Food Poisoning Cases Treated At Hospital

Hudspeth Memorial Hospital was the site of much activity Sunday afternoon when 31 persons, members of the Association of Retired Persons from San Antonio, arrived at the hospital with 27 of the 31 suffering from food poisoning.

These 27 persons were treated in the emergency room and nine of those treated were admitted to the hospital for further medical attention. Others returned to San Antonio on the chartered bus they were using for their tour.

The senior citizen group told hospital officials that their last stop had been at a Fort Stockton restaurant and they became ill between here and Fort Stockton.

Some of the nine admitted were to be dismissed Monday and hospital administrator Carl Weaver was attempting to make bus reservations for them.

Weaver stated that office personnel, the nursing staff and local Doctors C.F. Browne and David Owensby, were all called back to work to assist with the emergency.

A Fort Worth man literally wrapped his vehicle around this large oak tree 18 1/2 miles south of Sonora on the Del Rio Highway.

Registration August 23 For Sonora Youth Football Program

Those boys interested in becoming members of the Sonora Youth Football program are to report to the Elementary school ground at 5 p.m., Monday, August 23 to register for the program.

Members of the organization will be present to sign up youngsters and if time permits, tryouts will begin on that day. If not, tryouts will be held Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday of that week.

After tryouts, coaches will select 20 boys to be placed on the roster of each team. Four teams will constitute the league this year with a six game schedule to be played.

Practice will begin the following week, if possible, with the first games scheduled for September 18.

To be eligible to participate, a boy must reach the age of 13 after September 1, 1976 and be at least nine years old before September 1, 1976. Boys must also be students at Sonora Elementary and in grades four thru six.

The organization will furnish the best of football equipment, with each boy being outfitted in a manner that will be in the best interest of the youngster's physical safety. Each participant will furnish his own shoes, socks, practice shirts and athletic supporter.

The cost to each boy after he is assigned to a team, will be $12 to cover insurance and entry fees.

School Tax Rate Reduced

Trustees of the Sonora Independent School District adopted a budget of $2,880,035.00 for the 1976-77 school year and reduced the tax rate from $1.33 per $100.00 valuation to $1.31. The reduction of taxes was made possible by the increased valuations on oil and gas properties. The new tax is divided $1.26 for maintenance and $0.05 for debt service.

The new budget exceeds the previous year's budget by $1,476,352.00. Additional personnel, an improved salary schedule, increased costs of operation and the purchase of two new buses account for a large part of the increased costs in the budget; however, the major expenditure will be for capital outlay. Proposed expenditures of $1,097,124.00 has been allowed for a new vocational building, renovation of the old gym, additional dressing rooms and housing.

Estimated receipts total $2,230,479.00 with local taxes providing $1,735,765 and $494,114 coming from state sources.

The debt service cost of $54,000 includes $40,000 for bonds and $14,000 interest. The district's bonded debt has been reduced to $415,800 as of August 31, 1976.

Seventeen additional personnel have been approved for the new year. This new personnel include four classroom teachers, an art teacher, two physical education teachers, an elementary counselor, a speech therapist, director of instruction, junior high librarian, two teacher aides, and four part-time teacher aides.

BOOSTER CLUB SETS FIRST MEETING

Hitchhiking Hollanders Make A Stop In Sonora

Three 20-year-old men, natives of Holland, included Sonora in their seven week tour of the United States. Arriving in Sonora via their thumb Saturday afternoon, the three went to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Stewart. Miss Billie Ann Stewart and some other 4-H students stayed at the home of one of the young men's parents, while on a Good Will 4-H Tour some years ago.

The three, Steven Makkink, Leen Postma and Jan Van Rig, are all residents of Utrecht, located some 20 miles from Amsterdam. They attend the University of Utrecht, Holland.

Making their way across the United States hitchhiking, they were to leave Monday for New Orleans, Louisiana where they intend to spend a few days. From there they have no definite plans except to leave the States September 1, so that they might arrive in Holland to begin their school term.

Traveling by air from Amsterdam to New York City, they have visited in Pittsburg, Pa., towns in Ohio, Denver, Colorado, and were in El Paso before catching a ride to Sonora.

All three of the boys spoke English to some extent and when asked about the English language they stated that while Dutch is spoken in their schools, one requirement in the high school they attended was that they take a course in the English language.

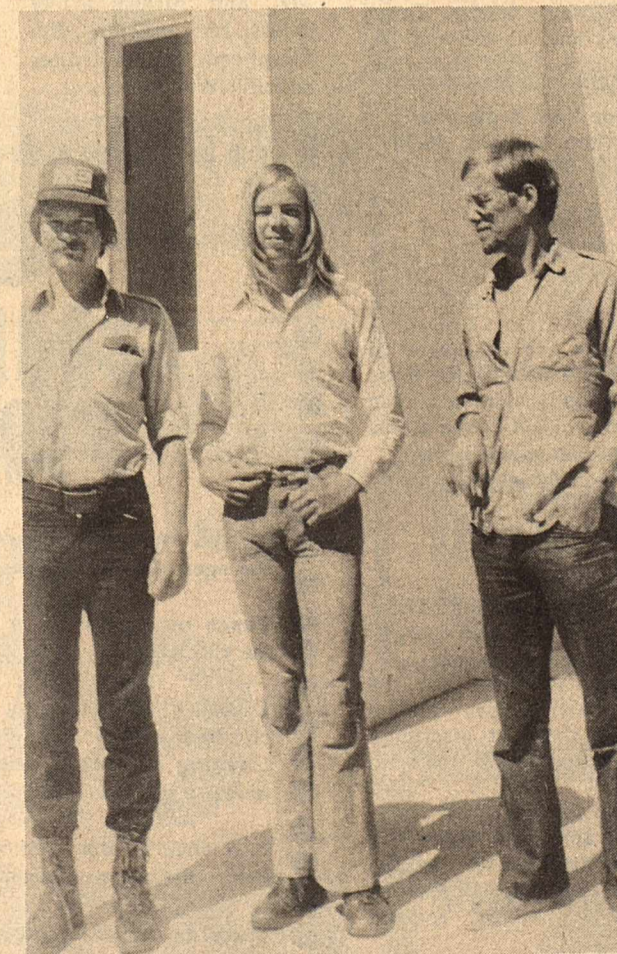

Evidently Holland is no different from the United States, these young men wore jeans, had long, short and in-between hair cuts and stated that while the Holland high schools had no dress code, except that they were expected to come to school fully clothed, their hair was of no importance to school officials but they could not sport beards.

Their first visit to a western ranch was Sunday when they spent some hours at the J.V. Alley Ranch. They also had their first horseback ride and while they enjoyed it, all expressed a back ache. Holland is strictly a country made up of farms.

The three young men from Holland said this visit to the States would always remember and when asked how their parents felt about the trip, Postma said his mother didn't try to talk him out of it but she didn't give him her blessings. They have made a few phone calls home to their folks just to let them know they are alright, added Postma.

Rick Powers, son of Mr. and Mrs. Mickey Powers, proudly displays the saddle he won during the Uvalde Youth Rodeo held August 13 and 14. Rick won the all-round junior division by placing first in reining and junior barrels. Also placing in the rodeo was Rebecca Powers, who was second in the barrel race. Tonia Mittel and Stephanie Powers were also rodeo contestants.

Jan Van Rig, Leen Postma and Steven Makkink, all natives of Utrecht, Holland, stopped in Sonora for a couple of days while making their way across the United States by the hitchhiking method.

Local representatives of the Independent Cattlemen's Association were among those attending the state convention held during July in Austin. Pictured are W.J. Thompson, U.S. Rep. Bob Krueger

Important Matters Discussed At ICA Convention In Austin

At the second annual state convention of the Independent Cattlemen's Association held in Austin during July, policy matters were discussed including the vote of the House of Delegates who voted to pursue the Association's effort to cut foreign beef imports, support passage of federal and state inheritance tax reform and relief, oppose all land use bills, seek new beef markets and continue to push for scientific research on brucellosis and prevention of further expensive federal restrictions under the current brucellosis program. Former Governor Allan Shivers keynoted the opening general session with a call for farmers and ranchers to tend to their part of the business of government. He also warned that unless the people of agriculture are united and organized they can and will be overrun by a Congress and bureaucracy dominated by the urban areas where people have no concept of what it takes to produce the nation's food.

Also speaking was Senator John Tower who urged ICA members to continue responsible political actions...not in terms of supporting candidates or parties, but in terms of maintaining constant, steady liaison with pressure on the people who represent them.

U.S. Rep. Bob Krueger told ICA members "without your involvement in legislation, more and more decisions will be made for you and you will be less independent cattlemen and more dependent cattlemen."

Rep. Susan McBee of Del Rio told the convention that Americans have much more to fear from the executive branch of government than from the legislative branch and that more and more decisions that directly effect lives are being made by agency officials.

The estate tax resolution got an added shot in the arm when Comptroller Bob Bullock announced that he will ask the Legislature to bring the state's antiquated inheritance tax up to date.

Sutton County delegates proposed an anti-gun resolution that was approved by the convention. The resolution said that members of ICA oppose any and all attempts by the government to control or restrict the right to own firearms.

Attending the convention from Sonora were Mr. and Mrs. W.J. Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. Turney Friess, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Shepherd, Joan Gardner and Bill Whitehead.

ICA TO HAVE INFORMATION BOOTH

The Independent Cattlemen's Association will have an information booth during Sutton County Day. Past magazine issues will be on display as well as brochures.

Soon... the Explosion

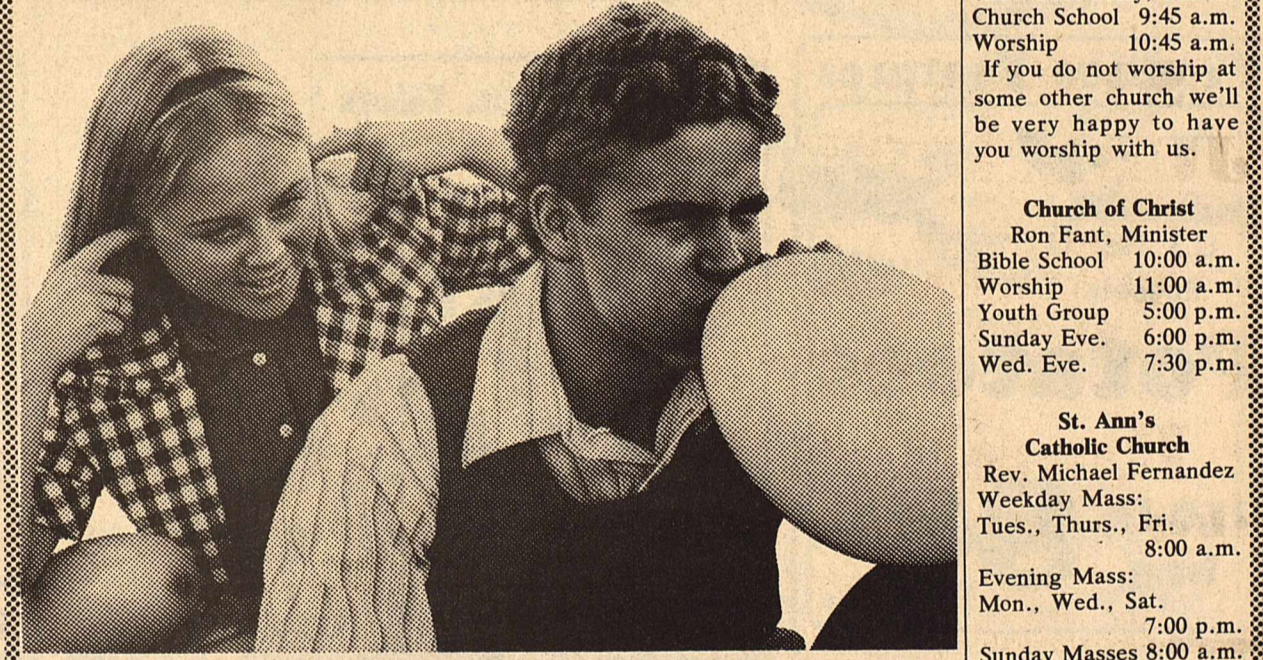

According to pessimists it won't be long before the world blows itself up. Now that man has the capability to wipe out civilization, they say, his unrestrained instincts will drive him to do just that.

But are man's instincts unrestrained?

The principles of law, morality, responsibility are the foundations of an orderly society. They have their roots in religion.

In the Ten Commandments, the Sermon on the Mount, the life and message of Jesus Christ, the hopes and destiny of mankind are expressed. Earnest men have been channeling instincts and spiritual energies to positive purpose for generations.

Next time someone says "soon—the explosion" . . . invite that person to come to church with you and your family.

Kelly Carta, Sonora High School student, was among 44 students who participated in the annual Summer Institute for Student Athletic Trainers held July 18-23 at Texas Christian University. The week-long

Course Being Offered At A&M Center

The Department of Range Science at Texas A&M University begins this month in San Angelo a 12-week course on the graduate level.

Area residents may register at 2 p.m. on August 20 for Range Science 614: Advances in Range Improvement Practices, in the Texas A&M University Agricultural Extension Center at San Angelo.

Instructor will be Dr. Robert E. Steger, area range specialist for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service. Students may earn three hours of graduate credit in residence.

District Extension Agent Allen E. Turner said college graduates not previously enrolled in Texas A&M University should have with them their undergraduate transcript when they register August 20. He also said persons wanting more information should get in touch with him or Dr. Steger, both at telephone 915/653-4576.

Steger said that the 12 four-hour sessions in RS614 would be held in the afternoon once a week on dates yet to be determined.

Police Reports

Police received a call August 11 regarding a den of rattlesnakes at a local mobile home park. They also answered several calls regarding a large hog who had been running loose over town.

August 14 at 11:55 a.m., a blue 1976 Pontiac bearing a Texas license plate left a local drive without paying for $9.40 worth of gasoline. Drive-in employees took down the vehicle license plate number and local police notified surrounding towns.

At 1:55 on that day a sick animal was reported at a residence on Poplar Street. The animal was picked up and taken to the local pound.

A disturbance at a local inn was investigated at 3:25 p.m. No arrests were made.

At 6:45 p.m., a sick cat was picked up on East 2nd Street and disposed of.

Having just completed roof repairs from a recent storm, I need to know whether the new roof is insured in case of another storm.

If you have all ready collected on one roof repair necessitated by a storm it would be advisable to have receipts, contracts, etc., proving that the roof was indeed repaired competently. Satisfactory roof repair would qualify you for collecting from your insurance should another storm cause a leak. The cost of repairs would be looked at by your insurance company as being necessitated by two separate catastrophes. However, in order for your insurance to pay for the damage caused by the second storm, the deductible must once again be met. It is important to notify your company as soon as possible after such damages are incurred.

Vestel Askew Elected Director

The Edwards Plateau Soil and Water Conservation District No. 222 held its election for Zone III August 14 at the Sutton County 4-H Center. Vestel Askew was elected to serve as director for the next five years.

An informational program was presented by Dr. Bob Steger, Extension Range Specialist of San Angelo, and Charles A. (Butch) Taylor, Research Associate with the Sonora Experiment Station on range nutrition.

Dr. Steger discussed a demonstration that is underway on the Edwin Sawyer ranch that will provide information for the supplemental feeding of livestock on range land in this area.

Taylor reported the results of a research project that he is conducting at the Sonora Research Station that is yielding valuable information on the grazing habits of livestock and the nutritional value of what they eat at different seasons of the year.

Joe Bill Averitt, local range conservationist presented slides on the Great Plains Conservation Program. Most of the Great Plains cost share money in Sutton County is being used on brush control and range seeding.

The program was followed by a barbecue lunch prepared by Mr. Joe Friess, Mrs. Vestel Askew and Virgil Poloczek.

FOOT TROUBLE
W.C. Fields, the famous comedian, used to say that if he complained about his feet hurting him, nobody would care; but if he said that HE hurt his feet then everyone showed sympathy.

Yet, there is no difference between feet that are hurt and feet that are aching. When they are allowed to go out of condition, they will be as injured as if involved in an accident.

Foot trouble, the most common ailment of the U.S. population, can be avoided; if a person realized that feet are entitled to health care as any other part of the body. Improperly fitted shoes is only one of many causes. Anyone who wishes to preserve healthy feet should also be concerned about OVERWEIGHT, POOR POSTURE, and LACK of EXERCISE.

THE DEVIL'S RIVER PHILOSOPHER SEZ..... He Warns Against Watered Milk During Fall Election Campaigns

Editor's note: The Devil's River Philosopher on his bitterweed ranch on the Dry Devil's River prepares himself for the fall elections.

Dear Editor:

With the fall elections not too far off, when the country will be electing people right and left from local to national offices, with millions and millions of campaign words to be heard, the best advice for a voter to remember is that there are truths, half-truths, and political statements.

A political statement, as I understand it, is an art form. You don't lie, but you don't tell the truth either. If asked about busing, you come out in favor of quality education. Since most politicians seem to be sharper than most TV reporters, they can get by with this for a full half-hour's interview. If some uppity reporter won't turn loose and keeps asking a tough question, you take so long in answering, going all the way back to the Peloponnesian War in 400 B.C., that everybody forgets what the question was.

But the best and shortest answer to a tough question I know about was given by a 12-year-old boy a generation ago. He and his older brother had the job of milking the family's two cows every day, and they got into a contest to see who could milk the most.

Consistently, the younger one started winning. His bucket was always brimful, the other's only two-thirds. But there was something peculiar about it.

"That milk tastes watery," the family complained. "Son," the father asked, "Are you putting water in that milk?" "No sir," the boy said. "I am not."

This is a classical political statement. You could go before a grand jury and say it. You could defy a Congressional investigating committee with it. You could look the TV camera in the eye and say it.

The boy was not indeed putting water in the milk. What he was doing, he admitted later on with a grin, was putting milk in the water. Started out with a quart of water in the bottom of his bucket.

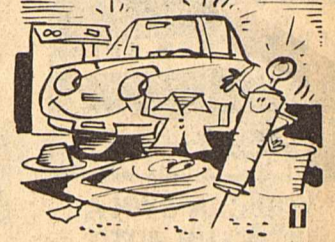

It's a system that works. You're a candidate opposed to increased taxes? When elected keep the tax rate the same like you promised but raise property valuations.

There's nothing handier than starting out with water in the bottom of the milk bucket. But perhaps it ought to be discontinued when you're grown, and is, by dairymen, but very few politicians are dairymen.

Yours faithfully, J.A.

In these days of energy consciousness, plastics have at times been branded as a waste of natural resources and energy. The fact is, plastics use less than two percent of the total world production of petroleum and help save energy because less is used in manufacturing plastics and plastic products than in alternate materials.

Additionally, plastic products, such as those made from widely-used polypropylene, add to the comfort and convenience of modern-day life. The appliance, automobile, clothing, food packaging and medical supplies industries are just a few of the manufacturers of today's necessities that broadly use plastics to improve their products.

Mrs. Honey Hicks has been busy the past two weeks working on Bronco pins to be given to mothers of Bronco varsity football players. The pins are worn by mothers as long as their son is on the team. There is no charge for the pins, but mothers must attend a Booster Club meeting in order to be eligible to receive one. The purpose of the pins, started by Mrs. Maxine Browne in 1973, is to stimulate attendance to Booster Club meetings.

IT'S A FACT!

Congress has not yet passed a single piece of legislation that increases the incentive to explore for new oil and gas reserves.

Federal controls on natural gas and crude oil have forced our nation to import these vital energy sources from Algeria, Canada, Venezuela and OPEC nations at costs two to five times more than the government allows the American producers to charge.

Some of the punitive and emotional legislation being considered by legislators in Washington would make us more dependent on foreign energy and at a higher price than we are paying today.

Many letters about oil and gas are being sent to Congress by citizens who recognize that our representatives can represent us accurately only if we take time to let them know how we feel.

Library Receives New Books

The Sonora Woman's Club Library announces the receipt of four books, a gift of the Amon Carter Museum of Western Art and the Texas Commission on the Arts and Humanities (TCAH).

The four-volume set of books -- containing three with Bicentennial titles and one relating directly to Texas artistic heritage -- will be distributed to 375 public and regional libraries throughout the state.

"We hope," stated Maurice Coats, executive director of TCAH, "that the books will be circulated among the students and young people who visit the libraries."

"These books," he continued, "take the tinsel and glitter out of the now very commercialized Bicentennial theme, and illuminate the significance of our cultural and historical heritage."

Included in the museum package are "The Image of America", "Caricature and Cartoon", "The Face of Liberty", "The Stripes and Stars", and "The Artist as a Young Man".
