

THE SONORA BRONCOS ROLL ON TO A DISTRICT WIN... ENCOURAGED BY THE FINE PERFORMANCES TURNED IN WEEKLY BY THE HIGH SCHOOL BAND MEMBERS

Broncos Overwhelm Eagles

by KAY KERBOW
The Broncos gained at least a tie for district honors when they knocked off Eldorado by a 35-8 score. Eldorado Eagles were previously undefeated in district competition. The Broncos and Eagles both have one game left in district play and the Sonora team seems to have a cinch for the district title unless they are defeated tomorrow night by the Robert Lee Steers, which is highly unlikely and if Eldorado wins. This situation would produce a tie with both clubs having 4-1 records.

Coach Jerry Hopkins crew made use of good field position and Eldorado miscues to spoil the Eagles' bid for the district title. The Broncos picked off five of Archie Nixon's passes

Grand Jurors Return Indictment

Persons serving on the Grand Jury included Lee Allison, foreman; George Wallace, Polo Cervantes, Mrs. Sam Allison, Mrs. Billie Galbreath, Pedro Galindo, Sr., S. M. Loeffler, W. L. Whitehead, Mrs. Santos Lopez, T. C. Basham, Walter C. Pope and Gene Shurley.

625 Ballots Cast In Mediocre Turnout

In a relatively light turnout, slightly more than half of qualified voters in Sutton County voted in the Tuesday election, with only 625 persons casting ballots.

Sutton Countians voted predominantly Democrat, following the trend in Texas, although a surprising number voted Republican, particularly in the Senatorial and Governorship races.

Voting results in this county were as follows:

U. S. Senator: Lloyd Bentsen, 323; George Bush, 261.

U. S. Representative, 21st District: O. C. Fisher, 473; Dick Gill, 125.

Sonoran's Mother Dies in Abilene

Mrs. W. T. McQuary, 86, mother of Mrs. A. C. Elliott, died suddenly at her home in Abilene, November 4, 1970.

Mrs. McQuary was born October 26, 1884, in Bosque County. She married William T. McQuary in Falls County in 1903.

They moved to Abilene from Stamford in 1928. Mrs. McQuary had been a member of University Baptist Church since that time. Mr. McQuary was sheriff of Taylor County from 1942 to 1946. He died in 1953.

Services were held at the University Baptist Church in Abilene with Dr. DeFoore, pastor of the church, officiating. The services were held Saturday.

Three other daughters survive and they are Mary McQuary of the home; Mrs. H. L. LeCone and Mrs. R. P. Murphy, both of Tulsa, Oklahoma; two sons, W. A. McQuary of Burlington, Vermont and E. L. McQuary of San Louis Obispo, California; one sister, Mrs. Blanche Moore of Gladewater; 13 grandchildren and 14 great-grandchildren.

and recovered two Eagle fumbles.

Kerry Joy intercepted two stray Eagle tosses and Rick Street, Arnold Samaniego and Mark Roussetot were given credit for one each. Fumbles were recovered by Jimmy Cade and Sammy Perez.

The defense did its usual superb job as they held off four Eagle scoring attempts that the Eagles attempted inside the twenty yard line. The Eagles lone score was the first score that was scored on the Bronco defense since district competition began.

Sonora chalked up 19 first downs and 395 total yards while the Eagles had 17 first and tens and 260 yards. Tryon Fields ground out 102 yards to gain rushing honors while Milton Noel had 72 yards on 16 attempts.

Eagles leading ground gainer was Keith Williams who was good for 92 yards on 25 tries.

Scott Jacoby showed the Eagles an indication of what was to come when he took the opening kickoff 60 yards to the Eldorado 25 yard line. Seven plays later Milton Noel crashed over from the four with less than three minutes gone in the game.

Mike Taylor's PAT was good and the Broncos jumped to a quick 7-0 lead.

The Eagles got a break when Eagle Ricky Griffin fell on a Bronco fumble on the Sonora 38. Quarterback Nixon took his club to the two yard line before Sonora's Cade dropped the ball carrier on the nine yard line and the Big Red's defense held.

With 5:05 showing on the clock near the end of the half, the Broncos again scored on a bad punt snap forcing Eldorado's Nixon to make a hurried punt.

Three plays later Fields pushed over from the two, but the try for extra point was bobbled by the holder, however, the Broncos were in front by a 13-0 tally.

Just four plays later the Broncos again hit pay-dirt when Eddie Sutton threw a 54 yard bomb to Taylor, the district's number one scorer. Jacoby scored the two point conversion on a reverse to give the Broncos a comfortable 21-0 lead when the half ended.

The second half was a replica of the first. Kerry Joy put an end to an Eagle drive as he intercepted a pass and ran it to the Eagle 15 yard line. Sutton again hit Taylor and the Broncos led 28-0 after Taylor's PAT with only two minutes gone in the second half.

Broncos ended their scoring with a 54 yard scoring scamper by Cade, his only carry of the game. Fields aided in the drive before Cade's score. Again Taylor's PAT was good and the Broncos had 35 points.

Eldorado managed to get on the scoreboard to avoid a shutout with a 79 yard drive, 51 of which were chalked up by Williams. Williams ripped over from the two to give the Eagles their score with eight minutes left in the game. A Nixon to Victor Belman pass succeeded in getting a two point conversion. The game ended 35-8 without further scoring strikes.

Yule Parcels To Overseas Should Go By Nov. 20

Postmaster James D. Trainer offers tips on how residents of Sonora can help meet tight Christmas budgets this year by careful mailing of cards and parcels.

For the most efficient mailing, Trainer suggested the following steps:

—For servicemen overseas "SAM" (Space Available Mail), Christmas parcels can be sent until November 20, for only the small domestic parcel post charge involved from Sonora to East or West Coast points of embarkation for military mail. Parcels up to 5 pounds and 60 inches in combined length and girth are accepted at this low rate.

—Larger parcels (up to 30 pounds with the same length and girth limitations) can be sent as "PAL" (Parcel Airlift) mail, provided they are mailed by November 27. The charge is only $1 per parcel, plus the regular domestic parcel post postage—much less than charges that would apply later if straight airmail service must be provided.

—For all packaging, invest in good quality, sturdy wrapping materials.

—Insure parcels realistically to cover full value but do not overinsure.

—Use ZIP code as a tool for economy in mailing. When it is used consistently on parcels and cards, ZIP code helps prevent errors in delivery and expedites handling. If only a few Christmas cards go astray, an investment of several dollars may be lost, for example.

"Of course," Trainer said, "overseas mail will be accepted any time, but early mailing insures delivery by Christmas. The key to efficient Christmas mailing is to mail early and carefully."

Invading Nimrods To Find Game Plentiful

With hunting season opening Saturday in the Edwards Plateau region, invading nimrods will find the deer fat and plentiful, and one of the largest turkey crops seen in this area in many years. Cleve Jones, as well as some of the other "old timers" here, believe that the turkey crop is the most bountiful one in recent times.

A better than usual quail season is also anticipated, although the dove season was very light due to the lack of feed for the birds.

Nolan Johnson, local game warden, said he expects hunters to be well pleased with the excellent condition of deer this year with the overall antler growth better than quite some time. He said the deer should weigh out better, and are probably in better shape than last year's kill.

Johnson said in his opinion the heavy acorn crop last year kept the deer from feeding in pens and was a contributing factor to a lighter kill. Feed has not been as plentiful this year, consequently hunting from blinds should show improvement, he added.

Bag limit for the November 14-January 3 season is three deer with no more than two bucks. Antlerless permits were issued on the basis of one to each 100 acres to the landowners, and they in turn dispatch permits to hunters according to their own discretion.

Each year hunters are warned of the danger of shooting indiscriminately, and are cautioned to be positive of the target before firing a high-powered rifle. All hunters should be sure of the line of fire, keeping in mind that bullets from the modern rifle can travel a great distance. Proper handling of guns can prevent accidents, especially when climbing through fences and traveling in cars, jeeps, or other vehicles with loaded guns.

Broncos Down Eagles 29-12

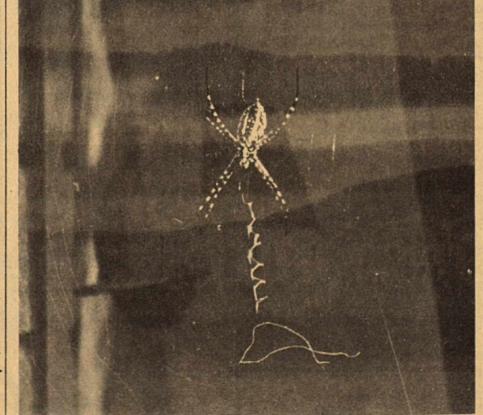

by Randy Hill & Larry Cade
The Bronco B-team pulled in another victory last Thursday in Eldorado for the second time this year. The first score came when Wesley Richardson went over from the three on a quarterback sneak. The extra point failed.

Old reliable, Steve Street, broke around end on a 40 yard run for the second TD. Afterwards, a surprising thing happened. Henry Mata, attempting the extra point picked up a bad snap and weaved through a mass of Eagles and put an extra two on the board.

With about two minutes left in the half, Street again scampered around end on a 10 yard run for the TD, and then scored on the same play for two more points. The half closed, 22-0 in favor of the Broncos.

The third quarter was scoreless but the Eagles put 12 points on the board in the fourth. With three minutes to go, Street made a spectacular 25-yarder for the score. Henry Mata tacked on another one point.

The game ended Sonora, 29, Eldorado, 12. Sonora takes jurisdiction in their last game of the year here tonight. Come and give them your support.

THIS FRIENDLY SPIDER provided much entertainment and hours of nature study for employees of West Texas Utilities Company during the summer months. Sometimes the spider would hang motionless for days unless disturbed. Any damage inflicted on the web gained an immediate reaction from the spider as it began to hurriedly repair the tear. Wintry days with long nights and less daylight hours will probably curtail the spider's endless web spinning days.

The most effective single force in building a good community is a good newspaper.

In Accord With Nature

If there is one place in which there is no such thing as a status quo, it is in nature. Mountains erode away, forests grow and die to be replaced by other forests. Rivers constantly alter their courses on their way to the sea, and lakes, in the course of time, go through many changes. The notion that man, by writing a law that decrees a certain area to remain "as is" in perpetuity, will stop the processes of nature is worse than ill-advised. It is downright wasteful. Excellent illustrations of this can be seen in many of the wilderness areas where stands of old-growth timber have reached maturity and are dying like an overripe crop of wheat. A specific example of a "protected" forest area that is passing from a picture of sublime beauty to decay can be seen on the Metolius river in central Oregon. There, a 1,400-acre tract of Ponderosa pine was set aside as a "natural area" in the early 1930's. Other than guarding it against fires, foresters have not touched it in any other way.

Today, the large trees are dying. Rust and bugs are taking a heavy toll. Snags dot the area. In a few years, the big trees of the present will be gone. By contrast, in adjacent areas, under Forest Service supervision, mature trees have been logged off to control disease. Under a multiple-use, forest management program, the landscape is improved--and one of the country's most important natural resources, wood, is harvested for the building of homes and other uses.

The timber management policies of present-day timber companies are a reflection of the philosophy that men must move with the ways of nature. Hence, leading forest products companies advocate utilization of trees as a means of conservation. In the same way, they advocate multiple use of forest lands under which commercial woodlands are dedicated to both the business of producing timber and public recreation.

Monday, November 11, the Sonora Broncos trimmed the Ozona Lions by a score of 13 to 6, in the Bronco stadium.

While people of the United States were observing Armistice Day in various ways, the Broncos were staging a "blitzkrieg" on the Ozona Lions. The game is an annual affair played between Ozona and Sonora schools commemorate Armistice Day and to settle the question, "Who's Who in football for this season."

Until three years ago the games were "nip and tuck" with Sonora winning one and Ozona the other. However, in 1938 and 1939 the Broncos beat the Lions to break the deadlock and with this year's win, makes it three straight.

From "The Bronco": "Who broke the lock on the school-house door??? Just an old trick of the season."

Also from "The Bronco": All last week our band director, Mr. Sharp, was unable to attend school. Mr. Sharp had his tonsils out a week ago and couldn't talk. Friday night he decided to try some fried chicken and in a little while his throat started bleeding. The doctor was called and said it was the fried chicken that caused the hemorrhage.

Just 21 years ago the first state tax on gasoline, a mere 1¢ a gallon levy, was inaugurated by Oregon. In 1939, state gasoline taxes reached a record high of $816,433,000.

YEARS PAST

There seems to have been some mosquitoes in the summer of 1922, for June 25, the council was ordering crude oil to be sprayed on mudholes and the weeds cut. October 2, the tax rate for the fiscal year was fixed at 25 cents on the $100.

The council acted March 2, 1923 in the matter of fire-fighting equipment; buying a fire engine at a price of $3,450 $450 down and the balance in yearly payments of $60 at 6 per cent interest. A siren was also purchased at a cost of $50.

The August 11 session of the city fathers named J. L. Cook city marshal and fire marshal.

The first entry of note in the 1924 minutes of the city council proceedings was the requirement that dog owners buy license tags for their pets. And the only other and last notable entry was that the sanitary administrators for the town see more vigilantly to matters concerning public health.

June, 1925, saw a revival in the vigor of city government affairs. At the first meeting in that month the secretary reported taxable valuation in Sonora of $542,290; and a cash balance in the city treasury of $9,500.

So, when the council convened March 2, a tax levy of 25¢ on the $100 of assessed valuation was ordered collected.

An election was called for June 9, to vote on a proposed change from present city organization to a commission form of government.

When the council reconvened July 5, city secretary Gilmore reported that a canvass of the returns showed the proposed commission form of government authorized by a majority vote of the people; and S. R. Hull and W. C. Gilmore had been elected commissioners.

At the council meeting of August 3, a permit was granted to Carl Gunzer for the erection of a new motion picture building.

A Bishop Looks at Life Church Life Today

By Everett H. Jones, Retired Bishop of the Episcopal Church

Bishop. Church Life Today (II)
Reports of recent national church gatherings have alerted all of us to the revolution within the life of the church itself. The pace of rapid change makes it important that we understand the underlying factors beneath the surface. Some of these we noted last week—let us consider a few more.

Take the matter of youth and the church. It is difficult for older people to understand the life-style and attitudes of many young people today. It is easy to move from this lack of understanding to condemnation—easy, but superficial. Beneath much that is said and done by modern youth there is a cry to be shown the meaning of life. What does it mean to be human? How can we love and be loved? Must we kill each other? What good is it if we increase the gross national product and lose our own souls, and make the planet unliveable?

Most young people are idealistic and spiritually hungry. They are looking in every direction for vital spiritual experience, something that will really "turn them on." It will be tragic if we in the churches do not struggle to meet their need.

We are finding that these seeking persons respond eagerly to fresh statements of Christian faith in their own language. They are anxious to share in church decisions. They enter joyfully into worship that celebrates life, where they can participate, as in a folk-mass, with their own music and their own musical instruments.

Take the matter of dissent. It is true that we have great diversity of conviction today in all of our churches. However, I am convinced that beneath our differences there is underlying unity; much of the problem is a breakdown in communication. In the recent Episcopal Convention in Houston I found that after full opportunity was given for the expression of all viewpoints on controversial issues it was possible for groups at first far apart to come together in acceptable compromise agreements.

Churchmen generally are very vocal in their criticisms, especially of actions taken at meetings where they are not present. Often the criticisms are based on inadequate or inaccurate information. Often the critics forget that the decisions are made by their fellow-Christians who have been duly elected and who give each issue their best thought and prayer. To be sure, mistakes are sometimes made. Fortunately, the church in its long history has shown a notable power to correct past mistakes, and to make a new beginning.

In the meantime there is much to be said for an old-fashioned virtue, frequently in short supply but still not outmoded. It is called loyalty.

—The difference between a "wise guy" and a wise man is plenty.
—It's what we learn after we think we know it all that counts.
—You don't have to be an accomplished musician to play on your neighbor's nerves.
—The man who stands constantly on his dignity is located on a very slippery spot.
—It is easy to forgive an enemy if we know we can lick him.
—An antique is an object that has made a trip to the attic and back.
—Bill Muffet said his car couldn't skid; this monument shows that it could—and did.
—Keep Smiling! It makes people wonder what you have been up to.
A LIFT FOR THE WEEK
You cannot have faith and tension at the same time.

"I thought of a fine idea today, dear. I promised a thousand dollars to a man if he would relieve me of all my worries."
"But where will you get the thousand to give him?"
"That will be his first worry."

He Hopes Airlines Don't Repeat History and Wind Up Like Railroads

THE DEVIL'S RIVER PHILOSOPHER SEZ....
Editor's note: The Devil's River Philosopher on his bitter-weed ranch on Dry Devil's River thinks he detects an ominous trend in air travel this week.
Dear editor:
I've heard it said that people who don't know history are doomed to repeat it, and probably the same applies to Algebra or Chemistry or anything else a student falls in, but in the larger meaning of the saying I ran across an item in a newspaper last night that bears it out.
According to it, the airlines in the U.S. lost 58 million dollars in the first half of this year. They blame it on rising operating costs and falling numbers of passengers. Too many empty seats, they said.
Don't you see how history is repeating itself? That was exactly the same story of the passenger trains.
Some people said passenger trains disappeared because the railroads discouraged train travel by giving lousy service and thinking up ways to make it inconvenient, while the railroads said it was because they were losing money.
Now I don't know anything about air travel, but I know a few people who do and they say once you get on a plane you can get where you're going in a satisfactorily short time, if the hijackers took some other plane, but lots of time you have to sit around the airport for an hour or so before taking off, after spending an hour getting there, and sometimes you have to circle around your destination an hour or so waiting for other planes to land, and when you do finally come down you have to wait a long while to get your luggage, and some-

The Big Reds put it to the Mean Green by a 35-8 count. It was the Broncos sixth consecutive win. Despite all the Eagles bonfires, car smashes, caravans and talk, the Broncos proved again that dedication, spirit and teamwork win more games than anything else. Broncos, by virtue of this win, will move into the playoffs. However, they must beat Robert Lee to hold the District 9A title alone. If they were to lose, which is highly unlikely, and Eldorado wins, there would be a tie for the district crown.

Pictures were given out Monday morning and as usual the same varied comments were heard. Most of the students were satisfied with their mug shots, while a few didn't seem to think that the picture was the "real them".

Seniors received four proofs in caps and gowns plus their regular school pictures, so they have a surplus of photos—now if they could only find enough people who want them!!

The United Youth Fellowship canvassed the town Sunday collecting donations for Christian Rural Overseas Program.

This program provides food, farming instruments and aid during emergency occurrences for the people in destitute areas. Thanks to the work of the ministers who promoted this canvass, to the hard work of about twenty UYF'ers and the generosity of the townspeople, a total of $300 was collected.

A Veterans' Day assembly was held Wednesday during fourth period. Several speech students gave their original speeches in an effort to promote patriotism which seems to be lacking in the U.S. today. Last year was the first of such programs allowing the students to control the assembly.

It's six week test time again at SHS. Today periods 2-8-7 held tests while Wednesday brought 1-3-5 and fourth period was held Tuesday.

School is already one-third over. Sounds good, huh? Only four more six weeks left in the year!!

You can estimate the time till sundown. The width of the palm of the hand when held at arms length equals about one hour of sun. The number of palms between the horizon and the sun equals the hours till sundown. There is no guess work when you buy vegetables at SAUNDERS GARDEN next to the football field. They are always the best and lowest in price.

He makes a marvelous picture—but would he really make a marvelous chef? Can you imagine what might happen if you let him brew up a pot of everything his chubby little fingers could latch onto?

Let's face it! It takes thought, direction and planning to do anything well in life — even to make a good stew. Though a true chef may not follow the cookbook precisely, he will select and blend his ingredients with care and precision. Only then will the dish be a success.

What does all this have to do with going to church? More than you might think! If you have been leaving the Church out of your recipe for living, you have been missing some of life's most priceless ingredients — God's love, His priceless gift of Faith and some of the greatest lessons ever revealed to man.

Homemakers Nutrition Recipes

This is number eight in a series of low-cost, nutritious recipes submitted by Mrs. A. E. Prugel, homemaking teacher.

PEANUT BUTTER
Peanut butter is a wise choice for the busy homemaker; it is ready to eat and easy to use. High in energy, it helps build muscle and blood.

Try this PEANUT BUTTER PIE:
2 eggs; 1 cup corn syrup; 1 cup sugar; 1/2 cup peanut butter; 1 teaspoon vanilla; 1 unbaked 8-inch pie crust

Beat eggs. Mix eggs, corn syrup, sugar, peanut butter and vanilla together. Pour into unbaked pie crust. Bake at 350 degrees (moderate oven) 45 to 60 minutes, until top is brown and crisp.

PEANUT BUTTER MUFFINS:
1-3/4 cups sifted flour; 1 tablespoon baking powder; 1 cup milk; 1 egg; 1/4 cup sugar; 1/2 teaspoon salt; 1/4 cup peanut butter; 1 tablespoon margarine, melted

Sift dry ingredients together. Combine milk, peanut butter, egg and oleo. Pour at once into dry ingredients. Stir with fork until ingredients are just blended. Spoon into 12 greased muffin cups. Bake in 400 degree oven for 20 minutes. Makes 1 dozen.

PEANUT BUTTER BREAD:
2 cups flour, 1/3 cup sugar; 1 cup nonfat dry milk; 1 egg, well beaten; 2 teaspoons baking powder; 1 teaspoon salt; 3/4 cup peanut butter.

Sift together flour, sugar, baking powder, salt. With a fork, work peanut butter and egg into flour mixture. Add milk. Put in greased loaf pan. Bake 50 to 60 minutes in a 350 degree oven.

Peach Trees Infested With Borers

Peach trees infested with peach tree borers are unthrifty and commonly produce off-colored foliage, according to County Agent D. C. Langford. And, he adds, they usually die within a few years. Langford indicated that this pest is common in Sutton County. Larvae of the peach tree borer destroy the cambium layer and inner bark of peach trees near the ground line.

Infested trees have large masses around the base of the trunk. This gum is mixed with a brownish grass or saw dust. Langford recommends controlling peach tree borer during the period October 20-November 15 or before the soil temperature drops below 55 degrees F. Control can be obtained by placing paradichlorobenzene (PDB) crystals in a band around the trunk of infested trees.

All plant material and grass should be cleaned away and the soil loosened in an area of one foot around the tree trunk. The PDB crystals should be placed in a narrow circular band or shallow trench about 2 inches from the trunk of the tree. Then cover the band with soil, free of leaf or grass trash, and mound the soil around the trunk so as to form a cone-shaped pile about 6 inches high. The county agent cautioned against pushing any of the PDB crystals against the tree, since their contact with the tree can cause injury.

The mound of soil should be raked back away from the tree in the early spring. Failure to do this can result in injury to the tree. Langford suggests using 1/2 ounce of PDB crystals for 2-3 year old trees; 3/4 ounce for trees 4-5 years old; and 1 ounce for mature trees.

Additional information on the peach tree borer and other pests of peaches is available at the county agent's office located in the Courthouse.

Nature Notes

By E. B. Keng, SCS Technician
Sandhill cranes took advantage of clear, cool weather last Monday to hunt a warmer place to spend the winter. Several large flocks passed over Sonora on their way to South Texas or other southern ports.

Sandhill cranes may be distinguished from geese when flying by their deep rolling k-r-r-r-oo, repeated several times. Cranes also fly with their necks extended, while herons fly with their necks in an S-curve, with the head back against the body.

Many flocks of ducks and geese went south early this year. During the first part of October many flocks were seen around Eagle Lake, near Houston. Between 50 and 100 flocks, varying from two birds to over 100, could be seen at one time. Eagle Lake claims to be the goose hunting "capital" of the world.

Two coral snakes were killed in Sonora week before last—one by Phillip Cooper and one was reported killed in Mrs. Willie Andrews' yard. A third coral snake was seen on the highway on the Alvis Johnson ranch southeast of Sonora, but it escaped. Two coral snakes were killed in this general area in the past five years.

George Brockman killed a large rattler in his hay barn last week. With the return of frosty nights snakes appear to be searching for warm dens for their winter naps.

Speaking of birds, several cattle egrets were seen in the bermuda grass field on the Rip Ward ranch last week. These small white herons are almost always seen in association with cattle. They are very common on the Gulf Coast of Texas, and only occasionally drift this far inland.

THE FAMILY LAWYER

Half-Picked Pocket

It was intermission time at the theater, and the lobby was crowded. Suddenly a patron felt his wallet being eased out of his back pocket. Whirling around, he seized both the wallet and the hand of the culprit.

In due course, the fellow was arrested on a charge of larceny. At the trial, however, he came up with a defense.

"I admit I had theft in mind," he told the court. "But I never did get that wallet more than half way out of the man's pocket. Maybe I'm guilty of an attempt, but nothing more."

Nevertheless, the court found him guilty of larceny, as charged. The judge said the offense was complete when he took full possession of the wallet and began moving it out of the victim's pocket.

The crime of larceny requires both a taking (even for a short time) and a carrying away (even for a short distance). Nothing less will do. Thus:

A prudent woman shopper kept her purse in a coat pocket, tied by a string to the inside of the pocket. Here, too, a man was caught in the act of lifting the purse out.

But this time, the court held him guilty of attempt only, not larceny. The court said that because of the string binding the purse to its owner, the defendant had never gotten it fully into his possession.

What about a would-be shoplifter who never gets the merchandise out of the store? Consider this case:

A woman pushing a shopping cart took a package of beef out of the freezer. But instead of dropping it in the cart with her other items, she slipped it inside her purse. An observant employee caught up with her just before she reached the checkout stand.

When she was unable to explain her conduct, the woman was arrested on a charge of larceny. At the trial, she insisted that she could not be convicted because she had never gotten the beef out of the store.

But the court held her guilty anyhow. The judge said she had taken "complete and exclusive control" of the package by placing it inside her purse.

"The fact that the possession was brief," said the court, "is immaterial."

Probably a little known service rendered by one local citizen in all elections held here for the past thirty or more years is that rendered by George Wynn, who stays until all returns are in and votes tallied in order to telephone the final tabulation into the Texas Election Bureau at Austin. This is a voluntary service and sometimes calls for late hours, particularly during National Elections and big turnout of voters. This is the one post that most likely will remain non-competitive.

DURABILITY MOST WANTED IN TOYS

Durability is the "most wanted" quality in toys for preschoolers, according to a recent survey conducted by Playskool Research among parents of youngsters. Of obvious importance to parents when broken toys mean replacement purchases, durability is even more crucial to a small child to whom broken toys mean frustration. Other top qualities for preschool toys, say parents, include safety, educational value, and ability to stimulate creativity. Color, especially in toys for the youngest tots, is important too.

TIPS FOR OUTDOORSMEN

by Vern Sanford

SWAT THE FROG

Ever tried to catch a frog along a stream or lake bank? Seems he always stays just one jump out of your reach. Cut a tree branch and use it as a swatter. A blow stuns the frog long enough for you to pick him up.

SAFETY IN CAMP

Paint your tent stakes and lines with white or luminous paint. It will keep you from tripping over them in the dark. At the same time, don't forget to treat the clothes line the same way.

PERKING UP THE PLUGS

Surface bass bugs can be made more effective with fluorescent paint. And if that's not handy, a dab of your wife's nail polish will help.

FISHING ROD PROTECTION

Clear fingernail polish applied several times a year to the thread windings on each guide of a fishing rod makes good sense. The windings stay waterproof, are protected from being scuffed and won't start unraveling.

HANDY SQUIRREL STRINGER

If you're going squirrel hunting, a handy item to have along is your fish stringer. Hook each squirrel in the hind leg between bone and tendon and suspend the stringer from your belt. This way both hands will be freed for hunting purposes.

EMERGENCY SINKERS

An empty, discarded toothpaste tube, or one that shaving cream or hair cream comes in, makes good emergency sinkers. Cut them to size for various weights and simply roll them around the line.

Wrinkles are a vicious cycle.

In some dryers the heat that dries your clothes also bakes wrinkles into permanent press.

But you can buy a new gas dryer with a permanent press cool-down cycle that turns off the heat and cools off your clothes.

That means modern gas dryers won't add wrinkles to your wash and extra ironing to your work load. Because they have a cycle that keeps wrinkles from becoming vicious.

Brush Control, Range Improvement Group Have Recent Meet At Station

Officers and members of the Texas Brush Control and Range Improvement Association met at the Sonora Experiment Station last Thursday. In addition to regular business the group heard requests for research funding from Texas Tech and Texas A&M Universities.

Presiding at the meeting was John Matthews, Abilene ranchman. Others on the committee present were Rob Brown, Throckmorton ranchman; Ben Sims, Paint Rock; Taylor Gaines, Austin; Fred Wulff, Brady; Jim Humphreys and Dr. W. J. Waldrip of the Pitchfork Ranch near Guthrie.

Others present included Drs. L. S. Pope and Charles Lein-weber of Texas A&M and Drs. Joe Schuster, Shiang Ping Yang and John Thayer of Texas Tech. Dr. Schuster, head of Texas Tech Range Management department, presented a request for research funds to study conversion of mesquite and other brush to high protein livestock feed.

Very preliminary studies have indicated that certain strains of bacteria will convert cellulose materials such as brush, sugarcane bagasse, and other materials to high protein livestock feed—and at an estimated cost of $24 per ton. Much additional research will be necessary to work out production problems, but the subject is very interesting.

The Brush Research committee has raised about $150,000 for additional brush research in Texas. Some $10,000 of this amount was allocated to the Sonora Experiment Station for new brush studies.

The Sutton County Brush Research Committee raised some $7,000 from local ranchmen in 1969, and over $3,000 has been contributed to the research program this year. Sutton County ranchmen who have not contributed their 1¢ per acre are requested to leave checks at the First National Bank, or with W. B. McMillan, Vestel Askew, Edwin Sawyer, Armer Earwood or George Brockman.

M. WUEST NAMED SCHOOL FAVORITE

Mike Wuest was one of twelve Southwest Texas State University of San Marcos students named Gaillardians for 1970. Wuest, one of the 84 nominees, along with the eleven other students named, was considered on the basis of scholarship, extracurricular activity participating, friendliness, character and school spirit. The students are elected by popular vote.

Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Wuest attended the ceremonies at San Marcos, Friday night and a reception for students and their parents at the Student Center Ballroom. Former President Lyndon B. Johnson was in the reception receiving line.

Tommy Dock Raye Earns Masters

Tommy Raye, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Raye, was one of the 320 students who earned a Master's degree from the University of Texas Graduate School at the close of the summer session. Raye, a local high school graduate, earned a Master of Science in Chemical Engineering.

The Sonora Golf Club members will always remember Miss Lee Spencer, member of the Ladies PGA from San Antonio, who was at the club Friday and Saturday. Her wit, humor and good golfing was enjoyed by all.

Saturday, after the golf clinic, lunch was served to 26 auxiliary members. Bobbie that I have thoroughly enjoyed myself—I want to be invited back. If I'm not invited I'm coming anyway".

Lee was entertained by Ethel Olson and Betty Stewart. Friday afternoon Lee, Sammie Espy, Bobbie Fawcett and Pat Barbie (Ozona's ladies golf champion) played 9 holes. Lee complimented our course—especially the greens.

Fawcett and Jodie Finklea were hostesses. Then Lee demonstrated different golf clubs.

As Salty Barton said, "Lee you are a fine swinger and great for golf."

—GN—
Lonnie Taylor has been out at the golf course several times. Know he is anxious to get his "sticks" out and hit the golf course.

Sammie Espy, Wanda Cahill, Bobbie Fawcett, Marilyn Bloodworth, Chickie McMillan and

Jo Neville played in a tournament at Pecan Valley Country Club in San Antonio, Monday. The tournament was a Team Play event with A-B-C-D golfers in each foursome.

Jo's team won first and Marilyn's team was third. Eighteen clubs were represented and Sonora was recognized as having traveled the greatest distance to participate.

Phone Directory Being Compiled

The new 1971 Sonora telephone directory is now being compiled, J. B. Goss division manager for General Telephone Company of the Southwest announced today.

All business telephone users in Barnhart, Big Lake, Eldorado, Sonora and Ozona will be contacted by a representative of the General Telephone directory company within the next few days regarding changes in listings.

Goss said that the distribution date of the new telephone directories will be announced later.

Organized Confusion
Two veteran political stump speakers were discussing the perils of campaigning. "Don't you just hate hecklers?" asked one of the spellbinders. The other man laughed. "No," he replied: "not if I can rehearse 'em properly."
