Men to Light Field 1

An agreement for the Men's Softball Association to provide lighting for Field Number 1 at the Sonora Sutton County Community Park was reached when representatives of the association met with the park board last Wednesday.

According to Chairman Tryon Fields, the Park Board granted the M.S.A. priority in scheduling night games on the field for the next three years, but the field will still be open to the public with approval through HNG offices.

The approximate cost of lighting the field would be around $10,000. Fields said they are currently working with contractors and suppliers to get exact dollar figures, and the men would work to get lights on Field Number 2.

Several projects are already underway to help raise funds, one of which will be to conduct all games at the Jaycee's 2nd Annual Goat Cookoff.

Association members are also currently selling drawing tickets for a drawing to be held in conjunction with the season opener tournament.

Numerous prizes have been donated by local businesses.

These include a Bentwood rocker and tilt top table from Kerbow Furniture, a Garcia rod and an Ambassador 5000 reel from Tedford Jewelry, a $20 gift certificate from Neville's, and Old Smoky smoker from Foxworth-Galbraith, dinner for two at the Sutton County Steakhouse, an ice chest from Sonora Wool and Mohair and three ice chests from Morgan Distributing.

Westerman Drugs and Country Fried Chicken and Fish have also indicated they will donate items for the drawing.

Fields and Fund Chairman Jackie Sinks both offered their thanks to the numerous businesses and individuals who have donated both prizes and cash in the effort to erect the lights.

Plans call for the field to be lit by the opening of the regular season on May 1 or very soon after.

March 5-9, School Week

That State Board of Education at its last meeting passed a resolution setting March 5-9 as Public Schools Week in Texas. This five-day period will offer every district and every school an opportunity to become better acquainted with the citizens they serve.

This special time for observing the contributions made by local schools to our democratic system of government is a project of the State Committee on Public Schools Week.

We are living in an era of increased public interest and concern with every facet of the public school system. Parents and other taxpayers want to understand the contemporary curriculum, the expanding offerings in text materials, the diverse methods of teaching different groups of students, the local, state, and federal costs of schooling. We welcome their interest because we believe it forms the base for continuing improvement.

Texas Public Schools Week was born out of a great need. Twenty-eight years ago a group of public-spirited citizens began to look at the relationship between their schools and communities. They were disturbed by the general apathy now considered typical of the 1950 period. And they decided to do something about it. The result was Texas Public Schools Week.

Today the interest of our citizens in the education of their children may well be our primary vehicle for growth.

Fruit Trees Need Annual Lube Job

Have you given your fruit trees their annual "lube" job? This refers, of course, to an application of dormant oil to control scale insects, points out Clint Langford, county agent with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

Why control scale insects? The answer is simply to save the tree. If a scale insect such as the San Jose scale or white peach gets started, it could kill your tree.

Dormant oil can be purchased at many different stores where garden supplies are sold. Be sure to follow all labeled directions and apply the mixture when the temperature is between 40-70 degrees F. Do not apply if a freeze is likely within 48 hours after application and do not apply after the tree has budded out, cautions Clint. Dormant oil is applied when the tree is dormant. Spraying flowers and leaves could cause leaf burn and flower drop.

INVITE A BUNCH TO BRUNCH

Brunch represents a change from the usual breakfast routine that all your friends can enjoy—especially when you serve it South Sea Islands style.

Our new menu idea changes plain old pancakes into an enchanting late-morning meal with the addition of two succulent fruits straight from paradise: kiwifruit and papaya.

One associated only with Hawaiian and New Zealand vacations, both kiwifruit and papaya are being touted as "fruits with a future," according to Calavo Growers of California, because of their versatility and year round availability.

No need to worry about weight gain when you serve these low-calorie fruits, or about selection and storage techniques. You can gauge their ripeness with finger pressure. If they yield, they are ripe.

Papayas and kiwifruit can be purchased while still firm and ripened at room temperature. Then you can store them in the refrigerator for up to a week. Unripe kiwifruit will keep in the refrigerator for several months.

PAPAYA-KIWI OVEN PANCAKES

- 1/2 cup butter or margarine
- 5 eggs
- 1 1/4 cups milk
- 1 1/4 cups flour
- 2 ripe Calavo papayas, seeds removed, peeled and sliced lengthwise
- 2 ripe Calavo kiwifruit, peeled and sliced
- Juice of 1/2 lemon
- Powdered sugar

Melt 1/4 cup butter in each of two 9-inch pie pans in 425° oven. Meanwhile, whip eggs in blender for 1 minute; add milk and flour, blending until smooth. Pour batter into pie pans, dividing equally. Bake 20-25 minutes, or until pancakes are fluffy and lightly browned.

While pancakes are baking, toss papaya and kiwifruit slices in bowl with lemon juice.

To serve, spoon fruit over pancakes and sprinkle with powdered sugar. Cut pancakes into pie-shaped wedges. Makes 8 servings.

Choir Students Place in U.I.L. Competition

Throughout this school year Sonora High School students have represented their school and community well in whatever competition they have been involved. The high school choir class proved to be no exception last week as they competed in the U.I.L. Solo and Ensemble Competition in Brownwood.

The contest included entries from two, three and four "A" schools in Region VII. Sonora's rating were well above average for all schools involved. We received four first division ratings (superior), and three second division ratings (excellent).

The students involved, and their solo ratings are as follows: Craig Cooper, first division; Sam Dunn, first division; Mercy Stratis, first division; Sherri Threadgill, second division, Shelli Whalen, second division; Sandie Wright, second division; and Valerie Tedford, first division in piano.

Craig Cooper and Valerie Tedford will be going on to State Solo and Ensemble Contest due to their receiving a first division rating on a Class I (difficult) solo.

Many excellent comments were given to each of the singers. This was the first year that Sonora has entered vocal competition. All the students are to be commended for an excellent representation.

Thanks are extended to three accompanists,

Denise Neal, Mrs. Jim Adamson and Mrs. Charlotte Wilson.

The group was accompanied on the trip by Miss Cindy Taylor, choir director, and Mrs. Clara Brooks.

TSWCRA Schedules Convention For Houston, March 11-13

Soil and water conservation district directors explain their educational exhibit to interested youngsters and adults at last year's San Angelo Stock Show. This year eight soil and water conservation districts will again sponsor an educational exhibit at the stock show. Slated for March 7-11, the SWCDs will sponsor a display depicting water and its related uses. Districts participating in sponsoring the educational exhibit include the Concho, North Concho River, Eldorado-Divide, Coke Country, Edwards Plateau, Runnels, Middle Concho and Crockett SWCDs. (Photo courtesy of Texas State Soil and Water Conservation Board.)

Human nutrition, livestock health and taxes are a few of the many topics cattlemen will discuss at the 102nd annual Texas and Southwestern Cattle Raisers Association convention March 11-13 in Houston, Texas.

More than 2,500 cattlemen and their families are expected to attend this year's convention and trade show, TSCRA President John B. Armstrong of Kingsville said. Most of the convention's business events will be held in the Albert Thomas Convention Center in downtown Houston.

"This year we are featuring a more streamlined format and giving emphasis to educational programs at the committee level," Armstrong said. "All meetings, including the Board of Directors meeting, are open to convention registrants, and I hope each individual will attend."

The convention opens Sunday, March 11, with the TSCRA Barbecue Cookoff featuring top cooks from around the Southwest. The TSCRA trade show, featuring 130 exhibits from 23 states, and the Board of Directors' meeting will also begin Sunday. The first day will be concluded with a welcome social hour at 4 p.m.

Syntax, in conjunction with TSCRA, will host a party at the Hyatt Regency, the convention's headquarters hotel, featuring country and western singing star Jeannie C. Riley at 7 p.m. Sunday.

Monday, March 12, will begin with meetings of all TSCRA's standing committees.

Cattlemen will discuss present legislation; the status of the national brucellosis program and the screwworm eradication program, as well as updates in the area of fever ticks and scabies; soil and water conservation; taxes; human nutrition and beef; wildlife management; and the state of the current beef cycle.

The Monday noon kick-off luncheon will feature a nationally known speaker.

The day's business will be followed by a western dinner dance in the convention center at 7 p.m., featuring Tony Douglas and the Shrimpers.

The first general session of the convention will begin at 9 a.m., Tuesday. Headlining the speaker's platform will be TSCRA

President John Armstrong, U.S. Rep. Thomas S. Foley (D. Wash.), Chairman of the House Agriculture Committee, humorist Dr. Charles Jarvis, and Texas Governor William P. Clements Jr.

Election of a new TSCRA Board of Directors will also take place Tuesday in addition to special reports and other business.

The Texas CowBelles will be holding their mid-year meeting in conjunction with TSCRA and invite any ladies attending to join them. A highlight of the CowBelles' meeting will be selection of the cookoff winner, who will receive an all-expense paid trip to Omaha, Neb., in September to represent Texas in the National Beef Cookoff.

Other ladies' functions on Tuesday will include a cheese and wine tasting party and a fashion seminar.

The convention will conclude Tuesday evening with the traditional Cattleman's Ball featuring the Buddy Brock Orchestra.

"This year's convention will offer a thorough analysis of trends and issues facing today's cattlemen," Armstrong said. "Everyone who attends will find something to help him in his business, whether it be in the general sessions, committee meetings or the trade show. I invite each person who has a stake in today's cattle industry to join us March 11-13 in Houston."

For reservations, write TSCRA Convention Housing Bureau, 1522 Main, Houston, Texas 77002.

At Meeting of Agriculture Commodity Groups

Campbell Represents Texas Mohair Producers

Fred Campbell, executive vice-president, represented the Texas Mohair Producers Board at a statewide February meeting of the leadership of agricultural commodity groups called Agriculture Commissioner Reagan V. Brown.

The meeting agenda included speakers on exports, energy, and market development. Campbell discussed the goals and programs of the mohair producers.

Brown discussed the role of the Texas Department of Agriculture in working with commodity groups and pledged the support of the Department in helping each organization to increase membership, to develop new markets, and to stimulate research on production problems.

Dr. Michael Cook of Texas A&M University discussed the challenges in increasing exports. He noted that the final figure for 1978 would probably reach $2 billion, but stated that some of the traditional markets are decreasing their imports from the U.S., specifically Japan, India, and the European Common Market.

The growth markets projected by Dr. Cook will be in Eastern Europe, the Middle East, and "take-off" countries such as Nigeria, Korea, and Mexico. He described the USSR and the Peoples Republic of China as "spastic markets," despite trade agreements. "We cannot expect consistent purchases from either of these countries," he said.

Dr. Cook emphasized the need to develop aggressive sales in Mexico because of the reduced cost in transportation and the traditions of trade already established.

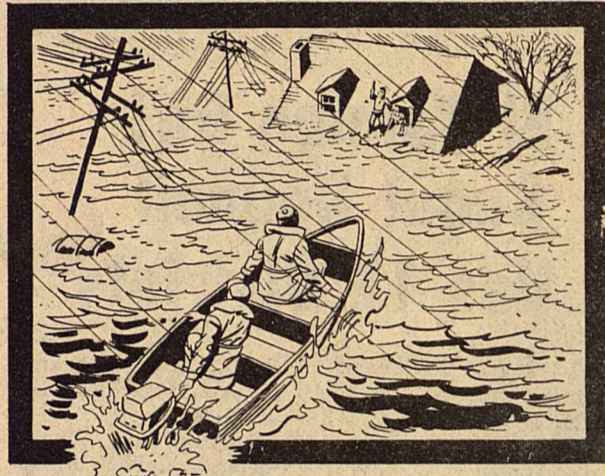

John Poerner, chairman of the Railroad Commission, discussed the additional lines that would be abandoned in Texas, noting that 94 percent of Texas agricultural products are shipped by truck.

He warned of serious problems ahead for every phase of agriculture in transportation although the Railroad Commission is trying to reduce "administrative hobbles" in increasing truck lines and in processing emergency exemptions.

Speaker of the House Billy Clayton was the luncheon speaker. He stressed the need for involvement of all groups in the political process.

"A growth future for Texas must include stimulus for agriculture," Clayton stated. He added, however, that agricultural groups must speak with one voice to achieve the necessary changes in legislation.

Glen Fisher's Wool and Mohair Report

The Texas Mohair market remained firm but steady last week with a sale taking place in Rocksprings on about 75,000 pounds. Prices on kid hair ranged from $8.06 to $7.17; young goat from $7.02 to $6.47; and adult from $6.17 to $6.37 for fine adult. These levels are up very slightly over previous private treaty sales but actually do not represent any appreciable increase.

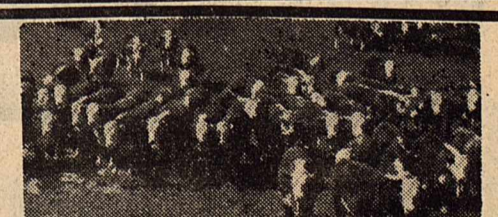

The first South African sale last Thursday was somewhat erratic, but showed mild strength as 98% clearance was observed on about 700,000 pounds. Adult was up about 2%, young goats 5-7%, and kid hair up about 10%. These changes are from their last sale which was early December. Their adult prices converted back to Texas are about $5.75 to $6.00 and puts their prices under ours at present.

The effect on our market won't be fully known until this week when sales take place Thursday morning in Uvalde and Friday afternoon here at Sonora.

We will offer 100,000 to 150,000 pounds on Friday with all three grades making up the total weight.

The wool market is stronger but really not tested yet here in the United States. Australian sales have produced rapidly increasing prices in the last month or so and we hope our market will follow these higher prices.

Wayne McLaughlin's work on his shot put form paid off as he took first place at the Junction Relays last Saturday, setting a new school record of 55-6 1/4 along the way. The Bronco varsity boys and girls will travel to Ballinger for a meet Saturday.

Carol Brandon executes a return as Eric Neal looks on during a workout session by the Bronco netters last Thursday. The Sonora team finished sixth at Junction last weekend and will travel to Iran for a meet this Saturday.

McLaughlin Sets New School Record In Shot Put

A strong showing in the field events pushed the Sonora Bronco boys to a fifth place finish in the Junction Relays Saturday. Wayne McLaughlin captured the only first place finish of the day for the Broncos as he set a Sonora school record of 55-6 1/4 in the shot put. The previous record, set by Ladd Turner in 1974, was 53-7 1/4.

Cody Savell garnered two second place finishes as he took second in the pole vault with a 12-0 bound, second only to a 12-6 effort by District

7-AA rival Dan Sewell of Ozona. He also finished second in the long jump with a 21-7 leap.

Rudolpho Ramos took the only other second place finish for the Broncos with a 4:56.8 clocking in the mile run.

Eddie Favila finished third in the 200-meter dash with a 24.3 sprint and took fourth in the 100-yard dash at 10.4.

Enrique Sanchez and Juan Mendoza took fifth and sixth in the 800-meter dash with 2:09.5 and 2:09.6 times, respectively.

The 400-meter relay team of Favila, Savell,

Mike Jones and Robert Noriega also took fifth.

The Bronco tracksters finished the meet with 51 points, only 26 points behind co-champions Bangs and Mason.

The junior varsity Broncos also took fifth place with 45 points on the strength of first place finishes by Joe Longoria in the 100-yard dash and Jorge Sanchez in the 400-meter dash.

Other top finishes by the J.V. included Robert Ponsetti, third in the 300-meter intermediate hurdles and fourth in the pole vault; Fernando

Ramos, third in the mile run;

Also, Sanchez, Longoria, Scott Savell and Charlie Carroll, fourth in the mile relay; and Hector Samaniego, sixth in the shot put.

Sutton County History Book Nears Completion

For months, the Sutton County Historical Society has been working its way toward that pot of gold at the end of the rainbow. This time, however, the pot will contain the Sutton County History Book, which could be even more valuable in some ways than gold.

Yes, after many, many hours of effort, the end is now in sight. Book project chairman Bill Stewart has said that the general history section of the book should be ready for the publishers within the next few weeks. After this section is submitted for the initial type-setting, the compilation segment of the project will be over.

The Sutton County History Book represents the interest and pride of numerous people who have contributed their family histories, their time, and their memories. The efforts of so many provide a comprehensive account of the lives and events of Sutton County.

After all materials are submitted, books will still be available for some time. If you have not already ordered this collector's edition, or if additional members of your family of friends were left out when you placed your order, don't wait and miss out on this once-in-a-lifetime opportunity. Care enough to preserve the past for future generations. You will be glad you did, and so will they.

Place your book orders by contacting the Sutton County Historical Society, P.O. Box 1145, Sonora, Texas 76950, or call 387-2649 for more information.

Board of Directors Oversees Girl Scout Operations

It is the responsibility of the Board of Directors to see that the money needed in available to finance the council's work. The Operating Budget represents the costs of Girl Scouting, which the community traditionally provides through voluntary contributions.

The work of the El Camino Council is funded in part by the United Way organizations within our eighteen county jurisdiction. No financial aid comes to the Council from the national organization.

The community's financial support covers only a part of the total costs of Girl Scouting. Support does come from other sources: girls and their parents pay camp fees and troop dues and purchase uniforms; the troop supplements dues by earning money for troop activities; adults volunteer their services; other community organizations provide meeting places; and the National Girl Scout Organization develops the Girl Scout program and materials, trains professional workers, and provides other services to Councils.

We believe, and we think you will agree, that the money earned by girls should go for things that girls themselves can use directly while the adult community provides the funds for operating expenses. The Girl Scout Fund Drive gives adults the opportunity to fulfill this responsibility.

The Council Services to girls and their communities include:

--Recruitment and training of volunteer adults who help maintain Girl Scouting in their local communities, or who work directly with girls in troops;

--Summer camp facilities and trained leadership for resident camp and Day Camps;

--Council-wide program events which provide enrichment to girls in such areas as health and safety, personal growth, the arts, outdoor living and conservation, and career opportunities;

--A link to Girl Scouts of the U.S.A., and to the World Association of Girl Scouts and Girl Guides through National and International Opportunities/Events for girls and adults;

--Program materials developed and published for the use of troops by national and local staff.

El Camino Girl Scout Council Has 12 Districts

El Camino Girl Scout Council is comprised of 18 counties and 22 neighborhoods:

DISTRICT I-Eden, Junction, Mason and Menard

DISTRICT II-Carrizo Springs, Crystal City, Del Rio/LAFB, Eagle Pass, La Pryor, Rocksprings and Uvalde

DISTRICT III-Christoval, Mertzon and San Angelo

DISTRICT IV-Big Lake, Eldorado, Ozona and Sonora

El Camino Council served 3736 girls and 723 adults during 1978. This is a 3% increase in girl membership and a 17.3% increase in adult membership, for an overall increase of 6%. There are 189 Brownie and Girl Scout Troops in El Camino.

El Camino has three camps available for troop camping, training, and special events. Camp Jo Jan Van near Barksdale was given to us by Mr. and Mrs. Joseph VanderStucken. It is used year-round by girls and adults, and for the established camping program in the summer. Camp Dixie Allison is located on the San Saba River near Ft. McKavett. The camp was a gift from Mr. Sam Allison. Camp Pueblo del Concho is leased from the city of San Angelo and is located on Lakes Nasworthy near San Angelo.

FINANCE-The Council Operating Budget is supported by federated and non-federated fund campaigns throughout the Council. The Council is a member agency of the United Ways of Dimmit, Maverick, Tom Green, Uvalde and Val Verde Counties.

The annual cookie sales proceeds are used for camp maintenance, development, equipment, and camperships, and a contingency fund that provides for other needs of the Council. Girls earn money for their troops and can earn part of their way to summer resident camp.

MANAGEMENT - El Camino Girl Scout Council is managed by a volunteer Board of Directors elected by Council delegates from each Neighborhood at the Annual Council Meeting. Professional Staff is directed by the Board and includes an Executive Director, three Field Advisors, a bookkeeper, registrar, receptionist and a seasonal camp director. The Council Office is located at 303 W. Avenue A, in San Angelo, and is equipped and staffed to provide a wide variety of services and help to troop leaders.

Bronco Bits....

By Annabelle Gonzales

The girls track team opened their season by finishing second in the Hill Country held in Mason last Friday.

In the field events, Jessica Robledo placed third in both the triple jump and long jump. Paula Friess placed fourth in the long jump, and Marche Lane placed sixth in the triple jump.

In the running events, Lane set a new record in the 880-yard dash of 2:28, breaking her record last year of 2:33.2. Paula Friess placed second in the 440-yard dash with a time of 62.15, and Tonya Evans took fifth in the 100-yard dash with a 12.3 clocking.

The 440-yard relay team composed of Annabelle Gonzales, Evans, Robledo and Rosa Noriega placed fourth. The 880-yard relay team composed of Gonzales, Friess, Robledo and Noriega placed third. The J.V. and varsity boys traveled to Junction last Saturday, and both teams placed fifth.

In the varsity field events, Wayne McLaughlin placed first setting a new shot put record, and Cody Savell placed second in both the long jump and the pole vaults.

In the running events, the 440-yard relay composed of Mike Jones, Eddie Favila, Robert Noriega and Cody Savell placed fifth. Favila placed third in the 220-yard dash and fourth in the 100-yard dash.

Thought for the Week: "Every day of life is a precious gift filled with beauty and wonder."

Bronco Girls Take Second at Mason Meet

A record-breaking effort in the 880-yard dash by Marche Lane and strong showings in all three relays pushed the Sonora Bronco girls track team to a second place finish in the Hill Country Relays in Mason.

The girls finished second only to Class AAA Odessa Ector in the day-long event Friday.

Lane easily outdistanced the field in her specialty to post a 2:28 mark, eclipsing her record set last year as a freshman of 2:33.2.

Paula Friess sprinted to 62.5 clocking in the 440-yard dash to finish second in that event.

The mile relay team of Lane, Friess, Annabelle Gonzales battle pouring rain and winds off a nearby tornado, which hit an estimated 50 to 60 miles an hour, as they took second with a time of 4:37.5.

Although they won their heat by over 100 yards, dodging hurdles and other flying debris that littered the track among high winds, Ector won the second heat in a time of 4:37.5 after the storm had subsided somewhat.

The 880-yard relay team of Gonzales, Friess, Robledo and Rosa Noriega nailed a third place finish as they posted an impressive 1:51.1 time, and the 440-yard relay team of Gonzales, Robledo, Noriega and Tonya Evans finished fourth with a respectable 53.2 effort despite less-than-perfect handoffs on all three exchanges.

Robledo took third place in the triple jump with a leap of 16-1/2, an effort that bumped the previous record by three inches, and Friess took fourth in the event.

Robledo also took a third place trophy in the triple jump, while Lane finished sixth.

Evans also garnered a fifth place finish in the 100-yard dash in a time of 12.3.

The girls will compete at a meet in Ballinger this Saturday.

Bronco Teams Face Busy Weekend

Various Bronco teams will scatter all over West Texas and the Hill Country for a full slate of events this weekend.

Both boys and girls varsity track squads will travel to Ballinger for a cinder meet this Saturday. The girls took second at the Hill Country Relays in Mason Friday, while the boys took fifth at the Junction Relays Saturday.

The Bronco netters hosted a dual meet with Big Lake yesterday afternoon and will travel to Iraan to compete in the Iraan Invitational Tennis Tournament Saturday.

Meanwhile, the golf team will compete in the always tough tournament at Fredericksburg Saturday.

The Sonora Junior High tracksters will get their first taste of action Saturday in Ozona provided repairs to their track are completed as planned.

RR Commissioner Charges Stonewalling by Officials

Texas Railroad Commissioner Mack Wallace recently charged officials in Washington are trying to stonewall their way through the "scandal" that has evolved from America's dependence on insecure, foreign sources of fuels.

Speaking before a regional meeting of the Society of Petroleum Engineers, the state energy regulatory official said no one in the national capital wants to talk about "the greatest scandal this nation has ever faced." President Carter "barely mentioned energy in his recent State of the Union Address," cited Wallace, adding: "That is a sad thing, and you ask yourself why--why no one wants to talk about it in Washington. Because they are responsible!" To extract America from the fuel scandal, Wallace called for a bipartisan national energy policy "for which all can take the responsibility and all can take the credit." Wallace further charged Washington officialdom, within the three decades following World War II, covered the U.S. from the world's leading petroleum producer into an oil and gas consumer totally dependent on foreign suppliers.

The conversion was achieved, recounted Wallace, despite repeated warnings, year in and year out, from the Texas Railroad Commission and the Interstate Oil Compact Commission that the U.S. would become dependent of foreign crude oil if "ridiculous regulatory policies and ridiculous pricing policies" continued.

Wallace pointed to the Natural Gas Policy Act, signed by President Carter in late 1978, as an example of such policies, noting that the new act created two dozen or more categories for pricing domestic natural gas.

Through the act, he said, Washington tells the country that gas discovered at a depth of 14,999 feet is different than gas found at 15,000 feet.

"That should tell you something about how much the federal government knows about producing energy," he suggested to his engineer audience.

Wallace said Texas is virtually carrying the U.S. oil production burden alone and "we will continue to do our share." However, he maintained, Texas cannot permit the use of its gas under large industrial boilers of other states that refuse to take steps to save the premium fuel for higher priority, more beneficial purposes as Texans have.

Failures of other states and the federal bureaucracy to phasedown their use of gas under industrial boilers have compelled the railroad Commission to reconsider its Docket 600 order of 1975, Wallace stated. That Commission order requires large industrial consumers, in two steps, to reduce their use of gas for boiler fuel by 25 percent by 1985.

Wallace noted that the Soviet Union has surpassed the U.S. in oil production and maintained the slippage would have never occurred if the federal government had refrained from tampering with the domestic oil industry.

"Unfortunately," observed Wallace, "we lack the political leadership to let us use the natural resources that God has been kind enough to give this nation."

Loeffler Appointed to Committee

Congressman Tom Loeffler has been appointed to the Energy and Power Subcommittee of the Interstate and Foreign Commerce Committee. He is the only Republican freshman congressman to gain a seat on this much coveted subcommittee.

Jurisdiction of the subcommittee includes all energy matters coming before the Commerce committee and, specifically, jurisdiction over issues relating to petroleum, natural gas, electrical power, regulation of nuclear facilities and special oversight functions with respect to nuclear activities.

Loeffler joins three other Texas congressmen on the subcommittee, Jim Collins, Phil Gramm and Mickey Leland, making the state by far the most heavily represented on this important energy committee.

"There will be no greater challenge facing the 96th Congress than to develop answers to America's long range energy problems," Loeffler noted, "and there is not better--indeed no other--committee post than this to help structure those answers."

Loeffler has an extensive background in energy matters. As a member of Senator John Tower's staff from 1972-74, he was a specialist in energy matters. This led to his appointment to the Federal Energy Administration under Director Frank Zarb. Additionally, as a special assistant to President Ford, Loeffler continued to specialize in energy matters.

Loeffler, 32, is the first Republican elected to serve the 21st Congressional District. He enters his first term having served as the sole freshman representative on the GOP Committee on Committees (which makes committee assignments for all GOP members), and as a member of the major Interstate and Foreign Commerce Committee.

Texas Production Down

Texas oil and gas wells produced 7,077,100,298 Mcf of gas in 1978, down from 7,536,852,272 Mcf in the previous year, according to preliminary calculations of the Railroad Commission's Oil and Gas Division.

Marketed production last year totaled 5,396,340,803 Mcf against 6,387,152,767 Mcf in 1977. Marketed production is the total gas to transmission lines, carbon black and plant fuel and lease use. Total gas exported from Texas in 1978 was 2,668,496,322 Mcf, including gas moving through the state. In 1977, this volume amounted to 2,260,707,614 Mcf.

Exports of Texas-produced gas last year totaled 1,852,229,815 Mcf, down from 2,066,210,686 Mcf in 1977.

Texas oil and gas wells produced 585,669,035 Mcf of gas in December 1978, down 7.27 percent from field runs a year earlier. Marketed gas production totaled 504,196,750 Mcf and reflected a 6.30 percent decrease from the December 1977 volume.

Gas exported from Texas in December totaled 238,303,813 Mcf and included 77,790,134 Mcf of imported gas.

Exports of Texas-produced gas in December totaled 160,513,679 Mcf and reflected a 12.30 percent decrease from the year earlier month.

Natural Gas Pipeline Co. of America was the month's largest exporter, moving 72,527,466 Mcf of gas of which 33,351,474 Mcf was Texas-produced gas.

Texas gas production in December came from 198,386 oil and gas wells.

In November 1978, Texas wells produced 548,005,969 Mcf of gas. Marketed gas production in November totaled 458,997,446 Mcf.

RC Making Emergency Rules

The Texas Railroad Commission has advised the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission that it has the authority to make the state determinations under the Natural Gas Policy Act of 1978 and is currently making such determinations.

In a letter to the federal agency, Commission Special Counsel Rex H. White Jr. said that the Railroad Commission is making the category determinations pursuant to its rules adopted on an emergency basis on Nov. 27, 1978.

The Commission has also approved the publication of permanent rules concerning Natural Gas Policy Act determinations for public comment. The proposed changes clarify filing requirements and reduce the number of notifications required for each application.

Through Feb. 20, the Commission had received approximately 3,200 applications for well determinations from Texas operators. During Tuesday's conference on Oil and Gas Division matters, the Commission approved 31 additional applications for forwarding to the federal Energy Regulatory Commission for acceptance, rejection or remand under pricing provisions of the federal gas policy act.

The Railroad Commission has now approved 353 applications for submission to the federal agency. The latest batch of RRC approvals involved new onshore wells producing from existing reservoirs.

Texans Discover 59 Gas, 12 Oil Wells

Texas operators reported 59 gas and 12 oil discoveries during the

Feb. 1-15, 1979 period, the Railroad Commission's Oil and Gas Division announced today.

In the year-earlier period, 20 gas and 17 oil discoveries were filed with the state's energy regulatory agency.

Gas discoveries in the first month and a half of the new year included 17 in deep South Texas, 13 in Southeast Texas, 11 in the Refugio area, four each in East and West Central Texas, three in the San Antonio area, two each in the East Central Texas, San Angelo and Midland areas, and one in North Texas.

Oil discoveries included four in Southeast Texas and one each in the San Antonio, deep South Texas, East Texas, West Central Texas, San Angelo, Midland, Lubbock and North Texas areas.

In the Feb. 1-15 period, operators reported 148 exploratory and field tests wound up a dry holes.

New applications for permits to drill oil and gas tests totaled 662 in the first half of February, compared with 833 in the same period of 1978.

Applications to drill, deepen, plug back and for service wells in the Feb. 1-15 period amounted to 797 against the 995 a year earlier.

Operators filed 170 amended applications to drill. A year earlier they submitted 144 amended requests.

Girls Scouts across the nation are observing 1979 as the International Year of the Child. They are highlighting it with special "Find the Gift in Every Child" projects, the mayor was told.

He called on all citizens to "join Girl Scouts in recognizing the potential in all children, and support their efforts to provide opportunities for each child to learn and grow."

Ruby Stephen Named Scout Grandmother

By Shirley Hill

Ruby Stephen said "I was never more surprised in my life", in referring to a local Girl Scout troop adopting her as their troop grandmother.

This event occurred just before Christmas when members of Troop 276 decided they would like Mrs. Stephen for their troop grandmother. They had met her at a Christmas party at the Sutton Senior Center and later came to her house bringing Christmas gifts and all the makings for a party.

When Mrs. Stephen was a girl she was also associated with scouting, she was a member of the Campfire Girls. At that time Mrs. A.H. Nathan was her campfire guardian. The other Sonora troop of Campfire girls was headed by Mrs. Hattie Epps, who still resides in Sonora.

Although the girls voted on her, Mrs. Stephen said she was never more surprised in her life and never more thrilled.

She says members of the troop come two to three times each week and she thoroughly enjoys the pleasant surprises. Her own grandchildren Shelly Ann, 12, and Kevin Carroll, 10, live in Cottonwood, Arizona and she gets to see them seldom.

Mrs. Carroll lives alone. Her husband died in February, 1978 and her only child, Ernest Carroll Stephen, died in April of that same year.

Although she lives alone Mrs. Stephen has a multitude of friends who come by or call and she also, according to her, has some wonderful neighbors who check on her.

Born Ruby Cook, she came to Sonora in 1909 with her family. She met her husband here whose father was pastor of the First Baptist Church.

Her husband went to work for Sonora Motor Company when he moved here as a young man and held that job for some 37 years until his retirement.

Mrs. Stephen attended beauty college and opened her own shop when her son was only four years old. She continued to keep her clients coiffured until she retired thirty years later.

Although this lovely little woman had only been out of the hospital for two days when she was interviewed, her personality and lovely appearance was evidence of the reason this little group of girls wanted her for a grandmother.

Troop 08

Laura Draper is leader of troop 08. Her husband, Bobby, works for Tom Brown Drilling Company and they have one child, Angela, 2.

Ms. Draper has three years experience as a Girl Scout and has been a leader for one year. High schooler Cathy Nelson assists her with the troop.

Her troop meets on Mondays at the Scout House and is sponsored by Mr. and Mrs. Clay Carta.

Members of the troop are Kristin Keel, Mary Bea Huckaby, Tammi Jones, Saumarie Scoggins, Lori Ann Guerra, Devena Bible, Debra Moore, Tammy Holquin, Nora Gonzales and Marie

Martinez.

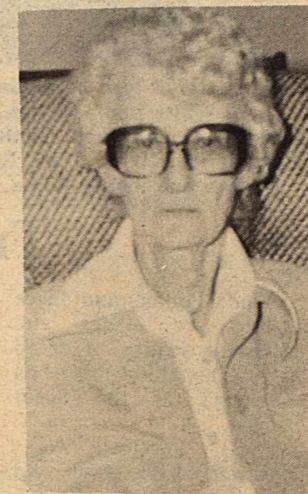

Some troop activities during the past months include making thank you cards for mothers who helped with a bake sale. Their December activities included making scarves for their mothers for Christmas and also a party. In January they participated in the Junior Olympics and worked on their badges in January and February.

Local Girl Scouts sold 4,008 boxes of cookies during the recent cookie drive. Three girls from different troops were awarded ten days of free camping for selling over 200 boxes each.

This is the third year for her as cookie chairman, and members of the program have nothing but praise for Lou who has a talent for making everything go on schedule with undo stress.

The reason she gives? "I thoroughly enjoy scouts. It is so important to be involved with children and to help them form good habits that will guide them all their lives. I am not able to do this much but I can help in this way," said Mrs. McMillon.

Lou is married to C.A. McMillon and has two children, Mike and Gina. The McMillons own and operate the Sonora Texaco Station and attend St. Ann's Church.
