some

Grain Survey Being Conducted By ASC Office

The Sutton County ASC office is conducting a survey of all farms in the county which produce feed grains. The survey is being conducted through major and minor feed grain producing areas as an advance step in connection with proposed feed grain programs now under discussion. Included in the proposals are adjustment of 1961 corn acreages and other feed grain acreages.

Accurate data must be obtained immediately if such a program is to be put into operation for 1961, Mrs. Marie K. Ellis, office manager, said. Information to be gathered in the survey will include acreage history of corn, grain sorghum, barley and oats as well as acreage devoted to other crops and land uses, including Conservation Reserve for volunteers. RACE MEET— Stall reservations are pouring in, some from out of state, and it appears that this will be our biggest and best race meet. 54 entries in the futurity are on record (this time last year 36) and the purse should be $10,000.00. This meet brings people to town for over two weeks and works magic on cash registers in many business categories. The home folks who work for days in planning and staging this event do it for the community good, the Sonora Park and Horse Show Assn. is a non-profit institution.

THE CAVERN— Work is progressing rapidly in the program of extending the tour of the Caverns of Sonora. Trails have been made, steps and bridges installed and hand rails are now being installed in more than 1,000 feet of wonderland. Next year's tour will be something.

The ditch for the tunnel is being dug and the tunnel machine will be here next week, it is planned. The ditch will be 100 feet long and the tunnel 400 feet. It will enter an upper level of the Cave thereby allowing for a 10% grade. The building plans hinge on the tunnel operation but the enlargement of the tour, the exit (tunnel or elevator) and the building are to be realized as per stated, printed and implied reports of last year.

The Caverns will be open on weekends of March and daily after April the first, as the work in the Cave is not near last year's tour. Several school groups are scheduled to visit the world's most fantastic Cavern this month and next.

STOCK SHOW— San Angelo's annual stock show and rodeo is in full blast. Many from Sonora are exhibiting there and attending the show and rodeo.

Edwards Plateau Soil Conservation District News

By E. B. Keng
Soil Conservation Service

Ten days of warm spring weather has given a big "push" to vegetation in the Edwards Plateau Soil Conservation District.

With abundant winter moisture Texas wintergrass is furnishing substantial green feed for livestock. This grass contains up to 17 percent protein in its present green condition. Rescuegrass is fairly abundant in more moist sites, and little barley is growing good on deep divide country.

Winter weeds, including tallow, filaree, milk vetch, verbena, bladderpod and nama, are abundant and growing. Pastures with good grass cover have fewer weeds in number, but more available forage from the larger weeds. Bitterweed is relatively scarce this spring, except on a few ranches.

Summer growing vegetation is also bursting out of its winter dormancy. Curlymesquite, red grama, hairy tridens and fall witchgrass is showing new growth. Other summer growers such as the bluestems and vine-mesquite should start growth soon.

Algerita bushes are blooming along with redbud, buckeye, and the fruit trees in town. Shinoak is budding slightly, but the cautious mesquite shows few signs of spring. Sacahuiste buds about three inches long were found this week, so ranchmen with heavy sacahuiste will be watching goats for early signs of swellhead.

Soil moisture on deeper soils is very good, but with vegetative growth and March winds a good shower will be needed soon. It is important for range plants to get a good start and grow out some long leaves, if possible, before being heavily grazed. The green leaf is the manufacturing part of the plant, and without leaves very little root or plant development can take place. Proper numbers of livestock, combined with periods of pasture rest, is the best insurance to help plants get a good start.

Fling Ding guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. VanderStucken were Col. and Mrs. Robert Augustinus and Miss Elaine Augustinus of Goodfellow Air Force Base, Dr. and Mrs. Harvey M. Williams of San Angelo, Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Spiller of Junction, Mr. and Mrs. Ed L. Mears of Menard and Jack McDermott of Dallas.
