Marcus Wayne relays shift-change information to "Mad Max" at noon Monday. Both men were holding up well at this point during the "changing of the guard"

Sheepdog Trials break Texas record

The gusty winds did not enhance the intelligence of the sheep, making the dogs work all the harder at the Third Annual Sheepdog Trials held here this past weekend. The sheep, wanting merely to return from whence they came, contributed to the disqualification of some of the dogs and the frustration of failing to complete any of the course to others.

Spectators expressed fastenation in the furry little dogs who seem to be made up of speed, intelligence and cunning.

The first sheep dog trials were held in Bala, Wales in 1873. The purpose of the trials was and is to promote better breeding and training of sheepdogs and to improve the handling of livestock. The trials also serve to stress the vital importance of working qualities as opposed to show qualities.

Customarily in each trial the team of trainer and dog are given five sheep. Due to the shortage of sheep available, each team was given three sheep during Sonora's trials.

It is up to the dog, on commands from the trainer either by voice or whistle, to maneuver the sheep through the course.

The dog begins with the "lift" where he approaches the sheep some 200 yards out from the trainer. This distance varies according to the trial course.

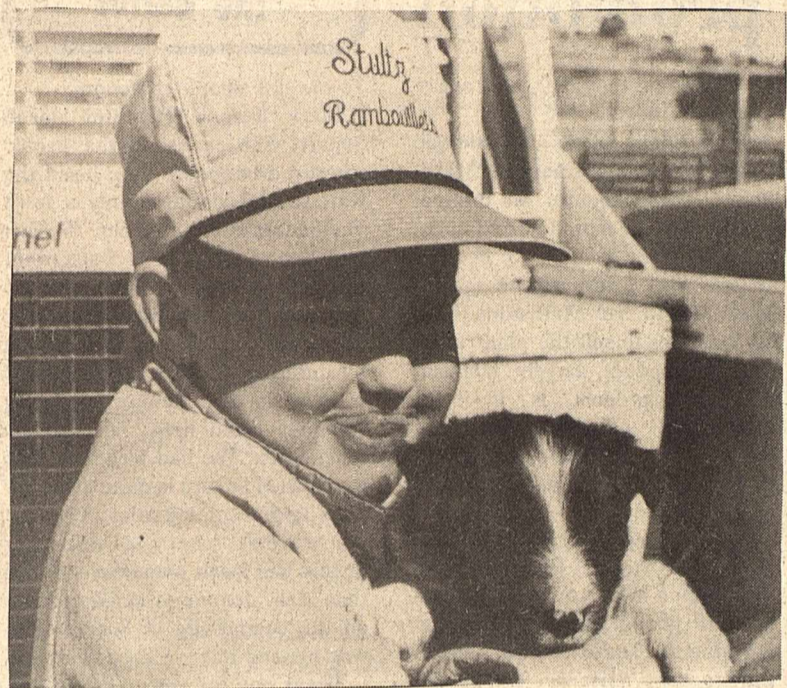

The dog then "fetches" the sheep to the trainer before driving them through two sets of panels.

After the drives, the dog pens the sheep. While penning, the handler may assist the dog but over-assistance will count off on the score.

In the final part of the trial, the dog demonstrates his control of the sheep by "shedding." In shedding, the dog must separate the sheep and keep them apart.

Throughout the course, the dogs are judged on their ability to obey and execute commands in a gentle yet firm manner. Rash or rough work, slowness or work resulting in too many commands are penalized.

First Place Open Class went to Bill Berhow and Jaff, second [Cont. on pg. 8.]

Sheepdog enthusiasts come in all sizes as do the sheep dogs as is evidenced by Ricky Jones, of Eden, as he tells "Bo" to smile.

Presenting a challenge

"Margaret Cascadden has challenged the Mayor and each member of the Council to match her pledge of twenty dollars."

"A grocery store manager has challenged all store managers and employees to match his pledge."

"A garage owner has challenged all mechanics to match his pledge of forty dollars."

And the list of challenges goes on and on including those to school classes, teachers, family members and organizational members.

The cause is for the Onesimo "Nash" Arredondo family whose residence burned on January 19, four year old Rebecca Aguilar perished as a result of the fire and Nash is currently in the Burn Center at Brooks Air Force Base in San Antonio.

Called the "KHOS-a-thon" the radiothon is being conducted by "Mad Max Danger" and Marcus Wayne on KVRN-KHOS here in Sonora.

Both agree that the event was a spontaneous thing. Wayne approached Mad Max with the idea, they discussed it with station manager, Mike Street and the "KHOS-a-thon was born."

"We originally wanted to do it next week," Wayne said "but my wife and I had a baby due on February 14 so Mike said 'Let's do it this week so you can be with your wife. We worked out all the details on Wednesday. Our baby was born Thursday morning at 3:12.'"

The "KHOS-a-thon" started at 12 midnight on January 23 and will run until 12 noon on Saturday, January 31 with each of the two DJ's alternating six hour shifts.

Marcus Wayne and Mad Max both said they would like to thank their wives and families for their support in this endeavor.

"Mad Max", born in Washington, D.C., and his wife Cookie moved to Sonora from Topeka, Kansas. Max says he's delighted to be working in a small area because of the diversification of duties. The couple has two children.

Marcus and his wife Diana came to Sonora from San Angelo. Marcus has been involved in both radio and television communications for some time. As of last Thursday they also have two children.

When asked how much had been raised so far, "Mad Max" said "We said when we started this that we would not disclose any amounts until the end of the 180 hour time. I will say though that Sonora is one of the best, most generous communities I've ever seen."

Mad Max went on to say that this generosity had spurred a new slogan for KVRN-KHOS which is "Sonora Proud."

The goal of the event is to raise as much money as possible to be used by the Arredondo's to pay medical bills, replace lost items and to start rebuilding their lives.

KHOS Cash Cans have been distributed to Cousins, Circle K, Town and Country and the Sutton County Steakhouse and money can be taken directly to the radio station for those wishing to contribute.

And to Mad Max and Marcus Wayne, thanks for the tremendous job you are doing. It's because of people like you that you can use your new slogan!

Board deals with full agenda

The Board of Trustees of the Sonora Independent School District met in regular session at 12:00 Noon on Tuesday, January 20, 1987, in the Board Room of the Administration Building, 807 South Concho, Sonora, Texas.

After several questions by various Board members concerning bills were answered to their satisfaction, current accounts payable in the amount of $1,251,827.22 were unanimously authorized for payment on motion of Julio Samaniego with a second by Rosemary Mathews. Of this amount, it was pointed out that $1,010,392.50 was a principal and interest payment on the high school bond issue.

Rex Ann Friess, chief appraiser for the Sutton County Tax Appraisal District, reported on the collection rate to date, commenting that the December collections were one per cent below a year ago in spite of the tax advantage (under the new federal tax laws), of paying property taxes in 1986.

Director of Business Warren McCarron gave reports on the revenue budget, expenditures, and cash balances by fund, remarking that all were in line.

SISD race for Pcts 1 and 3

Sonora's school board election on Saturday, April 4, will see races in County precincts 1 and 3, both for full three-year terms.

At present, the precinct 1 seat is held by Joe Garcia, and the precinct 3 slot is filled by Carl Teaff. Both members were elected in April of 1985 when all seven seats on the Board of Trustees were filled following the school district's settlement agreement in a single-member district civil action.

At that time, the agreement stipulated that all seven members of the school board would run and would draw for length of terms following the election. Precincts 2 and 4 drew the one-year terms; precinct 1 and 3 drew the two-year terms; and the three at-large members are in the second year of full three-year terms. All three at-large members' terms will expire in April of 1988.

In addition to Garcia in precinct 1 and Teaff in precinct 3, Board membership consists of the following: Precinct 2, Jim Garret, director of public works for the City of Sonora; Julio Samaniego, Jr., precinct 4, El Paso Natural Gas. The three at-large members are Rosemary Mathews, manager of a savings and loan; Sam Perez, local barber; and Board President Scott Shurley, rancher.

Applications for a place on the April 4 ballot are now open. To qualify, a candidate must reside in either county precinct 1 or 3, must be a registered voter, and must have lived in the school district for at least one year. To file for a place on the ballot, come by the school administrative office, 807 South Concho, Sonora, between the hours of 8 a.m. and 4 p.m. any weekday through Wednesday, March 4.

Absentee voting will be at the administrative office from Monday, March 16, through Tuesday, March 31, 1987. On the day of the election, Saturday, April 4, precinct 1 voters will cast their ballots at the 4-H Barn, and those in precinct 3 will vote at the Courthouse.

Sheep and Goat Workshop scheduled for February 3

An educational program dealing with the preparation and understanding the values of various cuts of lamb will highlight the program for the upcoming Sheep & Goat Workshop scheduled here in Sonora on Tuesday, February 3, 1987.

The workshop is sponsored by the Sutton County Extension Agricultural Advisory Committee.

The lamb segment of the program will feature a visual evaluation of four lambs at 8:00 a.m. on Tuesday morning. All producers in the area are urged to attend. See if you think the lambs are fat enough, too thin or too fat! Pick the one which you would want to eat. Then come back at 6:30 p.m. and enjoy a meal of lamb. Following the meal Dr. Frank Orts, meat specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service from Texas usually cut the carcasses and give an evaluation of each. As a special treat for the chef in each household we will have a special presentation on preparation and cooking of lamb.

Between 9:00 a.m. and 5:00 p.m. we will be covering critical sheep and goat production issues which determine profit levels. All producers need to adjust their supplemental feeding schedules so that they can attend this program. Some of the subjects to be covered include a detailed discussion of external parasite control by Dr. Tom Fuchs, TAEX entomologist from San Angelo; the use of implants in growing lambs by Dr. Tom Troxel, TAEX livestock specialist from Uvalde; sheep and goat nutrition and the Texas Sheep and Goat Profit program by Dr. George Ahlschwede, TAEX sheep and goat specialist from San Angelo; and what your range is lacking by Dr. Larry White, TAEX range specialist.

We will also be giving a program on preparation and grading of both wool and mohair. A brief discussion of markets and market outlooks for wool and mohair and lambs will be held.

This is a very intensive educational program which will benefit every producer who is wise enough to attend. We've tried to put it all in one day so that you won't have to be away from the ranch for very long. This information comes from Preston Faris, Sutton County Extension Agent. The program will begin at the First National Bank Community Rooms. There will be a small registration fee. Watch your mail box for more details or call the County Extension office for additional information.

Notes from the Chamber

by Dede Doran

I hope you attended the Sheep Dog Trials last Saturday. This is a fascinating event and is one that all should see. Many thanks to Patti Strauch for making this event a successful one.

Would you be interested in helping to start an outdoor drama in Sonora? There will be a very informative meeting Thursday, January 29, at 7:00 p.m. in the First National Bank Meeting Room for any interested individuals. Mrs. Harper, founder of the outdoor drama "Texas", will be the speaker. I think it would be a worthwhile project and one that could bring a lot of tourists to Sonora. Remember, tourists spent money! It certainly would not hurt our economy any!

Landowners: If you have not gotten your 1987 Hunting Lease information to me, you might remember that time is drawing near. I MUST have this information by January 31 in order to take it to the Dallas Hunters Extravaganza. I am getting approximately 3 to 4 calls or letters daily from potential hunters. Your information is NOT going out to them if you haven't gotten in touch with me! I will not put any of the old information on the list unless you tell me to. Please call or come by my office.

Congratulations to the Girl Scouts who will be having their District Convention in Sonora on Saturday, January 31! This is their 75th Anniversary and we are delighted that they chose Sonora for the site of their celebration. Many people have worked very hard to make this event a success. I know it will be! Be sure to extend a friendly hand to our visitors this Saturday.

Don't forget the Benefit Auction for Ted Westover who is in need of a liver transplant. The Auction will be held on Saturday, January 31 at 2:00 p.m. at the 4-H Barn. I have been informed that LP Bloodworth and Jack Spencer will be helping with the Auction. Talley's Clock Shop from San Angelo has donated a beautiful Westminster Chime Clock to be auctioned off. This clock can be seen in my office any time this week. It is a beautiful piece of workmanship. It is a classic design of the Vienna "Empire" period, circa 1810 in solid mahogany. Come by and see it!

Many, many thanks to the radio station KVRN and KHOS for their hard work to raise money for Nash Arredondo and his family. I know they are in great need and it is wonderful to see Sonora pull together to help them. We wish them much success. This Radio-A-Thon is still going on!

I think these two events show just how much the people of Sonora care. I doesn't matter where you live, we are willing to help as much as we can. This is so important. If we cannot help our fellow man, just who can we help?!

Sorry I forgot to get my five business members in my column last week! Please do remember these five businesses: San Angelo Savings Association, Shurley Enterprises, Bobbie A. Smith Real Estate, Sonic Drive In of Sonora, and Sonora Animal Hospital.

See you next week!

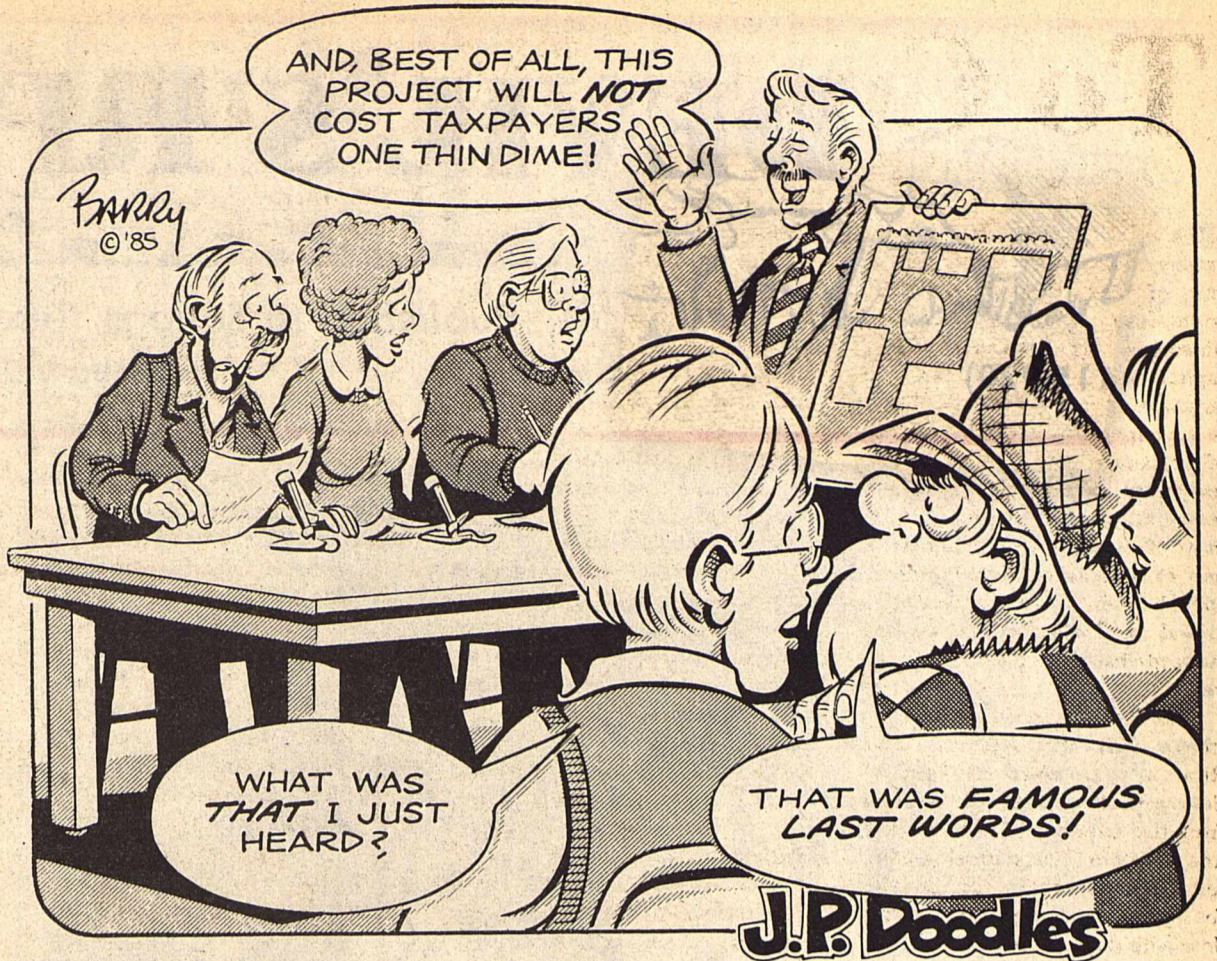

Letters to the Editor

To the fine people of Sonora:

Mary Jeanne Hamilton loved Sonora. She cherished the people who lived in Sonora. She loved the warmth and kindness only a town like Sonora could give her. We can understand why her feelings were this way. During her illness, friends and townspeople alike, expressed their deep concern for Mary Jeanne by offering their assistance and services in any manner that they felt they could help. This greatly touched us. We had forgotten that the town of Sonora is quite different from larger communities. We saw the extreme love and care that Sonora has for its own. We are sure that Mary Jeanne is smiling down on the community of Sonora. She was blessed to have lived there.

Thank you for your concern and comfort during this time of sorrow. We shall not forget you.

The family of
Mary Jeanne Hamilton

State of the Union?

T Driskell

By the time you read this you should have heard the State of the Union Address and the Democratic rebuttal. It offers a wonderful opportunity for the President to bite the bullet and face the music on the Iran-Contra affair. He could do a lot to unify political action to face today's problems if he would follow the desk sign on President Truman's desk: "The Buck Stops Here!" He's the chief of that "show" and any action taken with, or without, his knowledge is his total responsibility. If he would explain what happened, accept responsibility, and conduct appropriate "shop clearance" he could restore some of his political credibility.

Some performances of the second term tend, however, toward the generation of doubt. The sequence, for example, of a prominent member of the immoral majority talking about the survivability of a nuclear war, the steadily increasing defense budget, and the flagrant lack of protection of internal mechanical, electronics, and petroleum industries are a bothersome combination. Projection of that combination will give us a gigantic military establishment with a limited capability to maintain it in the field for even a short period. Could the implication be that some planner has bought the one-week (or less) war concept? If so, asbestos is the material and long drawers with "booties" and hoods is the required pattern.

Do we have a consistent policy toward terrorism? Consider Lybia, the interception of an Egyptian airliner in international air space, and then trying to negotiate a trade for hostages (if it is true) and it is not hard to see why our allies have difficulties following our logic. Enough napalm dropped on Iranian territory before Basra might be a better negotiating tool.

There has been much chest pounding about the inflation, ignoring that most of the result is the yo-yo effect brought about by surrendering so much of our sovereignty to OPEC. We are simultaneously trying to reduce the value of the dollar allowing a free fall. What happens if OPEC stops pricing its oil in dollars?

Many idle oil rigs are being bought in bankruptcies for export, and export to Russia has been approved-a good built in delay in case we ever want to rebuild our domestic petroleum industry.

The second term has been, to be as kind possible, erratic. In terms of our future, subversive would possibly be more realistic.

City Council meet and approve ordinance

by Charlotte Gilmore

City Council conducted business at its monthly meeting Tuesday morning, January 20th, on a historic day: Bill Clements became Texas' newest Governor, replacing Mark White. I heard an interesting comment that our new Governor is the oldest man ever to be sworn into the office, and decided to check it out. I discovered that it is only all but impossible to check out the accuracy of that statement, but that it is all but impossible to find out how many Governors have preceded him in the office. I was told by the Research Librarian at Dallas City Library that the list begins with the Spanish Governors even before the territory belonged to Mexico and that even after Texas became a state the list is shaky because of the Civil War. He could find no place where the Governor is referred to by number. I would be happy to know if any of my readers has better information on the subject.

On the Council's agenda for the day were several items of business which I believe are of public interest. The Council voted to issue the Order for a General Election to be held on Saturday, April 4, 1987 for the purpose of electing city officials.

They voted to approve an ordinance which will "require the demolition or repair of buildings which are dilapidated, substandard, or unfit for human habitation and which constitute a hazard to the health, safety and welfare of the citizens of Sonora." A board will be set up to administer this ordinance and to make recommendations to the Council before any such action is taken.

A representative from Statex Petroleum, Inc. gave an update on the status of its drilling operations in Sonora, assuring the Council that delays in their originally projected time schedule are due to events in the ordinary course of business. They anticipate drilling will begin during the last part of the first quarter of this year or, at the latest, the early part of the second quarter.

A private citizen made a request that the Council assist her in getting a Texas Employment Commission office in Sonora. The Council referred her to the County Judge as such an office would serve the entire county. The Council did offer to write a letter to the Commission stating the need for such an office here in Sonora.

Chain letter promotion

Have you ever been asked to participate in a chain letter which is guaranteed to earn you lots of money with one small investment? Don't waste your money--chain letters are a form of lottery and may violate federal mail fraud laws. The same three elements that apply to lotteries (payment, prize and chance) also make chain letter schemes illegal. The payment may be money or any other item of value. The prize is the large amount of money you are led to believe you will receive in the end if you participate. The chance is that the chain will break, and it must, because the chance that all participants in a chain letter will receive mail is mathematically impossible. For example, a typical chain letter may require participants to mail letters containing money to six new participants, each of whom must mail six letters to six more individuals and so on. By the eleventh level of mailing, the entire population of the United States (almost three-hundred million) would be exhausted. By the 13th level, the population of the world (over four billion) would be exhausted. And remember, even if the chain letter itself is not mailed, as long as the payment or prize is sent through the mail, the entire scheme is illegal.

Some chain letters masquerade as Multi-Level Marketing (MLM) Plans. These require an original promoter to sell a product and enlist several other people to become sellers, who in turn recruit others. Most Multi-Level Marketing Plans are schemes to sell the plan rather than the product, and the fact that selling a product is involved, instead of winning money, or statements saying the plan does not violate federal law, do not ensure legality.

Do not confuse regular chain letters or Multi-Level Marketing Plan chains with prayer chains that promise good luck but require no investment. These are not illegal--they're just a nuisance. You should not be intimidated by implied threats of bad luck, personal injury, or disaster for breaking the chain. Feel free to throw the chain letter away.

Remember, you are under no obligation to participate if you receive a chain letter, and to do so may be a violation of federal law. Turn the letter in to the local post office or send it to the Postal Inspector in Charge, P.O. Box 162929, Fort Worth, Tx. 76161-2929.

BLOOD TYPE

The purpose of blood typing is to prevent blood-group incompatibilities. Blood typing ensures that patients do not get the wrong type of blood which could cause serious side effects or death. Blood typing is necessary because all red blood cells and other cells of the body contain unique characteristics on their surfaces. These are caused by slight differences in their chemical composition. These differences are sufficiently unique so that the body can detect those that are not its very own. A person's blood-group components are genetically determined and inherited from his parents. More than fifty characteristics have been identified so far, but the principal groups are called A, B, AB, and O. In the U.S., approximately 45 percent of the population has blood type O, 41 percent have type A, 10 percent have type B, and 4 percent type AB.

Blood disorders can range from relatively benign to serious and can be acquired or inherited. As with any disease, prompt diagnosis and early treatment are important. At the Lillian M. Hudspeth Memorial Hospital, 308 Hudspeth, treatment is provided for your family's medical concerns, including prenatal care, complications of pregnancy, and delivery. Our facility has 21 beds, laboratory, and x-ray. We offer quality care, "close to home." Open 24 hours a day. Tel. 387-2521.

Another factor found in the red blood cells of some people is called the Rh factor. About 80 percent of our population is Rh positive.

To Costa Rica and back

by Charlotte Gilmore

We've all studied enough Geography to know that Costa Rica is one of the Central American countries, situated between Nicaragua and Panama; that its capital city is San Jose, that the language spoken is Spanish, that is a mountainous country with lots of volcanoes and that it has a temperate climate with a median temperature of 73 degrees. What most of us don't realize is that in only 11 hours (if we were lucky) we could be there by air, but that upon arrival we would feel that we had stepped back in time about 40 years.

Vera Jones returned last Monday from a 10 day trip to Atenas, Costa Rica, a town about the size of Sonora and another 40 minutes from the airport in San Jose. She and 13 other Texas Presbyterians left Houston on Friday, January 9th for the last leg of the journey to San Jose with their "stomachs in their throats" after a 45 minute delay to "repair two flat tires", being double booked a couple of times and with all the loving admonitions of well-meaning friends still ringing in their ears to "not get yourself kidnapped" while in Central America. In an interview with Vera yesterday, she described one of the first impressions of Atenas as being like rural America in the 1940's: a simple, rural lifestyle, no modern conveniences, everything made or done by hand, daily activity beginning at daylight and ending with sunset, Saturday in town with an almost carnival atmosphere, everybody in church on Sunday, and families with lots of time together. She spoke of the wonder of the early mornings, looking out from the towns mountain-top view of the world with the echoing sounds of a melodious rooster choir drifting into the endless, crystal clear, unpolluted skies.

The arrival of the Presbyterian group was scheduled to coincide with one of the busiest seasons of the year for the town of Atenas, all the children were out of school for the dry season (December to March) and it was preparation time for the farmers who raise silkworms. As I explained last week, the way was paved for the work this group would do by an organization call ALFALIT. Arrangements had been made for places to sleep, for food, travel, translators, worship experiences, even some sightseeing by ALFALIT. Arrangements had also been made for the Presbyterian group to work with the local Co-Op responsible for the development of a new silkworm industry, in building a new structure to store supplies used by the farmers as well as the new kiln for drying the silkworm cocoons. While part of the group was making cinder blocks and constructing the steel frames (all by hand) for the building, others were putting together cardboard frames used in one step of the process for tiny, pinhead sized worm to the finished silk garments. There are 30 farmers in Atenas who participate in the raising of silkworms, a complicated, precise, cottage industry which is still in its infancy in this town, although it has already become a profitable one in many other places due to the skill and diligence of the Korean government; which promotes this industry all over the world. Each farmer gets 30,000 worms from the Co-Op and is responsible for every step of the process from that point, a process which takes many hands, day and night vigilance and a lot of luck. The Presbyterian group worked four full eight hour days and according to Vera, accomplished 90% of what they had planned to do. They were able to bring the building almost to completion and constructed the silkworm compartments for 2 1/2 farmers. They learned that the Co-op's in Costa Rica are literally the strength of the nation, that everything is Co-op; the utilities, transportation, farming, and that this program is an inheritance from a World War II project of the United States government created to provide food for our troops in the Pacific Theater.

They did a lot more than just work during those 10 days, of course. They saw some of the beautiful sights; the volcanoes, the mountains, attended a soccer game. Shopped in a little town famous for its gifts and souvenir shops, ate the delicious foods, worshipped in the Catholic church with their hosts, took lots of Polaroid pictures for the children and their families, bathed in cold water and learned a little Spanish. Vera acquired a reputation as the lady who smiled the nicest in Spanish because she could not speak the language at all before she went. She said "It really hurt not to be able to speak the things on my heart to the lady of the house where we stayed."

She also said that she feels really good about the effect of this group's trip. They went to work, to be one with the people, to eat the food they ate, to sleep in their beds, to worship side by side with them, to be as much as they could the equals of the people with whom they labored: She said she really was able to feel a Christian love between them and a witness of the Spirit that transcended the language barrier. She has come back with several lasting impressions. The country of Costa Rica is wonderful, and the sense of community the people have is beautiful. She has a deeper appreciation for her own church for having the commitment to mission which caused them to send her. She is much more aware than ever before of the false sense of need we Americans have for material goods. She said, "I'll never be the same again after this experience". And, I am sure we will never be the same again for having participated vicariously in the experience with her. Vera has written her experience in a diary form and would be happy to share her diary with anyone who is interested in a more detailed accounting.

IRS suggests choosing your tax preparer carefully

Since the only person who is really responsible for your tax return is yourself, the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) says that it pays to be very careful when choosing a professional to do your federal tax return.

Accordingly, the federal tax agency offers the following guidelines for dealing with a tax preparer:

Do not sign a blank return, nor one which is partially completed, nor one prepared in pencil.

Make sure that the preparer signs the return and gives his or her identification number, as required by law.

Get a copy of the completed return from the preparer.

Avoid preparers who promise a refund, claim a special relationship with the IRS, or boast of ways to beat the tax system.

Do not allow a paid preparer (other than bank preparers) to endorse, cash, or negotiate your refund check.

Sonora Scouts to host area Council Meeting

The 75th Anniversary of the founding of Girl Scouts of America will be celebrated January 31 as Sonora Girl Scouts host the Annual El Camino Council Meeting.

The El Camino Council is comprised of eighteen counties and covers 30,000 square miles in West Texas. Its headquarters are in San Angelo.

Meaning the road in Spanish, the name El Camino is appropriate for the council for several reasons. The towns of the area are separated by seemingly endless lengths of roads. The name also reflects the hope of the council that Girl Scouting offers a road to the future to the girls in the jurisdiction.

Between 120 and 125 leaders and participants are expected to attend the meeting from Concho, Crockett, Dimmit, Edwards, Irion, Kimble, Kinney, Mason, Maverick, Menard, Reagan, Real, Schleicher, Tom Green, Uvalde, Val Verde and Zavala counties as well as Sutton County.

The Girl Scouts of Sonora are honored to be hosting this meeting.

Sonora is honored to have such an active, concerned group of Girl Scouts and leaders as we have here. The groups good deeds are in evidence throughout the community.

Tuesday night six Juniors and six Seniors competed in the annual Lions Club Contest. The Queen will compete at the district contest and will represent Sonora's Downtown Lions Club. Congratulations to the new Queen. Thank goodness Tuesday night was open for the Basketball teams. The day was already too full.

Take time to prepare taxes to avoid error

Filing a Form 1040, 1040A or even the 11-line Form 1040EZ can be an ordeal if prepared in haste at the last minute.

Through the years IRS has seen a trend in filing practices. Some taxpayers file as soon as they receive their tax return packages and Forms W-2 and interest information notices. Others prefer to wait until the last minute when running shoes are a necessity to ensure timely filing before midnight on April 15th.

However, those who wait until the last minute might find that preparing their returns earlier—even if only a week or a few days earlier—could make a big difference. Preparing the return over a two or three week period will lessen the chances for mistakes as taxpayers will be more relaxed and take more time in completing the form and appropriate supporting schedules. Taking time in preparing an income tax return will reduce the possibility of making errors, and can help taxpayers discover credits or deductions for which they qualify and might have otherwise missed.

Of course, many file close to the filing deadline because they must wait for certain necessary forms like Form W-2, Wage and Tax Statement, or Form 1099-INT, Statement for Recipients of Interest Income.

The Internal Revenue Service advises these taxpayers, if they do not receive their statements by January 31, to contact the employer or payer and request that the form be issued.

Taxpayers who still have not received their Forms W-2 by February 15 should call the IRS toll-free telephone number for their area. When contacting the IRS, taxpayers will be asked to provide the employer's name, address and employer identification number. Having the necessary information available on the first contact, IRS adds, will prevent the need for taxpayers to call again.

Those waiting for Forms 1099-INT should note that they should not attach this form to their completed returns. All that is required is the payment information from the forms; so if the taxpayer has kept accurate records or can get the information from the issuing company, he or she can file without having received the form.

The important thing to remember about filing a federal income tax return is to file by April 15 and ensure that the correct postage is affixed to the envelope. Thicker returns, IRS advises, usually containing over four items (i.e. Form 1040 and three attachments), will require extra postage. Returns which are sent back to taxpayers for additional postage will not be considered timely filed tax returns even if they were originally mailed on April 15th.

PROSM TEXAS A NEW OPTIONAL CALLING PLAN FROM AT&T

On November 13, 1986 AT&T Communications of The Southwest, Inc. ("AT&T") filed with the Public Utility Commission (PUC) of Texas to introduce a new intrastate, optional calling plan, PRO Texas. A comparable interstate plan, known as PROSM America, is currently available to Texas customers.

PRO Texas gives Texas consumers an opportunity to save money on direct dialed in-state long distance calls. Customers who choose this new AT&T plan will receive a 10% discount on all AT&T intrastate direct dialed station calls by paying a monthly charge of $15.00.

The PRO Texas discount applies to calls placed during all rate periods and all days. The discount is in addition to the AT&T intrastate evening discount of 25% and the night/weekend discount of 40%. A one time charge of $6.00 will be billed to initiate the service. However, this charge will be waived during the first 90 days that the offering is available.

PRO Texas will be available to all Message Telephone Service customers in Texas. AT&T estimates that it will generate revenues in the first year of almost $8 million, which is .7% of AT&T's annual revenues for all Texas intrastate service.

The PUC has assigned Docket No. 7194 to this proposed service offering. The proposed effective date for PRO Texas is March 16, 1987. Persons who wish to intervene or otherwise participate in these proceedings should notify the PUC as soon as possible. A request to intervene, participate, or for further information should be mailed to the Public Utility Commission of Texas, 7800 Shoal Creek Boulevard, Suite 400N, Austin, Texas 78757. Further information also may be obtained by calling the Public Utility Commission Consumer Affairs Division at (512) 458-0223 or (512) 458-0227, or (512) 458-0221 teletypewriter for the deaf.

Service Mark of AT&T

Edward D. Jones and Co. bringing wall street to mainstreet

All across America, in towns like Bentonville, Ark.; Broken Bow, Okla.; and Chillicothe, Mo.; signs of Wall Street dot Mainstreet, U.S.A. as Edward D. Jones & Co. hangs up shingle after shingle in communities from coast-to-coast.

With more retail offices than any other financial services firm, Edward D. Jones & Co. operates in a niche that's all its own—selling low-risk securities such as mutual funds, insured tax-free bonds, certificates of deposit and common stocks from one-person offices located in communities like Pine Bluff, Ark.; Devil's Lake, N.D.; and Webster Groves, Mo.

Edward D. Jones & Co. is different from the best-known firms along Wall Street because its market are ones that have, until recently, gone unnoticed by other financial concerns: those communities (pop. 10,000-25,000) across the nation where farmers, ranchers, businessmen and women, and retirees welcome one-on-one conservative investment advice that might be difficult, if not impossible, to get if Edward D. Jones & Co. was not there.

"Our brokers are members of the communities where they work, and they understand their customers' needs and problems—and are able to help in solving them," said Managing Partner John Bachmann.

Edward D. "Ted" Jones Jr., son of the firm's namesake and the originator of the firm's branch office concept, recognized early in his sales career that people in small communities have money for which they too, need financial advice. He opened the firm's first branch office in Mexico, Mo., in 1955.

Since that time, the network of branch offices has grown to more than 1,100 offices in 36 states. In the past ten years, Edward D. Jones & Co.'s income has grown tenfold and it is currently ranked 13th in number of registered representatives and 19th in securities underwritings.

In the past few years, Edward D. Jones & Co. has successfully expanded into metropolitan markets. The firm has opened one-person, suburban offices in cities such as Kansas City, Chicago, Atlanta, Dallas and Indianapolis. Bachmann says the firms will accelerate its expansion into these cities, as well as enter other metropolitan markets, in the future.

Edward D. Jones & Co. continues to expand its services and recently began offering home mortgages. While many financial services firms have separate divisions for services of this type, Edward D. Jones & Co. is currently offering mortgages through its retail branch offices in 10 states. The firm expects to have all its brokers trained in the mortgage program within the next three years.

The Sonora Edward D. Jones & Co. representative is Michael W. Smith whose office is located at P.O. Box 865, Sonora, Tx. 76950.

Social Security News

Get number before it is needed

People in the San Angelo area who plan to apply for a Social Security number should remember to apply at least 2 weeks before they will need the number, Franklin H. Upp, Social Security manager in San Angelo, said recently.

It takes this time to process the application, evaluate the evidence, search the files at Social Security headquarters, and to issue and mail the Social Security number card.

When applying, a person must have evidence of age, identity, and citizenship or legal alien status, Franklin H. Upp said. In addition, a person 18 or over applying for the first time must apply in person.

The best evidence of age and citizenship is a public record of birth issued before age 5. If this is not available, religious records established before age 5 may be considered. Only if these are not available can other evidence be submitted, Upp said.

Also, a person who wants to change his or her name in Social Security records must provide evidence of identity under both the old and new names.

Any original documents or copies certified by the issuing agency are acceptable. For more information about applying for Social Security numbers, contact the San Angelo Social Security Office located at 2214 Sherwood Way. The telephone number is 949-4608. A free leaflet, Applying for a Social Security Number, is available at the office.

"The value of human life"

by Charles Huffman, Pastor
Hope Lutheran, Sonora

The year was 1972; the place was Pennsylvania; and the occasion was a hearing to consider liberalization of the old abortion law. Gov. Shapp had been appointed a commission to take testimony from people of varying positions.

Testifying for abortion-on-demand were a Unitarian clergy man and his wife. He told of how excited he was when his wife informed him that a 4th child was on the way. But she convinced him that he was on a male ego trip while she, herself, wanted an abortion.

Claiming to be democratic about the whole matter, she testified as to how they had gathered together their 3 grade school children, telling them that if this child were to be born, they would have to double up in their rooms. The camping trip they had planned for the summer would most likely have to be cancelled, and surely the bikes they wanted for Christmas would be impossible. Then they were told they could vote! The mother, father and 2 boys voted for an abortion, while the little girl pleaded for the life of her unborn brother or sister. But majority ruled and so the abortion was carried out.

One of the members of the Commission asked the mother how she could have denied the pleading of her daughter to spare the life of the unborn child, to which the mother shrugged her shoulders and said: 'Well, you can't give your children everything they want! Translation: It's better to have a bicycle than a baby—and a camping trip is of more value than human life.'

How far we have come from the practice and teaching of the early Christian community which, without a specific scriptural command that stated the words: Thou Shalt Not Abort, totally rejected abortion in a culture where it was widely promoted. There were even those then who said: 'But every child should be a wanted child', which roots the value of a human being in the affections of others. But those first Christians had been taught by Christ Himself and His disciples that the value of a human being is rooted in the creative act of God.

We're all familiar with the Biblical story about a man who went from Jerusalem to Jericho and fell among thieves who robbed him and wounded him and left him half dead (Luke 10:30ff). There came that way a priest, a religious man, and when he saw him he thought, 'Well, I wouldn't rob a traveler myself, but I support the right of others to choose'. So he passed by on the other side. Then there passed that way a Levite, a law-abiding citizen, and when he saw him he thought, 'Well, every man should be wanted and obviously this one wasn't. So he passed by on the other side.

And then there came that way a Samaritan, one of different values and different beliefs and when he saw him Scripture say he had compassion on him and history has forever called him 'good'. But not until he had invested his time, his treasurer, his talents. Not until he had set aside his plans, his schedule for his was not compassion by proxy. God's love is always expressed thru the giving of self, thru sacrifice for others.

Today, many Christians are too embarrassed to publicly contradict anything, and instead of living as God's 'chosen' people to give leadership in overcoming the devaluation of human life and in the preservation of human life, have become God's 'frozen' people afflicted with moral laryngitis. How many of us say: 'Yes Lord, I will follow You...but about my cross...I don't want one like Yours. Make mine lightweight, collapsible, transferable and with a money-back guarantee. That's for when it becomes inconvenient, unpopular, and controversial! But that's not what the cross is all about!

Christians cannot be neutral, for our Lord Himself said: 'You, My followers, are the salt of the earth' (Matthew 5:13). He said salt cannot be neutral, and if it is—it is good for anything!

Concerning the 5th Commandment, "Do Not Murder", Martin Luther explains in his large catechism: 'In the 2nd place this commandment is violated not only when the person actually does evil, but also when he fails to do good to his neighbor, or, though he has the opportunity, fails to prevent, protect, and save him from suffering bodily harm or injury.'

So let us repent and seek forgiveness from our just and merciful God for the sake of His Son, Jesus Christ. And, empowered by His Holy Spirit, let us speak out about the murder of over 1 1/2 million unborn human beings in our nation every year! God considers their lives very precious, as He gave His own Son that they might have LIFE!

TS&GRA to hold annual meeting

F.H. Whitehead, Jr. of Del Rio, president of the Texas Sheep & Goat Raisers' Association, announced this week that Tony Price, executive vice president of the Texas Ginners Association, will be the main speaker for the Winter Tri-Annual Meeting of the TS&GRA on January 30 at the San Angelo Sheraton. Mr. Price is one of the best-informed people in agriculture today on the new Immigration Bill and the H-2 program. He will up-date producers on the new law, with particular emphasis on how to get workers in legally under the H-2 program. Mr. Price has been with the Ginners

Association for many years and has been very active in Texas agricultural policy-making.

Meeting registration will get under way at 8:30 a.m. Friday, January 30, and standing committees will meet one after another until 12:00. Following the noon lunch for those attending the meeting, Mr. Price will speak. President Whitehead and State Senator Bill Sims, TS&GRA executive secretary, will report on Association activities and matters of interest to producers in the State Legislature.

Local and area Woman's Auxiliary members are hosting a coffee for ladies attending the meeting at the TS&GRA headquarters at 10:00 a.m. The headquarters is located at 233 W. Twohig. Carol Whitehead, Auxiliary president, will conduct the general business meeting following the coffee. The Executive Board will meet at 9:00 a.m. and the Advisory Board at 9:30 a.m. prior to the coffee. Those meetings will be held at the TS&GRA headquarters also.

Producers are also urged to attend the annual meeting of the Mohair Council of America in San Angelo at the River Club on Thursday, January 29.

Students invited to compete in contest

High school students in six districts throughout the state are invited by the Second Division of the American Legion to compete in the Fiftieth Annual National High School Oratorical Contest. The invitation to enter the competition was recently extended by Division Commander Jerry Hutrya.

The contest will be conducted at Texas State Technical Institute (TSTI) in Waco on Friday, January 30 from 7-9 p.m. in the J.H. Kultgen Automotive Center. TSTI faculty and staff will assist with contest arrangements. The public is invited.

The subject in the prepared oration portion of the contest must be about some phase of the Constitution of the United States, emphasizing the duties and obligations of a citizen to the U.S. government. The prepared oration must be the original effort of each contestant and must be 8-10 minutes in length.

Students will be competing to go to the state and national competitions. Scholarship awards are presented to the four finalists in the National Contest ranging from $16,000 to $8,000. Each state winner who is certified into the next level of the National Contest will receive a $1,000 scholarship, and each regional winner who advances to the Sectional, but not to the National Finals, will receive an additional $1,000 scholarship.

Students interested in entering the competition, or for more information, should contact Austin C. McElfish at (817) 754-0892.

School Board

commented on the need at the high school principal's residence for some sort of off-street parking facilities and was directed by the Board to get prices both for a paved driveway and for expansion of the existing small garage.

Concerning the preparation of the old Allison Trailer Park for use as a parking lot, Mr. Bible was told to get contractors' prices for the necessary dirt work since the City of Sonora has agreed to do the paving, and to report back to the Board with prices before proceeding any further.

The Board agreed to reduce the rent on the school residence now occupied by the assistant maintenance mechanic to $50 per month.

By consensus, the Board changed the regular meeting date for February from Tuesday, February 10, to Thursday, February 12, at 7:00 p.m.

Assistant Superintendent Mario Sotelo presented area-wide TEAMS test scores, remarking that Sonora's scores were lower than they would be if special education students were not tested. He added that the vast majority of districts in the state do not administer these tests to special education students. After a brief discussion, administrators were directed not to test special education students in the future on the TEAMS test since the results was to lower the district's over-all scores when compared with those districts which do not test all students.

The superintendent then reported district enrollment as follows: Elementary-328; Middle School-252; Junior High-263 and High School 322 for a total of 1,165.

Bids submitted for demolition of the burned house on the College Street lot recently purchased by the district were considered by the Board. Bids submitted were as follows: Reese Albert, Inc.-$4,450.00; Carl J. Cahill, Inc.-$4,380.00; Charles Howard-$3,950.00.

On motion of Joe Garcia with a second by Carl Teaff, the bid was awarded to the low bidder, Charles Howard Construction, with the stipulation that if at all possible, the work be accomplished over a week-end for safety's sake. The motion carried unanimously.

On motion of Rosemary Mathews and a second by Julio Samaniego, the district's second annual performance report was unanimously approved. Mrs. Mathews commended staff for an excellent job in preparing the report.

An updated appraisal form to be used in evaluating building principals was unanimously approved on motion of Julio Samaniego and a second by Jim Garrett.

On motion of Sam Perez and a second by Rosemary Mathews, an election was ordered for Saturday, April 4, 1987, for two trustees representing precincts 1 and 3. A copy of the formal order for election is attached to and made an integral part of these minutes.

On motion of Julio Samaniego and a second by Joe Garcia, the following were unanimously appointed as election officials for the April 4 Trustee election: Judge, Precinct 1-Joyce Jimenez; Judge, Precinct 3-Pat Tyler; Absentee Voting Clerk-Phyllis McLaughlin; Alternate Absentee-Diane Jacoby.

Localized Policy Manual Update No. 28, as issued by the Texas Association of School Boards, was introduced with the comment that there might be minor changes before it is finally adopted in February.

Carl Teaff asked if anyone had heard that the floor at the new high school gym was peeling. The answer was negative.

Julio Samaniego commented that the reconstructed mobile home which was the project of the construction trades classes had been parked at the old vocational building long enough, and suggested that it be moved to a more permanent location.

Scott Shurley suggested that the newly-established used rates for the new high school auditoriums might have been set too high for use by community non-profit organizations, church and civic groups. He then appointed a three-member committee consisting of himself, Rosemary Mathews, and Jim Garrett to study the matter, get outside input, and report their findings to the Board at a later date.

 Sonora, Texas 76950

TO ALL INTERESTED AGENCIES, GROUPS AND PERSONS:

On or about February 16, 1987, the above-named City of Sonora will request the Texas Department of Community Affairs to release Federal funds under Title 1 of the Housing and Community Development Act of 1974 as amended, to be used for the following project:

ACTIVITY-Texas Community Development Program.
 WATER IMPROVEMENT-Contract No. S706509

Project to be located in the City limits of Sonora, Sutton County, Texas. A more detailed description of the project and a map showing the specific locations of the proposed improvements is available for public examination at City Hall, 201 N.E. Main.

Finding of No Significant Impact

It has been determined that such request for release of funds will not constitute an action significantly affecting the quality of the human environment and accordingly the above-named City of Sonora has decided not to prepare and Environmental Impact Statement under the National Environmental Policy Act of 1969.

The Reasons for such decision not to prepare such Statement are as follows:

WATER IMPROVEMENT-Health and safety hazards currently exist due to inadequate fire protection and lack of sufficient water quantity for domestic use. The proposed project should eliminate those health and safety hazards. Construction activities will produce certain amounts of air and noise pollution, however, the effects will be short term and low intensity.

An Environmental Assessment respecting the within projects has been made by the above-named City of Sonora which documents the environmental review of the project and more fully sets forth the reasons why such Statement is not required. This Environmental Assessment is on file at the above address and is available for public examination and copying upon request in the office of the City Secretary between the hours of 8:00 a.m. and 5:00 p.m., Monday through Friday.

All interested agencies, groups and persons disagreeing with this decision are invited to submit written comments for consideration by the City of Sonora, to the office of the undersigned. Such written comments should be received at City Hall on or before February 15, 1987. All such comments so received will be considered and the City of Sonora, will not request the release of Federal funds or take any administrative action on the within projects prior to the date specified in the preceding sentence.

Release of Funds

The City of Sonora will undertake the project described above with Community Development funds from the Texas Department of Community Affairs under Title 1 of the Housing and Community Development Act of 1974. The City of Sonora is certifying to TDCA that the City of Sonora and Billy C. Gosney in his official capacity as Mayor consent to accept the jurisdiction of the Federal courts if an action is brought to enforce responsibilities in relation to environmental assessments, decision making and action; and that these responsibilities have been satisfied. The legal effect of the certification is that upon its approval the City of Sonora may use the Texas Community Development Program funds and TDCA will have satisfied its responsibilities under the National Environmental Policy Act of 1969.

Objections to State Release of Funds

Texas Department of Community Affairs will accept an objection to its approval only if it is on one of the following basis: (a) that the certification was not in fact executed by the certifying officer or other officer of applicant approved by TDCA; or (b) that applicant's environmental review record for the project indicates omission of a required decision finding or step applicable to the project in the environmental review process. Objections must be prepared and submitted in accordance with the required procedure (24 CFR Part 58.75) and may be addressed to Texas Community Development Program; Texas Department of Community Affairs, 8317 Cross Park Drive, P.O. Box 13166, Capitol Station, Austin, Texas 78711.

Objections to the release of funds on basis other than those stated above will not be considered by TDCA. No objection received after March 5, 1987 will be considered by TDCA. The Chief Executive Officer of the City of Sonora is Billy C. Gosney, Mayor.

Sutton County 4-H Extends Thanks

The Sutton County 4-H Club welcomes this opportunity to express our appreciation to all of our friends and neighbors for supporting our youth development programs.

We now have over 200 active 4-H members benefiting from your assistance.

Our one fund raising activity is the Auction and Chinese Auction at the Annual Sutton County 4-H Livestock Show.

You have made this endeavor successful for many years and we thank you.

We Salute the 1987 Supporters!
