Rick Hill was awarded the Best Actor's Award for his role in the play. Jean Fimhaber, who had the female lead, was selected for the All-Star cast.

Local Incentive Payments Reach Nearly $500,000

Wool and mohair incentive payments to ranchers in Sutton County amounted to $431,562.29 for the marketing year of 1969, a considerable decrease from last year's payment in the amount of $1,166,811.30. Payment was made through the Department of Agriculture's Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service office. Mrs. Marie K. Aldwell is employee in charge of Sutton County ASCS, sub-office.

Incentive rates on wool and mohair marketed during 1969 showed a sharp decline for mohair, but wool and unshorn lambs rates remained about the same as was paid last year. Rate of incentive payment on mohair was figured at 18.9 percent, meaning producers received $18.90 for each $100 worth of mohair they sold during 1969. Cause of the lower incentive payment from last year's was listed as the high national average paid for the mohair fiber during 1969.

The wool rate paid was 65.1 percent so that wool growers got $65.10 for each $100 worth of wool they sold during last year. The lamb incentive payment of $1.09 per hundredweight of unshorn lambs sold in 1969.

The wool program is carried out through annual incentive payments to domestic producers

These payments are based on the percentage increase over the national average price received by producers for wool that will bring this average price up to a national average incentive level. Using a percentage method to set the rate of payment rather than making a uniform flat payment per pound of wool sold encourages producers to do a good job of marketing their wool, and takes into account the relative value of the various grades of wool.

To discourage unusual shearing of lambs (before marketing) to get a wool payment, payments are also made on the wool of unshorn lambs. The payment is made on the basis of the liveweight of marketing of lambs that have never been shorn, whether marketed for slaughter feeding, or flock replacement, and is designed to prevent disruption of the widely followed practice of selling lambs unshorn.

A breakdown of the little less than half million dollars paid to Sutton County producers was as follows:

Payment of $328,456.09 was made for wool and unshorn lambs, and net mohair payment was in the amount of $103,106.20.

Proceeds to the Mohair Council of America amounted to $11,725.21, based on 1.5 cents per pound of mohair marketed last year. The funds are used for Mohair Council work which includes new product development and mohair promotion. The council recently approved a budget for the fiscal year beginning July 1 of $395,000.

Deductions from the wool and unshorn lamb incentive payments amounted to $13,843.12 and $2,353.69, respectively. These payments are used to finance promotional programs conducted by the American Sheep Producers Council. Deductions are made at the rate of 1.5 cents per pound on wool and .075 cents per hundredweight on unshorn lambs.

4-H Members Enter Contest At Sul Ross

The Sutton County 4-H Club entered two livestock judging teams in junior livestock judging contest at Sul Ross University, April 9. Team members were Ruthie Wallace, Will Wallace, Lindsey Hicks, Dennis Dunham, Richard Dunham and Mark Milliken. Wayne Davis judged as an alternate.

The teams placed first and fifth in beef cattle judging. Ruthie Wallace tied for first high individual in beef cattle judging.

One hundred forty 4-H and FFA members participated in the contest.

Coach Gene Wallace and Mrs. Wallace attended the contest with the 4-H members who were treated to a hamburger supper Friday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Mills, brother and sister-in-law of Mrs. Wallace.

4-H'ers Set Horse Program Play Day

A 4-H Horse Program Play Day is planned for this Sunday at 1:30 p.m. at the race track. School age children who are interested in participating in the practice and play session should bring their horses to the arena Sunday afternoon.

Those desiring further information may contact Birl Davis.

One purpose of the practice and play session is to prepare for the May 16 4-H Horse Show.

Events are planned for halter classes, pole bending, barrel races, western pleasure and possibly break-away roping. County agent D. C. Langford can provide further information to interested persons in regards to the horse show.

Depositions Taken In School Suit

Depositions of the principals in a suit against the Sonora Schools were taken on April 9 and 10 at a hearing held in the Sutton County courtroom.

George S. Finley of San Angelo represented the school. Alan Exelrod and Stephen King, of the Mexican American Legal Defense of San Antonio, represented the complainants.

The hearing was a legal preliminary to the trial. According to one of the lawyers, the trial date might be set in the last part of May.

WORKING IN THE CHAMBER OF COMMERCE OFFICE, Mrs. Terry Irwin has helped extensively in publicizing the two weekends of Sonora's race meet. Futurity trials and other races are scheduled for April 25-26 and the Futurity is planned for the weekend of May 2-3.

Pollution The Topic Of Discussion

By E. B. Keng
POLLUTION!! Almost overnight the airwaves and news media have become involved in a crusade against pollution—water, air and general environment.

"Many of us who have been concerned with conservation for a long time find it a little startling that our goals of conservation, purer water, and a better environment are suddenly in the middle of a national crusade", said Clyde W. Graham, head of the Soil Conservation Service of Texas. "Reforestation, establishing grasses and legumes, and other conservation practices installed by Texas landowners have had a big impact on pollution abatement", he added.

The SCS has been giving technical assistance to local conservation districts with soil, water, plant and wildlife programs since 1939.

"Sediment is the largest pollutant of water", Graham pointed out. "Sediment washes from unprotected land into streams and lakes. The soil particles can carry disease and wastes, ruin fishing, and increase the cost of purifying water. More than 30 years of conservation work by the landowners of this country has greatly reduced the volume of soil washing from rural lands".

"Air pollution from agricultural sources is a rare, localized problem now", Graham added. Wind-blown soil from farmland once polluted the air on a grand scale. Clouds of dust from land that had been mismanaged and overused darkened the skies over Washington, New York and other eastern cities.

Conservation farming also reduces the need for herbicides and pesticides. Crop rotation, for example, helps fight insects, disease and weeds—thereby reducing the need for chemicals. Water held on the land to produce more forage cannot carry chemicals into streams and lakes.

In the Edwards Plateau soil and water conservation district goals are directed primarily toward improving cover on the land. This means reducing soil losses and silt pollution, and prevents wind erosion and air pollution.

On the positive side, the program improves forage production for livestock and wildlife. It also preserves and improves the beauty of the landscape through control of invading brushy species, and by increasing the abundance of Nature's finest blooming forbs.

Fortunately, these efforts to cooperate with Nature are also to the long-time economic advantage of the ranchmen.

There's still time to take advantage of the Devil's River News Spring Subscription offer. Save on a new subscription during April.

GRASSROOTS OPINIONS

FORT STOCKTON, TEXAS, PIONEER: "Some of the officials responsible for enforcement of law have seemed over-preoccupied in recent years with concern for the rights of defendants in criminal procedures, as related to the rights of those injured or suffering property damages from the action of the criminal. . . Without arguing the fine points of the situation from a legal standpoint, we are faced with some unpleasant results. Not only have the personal safety and property rights of the law-abiding been seriously threatened in many major cities—notably our national capital—but we face a great threat to the proper processes of law and order. . . Before the courts and the makers of legal policy carry protection of individual rights to a further extreme, let them weigh the distressing alternative—the certainty that citizens eventually will lose their faith in the ability of the law to protect—and become their own law. That, really, is the greatest threat to our America that faces us today!"

MORA, MINN., TIMES: "If and when we get out of Viet Nam, Congress would do well to see that we enter into treaties that concern us directly and that we mean to uphold. This nation has neither the will nor the means to fight conventional wars around the globe for every troubled nation. It's time our foreign policy really puts this nation's interest ahead of all others. That's what all the other nations do and we could well follow suit."

BENTON, MO., DEMOCRAT: "If we could convince our youngsters that they are wrong in believing, that somehow, the world owes them a living it would be a giant step forward."

ELSINORE, CALIF., SUN: "I want no more governmental services. I believe that we should elect our governmental servants on a strictly commission basis. If they save money for us, we will pay them a percentage of the saving. Candidates, who realize that the taxpaying goose that has laid their golden tax egg for so many years is almost as extinct as the dodo, should be rewarded for their perception. The rest should be retired to learn the lesson the hard way as the rest of us do when the tax bills come in faster than the tax dollars."

FOREST CITY, N.C., COURIER: "This business of having to bus students to and fro in order to maintain racial balance or equilibrium is beginning to get under our skins. We would have it known right off that we aren't against integration nor are we against racial balance. But what we're most concerned with is that ever-present problem—making it balance at whatever cost necessary. Our primary concern here is that we cannot see how top level governmental agencies can sit upon their 'heavenly' thrones and cast down rules to govern the situation in every borough in the United States."

BRIDGEPORT, ILL., LEADER: "A newspaper has the right to reject any advertisement," stated Federal Judge Abraham Marovitz in a major decision on the Chicago bench. The publisher of a newspaper has a duty to his public but also the judge reaffirmed that a newspaper is a private enterprise and cannot be considered a quasi-public entity. . . no government can force a newspaper to print any advertisement or news items."

SOMERSET, KY., COMMONWEALTH-JOURNAL: "The whole pollution problem boils down to this: Do we really want to clean up America? Are we, private citizen and industry alike, willing to pay what it will cost—not only in terms of money but in terms of 'conveniences' we now take for granted, from throwaway bottles on the local beach to throwaway sewage in the local river? As of now, the answer is a resounding 'No!'"

It remains to be seen how President Nixon's recent message on school desegregation is spelled out. He had made a similar announcement before, even before his election, favoring the neighborhood school and freedom of choice on the part of parents who prefer to send their children to the local schools. And he had also criticized compulsory cross-busing in order to achieve a better racial mixture.

But despite all those pronouncements, HEW has insisted on the arbitrary mixture. Now, what will HEW do about it in the future? The President made a significant and fortright statement, which should have a very salutary effect in the establishment of a policy which (it is hoped) will be clear and understandable.

Mr. Nixon placed emphasis on desegregation rather than integration. He made it clear that in his view the neighborhood school is and must be the basic vehicle for educating children. He says that busing of students for many hours each day across many miles to achieve an arbitrary racial balance, is not right. And he promised that his administration will give more weight to the judgment of local school boards in resolving segregation problems.

That all sounds like a breath of fresh air! The radicals and extremists have been calling the shots. Now there is some promise of moderation and common sense on the subject. Let us hope so.

NEARLY 1,000 Americans, mostly of college age, who went to Cuba not long ago to help Castro cut his cane, are said to be having a ball as they are further brainwashed by various Communist functionaries. It is reported they have received delegations from the Soviet Union, the Vietcong and North Vietnam.

It is not unusual for the radical left in this country to make trips to Cuba as a part of their indoctrination processes. In fact, the Communists foot the bill for much of this travel.

It's too bad these characters who are Castro's guests did not travel on one-way tickets! They can be correctly described as the very riff-raff of creation.

Philosopher Gives Strike Problem Some Hard And Concentrated Thought

Editor's note: The Devil's River Philosopher on his bitter-weed ranch on Dry Devil's River considers the strike situation this week.

Dear editor: According to all the newspapers I've seen out here lately, everybody is in a turmoil over strikes and what to do about them, and I'll get to that later, but first I'd like to point out that things are not all bad.

For instance, when a neighbor asked me why I wasn't at work, I told him I keep up with the news and was fully aware everything was at a standstill on account of the New York mail strike. My hands were tied.

They were tied again when the air controllers fouled up the airplane schedules and by the time this gets into The Devil's River News they may be tied by half a dozen other strikes. If I miss any, let me know.

However, I realize everybody isn't as adaptable as I am to work stoppages and I notice that the politicians across the country are attacking the problem from every angle you can manage with a speech without ever getting around to an answer.

I have thought this problem over carefully and have a suggestion.

Like things are now, nobody knows when the next strike will Sonora is very well known for doing everything in a BIG way. We did just that very thing again last Saturday.

The Sonora Ladies Invitational Partnership was played Saturday with seventy-four players participating. This is almost twice the number we have had previously.

We could not have such great success with our tournaments without the help of many people. We would again like to thank the merchants who donated our door prizes — Neville's, Ratliff's, Morrisons, Westermans, Home Hardware, Ruth Shurley Jewelry, Barrow Jewelry, First National Bank, Elliott Chevrolet, Thops Laun-Dry, Merle Norman, Tan-de Beauty Shop, Lucille's Beauty Shop, Busters and Carl Cahill.

—GN—

To the men who helped in many ways thanks go to Lester Archer, Doyle Morgan, Francis Archer, Carl Cahill, Whiskey Hill, Tommy Thorp and James Trainer.

A Bishop Looks at Life Can We Believe?

By Everett H. Jones, Retired Bishop of the Episcopal Church

Long ago the question was asked: "If a man die, shall he live again?" (Job 14:14) The Easter season confronted us with the same question. Most of us in this busy, materialistic world of today do not give much thought to this question; when death is mentioned we try to change the subject as soon as possible. There are even those who say the Church no longer stresses belief in life eternal; they claim that instead it devotes all its attention to the problems of the here and now. (The truth is that it does both!)

Recently I have read some words that clearly state my own basis for believing that a man shall live again. Here they are: "There is an inevitable logic in the historic creeds of the Church. If you can believe in the very first article of faith which affirms there is a personal reality at the heart of the universe, the God of the Christian Revelation, the God whose likeness is best seen in the Christ, then you are bound to go on to the final article which says, I look for the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. That is to say, if God is love, it is inconceivable that He has made us for Himself, that He cares for us even as a Father for his children, and then would let us perish in the twinkling of an eye and be lost forever. Love never fails. Love never ends."

This puts the matter in proper perspective. We cannot either prove or disprove immortality in a laboratory; it is a corollary of faith based on our primary faith in God, and in the character of God as revealed by Christ.

If you would like the answer put more simply, but with the same accent on trust in God, remember these lines by John Greenleaf Whittier:

"I know not what the future hath Of marvel or surprise, Assured alone that life and death God's mercy underlies. I know not where his islands lift Their fringed palms in air: I only know I cannot drift Beyond his love and care."

A WEAVER OF BEAUTY

Magnificent tapestries, sometimes taking years to complete, decorated the walls of many homes and churches in the Middle Ages. Woven with richly colored strands of silk and wool, they often pictured scenes from the Bible. To create a beautiful tapestry required patience . . . skill . . . devotion.

Today each of us weaves a tapestry — the fabric of our lives. We sit at a loom, wondering whether the pattern of our lives will be of bright rose, green or golden threads, or whether the events will show as somber, dark colors.

A weaver in the Middle Ages worked on the reverse side of his tapestry. By looking up at a mirror, he could see how the entire design looked on the right side.

When we look up to God in worship, we can see with clarity the pattern of our lives. Attend the church of your choice for perspective on your life's tapestry.

Last week began a hectic time of district events. The district one-act plays, ready writing, and debates were held in Menard Friday. The debate team of Gene Trainer and Joe Nance won first place in debate while the one-act play got second place behind Mason. Rick Hill got Best Actor in the district for his performance in the one-act play. The results of the ready writing contest will not be announced until next Saturday.

The district track meet was held in Eldorado Saturday afternoon and night. Overall, the boys got third behind Mason and first place Eldorado. The sprint relay team composed of David Wuest, James Noel, Hermin Perez, and anchor man Mike Taylor won first in a record time of 43:7.

The mile relay team of Scott Jacoby, Arnold Samaniego, James Noel and Mike Taylor took second to Mason. Individual performances by Noel in the hundred, Samaniego second in the 880 yard run, Wuest in the shot put and discus, Paco Sanchez and Jimmy Cade in the pole vault, and Jacoby and Kerry Joy in the long jump spurred the team on to their third position.

The girls won their practice meet in Iraan Friday. Both the 440 and 880 yard relay teams composed of Carol Hardgrave, Lesa Whitehead, Becky Tittle, and Vickie "Lightening" Hardgrave streaked around the track to win first in both relays. Individually, "Lightening" won first in the open 220 yard dash and Carol raced to a first place in the 100 yard dash. June Alexander came in fourth in the 880 yard run.

The girls went to the district meet Tuesday in Eldorado.

Golf teams did well in district play held here Monday. The first team won first and the second team managed second. Jess Cook was medalist, Wuest was second medalist, and Tony Renfro was third medalist.

TEACHERS ATTEND MEETING IN ROCKSPRINGS

Sonora teachers who are members of the Gamma Phi Chapter of the Delta Kappa Gamma International Honor Society attended a meeting in Rocksprings April 10. Attending the meeting were Mrs. Edgar Glasscock, president, Mrs. Ken McAllister and Mrs. Mary Ruth McGilvray.

Miss Helen Henderson Marries Charles West

Miss Helen Henderson of Ozona became the bride of Charles West in an afternoon ceremony April 4, at the Ozona United Methodist Church. The Rev. John Berkley, pastor, officiated.

Parents of the couple are Mrs. Charles Russell of Ozona and the late Jack Henderson and Mr. and Mrs. Jimmie West of Eldorado.

The bride was given in marriage by her brother, John Lee Henderson Jr., and Mrs. John Lee Henderson Jr., served as matron of honor. The father of the bridegroom served as best man.

The bride wore a gown of imported ivory peau de soie and hand-run Alencon lace. The molded empire bodice was fashioned with a high Victorian neckline and long tightly fitted sleeves, softly flared at the wrist. The slim A-line skirt was complimented by a full watteau back. Her veil of imported silk illusion fell below her shoulders from a bandeau of matching Alencon lace, and she carried a nosegay of white rosebuds.

Mrs. Batts Friend of Ozona furnished traditional wedding music at the organ.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the T. J. Bailey home, where arrangements of daisies, rosebuds and stock were used in the decorations.

Presiding at the bride's table were two of the bride's aunts, Mrs. Jack Wilkins and Mrs. Roy Henderson. The table was laid with a swiss imported embossed cloth, centered with an arrangement of yellow rosebuds and white iris.

The bridegroom's table was laid with an embroidered cloth of Irish linen and centered with rosebuds, jonquils and irises. Mrs. Ken Clark of San Antonio, sister of the bridegroom, Mrs. C. T. Womack of San Angelo, aunt of the bridegroom and Mrs. Jean Scheuber, aunt of the bride presided at the table.

Others in the houseparty included Mrs. Ed Downing of Odessa, Mrs. Lowell Litterton, Mrs. Stephen Pamer, Miss Virginia Henderson, Miss Suzanne Williams and John Lee Henderson, III, all of Ozona.

Around 100 guests called. Mr. and Mrs. West were honored with a champagne party at the Ozona country club before leaving for a brief wedding trip to Mexico.

West, who is an employee of the First National Bank here, also ranches.

Coffee Break by Shirley Hill

From the Fort Worth Star Telegram comes an interesting bit of news: Ted Kazzmaroski, 37, entered a hospital recently for treatment of pneumonia but showed complications, his bill showed.

Kazzmaroski said that in addition to charges for treatment of the chest ailment he was also billed for the use of a delivery room and the nursery. The bill said the father of six children had given birth to a baby girl.

The hospital blamed a computer for the error.

Mrs. J. F. Howell attended the Tom Green Medical Auxiliary monthly meeting in the Service Building of San Angelo University's Learning Lab of the Nursing Department last week. Mrs. Howell served as hostess for the event. Mrs. C. F. Browne also attended.

Mrs. Jack M. Allen, Nancy, Suzanne and Brent of Perryton visited Dr. and Mrs. J. F. Howell for several days last week.

Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Bloodworth are in Pennsylvania visiting L. P.'s brother, Hal.

Pam Hancock, daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. Clifton Hancock is up and around and recovering rapidly from an appendectomy.

Bill Thompson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Pete Thompson, is in the Shannon Hospital in San Angelo, where he had surgery.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Means, Melanie, Terri, Nina and Warren have moved to Sonora from Blaine, Washington. Means is with the Immigration Department. I met Mrs. Means and Melanie in the office a few days ago, and I think they are going to make quite a contribution to our town.

Mrs. James Alexander and Mrs. Corky Schwiening attended a Blue Cross Blue Shield meeting in San Angelo last Thursday.

Mrs. A. C. Hudson and Mrs. Bill Cartwright were in Roosevelt last week visiting Mrs. Belle Thiers.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Cusenbary visited her mother, Mrs. J. H. Mims in Cleburne last week.

Ben Ramsey Seeks Second Term

Railroad Commissioner Ben Ramsey stated that a stable federal policy on limitation of foreign oil imports is necessary for the orderly development and regulation of the petroleum industry in Texas.

Ramsey is seeking a second full elective term on the three-member Railroad Commission in the primaries May 2.

A consistent federal policy of restrictive imports would not only be beneficial to the domestic industry but also would give the Railroad Commission a more firm basis to determine its policies, Ramsey said. "This is not just an oil industry problem," Ramsey added. The state government relies heavily on taxes from the petroleum businesses for support of its programs, including services, schools and universities. "Additionally," Ramsey said, "some 210,400 employees in Texas alone with a $1.6 billion a year payroll are directly dependent on the petroleum industry."

"Oilmen and their families, as any other group, have a right to know where they stand," Ramsey said. Unlimited foreign oil imports and the inconsistency of federal policy, Ramsey said, leaves the oilman, royalty owners, landowners, and state government in much the same position as the housewife with a heavy budget who has no idea what the family income will be from month to month.

Hangover cure.

Nobody likes a sloppy range. Especially if it's a result of hangover heat.

After all, heat that hangs on after your range is turned off isn't your fault. But you have to clean up after it.

However, gas ranges turn on and off instantly. No heat's left over to scorch your food, burn your pans or cause food to boil over.

Buy a new gas range, sure-cure for hangover heat.

Looking Back ... By Sonora Motor Co.

JULY 1, 1930 "GATHERED FOR FIRST TRAIN RUN INTO SONORA"

W. L. ALDWELL, EARLY CIVIC LEADER IN SONORA, and through whose influence the Santa Fe was induced to extend the Orient from San Angelo to Sonora, was unable, due to illness, to participate in the celebrations July 1 and 2, 1930, when the first train was run over the extension. On the first day a number of prominent citizens of this section who worked with Aldwell for the railroad, rode over to his house to say "howdy" to their fellow cowboy and rancher. They include from left to right Fred Berger, breeder of registered sheep; T. M. Shoier; "Uncle" Johnnie Johnson, the father of the first white child in Sutton county; W. J. Fields; Walter Whitehead, owner of large ranching interests in the Devil's River country; Joe Ross, breeder of Hereford cattle; D. Wallace, cattleman and sheepman; and G. W. Stephenson.
