Efforts To Collect Delinquent Taxes Discussed By School Board Members

School Board members voted Monday to increase efforts to collect delinquent taxes in the amount of slightly more than $37,000 now shown on the school's delinquent tax roll. Carroll King, school business manager, was instructed by the trustees to begin necessary legal steps to collect the delinquent taxes.

In other school business Ken McAllister, superintendent of schools, reported on the recent drug seminar for the student body. He reported that the drug seminar is a state requirement for grades five through twelve, and one more is planned before the end of the current school year.

McAllister also noted that Sonora schools' share of the

Broncos Vie For State After Semi-Final Win

by KAY KERBOW

Someone forgot to tell the Sonora Broncos that Petersburg was the number one team 'A' in the state and that their defense only allowed an average of 3.3 points per game in 13 games. The Broncos put 49 points on the scoreboard and only allowed the Buffaloes eight points, those coming in the fourth quarter against a Bronco team of reserves.

The Broncos used a balance of passing and running attacks to gain 590 yards total offense. Quarterbacks Eddie Sutton and Jimmy Cade completed 9-12 passes. Sutton threw two touchdown passes to Mike Taylor and Cade drilled another to Bruce Kerbow. The running attack was paced by Milton Noel and Scott Jacoby. Noel racked up 101 yards on 19 tries while Jacoby added 61 more in eight tries. Most of the yardage came in the first three quarters as the

Football Tickets

Tickets for the State Championship game between Sonora and Pflugerville, at San Angelo Saturday, are available in the offices of the high school principal and elementary school principal. Tickets purchased here will cost $1.50 for students and $2.50 for adults, while those bought at the gate will cost $2 and $3, respectively.

last period was played by reserves.

Defensively, the Sonora team played its usual brilliant game. The defense allowed the Buffaloes to penetrate only to the Bronco 43 until late in the fourth quarter when they put together a scoring drive. Kerry Joy, Tony Renfro, Scott Shurley and the entire defensive secondary deserve special recognition.

The defense allowed only 166 yards total offense, 83 yards on the ground and 83 yards in the air. The defensive secondary intercepted two passes to help defeat the Buffaloes chances of winning.

The first score for the Broncos came with 9:42 left in the first quarter on a 52-yard scoring strike from Sutton to Taylor. Taylor added the extra point making it 7-0 in Sonora's favor.

They scored again on their third possession when Arnold Samaniego capped a 90-yard drive with a 54-yard romp on the fifth play from scrimmage. The kick failed but it was 13-0 and the Broncos were on their way to their fourth semi-final win.

The offensive machine of the Devil's River Bandits rolled on as they scored again on their next possession. Milton Noel climaxed a 54 yard drive with a one yard plunge and added the two point conversion making the score 21-0 with 6:59 left in the game.

The Broncos chalked up one more score before intermission when Kerry Joy intercepted a Petersburg pass and returned it to the Buffaloes 23. Jacoby sprinted 15 yards for the tally and Taylor's kick made it 28-0 at the half.

Petersburg's already dim hopes were quickly extinguished when Sammy Perez returned a Buffalo punt for a score. Perez fielded the ball at his 40, retreated to his 30, waited for a wall to form, and ground out 80 yards on way to a score. Taylor's kick made it 35-0 with 8:31 left in the third quarter.

The Broncos were not to be stopped! They scored again on their next possession as they drove 61 yards for the score. Again Sutton hit his favorite receiver, Taylor, who went 47 yards on the pass, scored both the TD and the conversion with 4:12 in the third quarter.

The regular team left the field and the reserves went to work from the Petersburg 37. After three plays, Cade hit Kerbow from 25 yards out and Taylor's kick split the uprights making it 49-0.

A Bronco fumble set up Petersburg's only score from 47 yards out against the third Big Red defensive unit. Quarterback Mike Perry hit Joe Robertson for 35 yards to the 12 where Terry Martin carried to the two and Jay Thompson ramed over from the two for the TD. Martin ran the conversion to wind up all scoring at 49-8 with 11:16 in the game.

The Broncos came out of the game without serious injury and should be in good condition when they tackle Pflugerville in San Angelo Saturday night for the state championship.

School Lunch Program Outlined At Meeting

A new policy on free and reduced-price lunches for school children was approved at the special meeting of Sonora Independent School trustees held November 25, and was reviewed at the meeting Monday.

The current charge to all students who can pay in the cafeteria is 35 cents per lunch. However, since some families find it difficult to pay this price, the school will provide these lunches free of charge or at a reduced price to those children determined by the principal of each school to be unable to pay the full price for their lunches," superintendent of schools Ken McAllister said.

When you hear all the talk these days about 'new sources of revenue' and 'tax reform' you can bet your bottom dollar that your tax bill will soon be going up. When a study reveals that we could save a half million dollars by eliminating county welfare boards look out—by eliminating the local board you'll lose what they're saving you by knowing every welfare client personally. Regional boards would lose that much by not knowing each client. When tax dollars are saved it always seems to cost more."

He says we should drop all air traffic with any country that will permit a hijacked plane to receive protection in their country, and we should demand return of aircraft and passengers in good condition within 24 hours. This makes sense."

THE DEVIL'S RIVER PHILOSOPHER SEZ... He Comes Up With An Improved Idea For Using Discarded Glass Bottles

Editor's note: The Devil's River Philosopher on his bit-terweed ranch on Dry Devil's River has another idea this week, but we're not so sure about it.

Dear editor:
 According to an article I read in a newspaper last night scientists are making steady progress in converting the 48 billion bottles thrown away every year by Americans into something useful. They're making what they call "glassphalt" out of them.

They grind them up, mix them with other ingredients, and then make paved highways out of the stuff.

This is a fine idea but as usual scientists are going about it the hard way, just as they've been spending years perfecting a computerized, automatic meter reader to eliminate somebody's having to come around every month to see how much water or gas or electricity you've used, when what I'd like to see them do is eliminate the meter altogether. Now in regard to grinding glass bottles up into paving material, that's fine, but under the system the scientists are working on the bottles have to be first used, thrown away, picked up, carried to a central plant, ground up, and then hauled back to wherever a highway is being paved.

This is a lot of wasted effort. Here we've all gone to the trouble of throwing the bottles along our own roads in the first place, so why can't the scientists figure out a machine that'll convert them into pavement right where they are? It seems unfair to have the bottles we throw out here in Sutton County wind up maybe as pavement in Tom Green County. We're just as much entitled to good roads as they are.

If they get this newer, improved machine invented there's just one other thing that'd need to be done.

We'd need a vast, nationwide training program to improve people's aim.

Like it is, some people are such poor shots and care so little about good roads they miss the right-of-way altogether and their bottles wind up in my pasture. I don't need a paved road there. Too many people visit me like it is.

Yours faithfully,
 J.A.

A Bishop Looks at Life Where Is Meaning?

By Everett H. Jones, Retired Bishop of the Episcopal Church

"Where can I find meaning and direction in my life? Am I doomed to a routine of boredom emptiness and futility?"

These are questions being asked today not only by confused young people but also by frustrated older people. There is a cult of disillusionment which proclaims there is no meaning. Books are written to support this thesis; there is a "theater of the absurd"; there are forms of art and music rooted in despair. Has Christmas anything to say to people who have no sense of meaning in their lives? It seems to me Christmas has this very important thing to say: "Behold a Person who lived on our planet who wore our flesh and faced problems such as we face; this Person demonstrated in action how much meaning life can have."

Christ did this without any of the material advantages we consider important. He even pointed out the dangers of material affluence: "What shall it profit a man if he shall gain the whole world and lose his own soul." (St. Mark 8:36)
 Christ did this in a remote corner of the world and largely in the midst of unimportant people.

Christ did this surrounded by misunderstanding, disloyalty and distrust; ultimately he did it at the cost of a cruel and inhuman form of execution.

Christ not only demonstrated meaning and joy in his own life but he gave joy and meaning to those who followed him and carried on his work. They kept this sense of meaning even when they were being put to death.

Christ made it perfectly clear that no man would have meaning in his life until he found something bigger than himself to put first. Christ called this bigger thing the will of God, or the kingdom of God.

Christ summed up his secret when he said: "Whosoever will save his life shall lose it; and whosoever will lose his life for my sake shall find it." (St. Matthew 16:25)

MARILYN MORMAN, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Morman, was a contestant in the "Make It With Wool" competition held in Junction, recently. The cape she is wearing here is brown and beige wool lined with fake fur. The arm openings are really enormous bound buttonholes, and the cape fastens with a large leather buckle. She is wearing a guacho with the cape and it is beige wool trimmed with dark brown braid. She repeats the dark brown in her belt, boots and hat. Her pants are midi-length, an illustration of the 1970 styles.

TEEN SCENE

By KAY KERBOW

Well, here we are in the state playoffs again for the fourth year. Last year the Mart Panthers ended a Bronco bid for their third state crown and put a damper on an otherwise enjoyable school year.

The boys know how it feels to go all the way to state only to be beaten and it doesn't feel too good, so they are determined to win this year. With the coaches, team, band student body and townspeople all behind this effort, how can we lose???

For the seniors, this will be the last pep rally and game that they will attend as a member of SHS. For Jimmy Cade, Scott Jacoby, Kerry Joy, James Noel, Sammy Perez, Tony Renfro, Arnold Samaniego, Scott Shurley, Eddie Sutton, Ben Snodgrass, Mike Taylor, Bill Thompson and Joe Wallace this will be the last time for them to step on the field in a Sonora Bronco uniform. When the game is over and the season ended, these boys can look back on their four years as a Bronco with respect and pride.

During the four years of their high school life the Broncos have won 46 games, lost 9 and tied one and after Saturday night, they will have won 47 according to SHS anyway.

This group of seniors have seen the Broncos go to state three times winning once and hopefully twice. Only one other group of seniors can say the same, as the seniors of 1970 saw the 1966 Broncos and 19-68 team win state. Last year they watched the Big Reds play valiantly all year long only to be thwarted in the state game.

A giant pep rally will be held tomorrow night at 7 in the gymnasium. All students, faculty and Bronco backers are asked to come and join in the last pep rally of the year, not only for the seniors, but the entire team needs the support of Sonora.

The GAA's are selling Bronco pennants at $1 each. These are felt pennants designed by the GAA, and would make a nice item for any Bronco fan. Oh, by the way, GAA stands for Girls' Athletic Association! —SHS—

The United Youth Fellowship will go Christmas caroling Sunday night at 5. They plan to meet at the Warren Hemphill home and leave from there. All youth are invited to join in the fun. Refreshments will be provided.

Following the caroling, the UYF'ers are invited to the community Christmas program at the Methodist church. The program will involve quite a few youths and any SHS'er who would like to sing in a youth choir should come to the senior high Sunday school class at the Methodist church at 9:45 Sunday morning. Only one song will be required of the youths and the program will be entertaining and worthwhile for all.

—SHS—

The varsity team of the girls basketball system brought their record to 3-3 as they defeated the Junction team. They will play the Lake View Maidens in San Angelo tonight. Their next game after their Lake View contest won't be until January 6 against Junction, there.

—SHS—

This week has been a busy one at SHS. Of course, football is on everyone's mind and most of SHS has been active in preparing for the game or pep rally.

If that isn't enough to keep one busy, there's always a play to rehearse for, a basketball game to get ready for, or if worse comes to worse—study! Finals begin tomorrow with only the first period test to be given and the others will be given Monday and Tuesday.

School will be dismissed Tuesday afternoon for the holidays and take up again January 4.

the Snowman

Maggie and June worked all morning making their snowman. He got so big that they had to fetch a stool and stand on tip-toe to make his arms and to cinder-button him. The mailman helped put on his head.

When they napped that afternoon, the sun shone hot and bright, and the south wind blew. When they woke, their snowy pal had dwindled and his cinder face cried dirty streaks. Sadly they turned away.

Sometimes life is like that snowman — grand and glittering with all the things we have. Then the hot winds of disaster blow, and their importance vanishes and we are left with emptiness.

What makes life meaningful? If possessions can't make us happy, what can?

Our churches have the answer. Through worship and prayer they teach us to find the joys of spirit.

The 58-day General Motors strike has shocked many people into an awareness of the public involvement in the outcome. There is to be an increase in automobile prices of from 4 to 7%. The settlement set the pattern for other wage increases, which will affect most Americans. And the attraction for foreign-made cars is due to be enhanced.

It was the biggest and costliest strike in more than a decade. All told, losses in sales, wages and taxes totaled $7-billion.

Although new wage levels in the auto industry are upward bound, exorbitant wage settlements in the construction industry in recent months have been the most severe. Here are a few examples:

In Los Angeles sheet metal workers went on strike for 17 days before obtaining a settlement for an hourly increase from $5 to $12.06.

In Hartford, Conn., electricians struck for 28 days and got a 28.2% increase—from $6.75 to $12.50 per hour.

In Columbus, Ohio plumbers received a 14.4% jump in pay, from $8 per hour to $11.77. Bricklayers in Connecticut upped their pay by 32.1%, marking an increase from $6.07 to $10.10.

In Cleveland pipefitters ended a five month strike with a settlement that gave them a $3.15 hourly wage increase which by 1972 will bring their base pay to $10.38.

This pattern of increases has been noted in scores of instances through the country. And the public is required to pay the bill.

This trend makes it more imperative than ever that, to protect the public interest, new concepts in labor legislation be undertaken. One approach which deserves serious consideration is to create a Labor Court, fashioned after the system in Australia, which would allow a fact-finding judicial system to resolve all labor-management disputes and put an end to strikes as a method of settling such issues. I have a bill pending which would do this.

THE FAMILY LAWYER

Safety's Hidden Helper

In Miami, a woman sued the city for damages after her heel caught in a manhole cover. In short order, the city bought 500 new manhole covers with smaller holes.

Nonskid rug pads began to sell better in Philadelphia after a home owner was held liable to a visitor who slipped on a loose rug.

A major chemical company, concerned about possible lawsuits, reexamined hundreds of its labels and found 60% of them dangerously inadequate. All were changed for the better.

In Santa Monica, hundreds of rotting trees were chopped down because of a court ruling on liability for falling branches.

These examples illustrate the positive side of an oft-maligned, oft-underrated social institution: the damage suit. As a spur to safety, as a stimulant to the prevention of accidents, the damage suit has an influence that would be hard to exaggerate.

True, only a limited number of individuals or companies ever face the ordeal of actually defending themselves in court. But the effect of these cases is enormously multiplied by the legal doctrine of "precedent."

According to this doctrine, each case sets a standard of behavior which will apply, in varying degree, whenever a similar situation arises again. Each finding of liability is a warning to one and all that similar conduct in the future may well result in similar liability.

Of course, the damage suit (like many valuable medicines) can have unfortunate side effects. A playground director, nervous about the possibility of being sued, removed every swing, slide, and carousel from the premises. Doctors, fearful of malpractice claims, may "play safe" by avoiding the use of new treatments which their professional judgment would approve.

But such things do not change the basic virtue of the damage suit: the subtle, steady pressure it exerts toward careful conduct. When a golfer behind you hollers "Fore!", he may be motivated by a sense of etiquette. Or he may be motivated by simple kindness. But he may also be motivated—very powerfully—by visions of winding up at the target end of a lawsuit.

Girl Scouts Plan Bangle Campaign

Preparation for a bangle campaign which is a supplement to the Christmas Seal letter campaign of the Big Country Tuberculosis and Respiratory Disease Association, is getting underway in this county. The campaign is sponsored by Mrs. Terry Kinard and Girl Scouts.

The little double-barred cross is a symbol of the Tuberculosis Program. These pins are sold for whatever one cares to donate.

This area is served by a group of board members, two from each of the 32 counties. Board members serving from Sutton County are Mrs. Dennis Dunnam, R. N. and Charles Browne, M. D.

Funds from donations help to promote education, research, detection and treatment of tuberculosis and respiratory diseases.

MRS. KENNETH KORDZIK, high school teacher, was an entrant in the senior division of the "Make It With Wool" contest held in Junction recently for this division. Mrs. Kordzik models the peacock blue suit that she made. The bound buttonholes are emphasized with silver crown buttons. Her versatile suit can be worn with a blouse or a scarf.

Merry Mood Makers

Christmas is coming, and with it visions of sugarplums in every head. To make the holiday mood merry, bake a batch of Jolly Jam Tarts. These tiny turnovers filled with sparkling jam add to the fun of holiday feasting. The tender, slightly sweet pastry boasts the toasty, nut-like flavor of quick or old fashioned oats. — And a dusting of snowy confectioners sugar gives the cookie-pastries a festive holiday look.

JOLLY JAM TARTS

Makes about 2 dozen tarts

- | | |
|---|-------------------------------------|
| Pastry: | 1/2 cup shortening |
| 1-1/4 cups sifted all-purpose flour | 4 tablespoons cold water |
| 1/2 cup sugar | Filling: |
| 1/2 teaspoon salt | 1/2 cup strawberry or raspberry jam |
| 1/2 cup quick or old fashioned oats, uncooked | Confectioners sugar |

Heat oven to hot (400°F.). For pastry, sift together flour, sugar and salt into bowl; stir in oats. Cut in shortening until mixture resembles coarse crumbs. Add water and stir until just moistened. (If necessary to make dough hold together, add another tablespoon cold water.) Form into ball.

Roll pastry out on lightly floured board or canvas to 1/4-inch thickness. Cut with floured 3-inch round cookie cutter. Place a scant teaspoon jam on half of each circle. Fold remaining half over jam and seal edges with a fork. Prick top of each. Bake on ungreased cookie sheet in preheated oven (400°F.) 12 to 15 minutes. Cool. Sprinkle with confectioners sugar.

VIEWING EARLY-DAY SONORA FROM THE COURTHOUSE lawn one may see many changes have been made in the past years. The old Decker and McDonald Hotels are now part of Sonora's history as is the white fence that once sur-
