Christian Scientists Set Year's Theme At Boston Meet

"Christian Healing: The Demand on Everyone" was the theme of a meeting in Boston attended by Christian Scientists from around the world, including a number from the San Angelo area.

In a special message to the Annual Meeting of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Mass., June 5, Arthur P. Wuth, the new chairman of the Christian Science Board of Directors, called on the members to dedicate themselves anew to the practice of Christian healing.

'Each one heal one is the imperative of today," Wuth declared, specifically noting the 'great need of healing' drug addiction and disease, poverty and materialism. Firsthand evidence of the immense practicality of Christian healing is presented each week at Wednesday evening testimony meetings held at First Church of Christ Scientist, 720 S. Abe Street, and other branches of The Mother Church in the San Angelo area, according to Norman Rousselot, the Assistant Committee on Publication here.

Ed Whitesides, marketing specialist with the State Department of Agriculture and Ross McSwain, information director of the Mohair Council, are supervising the exhibit. The exhibit will be open to the public June 13 and 14, and should be an enjoyable and informative addition to the Wool and Mohair show, announced County Agent D. C. Langfor d.

NATIONAL 4-H WOOL Four out-of-state teams will compete in the National 4-H Wool Judging contest and they include a Colorado team from Laramie County of Ron Crego, Sonja Nelson, Jim

Scott and Sharon Coleman. Two teams from New Mexico include the Chavez County team of Dennis Jones, Louis Jones, Charlene Schmid and Mary Henson, along with the Lincoln County team of Amy Foster, Mel Gnatkowski, Melvin Yancy and Janet Davidson. A team from Douglas, Wyoming composed of Denise Irwin, Jim Nachtman, Max Smylie and Bruce Reed will also compete. Sutton County 4-H'ers will not be eligible for the competition this year since the club has won two out of the last three years, and due to other winnings this year, the senior members are ruled ineligible. However, several Texas teams will be competitors in the wool judging and they include the following 4-H teams-San Saba County, Bandera County, Kerr County, McCulloch County and Kendall County.

Primera Baptists Plan Film Showing At Church Sunday

Primera Baptist Church, located at Chestnut and Santa Clara Streets, plans to present two showings of the new film, "The Return", Sunday, June 11 at 3 p.m. and again at 8 p.m., announced the Rev. Ray Garnett, pastor of the church.

The film, thirty minutes in color, is based on the book The Late and Great Planet Earth", by Hal Lindsey which has sold over 700,000 copies. The book and the film are about Bible prophecy, and the return of Israel into the world of nations. After being scattered throughout the world for nineteen hundred years, the Jewish people have returned to possess their land just as God said they would.

In announcing the showing of the film, the Rev. Mr. Garnett said, "God's prophets, unlike todays so called 'prophets' never missed on their prophecy, and if the door to God's plan for the future of our world is to be opened, then we must look to Israel for the key. Our searching generation needs answers to the problems of our world, our nation, and most of all, ourselves.

'The Retum' does not attempt to predict when the end of the world will come or when Jesus will come, but for those who are interested in our future, what God says about our future, and what Israel means to our future, plan to see this exciting and informative film. The film will be shown at the church, and admission is free' he concluded.

Sutton County Oil Wells Production

Sutton County oil wells have produced 2, 588, 444 barrels since recorded production began in 1948. The county in 1971 produced 716 barrels a day for a total of 261, 495 barrels.

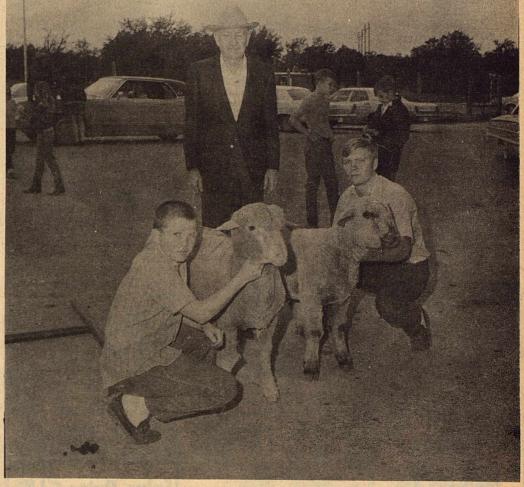

Texas crude oil production in 1971 topped 1 billion barrels for the seventh consecutive ve ar as reserves fell toward the 13 billion barrel mark, according to a study by the Texas Mid-Continent Oil & Gas Association.

Texas wells produced 1,210; 818, 658 barrels last year, bringing the state's 82-year production total to 35.3 billion barrels. Reserves dropped 172,000 barrels.

"With producers unable to increase drilling activities, additional oil supplies in Texas hinge on recovering more oil from existing fields, Robert A. Buschman, Association president, commented. Secondary recovery units in Scurry County contributed a major portion of the county's 5. 5 million barrel increase in 1971, which jumped the county to No. 1 in Texas.

Fourteen Texas counties produced more than 25 million barrels last year. The top three were Scurry, 73 million barrels; Ector, 69 million barrels and Andrews, 67 million barrels.

The top three counties in cumulative production are Gregg, 2.2 billion barrels; Ector, 1.7 billion barrels and Andrews, 1.5 billion barrels.

After Some Hard Thinking He Emerges With A Solution To The Litter Problem

Philosopher on his bitterweed ranch on Dry Devil's River tackles a big problem this week, but we don't know with what success. Dear editar:

I was out walking along a country road yesterday and just to be doing started count ing the empty cans and bottles people had thrown out of their cars. In fifty yards on one side of the road only I found 36.

No use figuring up how many that'd come to, multiplied by the thousands and thousands of miles of roads in the country, but everybody knows it's up in the billions.

And I got to thinking, regardless of the efforts being made to put a stop to this, by everybody from the environmentalists to the newspapers to television to Boy Scouts, Congress and probably the pulpit, apparently people just aren't going to stop doing it. Empty a can or bottle andfling it out the window. Just one won't matter.

Therefore, a way has got to be figured out to stop it. First,

Split, Yugoslavia-As I write this report it is early morning and I am looking from the window of this modern new hotel at the brilliant blue water of the Adriatic Sea. From several directions ferry boats are bringing their passengers from the near-by islands to the large port of this industrial city at the center of the famous Dalmatian coast.

To my left is the sprawling palace of the Emperor Diocletian built in the late third century. It is really just the shell of the original majestic structure; the scarred ruins of the ancient walls are now filled with innumerable small shops, cafes, twisting passageways, and a massive Roman Catholic Church whose bell tower dominates the scene.

Behind the palace area there are new tall apartment buildings row on row, some just finished and others under construction. Further behind as the mountains begin to rise from the coast, huge cement plants belch forth their pollution as they create a product much in demand in this developing country.

I paint this picture because it tells much about Yugoslavia today. As we have travelled by car from the Italian border on the north to the Albanian border on the south, this is what we have seen: a coast line of 400 miles said to be the most beautiful in Europe. fringed by a series of islands on one side with towering mountains rising almost immediately on the other; shiny new hotels built and being built to house the waves of tourists now arriving; astrange mixture of relics from the past (old castles, churches, and fortifications) and also the latest products of the modern world. It is hard to realize we are behind the Iron Curtain. The border formalities were brief and simple. Our first night was spent in Opatija, famous for a century as a health resort, where there seemed to be more tourists than natives.

Miss Shelley Morriss Party Honoree

A miscellaneous shower was given Saturday, May 27, to honor Miss Shelley Morriss, bride-elect of Jim Brooks. The party was held in the Bryan nome and hostess were Mmes. Hunt, J. Sears Sentell, Nolan Johnson, W.R. Cusenbary, John Fields, Lea Roy Aldwell and
