CINDERS

By John T. King

We received our first letter to Santa Claus the past week. And it was for something that would help all of us:

Dear Santa,

Please bring us new parking stripes in front of the Post Office. They've faded out all over town since the last time they were painted, but in front of the Post Office is the only place we need them every day. While you're about it, Santa, ask the people to just take up one space, too.

Love,
Your Friend

It's often said that one can tell the status of a person by the kind of mail he receives. Last week's mail made me wonder if I was going or coming. One letter was addressed to the Vice President in Charge of Operations, Devil's River News, and the other was addressed to the Sonora Rural Weekly.

Get out your magnifying glass and look at the square dots that separate this column into paragraphs. If your eyesight is sharp you'll see the entire alphabet printed on an area 1/12 of an inch square. It'll have to suffice until we can hire a printer's devil to paste on real cinders.

And the woman-hating Kentucky editor said: "Women spend 60 to 70 per cent of their time sitting, the figures show."

Here's progress for you. Beginning December 1 it will be legal to sell "reconstituted" beer. The whole idea is that transportation charges usually necessitate out-of-state beer being sold at premium prices.

The new process will enable brewers, even in distant spots, to concentrate their beer, removing 75 per cent of the water, and ship it to distant points both at home and abroad. Future aims will be the franchising of local bottling plants, much like the soft-drink business, after government regulations have been amended.

Treasury regulations will require such beer to be labeled "Beer—made from beer concentrates."

A guide, showing an old lady through the Zoo, took her to a cage occupied by a kangaroo. "Here, madam, we have a native of Australia." "Good gracious," she replied, "and to think my sister married one of them."

FOOTBALL CONTEST

All three winners this week guessed 18 games correctly. Henry Perez, first place winner, had a tie-breaker of 25; Pat Castro, second place, guessed 21 as a tie breaker score; and James Trainer guessed 38 as the total points in the game.

Lea Roy Valliant wins the 1 cent special consolation award.

Although he is now participating in the opening of the Ice Caves in Idaho, he said, "The Caverns of Sonora are the top attraction in the nation."

Plans Announced For New Telephone Facilities Here

Completion of the two projects is scheduled late in 1965.

Broncs Victorious In Last Grid Game

By Dick McMillan

The Sonora Broncos closed out their 1963 football campaign on a winning note here last Friday by shooting down the Stanton Buffaloes, 22-6. The win gave the Broncos a 5-3-2 season mark and a tie for second place in District 7-AA. Crane and McCamey tied for the District championship, but Crane won the right to enter the state playoffs by defeating McCamey Friday.

Early in the first quarter, halfback Ruben Castillo scampered around left end for twelve yards and the first Bronco touchdown of the evening. The score was the climax of a 60-yard drive, and Bill Elliott kicked the extra point.

Moments later Elliott intercepted a pass and returned it to the Stanton 35. After two plays it was Castillo for eight yards and another Bronco tally. Elliott's kick was true, and Sonora led 14-0 at the half.

In the third period halfback Ronald Hartsell blasted 35 yards for Stanton's only touchdown. Later in the third quarter the Broncos drove sixty yards for the final score of the night. Fullback Eddie Howell pushed four yards for the touchdown. Elliott passed to Tino Noriega for two points to make the final score Sonora 22, Stanton 6.

Mike And Ike

Mike now has a 74% correct guessing score with 63 games guessed correctly out of 85. Ike has jumped to 66% correct, 56 out of 85. Mike missed only one game last week while Ike guessed all ten correctly. Here is how they see the games to be played this week:

Joe Willie, highway patrolman, said that the pickup going north swerved to avoid a pile of caliche left for roadwork and overturned in the bar ditch. The vehicle was a total loss.

Mr. and Mrs. Merck were both hospitalized in serious condition.

Hunters Bag Deer, Turkey, One Wolf

Vann and Susan Scott look over the first deer brought to Sonora Food Locker on the opening day of the 1963 hunting season. It was brought in by Mrs. Norma Butler of San Angelo. M. C. Scott estimates that the number of deer coming to the locker is about twice last year's figure.

"The hunting looks good," said Nolan Johnson, game warden, after the first weekend of the 1963 season. "Almost everything is grand except the weather," was the comment of H. V. Stokes, Chamber of Commerce manager. Both remarked that the weather was warmer than desirable for the deer to be stirring, but that hunters seemed to be bagging plenty of game.

The first deer was brought to Sonora by Mrs. Norma Butler of San Angelo. She was awarded a camera by Lambert's Drive Inn and free storage, skinning, and processing and two smoked legs of lamb by the Sonora Food Locker.

Mrs. Harry Templeton was the first local resident to bring a deer to Sonora Food Locker. She received free storage, skinning, and processing for the animal and a box filled with homemade sweets.

One sidelight of the hunting weekend was the killing of a wolf, rarely seen in the area nowadays. Donny Rogers of Eldorado spotted the animal across the fence on the Dan Harrison ranch while hunting on the W. L. Miers ranch. He shot and killed the wolf, which weighed about 50 pounds, as it was cornering several goats.

Johnson reported that there had been no gunshot deaths of hunters in Sutton County thus far, and he stressed the value of safe hunting practices. One casualty was the death of a San Antonio man who stricken with a fatal heart attack while hunting on the Stanley Mayfield ranch.

Broncs Play Iraan Friday In Opening Cage Tilt

By Dick McMillan

Coach Bob Painter's Sonora Broncos open their 1963-64 basketball season Friday night, playing the Iraan Braves in Bronco gym.

The Broncos, who began workouts Monday, return two starters and one letterman from last year's team, which posted a fine 18-10 record. This record, coupled with a second-place finish in District 7-AA gave Sonora one of its most successful seasons in recent years.

Bill Elliott and Tino Noriega head the returnee list. Both were starters last year. Mike St. Clair is the lone letterman, but the Broncos can count on several boys who logged a good deal of playing time last year but did not letter. This group includes Larry Moore, Joe Favela, Tommy Raye, and Maxie Delrie. Boys up from the freshman team who will see a good deal of action include Mike Sims, Eddie Howell, and Bill Glasscock.

Mrs. Vernon Cook, president, conducted the business meeting. Appointed to a life membership committee were Mrs. Audrey Bridges, Ralph Finklea, and Mrs. H. V. Stokes. The committee is to select a person to be awarded a life membership in the PTA.

An invitation was extended to the Sixth District of Parent-Teacher Associations to come to Sonora for the spring conference. Mrs. Myrtle Bridges' first-grade class was the room-count winner. Second place went to Mrs. Doyle Morgan's fourth and fifth grade and third place went to Mrs. Vera Stewart's fourth grade.

75c Adults, 50c Children. That's all it takes for an evening of mystery and comedy Saturday, 7:30 p.m. when the High School Speech Club presents "The Red Key" and "Sunday Costs Five Pesos".

The beginning of the harvest of the Sutton County deer crop hangs in the lockers following the first weekend of hunting season. Monday Jeff Lambert estimated that he had processed 175 deer. Through Tuesday afternoon M. C. Scott said he had processed about 260.

Six-County Livestock Co. Capacity To Exceed 20,000

Room for 20,000 head of livestock plus four sections of grass and liveoak for the overflow is how Johnnie Hamby described the Six-County Livestock Company now under construction four miles west of Sonora on Highway 290.

Hamby said that a pit had already been dug for scales that would weigh "anything from a peanut to 100,000 pounds." Caliche work has been completed on the base.

Roy Martin of San Angelo heads the firm that also includes B. M. Halbert, Bill Whitehead and Hamby. Ten acres with high-way front were bought from Halbert and the rest of his four-section ranch leased.

Operational plans include the following: open to the public, daily consignments, all types of service, P.O. privileges, order buying, and sales at private treaty. A man will be on duty at all times, and pens will be well lighted.

All livestock brought in for special sales will be weighed on arrival, sorted according to weight and quality and sold as such.

A "livestock motel" will also be a feature of the Six-County Livestock Company. Drivers hauling transient cattle can stop for feed, water and rest. Showers and bunks will be provided for drivers.

No Friday The Thirteenth?

Julius and Augustus, of the Caesar clan of Rome, are the bully boys who threw the calendar out of joint and Willard E. Edwards, a Pearl Harbor electrical engineer, aims to set it right if he can.

Edwards devised the calendar now embodied in a bill put before Congress by Hawaii's Senator Hiram Fong. The plan would set up four yearly quarters of 91 days each, would abolish all Friday's on the 13th, would have a numberless New Year's Day and another numberless Leap Year Day. It would establish holidays on the same day each year.

Edwards became irritated when he was a schoolboy in Quincy, Mass., and learned that Julius and Augustus juggled the calendar to put 31 days in the months named for them—July and August.

Convenience, not irritation, is sufficient reason to make the reform. All organizations that must work out schedules far in the future would benefit greatly. Anyone planning holiday trips would know when they fall. Paymasters would never get caught a day or two short in getting payrolls ready when payday falls on a Sunday.

The reform calendar needs only to be adopted. The only reason it is confused is that confused people made it.

C of C Notes

By H. V. Stokes

Sonora and Sutton County have had a Chamber of Commerce five years, November 1, 1963. The question now is does Sutton County and Sonora need a Chamber of Commerce, do they want one?

If the answer is yes then we need more financial support from the citizenship. Many of our finest, public spirited citizens do not support this organization financially although we work for them and their interest at all times. We now have the chance to get a high bracket, exceptionally well qualified manager, one Sonora and all Sutton County citizens can well be proud of, one who could step into positions of this type in cities ten times as large as Sonora. But he has chosen Sonora as his future home. Think it over, please.

HOUSING

Sonora has more than 150 pieces of residential rental property. It is important to property owners of Sonora to keep these occupied. It is important to all concerned. This is our most time consuming job, one on which we work almost every day of the year. It means several hundred thousand dollars a year to the economy of Sonora.

HUNTING

Another time consumer and one that pays off is hunting. It is a year round business for us and one that will bring from $500,000 to $600,000 to Sutton County Ranchmen and Sonora business men this season. We write hundreds of letters, handle hundreds of phone calls and hundreds of personal interviews on this subject each year, all for the benefit of our citizenship.

For the convenience of the ranchmen we issue hunting preserve permits. We became a Notary for that reason. All our services are free to you.

TOURIST

Experts estimate that Sonora, without a major highway, could support one nice cafe and perhaps a chili joint, three service stations and one small motel. It is very evident that highway travel means much to Sonora. We have 11 service stations, 5 who sell gasoline in connection with other business, 4 bulk distributors of gas-oil, 4 major garages and several specialty shops; six motels and six major restaurants and two drive inns. The payroll alone is a tremendous sum, aside from the many other benefits such as taxes, supplies and services.

Every day of the year this Chamber of Commerce writes many letters, does many things to encourage people to come to Sonora, to travel Highways 290 and 277, to stop in Sonora.

We find that they can't spend money in Sonora unless they come to Sonora and stop in Sonora. That is one of our major jobs and one we work at year round. This feature of our work has taken our manager all over Texas, to many meetings, all at his own expense.

Philosopher Schemes For Congressmen To Save Face-And Salary Increase, Too

Editor's Note: The Devil's River Philosopher on his bitterweed ranch on Devil's River tries to help Congress with a ticklish problem this week.

Dear editor:

While I have never been able to work out a plan whereby both football teams can win the same game and nobody leaves the stadium broken-hearted, I haven't given up, and to rest my mind from the problem, I have been working on an idea where Congress can vote itself a raise without getting beat.

As I understand it, there's a move on to increase the salaries of numerous government officials, on the grounds you have to pay them about as much as they could make in private life or they'll quit and we'll have to take on second-rate people, although this doesn't always work out that way. For example, I've heard it argued that if we increase the pay of state legislators, say, we'll get a better quality of men, but whenever a state does, it seems to me the same men turn up running again.

At any rate, in the Washington salary problem, there's a proposal to increase Congressmen and Senators' pay by $10,000 a year, and a lot of the members go along with this, except for one thing. While they figure they're worth $10,000 a year more than the $22,000 they're getting now, they'd rather have the $22,000 than nothing, which is what they're afraid they'd get if they voted themselves a raise and got voted out of office. On the other hand, a $10,000 raise sure looks tempting. They might have to change the rules a little, but I have worked out a plan where they can swing it.

Let the Senate vote the House a raise. Every member of the House can then rise to oratorical heights and denounce this as a gross waste of taxes and send copies of the speeches back home. The Senate though should remain firm and ramrod the raise through. The House could vote the Senate a raise, and every member of the Senate could make a speech against it for home consumption.

There's more than one way to skin a cat.

Yours faithfully,
J.A.

Yarborough Foresees Large Reduction In Annual Foreign Aid Appropriation

By Ralph W. Yarborough,
U. S. Senator

For nearly three weeks the Senate has been debating the annual foreign aid authorization bill that sets the limit on the amount of money that can be appropriated for foreign aid this year. This is a long debate; its length and its heat illustrate that more and more of us in the Senate are determined to cut the fat out of foreign aid to make it an effective instrument of foreign policy.

Now it looks as if the final amount to be authorized will be a reduction from last year's figure. At most some $3.7 billion will be authorized for 1964, a substantial reduction from prior years, and I am hopeful that amount will be cut back 10% more than last year.

The Senate is taking this action from a conviction that the great waste in this program can be stopped. Experience has shown that we cannot buy friends with foreign aid; we must use it more selectively to help genuine friends meet genuine needs.

YOUR MINISTER SAYS

By Rev. Allen G. Roe, Pastor
First Methodist Church
"God so loved that He gave..."
John 3:16.
The poet has said that nature is lovely; only man is vile. As we read the latter third of the Gospel record we can see what is meant by these words. Humanity nowhere shows up to worse advantage than in the treatment of Jesus.
Pilate was cowardly. We find him washing his hands of the guilt that rested upon him, saying "I find no fault with this man." But because of the insistence of the crowd he released Jesus to be crucified.

Other government officials did as poorly until there is no one redeeming trait or characteristic left among them. Some of the disciples fled in terror; Simon Peter denied that he had known Jesus; and Judas Iscariot betrayed Him.

Some of the people are a part of the terrible scene. In St. Matthew 27:41 we read these words "So also the Chief Priests, with the Scribes and Elders, mocked Him, saying He saved others; He can not save Himself. If He is the King of Israel let Him come down from the cross and we will believe in Him."

And then, of course, the mob, the Ruffians, followed the procession from the place of the unjust trial in the Temple court on out to the place of the crucifixion. Apparently these folk were bloodthirsty and were being entertained by the agony of the Prophet from Galilee.

The people who lived upon the scene when Jesus was crucified were in desperate need of salvation. The Apostle John makes himself immortal when he writes about the supreme gift of God to the world. He says that "God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten Son that whosoever believeth on Him shall not perish but shall have eternal life." This has come to be the greatest fact in Christian history. God loved the world and He gave to it.

Let us not forget our need for salvation in this our day. When the world is at its worst we should be at our best. We should be God's instruments for helping to redeem the world and thereby become a part of the answer to the problems of the day. "God so Loved that He gave" and we, too, will give of ourselves to the redemptive task when we love as we are loved.

Mr. and Mrs. Gene Lightfoot of Junction was in Sonora last week on business.

It's The Law In Texas

"EXPERT WITNESSES"

In court all lawyers ask all witnesses except expert witnesses to report their observations, not opinions. It is for the judge and the jury—not the fact witnesses—to make inferences as to guilt or liability from the facts.

On the other hand, only "experts" can give the court their opinions. Aren't most people expert in some things? Most people are qualified to give opinions on such everyday things as speed, time, sound, and the like. Sometimes where impressions are hard to describe, a witness may have to talk in terms of opinions about such things as the force of a blow, distance of a sound, the amount of light, the degree of cold or heat, weight, size, health, temper, fear, and the like.

We can express the opinion that Jones "looks like the man" who did a crime, or that his footfalls or his voice were those of Jones. Courts will admit such evidence. So too, one can testify about his friends' sanity or handwriting and sometimes your own motives.

But most often the court must rely on certain skilled persons like physicians or engineers for "expert opinions" especially in complex or technical cases.

Problems in using experts: They may not agree. They may give opinions on the "ultimate" fact which the jury itself must decide (the extent of injuries, who is the father, what caused the explosion.)

Do the experts here invade the jury's province?

As a rule, no. Before a court will let the expert testify he must show his special knowledge, say, in science, art, trade. Even so, the judge and jury decide issues of the trial, not the experts alone.

(This newsfeature, prepared by the State Bar of Texas, is written to inform—not to advise. No person should ever apply or interpret any law without the aid of an attorney who is fully advised concerning the facts involved, because a slight variance in facts may change the application of the law.)

Traditional Red Is Inferior Color For Safe Hunting

In an average season approximately 700 hunters throughout the nation are killed and 9,000 wounded. Of these, a fair percentage will be "safely" attired in the traditional danger colored. Many hunters put faith in the fallacy that red makes them plainly visible and is the best color for their hunting clothes.

A report from the U. S. Department of Agriculture says, "If you are so deluded, consider the case of a young man out hunting in New York. He sat under a tree in open view dressed from head to toe in red just waiting for a deer to cross his path. Over the crest of a nearby hill walked a hunter and his two companions. The hunter took

Mrs. Herbert Fields honored her son, Johnny, on his eleventh birthday with a luncheon and a few steps, aimed carefully and fatally toward the young hunter.

"Recent tests made in Massachusetts have proved that red does not show up as well as either yellow or fluorescent orange. Yellow can be seen a little better than red, but not as the sun is setting. Red appears to be black at dusk or dawn and can't be distinguished by color-blind hunters. Fluorescent orange, which stays visible longer after sunset, is better than all other colors and easier to see by persons with abnormal vision."

GENERAL TELEPHONE TOWNS ON THE MOVE

Memphis wins new Textile Plant

Today, because of aggressive leadership, this Texas Panhandle town boasts an active new textile plant making sheets for national distribution. What is more important, the plant's parent company is the world's largest manufacturer of textiles using all known fibers.

This new industry is the Hall Plant of Postex Cotton Mills, a unit of Burlington Industries, Inc. It is designed to have in excess of 100 employees, mostly women, and is an important addition to the economy of this 3500 population community. It is another reason we say big things are happening in General Telephone towns.

These towns are on the move. Community improvements are under way, local resources are being developed, new businesses, new industries are coming in. If your town seeks additional information about expansion, perhaps we can help. Just write our Community Development Department, Box 1001, San Angelo, Texas.

Ford Truck Sales Pass 1962 Record

With seven weeks remaining in 1963, Ford Division this week surpassed its previous truck sales record for an entire year.

Lee A. Iacocca, Ford Motor Company vice president and Ford Division general manager, said truck sales through November 13 of this year totaled 342,925 units, exceeding by 230 the previous full-year record of 342,695 units sold in 1962.

"Ford truck sales this year are 16 per cent ahead of last year, which we considered an excellent sales year, Iacocca said. "We think it is particularly significant that we have exceeded last year's total truck sales seven weeks before the end of the year."

There are some words that you read that open your eyes a little bit, and one of them is "Greetings." I caught my breath this week when my mail contained a card with "Greetings" written in bold, red letters followed by the seal of the state of Texas. Below the seal in official-looking black print were the words, "Texas Department of Correction."

I know that I'm not eligible for any draft, and I haven't violated any parole. No one wants me for a warden, guard, or even bloodhound trainer, but still the sun seemed to shine a little brighter when I read the second page—a thank-you for publicity for the prison rodeo.

We have been enjoying the lovely fall foliage around town the past few weeks. One group of trees near the football field has been especially beautiful. The bright yellow, red, and orange leaves can be seen from the highway.

Princess Catherine Caradja, Romanian refugee who spoke this week in Sonora on the dangers of communism, is a hearty, vivacious woman with an indomitable spirit. Although she is past the so-called retirement age, she meets a full schedule of speaking engagements with no apparent strain. Her seemingly unending supply of energy? She says she takes a good look at a picture of Khrushchev, and she is recharged, ready to tell of the miserable life in a communist-dominated country. "Quite a way to take your vitamins," she chuckles.

THE TEEN SCENE

UH-OH! The six weeks has snuck upon us without any warning, again. Here we are just minding our own business, going to school and learning all sorts of things when suddenly someone reminds us that it is time to take tests again. Oh, well such are the trials of going to school.

This week has been packed full of things happening. Tuesday there was an assembly at which Princess Caradja spoke. Wednesday a trained seal act was presented by the Southern School of Assemblies. Tests were given on Wednesday and Thursday, also. Friday there will be a speech on alcoholism, and school will be dismissed at 2:30. The first basketball games of the season will be Friday at 6:30 and 8:00 p.m.

Donna and Janice Dunn visited SHS last Friday. They came to see our final football game and the presentation of the band and football sweethearts. It was fun seeing the two of them again.

At the pep rally last Friday, the Senior boys were honored. Johnny Merck presented Joyce Hearn with a bouquet of roses. Joyce was chosen as football sweetheart by the football boys.

At the game Friday night the senior members of the band were honored and the Band Sweetheart was presented. Doris Fuentes is this year's sweetheart. Joe Lopez, the band president, presented her with a bouquet of roses.

Not only were Donna and Janice here this weekend, but George Robertson was visiting. Johnny Fields and Charlie Howell were home, too.

The two one-act plays are to be presented Saturday night. The cast of both plays have been working hard, and the plays promise to be very entertaining.

DON'T FORGET THE BASKETBALL GAME FRIDAY.

Accent on Health

J.E. PEAVY, M.D.
Commissioner of Health

During 1962, an insidious killer sneaked into closed rooms, automobiles and even trailer houses, leaving 63 victims in its wake throughout Texas.

Most of these deaths occur between December and February, the result of carbon monoxide.

This gas is colorless and has no odor or smell. There is no certain way of knowing that the gas is present without the use of special testing instruments.

Any combustible material generally used for heating or cooking is a potential producer of carbon monoxide. The gas results from incomplete combustion.

No fire completely consumes all of the material used as fuel, whether it is natural gas, butane, wood or kerosene. The amount of carbon monoxide produced can be significantly reduced with precise adjustments of fuel-burning stoves and heaters.

Simple precautions can eliminate the danger of carbon monoxide poisoning.

All gas heating devices should be vented to the outside on into a working flue.

Home heating units should be periodically inspected for proper flame adjustment, rusted vent pipe, obstructed flues and vents.

In the modern airtight house, the danger of carbon monoxide increases when heating units are not functioning properly.

Unvented gas heaters can produce carbon monoxide even when properly adjusted if they lack sufficient air for combustion.

Unvented gas heaters should never be used in sleeping quarters, nursing homes, convalescent homes, or any small confined space.

Rooms containing unvented gas heaters should always have an adequate supply of fresh air.

Any abnormal conditions such as a smoking stove or the odor of smoke in a living area is a danger signal and should be checked immediately.

All hot water heaters should be vented to the outside, or con-

New Construction Project Started Nov. 6 In Eldorado

The Texas Highway Department has announced a new construction project in Schleioher County from Cottonwood Street in Eldorado to 9.2 miles east. The construction consists of grading, structures, base and surfacing. The Texas Highway Department and the contractor stated that the construction started on this project on November 6 and will on the remaining 8.7 miles of the project to a working flue, and have an adequate supply of air for combustion.

Lack of fresh air for combustion will cause carbon monoxide to be produced from perfectly adjusted appliances.

Never operate a gasoline engine in an unventilated garage or shop. Ten minutes operation in a 10 by 30 by eight foot space will produce poisoning symptoms.

If there is the slightest chance that carbon monoxide is present, either leave the room or provide fresh air circulation.

be completed by June, 1964. R. A. McCulloch, Supervising Resident Engineer of Sonora, explained that there will be a 0.5 mile independent detour in the City of Eldorado, and traffic will be routed through construction project.

There will be adequate barricades and warning signs prominently displayed, but the motorist should be extremely cautious when passing through the area as it will be heavily traveled by large construction equipment. A temporary speed zone of 40 mph will be established for the entire length of the project. This project will be patrolled to minimize inconvenience to motorists, and the cooperation of the public is requested in obeying all traffic signals, warning signs, and speed zones.
