PRICE—TEN CENTS

CINDERS

by John T. King

From the Brady Standard comes this intriguing sentence.

Ask a friend to read this sentence slowly:

FINISHED FILES ARE THE RESULT OF YEARS OF SCIENTIFIC STUDY COMBINED WITH THE EXPERIENCE OF YEARS.

Then tell him to count aloud the F's in that sentence. Let him count them only once. How many?

It is said that one of average intelligence finds three F's. Four is above average, five is super, six denotes genius and anyone finding seven should read the sentence again.

Heard of Superglue? At present it's a research product coming to the front in dentistry. With it Army dentists are boasting no drilling, no bleeding, no waiting!

Army Times reports that the average recruit comes into service with seven cavities which need immediate attention. How can these be treated without unnecessary delay of the recruits basic training? A new filling with Superglue tissue adhesive permits Army dentists in tests to fill cavities in about three minutes—without drilling.

Of course the filling only lasts from six to nine months, but efforts are being made to extend the length of life so that its use can be more extensive.

Also, after mouth surgery, the area can be sprayed with the tissue adhesive and bleeding stops immediately. In many cases the need for stitches is eliminated.

At the market, a store owner and manufacturer were arguing loudly and excitedly about a deal when a friend of the buyer came by. He called the man over and said, "I can't understand you, Willie. In all the years I've known you, you've never once paid a bill. You know you're not going to pay the bill anyway, so why argue about the price?"

"I know," answered Willie, "but he's such a nice fellow, I'd like to keep his losses down."

THIS GROUP OF YOUNGSTERS found the game of "mumbletypeg" an interesting way to pass time after Saturday night's final performance at the Junior Rodeo, and while waiting for the judges to announce their decision of the award winners. This pretty girl contestant kept the young boys busy with her ability to play the game well.

Petersburg Girl, Sweetwater Boy Selected as Best All-Around

Debbie Furguson of Petersburg and Robert Taylor of Sweetwater, won best All-Around girl and boy honors at the Sutton County Junior Rodeo, July 18-20. A trophy buckle was presented to each.

The annual affair, which is approved by the American Junior Rodeo Association, is sponsored by the Sonora Park Association on a non-profit basis. Area businessmen donate trophy buckles to first place winners in each event.

Louis Powers served as rodeo chairman, and Mrs. Louis Powers served as rodeo secretary. L. P. Bloodworth was announcer and judges, Jimmy and Zane Powers. Assisting Mrs. Powers with bookkeeping were Blanche Smith and Joyce Hearn. Stock was furnished by Mutt Black of Marfa.

Class A Broncos Picked 6th In State In 1968 'Texas Football' Predictions

In the 1968 Texas Football predictions, Sonora is ranked sixth in the State, and is picked as favorite to win the District 8-A title.

Predictors say that "in the upper bracket, Seagraves must deal with Aspermont and Sonora mano a mano but has some help in that Albany, Archer City, Clifton, and Honey Grove must face each other, as do Clarendon and Sudan."

Mason has dropped from AA competition and promises to be tough competition in the district. Sonora returns 7 offensive and 5 defensive regulars. Other contenders for district race will be Eldorado, Menard, Junction and Eden. Ozona moves into District 6-AA this year.

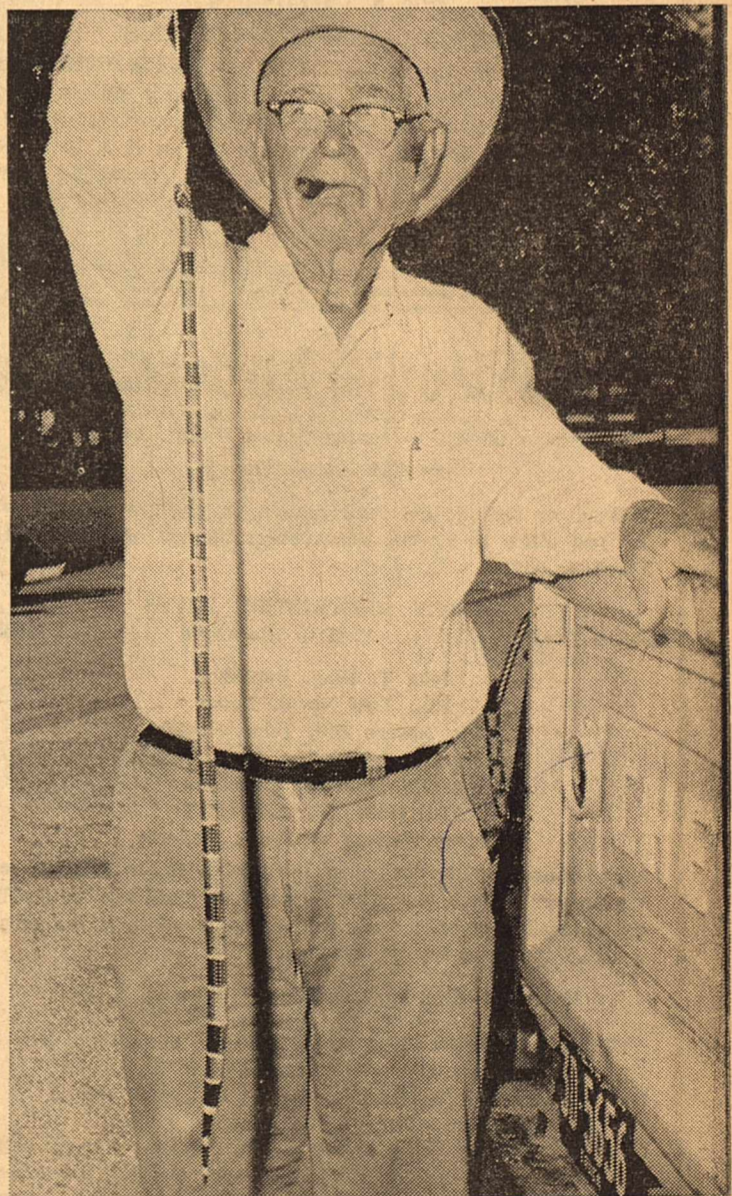

Poth is picked to win the Class A State Championship. The Poth Pirates went 28-13-1 the past four seasons as a small AA entry and this year they are stepping back to Class A football. Poth, playing in District 31-A has 6 defensive and 6 offensive starters back from a 10-1-1 season in District 27-AA.

Football practice training for players here will begin August 19, according to Dennie Hays, line coach. Members of the football coaching staff, Jerry Hopkins, head coach, Jerry Phillips, Bob Snodgrass, and Hays, will leave July 23 to attend the annual Texas High School coaches school. The school will be held for one week in Ft. Worth.

An estimated crowd of between four and five hundred came out to support the All-Stars.

SONORA vs. OZONA

Sonora's All-Star Little League championship players proved their ability to play well by trouncing the Ozona All-Stars by a score of 9-0, Thursday night, July 18, at Ozona. on base. Paul Browne, shortstop, hit the only home run of the game. He also had a single. Sonora had 10 hits with three of these being credited to Bruce Kerbow, first baseman.

Saturday Closings Set For Post Office

In compliance with a directive from Postmaster General W. Marvin Watson, postmaster James D. Trainer announces that the local post office will be closed on Saturdays effective July 27.

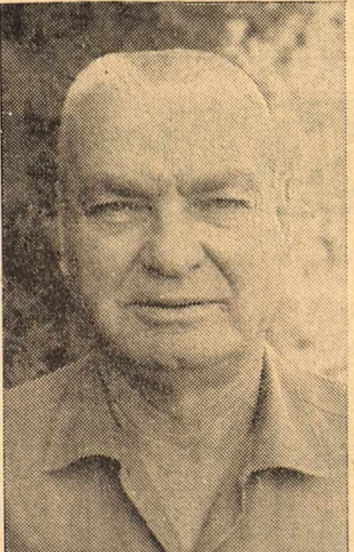

Trainer says that all window service will be discontinued on Saturdays, but mail arrival and departure will not be effected and will arrive and depart as usual.

Post office box holders will still have mail service but no stamp sales, money order sales or parcel deliveries will be conducted.

This directive is in compliance with the employment cutback required by Congress under the recently enacted tax bill, Public Law 90-364, by ordering some postal services and hiring curtailed.

I Am Sick of Being Told That I Am Sick

Editor's Note: The following address was delivered to the Oak Cliff Lions Club in the early part of June, by David R. Braden. The copy was provided this publication by George Thompson of Sweetwater.

The next day, as I contemplated this tragic and horrible event, it occurred to me that while spending a pleasant and amusing evening, I had done little then (or in this year) that you would wrap some serious thought around. I have left that to guest speakers at this rostrum.

Editor in L. A.—Later that evening he shot and killed a United States Senator—Robert Kennedy—a candidate for the presidency of this nation!

I am sick of being told I am sick: By foppish entertainers draped in Nehru jackets, feminine necklaces, and a cloak of pseudo intellectualism.

I am sick of cynical attitudes toward patriotism and our American institutions.

I am sick of sacrificing the political of American manhood in political wars we are not fighting to win.

I am sick of the decline in integrity and personal honor in this nation.

I am sick of the permissive attitude, laxity, and tolerance to pressure groups and the criminal element that is bringing this nation to its knees in lawlessness.

I am sick of seeing law enforcement agencies and the laws of this nation emasculated by a Supreme Court and Administrators who make their personal creeds the law of the land.

I am sick of dirty, unwashed, foul mouthed, —whether you call them hippies, beatniks or pseudo poor people.

I am sick of not being able to take my family to a movie because it is loaded with extraneous offensive matter whose only purpose is to shock.

I am sick of seeing the same phrases in the popular literature of the day that I see scrawled on the walls of public toilets.

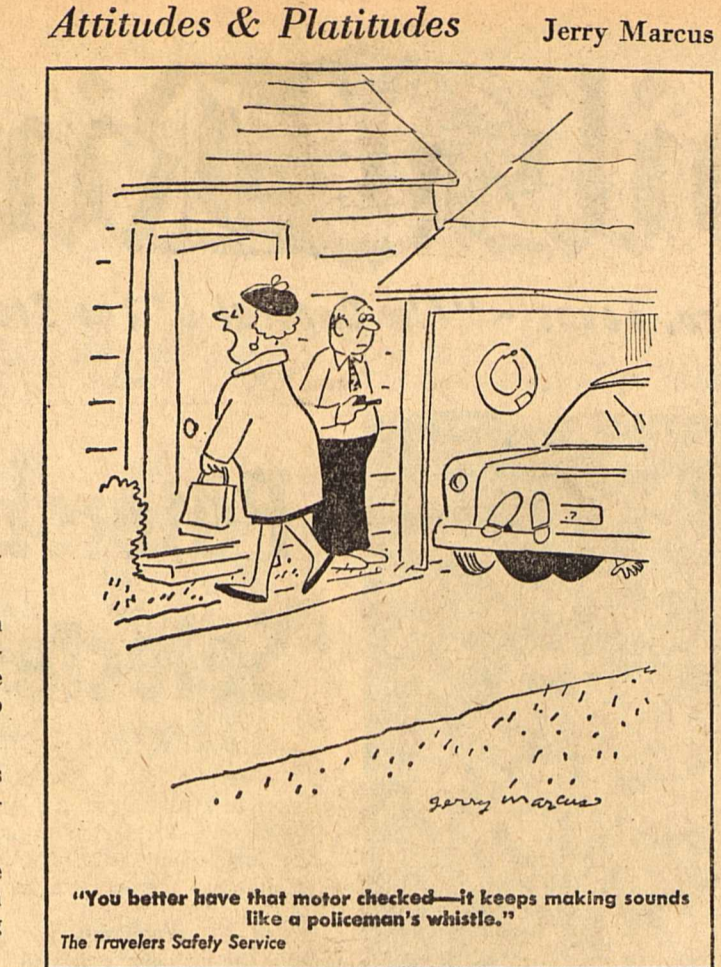

I am sick of so called educators and leaders too weak-kneed themselves to understand the value of discipline in the character of man.

I am sick of a Congress which legislates out of emotionalism rather than reason, thereby taking away the Rights of all.

I am sick of being told I am sick with violence because of assassinations by mentally deranged men fed on a steady diet of violence and perversion by the nations periodicals, press, television and movies—all condoned—even aided by courts which permit license in the name of freedom.

I am sick of riots, of marches, and those who force themselves and their ideologies down my throat without qualifications. I am sick of those who say I owe everything, because of the sins of my forefathers, when I have looked down both ends of a machine gun barrel to defend them and their right to be here.

Take note gentlemen in high places; you will not see me in the streets with a placard or a gun. You will hear the thunder of the common man at the polling place, casting a vote for "Liberty, Intelligence, Our Nation's Safety."

More than 15% of the drivers involved in fatal accidents in 1967 were women.

A Parson's Eye-View of Sonora

BY THE REV. ROSS T. WELCH

I attended one session of the Junior Rodeo, and — to my surprise—found some of my kinsmen competing out there. I was sitting there, paying very little attention to the names of the competitors unless I recognized them as Sonora youngsters.

I began to hear the name "Welch" called pretty regularly. I borrowed a program from one of my neighbors and, sure enough, they were names I recognized, my cousin's grandsons. L. P. called one of them up on the public address system. We only see each other briefly each year at family reunions—if we both happen to attend, so I barely recognized him.

It seems the boys make a rodeo somewhere in West Texas every weekend. I remembered that Ken had tied his calf in a little over 14 seconds and complimented him on it, but he was unhappy because someone else had tied his calf under 12 seconds. Ken's father is pretty well known as a trainer of cutting horses. So I guess he comes by his rodeoing naturally.

I spent last week in the town famous for its resorts and camps —Kerrville. I did not go to enhance my status, but seriously to attend a school of missions at our conference camp, Mt. Wesley.

The program was interesting, the food was good, the weather was pleasant, and my roommate was congenial, but there was one feature of camp life I did not like—the crickets.

By the time we reached our cabin at night, the inside walls were black with crickets. We were supposed to study some at night, but if we dared switch on our lights our little visitors became active and started doing dive bombing. Their favorite targets were white objects—bed sheets, pajamas or your skin.

They made such jolly little bed fellows—these crickets. Some of the critters were not so active, they just sat and crooned. We decided they were the hippie crickets. I had heard that crickets ate holes in clothing and was quite fearful that some of my things would be riddled, but I guess these were not hungry crickets.

We were comparing gripes one day in class when our teacher, who had long beautiful hair said she did not know what we were complaining about. While she had been combing her hair, a cricket had flown into it and she had combed him out one leg at a time.

I had just breathed a sigh of relief on my homework trek at leaving my cricket friends behind, when I heard a familiar tune. My radio was not turned on, but I soon recognized the cricket song and remembered I had left my car glasses down a couple of inches so that the car would not get hot.

About that time I looked down at the small expanse of floor covering underneath the steering wheel not covered by my feet and there sat a Kerr County Cricket looking very pleased with himself. I stomped him. It was not long until two interested companions came out to examine the remains and I got them also. We played the little game all the way to Sonora and I killed an incredible number of traveling companions.

I knew we had crickets in Sutton County, but I was determined not to introduce the Kerr County variety. But can you guess what was the first thing that greeted me when I opened my suitcase?

Since this column is written early in the week, I may be speaking of crickets in the week.

THE DEVIL'S RIVER PHILOSOPHER SEZ Some Sharp Words To Add About People Who're Too Lazy To Walk

Editor's note: The Dry Devil's Philosopher on his bitterweed ranch on Dry Devil's comes out against laziness this week. It's amazing.

Dear editor:

I was sitting under a shade tree out here on this bitterweed ranch yesterday, it's my favorite because it's lined up with two others so that when the sun moves, one tree picks up the shadow, then the next, and I can sit in one place four or five hours without losing my shade, and if you don't think this is important, have you ever gone to sleep in the shade and woke up in the sun?

I wasn't sleeping today, I was wide awake and for more than an hour had been watching a newspaper in the pasture about a hundred yards off moving about gently in the breeze. The wind seemed to be toying with it, rolling it around like a kitten with a ball of yarn.

I kept hoping it'd blow over to where I was, after all, one of man's first obligations in this fast-moving world is to stay informed, democracy can't function when the people are in the dark, politicians prove this all the time, but when the second hour passed and that paper was still a hundred yards away I took things into my own hands and got up and walked over and picked it up and brought it back. I get tired of people who can't do things for themselves. That's not all but it's part of the trouble with some people in this country today, and around the world too. They not only want something for nothing, they want it delivered.

After all, it didn't really hurt me to get up and go after that paper. It seems to me that if hundreds of people scattered throughout the world are going to the trouble of gathering the news and others are going to the trouble of making the paper to print it on and others to the trouble of editing and printing it in readable form, it's not asking too much of me to get up once in a while and walk over and pick up a copy.

This country wasn't built on people who waited forever for a newspaper to drop into their lap.

Feeling pretty good about this show of initiative, I sat back down under my line of shade trees and later on in the day, after I've rested up, I intend to open it up and read it thoroughly.

Yours faithfully
J. A.

It must be much worse for total strangers who work on a temporary basis and who are affiliated with no local church. In addition to those who work on our highway and live in Sonora, we have and are getting additional pastors and will soon be welcoming new teachers.

This is just a reminder that a little effort on the part of the 'old timers' can go a long way toward making the 'strangers within our gates' feel a part of us.

Thirteen members were at our monthly Wednesday luncheon. Libby Lowe and Gladys Mittel were hostesses this month.
The play for the day was flag play, handicaps plus par—Sammy Espy won the play on the eighth hole which gave her another golf ball—Sammy wins all her golf balls—she never has to buy any. Well, not very often anyway.

Golf playing at the course was rather slow this week, due to the fact that many people are on vacations, and we did have quite a bit of rain, 1.80 to be exact. Francis says he'd like to have another one just like it this week 'cause it sure helps the course. Another reason for a slow week—most of our golfers spent the week in San Antonio attending the big Pro tournament there. Some of our junior players who were there and acquired quite a few autographs were Dick Hamilton, Steve Thorp, Jesso Cook, and Chris Berger.

Screwworm Cases Reach 1,001
Screwworm epidemic is growing as Texas cases for the year reached the 1,001-mark, according to county agent, D. C. Langford.

Although the sterile fly production plant at Mission is operating near maximum capacity in rearing and dispersing sterile flies, huge cases buildups in many areas are so great that available treated flies are not able to halt this epidemic unless producers use good herd management practices such as treating all wounds and spraying. When wounds are found, larvae samples should be collected from deep within the wound and sent to the Mission Lab for identification.

According to Langford, Sutton County has not reported any screwworm cases but ranchmen are advised to keep a close inspection of livestock as cases have been reported in almost all the surrounding counties.

Great grandmother's way of freshening the air in the kitchen is still good: Boil vinegar water and cinnamon and or cloves in a shallow, open pan.

Social Security Defines "Widows"

The "length of marriage" requirement in social security's definition of "widow", "widower", and "stepchild of a deceased worker" has been changed, reports Ted F. Moellering, district manager of the San Angelo social security office. A widow, widower, or stepchild may now qualify for social security benefits based on a marriage that has been in existence for only 9 months just before the death of a worker.

Benefits under this change in the law were first payable in February, 1968. Any person who has been previously disqualified since a marriage had not been in effect long enough should contact the Social Security office at 3000 West Harris Avenue in San Angelo, or see the representative when he is in your area.

Moellering added that in some cases a marriage that has lasted for as little as 3 months may qualify the survivor. These are cases involving accidental death or death in the line of duty in

COYOTE GETS ITS KICKS BY JUST BEING A COYOTE

Some Texas Park and Wildlife Department biologists found out that it is a good idea to have a scapegoat, or in this case a scapegoat, nearby when you irritate a mother.

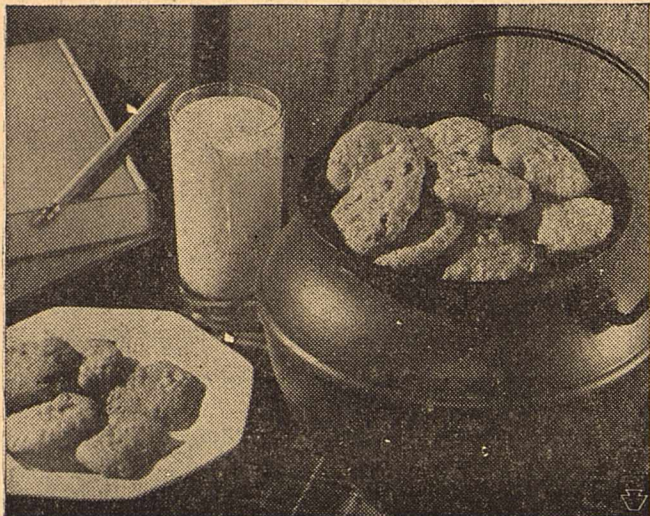

The biologists spotted the coyotes while capturing antelope fawns for examination. When they netted a particularly noisy fawn, its bleatings brought mama at full charge.

After striking out at biologists, nets, and everything else which to her looked menacing, the big female spotted the two coyotes— who were watching, they thought, from a safe distance. The antelope gave chase and quickly caught one of the hapless critters, giving it a sharp, powerhouse kick just on general principles.

The biologists quickly examined and released the fawn, glad that it was the coyote and not they who suffered the fury of a mother whose baby was crying.

Some Plants are Health Hazards

By E. B. Keng, SCS Technician
“The summertime beauty of our State’s lush vegetation in yards, fields, and pastures also holds dangers that the public should heed,” H. N. Smith, State Conservationist for the USDA Conservation Service in Temple, warned this week.
Smith said that throughout the U. S. and Canada more than 700 species of plants are known to cause death, illness or extreme discomfort to people.
“Chewing, swallowing or otherwise contacting the toxic parts of certain plants, trees and shrubs takes a heavy toll,” Smith said. “Each year health services report that about 12,000 children are poisoned or injured by these sources.”

Parents should be concerned because many of the plants are quite common in flower and vegetable gardens, and in ornamental landscaping, as well as in wild places. Bulbs, roots, seeds, leaves, beans, stems or berries may contain poison, depending on the species of the plant.
The beautiful oleander bush, for example, contains a deadly heart stimulant similar to the drug digitalis. The toxic is so strong that a single leaf can kill a child. People have died merely from eating twigs speared on oleander and roasted over a fire.
The popular Christmas flower poinsettia is full of an acid, burning juice, so lethal that a child who consumed one leaf might die. Mistletoe berries can also be deadly.

Peach tree leaves contain hydrocyanic acid, one of the most dangerous poisons known. Potato and tomato plants, close kin to the deadly nightshade, have foliage that contains alkaloid poisons which can cause severe digestive upset and nervous disorder if eaten.
Jimson weed or thornapple grows almost everywhere and causes more poisoning than any other plant. It grows from 2 to 5 feet tall, has large leaves and white funnel shaped flowers resembling morning glories, and a very disagreeable odor. All parts are poisonous, especially seeds and leaves.
Difenbachia, or dumb cane, is a beautiful house plant grown in millions of homes, but merely biting its stalk can cause swelling of the mouth and tongue that can be deadly. It is called dumb cane because of its power to strike its victims speechless. The stalk contains needle-like crystals of calcium oxalate that become imbedded in the tissues of the mouth and tongue causing severe swelling and pain.

Castor bean seeds are especially dangerous because they are so deadly and so readily available. They are sold in garden stores for about 25 cents a packet and are popular because they produce large, lush plants in one season. Yet each seed contains enough ricin, a powerful blood poison, to kill a child.
Mescalbean—erroneously called mountain laurel is also dangerous. It has a poison bean with a hard orange-colored coat. If it is swallowed whole there may be no ill effects, but if chewed or crushed it can be lethal.
Other common plants in Texas that have poisonous parts include

Rick Street Selected To Attend Youth Range Camp

The fourteenth annual Youth Range Camp for outstanding 4-H and FFA boys of Texas will be open July 29, with registration at the Texas A&M Adjunct near Junction. The camp is sponsored by the Texas section of the American society of range management.

The boys are selected on a basis of outstanding 4-H and FFA work and interest in or projects with range management. Expenses for each boy attending the camp were secured from local banks, service clubs, soil conservation districts, livestock associations, farm bureaus, individuals, parents, and other organizations.

The week's camp is designed to give range and ranch boys an opportunity for additional training in range management, leadership and recreation. The program will include study, judging range conditions, wildlife management, ranch planning and field trips to a Kimble County ranch and the Ranch Experiment Station. A recreational and entertainment program is planned for the group between instruction periods. Rick Street is attending the camp from Sutton County and is sponsored by the Sutton County 4-H Club.

Camp directors are B. J. Ragsdale, Dan Rodgers, Dr. Joe Schuster, Dwight Harkey, Glynn Hill, Dean Isaacs, Gary Gonyus and the Reverend Joe Fasel.

Boys will take notes on the instruction received and prizes will be awarded on Saturday, August 3, on the notebooks and herbaria prepared. Cy Richmond, president of the Texas section, will present awards to outstanding campers. Street was selected for this camp by being the outstanding boy in range and grass judging in Sutton County for 1968.

"The Graduate" To Run At LaVista

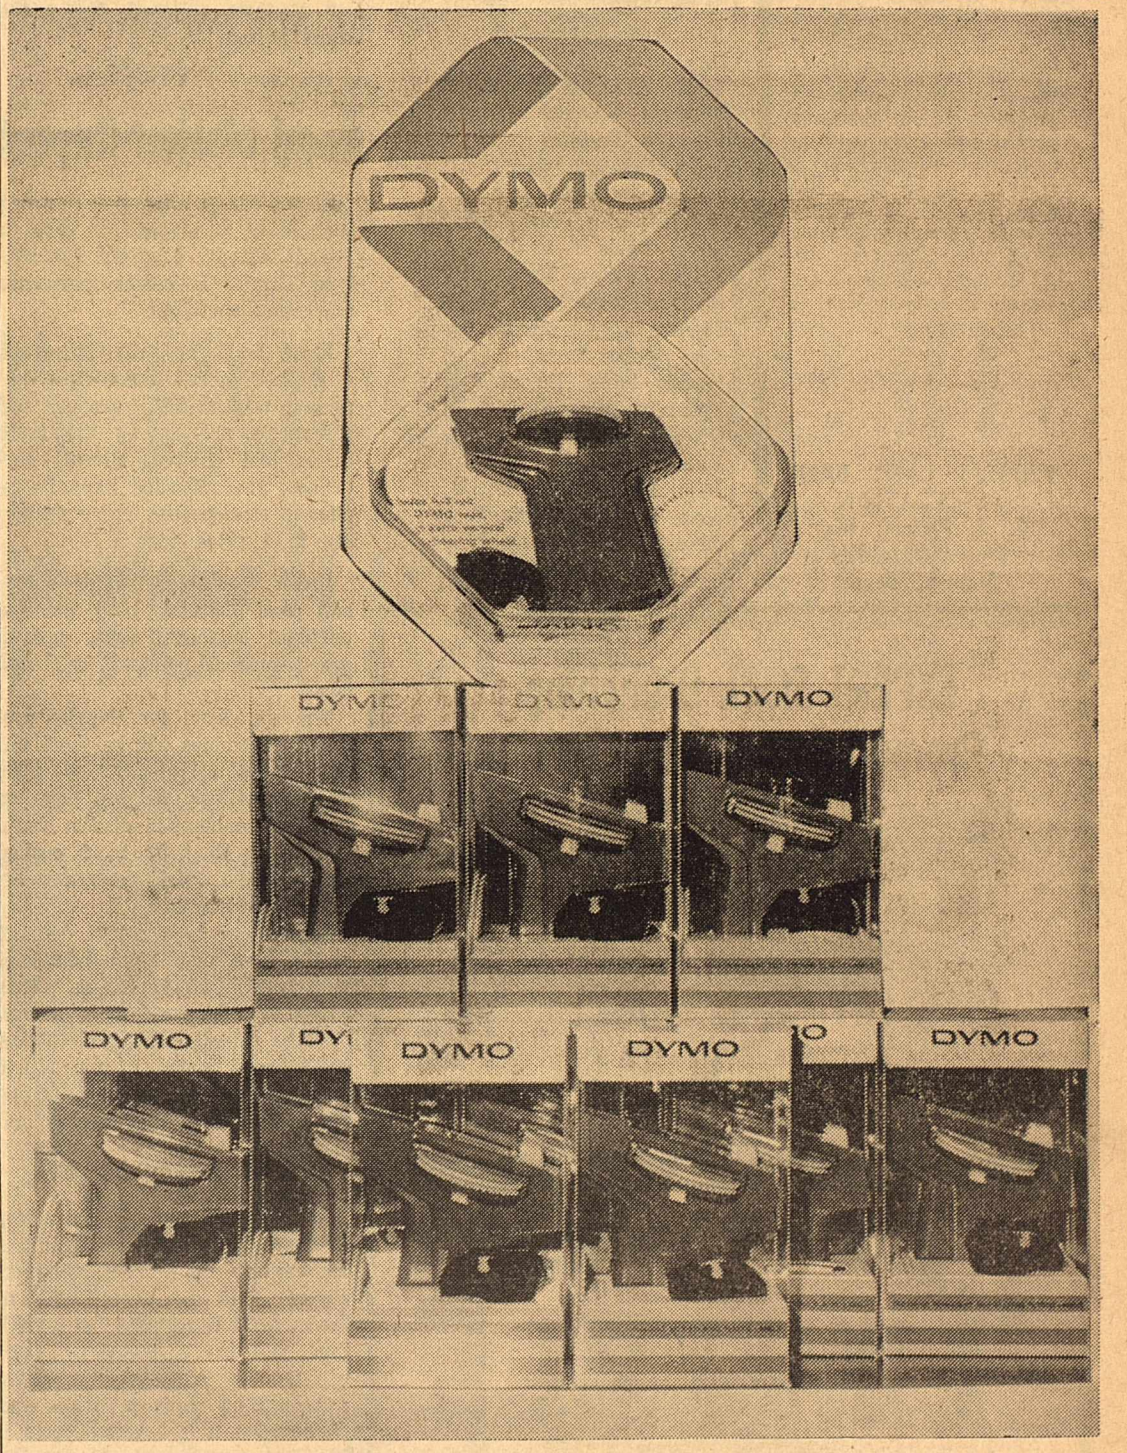

Hillman Brown, owner of LaVista Theatre, is bringing the motion picture, "The Graduate" to the downtown theatre to run from August 1 through August 7.

Joseph E. Levine, producer and president of Embassy Pictures Corporation, produced the academy award winning picture which stars Anne Bancroft, Dustin Hoffman and Katherine Ross.

"The Graduate" is expressive of many things and ideas: the 'youth scene'; the affluent society; the world of those who had the opportunity to get a good education, but don't know why; and the 'restless woman' with an acquisitive instinct for love and 'things'. Brown says that 20 million people have paid 40 million dollars to see "The Graduate". In bringing the picture to the LaVista for a run of one week, Brown hopes to begin a new policy at the downtown theatre by bringing better pictures to Sonora at an earlier date, and as soon as good pictures are taken off multiple weeks requirements.

BAKE SALE SET Mrs. Alvis Johnson reports that the Sutton County chapter of the American Cancer Society plans to sponsor a bake sale, Saturday August 17, in the Elliott building downtown. The sale will begin at 9 a.m. Mrs. Johnson said the society hopes to reach its quota of funds with the sale as the county is short of its goal at this time.

Veterans already in training under the G.I. Bill who plan to change programs or schools this fall must obtain new certificates of Eligibility from the VA as quickly as possible.

The principal advantage to the veteran of heeding advice to apply now is that he can be certain that his G.I. Bill education allow-

Food Market Report

During the picnic season consider foods easy to prepare or easy to "carry along" suggests Gwendolynne Claytt, Extension consumer marketing specialist.

Fresh fruits and vegetables are a must. Peaches, cantaloupe, bananas, watermelons, grapes, and pineapples are among the more economical choices. Plums, nectarines, avocados and limited supplies of strawberries carry relatively high price tags.

Fresh vegetables include purple hull peas, blackeye peas, carrots, eggplant, cabbage, corn, squash, green onions, potatoes and radishes.

The season for locally produced vegetables will be short this year. Eggs are plentiful so use them generously as you bake or prepare combination dishes; you'll also want to keep hard cooked eggs in the refrigerator for between-meal-snacks.

Steaks are in greatest demand at this time of year so best beef values will be found in chuck roasts and steaks, round steaks, boneless rolled roasts, ground beef and liver. Luncheon meats and frankfurters are featured in some markets as are canned hams and picnics.

When we look upon the grandeur of nature—when we gaze with awe at a masterpiece of art—when we are thrilled with the sounds of great music—then we often wonder about the source of all this beauty.

Undoubtedly, our energy and ability is God. It is He who is the real source of beauty in our culture. Human spirits, touched with divine inspiration have given the world treasures untold.

Consider Da Vinci's The Last Supper. Consider Handel's Messiah. Consider the marvelous literature of the Holy Bible. Truly some of the very finest of man's creations have come as the result of an awareness of God.

Indeed today our culture continues to be enriched by the expression of man's faith in the Eternal. Our churches bring us faith in God which is still a vital source of inspiration and beauty. Let the church enrich your life. Attend this Sunday and every Sunday.

THE FAMILY LAWYER

Quieting the Neighbor's Dog
One man's dog may be another man's nuisance. If you are disturbed by your neighbor's dog (or dogs), and if complaints don't help, you might consider another possibility: a court order to abate the nuisance.

acquiescence." But chances are that the court would not penalize you for being patient. Your complaint wouldn't be turned down merely because you held back for a reasonable time, in the hope of finding some solution short of the courthouse.

What does the law say in such cases?

What if the neighbor was already living there—with his dog—before you move in? That too, is not enough grounds to bar your complaint. His being there first does not give him a permanent right-to-be-noisy, regardless of the feelings of newcomers to the street.

By and large, it is sympathetic to the person who is subjected to an excessive amount of canine clamour.

On the other hand, you won't get far in court with a complaint that reflects your own unusual sensitivity rather than the dog's unusual behavior. The law of nuisance is a law of moderation—tailored to people of average dispositions, not to those with jumpy nerves or trigger tempers.

"Dogs in a neighbor's yard may murder sleep," observed the judge, "and destroy the reasonable enjoyment of a home."

In one case a disgruntled home owner, in court about a neighbor's dogs, was countered by several witnesses for the defense. Although these witnesses lived as close to the dogs as he did, not one of them found the barking the least bit annoying.

Thus, a suburban family won an injunction against the owner of a German Shepherd dog whose furious barking awakened them regularly at 4 o'clock in the morning. The court said the defendant would have to either reduce the noise or get rid of the dog.

The court thereupon refused to mix in. The judge ruled that, whatever one particular individual might think, barking—in moderation—is a lawful ingredient of the neighborhood life.

Suppose you go to court only after having tolerated the noise for some time. Your neighbor might then argue that you have "accepted the situation by your

Summer Recreation

Keeping busy and having fun is one of the major pastimes for Sonora young people in the summertime. This series of photos seeks to show some usual (and unusual) summer pastimes.

ALTHOUGH SONORA YOUNG PEOPLE have the swimming pool, pool hall, little league and other summer pastime activities, the Junior Rodeo each year brings them out in the greatest numbers. Several bring their horses to town and join in the parade to help kick the rodeo off while others enjoy participating in the event as interested bystanders.

OUTDOORS IN TEXAS

BY VERN SANFORD

When Price Daniel was governor, he started the ball rolling to create Big Thicket Park in southeast Texas.

the state ranks a little better with city and county parks, standing sixth among all the states.

sands of persons visited these areas during the past year, enjoying all the recreational advantages they afford.

That ball is still rolling. Not too much has been done, but it's apparent that the demand for such a park has grown so that it can't fail.

Within the last few years Texas has, in effect, added some 80,000 acres to its national park program. This is on Padre Island, the national seashore project. However, this project still is lacking development because of delays in land purchase. Condemnation suits have been filed and hearings will get underway soon.

Perhaps the impact of recreation seekers may have something to do with the future development of the Big Thicket project. Meanwhile, if you've never been to the Big Thicket, now is the time to go. When you see it you will agree that something more should be done to preserve this beautiful and natural area of Texas.

Mayor Dempse Henley of Liberty, testifying in behalf of Big Thicket, warned that the 35,000 acre wilderness rapidly is being ground under by bulldozers and poisoned by the chemicals of civilization.

Right now efforts are being made to have a national park established in McKittrick Canyon, in the Guadalupe Mountain area of far west Texas.

Rolled-up socks stuck into shoes that are to be packed will serve as trees and keep the shoes in good shape. Cover the shoes with shoebags or, if you have none, some old socks. If you have no case for a hand scrub brush, toothbrush, washrag or anything else that might be damp when packed—wrap the item or items in aluminum foil or put in plastic bags.

"Unless we move soon," the mayor said, "The Big Thicket will be no more. It is vanishing at the rate of 50 acres a day."

And of course, there is the present Big Bend National Park, which attracts thousands of visitors each year.

A 1963 study by Texas Technological College recommended purchase of 50,000 acres for the park.

Texas is operating a park system which is far from adequate. However, improvements are being made as fast as possible. This year facilities in every Texas park were overloaded.

Unfortunately there are hundreds of thousands of Texans who never have had the privilege of seeing this Big Thicket. It includes parts of Polk, Tyler, Hardin and Liberty counties.

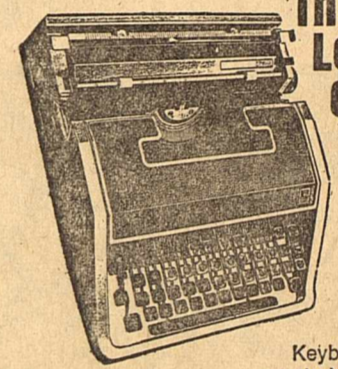

Thanks to the U. S. Corps of Engineers and the Bureau of Reclamation there are additional park facilities available in Texas around all the major impoundments of the state.

With the parks branch of the federal government advocating more recreational areas, up comes the Department of Agriculture and includes the entire 350,000 acre area in its own 5,000,000 acre development project. This would open much of the area to rice farming. One segment, the Pine Island Bayou small watershed, is for the purpose of stream channelization, drainage and provision of irrigation water.

Aviation Accident Prevention Program

A test program is being initiated by the Federal Aviation Administration to reduce aircraft accidents in the Southwest and Central Regions. This general aviation accident prevention program went into effect in these two FAA regions July 1.

the underlying accident problems are within their respective districts and to help solve or minimize them.

The approach includes improvement of attitudes toward safety, a betterment of the knowledge, proficiency and judgment of airmen, and a reduction of hazards in the general aviation environment.

They will be available to talk to aviation groups, to furnish or show aviation films, to assist in developing safety programs for aviation organizations and fixed base operators. Also they will give courtesy standardization flights to individuals who request them.

Participants are to be the aviation public, aviation industry and the governmental agencies, who will cooperate and combine their talents. State aviation directors in both regions have endorsed the program. The Southwest Region is comprised of the States of Texas, New Mexico, Oklahoma, Arkansas, and Louisiana.

Concentration is principally on reduction of fatal accidents. The most common causes of fatal accidents and recommended ways to avoid them will be the subject of meetings with aviation groups.

To implement the program each general aviation district office (GADO) in the two test regions is devoting extra time to the project. If the effort to reduce the aircraft accident rate is successful, the program is to be adopted on a national basis.

Emphasis will also be placed on minimizing or eliminating certain kinds of hazards at general aviation airports. Inspectors will coordinate their efforts with state and federal airport personnel, fixed base operators and airport managers to resolve problems in this area.

A review of accident types and cause factors indicates that a great number of accidents should not have happened. Many accidents are the results of unfavorable attitudes toward safety, unnecessary flight hazards at the operating location, and the lack of sound judgment, basic skills and knowledge.

The FAA is soliciting ideas for program improvement and is asking the aviation public to report any kind of hazard to aviation operations. The active support of each operator, pilot, instructor, mechanic, servicing attendant and airport manager is earnestly solicited to insure success of the test program.

General aviation district offices will provide time to be spent exclusively in aircraft accident prevention. Their goal is to find what
