Absentee Voting Now Taking Place

Absentee voting for the runoff election in the second Democratic primary between Franklin Spears of Bexar County and Crawford Martin of Hill County for attorney general began Wednesday, May 25. The voting takes place at the county clerk's office in the courthouse and will run through Tuesday, May 31.

Tourist Clinic To Be Held Here

"We need more people to attend these meetings to get the entire town 'wised' up. Wish more businesses had been represented." "I have been a Texan all my life and did not know there were so many interesting places in Texas. Can now do a better job in selling West Texas and my home town."

"Learned much about tourist attractions of my town and area that I didn't know were important or existed."

These are just a few comments from participants in the "Selling and Serving Tourist" clinics held in 1965. The clinics will be re-

29th Wool Show Scheduled Here For June 14-16

The 29th annual Sonora Wool and Mohair Show will be held June 14-16. This show is sponsored by the Sonora Lions Club and will be held at the Sonora Wool and Mohair Company. The show is open to 4-H Clubs, FFA chapters and adult producers and will feature the National 4-H Wool Judging Contest.

All wool and mohair entries are to be in the warehouse by 5 p.m. Tuesday, June 14. The livestock judging contests will begin at 8 a.m. the next day with the junior range judging contest at 10 a.m. Official judging of wool and mohair entries also starts at 8 a.m. while the wool and mohair judging contest begins at 1 p.m.

Participants in the show will be given a tour of the Caverns of Sonora at 4 p.m. The National 4-H Wool Judging Contest will be at 8 a.m. Thursday, June 16 followed by the awards luncheon at 11:30 a.m. peated this year and Sonora will be one of the West Texas towns receiving the clinic sponsored by the tourist development department of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce.

The five-hour course will be conducted in two, two and one-half hour sessions. The first session, "What It's All About," is devoted to a study of Tourism; a review of the facts and figures on the industry, both national and state, the vanishing frontier; population forecasts and trends; a study of what tourists expect from people they deal with; and a review of Texas, West Texas and local tourist attractions.

The second session, "What Can We Do About It," deals with the promotional aspects of serving tourists, especially courtesy.

The classes will be held from 9 a.m. to 11:30 a.m. and from 7:30 p.m. to 10 p.m., starting on Tuesday, June 21, 1966 in the 4-H Center. Those interested in attending should contact Bob Johnson, manager of the Sonora Chamber of Commerce.

Stores To Close Memorial Day

Most of the downtown businesses will be closed Monday, May 30 in observance of the Memorial Day holiday. The First National Bank will remain open as will some grocery stores.

MARGARET SANCHEZ

Margaret Sanchez, Student Nurse, Honored for Work

Margaret Sanchez, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Sanchez, was one of five students recognized and was named most outstanding senior at an assembly May 13 at Methodist Hospital Texas Medical Center in Houston.

Last year at the assembly she was presented a Funder Award for volunteer work at the M. D. Anderson Hospital. The annual presentation of Funder Awards is made by the Texas Methodist Hospital as a tribute to Mrs. W. W. Funder Sr. and in recognition of five outstanding Texas Woman's University student nurses.

While completing a six year program in four years, Miss Sanchez won six scholarships. She will graduate May 29 as a registered nurse with a bachelor of science degree and will work at Methodist Hospital in Houston. She is a Sonora High School graduate.

CINDERS

By John T. King

David A. Rood, publisher of the Manistique Pioneer Tribune, won first prize in the original column category of the 1965 Michigan Press Association's weekly newspaper contest. His prize-winning column is reprinted below.

My name is Kathy Rood and I am 10 years old and I wish that Daddy worked for a paper that came out every day instead of just once a week.

What I mean is Wow! Those Thursdays are crazy around our house, and Mother says it's because the paper is out and Daddy is unwinding.

I think it really starts Wednesday night when the paper goes to press. Daddy comes home and goes right in the pantry and it sounds like glasses clinking and then he comes out and takes a long drink of water. "First one today," he always says, whatever that means.

Then after supper he passes out that week's paper and we all have to read it for an hour.

I don't know what he does at the office all day Thursday. I guess I don't know what he does at the office all day any day, come to think of it. One day I asked him how many people worked at his office and he said "About half" and then laughed and laughed.

Anyway, Thursdays are sort of wild, probably because he hasn't done much at the office all day. Like last week when Susan and I were walking down the street after our 4-H meeting, and Daddy drove up behind us when we weren't looking and then blew the horn and made the car motor go real fast. Boy. Were we scared for a minute, and Daddy just laughed and laughed and then locked all the car doors so I could not get in and beat him up.

He was still ramming around when we sat down to dinner, and was Mother ever mad when he reached clear across the table to spear a dill pickle with his fork. "Well!" she said, and he brought his hand back so fast that the pickle came off and went in my glass of milk.

Boy! Did you ever try and drink pickled milk? That's what I asked

Flores Dies Sat. After Long Illness

Candelario Flores, 67, died in Hudspeth Memorial Hospital Saturday, May 21, 1966, after a lengthy illness. Flores was born in Mexico on February 5, 1899 and has been a resident of Sonora for the past 27 years.

He married Maria Mendez in 1922 at Del Rio. Flores is survived by his wife; four sons, Claudio and Gus of Sonora, Jesus of San Antonio, and Joe of California; two daughters, Francisca Virgin of California and Mrs. Ralph Gonzales of Sonora.

Funeral services were held Monday afternoon at St. Ann's Catholic Church, the Rev. Joel Byrne officiating. Burial was in Sonora Cemetery under the direction of Ratliff-Kerbow Funeral Home.

Mike Wuest Receives Annual Lambert Award

Mike Wuest, son of Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Wuest, was named recipient of the eleventh annual Lambert Award at commencement exercises Tuesday night. The Lambert Award is presented annually by Jeff Lambert in memory of the late Mrs. Jo Ethel Lambert.

Wuest was chosen by a committee on the basis of his character, leadership, service, patriotism, scholarship and sportsmanship. In his four years at Sonora High School, Wuest has been a member of the National Honor Society, National Thespian Society, Speech Club, Paper Staff, Industrial Club, and Band. He was elected to various offices in high school, and also was in a one act play. He was a member of the football, basketball, golf, and track teams. This past year he was awarded all-state honorable mention in football and all-district in basketball and was named as the best all around athlete.

Wuest plans to attend Texas Technological College and play football while majoring in math and minoring in science.

Others who received the award in the past are John David Fields,

Glasscock Urges Seniors Forward

With emphasis placed upon the value of education and the need for it in a complicated world, but he also stressed the need for happiness in all things which the newly graduated senior might take up. He expressed his idea that happiness is one of the most important determining factors in a person's life. In his speech, the class salutatorian, Gary McGilvray, brought forth the idea that even though great changes have been made in the world since the beginning of time, great truths and principals never change and they are the basis upon which every senior and individual can put his trust.

Bill Glasscock, president of the senior class, presided over the exercises. The invocation was given by Nedra Raye, and the benediction was given by Jim Fish.

Those who received their diplomas were Susan Allison, Gina Badillo, Anita Bassham, Rudy Bautista, Freddie Benson, Pat Brown, Stan Bundy, Janice Cavness, Billy Sam Chadwick, and Ray Glasscock.

Also Bill Glasscock, Gloria Gutierrez, Ismael Gonzales, Mickey Hardegree, Dick Hearn, Eddie Howell, Robert Kelley, Janie Letsinger, Tina Leija, and Lupe Leija. Also Gary McGilvray, Cathy Moffitt, Joe Moore, Keith Nolen. See Glasscock, Back Page

Sutton County Reaps Benefits from SS

In Sutton County, 319 people received a total of $230,292.00 in social security benefits in 1965, J. G. Keen, social security assistant district manager in San Angelo, revealed. This was an increase of $26,932.00 and 15 people over the year before.

A large part of the increase in payments resulted from changes made by the social security amendments of 1965, Keen said. Those changes which were in addition to the program of health insurance for the aged, included a 7 percent increase in monthly benefits retroactive to January 1965, benefits for widows as early as 60; benefits for full-time students between 18 and 22; benefits for some divorced women; benefits for some people over 72 who hadn't worked long enough to get social security before, and the payment of disability insurance benefits to workers who are unable to work because of a disability that lasts 12 months or more.

began getting benefits in 1965 because of these changes," Keen continued, "a good many older people, upon applying for medicare, found they were eligible for regular social security benefits, too. All in all, the 1965 figures for Sutton County include 155 retired workers, 16 disabled workers, and 147 wives and children of retired, disabled, or deceased workers. The average monthly social security benefit for Sutton County beneficiaries amounted to $60.00 in 1965."

"These figures," Keen said, "show how wide the protection offered by social security has become. Just about every man, woman, and child in Sutton County has in social security the assurance that loss of income because of retirement, disability, or death will not result in destitution—and now with medicare everyone has the assurance that the costs of operations or medical services in his later years will not wipe out his savings."

Mrs. Baker's Father Dies in Ozona Friday

Otis Lee Sims, father of Mrs. Hubert Baker of Ozona, died in Crockett County Hospital about 6 p.m. last Friday after a brief illness.

Mr. Sims was born at Llano on September 29, 1876 and ranched in Tom Green County until 1945 when he moved to Ozona.

Other survivors include his wife, a sister, three grandchildren, and seven great-grandchildren.

Mrs. Dowdy Attends Annual Convention For Texas Hospitals and Auxiliaries

Mrs. Rodney Dowdy, newly installed president of the Hudspeth Memorial Hospital Auxiliary, attended the 23rd Annual Texas Hospital and Auxiliaries Convention held in Dallas May 16-18.

Mrs. Dowdy represented the hospital at the convention and presented a report of the past year's accomplishments when Mrs. J. F. Howell was president of the auxiliary. The auxiliary received special commendation for completion of unique and worthy projects in a hospital of "under 75 beds" and special recognition for interest and work on "Health Career Program."

Speakers at the convention reminded the auxiliaries and hospitals of the modern age the world is in and the challenge and demands upon all medical resources and services. They pointed out that seven out of ten medications now in use were not heard of 25 years ago and that the last third of the century will see many more miracles in the science of medicine. The need of man-power in health careers for the fulfillment of the miracles of medicine was also emphasized.

After the convention, Mrs. Dowdy

Ninth Horse Show Scheduled for Friday

Trophies, buckles, blankets, rosettes, and ribbons will be awarded to the winners of the ninth annual Sonora Quarter Horse Show and Performance Contest to be held at Sonora Park Friday, May 27.

Emelciano Garcia Dies At Age 95

Emelciano Garcia died in Hudspeth Memorial Hospital Sunday, May 22, 1966, at the age of 95. He was born in Eagle Pass, Texas in 1871.

Funeral Services were held Tuesday at 5:15 p.m. at St. Ann's Catholic Church with the Rev. Joel Byrne officiating. Burial was at Sonora Cemetery under the direction of Ratliff-Kerbow Funeral Home.

Sponsored by the Sonora Park Association, the show is approved by the American Quarter Horse Association and the Quarter Horse Association of Texas. R. W. Wallace is chairman of the show, and Sharon Mittel is entry secretary. Other members of the committee responsible for organizing the show are Billy Galbreath, Bud Whitehead, Lin Hicks, Gene Shurley, Jerry Shurley, James Hunt, Stanley Mayfield, and Walter Pope.

Judging in the halter classes will begin at 9 a.m. Friday, and champions and reserve champions will be named in each class.

A youth activity division will be included in this year's show and feature mares, studs, and geldings, with champions and reserve champions named in each class.

An all-round youth horse will be named from horses placing in the top six in both halter and performance classes and the youth working with the winner must have placed in showmanship.

Events in the performance classes will be western pleasure, reining, barrel racing, pole bending, heading, and heeling in both junior and senior divisions.

All first place winners will be awarded buckles, and sterling silver buckles will be awarded to champions in each performance division.

Judging Teams Take First Places

Three judging teams representing the Sutton County 4-H Club won first place awards in the Paint Rock wool, mohair, plant and livestock judging contests held Saturday.

The novice 4-H team composed of Eddie Alexander, Mark Rousselot, and Steve Street won the overall high judging team award, first place in plant judging and second in wool judging. Steve Street was the second place overall high individual and was the second place individual in plant judging. Eddie Alexander was the high individual in plant judging.

The junior team composed of Tom Green, Scott Jacoby, Roger Langford and Rick Street, won the overall high judging team award, first place in plant judging, first place in livestock judging, first place in mohair judging, and third place in wool judging.

Overall high individuals were Roger Langford, first; Tom Green, second; and Scott Jacoby, third. Scott Jacoby placed first in plant judging and second in livestock judging. Roger Langford placed second in mohair and third in plant judging. Tom Green placed first in mohair and second in plant judging.

The Senior 4-H judging team composed of Chris Berger, Mark Jacoby, Bill Green and Steve Thorp won the overall high judging team award of the contest. They also placed first in plant judging, first in mohair judging and second in wool judging. Mark Jacoby was the overall high individual and placed second in plant judging. Chris Berger was the fourth overall high individual and placed third in wool judging. Bill Green placed third in plant judging.

The Sutton County 4-H girls grass judging team composed of Kaye Ellis, Susan Allison, and Cecilia Johnson placed second in the plant judging contest. Kaye Ellis was the high individual in plant judging with a perfect score.

Kenny Joy and Michelle Rousselot also participated as individuals. Edgar Glasscock, Mrs. Bill Green, and county agent D. C. Langford attended the contests with the 4-H members.

Janis Boucher Installed by Teachers

Janis Sykes Boucher, formerly of Sonora, was installed as secretary-treasurer of the Elko County, Nevada Classroom Teachers' Association and was also elected as a delegate to the annual state teachers' conference to be held in Sparks, Nevada in October.

She and her husband, George Boucher, recently attended meetings of the Nevada State Employees Association general council convention, and Boucher was elected to serve as first vice-president of the Board of Directors of Nevada state employees.

THE FAMILY LAWYER

CRUELTY TO ANIMALS

To brighten up a dull afternoon, two men tied an oil can to a dog's tail and set the oil on fire. At the time it seemed hilarious. But the men did not laugh when they were hailed into court and found guilty of cruelty to animals.

Few of us today would quarrel with the court's ruling. Yet, until comparatively recent years, cruelty to animals was not a crime at all. The common law did protect the property rights of an animal's owner, but did not protect the animal itself. Thus:

Suppose A abused B's horse. B, having suffered an injury to his property, could collect damages from A. But suppose B abused his own horse. Or suppose the horse was a stray, with no owner to be concerned. Then the law kept silent. Nothing stayed the brutal hand.

But if the common law did not condemn, common decency finally did. In a striking shift of public opinion, cruelty to animals—in itself—has now been branded every where as a crime.

Economics has nothing to do with it. When a man was fined for turning an old horse out to starve, the court spoke not of the dollar value of the horse but of the moral outrage to one of God's creatures.

True, we may still inflict harm on an animal for an honorable reason. Thus we may kill an animal—humanely—for food.

"Otherwise," a judge noted, "one could not slaughter a pig or ox for the market, and man could eat no more meat."

Furthermore, we may hit an animal in self defense. A man who struck a frenzied cat, which had a death grip on his hand, was held to have acted within the law.

Also we may chastise an animal as a matter of training—or perform surgery on it as a matter of health. Nor are cruelty laws carried to unreasonable extremes. Surely it is no crime to swat a fly or bait a hook with a worm.

What the law does denounce is conduct that affronts the modern conscience. One court put it this way:

"Animals whose lives are devoted to our use and pleasure deserve kindly treatment. The dominion of man over them, if not a moral trust, has a better significance than the development of malignant passions and cruel instincts. Human beings should be kind and just to dumb brutes, if for no other reason than to learn how to be kind and just to each other."

Golden Brown Tan Poses Hazards To Health of Skin

One skin specialist has predicted that suntanning some day will no longer be a status symbol and that people will quit baking their outer hides to a golden brown each summer.

Dermatologists have long known of the hazards of suntanning—premature aging of the skin and various freckles and blemishes.

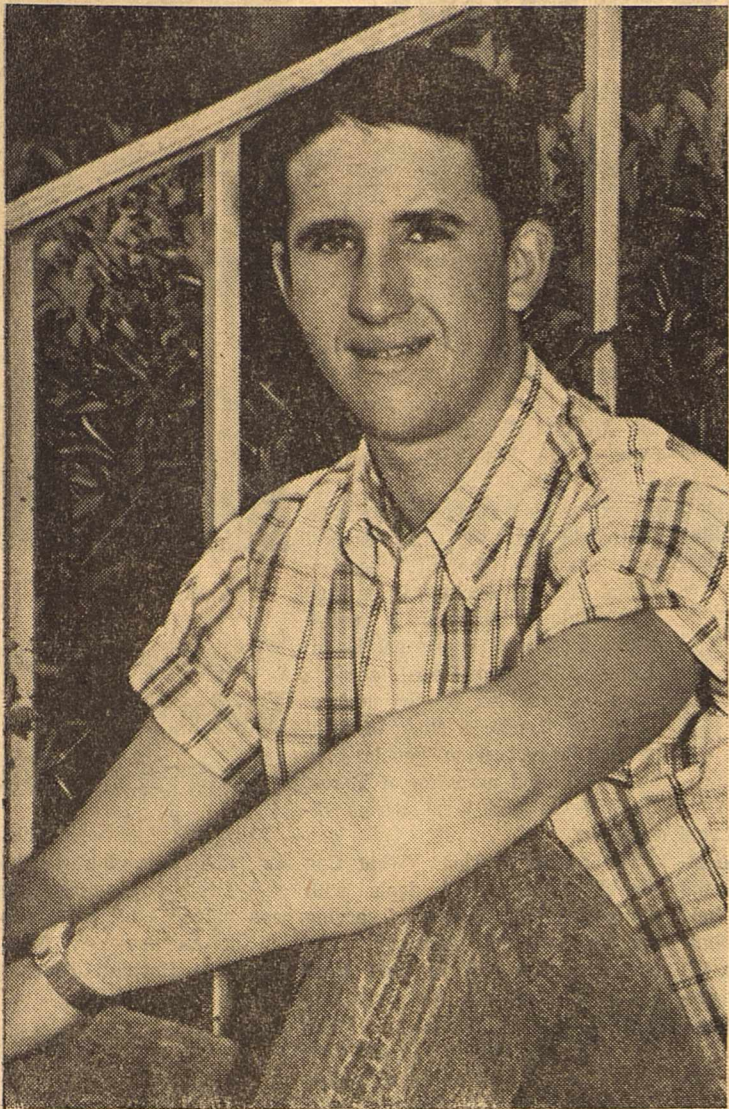

But whatever the future brings, some Americans today still are suntanners, and thus doctors suggest that if you must tan, do it without burning.

Gradual tanning with a minimum of discomfort is possible for most people. Gradual exposure to the sun is the safest and simplest method of acquiring an attractive tan. As a general rule, begin with 15 minutes exposure the first day, and increase the time by a few minutes a day. The time of day is important, with the midday period, when the sun is directly overhead, being the hottest for burning purposes.

Continued tanning brings gradual changes in the blood vessels of the exposed surfaces. The connective tissue of the skin degenerates, causing wrinkles and a coarsening of texture. The "V" of the neck becomes permanently reddened and freckle-like dark spots appear on the skin. These spots can sometimes be the start of skin cancer.

Sun bleaches the hair, too, and over a period of time the sun-bleached hair becomes brittle and unmanageable. However, the damaged hair will eventually grow out.

Physical benefits of tanning are almost nil. The only beneficial effect of sunlight, other than the psychological lift of sporting a good tan, is the formation of vitamin D, and the American diet already provides an ample supply.

Mrs. Johnson Notes Cancer Crusade Work

Mrs. Alvis Johnson, Sutton County Cancer Crusade chairman, reports that donations and memorials have raised the 1966 fund to $1,451.37. The 1965 figure was $2,000.45 for the crusade and memorials.

A total of 1,225 dressings have been prepared from Sept. 1, 1965 to May 18, 1966 by 32 volunteers in the local unit. In a recent letter to Mrs. Doc Rape, service chairman of Sutton County, Miss Gertrude Linn, Austin director of service and education for the American Cancer Society, said that 467 patients had been served through the work of the local division in the same period. She said that more dressings were needed.

Mrs. Johnson expressed her thanks to the homemaking class of Mrs. A. E. Prugel who made 205 dressings recently. Sheets suitable for dressings have been donated by Thorp's Laundry and local citizens, Mrs. Johnson said.

Spring Treats
The season of outdoor meals is with us again. Complement your outside menus with dessert platters. Fruits and berries may be arranged on a tiered platter. Peach slices dipped in lemon juice, melon squares and wedges on toothpicks, grapes and plums make a fine bottom tier. You can then add cookies, iced petit fours, mints, nuts or cheese wedges on toothpicks.

Red plums and amber peaches make a tasty jam when used together. The flavors complement each other and the color is a lighter red than if the jam were made from just plums. Make the jam in small quantities to avoid long cooking and too much fruit preparation at one time.

To spark up the flavor of macaroni and cheese, add a dash of dry mustard or Worcestershire sauce to the cheese sauce.

A teaspoon of lemon juice and some chopped parsley added to 1/4 cup melted butter makes a speedy topping for broiled fish or green vegetable.

Helen's Favorite: Whipped Cream Sherbet (Serves 6)
Juice of 2 oranges
Juice of 1 lemon
1 cup crushed pineapple with juice
1 cup sugar
1 cup heavy cream, whipped

Combine juices, pineapple and sugar, stirring thoroughly to dissolve sugar. Fold in whipped cream. Pour into tray or pan and freeze in coldest portion of refrigerator, stirring once when half frozen.

Major and Mrs. R. D. Johnson of Chanute Field, Ill. were guests of Major Johnson's uncle, Judge Alvis Johnson and Mrs. Johnson last week. Major Johnson, who was a B-24 pilot in Italy during the war, attended school in Sonora several years.

G. E. Ellis, J. T. Penick and Russell Davis spent Sunday fishing on Devil's River.

Mrs. William Maloch and daughters, Patsy and Rebecca, arrived here last week to join Mr. Maloch who is employed at the News. They are living in the W. R. Barnes rent property in east Sonora.

The Just-Us Club was entertained Monday afternoon by Mrs. Edgar Shurley at her ranch home.

Mrs. Joel Shelton was the only guest.

Club members present were: Mmes R. A. Halbert, J. Franklin Howell, J. S. Glasscock, G. H. Davis, Rip Ward, and J. A. Cauthorn.

SPRING CLEAN-UP NEEDED

Sonora will observe "Clean-up, Fix-up, Paint-up Month" beginning June 1 and lasting all through the month. One of the major reasons for the clean-up month is to aid in the prevention of fires and the costly damages caused by fires.

As June and Spring Clean-up get nearer you can do your share toward making your home and your community a better place to live by following these few simple suggestions.

You can start the clean-up in your own attic. This is frequently a place where old newspapers and magazines and other discarded combustibles collect.

Check the attic light. If it is not working right, have it repaired by a qualified electrician.

Now, check fire hazards that may exist in the bedroom closets. If there are old blankets or worn out sheets and other items you may never use again, throw these out, too, or give them to a charitable organization.

If you have smokers in your house, make sure that there are plenty of ash trays in every room, including the bedrooms.

In the living room, dining room, kitchen and bedroom make sure that all electrical equipment is in working order.

Basements, like attics, are places where unneeded combustibles accumulate. Throw out any old newspapers or magazines that have collected there during the winter.

If you have checked your house from top to bottom as suggested here, and if you have thrown out unneeded combustibles, you have reduced the fire hazards in your home, and, at the same time, made it a pleasanter place in which to live.

DEVIL'S RIVER PHILOSOPHER SEZ: Senate's Spotlight on Auto Defects Better Than Pointing Up Man's Defects

Editor's note: The Devil's River Philosopher on his bitterweed ranch on Dry Devil's River has found out about the car safety controversy, his letter this week indicates.

Dear editor:
In nearly every newspaper I've gotten my hands on in the past two weeks there has been at least one article on the big controversy over whether cars are safe, and while I'd prefer to have the argument going on over whether pickups and tractors are safe, if you know what I mean, still I have followed the hearings closely.

According to a report at one session of the Senate Investigating Committee, 8 million cars in the last few years have been found to have defects, out of the 40 or 50 million produced. Of course that included everything, such as a horn that stuck and a windshield wiper that went too slow.

Understand, I'm not in favor of cars having defects, I'm not even in favor of having one with a tail pipe that'll rust out or oil that needs changing and I think a fender ought to snap back into place when you graze it on a fence post, but you can carry statistics too far.

For example, I would not be interested in seeing a Senate Investigating Committee come up with the figures on how many human beings have defects.

Out of the 200 million people produced in this country in the last decade, how many of us you reckon would really pass a safety inspection?

If checking up on that many people is too big a job for the Senate and it decided to narrow the field and get closer to home, how many Senators you reckon would show up without a defect?

I don't have the figures, but it would be interesting to see which are multiplying faster, garages or hospitals. At any given moment, are there more cars in garages than people in hospitals?

I'm not saying I'm typical, but out of the next 365 days, there will be more days when my pickup is in better shape to start than I am.

But let's keep talking about car defects. Anything to get the spotlight off of human defects.

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

1966 Senior Class Prophecy

The Senior Class of 1966 has decided to have a class reunion some twenty years later. The year is 1986 and the place is the Llano River.

The class thought it would be fun to go by and pick up their old principal, Mr. Morgan. They had trouble getting his bed into the back of the pickup, but even harder than the bed was Mr. Morgan himself. They even picked up their old buddy, Mr. Neal, who has discovered that the Walsh Handbook was written by his father.

Everyone here was bragging about his occupation. Some of these occupations, typical of their personalities are:

Bill Glasscock and Jerry Shurley are now managers of a Play-boy Club in Chicago.

Mickey Hardegree's new television show has just run Mickey Mouse off the air.

Irene Perez now has ten kids trailing on her back.

Ray Glasscock was not able to make it for he was hurt in an accident in one of the labs at Cape Kennedy. While eating lunch, the catsup bottle exploded.

Janie Letsinger is speaking as a double for Gomer Pyle in Hollywood.

Irma Tafolla is doomed to be an old maid.

Rudy Bautista is orbiting around the moon on a white horse.

Eddie Sawyer is waiting in the welfare line.

Lupe Leija and Dennis Chavez are a very poetic couple.

We're sorry Mike Wuest couldn't be here but as you know Mike traded places with Atlas and he is now holding up the world.

Yolanda Chavez has just joined the Navy Corp.

Eddie Howell has finally made it to the Rose Bowl, which has been a dream of a lifetime. He is the head drum major there.

Susan Allison is working in a record manufacturing company. She punches the holes in the center of the records.

Robert Kelley has contributed much to the United States. He has left.

Tina Leija is a fiesta queen.

Ismael Gonzales is still looking for his tigress.

Grady Roe is the top notch model for the new playtex living bra.

Billy Sam Chadwick is a zookeeper.

Kathy Moffitt is now painting nude pictures for the Bardoll calendar company.

Carl Teaff is now a test driver for the "Cutie Kiddie" tricycle company.

Gina Badillo is on her way to discovering a new love life.

Pat Brown is a hypnotizer.

Keith Nolen is working in the double bubble gum wrapper company.

Dick Hearn has a very important job. He's a gardner at the White House.

Stan Bundy went to the government seeking a job. To keep him busy they gave him the job of varnishing the Statue of Liberty.

Anita Bassham is making a lot of little girls happy. She puts the tears in the Tiny Tears baby doll eyes.

Edna Virgen is a beauty operator for bald headed people.

Gloria Gutierrez has received two diplomas.

Libb Mills Wallace is a go-go boy on the Go-Cat-Go show which appears every 2nd Monday in the week.

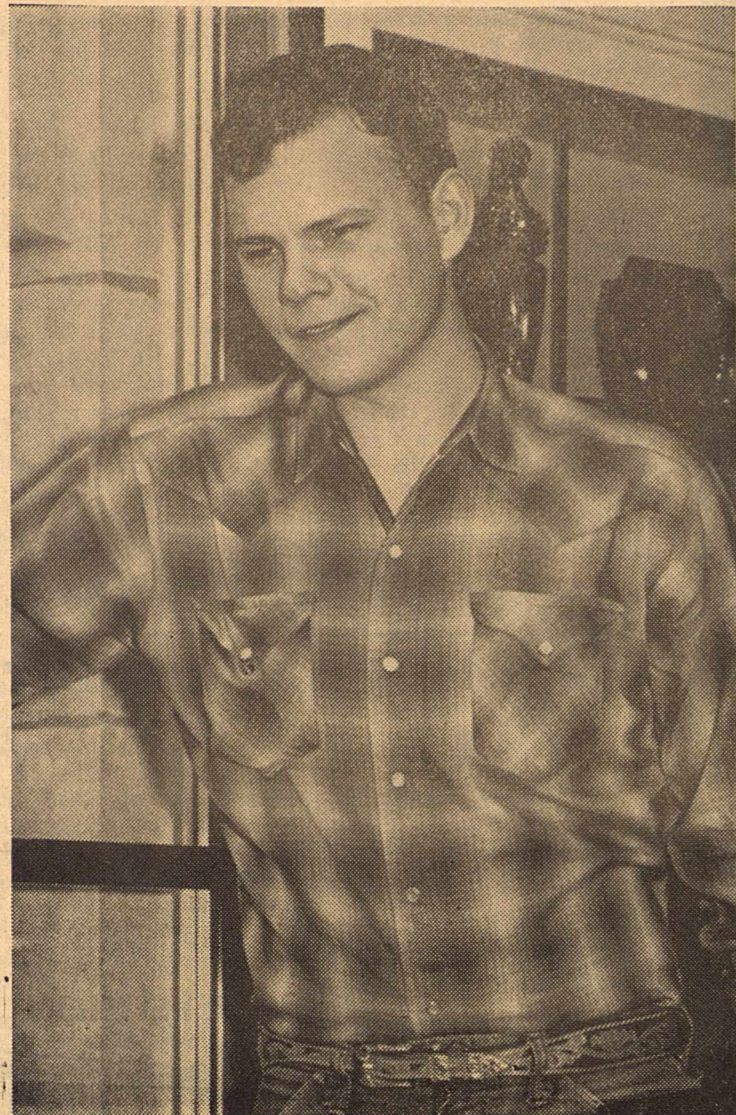

Mike Sims makes the tooty-toot horn that goes on Carl Teaff's cutie kiddie tricycle.

Freddy Benson is now fighting towards the heavyweight championship of the world.

Joe Moore is the Mayor, the Sheriff, the Justice of Peace, the school teacher and the Preacher at Loma Alta.

Janice Caveness has just published her first book called "A Tin Can in the Garbage is Better than a Tin Can in the Disposal."

Gary McGilvray has invented a hair restorer. He has revived nine rabbits.

Advice to the 'Woe-Be-Gones'

by Agatha Crump

Dear Agatha,
I'm at my wits end over Benjie. Benjie is my son. He is a very good boy and never gives us any trouble. My trouble is with our little league coach. You've never seen such a mean, cruel, loud-mouth, overbearing bore in all your life!

Now my Benjie wants to play baseball and just because he can't neither hit the ball nor catch it is no reason to keep him off the team. I think he should be encouraged by the coach, and made to feel welcome and important to the team by the other ball players in his class. Instead, they say unkind things to him, and they seem to resent the help my husband and I try to give to the coach and the boys at practice every day.

What shall we do to help Benjie?
Signed,
Benjie's Mom

Dear Mom,
How about buying Benjie some scuba-diving equipment and help everybody?
Sincerely,
Agatha Crump

Dear Agatha,
I'm sure that you won't consider my problem important enough to grease price 50-55 cents estimates clean price East $1.10-1.20.

In Southwest Texas confirmed sales made on 750,000 lbs. 12 month wool and 75,000 lbs. of 8 month wool. On 12 month wool grease price ranged from 48-62 cents with bulk from 53-60 cents. On 8 month wool grease price ranged 50-58 cents. Estimated yield on both 8 and 12 month wool ranged from 40-50 percent, length 2 inches up, clean price estimated East $1.30-1.36, grades 62 up.

In Central Texas 400,000 lbs. 12 month wool sold in grease from 50-63 cents with bulk moving from 55-60 cents. Mohair continued slow, with no confirmed sales reported. A seal bid wool sale is scheduled at Sanderson, Texas for May 24 with approximately 400,000 lbs. of 12 month wool being offered.

Shade Trees Planted Against Hot Sun Need To Be Placed in Useful Spots

Everyone's planting trees for beauty and shade, but how and where they're planted makes all the difference. If not planted correctly you may not even get the shade where you desire it in hot summer weather.

If you want shade for a patio or terrace on the west side of the house, the tree, to give the patio shade in the hottest weather, should be planted to the west of the area to be shaded. In the middle of the summer the sun sets just north of due west, and the bulk of the tree's foliage must be between the sun and the patio to give the most shade. The hottest part of a summer day usually is between 3 and 5 p.m., so plant accordingly.

For a patio on the east of the house the tree might be directly over the patio, since the house will give shade in the afternoon. For a patio on the south side, the tree should be due west: on the north, slightly to the north of due west.

Trees acclimatize the patio and keep it from heating up and generating reflective heat of its own.

Trees on the east side of a home often do yeoman service in keeping bedrooms cool in the morning hours in summer. If they are deciduous, they of course drop their leaves in the winter months, thus allowing the house to get the full benefit of the sun's warmth.

Elsewhere, when you plant trees use care to see that the shade falls where you want it. Visualize where the sun will be at the time of the year you most want the shade and plant accordingly.

Sometimes by holding up a long pole you can get a better idea of where the shade will fall from a tree, but, in doing this, remember that the setting of the sun from spring to the middle of summer moves from the southeast to just north of due west so allow for this change of the sun's position when planting.

Well, it finally happened. School is finally over. The baccalaureate and commencement exercises held this week finally made some of us realize that the seniors have really graduated. And then, there is always the privilege of being able to classify ourselves one notch higher.

The trouts for twirlers for next year were finally held. Linda McBride will be the drum major next year. The twirlers will be Carol Adamson, Kaye Ellis, Ellie Chavez, Shelley Morris. They ought to be pretty good, considering the size of the group that tried out. Congratulations, Girls!!!

NOTEBOOK—PATTERNS FOR PROGRESS

ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT

... its benefit to you

Economic development means developing all of the basic economic resources of a community or area to their fullest potentials, creating new wealth in the area and attracting wealth from outside the area. It CAUSES a higher standard of living for all of the people, making the community a better place to live, work and play. It PROVIDES improved community facilities, increases job opportunities, especially for the young people, and attracts new people to the town.

FIVE BASIC SOURCES FOR ECONOMIC IMPROVEMENT

—INDUSTRY—creates new jobs, utilizing and increasing the labor force's value to the community plus helping to share the tax burden for improved community facilities.

—TOURISM—adds wealth to the community that was created outside of the area, and makes a favorable impression on tourists as a good place to live. Tourists' dollars circulate many times within a community.

—AGRICULTURE—improvement of product yields and quality of products produced plus further processing of the products can add greatly to the economy of an area.

—NATURAL RESOURCES—developed in an area change and increase the wealth as well as providing job opportunities. Depletion of the natural resources can cause adverse effects on the economy.

—GOVERNMENT—local, state and federal institutions and agencies keep tax money in the area and in some cases, bring in additional wealth from the outside.

An object of a sound economic development program is to balance the economy of a community or area from all five sources. ATTENTION and EFFORT should be given to the ones which present the best possible chances for economic development and improvement. Attracting new industries, or the expansion of existing industries, usually provide an excellent opportunity for economic development.

Ask your WTU local manager for additional information and services available.

Everyone needs a vacation. Now you can ENJOY the great outdoors with an Apache Camping Trailer. Priced from $485. Rollin Polk, 2-3891, Sonora.

The Eyes Have It

Since the West Texas Chamber of Commerce announced its program of beautifying and improving cities and towns, a growing consciousness of the appearance of personal and public property has developed among Sonorans. Chairman for this project, the Rev. Rollin Polk, has written the following for Sonorans to consider:

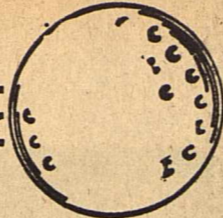

"What our eyes see has a tremendous effect upon the way we feel and act. If the world around us is neat and clean, our attitude will correspond. Beauty encourages beauty. Neatness encourages neatness.

"But in addition to the way surroundings affect people, we need to be reminded of a basic truth—that this world is not ours, but God's. He lets us use it for a time, and we are grateful for the resources and pleasures of land and growing things and buildings. Our gratitude can be expressed best of all by actions—that way we care for his world and what he has loaned us. The earth is the Lord's and all that therein is.

"Some of the things we can do as individuals are obvious, such as cutting grass, trimming weeds around poles, trimming bushes which have gotten out of hand. The logical place to start is at our homes and places of business, and then we can extend our efforts in other areas. Many people have been at work this spring. Look around and you will see much improvement."

GREEN NEWS

by Lunetta Morgan
 Guess this is summer. The thing we have been looking for all winter.

Another cart on the course. Belongs to the Bloodworths. L. P. was using it this week and had as his guests Glen Redfield and son, Jimmy. The Redfields are from San Angelo.

Tournaments, tournaments and tournaments. Big Lake is having their men's tournament May 28 and 29. Ozona's is June 4 and 5 and Fort Stockton is having one June 18 and 19. Llano is also having one sometime in June.

Peggy Elliott gave Peggy Trainer a tee. Since Peggy T. couldn't find one long enough Peggy E. gave her one about six inches high. It should improve someone's game.

Stanley Mayfield and Mark were seen golfing with Bob Teaff. Mark was doing more riding than golfing.

Mickey Powers chipped in for a deuce at the McCamey tournament. Speaking of chipping in, Jo Neville chipped in from about a 125 yards out on four for a birdie.

Anyone that has played the Kerrville course, ask J. W. about number five.

The Nevilles and Morgans played the Pecan Valley course Tuesday and Jo and Lunetta spent Wednesday morning playing the three par course at El Antonio. They played the Kerrville course Wednesday afternoon.

Peggy Trainer is in Fort Worth visiting her mother. She planned to attend the Colonial Open while there.

Overheard on the club porch: plans being made by Clayton and Doyle Morgan to attend the Brady tournament.

Some of the ladies played earlier this week on their tournament. Bobbie defeated Ernestine on the 18th hole. Jerry Tittle beat Peggy Elliott; Peggy Sharp downed Wanda Cahill; Ann Hill beat Marilyn; and Jane Cavaness defeated Libby Lowe. More to come.

The team of Bob Snodgrass, John McClelland, Jackie Sharp, Whiskey Hill and Wallace Renfro won the Sunday club play. Second and third play tied and was decided by the flip of the coin. The team of Lonnie Taylor, Raymond Morgan, Lee Patrick and Milton Cavaness won over George Johnson, Hut Moore, Jimmy Lomax of Rocksprings and Lin Hicks.

Rumors were going around Sunday that Raymond got so mad that he bit the stem out of his pipe. Couldn't find out what really happened but the stem is broken.

Late-late golfers Sunday were Honey Hicks and Barbara Savell.

A word to the wise: Please fix your divot marks.

Legal Notice

Notice is hereby given by the Parks and Wildlife Department that a public hearing will be held at 10 a.m. on June 7, 1966 at the County Courthouse at Sonora, Sutton County, Texas for the purpose of gathering information concerning proposed hunting, fishing and trapping regulations for the above-named county.

As the result of action by the Texas Legislature, the Texas Parks and Wildlife Commission is responsible for the setting of seasons, bag limits, and means and methods of taking certain game, fish and fur bearer species in Sutton County. All interested persons are urged to attend and comment upon the proposed regulations.

Three Students Get ASC Journalism Scholarships

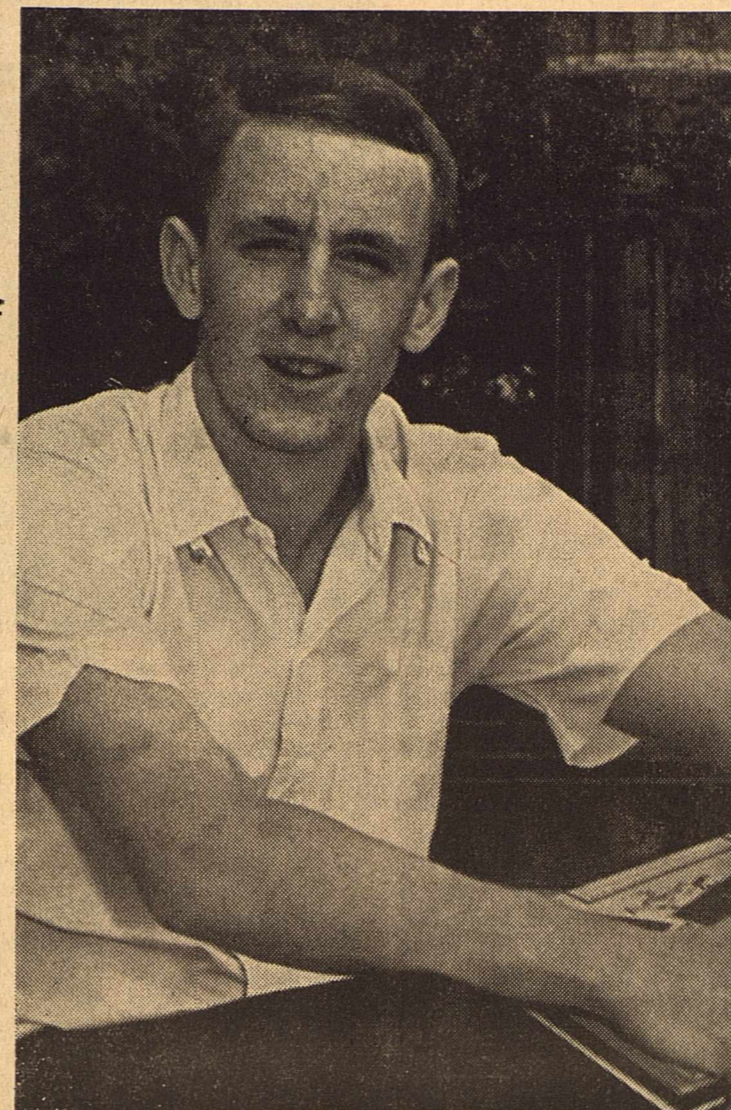

Three students have been chosen to receive the first Millard Cope Journalism Awards at Angelo State College. They are Deanna Lorring of Paint Rock and Gerald Garner and Timothy Gette of San Angelo. Each of the awards is a $300 scholarship, renewable each year as long as the recipient maintains good standing at ASC.

Miss Lorring received the 1966 freshman award. An outstanding high school journalist, she will be valedictorian of Paint Rock High School this spring and will enter ASC next fall. She was second high point individual in state journalism competition sponsored by the University Interscholastic League this spring, winning first in editorial writing, second in feature writing, fourth in news writing and fifth in headline writing.

Garner, sophomore scholarship winner, is on the dean's honor roll at ASC and currently is sports editor of the Ram Page, college newspaper. He has won several contests in journalism and in high school he was state-wide essay writing champion on two occasions.

Gette, who received the junior class scholarship, transferred to Angelo State last fall from Gonzaga University, Washington. In high school he was editor of the student yearbook and served as vice-president of the student council. He has been a member of the yearbook staff at Angelo State this year.

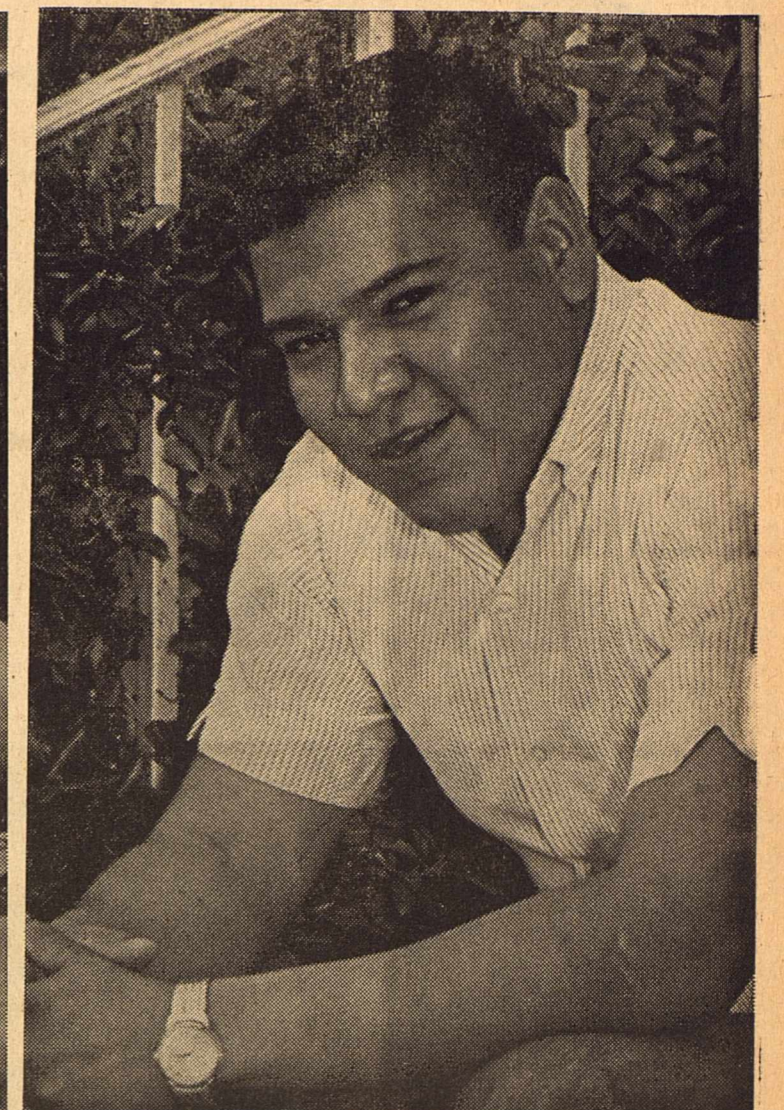

To receive these scholarships these students have shown great potential in the field of journalism.

Last Will

I, Mike Sims, will to Charlie Taliadro, my ability to skip school twice a week and still pass.

I, Edna Virgen, will to Adelita Lozano my ability to chase boys from Junction.

I, Robert Kelley, will to Kaye Ellis my Mepard phone book in hopes she may get a date.

I, Rudy Bautista, will to Arnold Garcia, my success with younger women.

I, Susan Allison, will to Linda McCutchen, my cheerleading tights in hopes that she will not forget them on out-of-town games.

I, Jerry Shurley, will to Louis Wardlaw, my place in Mrs. Wilson's 5th period study hall and wish you the best of luck.

We, Grady Roe and Ray Glasscock, will to Al Letsinger, our tremendous wit so at last his jokes may be funny.

I, Keith Nolen, will to Brent Johnson, my job at Lambert's Drive Inn so that he may have a fresh start in life.

I, Lupe Leija, will to Jo Ann Martinez, my ability to stay alert in Civics Class at all times.

We, Mike Wuest and Gary McGilvray, will to Jimmy Trainer, our ability to keep a cool head during a golf tournament.

I, Pat Brown, will to Joe Jimminiz, one box of No-Doze in order to stay awake at least while Mr. Neal is trying to tell a joke.

I, Bill Chadwick, will to Allan Hearn, my hard-worked years in high school, providing he makes good grades the fifth year.

I, Ismael Gonzales, will to Ben Perez, my ability to completely confuse the conjugation of Spanish verbs in Spanish II Class.

I, Grady Roe, will to Cindy Lambert, my towering height which will make it impossible for her to slouch when driving an automobile, thus preventing the extreme panic of other motorists who see a driverless car.

I, Anita Bassham, will to Linda Jones, all my problems as being the only girl in physics class.

We, the Senior Class, will to the Junior Class, our sponsor, Mr. Neal, on the condition that they treat him with warm affection and the undoubted understanding which he needs.

I, Yolanda Chavez, will to Gloria Sanchez, my ability to give my undivided attention to Mrs. Prugel.

We, the Senior Class leave the following things to our High School faculty and administration:

To Mrs. Dameron—100 feet of garden hose and a wash pan so she may finally have running water in the library.

To Mrs. Wilson—One fifth period study hall, complete with one Jerry Shurley—you can have him; we don't want him.

To Mrs. Stanley—One pair of "P. F. Flyer" sneakers so that she may run her fastest and jump her highest—and walk quietly down the hall.

To Mrs. Neeley—One Junior-Detective Kit so that she may catch false signatures on absentee excuse slips.

To Mr. Snodgrass—One complete book entitled "The Answers To All My Questions"—compiled, illustrated, and edited by Stan Bundy.

To Miss Dolan—One male—ten days older or younger than she—he must be able to baby sit with the dog.

To Mr. Behrens—An asbestos draft card in hopes that he may have a happy journey to Viet Nam.

To Mr. Lowe—One bottle of Don's hair formula.

To Mr. Stanley—His very own subscription to Playboy magazine so that he won't be borrowing from Mr. Behrens all the time.

To Mr. Steed—One first place Band trophy in order to combat a possible inferiority complex.

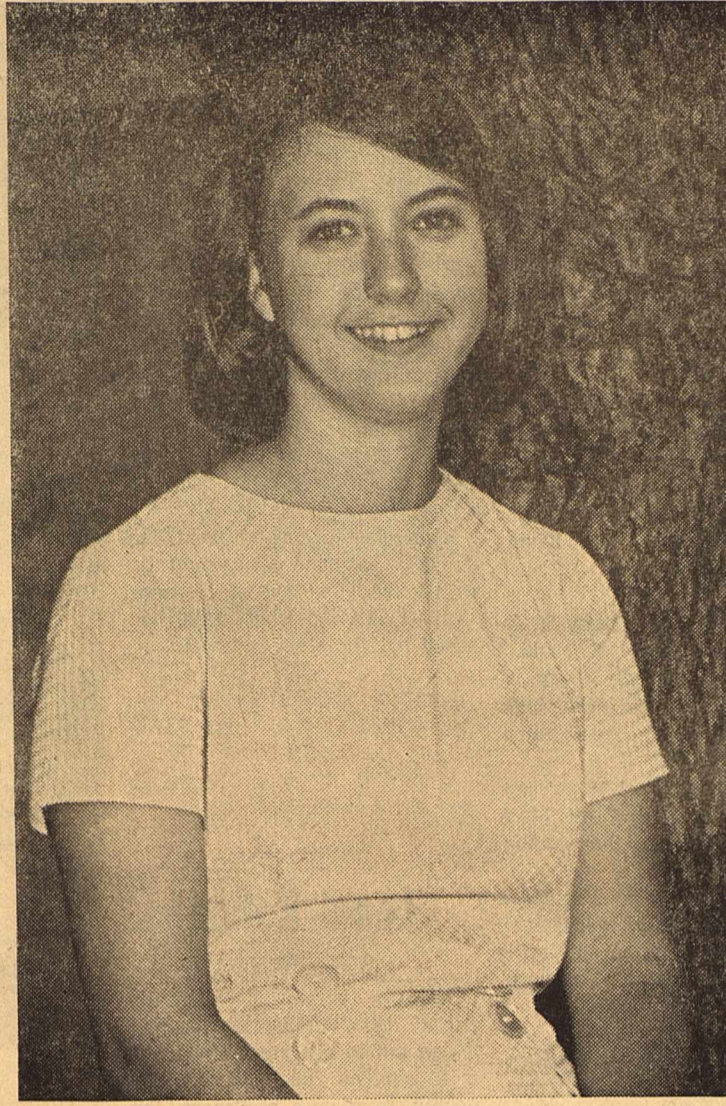

To Coach Hopkins—One defensive end to replace a Grady Roe. To Coach Hays—One tube of polygrip so he can even eat an apple.

To Coach Painter—One megaphone in order to broadcast instructions to the basketball boys without having to raise his voice.

To Mr. Morgan—One pair of water wings for the Senior trip. He'll need them.

To Mrs. Prugel—A weekly column in the Juno Weekly so that she may publish her advice and never have to give it individually again.

To Coach Wuest—One class of shop II students whose nationality is strictly, pure-dee German.

WCS Installs Officers Wednesday

The Woman's Society of Christian Service met last Wednesday in the First Methodist Church fellowship hall for the installation of officers, a pledge service, and the revealing of prayer sisters by Mrs. J. F. Howell, spiritual life chairman.

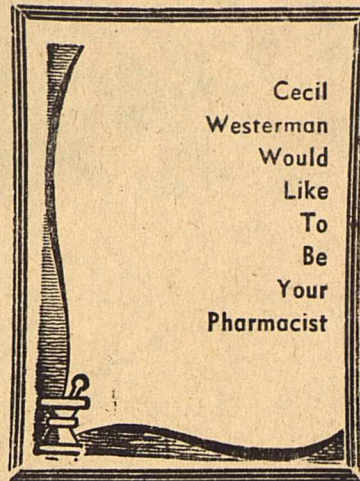

The officers who were installed were Mrs. Alvis Johnson, president; Mrs. Cleve T. Jones Jr., vice-president; Mrs. C. M. Epps, treasurer; and Mrs. Joe B. Ross, secretary.

Committee chairmen were also installed at this meeting, and they are Mrs. Rex Cusenbary, membership and cultivation; Mrs. Allen Roe, missionary education; Mrs. Frank French, Christian social relations; Mrs. A. W. Awalt, spiritual life; Mrs. J. C. Stephens, program materials; Mrs. Herman Smith, supply; Mrs. W. H. Dameron, campus ministry; and Mrs. Cleve Jones Jr., memorial.

During the meeting Mrs. Roe was presented with a silver coffee service from the WCS and a silver tray from the Wesleyan Service Guild for her leadership in both organizations.

The Wesleyan Service Guild was a guest of the WCS during this meeting in which 20 people attended. A covered dish dinner was served.

Mr. Farmer— Mr. Rancher:

Too many short-term debts can cripple your total credit program, tie up operating capital and cause you to miss opportunities that require immediate funds. For these reasons, it can pay you to consolidate your short-term obligations with a long-term, low cost Land Bank loan on your farm or on your ranch.

SUNDAY'S SERMON

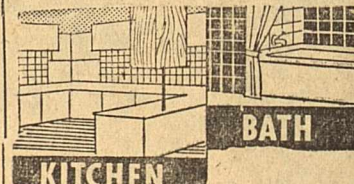

THE OTHER FELLOW

There are many ways in which an individual can illustrate the quality of self-concern. There are, for example, sayings to the effect that "it's not my ox that's being gored" and "I am not my brother's keeper." In truth, our reaction to any event or happening usually depends upon the matter of self-involvement. Even if we are not directly involved, our response to something usually depends upon our attitude toward the individuals who are involved. If we dislike someone, we condemn their actions indignantly. If we like someone, we try to convince ourselves and others they had "good reason" for acting as they did.

Circumstances may alter individual cases, yet we are not being fair to ourselves and to others unless we give every man his due, unless we exercise forbearance and mix love with mercy and justice. It's an old suggestion, but it helps our understanding, if we forget about self concern and try to put ourselves in the other fellow's place.

Glory is God's

"He taketh the wise in their own craftiness." —Job 5:13

In his first epistle to the Corinthians, Paul the Apostle reminded that the Lord knew the vain thoughts of many who professed to be the wise men of the world. Pride is a basic emotion. Every man has the right to be proud of a noteworthy achievement, in business, in education, in good works; yet pride and glory are not necessary companions.

It is wrong, as Paul explains, to glory so much in our achievements that we magnify our importance. Earthly achievement is nothing if man is so taken with himself that he becomes short-sighted and does not recognize the great glory that is God's.

Snips, Quips, And Lifts

by Mrs. Lottie Lee Baker

A government big enough to give you everything you want is big enough to take everything you have.

You know they are married when she looks at the dresses in the window—and he looks at the skirts on the sidewalks.

Oh, a trouble's a ton, or a trouble's an ounce, or a trouble is what you make it. And it isn't the fact that you're hurt that counts, but only, "How did you take it?"

The hardest meals for mothers to get is breakfast in bed.

Time also should come under the commandment, "Thou shalt not kill."

The pioneers who blazed the trails now have descendants who burn up the roads.

There's a difference between good sound reasons and reasons that sound good.

The main trouble with the future is that it keeps getting shorter and shorter.

Sunbathing might be called a fry in the ointment.

According to the publicity-seekers and the expense-account livers, this is the land of the rave and the home of the spree.

Only a light bulb can go out every night and still be bright the next day.

Horse sense is stable thinking.

1966 Senior Class Will

We, the Senior Class of 1966, will soon be saying good-bye to all our friends and teachers of Sonora High School. We will no longer be associated with that wonderful organization in which we shared our joys, our hopes, and our problems. However, we would not feel right to go without leaving some of our precious possessions to our friends of the Junior Class.

I, Carl Teaff, will to Bert Bloodworth, for the second year, one used research paper.

I, Robert Kelley, will to Robert Brown, one can of pink fluorescent paint, on the condition that it will be used only to paint school buses, school roofs, and city streets.

I, Janice Caveness, will to Margaret Bundy, my ability to create disorder in Mr. Behren's class.

I, Tina Leija, will to Elie Chavez, my grace on the volleyball court.

I, Bill Chadwick, will to Wayne Bryant, my snuff can so he may dip in the restroom and study hall.

I, Gary McGilvray, will to Chris Berger, my tremendous driving on the golf course.

I, Keith Nolen, will to Jim Fish, my excellent grades in physics.

I, Bill Glasscock will to Wade Stokes, a telephone credit card so that he may have long distance fights with Jody Wagley.

I, Susan Allison, will to Janet Johnson, a permanent excuse slip, so she can miss school four days a week instead of three.

I, Cathy Moffitt, will to Prissy Howell, my almost naturally blonde hair on the condition that she refrain from using "bashful blonde" hair coloring again.

I, Eddie Howell, will to Laney Cook, my position on the basketball team in hopes that he may keep running and stay off the bench.

I, Yolanda Chavez, will to Ralph Gomez, my ability to be loud at all times.

We, Ray Glasscock, Gary McGilvray, and Mike Wuest, will to Gary Goober Hardgrave, all the trouble we had fixing that blankety-blank rippeltank and may none of your experiments ever work.

I, Libb Wallace, will to Brenda McCutchen, all the bookkeeping papers which were handed down to Bill and me from Jo Ann and Randy.

I, Irene Perez, will to Margaret Martinez, my ability to skip Library Science as I have done this past year.

I, Eddie Howell, will to Brent Johnson, one Charles Atlas Building Set in hopes that he may someday relax.

I, Ismael Gonzales, will to Hector Noriega, my ability to get around Mr. Neal so that he can avoid getting any more bustings.

I, Mike Sims, will to Weldon Pentecost, one letter opener with which to open love letters from a certain Junior High girl.

I, Lupe Leija, will to Johnny Ramos, one Junior girl to flirt with him as I have done in Typing I.

I, Janie Letsinger, will to Angie Moore, my ability to wreck cars, although with her proficiency in this art, she probably will not need it.

I, Mike Wuest, will to Mario Sanchez, my muscular physique in order that he may attract one Lilia Perez.

I, Susan Allison, will to Jackie, 7th period Library Science class as I had this year, in hopes she will never have to miss class.

I, Gary McGilvray, will to Tomye Lyn, my extremely low voice in place of her extremely high voice.

I, Mickey Hardegree, will to Nedra Raye, my shapely legs on the condition she will carry on the names of "Killdee" and "Birdlegs."

I, Rudy Bautista, will to Ray Sanchez, my ability to get along with teachers so that he may stay in band.

I, Fred Benson, will to Larry Shroyer, my locker so that he will be able to get to the cafeteria faster.

I, Dennis Chavez, will to Rodrigo Santos, one copy of "Did May Just Happen" in order that he may yet make a good oral book report.

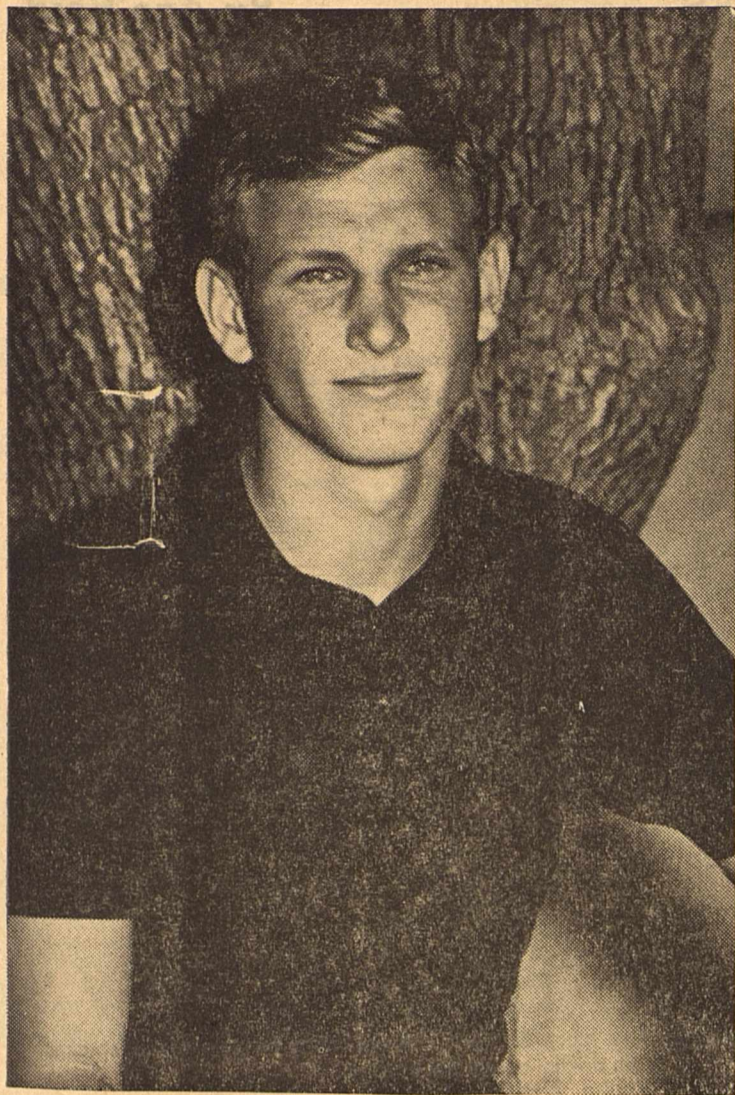

I, Stan Bundy, will to Cee Wee Johnson, my great understanding so that she may always keep a cool head in physics.

I, Irma Tafolla, will to Andrea Reyne, my great ability to make speeches.

I, Eddie Sawyer, will to Yvonne Young, ten pounds of white wash in hopes that she may carry on her artistic abilities.

I, Dennis Chavez, will to Jessie Villarreal, my ability to do a complete homework assignment for the coming year.

It's Time to Store Winter Clothes Again

Now that spring is here, it's time to store winter clothes. Special attention should be given to your wool and mohair garments, says Miss Fannie Brown Eaton, Extension clothing specialist at Texas A&M University.

Store only clean garments. Spots and stains will be harder to remove—or they may not come out at all—a year later. Moth larvae are attracted more to soiled clothing. Send the soiled garments to a good dry cleaner and call his attention to any spots and stains.

Besides dry cleaning, brushing and sunning garments will also help rid clothing of moths including their eggs and larvae. Brush thoroughly, especially in seams, folds and pockets. For added protection, store your clothing with "moth balls,"—paradichlorobenzene crystals, or naphthalene flakes or crystals. Directions on the container suggest the amount to use.

It is a good idea to remove plastic buttons, buckles and other plastic ornaments before storing, says the specialist. Avoid using plastic hangers, which may cause a stain or melt into the fabric. If space is available, store hangable garments in garment bags on rust-proof hangers.

Put sweaters and other knitted garments in bags or boxes. Tightly-wrapped paper packages, air-tight boxes or chests, or garment bags are the best storage places. Cedar chests are old favorites for winter clothing storage, but all garments must be moth-free before they are put into a cedar chest. Cedar oil vapor does kill small moth larvae but not older, larger ones.

As a cedar chest gets older, however, there is less cedar oil vapor. Therefore, a cedar chest that is several years old may give no more protection than any other air-tight container.

VanderStucken To Be Head of Boys Ranch

Joseph VanderStucken was named as the newly elected president of the West Texas Boys Ranch last week. VanderStucken was elected to follow Claude Collins, the retiring president. Other newly elected officers were Dennis Q. Lilly of Brownfield, first vice-president; Pat Bunnell of San Angelo, secretary; and Harvey Hartgrove of San Angelo, treasurer.

Six directors whose terms were expiring were renamed. They are Dr. Gus Eckhardt, Ralph Logan and Bunnell, all of San Angelo; Charlie Trigg of Eldorado; Charles Lawrence of Seminole; and H. D. Winters of Brady.

Five men were chosen for first terms on the board—Joe Dobson of Coleman, Joe Tom Davidson of Ozona, Don Wienacht of Balmorhea, Bobby Bunyard and Robert Mayer, both of San Angelo.

Boys Ranch Week will be observed through May 28. Events are to include officer installation at 7:30 p.m. May 27 in the River Club, a barbeque and dormitory dedication May 28 and benefit go-cart races May 28-29 at Wall.

Ramirez Dies Sat.

Ramon Ramirez, ranch employee of John Cauthorn for the past four years, died in his sleep Saturday, May 21. His body was returned to Mexico for burial.

Major Charles L. Cusenbary and family of North Dakota are in Sonora visiting Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Cusenbary.

him, and he said "No, but did you ever try and eat milked pickle?" and then he laughed and Sam barked and ran around the table. Then he stuck his fork in the glass and pulled out the pickle and ate it just to show me.

If Davy or I had done that he'd sent us from the table, but he can get away with it. He just sat there munching on that pickle and making terrible jokes.

"Boy, that's a dilly," he said. "Although I am eating this with relish, I must confess that brine does not pay."

Isn't that awful? "Us poor folks take a long time in getting to the point, but we always manage to have a good time," he says.

"What?" asks Davy. "Not while we're eating," said Mommy.

"Arf!" said Sam, running around the kitchen looking for some grass to eat.

Poor Sammy, he gets so excited. First Daddy takes his rubber ball and hides it under his shirt, and then he grabs the rubber bone and pretends he's eating it. They run around the kitchen and Sam starts barking and Mother says "Good grief!" and gets up and puts Sam outdoors.

Last week she told Daddy that she thought he was the one that should go outside, and Daddy said it was the leash he could do and then Mother went in the pantry and shut the door.

What I think is that if the paper came out every day we might get away from all of this on Thursday nights. Most other nights when he's working on the paper Daddy comes home with what Mother calls a glazed look in his eyes. We had some glazed doughnuts once but I don't know if they looked like Daddy's eyes or not. I asked Daddy if his eyes were like doughnuts, and he said he could raise his brows all right, but when it came to dough he was out of luck.

How am I supposed to find out things when I get answers like that to my questions?

I told Mommy that if the paper came out every night then maybe it wouldn't be so bad, but she said yes, but maybe he'd act like that every night instead of just Thursday.

Maybe he should get a job on something like the high school annual. That only comes out once a year, and that wouldn't be so bad.

Doyle Morgan, principal of Sonora High School, certified that the class had completed all the requirements for graduation and presented the class to Rex Lowe, superintendent of schools.

Diplomas were presented by Armer Earwood, president of the school board.

Mike Wuest was presented with the Lambert Award which was determined by a committee of teachers and townspeople.

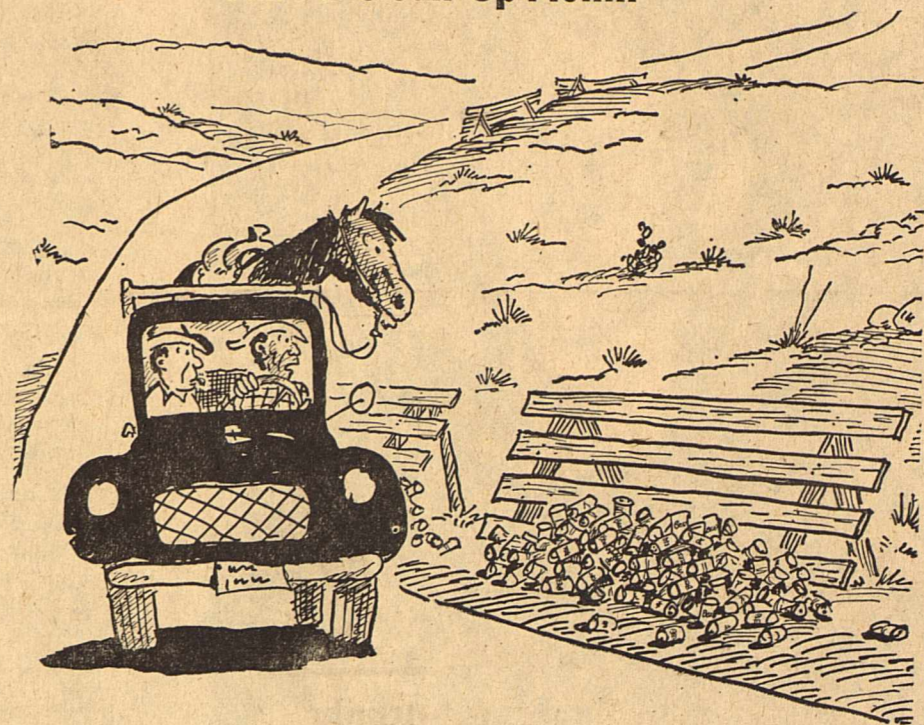

National Honor Society awards were presented by Jimmy Harris, vice-president of the Sonora Lions Club, to Susan Allison, Anita Bassham, Janice Caviness, Ray Glasscock, Mickey Hardegree, Gary McGilvray, Grady Roe, and Mike Wuest.

Baccalaureate services were held Sunday, May 22, in the high school auditorium with the sermon delivered by the Rev. Arno Melz. The invocation was given by Yvonne Young, and the benediction was given by Laney Cook.
