Search for Burglars Nets Three Houstonites

A cross-country trek from Sonora to Austin to Goliad to Austin to La Grange and finally to Houston netted local police officers three suspects out of four sought in connection with the March 23 burglary of Western Drug. About $1,000 worth of drugs were stolen.

Charges of burglary have been filed against Burley C. Harryman Jr., 40; and Charles Whitehead, 35; and charged as accomplices are Valerie Hood, 24, and Carolyn Holmes, 24. All are of Houston.

Bond has been set at $10,000 for each of the suspects in custody, and arrest is expected soon for Miss Holmes. Harryman listed his occupation as horse trainer; Whitehead, car salesman; and Mrs. Hood, cashier.

Herman Moore, sheriff, credited the arrest to the cooperation of the Department of Public Safety, the Texas Rangers, and various city police departments.

Moore left Friday for the DPS in Austin after identity of the suspects had been established. Charges had been filed and warrants issued in the Justice of the Peace Court. He was later joined by Pryce Taylor, city marshal, and the two began the search which ended in the arrest of Harryman and Whitehead in Houston at a Lanewood St. address about 3 p.m. Monday. Miss Hood was arrested about 8 p.m. the same day at her residence by Houston police.

Two couples in a 1965 bronze Pontiac checked into a local motel under assumed names the afternoon of the burglary and checked out late that night.

CINDERS

By John T. King

J. V. Alley visited us Monday with a letter to the editor which appears on page 6. Although his views oppose those of the "Devil" on almost all issues mentioned, we're more than happy to print his ideas and opinions, and we're happy to print your views.

I do think there is a second side to every issue, and hope some of our readers are sufficiently moved to answer.

It's people like J. V. Alley that move questions out in the open so that all opinions may be heard and an intelligent decision reached. We thank Mr. Alley for his letter and ask for others from our readers.

Of course, one of Mr. Alley's points on which we'll all agree is that at this time of year any rain over two drops is a good rain. We had a good rain.

These shaggy looking people over to the west may seem to be out of money or out of razor blades, but really, Ozona is getting ready for a 75th anniversary celebration. Tuesday some of the Ozona heard growers were in Sonora asking E. B. Keng, soil conservation technician, if their crops could be rotated to the top of the head. When E. B. solves this problem he won't have to work for the SCS. He won't have to work at all.

When your children search for colored eggs this Easter, they'll be renewing a custom far older than Christianity.

Eggs represent the new life that returns to earth every spring—around the time of Easter. The custom of exchanging eggs as part of the celebration began in ancient times. The ancient Persians often dyed eggs in the colors of spring and gave them to their friends as gifts. Some early peoples believed that the earth had hatched from a giant egg.

Early Christians of Asia and other eastern lands exchanged eggs at Easter. They colored the eggs red.

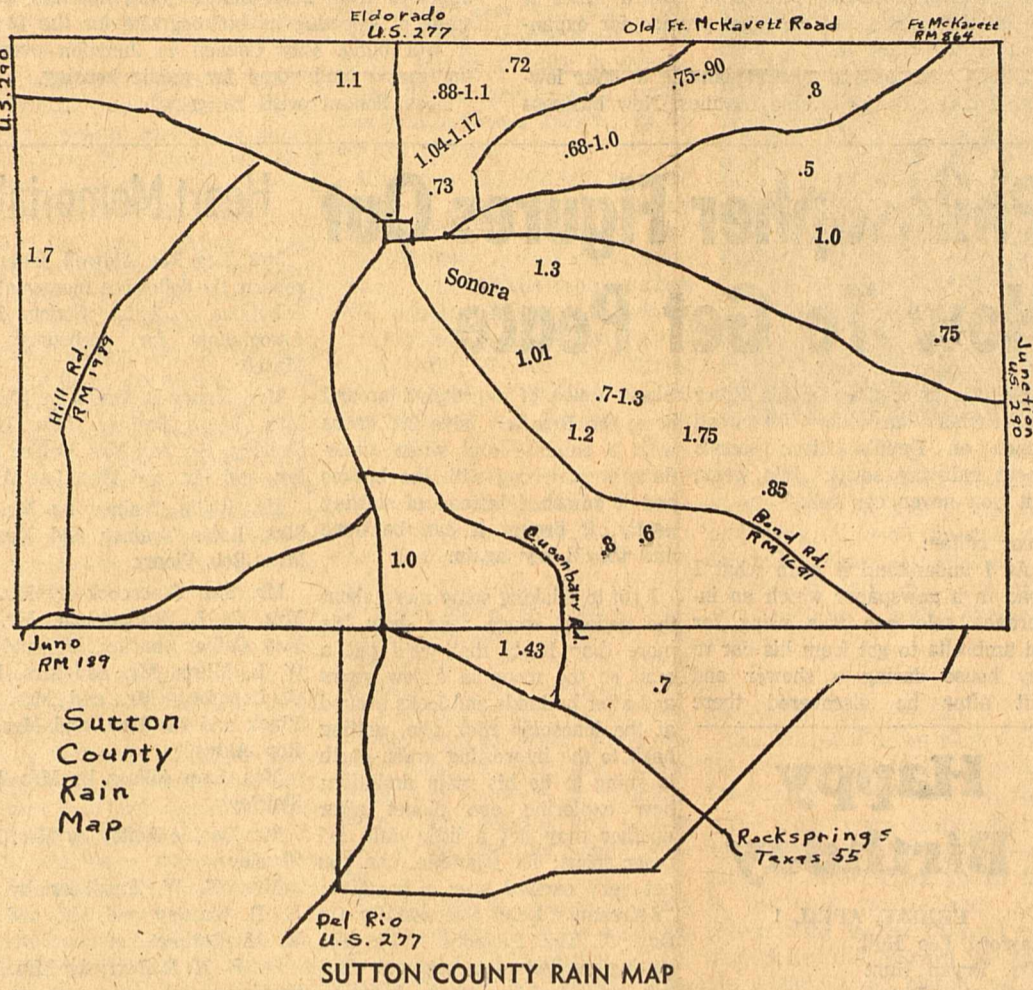

Elaborate decoration became the rule in some eastern European lands. The Ukrainians are famous for their beautifully decorated Easter eggs. Each village makes its own design—fir trees, horses, priests' robes, flowers, bell towers, crosses, chapels, etc. Residents of Czechoslovakia, Poland, Lithuania, and other lands also are known for their highly decorated Easter eggs.

In England, friends often exchanged eggs at Easter, although nowadays these usually are chocolate eggs. The Irish break the long Lenten fast by eating eggs at dawn on Easter.

Germans color eggs green on "Green Thursday"—the Thursday before Easter—and carry the eggs all day for good luck. On Easter Monday the young people have an egg-rolling contest.

In Italy, a priest blesses the eggs on Easter. The eggs occupy the center of the breakfast table, with other dishes arranged around them.

Boy Scouts Cited In Ceremony Tues.

The Boy Scouts of Sonora Troop 325 were honored last Tuesday night at the West Side Lions Canteen. A prayer was led by Ernest Castro, and a movie about camping was shown by Paul Luis and Lee Ardell of San Angelo.

Boy Scouts were introduced while badges were awarded to them by the president of the West Side Lions Club, Claud Flores. There were three Scouts who entered tenderfoot, six in second class, and ten, first class.

Then the Scouts had a candle ceremony. First Class Boy Scout Bobby Duran spoke about the history of the troop.

The East and West Side Lions clubs of San Angelo also attended this special program. They sponsored a camping trip this year for Edward Gonzales, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lalo Gonzales. All the Boy Scouts appreciate this contribution.

Junction Church Has Famed Speaker Sunday, April 3

Mrs. Gertrude Behanna, author of "The Late Liz" and renowned speaker, will speak at the Methodist Church in Junction April 3 at 7:30 p.m.

Mrs. Behanna was educated in private schools in this country and abroad. Late in life she turned to religion and began Christian work. Trying to decide what was consistent with her new way of life, she used her immense wealth to set up funds for needy all over the world.

Now 72 years old, she is very active. Mrs. Jym Adamson says, "Mrs. Behanna is one of the most tremendous personalities I have ever met. She makes you realize what kind of person you can be if you try."

Mrs. Behanna has been on the Mike Douglas T. V. Program, and is now planning a trip to Okinawa and Viet Nam to speak to soldiers.

Cancer Crusade Gets Underway

A. E. Prugel, mayor, has proclaimed April as Cancer Control Month in Sonora, and President Lyndon Johnson has made a national proclamation of the same order.

The local unit of the American Cancer Society will open its educational and fund-raising Crusade on April 1. Volunteer workers will visit homes in Sonora and distribute pamphlets with life-saving information as well as collect funds for the Society's promotion.

It is the volunteer workers in the program who are responsible for its success, states the American Cancer Society.

Education and service could now save one out of two instead of the present one out of three cancer patients, according to the Cancer Society. Yet each year, the Society states, it must turn its back on research projects approved by its various committees. It is estimated that about 49 million Americans now living will eventually have cancer if the present rate continues.

A partial list of Sutton County volunteers is as follows: Mmes. Calvin Howell, C. W. Sims, Tommy Smith, J. T. Sellman, Jack Kerbow, Robby Morris, Vestel Askew, Lee Fawcett, Beulah Cook, Curt Schwiening, Robert Kelley Jr., L. D. Holmig, Bill Morris, Jack Raye, Raymond Morgan, Joe Hull, W. B. McMillan and Alvis Johnson.

Dr. C. F. Browne is Crusade chairman of the local unit. Mrs. W. B. McMillan is Crusade co-chairman, and Mrs. Alvis Johnson is president. Claud Flores is West Side Crusade chairman.

Welcome Thundershowers Bring Needed Moisture

by E. B. Keng
Soil Conservation Service Technician

Thundershowers covered the Sonora area Monday morning bringing needed moisture that varied from one-half inch to nearly two inches. The rain fell slowly and all soaked into the soil.

The rainfall was particularly valuable at this time to sustain growth of current spring vegetation. After plants go through the winter in a semi-dormant condition most of the food reserves are used in starting spring growth. When dry weather causes growth to stop—and a new start must be made later—the plants are considerably weakened.

Monday's rainfall followed no particular pattern. The W. F. Berger O'Leary ranch west of Sonora received 1.7; the Libb Wallace ranch, 1.75; and the Experiment Station received 1.43. Most points within and around these extremes received less moisture.

Representative rainfall reports collected by SCS included John Fields 1.3; Bryan Hunt 1.3; Harold Friess .6; J. A. Cauthorn 1.0; W. L. Davis 1.1; W. B. McMillan Edwards County .7—Headquarters .8; Vestel Askew .68-1.0; Bud Whitehead 1.3; Joe M. VanderStucken 1.2; Geo. Brockman .85; Lin Hicks .75-1.2; Jo Hardgrave 1.0; Gene Wallace .85; Buster Shroyer .75; Alvis Johnson 1.0; Frank Bond .75-9; Herbert Fields 1.01; Frank Fish .8-1.0; Ben Cusenbary .8; J. V. Alley .5; V. J. Glasscock .8.

Rainfall gauges in Lowrey Draw maintained by the Agricultural Research Service recorded Joe Logan

.72; James Hunt .88-1.1; W. L. Miers 1.04-1.17; Stella Keene .73; Hunt & Neill (Hospital) 1.01.

District PTA Meet Held in Del Rio

The sixth District of the Texas Congress of Parents and Teachers Association held its 45th Spring Conference in Del Rio March 30.

The Board of Trustees of the Del Rio and San Felipe School Districts honored Mrs. T. W. Rutledge of Amarillo, state vice-president, and Mrs. J. David Proctor, state audio-visual chairman, with a dinner Tuesday night.

Theme of the program was "The P.T.A. Moves Forward by Increasing Educational Opportunities." Mrs. Boyd Baker of Ozona, District 6 president, conducted the morning meeting.

Mrs. Rutledge addressed the conference and gave highlights on the program for the year. Mrs. Proctor participated in a panel discussion.

Workshops for officers and members were conducted in the afternoon by five district leaders: Roy Killingsworth, Mrs. Robby Robinson, Mrs. Ed F. Meador, Mrs. Henry Mams and Mrs. Norbin Taylor.

One highlight of the conference was the presentation of a Texas Life Membership Award that was given District 6 at the State Convention in Corpus Christi last November. Local units over the district presented or pledged their life memberships.

Chavez Rates 1st

by Gary McGilvray

Noe Chavez took the only first place awarded to a member of the Sonora track squad when he cleared 12 feet, 2 inches in the pole vault in the San Angelo Relays held last Friday and Saturday.

This vault was the highest of the season for the Sonora sophomore.

Laney Cook was the other Bronco to place in the relays. He took the third place spot in both the 120-yard high hurdles and the 180-yard lows.

Both Cook and Chavez will be competing in the track meet at Iraan this weekend in preparation for the District 8-A track meet later on in April.

Blake's Electric Opens for Business

Jackie C. Heffernan is announcing the opening of Blake's Electric in Sonora. The company, which also operates in Eldorado, will specialize in electrical and air conditioning service.

Heffernan and his wife, Jo Ann, have one child, Lori.

PROCLAMATION

The President of the United States, by direction of an Act of Congress, and the Governor of our State of Texas have proclaimed April as Cancer Control Month.

The magnitude of the problem of cancer needs to be recognized here in our own community, for if present rates continue, one out of every four persons will be struck by cancer—almost every family in our city will have experience with this dread disease. Expanded research offers the prospect of new cures and possible new preventive measures, but increased voluntary support of American Cancer Society programs is needed to help save more lives today and to increase the prospect of eventually saving all lives from cancer.

In this coming month, our friends and associates here in Sonora will carry on the "Tell Your Neighbor" Crusade, visiting you in your homes, and distributing information through pamphlets and discussions.

The funds you give as voluntary contributions collected and distributed by volunteer workers represent community spirit at work—citizens of our city joining forces with other Americans to combat and defeat cancer.

Therefore I urge the citizens of Sonora to participate in the activities of Cancer Control Month. In official recognition whereof I hereby affix my signature this 31st day of March 1966

Is Sonora Housing Keeping Up With the Times?

Are you interested in the future growth of Sonora? There is never any stand-still place for individual, city, state or nation. If Sonora does not progress, it will surely deteriorate.

America is growing, business is expanding. The great Southwest has much to offer those seeking a home, location for a business or a place to vacation. The geophysical features of Sonora make it an inviting locale, but we must provide for expansion if we want it.

Other towns around us are planning to offer low-cost housing to low-income families. New business cannot go were workers cannot find adequate housing.

While public housing is not meant to compete with private rental, there are instances of housing standards being raised because of it.

Rocksprings has submitted an organizational transcript for public housing and is waiting for approval from PHA before going into the further stage of selecting its building site for the 16 units it will build. City Council in Junction overruled the mayor and voted for public housing.

Does Sonora wish to grow?

Philosopher Figures Out How To Get Peace

Editor's note: The Devil's River Philosopher on his bitterweed ranch on Devil's River sounds about half-way serious this week, but you never can tell.

Dear editor:
As I understand it from what I read in a newspaper which an insurance salesman was using for an umbrella to get from his car to my house during a shower and left after he discovered there wasn't much of a prospect around here, the Russians have hit Venus with a satellite and while something went wrong with the braking and it smashed instead of settling gently, it proves it can be done and they'll try again.

I got to thinking some more about the general space race, how it's more than likely that we'll put a man on the moon in a few years and after he lands and looks around at the lonesome rock pile, getting back to the interesting green earth is going to be his main ambition; how exploring one planet after another may get a little dull and monotonous; for example, can you get very excited over a headline: "Astronauts Land Successfully On One Of The Pleiades?" Be like getting excited over who got elected Justice of the Peace in some precinct in Utah.

Then I got to thinking some more, and I have decided we've got to keep exploring; after the moon and Venus try Mercury, Jupiter, Neptune, etc., and then try those further out we haven't even named yet.

What we've got to do is find some planet out there inhabited by intelligent creatures. Then we've got to make them mad at us. It's the key to world peace.

It's this way: right now more than half the world's thought and money and energy is taken up with war and defense against future war, and one country can't stop as long as the others don't. At least, the U. S. isn't, I hope.

But, if we got some distant planet mad at us and its inhabitants attacked, and not knowing the difference between Communists and the free world, started shooting at us, then I guess all of us would unite, for the first time in the history of the world. Everybody'd be falling over each other to share scientific and military secrets, and all the guns would be pointed up instead of horizontally.

This sure would be going the long way around to get this world organized, but not as long as the route we've been going since the dawn of history.

There's got to be some planet out there willing to shoot at us. Making its inhabitants mad at us will be easy. We'll bombard 'em with guitar music.

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

Income Tax Answers

This column of questions and answers on federal tax matters is provided by the local office of the U.S. Internal Revenue Service and is published as a public service to taxpayers. The column answers questions most frequently asked by taxpayers.

Q - Our daughter was married during the Christmas holidays. Will we be able to claim her as a dependent for 1965 even though she is now married?

A - If you furnished more than one-half the support of your daughter for the entire calendar year, you may claim her as a dependent unless she files a joint return with her husband, provided the gross income and citizenship tests are met. If she files jointly, you may not claim her exemption.

Q - I qualify as unmarried head of household. Which tax table should I use?

A - If your adjusted gross income is less than $5000 and you do not claim itemized deductions, use Table B on page 13 of the 1040 instruction booklet; otherwise, use Schedule III on page 11.

Q - I retired last year after 30 years of government service on a disability pension. Is this taxable to me? I'm 58 years old.

A - Yes, although a disability pension received before the normal retirement age may qualify for the sick pay exclusion. Since U.S. Civil Service employees may retire at age 60 with 30 years of service, your pension qualifies as sick pay and up to $100 a week may be excluded from income. When you reach age 60 your pension will be treated as an annuity for tax purposes.

Q - Just what do you mean by gross income?

A - Any income that the law specifically does not exempt from taxation is gross income. For example, Social Security pensions are expressly made tax exempt by law, and therefore are not added in when figuring gross income.

Q - Is there any situation where partners in a business could file a joint return with each other?

A - No. The partnership will have to file partnership Form 1065, reporting its income and expenses. Each individual partner has to file his own Form 1040, showing his share of the partnership net income. He may, of course, file his individual return jointly with his wife.

Q - Do you have to be married to claim the child care deduction?

A - No. Women who are single, married, widowed, divorced, or deserted; as well as men who are widowed, divorced, legally separated, or those whose wives are incapacitated or institutionalized may use this provision of the tax law.

Q - If you claim this deduction, use Form 2441 to compute the amount of your deduction.

Q - I am a housewife and have no Social Security number. Last year I received a little money from my uncle's estate and opened a separate account. Do I need a Social Security number and do I have to report this income since it is under $600.

A - The law requires you to have a Social Security number for tax purposes if you received $10 or more in interest from your account during the year. An application for a number may be obtained from any Internal Revenue Service or Social Security office.

THE FAMILY LAWYER

The Case Lincoln Lost

On a fateful autumn day in Indiana, in the fourth year of the Civil War, Union soldiers entered the home of Lambdin P. Milligan and placed him under arrest.

The soldiers were acting on orders of President Abraham Lincoln, their commander in chief. Milligan, suspected of aiding the Confederate cause, was speedily found guilty by a military court and sentenced to be hung.

But nine days before he was to die Milligan—invoking the ancient writ of habeas corpus—demanded his freedom. He claimed that, as a civilian, he could not lawfully be punished by a military court.

How far may military power reach in wartime? For a nation dedicated to individual liberty, the issue was a wrenching one.

Lincoln himself argued that, with war convulsing the country, he was justified in taking drastic means to crush disloyalty on the home front. But there were weighty points too on the other side of the argument. Not only was Milligan a civilian, but he had been arrested in Indiana—where, at the time, no hostilities were under way.

Most important, Indiana's civil courts were still open for business, ready, willing, and able to hear the charges against Milligan if given the chance.

On April 3, 1866, 18 months after Milligan's arrest, the United States Supreme Court set him free. Holding that the military trial was unlawful, the Court thereby marked out historic limits beyond which martial authority must not go.

Oddly enough, this decision condemning Lincoln's action was written by his own devoted friend, Justice David Davis. Lincoln by then was already dead. Yet it is easy to imagine that if still alive, with the awful pressures of war behind him, he might have applauded the judge's words:

"The Constitution is a law for rulers and people, equally in war and peace, and covers with the shield of its protection all classes of men, at all times, and under all circumstances."

A Northern editor had this comment:

"Above the might of the sword, the majesty of the law is thus raised supreme."

It is easy to imagine Lincoln himself saying amen.

Masonic Workshop Set for Sonora, Eldorado Lodges

A Masonic Workshop meeting has been scheduled for officers and members of two Lodges at 7:30 p.m. April 7 in Eldorado Lodge 890.

Ernest J. Humphreys of Del Rio who is with Producers Wool and Mohair Co. and chairman of the five-county Masonic Workshop Area F-5, will conduct the meeting. He said Sonora and Eldorado Lodges are invited.

Nearly 200 Workshop meetings are held semi-annually for officers of over 970 Texas Masonic Lodges.

The meetings are authorized by H. W. Fullingim of Odessa, who holds the highest Masonic position in the state as Grand Master of Masons in Texas.

The Masonic Order is the state's largest fraternal organization with nearly 250,000 members. It is noted for its activities in the field of charity and in the self-improvement of its members.

Artist-Critic To Judge Young People's Art

"Our Talented Children" will be the theme expressed at the Sonora Woman's Club Art Show at the unit's regular meeting on April 7.

An exhibition of school children's art work will be open to the public from 3:30 until 6:30 p.m.

Judge for the event, which is open to all children from preschool through high school age, will be Franklyn E. Walker, prominent San Angelo artist and art critic.

Walker teaches art classes at his San Angelo studio, has taught four years at the YMCA, and also teaches a large class at the Cactus Hotel, in addition to his private lessons.

A graduate of the California School of Fine Arts with a bachelor of arts degree, he earned his master's degree from the Conservatory of Arts in Milan, Italy.

He came to Texas after six years' military service during World War II, and he moved to San Angelo in 1957 from Austin. Also a musician, Walker sang for many years in opera and radio, having studied and sung in La Scala Opera House in Milan.

Army Enlistees May Receive Musical Training

The U.S. Army is now offering young men with musical talent an opportunity to fulfill their military obligations and, at the same time, receive five months of musical training.

Young men now may enlist for a direct assignment to any of the U.S. Army Bands, with special emphasis being placed on the 82nd Airborne Division Band, Fort Bragg, N. C., according to Ssg. Felipe Rodriguez, local Army recruiter.

The 82nd Airborne Division Band furnishes music for military ceremonies, troop gatherings and social functions, and participates in many civilian activities and parades as representatives of the entire 82nd Airborne Division.

Prior to enlistment, applicants must demonstrate their musical ability in an audition before an Army bandmaster.

Following basic training, the enlistee will attend the Army Element, School of Music in Washington, D. C. Upon completion of the 20-weeks of instructions, the man will be assigned to the U.S. Army band he chose prior to enlistment.

Ssg. Rodriguez invites all young musicians who are interested in fulfilling their military obligations while advancing their musical proficiency to visit him at 211 S. Main Street, Del Rio, or call 775-6767 for complete information.

Bright Future Forecast for Agriculture

The expected message of W. N. Stokes Jr., president of the Federal Intermediate Credit Bank of Houston, should be good news for the more than 400 stockholders and bank patrons attending the Bank's Annual meeting at the Driscoll Hotel in Corpus Christi April 3.

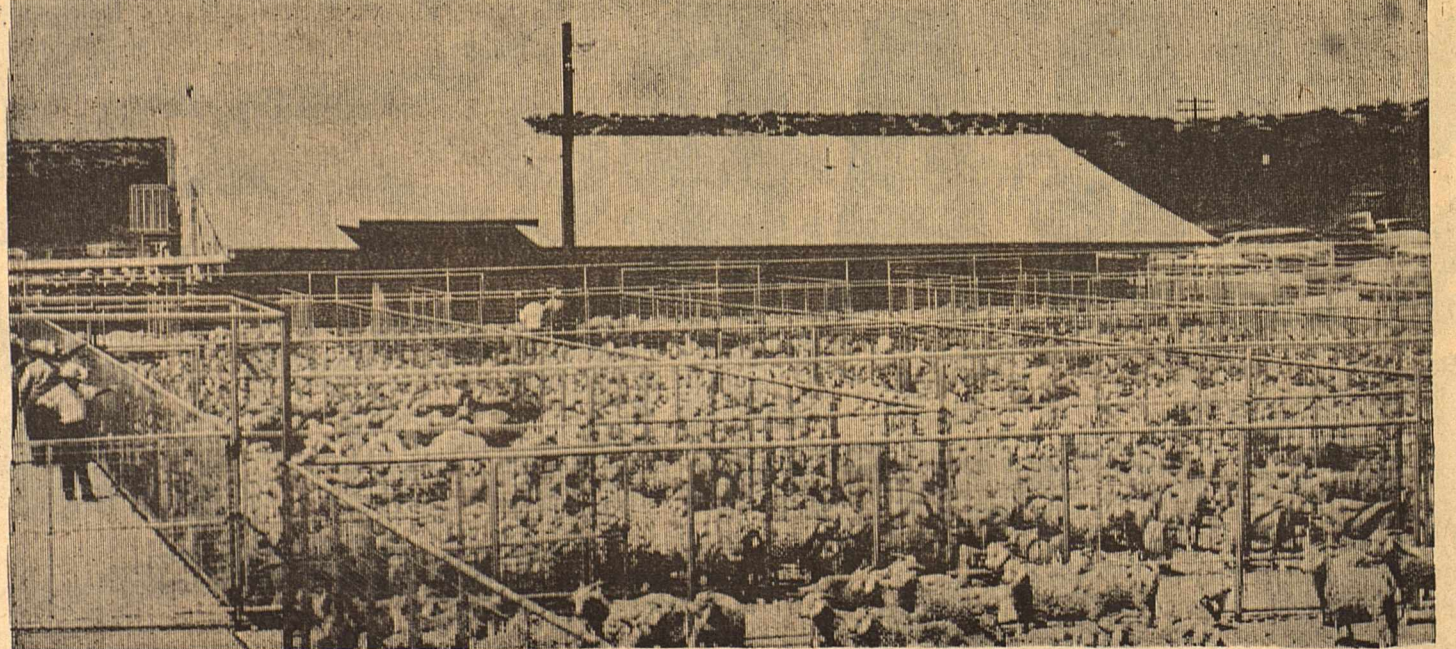

The message planned is that prospects for the future are good for both the agricultural industry and the institutions which handle a large portion of its financing.

"Capitalization of Production Credit Associations by Investments in Equity Reserves" will be the subject of one discussion which will be moderated by four of the bank's presidents. A talk on "The Money Market" and a session on Livestock and Dairy Financing are also on the Agenda.

There will be a vespers service at 4:30 on registration Sunday and a special tour of Padre Island is planned for the women Monday morning.

J. Burney Ligon of Fort Stockton will represent the Texas Production Credit Association as a voting delegate. Other directors who plan to attend are J. R. Canning of Eden, R. C. Chandler and E. D. Webster of San Angelo and Aubrey Delong of Mertzon.

Miss Wool Applications Being Accepted

A new Miss Wool of Texas will be crowned Monday, May 23, amid the glitter and splendor of the Dallas Apparel Mart.

While the new Miss Wool will be the 15th beautiful representative of the Texas Sheep and Goat Raisers' Association, many new ideas and new approaches will be evident in the 1966 pageant and contest.

Under the chairmanship of Eldorado ranchman Howard Derrick, a special Miss Wool Committee has formed up plans for the Apparel Mart presentation, the first such industry contest ever held at the Mart. Derrick is first vice-president of TS&GRA.

Texas Fashion Creators will be working in conjunction with the TS&GRA in staging the spectacle and contest. The Texas manufacturers represented by the Texas Fashion Creators will furnish the wool and mohair wardrobe to be shown during the pageant.

Entertainment for the Dallas pageant will be furnished by the Levy Singers and the Levy Orchestra, according to Mrs. Velma McKee, executive secretary of Texas Fashion Creators.

According to Derrick, applications for the contest are now being accepted. Interested applicants must be single and between the ages of 18 and 25; be residents of the state of Texas; be able to wear a standard size 10 dress, suit or coat; be at least 5 feet 6 inches tall in stocking feet; and have completed at least one year of activities in an accredited college or university.

Fifteen finalists will be chosen from all applications to participate in the Dallas contest. Deadline for applications is April 15. Official application forms are available from the contest director: Frank A. Fecher, Womack-Snelson Advertising, Inc., 412 Continental Bldg., San Angelo.

The young woman chosen Miss Wool of 1966-67 will tour the major cities of the state during her reign. She is scheduled to appear in fashion shows for leading retail stores in these cities. She will also represent Texas in the 1967 Miss Wool of America Pageant in San Angelo.

As Miss Wool she receives a Texas wardrobe of at least 20 costumes of wool and mohair, completely accessorized. She also has the use of a new Chevrolet convertible during her year's reign.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

An open letter to the people of Sutton County. The Chamber of Commerce, City Commission, and every citizen of Sutton County:

Please read the April issue of Reader's Digest, page 61, "The Stench of FHA". This low-cost housing is just a little nephew of FHA and when it is built the rent will be so high no one will want to live in it. If renters had that kind of money they would get the lumber company to build a house and pay it out by the month and it would be theirs.

Check the ones already built. Ninety percent are a total loss. The same people are boosting up an old folks home. I am all for one, but the old folks that need one are the folks with a little pension of $65 to $85 a month. How will they stay in one when the price starts at $150 to $200 and on up?

I laughed when I read in the Devil they are going to sell these bonds when they will only pay 2 to 3 percent interest.

Some of the same people are boosting the school bond issue. Now I'm for children's education, but a show building does not educate any child. We have a new school we still owe $500,000 on. When it was built all the boosters said the enrollment would double in ten years. Has it gained any? Check and see.

The $400,000 on top of our school debt looks bad to me.

The thing that looks the worst is Sonora was a growing and prosperous town. Now it is dying, just like the early-day towns of Mayer and Roosevelt. Hardly any of the businesses have competition and that's bad for any town. Half the little businesses would like to get out.

Boosters hardly ever pay any taxes. Taxes are something that always go up but never come down. I urge the people to look right straight at these things. They don't want to get like some of the little towns and cities on the east coast. A working boy with a $10,000 home pays $500 a year taxes besides all the other taxes.

Oh, yes, you are going to holler government. But who is the government? You. I would say it starts right here at home. So let's just have some good government at home and holler loud and maybe it will go on up to the top.

It reminds me of an old friend that said, "Give any man enough money and it would make a horse's tail out of him. It just takes a lot more for some." That is the way our government has turned out, plum to the top.

It reminds me, one time Sam Karnes and I were commissioners. There were boosters up every month or two wanting to build a new courthouse. I am sure proud of our old one. It is paid for. But Sam and I got thrown out because we wouldn't raise our salary. We were getting $5 a month.

Well folks, we can be thankful for the good rain.

Thanks for reading, J. V. Alley

GREEN NEWS

The rain came. Thank you, God. GN

The big news this week is the tentative plans for the new course. Jerry Hopkins and Oliver Wuest laid it off and Milton Cavaness drew the sketch. There will be only two draw crossings, but 200 yards have been added to the length. Comments heard around the Club House included, "Anyone could tell it was laid off by a left-handed golfer."

Junction Easter Pageant To Portray Last Days of Jesus Christ on Earth

The Men's Bible Class of Junction, a non-sectarian group, will present for the 16th year its portrayal of the last days of Christ upon earth. The pageant is planned for Saturday, April 9, at 10 p.m.

The stage is a natural setting on the side of a low mountain one mile southeast of Junction.

More than 100 Kimble County residents are used in this production, which is under the supervision of Mrs. Jack Reeves. Colorfully costumed actors authentically portray the time of Christ in the pantomime production, which is accompanied by readers from a broadcasting booth and background music.

The scenes are changed by shifting of spot and flood lights.

Parking areas are provided where spectators may view from the convenience of their cars.

Each year the cast grows, and the audience grows. The production is presented free, and coffee is served on the grounds at no charge. Costs are met by contributions.

Sound has been improved at the amphitheatre.

Picnic areas are readily available and new and better rest room facilities have been added.

Visitors are invited to come early for better parking.

A NOTE OF THANKS

My dear wife died a year ago. Now there's just myself and my little daughter Janice. Don't feel sorry for us, though, because we're managing pretty well.

Last year when the blow came, I admit I went to pieces. We'd only lived in the neighborhood for a few weeks, and it's hard to say what would have happened if it hadn't been for our church. Suddenly I was surrounded by friends. The minister came at once with convincing words of comfort that helped me to face life again. His wife alerted other members and they brought meals, laundered clothing, took care of Janice, and ultimately found the wonderful elderly housekeeper we have now.

I had never given much thought to the meaning of Christian fellowship. Today I know that miracles of kindness can result when people unite in following the "perfect pattern" of self-sacrifice and unquestioning love.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

The 18-year-old soldier was graduated in 1965 from Sonora High School.

Local FHA Members Stress Improvement In Observance of Week, March 27-April 2

The 32 members of the local chapter of Future Homemakers of America are stressing school improvement during national FHA Week, March 27 to April 2.

A rose is placed on each woman teacher's desk with a note reminding her of FHA Week, and a group of girls present homemade candy to the high school faculty as an expression of appreciation for kindness and counseling. Another group waxes teachers' desks.

To encourage neatness and foster good appearance, a committee has been chosen to inspect lockers. Stars are placed on those that pass inspection. Others are marked with pictures of litterbugs.

This year another activity was added in observing the week. Names of Sonora High ex-students, who are serving in the armed forces or are otherwise far from home, have been distributed to members, and each girl is writing a letter filled with local "doings."

"The members hope that by improving school relations they have fulfilled the purposes to which they pledge themselves at each meeting," says Mrs. A. E. Prugel, local FHA sponsor.

The FHA is a national organization of high school home economics students. There are 600,000 members in 1,000 chapters in the United States, Puerto Rico and the Virgin Islands. Its purposes are eightfold:

1. To promote a growing appreciation of the joys and satisfactions of homemaking.
2. To emphasize the importance of worthy home membership.
3. To encourage democracy in home and community life.
4. To work for good home and family life for all.
5. To promote international good will.

I HIRED IT THROUGH THE WANT ADS

6. To foster the development of creative leadership in home and community life.

7. To provide wholesome individual and group recreation.

8. To further interest in home economics.

The Sonora chapter's goal for the past three years has been improving personal, family and community relations. Last fall members gave up their study hall periods to go to L. W. Elliott school to help children who were having trouble mastering the English language. At Christmas time the members chose five or six shut-ins to visit and to whom they sang Christmas carols and gave small gifts. In February the Club had a tea honoring mothers and grandmothers.

During FHA Week next year's officers are elected and plans are made for a picnic to be held in April.

More Than 1 Million Motor Vehicles Must Be Inspected

The director of the Texas Department of Public Safety reported this week the owners of more than one and one-quarter million motor vehicles still need to have them safety checked at official inspection stations before their current inspection stickers expire April 15.

Col. Homer Garrison Jr. said this means Texas' 5,350 inspection stations must collectively check over 65,000 vehicles per day in order to meet the deadline.

"This breaks down to an average of 12 cars per day per station," Garrison said. "And though this may seem like a small enough number to run through each station, it adds up to a total of over 1,378,000 individual vehicles."

He pointed out that the load on some inspection stations is greater than on others, resulting in the development of frustrating waiting lines in some places as the deadline approaches.

Latest figures indicate that so far during the 1966 inspection period approximately 2,815,000 vehicles have been inspected.

YOUR MINISTER SAYS

by the Rev. Arno Melz pastor, Hope Lutheran Church
"But God thanked, that you were servants of sin, but you have obeyed from the heart that form of doctrine which was delivered you. Being then made free from sin, you became servants of righteousness." Romans 6:17-18

Most people want freedom. For this cause wars are fought; for this cause history is made. Today we have our young men fighting in Viet Nam, fighting and dying for the cause of freedom.

In our country we have the demonstrators who want changes in voters' registration and poll tax so all men will have equal freedom. Prayers have been banned in our schools with the idea that our children will have the freedom to choose their own religious belief.

This desire for freedom extends into the family. Husbands have been known to frequent bars looking for freedom from wife or responsibilities. Wives have divorced husbands because they want more freedom. Children quit school, rebel against authority, or leave home because they want freedom. Only too late do these people find that they still haven't found freedom.

There is only one place to find this freedom which everyone seeks. It is found as we kneel in spirit before our Savior as He hangs upon the cross for our sins. Jesus is the only one who can wipe away the guilt of our sins with His precious blood and give us freedom.

Paul reminds us, there is no peace while we are servants of sin and filled with guilt. Only after we have forgiveness of our sins and live to serve God can we find peace. The doctrine which we must obey from the heart is simply this: believe in Jesus Christ as your Savior and you will have forgiveness of your sins and the promise of heaven.

Are you seeking freedom? Has life become unbearable? Do you stay awake at night worrying? Do you quarrel with your loved ones for no reason? You need freedom. God offers you this freedom through the death of His Son Jesus, who is the Savior of the world. Turn to Jesus and be free. In Jesus you will find peace and comfort. The freedom Jesus brings into your life is a lasting peace; accept it today. Amen

Chevrolet Cops Fuel Economy Wins

Chevrolet has staked out a claim for superior fuel economy on the results of the 1966 annual Mobil Economy Run.

Full-sized Chevrolets won classes "E" and "F" for standard-sized cars with six and eight-cylinder engines, respectively, and won a second place in class "F" as well.

In class "A" where compact six-cylinder cars competed, a Corvair Monza finished third overall, getting 23.25 miles per gallon on the 3,800-mile trip from Los Angeles to Boston.

A six-cylinder Biscayne piloted by a mother-daughter team, Pat and Pam Sawyer, Hemet, Calif., won class "E" with an average of 21.04 miles per gallon.

In class "F" the winner was a Chevrolet Impala with 327 cu. in. V-8 engine in which Don Royer, Encino, Calif., averaged 19.87 miles per gallon.

Services Sunday To Conclude Baptist Revival

The Rev. James O. Todd of San Antonio will preach at both Sunday services April 3, the last day of the Spring Revival at First Baptist Church. Van Funderburk will direct the music for the morning service.

The last week-day morning service of the revival will be held Friday. However, the night services will continue through Saturday night with high attendance planned for the services on Sunday.

"There has been a very large number of people attending the early morning week-day services," says the Rev. Rodney Dowdy, pastor of the First Baptist Church. "A cordial invitation is extended to everyone to attend the concluding services of the revival."

Friday night after the evening service there will be a special youth fellowship for the students of the high school. Funderburk is planning open panel discussions, as well as fun and refreshments for the young people.

A special youth fellowship for the students of the junior high school is planned for Saturday night.

"All the students of our schools are especially invited to attend these fellowships," Mr. Dowdy states.

Uncontrolled Insects Can Wipe Out Fruit Crop

A good set of peaches and plums from the trees which are beginning to bloom is not assured. For, points out D. C. Langford, county agent, insects can damage the fruit or even "wipe-out" the crop if they are not controlled.

Insect control on fruit trees, he adds, is largely a preventive program. Once the insects begin to cause damage, little can be done to rid the fruit of the pests and prevent further damage. Most of the common fruit-damaging insects begin their activity and reproduction during the first 30-45 days after the trees begin to bloom, points out Langford. Therefore, insecticides applied during this early period will control the insects which damage fruit later in the season.

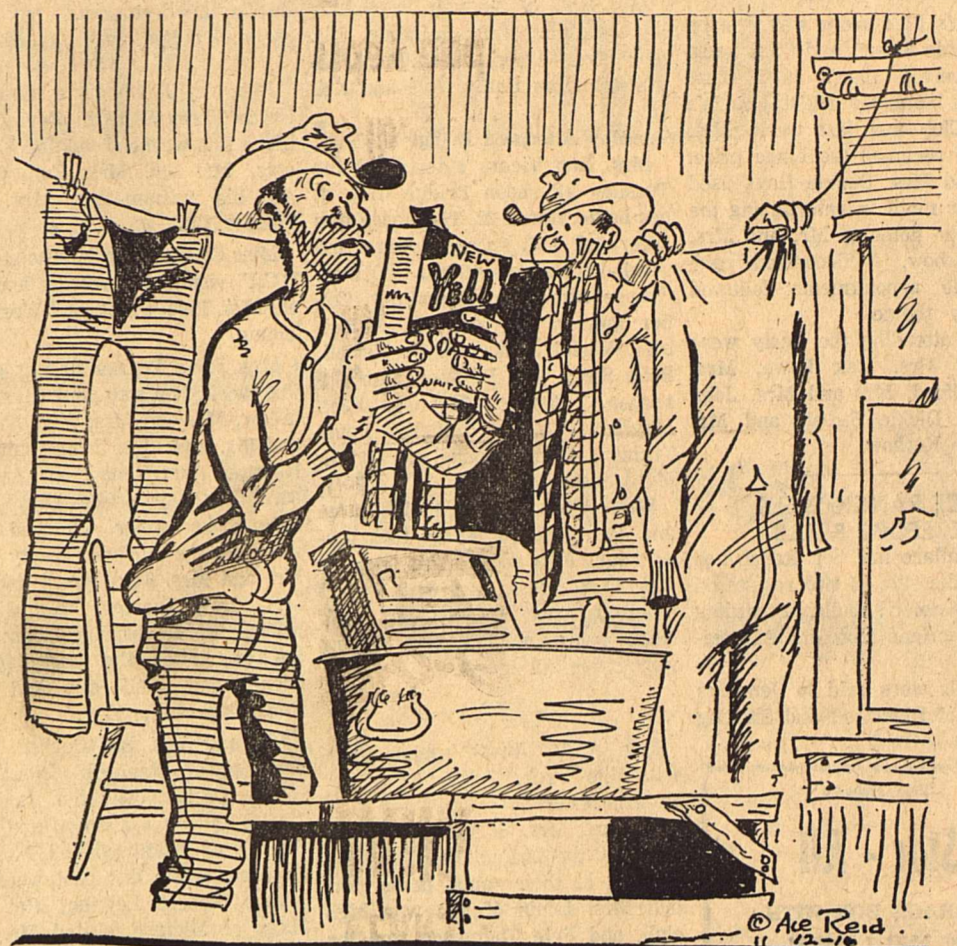

Homeowners with a few trees are advised to follow a preventive spray program. Malathion or methoxychlor, either in the wettable powder or emulsifiable concentrate forms, are effective for controlling insects. They are not hazardous when used as directed and will not leave residues in the fruit. Both are available in numerous commercial formulations and directions for mixing and applying are given on the container label.

The county agent recommends four spray applications, timed to coincide with bloom and fruit formation. The first or petal fall spray should be applied when about three-fourths of the blossom petals have shed. The second or shuck split spray should be made about 10 days after most of the petals have shed. The third or first cover spray should follow the second spray in 10 to 14 days and fourth or second cover spray should follow the third application in 14 to 21 days.

If later infestations begin to damage the fruit, a spray containing carbaryl (Sevin) will give good control. It can be safely used on peaches and plums up to within one day before harvest. On peaches, allow 21 days between the last application of methoxychlor and harvest and 7 days for malathion. On plums allow 7 days between last application and harvest with methoxychlor and 3 days for malathion.

Unusual Brush Control Projects Noted

by E. B. Keng Soil Conservation Service Technician

With spring either here or just around the corner many ranchmen are again thinking about a number-one problem—brush control.

In addition to a number of cedar chopping or dozing operations, two mesquite control jobs are in progress which differ from the ordinary.

Aldwell Bros. completed root-pulling some 560 acres of deep valley soils in December. A 26,000 pound brush chopper is now being pulled over the rootplowed land to firm up the soil and pulverize or chop the brush to form a good seedbed for grass. A seeding mixture of native and introduced grasses is being "blown out" behind the chopper.

The grass mixture being used is composed of 40 percent sideots groma, and 20 percent each of blue grama, green sprangletop and KR bluestem. Each of these grasses has been proved desirable and well adapted to the Edwards Plateau soil conservation district. The area will receive complete deferment from grazing until November in order to give the seedlings a good chance to become established. This operation is being conducted under a Great Plains Conservation Program contract.

On the W. L. Miers Black ranch 100 acres of thick, head-high mesquite is being mowed with a rotary brush mower. The stumps are being sprayed at the same time with 2-4-DT in emulsion form. The water and 2-4-DT is carried in separate tanks and mixed in a special nozzle—resulting in the formation of a thick, creamy paste. Follow-up studies will be made to determine the percent of root kill obtained.

Week, collecting Easter eggs. Young and old alike play games involving eggs on Easter Monday.

In Greece people tap red eggs together as a greeting when they meet on Easter. The first person says, "Christ is risen," and the second replies, "He is truly risen."

In Bulgaria, on Easter Saturday, people exchange eggs and baked almond cakes. In Hungary, boys sprinkle girls with water on Easter Monday and receive Easter eggs in reward.

Customs vary from land to land, but colored eggs have been associated with springtime since the dawn of history.
