School Board Accepts Teacher Resignations

Three resignations were approved at the Monday meeting of the Board of Education when school trustees met in the superintendent's office. Mrs. David Porter, kindergarten teacher, Bill Coffey and James Buchanan presented their resignations. Buchanan, head of the high school speech department, has accepted a similar position with the Midland schools.

Buchanan has enjoyed a successful career in his three years as speech teacher in the local schools with his students winning State in last years competition in Class A schools in their presentation of the play "The Madwoman of Chailot".

A second place in state competition was awarded the group this year for the production "A Midsummer Night's Dream".

In other board action Mrs. Doreen Mitchell, who had resigned earlier, was reemployed. Coach J. T. Hill, head of the athletic department, presented coaching assignments. Southwest States General Agency was approved for student athletic insurance for 1972-73. Reports from the tax office and from the superintendent's office were approved.

Ambulance Service May Be Curtailed

County Judge J. W. Elliott said at the county commission meeting Monday there is a possibility that Sutton County will be without ambulance service after June 1, unless some action is taken in the immediate future. Darcy Carroll, who has been operating the local ambulance service assisted by Louis Olenick and Hollis Rogers, plans to discontinue the service at the end of this month. It is reported that Carroll plans to move to Galveston in early June.

Elliott said it is hoped that a plan can be undertaken whereby ambulance service will be available locally on the basis of emergencies only.

Additional transactions at the commissioners court included the report of Peace Justice Mat Adams, who reported 121 cases were handled in JP Court last month with a total of $4,072 collected in fines.

Drama Class Plans To Present Play 8 p.m. Monday

The comic strip "Peanuts", with its beloved characters by Charles M. Schultz, comes alive on the SHS stage when the Speech and Drama department presents "You're A Good Man, Charlie Brown" this Monday night at eight.

This production, designed and directed by James Buchanan has been in rehearsal for the past six weeks, and features Mrs. Leo J. Wilson as musical director and pianist and ensemble composed of Carol Weston, flutist, and Matt Daventport, percussion.

Cast in the familiar roles of this famous comic strip are Ric Hill as the inimitable Charlie Brown; his dog Snoopy is Terry Mitchell. The overbearing but always funny Lucy is Molly Morris and Linus with his blanket is portrayed by Mark Rousselot. Schroeder, the pianist, is included in this performance as Steve Street, and the brunette Patty is Karen Hemphill.

Crew for the show includes Michelle Rousselot, assistant to the director; Gayle Glimp, prompter; Larry Berger, stage manager and Rick Street, Lights. Teddy Coker and Randy Burleson are in charge of properties; Gene Trainer and Bobby Draper, set, and Kelley Sentell, costumes.

This is a show not to be missed and will please everyone in the whole family. It will be the departments last production of the season, and will be the last directed by Buchanan.

Don't miss seeing Snoopy's doghouse, hearing Lucy's loud mouth, and feeling the happiness that comes from "You're A Good Man, Charlie Brown."

"Grassroots Opinion"

BELLEVILLE, KANS., TELESCOPE: "There never has been anything wrong with being poor. But America is supposed to be the land of opportunity. Yet our welfare program almost encourages the illiterate, the women without husbands to breed larger and larger families so that they can obtain more public funds for each additional child. On the other hand educated Americans are reducing the size and numbers of their families, while at the same time having to produce the funds through taxes to support more offspring with poor mentality. This plan must be reversed or America the land of opportunity may well become the land of unfortunates."

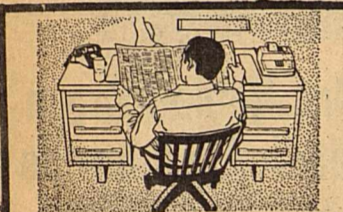

MANNING, IOWA, MONITOR: "The federal government is handing out free chewing gum to 600 Florida children in a major effort to stop tooth decay. The gum is spiked with a chemical which reduced cavities and tooth decay in test animals by 60 percent. Scientists say the chemical apparently is so effective it could be put into candy and make sweets good for your teeth instead of bad for them."

DARLINGTON, WISC., LA-FAYETTE COUNTY NEWS: "A member of the older generation stated, 'I survived WWII, three auto accidents, 2 bad marriages, 4 grandchildren, 2 depressions, 13 company strikes, 3 mortgages, and a bankruptcy—and some fresh teenager tells me: You don't know what life is all about.'"

APPLE VALLEY, CALIF., NEWS: "There is a public service announcement on television, and also on a radio, that always brings my blood to a slow boil. It's the one where people are urged to remove their keys from their cars so they won't contribute to the delinquency of some poor, young boy who may not be able to keep from submitting to temptation and might steal your car. From the tone of the announcement, it makes it appear as if the victim of a car theft is the criminal, not the young thief; and it is this tone that I object to. It is a theme that rationalizes theft and excuses the teenager on the grounds of his youth and natural desire for adventure. Whatever happened to the old practice of teaching children self control—not after they are in their teens, but from the time they are first able to understand the word 'no', right up to the day you turn them loose on an unsuspecting public."

FWOLVER, IND., BENTON REVIEW: "There is no doubt that ours is a free country—that's where a man can say what he thinks if he isn't afraid of his wife, his neighbors, his boss, his customers and the federal government."

Is now the time to buy land?

Acquiring that farm might seem more practical with financing through the Federal Land Bank. Land is easier to pay off when costs are amortized over extra years with a long-term Land Bank Loan. Your total cost of borrowing, too, can be less. Ask us for help: We know land values; we will inspect the property. We will then try to make a loan that meets your exact needs.

He Hopes Ban On Exaggerated Claims For Headache Tablets Doesn't Spread

Editor's note: The Devil's River Philosopher on his bitter-weed ranch on Dry Devil's River seems to be fighting a headache, his letter this week indicates.

Dear editor:

As everybody knows, the best spot on television to advertise a headache remedy is about two-thirds way through the evening's newscast. By that time the demand for it naturally skyrockets and I have a notion that the manufacturers of the tablets know the worse the news is the higher their sales go and they're bound to smile a little, like the gas and oil people rubbing their hands in anticipation when the first cold wave of the year hits.

In this connection, the Federal Communications Commission doesn't object to pushing the sale of headache remedies right at the time when anybody who is paying attention to the news needs them the most, but it does object to one company's claiming its remedy is stronger or better than another when tests indicate they're all about the same.

There it is considering adopting a rule forbidding the practice, and is even considering requiring the companies to spend 25 percent of their advertising budget over the past two years to correct all claims of superiority.

I guess this is all right, but I hope the Commission doesn't go any further.

For example, you don't suppose it's considering a rule forbidding one candidate from claiming his remedies for the nation's ills are stronger and better than another's? It isn't going to stop a candidate's saying if you'll take two of his remedies that are fast, fast, fast you'll feel better immediately and greet inflation with a smile? He can't say, take two planks from my platform at bedtime and sleep, sleep, sleep? He can't ask you to vote for him and end that nagging tax ache? He can't say his timed-released policies will get you through the next four years faster than anybody else's and you'll wake up feeling great?

The Commission had better think about this. It's fixing to take all the fun out of politics.

However, it has its bright side. If a candidate after spending a million dollars on television trying to get elected is then required to spend 25 percent of that correcting all his exaggerated claims, it'd then be the television advertising manager's turn to smile. One man's poison is another man's meat, although if too much preservative is added it comes out the same.

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

LITTLE OSCAR GUTIERREZ puzzles over the water in the draw, as at his age he hasn't seen the water running in 'Dry Devil's River' too often. Fairly heavy rains last weekend, over two inches, dropped temperatures to the 60's and high 50's and found Oscar and lots of other townspeople scurrying for winter coats to keep out the damp chill.

Farm Road No. 1691
Morning Worship 10:30 a.m.
"He that hath an ear to hear let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches." (Rev.)

There's a lot of sentimentality in the observance of Mother's Day. Let's be practical.

Only one thing really counts: MY CHILD!

There is no glory in being a mother unless one has learned how to prepare a child for Life. Nor is there any pride in motherhood unless one has done her utmost to share with her child the great spiritual heritage which is her own.

People love to compliment us: "Just like her mother!" they say.

If mothers through the centuries had been satisfied with that goal, our civilization would have stagnated in the days of the cave men.

The mark of a devoted mother is her desire to make of her child even a finer person than she or her husband has become. And in this common aim she and her husband find their staunchest ally in the Church.

Coffee Break

by Shirley Hill

First of all I'm sure not telling my age since I am past 20, but I was not born in the 19-20's—I will tell that much. The very fact that several people thought the 'Guess Who' was me last week has given us several good laughs. It all started Wednesday night after the paper came out and my good friend, the County Clerk, called to say "I finally guessed one. I can sure tell by the smile that the Guess Who was you this week". Hazel McClelland, who was the real 'flapper' in the picture, said if she ever needed a stand-in, she would call me. TUESDAY NIGHT BRIDGE CLUB Mrs. Joe Brown Ross entertained the Tuesday Night Bridge Club at her home May 2. Lemon chiffon pie and coffee were served.

Those in attendance were Mmes. R.A. Halbert, Alice Jones, L.E. Johnson, Jr., Edwin Sawyer, P.J. Taylor, Louie Trainer, E.D. Shurley, Vestel Askew, Leo Merrill, R.C. Vicars and guests Mrs. Coleen Robbins and Mrs. Belle Steen. Winning high club was Mrs. Vicars; high guest, Mrs. Steen; bingo, Mrs. Askew and Mrs. Merrill, bingo. WESTS TOUR EASTERN STATES Mr. and Mrs. C.W. West, Sr. have returned from nine days touring the eastern states. Some of the points of interest they saw were Cade's Cove and Smokey Mountains in Tennessee and North Carolina. They also toured the south side of Nashville where movie stars and recording artists homes are located, and report that they ran into snow in Tennessee. —SKH— Mrs. Dean McLain, daughter of Roy Valliant and the late Mrs. Valliant, was elected president of the Ochiltree County Teachers Association in Perryton for the coming year. Mrs. McLain is the former Martha Valliant. Jack Allen of Perryton was elected president of the Panhandle Producers and Royalty Owners Association at the 42nd annual meeting of the association held in Amarillo last week.
