All Stars Lose To Ozona 9-3

Sonora's Little League All Stars traveled to Ozona July 18 for the season's first all star game and were defeated by a score of 9-3.

Ozona went on a power hitting spree in the first inning of the game and out of eight hits in the game, five were home runs. Young chalked up two, and Thurman, Ramos and DeHoyas, had one each.

Rebelley, Ozona's southpaw pitcher, held Sonora to only four hits and two walks. Sonora used three pitchers in their try to quell the Ozona attack. Edward Livesay was the starting pitcher and gave up seven runs in two innings of play. Irving Vallejo relieved Livesay in the third inning and gave up a home run to the first batter at the plate but pitched three more innings in which the Ozona team was unable to score. Joey Kirby pitched the final inning.

Sonora's opportunity to score was slight as they had only three base runners through the first five innings of play. In the sixth inning Sonora was behind 9-0 when David Reyna led off the inning with a base hit. Martin Huerra hit a short ground ball to place two Sonora Little Leaguers on base when Rex Surber grounded out to first and knocked in the first Sonora run.

Eddie Favila then doubled in the second run. After the Ozona pitcher walked Robert Noriega, Kirby hit a double that let Noriega score the last point of the game. Lee Burch was called on a high pitch and

Grassroots Opinion

Edgerton, Minn., Enterprise: "There are certain truths which are true no matter how much the world may question or deny them. In the economic realm, for instance, you cannot legislate the poor into freedom by legislating the wealthy out of it. You cannot multiply wealth by dividing it. Governments cannot give to people what they do not first take away from people. And that which one man receives without working for, another man must work for without receiving it. Nothing can kill the initiative of a people quicker than for half to get the idea they need not work because the other half will feed them, and for the other half to get the idea it does no good to work since someone else receives the rewards."

Bloomsburg, Pa., Press: "The army is now training women as part of the airborne forces that drop out of airplanes. The new bail-out has been changed from 'Geronimo' to 'Pocahontas'."

Bellevue, Kans., Telescope: "Considering inflation, a revision of the minimum wage certainly is in order. But consider what else the congress has done. It has extended coverage to millions of workers not now under the minimum wage. One Kansas editor points out that for example, persons employed in the home will be covered though not at a full rate...Also to be covered as domestic help will be babysitters. Image what sort of a wrench this will toss into the economy of working mothers. Instead of helping persons who do this type of work, it will throw a lot of them out of work and result in larger use of day care centers."

What really puzzles us is this. Just where in the U.S. Constitution do congress and our federal government get the right to set the wages of a baby-sitter, a maid, a gardener or the kid down the block who mows lawns to earn a little spending money?"

Huntington, Ind., Herald Press: "It has been estimated that the average American family is exposed to about 32,950 TV commercials annually. Isn't there a constitutional guarantee against cruel and unusual punishment?"

Gresham, Nebr., Gazette: "I got all steamed up about the way things go in all parts of our political houses and realize that we must wake up, take more interest, push our neighbors, you know those who are always saying 'what good does it do to vote?' We can't change it! That's a bunch of hogwash. We are all important so start getting politically minded right now!"

Audubon, Iowa, News-Advocate: "Beat the high cost of living. Go on a diet because of the food shortage and take long walks because of the gasoline shortage. Your doctor will think this is a great idea, and you can also beat him out of the high cost of being sick."

By O.C. Fisher
The Gulf Coast Tick, scourge of cattle raisers and game conservationists, may soon be brought under effective control as a result of experiments being conducted at the U.S. Livestock Insects Laboratory at Kerrville.

Drawing upon the technique which played havoc with the screwworm, the scientists are successfully experimenting with the use of pheromones to disrupt mating behavior and for trapping and surveying the pests.

For a period of ten years studies have been conducted of pheromones of insect species, but in the past a study of these chemicals on the behavior of ticks has been lacking. These recent tests are reported to be very encouraging and hopefully may eventually spell the doom of Mr. Tick.

Among the researchers engaged in this break-through effort are entomologist William J. Gladney, chemists Rolland R. Gabbe and Delbart D. Oehler, and biological technician Stanley E. Ernest. These determined specialists are entitled to much credit for what they are doing.

Spending freely...The press reports that Federal Judge John Sirica, who seems to have assumed the dual roles of judge and prosecutor in the Watergate cases, got worried because one of the some 600 presidential tapes contained an 18-1/2 minute skip. The judge, using federal dollars, hired some experts to try and figure out what caused the skips--malfunction, as some authorities contend, or erasures. The judge's technicians reported back they thought erasures did it--and attached a bill for $100,000 for services rendered! Now it's reported his Honor doesn't know what to do with the report.

President Proclaims Farm Safety Week

WASHINGTON, D.C.—The week of July 25-31, 1974 has been declared National Farm Safety Week by President Richard M. Nixon.

The proclamation signed by the President setting the observance emphasizes the important part agriculture plays in the overall economy of the nation. The production efficiency of U.S. farm operations enables the average farmer to provide the food needs of an estimated 50 people.

And safety is just as essential as technology in maintaining this enviable production record. Farm accident costs run into the billions of dollars annually. But no monetary value can be placed on the human suffering, loss of lives, and interrupted flow of produce resulting from farm accidents.

President Nixon urged renewed emphasis on farm safety precautions not only during this week but every week of the year. He also requested industry and government support in a continuing effort to reduce the toll of accidents on agricultural production.

Viewpoint

By T. Driskell
Taxation, along with athlete's foot and Watergate, appears to be a pest which is persistently permanent. Very well, granted they are a pain that must be endured, but just because they are essential is no cause they should not be scrutinized very closely, both ways, first the necessity for levying new taxes and last careful attention to the manner in which the collected monies are expended.

I see there is a bill in Congress now to lift the capital gain freedom from taxation from fifty to seventy-five percent. A great boost if you are selling stock certificates or a large estate, but if you are in the $5000 to $10,000 income tax bracket, and own no stock or inherit no estate, the proposed law must smell of minority benefit. It is not unusual however, our tax laws are so full of loopholes now that it reminds one of catching houseflies with a tennis racket. We need a total taxation reform, and it should be based on justice against the background of survival. For example, a woman who makes $3,000 a year and has to pay $230, while the late Dodge hearse made in excess of 5 million and paid no tax, makes income tax small bad as it is.

What should be done? It is only too obvious. The loopholders, like some of our elected officials, must be checked. We need to figure out what the survival income is (it will vary according to area) and begin our income tax at that level. Above the survival level the tax should be a progressive percentage of income, and all this head-scratching (it's hard on the scalp you know) about deductions could easily be cancelled by allowing no deductions. In one clear blow, it would eliminate left handed government subsidies on population proliferation, holding stock for six months, borrowing money on interest, automobile accidents, stock losses. It would be quite straight forward and really, the government couldn't care less what you spend your money for, as long as their percentage is deducted beforehand. It might also down the road allow IRS to run simple computer checks and save reams of correspondence on disallowed deductions. Makes nice thinking, but it is somewhat frivolous when you look at the Congressional Record in any depth.

Expenditure of the tax monies is another sore point, perhaps cancerous point would be a better way to put it because if we do not get it within reason, it will finish us. Television says the interest on our national indebtedness is $60,000 per second, and still congress will not balance the budget. In fact it appears that some Republican Congressmen want the president to send a message to Congress asking it to reduce spending. It is shameful to think that we spend almost $100,000 per year for our Congressmen and our expenditures cannot be brought within the limits of our income. It means on the most basic terms if you are a young American you'd better be saving horseshoe nails or old razor blades because the dollar must reach a comparative value, or even lower.

The fact that our overpaid Congressmen will not balance the budget, and the Republicans want the president to send a message to Congress about something that is obvious makes one wonder if the Republicans should not revert to being Whigs. The malady is bipartisan, however, it must be remembered that we got where we are under the auspices of the Democrats. It is obvious that something has to give somewhere and the drag out of Watergate makes the ineffectiveness of some agencies only too clear. So the things that must give are our freedom of movement, economic freedom, and our personal liberties. Economic sense must be made if democracy is to survive.

The Devil's River Philosopher Sez... Economics Study Puts Him So Far Over His Head He Almost Drowns

Editor's note: The Devil's River Philosopher on his bitter-weed ranch on the Dry Devil's River gets tangled up in economics again this week.

Dear editor:
If a person pinched himself every time he hears or reads something it's impossible to believe these days he'd stay black and blue. It's wall-climbing to hear a witness in Washington solemnly swear he can remember one thing in his favor and can't at all recall another thing that'd convict him.

But one of the oddest things I've read lately, having nothing to do with remembering, was a statement the other day by the chairman of the President's Council of Economic Advisers, Herbert Stein.

In opposing a 5 to 10 billion dollar tax cut to slow down inflation, Mr. Stein said it wouldn't do any good. "We shouldn't be putting that much money in the hands of the people because they'd only go out and spend it," he said.

"Wait a minute," I said to myself before hunting for a new spot to pinch, "you mean the government will keep that 5 to 10 billion dollar denied tax cut and put it in a savings and loan account? You mean the federal government, which has over-spent its income every year for the past 25 or 30 and is now over 300 billion dollars in debt, is lecturing the people for spending money?"

I got up and went for a long walk. Maybe an economist can but I can't understand why if the government spends 10 billion dollars it's all right but if the people do it's inflationary.

In fact, I have as much trouble understanding economists as economists have understanding the economy. For instance, economist Stein said that inflation should be blamed on the people for lack of self-discipline, for too many demands, and that they should return to the "old time religion" of saving and controlling their desires.

This is true, people shouldn't spend more than they make and ought to add to their savings every pay day. But did you ever stop to think what would happen if everybody did? If everybody saved and saved until we all had say $200,000 apiece drawing 8 percent interest, or $16,000 a year, which ought to be enough to live on, how much do you think $16,000 would be worth in buying power? Probably $250, and everybody would have to go back to work again.

It doesn't pay to think too much about economics. It's safer to just go on like we are, stopping every now and then to cuss the government.

Yours faithfully,
J.A.

TIME FOR FALL GARDENS

Despite the hot summer weather, it's time to get things in shape for that fall garden, says a vegetable specialist for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service. Most popular spring vegetables can be planted in July and August along with the cold-hardy types such as broccoli, cauliflower, cabbage, greens, parsley and carrots. Adequate watering is the major consideration for fall gardens due to hot, dry conditions. It's best to grow your own transplants; this will require four to five weeks.

LIFE IS FULL OF QUESTIONS

One of the most common we spell with just three letters, W-H-Y.

As children we want to know the reason for everything. Why is snow cold, or sugar sweet? We grow into adolescence and the question is usually linked with restrictions: Why can't I? In maturity there are more and greater problems to solve, troubles and disappointments to overcome. And still we ask the age-old question, "Why?"

The Church knows our questions and our problems and invites us to come, bringing them with us.

In the Church we find new friends. Many of them have known sorrows and disappointments and through their faith have found courage. They will inspire us to try again.

Still more important we can learn to know the Christ. In His Divine wisdom He holds the answers to life's questions. In His love He invites all who need His help.

Church of Christ Adds Spanish Worship Services

The Sonora Church of Christ, located one block north of the post office, announces the addition of Bible classes and worship services to be conducted in Spanish as well as English.

The Spanish speaking people will meet in the educational wing with Jose Valdez, a student of the Sunset Church of Christ School of Preaching in Lubbock.

Spanish worship will begin at regular meeting times. On Sunday Bible study begins at 10 a.m., with worship at 11 a.m. and evening worship at 6 p.m. On Wednesdays there will be Bible study beginning at 7:30 p.m. All are urged to attend, stated Mr. Roy McGaugh, minister of the church.

Workmen were busy last week with highway construction on IH 10 site northwest of Sonora. This picture, taken from the overpass near Sonora Veterinary Clinic, gives good view of Sonora's newest, Devil's River Motel.

Brucellosis Reactors Approved

Texas cattlemen will now be able to receive federal indemnity payments from the U.S. Department of Agriculture for brucellosis reactors in their breeding herds when the infected animals are marketed for slaughter.
According to D.C. Langford, county agent for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, the indemnity will be paid only on reactors found in official herd tests—not in tests at sales yards.

The decision to make the payments was made at the request of the Texas Animal Health Commission to effectively strengthen efforts to eradicate brucellosis in the state.

All states are now participating in the brucellosis indemnity program, points out Langford. At present about 99 percent of the nation's cattle are free of the disease, but the remaining one percent continue to threaten the livestock industry. A large percentage of the infected herds are in southern and southwestern states, adds Langford.

The indemnity—$50 on grade cows and $100 on registered cows and bulls—will be paid on reactors bled on or before

July 1. No indemnity is allowed for grade bulls, steers or spayed heifers.

Reactors will be branded with the letter "B" on the left jaw and will be tagged in the left ear. They must go to slaughter directly after the test.

According to Langford, indemnity claims will be initiated by state or federal regulatory officials or accredited veterinarians. First indemnity payments may be delayed several months after claims are received but such delays should be eliminated once the program becomes established.

Anthrax Found In Texas County

Anthrax has hit cattle in Falls County in Central Texas, and producers in neighboring counties are urged to keep a close check on herds to detect any spread of the disease.

According to D.C. Langford, county agent for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, about 100 cattle have died in Falls County, presumably of anthrax. All of the county is under quarantine to prevent movement of animals outside of the infected area.

Vaccination is encouraged in the affected county as well as in neighboring counties. The vaccines are considered to be safe and will not spread the infection nor contaminate the premises, points out Langford. The vaccine is available from local veterinarians at about 25¢ per dose. Early vaccination is recommended in high risk areas since six to eight days are required to develop an immunity in a vaccinated animal.

To prevent the spread of the disease, all sick, dying or dead animals should be examined by a veterinarian, notes the county agent. Carcasses should not be opened to allow blood or body fluids to contaminate the ground. The germs that cause anthrax live many years in the soil until proper conditions exist when they again can cause an outbreak of disease. Some infected animals show practically no symptoms while others are apparently distressed, breath rapidly and run a high temperature, points out Langford. Death can come in one to two hours.

The disease can also affect horses, swine, sheep and goats, and humans. In case of contact with an infected animal or contamination from one dead of anthrax, immediately disinfect the contaminated skin or area with a strong disinfecting solution and contact a medical doctor at once.

All dead animals as a result of anthrax must be burned, according to Texas law.

According to Langford, a special task force is monitoring the situation in Falls County and the surrounding area. It is located at the Falls Motor Motel in Marlin.

Langford said there appeared to be no immediate threat of anthrax in the Sutton County area but beef cattle producers should be aware of the problem and should contact local veterinarians if symptoms of the disease should occur in their herds.

COUNTY AGENTS TO HOLD STATE MEET IN IRVING

County agents for the Texas Agriculture Extension Service will be in full force at the annual meeting of the Texas County Agricultural Agents Association August 4-6 in Irving. Theme of the meeting will be "Making Texas Number 1 in Agriculture." Sessions will be devoted to professional improvement and the future of Texas agriculture.

Wonderful West Texas Travel

Texas history from a century ago and scenery shaped through the ages dominate the vacation opportunities of Far West Texas, that region rolling west of the Hill Country to El Paso.

And today's 55 mph speed limit stretches the fuel far enough to see it all: the Sonora Caverns, Langtry, Big Bend, restored old Fort Davis, and Guadalupe National Park and El Capitan.

These and more than five dozen travel stops are mentioned in the new "Wonderful West Texas Fun and Adventure Map," says J. Fike Godfrey, executive vice president of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce.

Sonora Caverns, best known of the Edwards Plateau caves, was discovered only in 1961.

Langtry is the home of Judge Roy Bean's frontier court and an attractive Texas Highway Department tourist information center. It shares the Rio Grande region with Amistad (Friendship) Reservoir and the Texas-Mexico towns of Del Rio and Ciudad Acuna.

Up river is Big Bend, one of Texas' two national parks, a blend of desert and mountains, horseback trails and house trailers, and the canyon water of Santa Elena, Mariscal and Boquillas.

Plenteous air currents make Marfa the site in early summer of the national sail plane meet. Twenty-one miles north, 19th century Fort Davis isn't far from the 20th Century's McDonald Observatory, both open to the public.

The Texas Highway Department also recommends a scenic 74-mile drive, looping through the Davis Mountains.

More mountains lie across Interstate 10 between Van Horn and Ysleta, location of the Tigua Indian Reservation, the only one in West Texas.

Just beyond there's populous El Paso and Juarez. A tank of gasoline goes a long way there, with the handy concentration of border shopping, bullfights, dog and horse racing and the Mt. Franklin scenic tramway.

Between El Paso and Carlsbad Caverns rise El Capitan and Guadalupe Peak, both above 8,000 feet, and Guadalupe Mountains National Park.

To the east, the wind has sculptured 4,000 acres at Monahans Sandhills State Park. Oiltown Odessa has America's second largest meteor crater and Globe of the Southwest, an authentic replica of the original Shakespeare Globe Theatre, with professional talent.

And there's Balmorhea State Park with one of the world's largest swimming pools, Fantasyland in Iraan with Alley Oop and dinosaur tracks beside U.S. 67 between McCamey and Fort Stockton.

Details are available in a library of 200 brochures available from the West Texas Chamber of Commerce, Box 1561 in Abilene, Texas 79604.
