Great defensive play by the Sonora Broncos held the Eldorado Eagles to 12 points last Friday night in Eagle Stadium. The Broncos will host the Llano Yellowjackets Friday night in Bronco Stadium. Game time is 8 p.m.

Broncos Overpower Eagles

By Bob Granger

Sonora unleashed an awesome offensive display Friday night in Eldorado as they crushed the Eagles 53-12. Led by David Snodgrass who rushed for 259 yards, and the pass receiving of Craig Parker who caught 3 passes for 106 yards, the Big Red rolled up 566 yards on offense for one of their biggest offensive shows in several years.

Eldorado got the first big break of the ball game after Sonora took the opening kickoff. On the first offensive play Sonora fumbled and Eldorado was in business on the Bronco 45 yard line. However, the Bronco defense held the Eagles to eight yards on three plays forcing the Eagles to punt and lose their chance to score first.

Late in the first quarter the Broncos drove from the Eagle 41 where Snodgrass waltzed into the end zone from six yards out. Cook added the PAT to give Sonora a 7-0 lead with 1:16 left in the first quarter.

A short time later the Broncos drove 74 yards in five plays, climaxed by an Elliott to Doan pass for 27 yards to give Sonora a 13-0 lead with 9:34 left in the first half. Cook's try for PAT was no good.

Eldorado came storming back after the second Sonora TD and quickly racked up a touchdown on a five yard pass play to get back in the game. The try for point after was no good.

The Broncos came right back as they returned the kickoff to their own 44. After a penalty moved the ball back to the Sonora 38, quarterback Hector Perez dropped back and fired a long pass to Parker who raced into the end zone for a 62 yard pass play. Again the PAT was not good and Sonora led 19-6 with 5:56 left in the first half.

Lightening struck again a short time later as Perez hit John David Cook on a 24 yard scoring play. Cook added the PAT and Sonora left the field at halftime with a 26-6 lead.

Late in the third quarter the Broncos struck again as they drove from their own 47 in five plays with Snodgrass going in from 13 yards out. Cook added the PAT and the score mounted to 33-6.

After the Sonora kickoff, Eldorado showed they still had some spark left, and in 12 plays drove from their 28 yard line climaxed Eldorado's scoring for the night on a four yard run. The try for PAT was no good, leaving the score at 33-12.

Other Sonora scores came on a 12 yard run by Gary Jones and another PAT by Cook.

A short time later Parker gathered in another aerial, this time from quarterback John Elliott, for 23 yards and a missed PAT gave Sonora a 46-12 lead.

Three More Screwworm Cases

Three reported cases of screwworms during the last few days have brought Sutton County's total cases to eight for the year.

Miguel Soliz discovered the parasites in the navel of a calf on the Nancy Bloodworth ranch, located 20 miles west of Sonora. H. W. Carroll of the R.A. Halbert Ranch, 15 miles east, reported screwworms in the tear gland of a cow and another case was discovered at the Barbara Jennings Ranch. This case was in the navel of a cow.

Clint Langford, Sutton County Extension Agent alerts all ranchers that with fall calving and some fall shearing still in progress, there is a continued threat of screwworms until frost. Sheep and goats should be sprayed out of shearing pens, new born calves should be checked regularly and all worm cases should be mailed to the Mission Laboratory.

4-H Horse Clinic Set Saturday

B. F. Yeates, Extension Horse Specialist from Texas A&M University, will conduct a 4-H Horse Clinic at the Sonora Park Association Arena Saturday, October 11 at 9 a.m.

Bronco J.V. Edges Ozona 12-0

By Bob Granger

Though dominating the game Thursday night in Lion Stadium both offensively and defensively, the Sonora Junior Varsity had to scrap for their lives to edge out a 12-0 victory over the Cubs.

The Junior Varsity defense allowed the Cubs only 23 yards rushing and six yards passing while the offense pounded out 189 yards rushing and went to the air lanes for 52 yards. The Sonora offense continually threatened to score throughout the contest penetrating the Ozona 20 yard line on eight occasions, but mistakes while they were in scoring position hampered them. Being held completely punchless by the Sonora defense, Ozona trailed by only 6-0 with three minutes left in the game.

Sonora took the opening kickoff and mastered a 13 play, 16 yard drive to the Ozona 9 yard line. On the next play quarterback Benny Granger kept the ball on a keeper around his left end and rolled to the one yard line where he fumbled into the end zone and Ozona recovered for a touchback.

The J. V. Broncos began a drive from the Ozona 43 yard line just before halftime and in 10 plays rolled into the Ozona end zone with three minutes left in the first half. Manuel Lopez raced off the

Susan McBee To Speak At Sonora Meeting

State Representative Susan G. McBee will discuss the new constitution as well as other matters of interest to wool and mohair warehousemen when the annual meeting of the Texas Wool and Mohair Warehouse Association is held Wednesday, October 15 in Sonora.

The meeting will be held at the Commercial Restaurant and will begin at 10 a.m. Following the program the group will be hosted to lunch by the Sonora Wool and Mohair Warehouse.

President of the organization, Joe Almond of Del Rio, urges all warehousemen and wool and mohair buyers to attend the meeting.

Firemen Donated Air Packs

A high-flying performance by an agricultural spray operator who usually flies low to spray herbicides to kill brush, has resulted in a gift that could help the Sonora Fire Department save lives.

It happened Friday when Joe Freeman, owner of Aero Ag Service, Inc., of Ballinger, officially presented two Scott Air Pack resuscitators to the fire department.

The resuscitators are used to pump life-sustaining oxygen into victims who are overcome by smoke, suffering shock, or unconscious from heart attacks or other injuries.

Freeman earned the right to make gifts to community service organizations of his choice by increasing his sales in 1974 of Dow Chemical U.S.A. herbicides in a Dow marketing promotion. He earned a total of $3,000 in awards, primarily by increasing use of Dow's TORDON 225 and 2,4,5-T on ranches in this and other West Texas areas. He also gave resuscitators to fire fighters in Ballinger and Sterling City.

"I've always been impressed with how well small fire departments are able to protect life and property with a minimum of equipment," Freeman said. "We hope this will make the job a little easier and safer for firemen in Sonora."

Freeman, who does most of his business with ranchers, said he chose the fire department to receive his awards partly because they protect both urban and rural areas. "Having a good fire department is just as important to a rancher as to a city resident," he said. "I know our own firm inadvertently started a fire on a ranch last year that could have done much more damage to grazing land than it did had it not been for firemen who brought it under control."

Sonora Volunteer firemen accepted two Scott Air Pack resuscitators from Joe Freeman, owner of Aero Ag Service, Inc., of Ballinger. Firemen on hand at the presentation were Carl Teaff, Gene West, Louis Olenick, Mr. Freeman, Bob Nevill and James McLaughlin.

Legalities Underway Concerning Sale Of Tax Delinquent Properties

City Aldermen heard a report from the law firm of McCreary and Huey Monday concerning the progress being made on a Sheriff's Sale of tax delinquent properties in the county. The attorneys reported that some progress had been made on the legal technicalities and that the finalization should come in the summer months of 1976.

The council also approved an official Municipal Airport survey.

A lease purchase agreement for John Deere machinery was approved by the council. The machinery consists of a grader, priced at $31,844, and a back hoe, priced at $18,131.

City Manager Bob Nevill

presented a comparative analysis in an effort to project city income for 1976. The comparison was between the years 1974 and 1975. The analysis showed a 31 percent increase in taxes; 26 percent increase in the electrical fund; 8 percent increase in the water fund, and 37 percent increase in the sewer fund.

Those attending the meeting held at the City Hall were Mayor Norman Rousselot; City Manager Bob Nevill; City Secretary Pat Robbins, and Aldermen, Walter Pope, Lemuel Lopez, Hershel Davenport, and Doyle Morgan. Tommy Thorp, local businessman, was also in attendance.

TROPHY BUCKS, WHERE ARE THEY?

By Joe Bill Averitt
Range Conservationist

Have you ever wondered why deer seem smaller and their antlers not as big as they use to be years ago? Well, deer usually spend all of their lives in a two mile radius of where they were born and will not move from an area unless they face starvation or there is not enough cover for them to live in. Deer numbers, weights and antler development will depend on range condition more than any other factor.
Reported studies show that antler size is governed largely by the quality of food eaten by the buck while his antlers are developing. Antlers develop normally during the spring and summer so long as forage is plentiful and of good quality, even though that of the previous winter may have been inadequate. Usually mature deer on good rangeland will have heavier and bigger antlers than that of younger deer, but it is not uncommon to find young deer on good range with 6 to 8 point racks.
Many people believe that small deer are a product of inbreeding and that the introduction of new blood into a herd will remedy matters, but bucks taken as fawns from a poor range and raised to maturity on good range reached average weights of nearly twice those bucks that stayed on the poor range.
Range condition will determine the number of fawn born each year, for example: ten prime-age does on a restricted diet equal to that of poor rangeland had eleven fawns, compared to ten prime-age does on a diet equal to that of good rangeland had eighteen fawns. The same results are true for yearling does; ten does on a restricted diet equal to that of poor rangeland had six fawns, compared to ten does on a diet equal to that of good rangeland had sixteen fawns.

TRUST ME!
Self-Trust — The essence of heroism.

In recent columns, I've been discussing some of the problems facing families with the addition of a second income. One of the most important to deal with from the start can be, "is the money yours, mine, or ours?"
There are, of course, many ways of handling the family's total income. Each party working can maintain a separate checking account and then pay half, or a fair percentage of all the common household items of expense.
These bills are in the "ours" category. Then the rest of the bills have to be divided between the workers as "yours" and "mine."
A more common solution is the pooling of the combined incomes into a joint checking account, from which all household items are paid. Then each person draws an allowance, usually on a weekly basis. This is for lunches, clothing and other incidentals.
Whatever system you choose, experts agree that it is important for everyone contributing to the family income to keep at least a part of their earnings.

He Wants To Depreciate Himself On IRS Return Like Quarterbacks

Editor's note: The Devil's River Philosopher on his bitterweed ranch on the Dry Devil's River thinks he has discovered a possible tax loop hole.
Dear editor:
These days, if you want to keep up with labor-management news you naturally have to read the sports pages and that's what I was doing the other night when I ran across an item that made me sit up straight.
According to it, owners of professional football teams can depreciate the cost of quarterbacks. That's right. Say they pay $500,000 for a quarterback. They then estimate he'll last for, at the most, depending on how much bigger and faster the blitzing linebackers get, about five or six years, give or take a few knee operations and broken ribs. So, they depreciate the cost on their income tax return.
While some people may be outraged at this, I think it's a splendid idea and if I can think of his name I'm going to write our Congressman and ask him to introduce a bill letting everybody in on this.
For example, say you're 50 years old and it has cost you a minimum of $2000 a year in food, clothing and shelter to reach that age. (You can't figure in what it has cost you to see $500,000 quarterbacks play, your subscription to Playboy and things like that.) All right. That's $100,000 you've got invested in yourself, subject to annual depreciation on your income tax.
Now comes the ticklish part. Do you elect a quick write-off, say 10 years, or do you string it out over 15 or 20 or even more?
Suppose you feel good and drive carefully and decide to depreciate yourself over 20 years. That means you can write off $5,000 a year on your income tax. Sure beats that $100 Congress allowed us last year. Make a joint return, depreciate you wife, and wind up with the government owing you.

Changing the subject, considering how the CIA has been opening mail willy-nilly, how the FBI and the Secret Service have ignored clear-cut warnings about individuals who feel like shooting a President, how Washington can't for the life of itself figure out an energy policy, how our foreign policy makers seem to believe selling arms to all sides is the way to secure peace, how the Russians continue to outsmart us when it comes to buying grain, how the big cities are going broke, considering all these and a few more you are probably thinking of, do you sometimes get the feeling that this country is being run mainly by incompetents?
Yours faithfully,
J.A.

Get the most "freeze" for your freezer!

There's probably no more stalwart household servant than your electric freezer—think of the variety of healthy, flavorful meals it's helped serve up to your family! Make sure you're getting the most "freeze" for your freezer by following Reddy's consumer tips:

Don't overload: Efficient freezing calls for adding no more unfrozen food at one time than 2 or 3 pounds per cubic foot of your freezer's capacity. This ensures unfrozen food will freeze within a healthy 24 hours and that your freezer isn't overworked.

Take advantage of sales: Avoid overstocking with commercially frozen food that's always available; use your freezer as your own bargain counter and store foods you can buy on sale. But do allow space for short-time baked goods, leftovers and special party foods.

Lock in flavor: Use moisture and vapor-proof materials especially designed for freezers to wrap your foods. Tightly sealed, these lock in flavor and moisture and prevent "freezer burn" (surface drying) on foods. Don't use wax paper, bread paper or regular cellophane for freezer foods.

Label packages: Date and identify freezer packages so 1) you don't accumulate a lot of mysterious shapes and 2) you'll be able to pick out foods that have been in the freezer longest.

October May Prove To Be Peak Month For Texas Screwworms
Texas' peak number of screwworm cases for the year may come this month, says a U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA) veterinarian.
September's 3,705 laboratory confirmed cases of this livestock parasite from 94 Texas counties brought the state's nine-month total to 9,381. This tally ranks 1975 second only to 1972 in severity of infestation, says Dr. David A. Mitchell.
The acting veterinarian in charge of the Animal and Plant Health Inspection Service (APHIS) Screwworm Eradication Program says October has been the month with the year's most cases in seven of the past 13 years. September has never, so far, been the month recording the highest number of screwworm cases.
South Texas, where many ranges are experiencing a heavy ear tick infestation, has contributed the biggest share of the state's 1975 cases. Wounds made in ears by ear ticks pre-dispose animals to screwworm infestation. However, ear ticks are expected to slack off in October.
Increasing numbers of screwworm infestations are expected in the sheep and goat rearing areas of the Hill Country, Trans-Pecos, and Big Bend region during October. Shearing season, and its concurrent cuts and scratches, is underway in the area at this time of year.
Mitchell urges livestock owners to watch their animals carefully for screwworm infestations. In addition to

CHRISTMAS SEALS TO ARRIVE THIS MONTH

The American Lung Association will begin mailing Christmas Seals this month. The local chapter encourages everyone to answer this call.

My Thanks

Shortly after moving to Sonora in July to go into business with Faye and Leon Parks in the Big Tree Restaurant, I became ill and have spent most of my time in one hospital or another. Since that time the generosity and thoughtfulness of the good people of Sonora have made my illness an almost bearable one.

The City Police Department, our local ambulance driver, Dr. Browne and his staff, the hospital staff, the Rev. J.C. Hancock and his Baptist parishioners, customers at the Big Tree Restaurant, and fellow workers at the restaurant, are just a few of those who deserve my special gratitude and respect. A special thanks go to our good friends, Faye and Leon Parks, without whose help, we would have been lost.

Cards, letters, flowers and gifts have been received from many persons whom I have no other means of thanking.

The people of Sonora are wonderful.

A Very Special Thanks To Each
 And Every One Of You

Christopher Columbus had trouble recruiting sailors for his early voyages. Men were afraid, but the bravest enlisted and sailed off to the wonders of a new world.

Most of us are afraid of the unknown. We have our qualms and doubts about a new job, moving to a strange city, beginning a marriage, or simply facing the uncertainties of tomorrow. We do not know what lies ahead, and we worry about being able to cope with it. In this ever-changing world, we instinctively yearn for that which does not change.

Whatever tomorrow brings, we can have the peaceful conviction that the love of God for His children is trustworthy and everlasting.

Discover an abiding security. Worship this Sunday.

Bob Krueger's Weekly Report

A number of people have asked my views on the sale of American wheat to Soviet Russia and other countries. I have replied that while I do not believe that the U.S. Government should subsidize the sale of grain overseas by offering foreigners lower interest rates than are available to Americans, I believe it is necessary to trade with other nations and we must sell them those things which we produce that they want to buy.

The products that we have which others want most are agricultural. If we wish to buy from foreigners such products as oil, cocoa, sugar, radio and television sets, cars, etc., we must have something to sell in order to be able to pay for them. Last year the cost of foreign purchases of our products came to $12 1/2 billion, or as much as we pay for imported oil. American farmers were able, by their ability and enterprise, to produce agricultural products cheaper than foreign farmers do. Thus we sold three-quarters of our wheat crop, one-half of our soybeans, and one-quarter of our corn, and still had enough for domestic consumption. Some people argue that such sales increase prices at home but this is not necessarily the case. And it is unrealistic to think that we could buy from overseas without selling to people overseas as well.

Only 6c of the cost of a loaf of bread goes for the wheat itself. The rest goes to labor, transportation, packaging and other costs. Therefore, I am convinced that it is in the American interest to sell overseas, but these agricultural sales should, whenever possible, be made on a long-term basis. If farmers know several years in advance, for example, how much wheat the Russians are committed to buy or how much soybeans the Japanese will take, they can plan for production with greater certainty and this will be in our interests as well as theirs.

I spoke last week with the head of a large corporation that is trying to arrange for the shipment of liquid natural gas from the Soviet Union to the United States in order to provide gas for states on the eastern seaboard. Russia has large gas supplies which our eastern states desperately need in order to avoid plant

Pete Snelson Named To Committee

Lieutenant Governor Bill Hobby announced recently the appointment of Senator W. E. "Pete" Snelson to serve on the Agriculture and Rural Development Committee of the Southern Legislative Conference of the Council of State Governments.

The Southern Legislative Conference of the Council of State Governments is made up of the 15 Southern states, and serves as a resource to state government and its official leaders.

The Agriculture and Rural Development Committee membership is composed of key appointees from the legislatures of each of the 15 states. Each state's Commissioner of Agriculture serves as an ex officio member. The committee studies problems facing agriculture and the agricultural economy, and with the assistance of the Council's research assistants, prepares recommendations for action by the states and federal government.

The committee's next meeting will be held in New Orleans November 20-21.

When ironing embroideries, appliques or monograms, place them face down on a thick bath towel. This makes the design stand out rather than be flattened, Lynn Bourland, family resource management specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M University System, notes.

Teen Scene

By Dottie Cawthon
Lisa Bryant

The high school column has two new editors to tell the news, Dottie Cawthon and Lisa Bryant. Dottie just moved down here from San Antonio where she lived for eight years. She went to Churchill High for two years and has moved here to live with her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. John Carroll, and to finish her junior year at SHS.

Lisa moved here in the middle of last year from Fort Worth where she has lived all her life. She moved here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Low. Lisa is also a junior.

The news is really happening this week in high school.

Nominees for Halloween Queen are senior, Rhonda Snyder; junior, Natalie Redman; sophomore, Peggy Lynch; and the freshman's choice is Dorella Myers.

Pictures are coming up! Senior portraits are going to be made Wednesday, October 15 from 8:30 to 3:30. A $10.00 deposit is required. Checks should be made payable to Marquise Studios, Inc. Seniors are advised to wear colorful clothing. Boys should wear sportcoats.

Seniors will have a cap and gown picture taken on Thursday, October 16 at 8:30 to 12:00.

Other school pictures will be made on Thursday, October 16 from 8:30 to 12:00. Wear colorful clothing.

Looks like trouble is ahead for students because it's report card time again! Good luck everyone!

The junior class members are trying to raise money for the Junior-Senior Prom. We are selling raffle tickets on a 30.06 gun, a hair dryer, and a blender. The drawing will be on November 1, and tickets are only a dollar. You have a chance for all three prizes with one ticket, so contact a junior and show your support.

The juniors will be selling mums for the Ozona game on October 24. They will be selling the mums on Monday, October 13 through Thursday, October 23 at noon. Contact a member of the junior class if interested.

Saturday morning at 5 a.m. some of our speech and drama students will be leaving for Odessa to attend a workshop. We congratulate those lucky enough to attend this.

Well, that's enough news for this week.

If you need softened butter for baking in a hurry, shred it on a vegetable grater, using the larger holes.

Ranch Tour October 15 At Spofford

A tour of the Texas A&M Rio Grande Plain Experimental Ranch near Spofford is set for Wednesday, October 15, from 11:30 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. This ranch was recently acquired by the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station under a long-term lease arrangement to conduct beef cattle, range management and wildlife research.

This ranch tour is being sponsored by the STAR Program's beef cattle, range and wildlife task forces, the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station, and the Texas Agricultural Extension Service. The tour will give all area producers an opportunity to see the ranch and to see and hear the research activities underway and that planned for the future. Participating in the activities will be Dr. Stewart Fowler, Research Director; Dr. Pat Reardon, Range Research Scientist; Dr. Larry Varner, Nutrition Research Scientist; Dr. Lytle Blankenship, Wildlife Research Scientist; and Dr. A. L. Hoermann, Extension Livestock Specialist; all from the Texas A&M University Research and Extension Center at Uvalde.

Activities will start at 11:30 a.m. with a "dutch treat" barbecue served by the Kinney County 4-H Clubs. A discussion of the ranch situation and research planned will begin at 1:00 p.m. at the ranch headquarters.

The A&M ranch is located in south Kinney County off FM 1572 between Spofford and Highway 90. Directional signs are located on U.S. 90 and FM 1572. The last 13 miles is a dirt road that follows the tall fence on the west side of the Anacacho Ranch.

Watch for food sales—but beware of items that are simply "featured" in a store but aren't really special sale items. Just because a row of items has been labeled with a big red price sticker doesn't necessarily mean the item is a sale bargain, Sally Springer, foods and nutrition specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M University System, says.

Anaplasmosis Increasing In Cattle

Anaplasmosis is becoming more widespread in Texas cattle, says Clint Langford, county agent for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

Anaplasmosis is a disease caused by a small parasite that enters the red blood cells of animals. It causes anemia and sometimes death and is usually spread from carrier animals by ticks, flies and mosquitoes or a puncture from a sharp unclean object. Symptoms of the disease are rapid breathing, constipation, frequent urination and slobbering. Animals may go off feed. As the disease gets worse, fever goes up and membranes around the nose get pale or yellowish, points out Langford. A vet should be called immediately since untreated animals can die within 24-48 hours after symptoms develop.

A blood test for diagnosing the disease and finding carrier animals is available from the Texas Veterinary Medical Diagnostic Laboratory at College Station. The test costs $2.

Infected animals should be separated immediately from the rest of the herd, emphasizes the county agent. These can be treated by feeding 5 milligrams of chlortetracycline per pound of body weight per day for 60 days.

As a preventive measure against anaplasmosis, cattle-men can feed .5 milligrams of chlortetracycline per pound of body weight per day during the season when the disease is most prevalent. This precaution will reduce the severity of the disease, notes Langford.

Also, make sure dehorning, ear marking, castration and vaccination equipment is cleaned and disinfected after each use, advises the county agent.

Vaccination will not prevent the disease but will help reduce its severity and will cut death losses, adds Langford.

NEWS By Monica DuRussel

Well, the winners of the 'Over 40' Tournament had their pictures taken, but due to the stupidity of this reporter, they have been lost or strayed (the pictures, that is.) I think I out and out threw them in the garbage by accident.

Anyway, I do know who the winners were and here they are: in the Championship Flight, first place was won by Ken Malone and Dick Barnes of San Angelo; second place winners were Blackie Howard and Sonny Perez of San Angelo; third place was won by Hector Valdes and Eddie Paredes of Del Rio; while fourth place was won by Sonora's J. W. Neville and Red Cleveland of San Angelo.

First Flight first place winners were Coy Moses and Bernie Holt of San Angelo, while James Short and Tom Arrandondo of Kerrville won second place. Bill Guthrie and Louie Wooten, also from Kerrville, won third place, and Shorty Taylor of Sonora and John Lochaby of Kingsland came in with fourth place honors.

In the Second Flight, R. L. McKinney and H. O. Allen of Big Lake were first place winners. Keith Corley and Don Hulse of San Angelo had second place honors, while J. B. Frailey and Mickey Sallee, also of San Angelo, were third place winners. Ken Braden of Bronco Land and Howard Derrick of Eldorado were fourth place winners.

Lawrence Finklea, from our ol' home town and Dr. Al La Fever of San Angelo won first place in the third flight. Another San Angelo team of Dayton Alexander and Lee Emfinger were second place winners: E. L. Womack and Dale Caniff of Kerrville won third place, and Ben Horton and Clark Stroud of San Angelo won fourth.

There were 64 teams entered in the tournament, and they and their wives were well rewarded with a luscious barbecue hamburger supper Saturday night--juicy hamburgers, crisp french fries, cooked by Earl Johnson, Clayton Hamilton, Harold Martinez, and Cullen Luttrell, and the best pintos ever cooked by Shorty were served. The Golf Auxiliary had the best of home-made sandwiches, tea and coffee--hot or cold for those who needed to be rescued from the pangs of hunger during the playing hours. Sure were lots of compliments on those sandwiches, girls!

Hello, all you friends of ours who are new to Sonora!!! We welcome you and hope you'll join us in our golf games, and just plain come visit us on our patio--Golf is our first game for true, but many play bridge, dominoes, or other games. SEE YOU THERE!!!!

Hope Lutheran To Observe Mission Day

Hope Lutheran Church will observe its annual World Mission Day Sunday with worship service beginning at 11 a.m. Bible classes for all ages start at 10:20 a.m.

Dr. C. A. Heckman, president of the Texas District of the Lutheran Church, Missouri Synod, will be the guest speaker. "Unto All the World" is his sermon topic.

A carry-in dinner will be served immediately after the service to all in attendance with Mrs. Don Deel in charge of arrangements.

"You all come" is the invitation of the Rev. A. B. Wagner, pastor of the Church.

"Mad as a March hare" comes from the fact that hares are unusually shy and wild in March, which is their rutting season.

Community Vaccination Program To Be Held October 19 at School

A community vaccination program will be held at the Sonora Elementary School October 19 beginning at 2 p.m. The purpose of the program is to enable those persons who have not completed their children's immunization programs to do so.

October has been declared immunization month by the Texas Health Department and everyone is encouraged to complete these immunizations in order for their children to attend Texas public schools.

Infants at the age of two months should receive the DTP and TOPV (Diphtheria-tetanus-pertussis vaccine and oral polio vaccine). At four months and six months of age, infants should have the second and third series of the vaccines. At age one year, children should have the measles, rubella and mumps vaccine, which may be given as measles-rubella or measles-mumps-rubella vaccines.

At 18 months another DTP and TOPV booster, then again at ages 4 to 6 years.

A tetanus-diphtheria toxoid, adult type, should be administered at the age of 14 to 16 years of age and every ten years thereafter. For contaminated wounds, a tetanus booster is needed if it has been more than five years since the last vaccination. With clean minor wounds, no booster dose should be given unless ten years have elapsed since the last one, according to Dr. Charles F. Browne.

Looks like Sonora has a real powerhouse lurking down in the seventh grade. The 7th grade Colts rolled over Ozona 30-0 Thursday afternoon in Ozona. These boys are doing a great job and take tremendous pride in their record, coach and team. Keep rolling, 7th grade!

The eighth grade Colts almost pulled one out as they tied Ozona 12-12. The clock caught them just before the half with the Colts about to score. The officials almost wore their flags out in this game. It had to affect the play of both teams. It's hard to be aggressive if flags are always falling, and to play good football you have to be aggressive.

Folks sure did appreciate seeing the high school cheerleaders at Ozona during the J. V. game. They helped cheer up the crowd and gave the boys a big lift by leading them on the field.

Coaches Don Patton and Bob Snodgrass are doing a fine job with the J.V. You know most of the boys are freshmen and sophomores with no high school experience, so these fellows have to do a lot of coaching on fundamentals and finesse at the same time. Sure, these kids make mistakes but these mistakes help them learn. I always remember an old saying - "One hurting beats a dozen tellings". This applies to football as well as life itself.

The Broncos run into another real toughie this week as they tangle with the Llano Yellowjackets. The 'Jackets have big backs and big linemen, so this poses more problems for the Broncos. Llano has three wins and two losses for the year.

The big shocker in 7AA action last week was Mason's 12-0 win over Crane. However, Crane was without the services of their ace back, Willie Neal. At this point in the season, Crane and Reagan County look tough with Ozona close behind. The Broncos and McCamey could be tough also. The district looks well balanced.

Heart Association Schedules Free Blood Pressure Clinic Nov. 1

The Sutton County affiliate of the American Heart Association met in the office of the Rev. Lea Roy Aldwell for its regular board meeting with Bob Nowlin, Regional Director, to discuss and plan the local program to be held November through May. The Heart Association is striving to take the blood pressure of 10% of the population of Texas and train one member of every household in Cardio-Pulmonary Resuscitation (CPR).

Mrs. Richard Perez is Sutton County's Hypertension Task Force Chairman, with the Rev. Paul Terry, assistant. Blood Pressure Clinics were discussed with a clinic being set for Saturday, November 1 during the Halloween Carnival. Every one is invited and encouraged to have their blood pressure checked free of charge at this time. Free literature will also be distributed.

Plans were discussed and made for C.P.R. training in the near future for all interested local people. Nowlin brought out the need of C.P.R. for the law enforcement, firemen, emergency service, ambulance service, R.N.s, P. E. teachers, and ministers to be trained first with these further training others so that more than 10% of our local people in Sutton County will be trained in C.P.R.

Dr. David Owensby was elected to the board. Other board members present were Mrs. J. F. Howell, president; Mrs. Richard Perez, Dr. Joe Andrews, Rev. Paul Terry, Mrs. Clayton Hancock, Mrs. Lea Roy Aldwell, Mrs. Dennis Dunnam, and Dr. Owensby. The next meeting
