pany, whose building location is on the IH 10 access road, has rental tools and personnel capable of removing pipe from open hole or producing wells. They also offer anchor service.

Hunters To Find Area Game In Abundance

With hunting season opening Saturday in the Edwards Plateau region, hunters will find the deer fat and plentiful, the turkey in abundance and plenty of quail and javelina to keep everyone supplied. The deer population, according to local Game Warden Nolen Johnson, looks real good with only a few poor, small deer being spotted. Johnson stated that deer in the vicinities where ranchers are adding feeders have shown great improvement since a late spring freeze desperately hurt the acorn crop.

Hunters may pursue deer from 30 minutes before daylight until 30 minutes after dark and may take a total of three deer with no more than two bucks. According to landowner permits, a hunter may kill as many as three does. Deer season ends at sundown January 4.

Turkey season also begins Saturday and continues through January 4 with hunters able to bag two gobblers or bearded hens. Johnson stated that all turkey hens killed must have beards and must be properly tagged. Quail season also begins on Saturday and extends through February 15. Hunters will be allowed 12 quail per day with 36 possession.

The Sonora Chamber of Commerce will sponsor a contest for hunters bagging the heaviest field-dressed buck, the buck with the largest spread and the buck with the most points. The Branding Iron Smokehouse and Whitworth Drive-In will be the official checkpoint during the contest.

HUNTING PARTY

The Sonora Chamber of Commerce, Edwards Plateau Game and Wildlife Association, Downtown Lions Club and the Sonora Jaycees will sponsor the fifteenth annual hunting party at the 4-H Center Tuesday, November 18. The evening meal will be served at 6 p.m., and all visiting hunters are welcome to attend.

Drawings for many valuable items donated by Sonora merchants, businessmen and individuals, will be held during the course of the evening.

First National Bank will donate bonds; the Chamber of Commerce will donate a 4x scope; and a pair of binoculars will be donated by

Screwworm Cases Continue

Seven more cases of screwworms have been reported in the county during the past week. One case was in the eye of a goat, one in a sheep's head, one in the leg of a horse, and the remainder of cases were in cattle.

These cases were reported by Billy Galbreath, Juno Ranch Company, R. A. Halbert, Stella Keene, Ruth Shurley, Robert Zapata and Kathleen Moore.

the Lions Club. The Independent Cattlemen's Association will donate for the drawing, four halves beeves, six dressed goats and a Hereford bull. The last and most coveted drawing will be held to give some lucky person a .243 deer rifle being donated by the Wildlife Association.

The Wildlife Association will elect officers and local rancher Vestel Askew will be presented the Conservation Rancher of the Year Award. Winners of the hunting contest will also be announced at the party and trophies will be presented.

Mr. Bob Ramsey, Wildlife biologist will be the featured speaker of the night.

No School Monday

The schools will be closed Monday, November 17 so that teachers may have a day of in-service training. The school year is now divided into quarters and one day of in-service training is provided at the end of each quarter to provide time for the teachers to record grades and prepare lesson plans.

School will resume at the regular time on Tuesday.

School will also be dismissed November 27 and 28 for Thanksgiving Holidays.

Bronco Teams To Finish Season

The Sonora Broncos will finish up their season of football play this week when the Junior Varsity travels to Crane Thursday night to meet the Cranes at 6:15.

The varsity will host the McCamey Badgers at 7:30 p.m., Friday after having an open date last week.

Race Track Stockholders Attend Meet

Stockholders of the Sonora Race Track held a meeting Wednesday night to bring members up to date on the park application and legal procedures for transfer of land at a later date.

The meeting was held in conjunction with members of the community park board, who will be in charge of the land clearing process.

The old rodeo arena has been torn down and Virgil Polocsek and Joe Bill Averitt are in possession of a map which shows the leveling of land in the center field area. This area will be ready for use this summer.

Stockholders say volunteer labor, supplies and donations will be needed as no city or county taxes will be funded on the immediate construction.

ALTHOUGH THE PAST TWO CENTURIES SEEM TO HAVE BEEN PRETTY PROSPEROUS FOR AMERICA, THIS IS NOT NECESSARILY TRUE FOR ALL AMERICANS, NOR FOR OTHER PEOPLE AROUND THE WORLD.

Bob Krueger's Weekly Report

This last week I had the privilege of chairing the opening session of joint House-Senate hearings investigating the role of federal regulatory agencies. I have received many letters from constituents expressing concern about these agencies and the role which their regulations play in our lives. Therefore, chairing these hearings was a special opportunity, which I hope will prove helpful in time to the people whom I represent.

Most federal regulatory agencies were established in the 1930's in an effort to control the powers of sometimes monopolistic industries, and to bring coherence to our trade and interstate commerce. Clearly, Congress cannot attempt to examine every detail of our business transactions. Instead, it has chosen to establish regulatory agencies to carry out the intent of Congress. The problem, of course, is that regulations can readily become excessive, misdirected, heavy-handed and inappropriate.

People who fill the upper positions in these agencies often have close ties with large corporations they are supposed to be regulating, and the question of conflict of interest can readily arise.

These hearings are designed to investigate who the people are who are appointed as regulators, what their background is, whether their training is appropriate, and whether or not they will understand and consider both business and the public interest.

Our task is to find fair-minded individuals who will understand the problems of the industry being regulated, someone who will be sensitive to the needs of citizens entitled to expect protection from monopolistic power, unfair trade practices and unsafe food and drugs.

I hope that these hearings may shed some light on the qualities and characteristics best able to serve the public interest, enabling the President to make better regulatory agency appointments. Considering the role these agencies have assumed in our lives, these hearings are very worthwhile and definitely in the public interest.

THE DEVIL'S RIVER PHILOSOPHER SEZ..... He Takes A Dim View Of Contention That Most News Comes From T.V.

Editor's note: The Devil's River Philosopher on his bitterweed ranch on the Dry Devil's River looks at television news this week, more or less.

Dear editor:
According to an article I read in a Newspaper last Monday night in between plays to keep from having to listen to Howard Cosell, most people now get their news from television.

This was stated as a confirmed truth and I got to thinking about it. Possibly it's true, considering how uninformed most of us are about what's going on in the world, although that's no test; most of us were in that shape even before television was invented.

Now I'm not berating television news. For example, the other evening during the TV news I marveled at the fact that man has put a satellite into orbit to bring a live picture from Japan to Sonora to tell us that Nancy Kissenger has bought a shaving brush for Dr. Kissenger, when all along I'd thought television commercials persuaded everybody to use shaving cream from a squirt can, unless of course they'd tuned in another network and were persuaded to use an electric shaver. It's clear the Kissengers don't watch much television, but that doesn't explain why he has to keep flying back and forth between those mid-east countries to make sure what he found out yesterday is still true today, which most of the time it isn't.

But back to the notion that most people get their misinformation, I mean their news from television. It's true they get the big news there first, like when Patty Hearst is captured or when the President is fired at by a woman, whom TV first reported was a man. But to say people get most of their national and international news from television 30 minutes a day, take away 5 minutes for commercials, and most of their local news from television another 30 minutes a day, take away 10 minutes for commercials and 5 more for car wrecks, is to be uninformed on how human nature operates.

Newspapers, which now have more circulation in the U. S. than ever before in history, furnish I'd say 50 times more news than television, and word-of-mouth beats both, if you're on speaking terms with your neighbors.

When the country was young it sometimes took two months for a speech by some Congressman in Washington to reach the outer parts of the nation, and sometimes you get the feeling those were bound to have been the good old days.

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

REFRIGERATOR CAKE IS PURE AMBROSIA

Ambrosia is a Greek word which in ancient mythology referred to the food of the Gods. Nectar was their drink. Legend has it that mortals who partook of this exquisite food and drink were granted immortality.

Today the word ambrosia is used to describe anything very pleasing in scent or taste. Specifically it refers to a dessert composed of orange slices and other fruits (often pineapple) sprinkled with sugar and coconut. It is particularly popular in the South.

The basic ingredients of the classic ambrosia are combined in our luscious Ambrosia Refrigerator Cake. It is so simple to prepare and the flavor is heavenly. A rich graham cracker crust provides the base for this tempting dessert. The fruity filling is a blend of Royal's exclusive Pineapple Gelatin, sliced oranges, crushed pineapples, heavy cream and coconut. Chill well and garnish with toasted coconut just prior to serving. Fit for the Gods, Ambrosia Refrigerator Cake is one cool dessert!

Ambrosia Refrigerator Cake
 1 1/2 cups graham cracker crumbs
 3 tablespoons sugar
 1/4 cup (1/2 stick) melted margarine
 2 packages (3-ounces each) Royal Pineapple Gelatin

2 cups boiling water
 1 can (20-ounce) crushed pineapple, undrained
 1 cup diced oranges
 1 can (4-ounce) Southern-style coconut
 1 cup heavy cream

Combine graham cracker crumbs, 2 tablespoons sugar and melted margarine. Press into bottom of a 13 x 9 x 2-inch pan. Set aside. Dissolve Royal Pineapple Gelatin in boiling water. Stir in pineapple and oranges. Chill until slightly thickened. Mix in 1 cup coconut. Whip heavy cream with remaining 1 tablespoon sugar. Fold into gelatin mixture. Pour onto prepared crust. Chill until firm.
 Toast remaining coconut. Use as garnish before serving.

Someone else is pulling the strings. Someone else is speaking behind the scenes. Someone else is making the audience laugh, or even cry a little.

By any chance, does that remind you of yourself? Do you sometimes feel that you are a puppet, not a person? That someone else is putting words in your mouth, calling your plays?

Well, the Church won't stand you on your own two feet and cut the strings. But it will help you find the right kind of scissors . . . to get a new perspective, to reassess life, and yourself . . . to be your own person.

Who, after all, wants to be the star of a Punch and Judy show?

Valley Citrus Growers Predict Plentiful, High Quality Harvest

AUSTIN—It's looking like a good year for Texas citrus. Rio Grande Valley citrus growers are expecting to harvest the highest quality crop in several years and the 1975-76 crop is forecast to be 33 percent larger than last year's crop.

"Fruit is coloring well because of unseasonably cool September and October nights and the trees are in excellent condition due to abundant rain during August and September," Agriculture Commissioner John C. White said.

Grapefruit production is expected to total 10 million boxes, an increase of 37 percent over last year.

The largest work force of a civilian organization belongs to the United States Post Office which employs over 696,000 hard-working postal workers. Ever try and figure out how many miles our dedicated letter carriers have walked on their daily rounds since the Post Office was established in 1792 so that our mail arrives safely on time?

Our own jobs probably depend on electricity, and we rely on the people who make it to have it there. Just as we rely on them to have it waiting when we come home at night.

Seldom are we disappointed. But what about tomorrow? Or 10 years from now? Will there still be enough electricity when we want it, as always? The experts at Edison Electric Institute, the principal association for the nation's electric companies, feel that the answer is hopefully yes, but it will have to cost more. The people at our electric companies rely on us to understand this just as we rely on them for dependable service.

Screwworm Cases Total 4,231 In Texas During Month of October

Screwworms continued to infest Texas animals in near record numbers during October, says a U. S. Department of Agriculture official.

Dr. James E. Novy of the Animal and Plant Health Inspection Service (APHIS) is director of field operations of the Screwworm Eradication Program. He reports 4,231 cases of this live flesh eating parasite were confirmed by laboratory identification of worm samples submitted by Texas livestock owners during October.

Texas entered November with 13,612 officially proven screwworm cases for the year, while Arizona had 433 on the books. New Mexico's 10-month stands at 254 with 12 confirmed Oklahoma infestations tallied, and only one from California. Of these Texas cases Sutton County had a total of 30 from January through October.

Screwworms continued northward and eastward spread during October, reaching Donley County in the Panhandle, and being found as far east as Trinity, Rush and Titus counties. The year's first cases were recorded from 25 different Texas counties during the month.

Food and Fiber Month Declared; Texas Agriculturalists Praised

AUSTIN—November has been designated Food and Fiber Month in Texas.

"Last year, Texas agriculture added at least $10 billion to the state's economy," Agriculture Commissioner John C. White said.

"It's only appropriate that we set aside this month, during which we celebrate Thanksgiving, to take a closer look at the contributions Texas farmers make to our lives," White added.

Texas farmers and ranchers supply meat, vegetable, fruits and grains for our tables and natural fibers to clothe us.

Texas consistently ranks first among all states in a number of agricultural statistics.

In 1974, Texas was the leading state in the nation in the total number of cattle and calves.

Texas was the leading state in the number of cattle on feed.

Texas was first in the number of sheep and lambs.

In crops, Texas was first in production of grain sorghum.

Texas also was first in the nation in production of several fruits and vegetables.

Texas farmers are willing to experiment with new ideas and crops, White said.

In response to demand, farmers on the High Plains began to produce sunflowers commercially.

When demand for sugar exceeded supply, Rio Grande Valley farmers began planting sugarcane.

When cotton growers needed expanded markets for their crop, they set about developing stable markets.

One result is the Littlefield cotton textile mill, an all-denim mill, scheduled to be opened in 1976. Also planned are small sock-knitting mills.

In addition, a company soon will market a glandless cottonseed kernel to be used in candy production.

"Texas farmers and ranchers are doing an exceptional job feeding and clothing citizens of Texas, the United States and the world. It is fitting that we should honor them for their achievements and give them our year-round support," Commissioner White said.

TEEN SCENE

By Dottie Cawthon

Hello, how is everyone? I hope no one is ill from the bug that seems to be going around the school.

On Monday Nov. 10, the Soph.'s and Jr.'s were given an Armed Services Vocational Aptitude Battery Test in the High School Auditorium. The test was to find the students reasoning and aptitude. The results will be brought or sent back to SHS and Mrs. Fields was said to be the one to explain them. SFC Stephen Guinn U.S. Army Test Administrator; TSGT Michael Allums USAF San Angelo Recruiter; and SGT Billy Podtell US Army Recruiter of El Paso were the representatives for this test.

In the SHS library, there is a Book Fair in process. Miss Beachamp will take your order and collect the money Friday when the books arrive. There are really some good books so stop by and look around any time during school hours.

I have received an unusual addition to this week's issue. One of the students, remaining nameless, has asked me to put a special thanks to a few of our teacher in here: As follows, this goes to Mrs. Fields, Dr. Otte, Coach Miller, Miss Beachamp:

"Everyone takes advantage of your help and understanding so this is just a little note from everyone who doesn't yet realize how truly great you are. THANK YOU FOR EVERYTHING!"

A Bishop Looks at Life

by Everett H. Jones, Retired Bishop of Episcopal Church Are Church People Complacent?

A friend recently said to me: "You church people don't seem terribly upset about the horrible moral conditions in the world today. I don't understand how you can be so complacent when everything you stand for is being ignored or flagrantly violated."

I am sure there are others who would share this complaint. May I sum up what I said to him in reply? Unfortunately it is true that many church people close their minds not only to moral degradation around them but also to tragic instances of injustice, hunger, and other forms of human suffering.

Fortunately, there is another side to the situation. The great Jesuit priest and scientist, Teilhard de Chardin, once wrote: "Whatever the merits of other religions, it remains an undeniable fact--explain it how one will--that the most ardent and most massive blaze of collective love that has ever appeared in the world burns here and now in the heart of the Church of God."

That "blaze of love" finds expression in many forms of action, both by individuals and by groups. Most of these activities receive little or no publicity.

More than we can ever measure, the large-scale efforts toward moral reform and the alleviation of suffering undertaken outside the churches are actually motivated by the heritage maintained within the churches.

If church people do not become hysterical about evil in the world, there are several reasons that might be mentioned.

One is that they see the conflict of good and evil as a continuing part of human existence. According to the Bible, the conflict began soon after the creation of the world and has continued ever since. The best contribution an individual can make in this continuing conflict is not to jump up and down in panic but to set an example of concerned and constructive involvement wherever possible. Similarly, the churches themselves serve best when they are loving communities, large or small, where the traditions of the good life are maintained and exemplified. Some day the world will want to return to moral standards and will be very grateful to the churches for keeping them alive.

Still another reason for what sometimes appears to be complacency is the Christian's conviction that in the long last truth is stronger than falsehood, love will conquer hatred and bitterness, and God is more powerful than the Devil.

James Russell Lowell said it well: "Though the cause of evil prosper Yet 'tis truth alone is strong; Though her portion be the scaffold, And upon the throne be wrong.

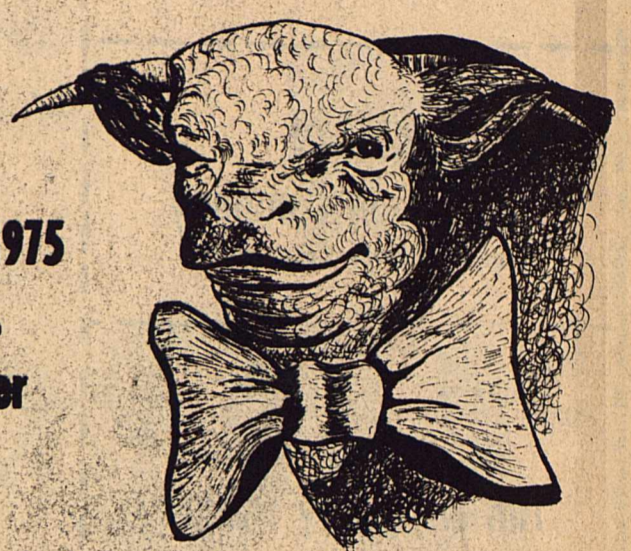

Yet that scaffold sways the future, And, Behind the dim unknown, Standeth God within the shadow Keeping watch above His own."

Police Reports

An accident at 7:20 a.m., on Hudspeth Street occurred November 4 with no injuries to drivers of either car. Drivers of the vehicles were Brenda Granger and Ida M. Sanchez. Jerry Kemp was the investigating officer.

At 8 a.m. on that date a minor accident in front of the post office occurred when a vehicle driven by Maricella Ramirez Martinez hit a moving vehicle being driven by Lupe Chavez.

A report came into city officials from a local resident reporting that her home had been broken into and some old coins taken. The theft is still under investigation.

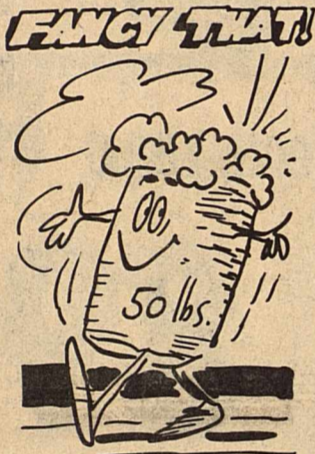

Two attempted entries were reported November 7. Apparently burglars attempted to gain entrance to Western Drug through the front door and to Bronco Drug through the back door.

At 12:05 p.m., an accident at the intersection of Highways 290 and 277 involved vehicles driven by Mrs. Ann M. Hill and Willie L. Miers. Kemp was the investigating officer.

Charges were filed against a local man November 9 on charges of DWI. Officer Joe Fincher was in charge of the arrest.

Fincher also investigated a hit and run accident that occurred at approximately 7 p.m. November 9 in the parking lot of the Dairy Queen. An unidentified camper/trailer vehicle backed into a parked vehicle belonging to Mrs. Charles Cyr of Louisiana. The driver of the camper/trailer left the scene of the accident and is being sought by local officers.

A total of ten citations were issued during the week consisting of acceleration of speed, driving on the wrong side of the street, improper parking, no operator's license, speeding, drunk in public and failure to stop at traffic light.

The idea of the cotton gin was born when Eli Whitney overheard some farmers discussing how economically hazardous it was to grow cotton, because of the labor required to separate seed from lint. Eli Whitney then went out and built a machine which would turn out 50 pounds of cleaned cotton a day!

Mrs. Dennis Dunnam, R. V., and Charles F. Browne, M. D., look over the newly-designed Christmas seals.

Children Design Christmas Seals

Christmas seals - an annual tradition in America's fight against lung disease for almost seven decades - have a youthful "new look" this year. For the first time, they've been designed by school children throughout the United States.

Sutton County board members of the Big Country Area of the American Lung Association of Texas are Mrs. Dennis Dunnam, R.N. and Charles Browne, M.D. Headquarters for the 32-county area are at 1962 W. Beauregard, San Angelo.

The board of the Big Country Area got a preview of the 1975 seals at their meeting in San Angelo in September. Dr. Browne pointed out that the Texas seal is located number one on the sheet of seals being mailed out to millions of citizens of the United States.

The 54 original paintings chosen for the seals have become the property of the American Lung Association and will hang in a special exhibition in the National Collection of Fine Arts in Washington, D.C. from November 14, 1975 through January 4, 1976.

Mrs. Dunnam said, "I was glad to see something like this children's art project done with the seals. We were the first voluntary health association in this country, and we've always been interested in healthy lungs for people, particularly children. We've always been involved in school health; this is the place to develop good health habits."

In recalling some of the history of the Christmas Seal, Dr. Browne said the seal was introduced into the United States in 1907 by Emily Bissell. Miss Bissell, a social worker in Wilmington, Delaware, borrowed the idea which was originated by a postal worker in Denmark, to raise money for a financially distressed TB hospital on the banks of the Brandywine River in Delaware. Miss Bissell designed the first U. S. seal herself. It was a wreath of holly with the simple greeting, "Merry Christmas."

In later years well-known artists such as Rockwell Kent, Howard Pyle, Dale Nichols and Steven Dohanos created Christmas Seal designs. More recently, Seal designs were chosen by the lung association from entries in an annual nationwide competition open to amateur and professional adult artists.

Mrs. Dunnam pointed out that each sheet of the Seals bears the heading, "Christmas Seal Greetings from the Children of America." She added: "Let's not let the children down. The best Christmas Greeting we can send in return is a generous contribution to help the Lung Association continue its work of protecting the lungs of children and grownups. Answer your Christmas Seal letter today." It's a matter of life and breath.

In 1776 the first cocktail was supposedly made by Betsy Flanagan, an Elmsford, N.Y. barmaid.

TAHC Asks For Brucellosis Study

The Texas Animal Health Commission has issued a policy statement asking that an impartial in-depth study of brucellosis and all possible programs for dealing effectively with the disease be authorized by Congress, according to Clint Langford, county agent for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

Commission members have asked that the study be conducted by a team of scientists approved by the Congressional committees responsible, points out Langford.

Conclusions of this study, to be funded by Congress, should be delivered to the Congressional committees responsible for the funding of the USDA brucellosis program, according to the policy statement.

In order that maximum creditability be accorded to the study, Commission members have recommended that Congress appoint a team composed of nationally recognized authorities in their fields who are not associated with the current brucellosis program. The investigative team would evaluate the risk-benefit ratio, including economic, social, hygienic and other factors associated with the problem and establish a course of action.

Animal Health Commission members further recommended that no punitive changes in the Uniform Methods and Rules be made until the results of the study are presented to Congressional appropriations committees for their consideration.

In the policy statement, Commission members indicated that they favor effective control, and if possible, eventual eradication of brucellosis from Texas breeding cattle. They said they will take steps which they deem reasonable, practical and necessary to achieve these goals.

Members of the Commission also indicated that they favor resisting and opposing any additional restrictive, federal regulations until the proposed study determines guidelines for a future program.

During the interim, the Commission policy will be aimed at --Urging that heifer calves from three to seven months old in Texas be officially vaccinated, voluntarily, with properly refrigerated, high quality, viable Strain 19 brucellosis vaccine to facilitate movement and further reduce the incidence of the disease in Texas breeding cattle.

--Protection of whatever status a county has already achieved.

--Protection of the dairy industry to assure marketability of its products.

Fed. Cattle Prices Continue Down

Despite lower supplies of fed beef and an increase in beef consumption, fed cattle prices will probably continue to decline during the next few weeks, predicts Dr. Ed Uvacek, livestock marketing specialist for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

Some economists feel that increased demand will keep fed beef prices up as high as those of last summer, but Uvacek does not believe demand has changed much in the past few months.

"In July of this year Choice beef retailed for $1.61 per pound. Prices now are about $1.53 per pound, even though the increase in per capita beef consumption was only up a small degree."

The proportion of beef fed this year compared to the total cattle slaughter is at its lowest level in 10 years. The amount of Choice beef consumed, therefore, should also be correspondingly lower, points out the specialist with the Texas A&M University System. Grass-fed beef, however, will be in large supply for the rest of the year.

Uvacek says that unless high fed cattle prices are followed by high retail prices, the price of live cattle must drop.

Preliminary estimates of per capita beef consumption during the July-September period indicated about 30.3 pounds per person while the retail price for Choice beef was $1.57 per pound, notes Uvacek. He predicts that per capita consumption for the last quarter of the year--October through December--will go up to 35 to 36 pounds per person while retail prices will fall to $1.49 to $1.50 per pound. Much of this consumption will be from other beef rather than fed beef.

It was a medieval saint, St. Bernard (NOT the one the dogs are named after), who first used the expression "love me, love my dog." It occurred in his first sermon.

THE SEIKO QUARTZ. THE EXECUTIVE GIFT.

A quartz watch is at least four times more accurate than any other type of wristwatch. Because it's accurate not just within seconds per day or per week but within seconds per month. The Seiko Quartz is sure to be the gift even "the man who has everything" doesn't have. Shown: Seiko Quartz No. CK009M--$235. Other Seiko Quartz models are priced from $150 to $575.

THE SEIKO QUARTZ

Someday all watches will be made this way.
