Ice Storm Curtails Long Distance Service

Last week's ice storm curtailed Sonora's long distance telephone service and interrupted service on some Sutton County ranch lines, but not to any great extent.

A representative of General Telephone Co. said ice that formed on lines restricted the number of circuits going from Sonora to San Angelo, but that the town was never isolated. He explained that few of the 12 circuits on each wire go through the line, but instead follow the bare wire along the outside. Ice which formed on the lines cut all the outside circuits, leaving only those going on the inside of the wire.

He said that ranch lines, especially those east-west lines which present a grater surface to the north wind, were broken in several instances because of the weight of the ice. North-south lines, as usual, remained intact. Eldorado and the area to the north received more extensive damage on both electric and telephone lines because of the ice.

Elliott Announces For Re-election As County Judge

J. W. (Web) Elliott is announcing his candidacy for re-election as County Judge in the May 2 Democratic primary election. He was first elected to that office in 1958 after having served as county attorney for 10 years.

A practicing Sonora attorney, Elliott graduated from Sonora schools and the University of Texas School of Law. He is a World War II veteran and the father of two children, John and Emily.

In announcing his candidacy for re-election as county judge, Elliott said that if elected, he would continue to serve to the best of his ability and to the best interests of the county.

Paved Area Adds Storage Capacity For Wool House

Paving and fencing is complete on the 75x150 lot across the street from Sonora Wool and Mohair Company. Fred Campbell, manager, said that the new lot would be used for storage of net wire, galvanized pipe, gates, welding mats and other things usually kept in the warehouse.

He said the additional space was necessary to enable the warehouse to buy and sell more competitively. The added space will result in a larger inventory, but items will basically be those stocked in the past. The area is designed with large gates at the front and back so that trailers can drive through the lot rather than back out of it.

Vernor Starts Job As Hospital Chief

Robert Vernor, named by the Board of Directors of Lillian M. Hudspeth Memorial Hospital to succeed Albert M. Everett, assumed his new duties as administrator of the hospital recently.

Everett accepted a similar position at Southern Methodist University in Dallas and will head the 40-bed unit Student Health Center and Clinic at S.M.U. Vernor, his wife and 2-week-old daughter, Vonda Kay, moved here last week from Junction, where he served in the same administrative capacity at the Junction Hospital.

At one time Vernor taught sixth grade at L. W. Elliott School. In 1968 he worked with Everett for one year in administrative work at Hudspeth Hospital, serving as Everett's assistant and learning hospital procedure. He was then employed by the hospital which re-opened at Junction.

Vernor is a native of Uvalde and attended junior college there, later graduating from Sul Ross University in Alpine.

NEW HEAD NURSE

Also new to the hospital staff is Mrs. Gene (Agnes) Martin, R.N., who comes, along with her husband and four children, from San Angelo. Mrs. Martin is a graduate of St. Paul's School of Nursing in Dallas and will serve as director of nurses.

Martin is a representative for a surgical supply company. The hospital has two other registered nurses in their employ. Both of these are on leave at the present time, but plan to return to work. There are approximately eleven licensed vocational nurses also employed, many of them who have received their training at Hudspeth Hospital when these vocational classes have been offered.

OFFICE PERSONNEL

Mrs. Jerry (Linda) Henderson has taken over the duties of Mrs. Al Everett in the office at Hudspeth Hospital. Mrs. Henderson is the daughter of Deputy Sheriff and Mrs. Pryce Taylor. Mrs. Alan Strickland, the former Sondra Crawford, is also employed as office personnel.

NEW X-RAY EQUIPMENT

Vernor said new X-ray equipment for the hospital has been ordered and should be installed in the next two to three weeks.

Broncos Begin Basketball Season With Menard Tilt

The Sonora Broncos open their 1970 basketball season Thursday night against the Menard Yellow-jackets in Menard. The Broncos will be at a slight disadvantage in that they have had little practice as a result of their prolonged football season, but Sonora is expected to have a strong team this year.

Seven varsity players are returning from last year's team which placed second in the district. These include Erasmo Lumberras, Ruben Chavez, Jess Cook, who was leading scorer in the district last year with a 20.2 average, David Wuest, Eddie Sutton, Willie Gutierrez, and Kerry Joy.

Newcomers expected to bolster the squad include Mike Taylor, Jimmy Cade, Rick Street and Mark Rousselet.

Coach Jerry Phillips says he hopes to top last year's showing and expects to if he can get his experienced team to get into a close knit unit quickly enough. The team's strong point should be its speed, and Phillips plans to make extensive use of the fast break.

Work Begins Monday On Museum's Rag Rug

The first meeting to work on the rag rug for the bedroom of the Miers Home Museum will be held Monday, January 12, beginning at 9 a.m. at the Woman's Club building. The first meeting is to last about two hours, and Mrs. Ben Cusenbary and Mrs.

L. P. Bloodworth Sr. said at the meeting a regular would be selected for future meetings.

The authentic furnishing bedroom of the Miers Home Museum is a project which has undertaken by the Sonora men's Club, with work on the rug directed by Mrs. Bloodworth. Members of the historical the Woman's Club, and many of the community and its families are donating material to be used in the rug. Labor to prepare the cloth-

Suitable materials have selected at Neville's, The Store, and Morrison's, and who have not donated the rug and wish to do so make their selection of material at any of the three stores. A clerk is in charge of the material designated for the rug. Materials are also welcome to be given to Mrs. Barrow with the donor's name clearly indicated. Mrs. Bloodworth also urged people to turn in scraps to achieve a variety of colors and pieces in the rug.

At this first meeting people be taught what is involved in making of the rug, and what will be torn and cut. Erma Lee Turner should bring scissors, pins, and Mrs. Bloodworth that two portable sewing machines would be needed. After the rug is torn into strips, they will be sewn together and woven into a rug.

A rag rug such as this will be made is presently on for a week at Morrison's week beginning on Thursday. It will be shown at Neville's third week at Ratliff's.

The most effective single force in building a good community is a good newspaper.

Mental Health Can Be Improved

Mental health affects everyone. In the way a person thinks, feels, and behaves. It is the way a person adjusts to himself, to other people and the community. A mentally healthy person is able to adjust to the tensions and stresses of living from day to day. The well adjusted person is able to cope with the moments of fear, anger and anxiety, distrust, and depression encountered each day. The mentally ill person tends to exaggerate these same thoughts and feelings and has difficulty adjusting to these feelings which cause worry and disturbed relations.

at a time gradually reduces the size of the problem so that it no longer overwhelms the individual. Occasionally it is necessary to "get away", in order to see a problem in perspective. Trying a change of pace in a different environment may help to find a realistic solution. Others resolve to "take it easy."

They decide that they may need to learn to live with the achievement of lesser goals for their own peace of mind. Another alternative to reduce tension is to do something for someone else. This tends to build your own self confidence and breaks the feeling of being inadequate.

There is no sharp line of division between mental health and mental illness. Like physical health, mental health can be improved by good habits, good environment and good relationships. Good physical and mental health are necessary to feel good.

Information on mental health and mental retardation is available from the Sutton County Extension Office. Write or call Clint Langford, County Agent at the Courthouse in Sonora, Texas.

Stencils Order From The Devil's River News

He Says The World Is Full Of Change To Use In Coin-Operated Machines

Editor's note: The Devil's River Philosopher on his bitterweed ranch on Dry Devil's River must be out of pocket change, his letter this week would indicate.

Dear editor: They say the world is full of change and I'll tell you it has to be. Nearly everything is coin-operated.

Why just last night I read in a newspaper that they now have a coin-operated tennis court. That's right. You drop some money in a box on the post that holds the net and thus free the crank handle so the net can be raised for play. After an hour, the timer in the post drops the net.

Anything that eliminates an attendant or otherwise cuts down on labor is the order of the day, whether it's coin-operated or drive in.

Why they've even got drive-in bank robbery. That's right. Bank robbers, faced like everybody else with the problem of hiring suitable labor, have discovered they don't need somebody to stay outside and keep the motor running. All they do is pull up to the bank's drive-in window, flash a gun, hand over a threatening note, and drive off with all the money the teller's got. They not only don't have to pay for extra help, they've cut down the robbing time to less than 2 minutes. This is called know-how.

In fact, it may come to the point where even an honest customer doesn't have to go inside a bank. I read that one big bank has installed an automatic cash-dispenser outside and you just insert your special credit card in a box and $25 in cash slides out.

In a big city, this gives a man enough money to keep the parking meter fed all day, enough to operate the cold drink and the sandwich machine, to buy a newspaper from a coin-operated stand, then, after reading it, to call the dial-a-prayer service, then to get him through the coin-operated toll road going home and, if he's lucky, get him back to the bank box the next day for another run.

I have no objections to all this, if people want to put up with it, but if somebody comes up with a coin-operated checker board or a set of coin-operated dominoes, he is in for trouble.

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

Heading Better Than Speeding for Label Reading

Have you joined America's popular new educational trend... speed reading?

Whether or not you decide to increase your ability to read fast, keep in mind there are times when reading accurately is more important than reading speedily.

One such time is when you read the label on a medicine container, says the Council on Family Health. Taking or giving medicine is so important to the health and safety of you and your family that you should understand the directions you are reading, and then double check yourself.

If you want to measure how well you understand what you read, test yourself by reading a medicine label in your home, says the Council, a non-profit organization sponsored as a public service by leading members of the drug industry.

Did you note the amount of medicine to be taken? Does the dosage vary for adults and children? How often should the medicine be taken?

If a liquid, should you shake the container well before pouring? Is it for external or internal use?

Does the label state the purpose of the medicine?

Are there instructions for proper storage... such as "Keep in a cool place." Should you take the medicine before or after eating?

Are there cautions as to certain activities that should be curtailed or discontinued while taking the medicine?

Not all medicine labels contain all of the information listed above, but all information on each label is important.

Heading rather than speeding is the watchword when reading directions for the use of medicine, says the Council on Family Health.

A Bishop Looks at Life "Great, Great Hopes"

By Everett H. Jones, Retired Bishop of the Episcopal Church

"That's what's needed, don't you see? Nothing else matters half so much. To reassure one another. To answer each other. Everyone has inside himself—a piece of good news! Every man immensely, immensely important. Everyone must respect him: to make him respect himself, too. They must listen to him attentively. Don't stand on top of him; don't stand in his light. But look at him with deference. Give him great, great hopes; he needs that, especially if he's young."

These are words of the late Ugo Betti (1892-1953), Italian poet and dramatist. I find in them a foundation on which to build in the new year and the new decade.

"To reassure one another. To answer each other." The least we can do in these dark times is to listen and to answer. Often this means being sensitive enough to hear what is not said in words. We owe an answer out of the best wisdom we have and in our most encouraging tones.

"Everyone has a piece of good news. Every man must be persuaded that he's immensely important." It is sacrilegious to belittle another person. The greatest help we ever give another human being is to convince him that he has a hidden splendor waiting to be released.

"Don't stand on top of him. Don't stand in his light. But look at him with deference." Oh, how important it is to look at him in the right way. Not in cringing subservience, not in dominating arrogance. Just as brother to brother, in genuine respect for a fellow-member of the human family.

"Give him great, great hopes." The worse the times the greater our need for high aspirations. Only great expectations will stir our blood to all the effort and all the discipline needed in our world now.

TSTA Membership Surpasses Goal

The Texas State Teachers Association, largest professional organization in the state, has surpassed its 1969-70 membership goal of 124,000.

L. P. Sturgeon, executive secretary, said that TSTA membership hit a record 125,279 on December 16. The count may reach 127,000 before the books are finally closed on 1969-70 membership. The 125,279 total includes 5,408 life members.

Highest previous membership level for TSTA was the 123,298 recorded in 1967-68. Last year, despite a dues increase from $10 to $18 per year, the total dropped only slightly, to 122,832 members.

TSTA membership includes college educators, public school administrative personnel, and classroom teachers from every county in the state.

The Texas association is the second largest state teachers association among 50 states, out-ranked in membership only by California.

About 96 percent of all teaching and administrative personnel in the Texas public schools are members of TSTA, Sturgeon said.

The Spring Festival which St. Ann's Catholic Church will hold in May has announced three queen candidates to represent different groups for the festival. The above candidates are (l to r) Irma Vellardez, representing the holy name society, Maura Hernandez, representing the altar society, and the CYO is represented by Linda Ramirez.

Saint Ann's Recaps

By Monica Davis
Saint Ann's held the solemn dedication of the new church on December 28. His excellency, Bishop Levin, and a number of priests from San Angelo, Ozona and the surrounding area were present. Some friends from as far away as San Antonio and California were also here. After the dedication, supper was served to the bishop, priests, friends and parishioners of Saint Ann's. We are all so proud of our new church.

Although the new church is built, we still have a lot of work to do in order to get the debt down. We have already started planning toward our spring festival to be held in May. Three queen candidates have been chosen. The holy name society is represented by Irma Vellardez, Maura Hernandez was named by the altar society, and the CYO group chose Linda Ramirez.

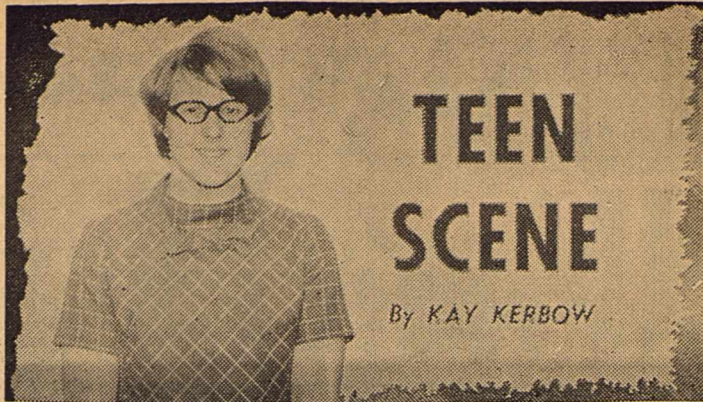

The holy name society went to Mass and communion on January 4, the feast day of the holy name. The society is working on a number of fund making ideas to raise money for the debt on the church.

The return to school was marked with reluctance and a wish that the holiday was just a little longer. The holidays brought fun, later sleeping, and carefree days. The state game, the Peppermint Ball, and many hunting days were among the climaxes.

A disappointed group of Bronco supporters returned from Austin after a 28-0 loss to the Mart Panthers. This loss came on a bad day for the Reds. The Broncos did a superb job all year long and SHS is mightily proud of them. To us, they're still number 1.

Erasmio Lumbreras, Paco Sanchez, David Wuest, Jess Cook, Jim Elliott, Barry Black, Marty Martinez, Ted Fish and Kerry Joy were voted to the first and second teams on the district squad. Lumbreras and Elliott made the first squad, both on offense and defense. Mason High School also had as many members of the squad as did the Broncos. Every other town in the district was far behind in the district teams membership.

The Peppermint Ball, the biggest social event for the school, was held in the wool house, December 22. Johnny Bush played to a large, appreciative crowd. There were many out of town guests on hand for the festivities. The decorations were excellent as was the food and punch. Bush gave autographed pictures away to any who wished them. Many Sonora teens attended other dances in Eldorado, Junction, and Del Rio and recommended them to all teens interested. Perhaps next year there will be a large SHS turnout at these out of town dances.

Many of the male members of SHS went hunting for deer, but I haven't heard any "one that ran away" stories so, luck must have been hiding. The boys who didn't hunt deer, spent their time hunting more worthwhile game. The majority of SHS boys spent their time in front of the television, glued to a football game or pursuing other such activities.

With the closing of football season, the boys take to the court to try their hand at the game of basketball. The Reds travel to Menard today to face the Yellowjackets in their first game of the year. After only nine workouts, the Broncos will have to play well to win. After their district game, they travel to the Big Lake tournament and will face Sanderson in first round actions.

The girls' varsity and B team faced Ozona in their last non-district bout in Bronco gym. The girls also travel to Menard for their first district game. The B team boys will play first, the girl's varsity next, and last but not least, the A boys.

Finals are completed and grades are being returned to the dismay of some, and happiness of others. Even though mid terms are finished, there is still about two more weeks left in the six-weeks, so life is relatively easy and carefree.

The week started early Monday morning with the usual bantering and kidding around. The halls were filled with excited talking and loud laughter. There were several groans and moans from those who ate too much, slept little, and exercised either too much or not at all.

The last holiday for months is over. Students are adjusting to the long stretch ahead. By next week things will be back to normal, if there is such a thing.

Mr. Pollard is offering a new course for the next semester. Choir will be added to the curriculum and 1/2 credit will be acknowledged. Who knows, there may be a Frank Sinatra and a Kate Smith in SHS—would you believe a Tommy Roe and a Diana Ross??

Hunters who took an 8-point buck or larger this year may receive the Big Game Award pin from Field and Steam without charge, according to Will Ray Long, officer with the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department.

Long, who was speaker at the annual Sutton County pre-hunt party held in November, said the pin would be awarded for any whitetail with 8 or more points or any mule deer with 8 or more points.

"I have had several applications from hunters in your area for such pins, and the hunters are proud of them. All they need to do is drop me a line, tell me how big their deer was (how many points) and I'll send them the application form," said Long.

Turkey hunters who have killed a turkey of 16 or more pounds (any year) are also eligible and will be awarded a similar pin for turkey. They should also send for a form to fill out.

Hunters who have taken dove or quail should get the First Bird forms, and they will receive a certificate for each species as well as a pin. Certificates have large gold seals and are suitable for framing, and the pins make a nice collection to wear on shooting jacket or to put in a frame, according to Long.

Long emphasized there was no charge for the pins or certificates. All that is necessary is to write him at Box 1590, San Angelo.

the American Legion of District 21, wrote a letter asking about the possibility of establishing a post in Sonora. A starting membership of 15 would be required to establish the post.

Burk said he would be in Brady January 17 and 18 trying to start a new post, and would like to know if there is interest in the American Legion in Sonora. Those interested should write him at Box 4, Pipe Creek, Texas 78063.

THE FAMILY LAWYER

Moral Obligations

Harold's partner lay dying. "Make me one last promise," he whispered to Harold. "My wife doesn't know a thing about business. Will you keep an eye on her affairs after I am gone?"

Solemnly, Harold promised. But after a few months he informed the widow that he no longer had the time to help her. Left on her own, she soon made some costly blunders. Blaming her woes on Harold, she filed a damage suit against him for breaking the promise he had made to her dying husband.

But the court held Harold not liable, since the promise he had made was strictly one-sided—hence not a legally binding contract. The judge said promises of this kind "create bare moral obligations, binding only on the conscience."

This is a general rule, that moral obligations are not enforceable in a court of law. It is based on the practical difficulties of measuring such intangible qualities as honor and duty and love. Nevertheless, there is a natural reluctance on the part of the courts to let the breaker of a promise "get away with it"—if that can fairly be avoided.

For this reason a promise will usually be enforced if there is, in addition to the moral obligation, some semblance of a legal obligation to back it up.

In one case a furniture manufacturer, unable to collect for some tables sold to a store, was reluctant to take legal action against his customer. He waited so long, in fact, that his claim was finally barred by the statute of limitations.

But not long afterward the customer himself, in a repentant mood, made a promise to pay off the old debt. Could the manufacturer enforce this promise?

A court ruled that he could indeed, because it was based not only on a moral obligation but on an original legal obligation as well. Even though the legal obligation had been barred by the statute of limitations, the court said it was enough of an "extra" to justify making the customer live up to his promise.

Get Rid Of Get-At-Ables

"Get-at-ables" can get you if you don't watch out. What are "get-at-ables"? They're the accessible, attainable, available, reachable, just plain handy things that can lead to accidental injuries in the home.

An examination by the Council on Family Health of reports of home accidents shows that very young children, particularly those under the age of five, are especially vulnerable.

Here are some of the more common "get-at-able" situations found by the Council, a non-profit organization sponsored as a public service by members of the drug industry:

—Lubricating oil stored on the bottom shelf of a closet.

—Furniture polish left on the dining table when the telephone rang.

—Medicines became "get-at-ables" for toddlers when:

—Placed on top of a bureau in grandmother's room.

—Stored with foods in the refrigerator or pantry.

—Low window ledges and unguarded open windows were reachable to:

—A four-year-old who fell from the second floor.

—A five-year-old who fell 50 feet from the third floor.

—A toddler who toppled onto a second-floor porch.

—An eighteen-month-old girl, who fell two stories onto a rose bush.

—A two-year-old boy who climbed onto the slanting roof and slid to the ground.

Take a good look throughout your home. You'll find "get-at-able" situations in every room. Correct them before they do their damage, says the Council on Family Health.

Accent On Health

The good neighbor policy does not just pertain to nations. You can be a good neighbor in the area of health where colds are concerned, reports the Texas State Department of Health.

Do your children show symptoms of the common cold? Keep them home. Don't send them to play with the neighbor's children.

Colds are spread from person to person. Recent studies show that there are more colds in winter because people are indoors together more than in summer.

If you or your husband have a cold, be a good neighbor. Cancel social calls. Stay home and take care of it. And if a member of your family is recuperating from a communicable disease, be considerable. Don't let the neighbor's children into your home where they will be exposed to the disease.

The common cold is a name given to any of a number of short lived infections of the nose and throat. All of them are highly contagious. Many different viruses cause a cold. These cold-causing viruses are present in great numbers in your nose and throat when you have a cold and are carried on the droplets you expel when talking, coughing or sneezing.

Fatigue, chilling and poor physical condition seem to give the virus a better foothold. It takes hold in you is a scratchiness. Within a few hours gets stuffy and you feelings of discomfort. Sneezing usually begins. Within 48 hours you full bloom—eyes tearing, voice husky, congested and your nose and smell dulled. You lethargic and achy, ache and run a temperature.

Once the cold has set in, it usually continues for several days. You may be relatively healthy, but various complications which result can be

There is no cure for a cold, but secondary infections associated with it will respond to treatment.

The best treatment prescribed by your family doctor usually includes getting plenty of rest and lots of fluids.

Compulsory school busing for the sole purpose of obtaining more racial mixture gained the House support last week. It marked a reversal of a stand previously taken on the issue. On July 31 the House by a vote of 158 to 141 favored freedom of choice on the part of both blacks and whites, where no racial discrimination was involved. That was designed to protect the right of a parent to send a child to a neighborhood school, rather than being bused across a city in order to satisfy the racial whims of brainbusters in HEW.

But last week the House re-voted and voted 216 to 180 in favor of the compulsory busing concept. On that issue 20 Texans voted against forced busing, and three favored HEW's plan. HEW Secretary Robert Finch vigorously supported compulsory busing, and so did the Senate which okay-ed busing by a vote of 52 to 37—with only two Senators from South of the Mason-Dixon line favoring compulsion. The Senate's pro-busing forces were led by Republican leader Hugh Scott of Pennsylvania.

While the issue is still slightly clouded, the convenience and education of youngsters—black and white—will continue to be subordinated to the salt and pepper concept of racial mixtures, even though to carry out this scheme requires the cross busing of students for possibly several miles from their own neighborhoods.

Speaking of integration, a top Negro in the Nixon Administration believes it should be halted because he says integration is "unrealistic and unwise." Those were the words of Ben Holman, head of the Community Relations Service in the Justice Department. "If I had my way, I would simply drop the word 'integration,'" he added.

But even though many Americans, both black and white, prefer gradualism and normal progress in racial relationships, politicians and many liberals beat the drums for overnight integration. And the Supreme Court leads the pack.

NEW YEAR 1970

We are happy to welcome the New Year in

We each have a new page—clean and white.

May all the cares and trials of 1969

Be left behind. Don't grieve! They are out of sight.

It is the dawning of each new year

Just as the dawning of each new day

That keeps us going on in our daily work

Each in his own special way.

So here's a wish for the New Year:

May each day bring hope and a smile

May we learn to live together in peace

For, really, this is all that's worth while.

—Money works two ways, it talks and it stops talk.

SPACE

Is there life on other planets in other galaxies out there? This is a question we ask with increasing frequency these days. When God made our world, was it the only one He fashioned?

We may never know. The answer may lie far in the future. But it is an enticing subject to speculate about.

Many fascinating subjects are being discussed today—in church. If this surprises you, it only goes to show that you haven't been attending church lately. To keep in touch with this challenging world, start going not only to regular services but to some of the special discussions in your church.

Reports Due from Aliens

ed 103,000 aliens will addresses in the San during January un- der Alien Address Report Program, says John W. Holland, district director of the Immigration and Naturalization Service.

The immigration official said that 102,517 aliens reported their addresses during January, 1969.

All non-citizens, except those in diplomatic status and foreign representatives of certain international organizations as required to file the address report.

Any alien who willfully violates the address report requirement may be subject to serious penalties. In addition, aliens who are not in the United States during January must report their addresses to the service within 10 days after their return.

The district director said that address report cards will be available at the Immigration and Naturalization Service office at San Antonio and local United States post offices beginning January 1.

1970 License Plate Renewal System

Texas drivers will find registering their motor vehicles for 1970 easier than ever before, thanks to a new registration system devised by the Texas Highway Department.

The Department expects more than seven million vehicles to be registered during the year and there will be several new wrinkles.

First, license plates will have a new color scheme—light blue on a reflective white background.

Second, for the first time, motor vehicle registration renewal applications will be mailed to every vehicle owner in Texas during January. The registration period begins February 1.

The renewal application will arrive in the mail in a slender envelope marked "Important—This is your license plate renewal application."

The application itself has instructions printed on it. It is a three-part form which should not be torn apart.

When the registration period begins, the vehicle owner need only take the application—and the fee—to the county tax office. Or he can order his plates by mail. With the application, he will no longer need to present his certificate of title or the last year's registration receipt.

If he decides to go to the county tax office or a substation, he will find shorter waiting lines. With the application, the clerk will need only to receive the fee, affix to the application a sticker showing the registration number and other data and hand over the 1970 plates.

Some vehicle owners may find it even more convenient to go through the registration process by mail.

Although owners can register their vehicles in person until April 1, there is a March 1 cut-off date for mail registration. This allows 30 days for delivery before 1970 plates must be displayed on vehicles.

If the vehicle owner wants his plates mailed to him, he should send his registration application to his county tax collector, with the registration fee plus $1, which is the statutory charge for the handling and postage.

If the address on the renewal application is incorrect, the vehicle owner should print his correct residence address on all three parts of the application.

The new registration renewal system is the product of an extensive computerization of the Highway Department's motor vehicle registration records.

Initiation of the new system means Texas now has one of the most efficient systems in the nation for filing and registering motor vehicle registrations. Motorist convenience will be one of the greatest dividends of the new system.

Medicare Beneficiaries To Pay More For Hospitalization During New Year

Because of the rising cost of hospital services, Medicare beneficiaries will be paying a bit more for hospitalization in 1970.

The deductible payment by the beneficiary will be $52 beginning January 1, an increase of $8 over the present amount. Medicare will continue to pay for the remaining covered services for the first 60 days of hospitalization for each benefit period.

For the 61st through the 90th day of a hospital stay, the beneficiary will have $13 a day of the covered services to pay. At present, the beneficiary is liable for $11 a day of such costs. Medicare will continue to pay the balance, which will average over $40 a day now.

This increase in cost to the beneficiary is said to be a must in order to keep the Health Ining return upon my past record of courteous, efficient, and economical service to Sutton County citizens during the past years." She worked as a deputy in the office of former County and District Clerk, F. L. McKinney, who resigned in 1964.

"The office of County and District Clerk performs many duties of vital interest to all residents," Mrs. Turner said. A few of these duties include filing and recording all property documents, keeping vital birth, death and marriage statistics, and serving as clerk and recording official minutes of the Commissioners' Court. The county office also keeps all county employee payroll, insurance and retirement records, and issues checks to county employees and for all county bills.

Mrs. Turner serves as District Clerk of the 12th District Court, keeping records for all domestic affairs, and civil and criminal suits. There are various duties as County Clerk, in preparing for elections and as District Clerk in furnishing and keeping election boxes. Duties also include keeping all records pertaining to jury actions.

"I sincerely appreciate the past support of Sutton County people and I hope that I can continue to serve as their clerk," she said.

Mrs. Turner has two sons, Ted and Tim.

Bank Announces Increase in Insurance Will Cover Deposits Up To $20,000

Maximum insurance coverage has been increased to $20,000 for each depositor in banks which are members of the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation. Clayton Hamilton, vice president of First National Bank of Sonora, made the announcement Friday after receiving word from K. A. Randall, chairman of the FDIC.

In 1966 coverage was raised to $15,000.

The new $20,000 coverage has already been put into effect, automatically, on existing qualified accounts at member banks. It will also apply to new accounts and to additions to present accounts up to the $20,000 limit. All types of deposits, savings accounts, checking accounts, certificates of deposit and other deposits on which the banks are primarily liable are qualified for the insurance.

Coverage may also exceed $20,000 if accounts are held in different rights and capacities.

That is, with an account in a husband's name, one in the spouse's name, and a joint account, each qualifies for the coverage, in effect raising the amount of insurance to $60,000.

Depositors do not pay for the insurance protection, but member banks such as First National pay the cost through assessments.

County Awarded Recertification After Herd Tests

Sutton County has again been awarded a modified-certified area certificate and recertification for three years following brucellosis tests conducted early last fall. In a letter to D. C. Langford, county agent, James B. Henderson, D.V.M., executive director of the Texas Animal Health Commission in Austin, said "We wish to thank you and all of the livestock owners of Sutton County for the splendid cooperation given our representatives while work was being conducted in your county."

The tests were conducted in about August of 1969 on about 16 Sutton County herds. Blood samples were taken and sent in for laboratory examination.

The new three-year period of recertification will extend until November 15, 1972.

Lamb Carcass Show Begins On Monday

The Sutton County 4-H lamb carcass show which begins next Monday is designed to assist in training 4-H members and ranchers to produce more acceptable lamb for market.

According to the standards of the show, the lamb should have a high dressing percentage, have a high percentage of leg and loin, have highly palatable meat, reach a correct finish at a desirable weight and age and utilize a minimum amount of feed.

Two classes to be included in the show are finewool and finewool cross lambs. Lambs will be placed 1 through 10 on foot in each class, slaughtered, and the carcasses placed 1 through 10. Each 4-H member is allowed four entries in each class.

Final judging of the on-foot classes will be at 3:45 p.m. Monday at the 4-H Center. James A. Gray, extension animal husbandman, and Dr. Frank Orts, extension meats specialist, will judge on-foot lambs and carcasses. Top carcasses will be displayed at the 4-H Center at noon during the show January 17.

The show and its $300 in prize money are sponsored by the First National Bank in an attempt to make 4-H lamb show more practical, said D. C. Langford, county agent.
