Fling Ding open set

The "Fling Ding" Open will be held at the Sonora Golf Club Sunday, February 5, weather permitting. According to a spokesperson, all entries must be in by 12:30 p.m. and the cost for the five-person scramble will be $8 per person.

Eyeglasses needed

The Westside Lions Club of Sonora has undertaken a service project of collecting used eyeglasses for the needy. These glasses will be used wherever needed. Some people are less fortunate and this is another way of helping others. Please donate any eyeglasses you don't use.

The used eyeglasses can be dropped off at two locations, Sam Perez's Barber Shop at 304 Glasscock and Ed Carrasco's Phillips 66 Service Station at 1002 Crockett Avenue.

If any person is unable to take the eyeglasses to one of these places they can call Ben Solis at 387-3191, Ed Carrasco at 387-2163, or Erasmo Lumberras at 387-3443 and the eyeglasses will be picked up.

This is a continual project of the Westside Lions Club and your help will be deeply appreciated by the Club and some needy individual.

CCW scheduled

On February 3-5, the Catholic Church will host a CCW (Christian Community Weekend) of the Diocese of San Angelo. Young men and women who have experienced a search of christian maturity are invited to grow in their Christian commitment.

We have nearly 15 eligible people from the local parish. Let us pray for them and encourage them. Also, you may be asked to help with preparing the meals and the facilities for them. Please be generous with your time. If you are 16 years or older and have not made a search, call Sylvia Noriega, 387-5096 at the Church office, to register for the next one, March 2-4.

Bake sale slated

On this Friday, February 3, in front of Food Center and City Hall, the Firemen's Auxiliary will be holding a bake sale.

It will be featuring items from the cookbook and will be a help to folks who will be having a house-full of company for "Fling-Ding."

Be sure to drop by either place and let us solve some of your cooking problems.

If you like what you buy, remember that you can have the recipe handy by purchasing one of the Auxiliary Cookbooks for $8.

We'll be seeing you this Friday, February 3 from 9 a.m. until we have sold all of our goodies. Remember, we will be at Food Center and also in front of City Hall. If the weather is bad, then look for us inside. Come and enjoy. Our sale will include a variety of dips, appetizers and baked goods.

Varsity girls fall to Coahoma

BY CHARLIE ADAMS

The Sonora girls had one of those games that all coaches know happen sooner or later.

It was a night that the team as a whole just never gets going or when things start going it seems to be in reverse. The Coahoma Bulldogs with four players in double figures handed the broncos by far their worst defeat of the season to the tune of 58-39.

It is really the first time all season that the local girls really haven't been in position to still win in the fourth quarter.

However, this time the Coahoma owned a 45-27 lead starting the final stanza. This makes the Broncos 4-2 in district 6-AAA play.

Crane defeated Colorado City to remain undefeated in district play at 6-0 while C-City drops to 2-4. Ballinger beat Ozona to up their record to 3-3 the same as Coahoma. Ozona is 0-6 in district play.

The Broncos were led by senior Lorri French with 10 points from the floor but only 1 of 6 from the line for 11 points. Lea Whitehead put in eight, Judy Merrill scored seven before fouling out of the game. Kristi Hill got 6,

Bond monies now in school's account

BY LEIGHNAE FABIAN

Vivian Myers announced the bond monies have been received and is now in a money market account.

Trustee elections were announced for places 1, held by Dr. Johnny Fields, 2, held by Sam Perez and 5, held by Rosemary Mathews since the resignation of Sammy Stewart.

Mr. and Mrs. Zane Powers and Preston Faris were present to verify the school policy concerning the time children have to make up work they missed after having an excused absence from school, such as for 4-H events. The board stated the children have the same amount of time to make work up as the time they missed from school.

Consideration of the tennis court lighting bids was tabled until the next meeting because the electric company has agreed to run the lines further than expected and the bidders asked for a few more days to revise their bids accordingly.

Girls take 2nd in district

BY CHARLIE ADAMS

The Sonora girls Varsity basketball team opened the week 3-0 in district 6-AAA play and upped that to 4-0 as they beat Ballinger 56-46 in Bronco Gym last week.

The Broncos took a 10-9 first quarter lead and upped it to 26-21 at halftime. The Broncos blew the game open in the third quarter as they outscored the Bearcats 19-9 to take a 16 point lead into the final stanza.

Lea Whitehead led the Broncos with 16 points, Lorri French scored 10, Debbie Bible got 9, Della Heffernan put in 8, Kristi Hill 6, Judy Merrill 4, Lora Lea Kordzik 2, and Anita Balch 1. The Broncos hit 10 of 16 freethrows and committed only 16 fouls.

The big game of the week was played on Friday night at Crane. The two undefeated teams in the Lady Crane Golden Cranes and the Sonora Broncos battled for the first half win in District 6-AAA.

The first quarter saw Crane take a 10-7 lead and the Broncos come-back to make it 21-20 at halftime. The third quarter combined with several players in foul trouble was the Broncos undoing. The Cranes outscored the Broncos 20-10 in that third period. The Broncos won the fourth period 18-13 but that wasn't enough as the Cranes came away with a 54-48 victory.

Lorri French led the Broncos with 12 points before fouling out of the game. Debbie Bible added 10 points before she also fouled out of the game.

Kristi Hill added nine points, Judy Merrill seven, and Anita Balch two. The Broncos hit only 10 of 18 freethrows while the Cranes were only 6 of 18. The Broncos committed 21 fouls to 16 for the Cranes.

You probably are asking yourself, Well, how does this loss affect the Broncos as far as playoff possibilities go? A look at the total district standings will help shed a little light on the possibilities. The Cranes are 5-0, Broncos 4-1, Ballinger 2-3, Coahoma 2-3, Colorado City

2-3, Ozona 0-5.

This means that since the first two teams make the play-off, the Broncos must either win the second half of district play or finish second again.

If they win, it will force a play off game with Crane to determine first and second.

The Broncos will have a tough schedule as they play three of their five games on the road while playing just two games at home. It should prove to be a very exciting second half as the Broncos push toward a possible playoff berth.

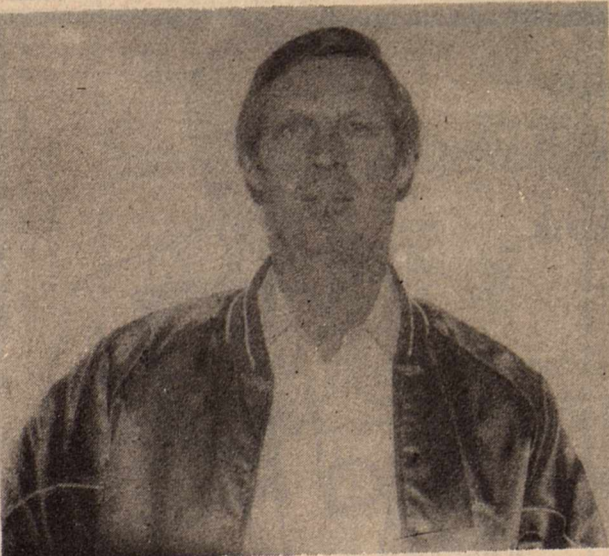

In J.V. action things were not so good, as the underclassmen Broncos won one of three, the Consolation championship at the Eldorado tournament. The Broncos experienced a very cold shooting night on this past Tuesday as they fell to the Ballinger Bearcats 54-46.

They next played the Reagan Co. Owls in the Eldorado tournament and lost 33-32 on a shot at the final buzzer.

Leigh French and Bonnie Jackson led the scoring with eight points each. Kate Mathews put in six, Gina Heffernan five, Sorenson and Richter two each, and Blankenship one.

The Broncos put it all together on Saturday as they blasted the host Eldorado Eagles 60-22. Carrie Sorenson led the way with 13 points, Leigh French 9, Kate Mathews and Bonnie Jackson 8 each, Gina Heffernan six, Kathy Richter and Belinda Mendez 4 each, Stacy Miller 3, Alma Quiroz and Lori Sotelo two each and Sandy Blankenship one. This made the J.V. season record 14-7.

In boys' play, the Broncos lost to Ballinger 91-53, and to Crane 84-72. This leaves the Broncos at 0-3 in district play. The J.V. boys bet Ballinger 54-50 and lost to Reagan Co. at the Eldorado tournament.

KEEL FILES FOR COMMISSIONER PLACE THREE

Bill Keel of 407 Hightower filed this week for Sutton County Commissioner, Precinct Three. A nine year resident of Sonora, Keel owns Sonora Auto Parts. He and his wife Cynthia, who is secretary to the high school principal, have one daughter, age 15. Bill is completing his second term as a city councilman. Bill stated Monday, "I filed for County Commissioner because I live and operate businesses in Precinct 3. I feel that the county owes its responsibilities to both the rural and the city dwellers. I will work for the best interests of Sutton County as a whole. I believe that the job of commissioner is a privilege and that, as such, the salary paid for this job is way out of line. I will work for substantial decrease in commissioners' salaries because I feel that this money could be used in better ways to benefit the county. My experience as a city councilman has given me the responsibilities of a County Commissioner, and I will work for the best interest of Sutton County." (DRN Photo---KKN)

Film showing set at First Baptist

"How to be a Good Lover" will be shown at the First Baptist Church, February 5 at 5 p.m. for 7th graders to college students.

Noted author and lecturer Josh McDowell reveals the all important secret to finding a good lover in his new film -- by sharing that you must be one first!

Student Jeff Rutledge faces the problem of finding the perfect lover. He was thrilled with his computerized list of ideal qualities until friend Marci pointed out a fatal flaw in his approach - it doesn't work! Shortly thereafter, both Jeff and Marci hear Josh McDowell lecture about what does work.

Rutledge learns some new ways to gain the important requirements of healthy self-identity, a well-defined purpose in life, and communication skills necessary for sustaining a close and rewarding relationship.

Come learn along with Jeff as you laugh and are challenged by Josh McDowell's helpful principles to become a lover worth having," a spokesperson for the church stated.

"How to be a Good Lover" is a must-see film says Earnest and Kathie Lykins who will be leading a short discussion following the screening of the film in the First Baptist Church's next program.

Adults-parents and 5th and 6th graders - if you are interested in seeing this film it will be shown at 6 p.m. February 5.

Powers attends college through scholarship program

Milford Rick Powers, from Sonora is attending college through the Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo's world renown scholarship program.

Powers is a sophomore at Texas A&M University, majoring in Animal Science and is receiving a 4-H four-year scholarship.

"The Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo is the Southwest's premier charity event and the nation's largest donor of agriculture scholarships," noted Show President E. Norwin Gerhart. "All of our net proceeds are committed to benefit young people through our support of youth and education. When someone buys a ticket to attend a rodeo performance and see one of their favorite stars, we want them to know that their ticket dollars translate into a commitment for some deserving young person to receive scholastic assistance. It's the finest investment in the future anyone can make--and still have a good time doing it at a rodeo performance!"

Currently, the Show's total scholarship program represents a commitment of more than $6 million, through its annual, four-year and endowment awards.

The show annually awards 100, $8,000 four-year awards, divided evenly between outstanding 4-H and FFA members. These awards are presented each year at the FFA state convention and at 4-H Roundup. Evaluation of these FFA and 4-H applicants is carried out by appropriate personnel in the Texas Education Agency (TEA) and the Texas Agricultural Extension Service (4-H).

The show provides the funds for the scholarships, but does not select the winners. Its only stipulations are that a student major in some form of agriculture and attend a college or university within the state of Texas.

Additionally, the show funds a one-year scholarship awards program. Through this part of the program, 48 counties and 15 metropolitan Houston areas that participate in special show promotions and activities, each present a one-year, $2,000 Houston Show scholarship award to a deserving student from their area. As with other awards are, the show does not participate in the selection.

Rounding out the show's awards are 20 graduate assistantships, four Texas Christian University Range Management Program awards and assistance to two doctoral fellows.

When all these awards are combined, the Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo annually presents more than $1 million in scholarship awards. Currently, more than 450 students are receiving scholarship awards through this portion of the scholarship program.

This does not take into account the hundreds of students who receive aid through the scholarship endowment program, initiated in 1978. The show has donated some $3.4 million through this program, which is a logical extension of its commitment to supporting education. To date, 12 Texas universities have received funds, one-time gifts which make possible scholarship assistance to students not helped through the annual awards program.

Interest from the funds is used to provide the endowed scholarships, with the universities handling all administration of the program and selection of the students. While the number of students receiving endowed scholarships varies from semester to semester, it is estimated that more than 900 students will receive show endowment funds this year.

"Our commitment to the scholarship program is what the Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo is all about," said Gerhart. "There is no finer purpose for any charitable organization than furthering the education of young people and we are proud that community support has enabled the Houston Show to do so much for so many fine young people who are the leaders of the future."

BY IRMA DILLER

Dear Irma,

Some of my friends and I recently had occasion to dine at a marvelous Japanese restaurant where the food is cooked at your table. Food, service, and our cook's showmanship was excellent. The evening was marred by only one thing. We were seated with a group of "name droppers". Throughout the entire dinner, it was Gucci this and Sasson that and etc. It was very irritating and really, Irma, who cares?

Sign me, No Names-Please!

Dear No,

I'm with you. This is a classic example of "You can dress them up (in this case, in their Gussi's Sasson's and etc.) but you can't necessarily take them out."

In all probability, when the bill came, one of the group took a mini-computer from a genuine leather handbag and divided the bill according to who had what, then each member paid their portion in one dollar bills. The tip, if any, was nominal.

In my opinion, the need to drop names does not indicate a case of breeding or class but rather a lack of and being in your place, I would have fought the urge to say "Pardon me, madame, but your Freudian slip is showing".

Irma-a name not often dropped

Dear Irma,

We have children away at school and our phone bill is getting ridiculous. Do you have any suggestions short of taking the phone out?

Troubled AT&T'er

Dear Troubled,

I also have a "nesting" away from home and one thing I can offer you is sympathy. I know about phone bills-ours is equivalent to the National Debt.

I remember a saying my mother used which was "You always pay for your raising". She could have added "and pay and pay and"

View the situation with a sense of humor. After all, we taught them to talk. Try keeping a list of "reasons to call home". My favorite, so far, is "Mom, there was a wreck down the street from the dorm and I can see all the flashing lights and I just now walked over to the window and saw it and I had to call you." The excuse cost me $3.19 before there was even any conversation.

Keep your chin up and your mouth ready to form the words "Yes, operator, I'll except". When the bill comes in, take a moment to think how really lucky you are. Your children call home-many don't!

Irma

Bullock gives grace period

State Comptroller Bob Bullock said recently that Texas business operating outside state tax law will get a one-time-only, penalty-free chance in February to get right with the Comptroller's Office before Bullock lowers the boom in March.

"We'll give them 29 days in February to get right with the law," Bullock said. "If they come in and wipe the slate clean, we won't charge them penalty and we won't file charges against them. If they wait until March or if they wait until we find them, they'll be too late."

Comptroller enforcement officers will begin using new procedures designed to more quickly identify and collect taxes from errant taxpayers in March. Under the law, the Comptroller can collect a 10 percent penalty and has the power to file criminal charges for unreported state taxes.

"We will only waive penalties and charges if the taxpayer comes forward voluntarily during February," Bullock said. "Chronic late filers, delinquent taxpayers, and other taxpayers already under investigation or court prosecution don't qualify for this relief."

"Mr. Suspenders" wins 2nd

Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Hankins, with their two sons-in-law and daughters, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Morriss of Sonora and Mr. and Mrs. Frank McMullan of Ozona, were in Odessa January 14 at the West Texas Quarter Horse Association banquet.

Louise Morriss and Sue May of Ft. Stockton, joint owners of Mr. Suspenders, were presented an award for the horse's second place win in the All-American Race at Ruidoso on Labor Day.

The first balloon flight occurred in 1782, when Jacques and Joseph Montgolfier of Annonay, France, sent up a small smoke filled balloon.

Della Heffernan 3, and Anita Balch and Debbie Bible scored two points each.

The Broncos were nine of 23 from the foul line with most misses being the front-end of one-and-one situations. The Bulldogs were 13 of 22 from the line.

The Sonora J.V. girls did manage a 46-24 victory over the J.V. team from Coahoma.

Leigh French was the leading scorer with 10, Michelle McCleery 9, Kate Mathews 7, Gay Ann Dobbs 6, Stacy Miller and Gina Heffernan 4 each, while Lori Sotelo, Kathy Richter and Sidonna Ridgeway got 2 points each. This makes the J.V. record 15-7 on the season.

The Sonora Varsity and J.V. boys both lost to Coahoma. In Varsity play Colorado City leads district 6-AAA with a 4-0 record. Crane and Ballinger are both 3-1 while Sonora and Ozona are both 0-4.

Sick pay benefits are taxable income

Taxpayers who received sick pay benefits from their employer in 1983 must include the payments as income on their federal tax return, the Internal Revenue Service says.

The payments are taxable whether they were made directly by the employer or from a welfare fund, a state sickness or disability fund, or an insurance company, provided the plan was paid for by the employer.

Benefits received under an accident or health insurance policy for which the employee paid the premiums are not considered taxable by the IRS.

More information on sick pay benefits is contained in the free IRS Publication 525, "Taxable and Nontaxable Income," which can be ordered on the handy order form in the tax package or by calling IRS.

Annual Fling Ding Dance slated for February 4

The annual Fling Ding Dance will be held in the Sonora Wool and Mohair Warehouse Saturday, February 4. Entertainment will be by "Music in the Morgan Manner" as Jack Morgan brings his orchestra to the dance.

Morgan took over as leader and conductor of the orchestra upon the death of his father Russ in 1969. Jack has been trombonist, vocalist and assistant leader in his father's orchestra for more than 10 years. He sings in several different languages and his Spanish vocals have made him a favorite among Latin music fans.

The Russ Morgan Orchestra with Jack Morgan will begin at 8 p.m. and will play four hours of vintage dance and listening music.
