We hope these smaller versions (7 columns) of the "Devil" make Harold Friess happier. He was complaining about not having long enough arms to hold the paper while he read.

We felt he should grow longer arms, as he really got a page more of reading for the same price when we added a column to each of eight pages.

But press troubles, which visit even the best of papers, caught us last Wednesday—300 impressions in the first run of an 8-column paper. Naturally newspaper people are tuned for trouble—especially on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday—hurry days when everyone has three things going at one time trying to get the paper to bed. Naturally this was the week of foreman Santana's vacation. Naturally nobody in our immediate area has a press capable of printing 8 columns.

We solved our dilemma early Thursday morning after an extended visit with a Babcock 7-column press. Francis Burt of the Junction Eagle was most gracious in making his time and facilities available.

Harold, we'll probably stay at 7 columns for a little while—at least until too much news or too many ads force us to 8 columns or to 10 pages. In the meantime we'll keep our eyes open for some arm extensions. We haven't noticed any lately, but lots of new discoveries are on the market now days.

John Eaton remarked that the reason he was selling Eaton Electric to Buddy Brown was so that he could be free to look for a business with higher pay and less work.

Gus Ward carefully examined the seed on top of his bread. Then he turned to his mother, Mrs. Albert Ward, and asked, "If I plant this seed, how long will it be 'til I can grow rolls?"

Buddy Brown Buys Eaton Electric

Buddy Brown has purchased Eaton Electric from John Eaton and will rename the business Brown Electric.

Brown has been employed by Eaton for four years and is a licensed electrician. He has lived in Sonora for 11 years and is married to the former Mary Lois Hull. They have two children, Karen 6, a Dennis 4.

SUNDAY HOMECOMING

Tom Shipp To Lead Worship Service

The annual community worship service to be designated "Sonora Homecoming," will be held on July 10 on the Courthouse lawn beginning with a basket supper at 6 p.m.

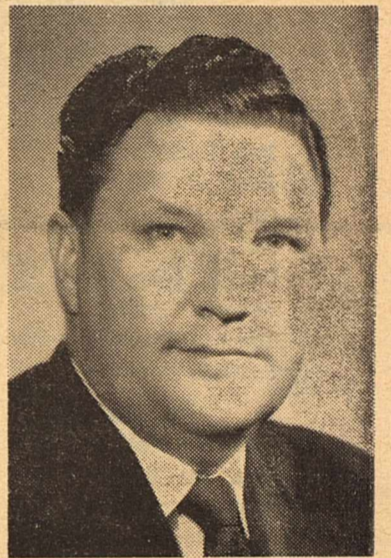

The Rev. Tom Shipp will deliver the message after the supper. Rev. Shipp is pastor of the Lover's Lane Methodist Church in Dallas and has been quite active in Dallas community affairs. He now serves on the board of directors of 14 organizations and has won 13 awards and honors for leadership and guidance since 1951.

He has made innumerable writings and talks on alcoholism throughout the country, and his first book, "Helping the Alcoholic and His Family," was published in June of 1963.

The worship service will be accompanied by the singing of old time gospel songs with Joe Lane leading the singing.

The service will be patterned after the Diamond Jubilee Sunday service of last year, and those who wish to wear Jubilee clothing are encouraged to do so.

The Sonora Ministerial Alliance will make this community service an annual affair to take place the second Sunday in July each year.

County and KCKG Receive Awards From Heart Assoc.

The Rev. and Mrs. Lea Roy Aldwell attended the annual meeting of the Southwest Texas Heart Association in San Angelo June 28. As a representative of the Sutton County Heart Association, Mrs. Aldwell accepted an award for the highest number of heart memorials for the third consecutive year.

Sutton Accident Record Released

The Texas Department of Public Safety has published a comparison of the traffic accidents in Sutton County for the first five months of the year to the same period last year.

There has been one fatal accident in 1966 compared with one last year. Twenty-seven accidents occurred during the first part of 1966 with 26 accidents reported in 1965. Last year 21 people were injured during the first five months of the year while 16 were injured this year.

Property damage this year has amounted to $14,015 compared with $29,270 in 1965.

CofC Schedules Membership Day

The Sonora Chamber of Commerce has set Tuesday, July 12, as its annual Membership Day. On that day a concentrated drive will be initiated to obtain new members for the Chamber.

The Sonora Chamber of Commerce was founded in 1958 with a membership of 130 or more, and now the membership has fallen to only 112. Yearly dues have fallen almost $3,000.

In order for the Chamber to keep up its work for Sonora, the membership and dues need to increase, according to Bob Johnson, manager.

The Chamber of Commerce has had a part in many worthwhile and useful projects in the community. The Sonora Chamber was instrumental in the building of the 4-H Center, the stock pens, the airport, and golf course. Recently the CofC has been at work on obtaining a garment factory here.

The CofC operates an information center available to all residents and visitors; it operates a housing office designed to help newcomers as well as old timers in securing living accommodations; it answers hundreds of letters each year from people wanting information about Sonora, Sutton County, the Caverns of Sonora, and the Edwards Plateau; and it serves as a single point of contact for any and all matters pertaining to business in Sonora, the economy of the area, or even the location of a person.

In the effort to obtain more members and support for the Chamber of Commerce, its Board of Directors will lead the drive for new members on July 12.

Ex-Sonora Resident Killed in Traffic Accident June 28

Mrs. Blanche Collier, 61, of Odessa was fatally injured in a two-car collision Tuesday night, June 28.

Mrs. Collier was born in Sonora in 1904 and was the daughter of Mrs. Lottie Turney. She moved to Odessa in 1954 from San Angelo. Her husband, a construction worker, died in 1957.

Mrs. Collier was a registered nurse and survivors include Mrs. Turney, her brother, Frank Turney, and her sister, Mrs. Jake Merck.

THE CHAMPIONSHIP TROPHY for the Little League is being presented to Dick Street, manager of the First National Bank Colt 45's by Dr. Charles F. Browne, president of the Sonora Little League. The 45's won both of the first and second halves of the season finishing well in front of the other three teams.

DEVIL'S RIVER PHILOSOPHER SEZ:

DeGaulle and Others Exaggerate Slightly

Editor's note: The Devil's River Philosopher on his bitterweed ranch on Dry Devil's River takes a certain look at human nature in his letter this week. The ideas are his, not ours.

Dear editor:

I don't know how it happened, but I was sitting under a tree out here on this bitterweed ranch yesterday afternoon and looked up and saw a newspaper floating down, must have fallen out of an airplane although it's the first time I've known it to happen, and I kept my eyes on it as it drifted down and memorized where it landed and after I got through resting walked over and picked it up.

According to the main headline on the front page, President Charles DeGaulle of France had just landed in Moscow for a visit with the Russian leaders, but what interested me was his first statement as he got off the plane.

"The whole universe," he said, "knows what importance is attached to the visit I am about to make."

I asked a neighbor what importance he attached to it and he said: "Who's DeGaulle?"

This got me to figuring, and I estimate you can safely say there are hundreds of thousands of Americans who don't know who DeGaulle is or didn't know he had landed in Russia, there are millions of South Americans in the same shape, millions of Russians, hundreds of millions of Asians and practically all of the Eskimos.

What it boils down to is a notion that the visit of DeGaulle looks bigger to DeGaulle than it does to the universe.

However I suppose, and this makes him human which he wouldn't like, he is about like the rest of the race. Exaggeration is a fundamental trait of the human animal.

For example, when a teen-ager tells another teen-ager she'll never speak to her again, it means four or five hours, unless her telephone has been taken out.

And when a woman says, "I'll tell you one thing," get set for fifteen or twenty.

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

Warm Weather Duets
Serve creamed shrimp with a frozen, baked spinach soufflé for a quick supper or luncheon. Top this off with a shebert.

Plates will look pretty when a whole tomato is cut like a tulip, filled with chicken salad and garnished with assorted olives. Dessert can be a cherry-topped cheese cake.

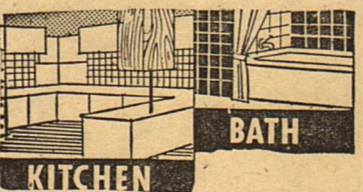

Prepare potato salad in the morning and let chill and ripen. Surround it with salami cornucopias, thin slices of corned beef and rolled-up ham in which you've tucked canned asparagus spears. Dessert's a chocolate sundae.

Make kabobs of crabmeat chunks and whole shrimp alternated with tomato wedges and green pepper chunks. Brush with melted butter to which some dill weed has been added and broil these, indoors or out. Let fruit be the dessert.

Start off with cream of corn soup served in mugs, then follow with 'burgers wrapped in bacon, topped with tomato slice broiled with cheese and relish. Pass ice cream cake roll for dessert.

Add some cottage cheese to an omelet or scrambled eggs and serve with sliced, leftover ham and pineapple and apricot preserves. Dessert's a strawberry shortcake.

Combine cream and cottage cheese. Add remaining ingredients and beat with mixer or blender. Bake on a hot griddle until bubbles form on surface, then turn and brown other side. Serve with butter and syrup.

SONORA'S BEGINNING TO SPARKLE

The annual June Clean-up, Fix-up, and Paint-up campaign has left Sonorans with a town they can be proud of. The city has taken on new glow and warmth that make it a better place in which to live and visit.

The clean-up campaign, however, is not the real reason that Sonora is more beautiful. People of Sonora have become aware of the necessity to tidy up the community and have done so. Although June was officially known as Clean-up Month, the purpose was to get Sonorans to wake up, look around, and then do something about what they saw.

Many people "did something" before June rolled around and will keep on throughout the year. The results of their efforts are clearly visible as one drives through town.

Vacant lots have been cleared off, the draws have been cleaned out, and many vacant houses and their yards have been objects of the clean-up. The most striking examples of these are the house across the street from Piggly Wiggly and the one across from the Methodist Church. Of course, there are many other examples, but these two are most evident because of their location in downtown Sonora.

The civic pride of a community such as Sonora has a way of rubbing off on others as illustrated by one woman who owns Sonora property.

This out-of-town owner read about the clean-up campaign being conducted in Sonora and felt that she should do her part. She had her lot cleared. Now, instead of seeing head-high Johnson grass, the houses and trees of a cheerful neighborhood can be seen.

Although we have done a good job in cleaning up our city, there are still things in need of improvement. An entire block on Main Street in downtown Sonora is completely vacant. The block is occupied by the old McDonald Hotel, the old Foxworth Galbraith building, and a vacant house.

What pride do you think Sonorans and out-of-town visitors would feel if this block could be made into a city park? The park would not only be a cool spot for tourists to rest and relax, but it would also be a beautiful spot in our community where various public affairs could be held.

Yes, we as Sonorans should take pride in things accomplished but we should also realize that there are other things that are yet to be done. We should set out to do them. A downtown city park would be a good start.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Glasscock of Menard were in Sonora Thursday the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Grimland. Mr. Glasscock is a druggist in Menard and is placing headache tablets with A. H. Nathan.

Those who attended the barbecue and dance at Mayer on Tuesday had a most enjoyable time. There were over 200 people present and the arrangements were perfect. As an indication of the interest taken on the amusement, 26 men entered in the cigar race. The dancing platform and cold drink stands were well patronized.

Wirt Stephenson, while pumping up a tire Wednesday, had a blowout. The dirt and shock incident thereto came very near putting out his eyes.

Red Head Evicted By Tough Starling

You think starlings are rascals? Brother, you should interview a certain defeathered woodpecker sulking in Waco!

The red head had just finished heaving out a fine new home in a dead tree. And here came a sombre joker, all feathered out in a dark suit peppered with light colored "v's". "V for victory" or not, the starling, rated widely as a great mistake after being introduced into this country in 1890, laid siege to the new house, as well as to the builder.

The bird battle raged for several days, in the tree and on the ground the combatants fought it out. Several plucked feathers later, the red head was evicted and now the starling sicker is comfortably keeping house just like birds with a conscience.

Read Label on All Pesticide Products

Pesticide products are thoroughly tested before they are sold for your use, says D. C. Langford, county agent. Research results are available for all to read on the label of many home pesticides, explains Langford. Take your time when you buy, and read the label carefully each time you use the product.

Each pesticide container is labeled with information so that you will know how to use the product in the right amount and in the proper way. The label contains warning and caution statements regarding the safest way to use the product.

Most of the pesticide products designed for home use have labels that are written in "layman's language." You will find a few new terms, but look them up in the dictionary before you use the product.

You may also be faced with a term that is so new that it is not in a dictionary. In that case, contact the county agent's office where a listing of pesticide terms is available. He will look up the word you don't understand.

Nothing is left to chance by the manufacturer as he develops, tests and checks the product before it is put on the market. Each product takes three to five years of testing and research work at a cost, to the manufacturer, of around $2 million for each new product. Yet, this time, effort and money will be wasted if you neglect to read and understand the information on the label, which is there to help and protect you.

Never use a stronger concentration than is recommended on the label. It is not true that if little is desirable a lot more will be that much better.

Advice to the 'Woe-Be-Gones'

by Agatha Crump

Dear Agatha,
What can anyone do with a "blankety blank" neighbor like mine? For the past few weeks the most ear-shattering noises have been coming from his house. Finally, deciding to investigate, I found that though being an accomplished clarinetist he isn't satisfied but wants his clarinet to sound like a saxophone!
He intends to accomplish this by doing something to the tone while playing through an amplifier. Is this possible? Or will I be forced to lose my sanity because of undue stress to my eardrums?
Signed,
Max
Dear Max—
I think your sanity will be saved if you are willing to invest $1.00 in a handbook entitled "How to play the Saxophone in Ten Easy Lessons". After purchasing said item—give it to your neighbor!
Good Luck,
Agatha

YOUR MINISTER SAYS

by the Rev. Rodney Dowdy
Pastor, First Baptist Church

Psalms 133:1-3 "Behold how good and how pleasant it is for brethren to dwell together in unity. It is like the precious ointment upon the head, that run down upon the beard; even Aaron's beard; that went down to the skirts of his garments; As the dew of Hermon, and as the dew that descended upon the mountains of Zion; for there the Lord commanded the blessing, even life for evermore."

SUNDAY EVENING COMMUNITY RELIGIOUS SERVICE CAN BE A BLESSING TO ALL WHO LIVE IN SONORA AND SUTTON COUNTY.

It is good for the people of Sutton County to come together for a religious service. We will build a bond of fellowship and will have a common interest. Perhaps we will have an opportunity to know each other a little better. As the dew of night was essential to vegetation in the Holy Land even so there must be a fellowship of Christian thought among our people.

WE DO HAVE MUCH IN COMMON INTERESTS: Most of us believe in high moral standards. We want a good community in which to live. We believe in the principals of the Ten Commandments and the teaching of Christ from the Sermon on the Mount. We basically have a desire to practice the Golden Rule. Upon these great eternal principals we agree.

We are in unison in our desire to strengthen our churches. We do not want to live a community that does not have churches. Then we come together this Sunday to worship with our neighbors. There are so many Christian principals upon which we can stand together. Let us magnify these good principals upon which we agree.

WE HAVE THE ASSURANCE OF BLESSINGS. The Psalms we have just read reminds us that the Lord will bless the people as they come together for worship. There is strength and encouragement when people share their hearts and thoughts. We can go forth from this service reassured that we do not stand alone, but we are one of many who believe in the principals of the Bible.

A Parson's Eye View of Sonora

by Rev. Ross T. Welch
So hazardous was the itinerant ministry of the early Methodist ministers in this area, when they gathered for annual conference once a year the first hymn they would sing was, "And are we yet alive, and see each other's face?" That hymn seems appropriate after every national holiday these days. After Independence Day we all breathe a sigh of relief and say, "Maybe we can make it until Labor Day."

Someone told us, "Not many people leave Sonora on a holiday weekend. We have so many visitors here all the home folks have to stick around and try to keep them happy." Just as well, perhaps.

We were among the foolish ones who ventured out of town, driving all the way to Sterling County. (I hope you know where it is!) My Dad was every inch a Southerner, but he was born on the 4th of July. So long as he lived on the Sterling County ranch, we tried to gather there to give thanks for our family heritage as well as our national heritage.

Mrs. C. M. Epps sent along a beautiful arrangement of flowers to commemorate the occasion, and we had a leisurely, relaxed Fourth with barbecue, home made ice cream, and all the trimmings. Sonora seems to be a well-organized town. We were delighted to find even the Ministerial Alliance functioning at top-level efficiency. We had only been here a few hours when we received the news that we were to have the devotionals on Station KCKG the following week. We hope you did not ruin your days last week by NOT listening at 6:45 each morning.

Speaking of KCKG, here is a bouquet to Albert Ward for trying so valiantly to recover Sylvester, our cat. We suspect his regular listeners long since have devoutly wished the Methodist minister had never tried to move a cat.

Incidentally, we have had numerous offers of substitutes for Sylvester. Thanks, everyone, we only wanted Sylvester back. She was part of the family. She used to follow me as far as I would let her in the mornings. Her first preference was to go into my office, rub herself a few times against the legs of my dark trousers, then curl up on one corner of my desk and sleep while I slaved. This was only a rare privilege.

Otherwise, she would follow me to the door of the church, or if it were raining, to the door of my office. When I started to return to the Parsonage, there was Sylvester, waiting to walk back with me.

One little boy was overly generous in his offer of a replacement. He said, "I'll give you three or four kittens if you will take some baby squirrels with them."

We have given up on Sylvester. We hear that rabies is a common disease among the wild animals in this area, and it might not be the better part of wisdom to welcome her if she returned.

Sonora grows on anyone—and that right quickly. Some of the old-timers tell us that they only expected to stay a few weeks when they came and now you could not entice them away.

Did you ever walk down a street in a strange town greeting every person you met and have eight or ten in a row rebuff you. If you tipped your hat to a lady (supposedly), she might give you a dressing down with her eyes if nothing more as though she thought you were being fresh.

If you went out of your way to give a friendly "Howdy" to a gentleman, and he looked at you as though you were way out (squirrelly, that is), how many times would you persist?

Let me hasten to say this did NOT happen in Sonora. We have always maintained that West Texans were the friendliest people in the world and we are delighted to have that faith restored as we come back to our native country. Keep it up. You just do not realize how MUCH a friendly smile and a cheerful greeting can mean to one who comes as a stranger among you.

We had the occasion to meet the lady who calls herself the "Mother of Sonora", Mrs. Frank Turney. Sorrows in her family have multiplied these last few weeks. We trust the sun will shine again for her soon—remember to pray for her.

When Jimmy Hugh Harris returns from Lions International Convention in New York, we have a date to do some early morning exercising with him. Anyone care to join us?

There is no better time of day to get the perspective referred to at the head of this column.

Pvt. Buck Skains has returned to Camp Fort Polk, La. after a two-week visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Skains, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Skains and Peggy, and Mr. and Mrs. Pete Skains and Diana of San Angelo.

Bees Buzz Keeper Of Cleburne Park

Bees probing the limited Cleburne State Park buildings for something or another were not exactly discriminating.

One swarm occupied the women's restroom and another took over the men's area.

Of course, all is serene now that the bizarre invasion ended quickly.

But it was very exciting while the two-day crisis prevailed, as witness the official combat report by Park Superintendent M. F. Horton to Ranger Billy J. Smith.

"I don't know how many swarms here are in the house. One at the front window in the living room and one at the side window over TV. There is a big bunch, as big as a No. 2 washtub, hanging on a tree in front of the house. They swarmed there last night and are still there. They started down the chimney and I got the water hose and turned it on them while my wife got a bucket and went into the trees and started beating on it. I guess we scared them away from the house. It was terrible."

And just to think the summer visitation rush is about to reach full stride.

"WHO'S WHO" this week is a real swimmer, or swinger, that is. He will be a senior next year.

The previous "Who's Who" was Jackie Cargill.

GREEN

NEWS

by Lunetta Morgan

Aren't you glad you spent the Fourth where you spent it and didn't we have fun?

A few of us spent our holiday on the old, hot golf course and were thankful we were not at the horse races or rodeos, burning up. But every one to their own taste. At the Scotch Foursome, the winning team consisted of Joe Hardgrave, Clayton Hamilton, Louis Davis and Bobbie Fawcett. Coming in second were George Johnson, Monica Davis, Hut Moore and Tommy Thorp. John Bell, Lea Roy Aldwell, Jack Adkins and Elaine Donaldson were third. A picnic supper and watermelon were enjoyed by the golfers and their families.

A warning! Peggy and Web Elliott killed a coral snake off number seven tee box. So watch where you step.

Three taking time off from the course to enjoy a weekend of fishing were Jimmy Trainer, Gary Hardgrave and Chris Berger.

The Dub Blacks have recently moved into their new home.

Three new golfers added to the younger set are Evelyn Lowe, Gayle Hamilton and Jessa Cook. Welcome.

Visitors this week were Charlie Howell, Jack Allen and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Luttrell.

Jane and Milton Cavaness spent the holidays in Junction and Rock-springs.

Has everyone seen the bulletin board?

Nelda and Stanley Mayfield have purchased a golf cart.

And speaking of carts, the club is building six new cart sheds. This is progress.

The new course must be going to be "something". Oliver and Jerry walked it out and it took them to noon to cover seven holes. Oliver said you better pack a lunch if you intended playing, because it would take quite a spell to complete a round. There will be two five par holes and two three pars.

Seen on the practice green this week was Mrs. Doran. Welcome.

Birthday greetings to L. P. Bloodworth.

It just goes to show you, you can't believe everything you read in the paper. Last week, I said Ralph Mayer was J. W. Neville's partner and it was Edwin Mayer. Sorry.

Mike Wuest recently played golf at the San Antonio Country Club and the pro was amazed at how far Mike could hit a ball. No wonder Wilson has had to repair three woods for the Wuests.

It wasn't enough that we have to contend with the ground squirrels, the rocks and draws. Now we have the highway surveying crew.

Bob Teaff seems to think that E. L. Harrell may be making a mistake by encouraging Dorothy to play golf. Who will fix supper?

We are glad that Diana Cahill is able to be home. Diana recently was thrown from a horse and suffered a back injury.

James D. Trainer returned Saturday from Fort Worth where he attended the funeral of Floyd Wilburn. Peggy remained with her mother, Mrs. Wilburn.

Jimmy Harris is in New York as a Lion delegate.

We hoped with the new store hours, Bob Vicars might be able to play a little golf in the afternoons. Come on out, we have missed you.

Well so much for the Fourth, 1966.

Teen Scene

By Margaret Bundy

The Rocksprings Rodeo was the high point of the past week. A few of the many people at Rocksprings were Gail Espy, Jack Hearn, Nadine Pentecost, Joyce Hearn, Carol Hopf, Corky Fields, Keith Nolen, Hoot Hearn, and Guy Askew.

Several kids were home from summer school for the Fourth of July. Yvonne Young was here from San Marcos, Janie Letsinger came home from North Texas, and Eddie Sawyer was back from SMU.

Libb Wallace and Bill Glasscock returned to Sonora last week. They have been working in Ruidoso, but finally decided to come home.

Carl Teaff finished his session of summer school at SMU and is in town again.

Nedra Raye was planning to go to Snyder this week to visit her cousin, Patsy Rainwater.

Charlie Hopf was in Sonora during the weekend. He returned to Uncle Sam Monday.

Tomye Smith, Charlie Joe Taliaferro, Janet Morrison, and Wayne Bryant were in Mexico Sunday to watch the bull fights.

Wade Stokes was in the hospital for surgery because of a football injury. We are happy to say that he is out now.

There was quite a bit of excitement and planning going on about Ray Price's appearance at the Boots and Saddles Club in San Angelo. Quite a few kids were planning to go up to see him.

Some of the kids around Sonora seem to turn into hermits during the summer. Jim Fish and Laney Cook were seen in town last Saturday. Ray Glasscock and Debbie Galbreath have been seen recently, too.

SURPRISE! Yes, there have been visitors in Sonora this week. Paul Hannis and Stewart Howard from Carrizo Springs were visiting Brent Johnson. Beverly, Sarah, and Cindy Johnson are here visiting Mr. and Mrs. Alvis Johnson. Candy Nichols from Odessa was here during the weekend visiting Jerry Shurley.

Dorr Scherz was in town Saturday on a trip from Austin to Eldorado.

God's Will

"I delight to do thy will, O God, thy law is within my heart." — Psalms 40:8

God is neither "boss", nor supervisor. When we meet temptation face-to-face we cannot turn to God with a question and expect an answer to be written in the clouds. God does not direct our movements with signs or symbols. We find God's will in the Commandments and in the principles of Christianity. For the practicing Christian, belief in God becomes a source of strength in the face of temptation. There is, in obedience to the will of God, a measure of continuing strength and personal satisfaction.

Parents, Law Officers Are Responsible For Preventing Kids' Firework Accidents

In a pre-Fourth of July eye safety warning, parents are reminded of their joint responsibility with law enforcement agencies for preventing firework accidents among children.

"Unless home vigilance is increased, fireworks will continue to be a menace to sight and safety in our community," says the Texas Society For the Prevention of Blindness Inc., offering the following suggestions to parents:

1. Do not permit your child to purchase fireworks through the mail or from illicit dealers. Fireworks from these sources are often inferior and even more dangerous than regular types.

2. If your child has obtained fireworks, gunpowder or sparklers confiscate these immediately and help him to understand they are dangerous and probably illegal.

3. Assist authorities in locating dealers in illegal fireworks.

4. Check closely on the activities of your children during the holiday period, especially if they have shown an interest in matches, ammunition, powder or rockets.

5. Do not buy or use fireworks yourself. Take your family to public display where they can enjoy fireworks in safety.
