Chamber of Commerce Directors Give Top Priority To Housing Problems

Discussion in regards to the acute housing shortage was given top priority when directors of the Sonora Chamber of Commerce met Monday night in their first official meeting following election of new officers in May. President Charles Graves appointed several committees to begin work in the Chamber that he believes to be of prime importance.

J.R. Turnbull of HNG Oil Company and Tim Thorp of Buster's were appointed to head up a committee to anticipate housing needs of families living here. Questionnaires are being mailed to individuals of various companies located in Sonora. Additional questionnaires may be obtained at the Chamber of Commerce office for any person wishing to submit one. This newspaper is also carrying a copy of the questionnaire for the benefit of those persons who fail to obtain one.

Tommy Thorp of Thorp's Laundry and Lemuel Lopez of Commercial Restaurant are heading the membership drive. Upon motion by Thorp, minimum dues for individuals are set at $5, $10 for businessmen for the remainder of this calendar year. This presently applies to new members only. Persons wishing to unite with the Chamber should contact Thorp, Lopez or the chamber office.

President Graves also appointed a by-laws committee to be headed by Dr. Joe David Ross and Royce Mears of the Branding Iron Smokehouse. A study of by-laws of surrounding chamber organizations will be made and the committee will present recommendations to the local directors of any changes they deem necessary.

NOTICE TO VOTERS, PRE. 4
The June 1 run-off election for voters in Precinct 4 will be held at the Clarence Simon ranch, according to Nolen Gibbs, precinct chairman.

According to contract regulations one clause in the contract denies any teacher the right to engage in any other business outside the school. The clause reads: "Second party shall not engage in any other business or profession directly or indirectly, for full time or for part time, but shall devote his and her entire working time to the performance of this duties under this contract. Second party shall accept no money or other things of value for instructing pupils outside of school hours. (Exception-Subject to the approval of the superintendent of the Board of Education).

From the minutes of the meeting: Mr. James Hunt moved and Bill Savell seconded the following in view of Mr. and Mrs. Gosney's announcement of their growing business interests and involvement, and the expressed policy of the Board which is stated in the contract under which they are employed, I move that Mr. and Mrs. Gosney's contract not be renewed.

Poison Control Meeting Set

It has been announced by the State Department of Public Health that the Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) has given its approval for the use of poison in Sutton County for the control of wildlife.

Before any poison can be put out the written consent of the landowner must be obtained.

To expedite this a meeting has been set for Thursday, May 30, 1974 at 8:00 o'clock p.m. in the District Court room in the Courthouse in Sonora, Texas. All ranch owners and/or operators are urged to be present. All other interested persons are also invited to attend.

Local C of C Representatives To Attend IH 27 Meet

Charles Graves, president of the Sonora Chamber of Commerce, announced that representatives from the local chamber office plan to attend the Texas Highway Department's public meeting May 29 in Houston. The purpose of the meeting is the extending of Interstate Highway 27 from Lubbock.

The meeting will be held at 7 p.m. in the auditorium of the Waltrip Senior High School at 1900 West 34th Street and will provide citizens the opportunity to discuss the needs for the extension of this highway facility.

A study is being made locally of the need for extending IH 27 from Lubbock, or its vicinity, in a southerly direction to intersect with IH 20 and proceeding further to intersect with IH 10. Many business people here are interested in promoting the IH 27 intersection to be made with IH 10 in the Sonora area.

Promotional ideas are welcomed and any person who has information or ideas that would be helpful in routing IH 27 through the Sonora area, should contact the Chamber office before Monday.

I feel that the situation is such that it would be a great handicap to expect complete performance from them under the circumstances. The motion passed four to three. The following voted for the motion: James Hunt, Bill Savell, Mary Adele Balch and Dorothy Pope. The following voted against the motion: Lin Hicks, Sammy Stewart and Bud Whitehead.

Mr. Hunt expressed the board's appreciation to Mr. and Mrs. Gosney for their services to the school system and wanted to congratulate them on their new venture.

Bill Savell moved and Mrs. Balch seconded the motion that the contract which has been used for the last several years be the contract offered teachers until specifically changed by the school board. The motion carried.

Gosney has been in the employ as Junior High School principal since the closing of Elliott School, where he served as principal. Mrs. Gosney teaches in the elementary level.

Certainty of Punishment Helps

Those who want to commit violence against their fellowmen have been much in the news lately. Kidnappings and holding for ransom have become quite popular. This form of crime was not so attractive when the death sentence was the penalty for kidnapping. To judge the effect of penalties on crime reduction, consider airplane skyjacking. Between 1968 and 1972 there were 147 attempted skyjackings in the U.S., and 91 were successful. Then came tougher rules and penalties and skyjacking virtually ended. The last successful skyjacking of a U.S. domestic airliner occurred on November 10, 1972.

This does not mean no one tried. During 1973, some 3,500 passengers were prevented from boarding their aircraft at U.S. terminals. Over 3,000 were arrested and, according to U.S. News and World Report, some "...60,000 weapons were seized, including 2,162 guns and 23,280 knives." The lesson is plain. If society wants to stop violent people from committing atrocities, law enforcement has to be beefed up, and the fear of apprehension and punishment has to be felt by the potential perpetrators of crime. That is the only thing that will stop them.

Judging Teams Place In ASU Contest Saturday

Three judging teams represented Sutton County's 4-H Club in the State 4-H Wool and Mohair and Range Judging contests held at Angelo State University Saturday. The junior range judging team composed of Rex Surber, Rick Powers, Julie Stewart and Brad Johnson placed first. Rex Surber was the high individual and Rick Powers was the third high individual. Coaches of this team were Mrs. Claire Powers, Mrs. Diana Baggett and Mr. Dalton Merz.

The senior wool and mohair judging team composed of Susan Schwiening, Marsha Finklea, Larry Finklea, and Pam Powers placed second. Susan Schwiening was the second high individual and Marsha Finklea was the fourth high individual. Rex Surber, Paula Friess, Mark Van Hoozer and Trina Powers competed in the junior wool and mohair judging contest and placed fourth. Rex Surber was the tenth high individual. Mrs. Claire Powers was the coach of the junior team and Corky Schwiening was the coach of the senior team. Mrs. Patsy Schwiening, Mrs. Jody Finklea, Mrs. Claire Powers, Mrs. Alice Jones and County Agent Clint Langford, attended the contest with the 4-H members.

Future judging contests that the Sutton County 4-H members will compete in will include the Bandera County Wool and Mohair Judging Contest on June 1 and the Sonora Wool and Mohair Show on June 12. Wool and mohair and range judging practice will be continued at the 4-H Center on Tuesday and Thursday until the Sonora Wool and Mohair Show.

Recently a relative of mine died and donated her body to the University of Texas Medical School. It initially really shook me up, but under Texas law it is a decision for the individual—relatives cannot alter nor revoke the decision. Talking to people around San Antonio, I found that a surprising number of what I consider the above average thinkers have done the same thing. In my original estimation it was an inane procedure, and I felt sure that the morticians lobby would have the law changed.

At the time of the relative's demise, however, someone turned the light on. The lady died and the chaplain said a concise benediction over the remains. A service that lasted two minutes, and the family turned and walked away. The remains may contribute to saving the life of a young person in the future, the soul has been consecrated to the infinite power for judgement. My self regard was lowered to a prudish, self-centered, narrow provincial. Previous impression notwithstanding, that was the cleanest, least painful and satisfactory reverent disposal of the remains I have ever observed.

Contrasted against the usual procedure of lying in state while friends file by, the ordeal at the church, the eulogy at graveside describing at great length a human being that possibly never existed, the simplicity of the dedication was serenely beautiful with an aura of reverence I cannot remember having encountered in a similar circumstance.

Looking at the after effects; no family financial hangover and only people who loved her at the benediction, put me in the position of a believer in tradition unimpeded by progress. Taking my beliefs apart in a critical manner, hypocrisy stands out. We laugh at the Egyptians for their attempt to achieve eternal preservation of the physical remains, yet what do we do? You guessed it! You are invited, if you are ever at the University of Chicago, to observe the mummies in the Oriental Institute, or the British Museum in London. Imagine if you will, the impression seeing the state of the physical remains on public display, would have on the immortal soul when it came and observed. Are we making mummies for a future civilization to excavate and put on display? Judging from the great reverence (undetected) of archeologists excavating the dead, no thank you.

Looking at the impact after the ceremony I must go back to a funeral I was dragged to as a young boy in the bottom of the depression. The patriarch of a ranching family was laid to rest at a cost of $8,000. It shocked me since we then lived at a bare survival level, a far cry from my 25¢ every two weeks. I am, temporarily at least, able now to go through a grocery store without declaiming bankruptcy, but the shock is still there. First, the ceremony did not fit the man, a wise man and above all economically prudent. He carved an empire out of America by carefully weighed spending and would have been shocked by such an unwarranted expenditure. Second, the family if they had provided the service the deceased would have wanted and invested the remainder of the money in stock the results would have been shocking. That money would have paid dividends in 1973 of from 135 to 485 thousand dollars. I wonder if the collected descendants did do well? The dividends of the program followed are hardly negotiable.

I am not trying to make converts nor am I attempting to set aside the freedom of individual choice, far from it. Although I never considered my relative particularly astute, in retrospect, it now appears by a heck of a margin she was smarter than I was. When a man sees a better way than his own—there is little alternative to joining it.

The Devil's River Philosopher Sez.....

He's Puzzled; Economist Puzzled, Over Puzzlement Regarding A Recession

Editor's note: The Devil's River Philosopher on his bitter-weed ranch on the Dry Devil's River discusses economics this week, approximately.

Dear editor:

According to an article I read in a newspaper yesterday 374 of the nation's leading economists are divided on whether or not we have a recession.

Some of them say they believe we're in a recession, others say they don't believe so. Those who say we're in one believe we'll be out of it by the third or possibly the fourth quarter of the year. Those who don't believe we're in one did not say when they thought we might be.

I have thought this over and have concluded the only way to find out if we're in a recession is to vote on it.

It's hard for a $50,000 a year economist to have any personal knowledge of whether or not we're in a recession. He can look at the oil companies whose profits are up about 75% and say, nope, no recession. He can look at steel profits, up 100% and say times are booming. But if he's an economist on the faculty of some university not getting enough financial help from the ex-students and he hasn't had a raise in five years and has five kids, he can detect all sorts of signs of recession.

I can tell you, recessions, like appliances, aren't what they used to be. In the old days nobody had to take a poll of the economists to find out if times were hard. In the first place they didn't have the money to hire them. In the second place it'd have been like hiring a weather man to tell you whether or not you were in a drought.

I'm no economist and I know nothing about witchcraft, but anybody who has to depend on somebody else to tell him how he's doing financially doesn't need an economist, he needs a keeper.

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

Nursing Home News

by Carl Mathews

The nursing home came out on top and is running way ahead of the hounds and the residents of the nursing home are sitting back their chops awaiting the next barbecue.

The barbecue was a great success thanks to Mr. Martin, Jo Barber and the boys in the kitchen. Also Mrs. Lola Hernandez who prepared the Spanish rice. She also brought the long table cloth. Reubin Brown brought the decorations such as the hay, the saddles and ropes.

Our director worked very hard getting everything in place and getting the food on the firing line. Our director's sister, Mrs. Sonny Anderson baked the individual cupcakes which had all residents names on their cakes and HI on the guest cakes.

We are getting along good with our work in the way of making our handicrafts. We have plenty of pot holders so before you ladies burn your fingers or your hands, come out and buy a pot holder. Your money will be well spent. We have them from yellow to all colors. We would like for all the ladies of the auxiliary to visit us in the craft shop and see what we have to do with.

We are supposed to have the rock polisher in motion soon. We have been given some rocks to start our work on.

How DOES your garden grow?

The mystery of life and growth was one our daughter took for granted... until last summer when she "adopted" a flower bed all her own. Then she began to ask what makes her garden grow.

I once had a course in botany; I thought I knew all the answers. But none of them seemed to register with Mary.

So my wife took over the answering department. God makes things grow! That made much more sense to Mary.

Is it, after all, a contradiction of science to admit that we live in a world full of mysteries... mysteries that happen before our very eyes... mysteries that reveal the wondrous mind of the creator?

At graduation time, we fully realize that our sons and daughters need a spiritual foundation for all other knowledge. They will find it in the Church.

Do you want the San Antonio political machine to own your next U.S. Congressman?

Or do you want a congressman like Bob Krueger who will represent all the people of the 21st district?

Unlike NELSON WOLFF, the handpicked candidate of the San Antonio political machine, BOB KRUEGER is a man who believes that its time for government to represent the great majority of the American people.

Bob Krueger is the only candidate who has taken stands on every major issue.

He has spoken out:

- For a balanced budget
- For the right to work on a national level
- For a strong military
- For an agricultural policy which encourages rather than discourages agricultural production
- For a freer market system
- Against forced busing
- Against general amnesty
- Against gun control
- Against metro-government
- Against wage-price controls

HAPPINESS IS PLAYING GOLF!... And there certainly was plenty of it last week. Last Tuesday, Trouba Derrick, Becky Glasscock, Wanda Neville and Ernestine Hext won the first flight.

Then on Wednesday, after our monthly luncheon, ten of us journeyed over to Brady for their annual Partnership tournament. Out of the ten, six came home with trophies. Wanda Neville and Bobby Fawcett won second place in the championship flight, while Poochie Olson and Sammy Espy won second in the first flight. Chicken McMillan and Jo Neville won second in the third flight.

Then on Friday, eight of us moseyed on down Del Rio way for their annual Invitational Tournament held on Saturday. Friday night, they held a putting contest. Sammy Espy and Woody Beasley won first place while Monica DuRussel and Bob Poole won second.

On Saturday, Wanda won the championship place of the invitational. She won with an 89. The top team was composed of Bobbie Fawcett, Jo Neville, Marilyn Bloodworth and Janice London. Jo also won low gross in Class B handicap, Muriel Brown won second place low gross in C class handicap. Both Brady and Del Rio tournaments were lots of fun and we all enjoyed every minute of them.

Eldorado had a two day couples tournament on Saturday and Sunday. In that tournament, Mary Barrow and Rippen won third in the first flight; John Cotten and Elaine Donaldson won second in the first flight, while Poochie Olson and Raymond Mobley won first in a card playoff in the second flight. Batts and Wilma Friend were first place winners in the third flight. Poochie had the longest drive in that tournament. Wayne and Ann Herrmann also played.

On May 15 before all the tournaments began, we got a good start with a wonderful dinner catered by Louise Odom. Hostesses were Ann Herrmann, Ganelle Anderson and Pauline Thompson. There were twenty-five present. Mrs. Jane Breeding, Elizabeth Neill's sister, was our guest.

Score of the month was won by Jo Neville. Play for the day was to start on the putting ringer.

Question of the week! Why does Sammy play with a great big paper clip on her skirt?

If Wolff is anti "big" labor, why did the AFL-CIO in 1972 give him a 67% voting record, one of the highest of any state Senator? Do you know where Wolff really stands?

When Bob and I were married Dad advised that we buy an order duplex to live in. The rent from the second unit plus our own monthly payment would quickly pay off the mortgage. we did as Dad suggested. Now, ten years later, we traded the duplex for a ranch-style home that we own free and clear. Dad surely gave us good advice.
