Spring Picnic on lawn

The Sonora Woman's Club hosted a Spring Picnic on the Courthouse lawn this past Sunday. Approximately 200 persons showed up to enjoy good food, good weather and good fellowship.

The day was sunny and warm, encouraging the younger set to "lose" their shoes and frolic in the grass. The balmy breezes, while adding a few live oak leaves to the meal, were a pleasant addition to temperatures in the high 80's.

The members of the Woman's Club prepared a delicious meal including fried chicken, pasta salad, fresh fruit cups, homeade bread, brownies and iced tea. The food was served in boxes stenciled in bright colors and assorted designs. The many hours of preparation was evident.

Blankets were spread about the lawn, interspersed with a few lawn chairs, as everyone sat and visited. One person commented the scene was one of a Norman Rockwell painting, that no where but in a small town did people come together and enjoy each others company in such a fashion.

The event was the first held by the Woman's Club this year. Profits from the picnic, as with all projects of the Woman's Club, go toward funding of the Sutton County Library.

Sonorans gathered on the lawn at the Courthouse last Sunday to join in the Spring Picnic sponsored by the Sonora Woman's Club. It was a time to visit and enjoy the company of our friends and neighbors as well as the excellent meal prepared by members of the Woman's Club.

Sonora authorized for GED testing

As a public service, Sonora ISD is now an authorized testing site for administration of the General Education Development (GED) test to those persons who do not have their high school diplomas.

Charles Russell, high school principal, noted that a GED certificate is considered the equivalent of a high school diploma for many purposes such as employment eligibility or enlistment into certain branches of military. It can also be used to meet the entrance requirements into a college or university.

In order to be eligible to take the GED test, a person must be officially withdrawn from school and must not have a high school diploma from an accredited high school in the United States. The test applicant must be at least 18, but may take the test at 17 with parental or guardian permission.

The test consists of five parts covering social studies, math, science, English and reading. The test taker must receive a passing grade of at least 40 on each of the five tests or score an overall average of 45.

Jeryl Fields, state-certified guidance counselor, is authorized by the Texas Education Agency to administer the test in Sonora. To make arrangements, an applicant should call Mrs. Fields at 387-6533 at least one week in advance and arrange to take the all-day test on either a Monday or a Friday. The test fee is $20, and the applicant should bring an addition $5 money order to pay the Texas Education agency for the GED certificate.

Local sheriff encourages public support of law

"Public support and involvement is one of the most important crimefighting tools of today's law enforcement," Sheriff Bill Webster said in a recent interview. "In Sutton County and throughout our state, the public must be on our side in the fight for effective law enforcement."

According to the sheriff, we must work in an extremely complex environment and deal with a growing, highly sophisticated criminal elements in the war against drugs, organized crime and commerial vice.

"There are many things which the concerned citizen can do to help us," the sheriff added. For instance, simple precautions can help protect you and your property, such as:

-Burglar proof your home.

-Know where your children are at all times.

-Stay alert and report all crimes to the law enforcement agency serving you.

Citizens are also encouraged to get involved. "Sheriff's Association of Texas is constantly working to upgrade law enforcement and ensure public safety throughout the state," the sheriff added.

"Our goal is to professionalize sheriff's departments statewide through better training and to increase public awareness of the problem which we face in our everyday work," he added.

"Sheriffs' Association of Texas has been a strong advocate for more training and more advanced instructions for Texas peace officers, because we want to provide the kind of protection to our citizens that they need and deserve," Sheriff Webster concluded.

The sheriff emphasized, "With the increasing crime rates and difficult economic times, the public cannot afford to look the other way and leave law enforcement to only a handful of people in our state. The support and concern of each and every law-abiding citizen of Sutton County and every other county is needed in the fight for good, professional law enforcement in Texas."

Sheriff Bill Webster is Third Vice-President of the Sheriffs' Association of Texas and is actively involved in legislation and officer training. The Association consists of over 8,000 members.

Rabies cases confirmed

Vaccinate for safety

by Patti Strauch, DVM

night and is being tested.

A new human rabies vaccine has come on the market recently. The human diploid cell vaccine in a 1 ml dose was licensed in 1980. Now, there is a 1 ml (1/10 cc) HDCV available. Pre-exposure immunization consists of 3 doses, one each on day 0, 7, and 28. The .1 cc dose has the advantage of costing less than the 1 cc dose. When a person is exposed to rabies, rabies immune globulin (rig) is given, then 5 doses of HDCV (1 ML) are given IM (intramuscular). The first dose is given as soon as possible after exposure, and the 4 additional doses are given on days 3, 7, 14, and 28. The costs can run several hundred dollars. This vaccine is effective and safe with very few side effects. In fact it is less painful than many routine immunizations. The old type of duck embryo vaccine (DFV) is no longer used in the United States. This was the vaccine that struck fear into peoples hearts (no one liked the thought of painful shots in the stomach.)

Fortunately, the new vaccine had changed all that. People who handle animals and livestock frequently should consider having themselves immunized. All dogs and cats must be immunized once a year, every year. Horses, cattle, sheep and goats should be vaccinated annually if they are in close contact with people. Don't delay-Vaccinate today.

I seem to always have more questions than I have answers. Some of these questions I refer to as "Why is it's".

Some of my "Why is it's" are:
Why is it...

...The weather is always beautiful until your day off?

...If someone wishes to compliment your job performance, they tell you but if they have a complaint, they tell your boss?

...You never get hungry for a particular item until the stores or restaurants are closed?

...Instead of appreciating what we have, we always want what we don't have?

...The item you need today is the item that was on sale last week?

...We strive in every way to teach our children to be truthful, then have them tell the person on the phone that we aren't home?

...You never dribble toothpaste on your clothes unless you are in a hurry?

If anyone has any answers to these "Why is it's", "why is it" you haven't told me?

A new feature in this weeks Devil's River News is the Rainfall.

In addition to the current monthly rainfall, the column will also carry figures on rainfall to date this year and year to date last year as well as this highest rainfall recorded for any month since 1937.

The figures used are from the tally kept at Sonora Wool and Mohair. We wish to thank Glen Fisher for allowing us to share them with you.

Registration, a responsibility

The names of 904 individuals who have received federal Pell Grants-student financial assistance-have been referred to the Department of Education by the Selective Service System. They were identified by a computer matching program as possible lawbreakers, will be ineligible for additional student financial aid if found not to be in compliance with the registration requirement. This referral was only a partial submission of names. There are plans to make additional referrals in the future.

Through the computer matching program between the Department of Education and Selective Service 37,000 men who either applied for, or received Pell Grants have registered with Selective Service as of March 19. Their identities were discovered by Selective Service through a computer match of Department of Education Pell Grant applicant and recipient lists and Selective Service registrants files. It cannot be said how many of those men had been in violation of the registration requirement when they applied for or received a grant. Students whose names did not match a record in the registration database received letters informing them they were suspected nonregistrants, and would be considered ineligible for federal financial assistance if they are required to register and have not done so.

The sharing of records between

Education and Selective Service stems from a provision of Public Law 97-252. An amendment to the Military Selective Service Act requires that men be in compliance with the registration law to be eligible for student financial aid under Title IV of the Higher Education Act. The rationale behind this amendment was that young men unwilling to risk being called to serve the nation in a future crisis should not be allowed to benefit from federally funded student aid programs.

Rep. Gerald B. Solomon (R-NY) sponsored the legislation which has become known as the Solomon Amendment. Mr. Solomon is a strong supporter of Selective Service and his legislation has been instrumental in increasing the registration rate. "Registration is something that I believe strongly in. If a young man is going to accept the benefits that his country has to offer, then he must be willing to accept the responsibilities that come with them. One of these responsibilities is registration."

According to Selective Service Acting Director Wil Ebel, young men who are 18 through 25 years old, must be registered. There are few exceptions. Ebel reports that over 96 percent are complying with the law.

Failure to register is a felony. Besides being ineligible for student grants and loans, nonregistrants forfeit eligibility for appointment to federal employment and job training programs. They also risk criminal prosecution and, if convicted, face a fine of up to $250,000 or a jail term of up to five years, or both.

LETTERS to the EDITOR

Dear Editor,

We live in an age where all to often we forget the value of what we have until something happens to force us to remember.

It is easy to feel that each of us is self-sufficient and it is not always easy to ask for help. The true beauty of friends is that seldom do you have to ask for help, they see the need and are there.

I have been reminded the value of friends the past few months as I have undergone several hospital stays and long recovery time.

I want to thank each of my friends, without them I don't know what I would have done. God bless you,

Bernice Wartenbach

Letter to the editor,

Sonora, Texas, has a Good Samaritan in the truest Biblical and Christian sense of the word. Perhaps you are not aware of it-you should be.

Let me tell you a story of a couple who were driving from Del Rio to San Angelo late in the afternoon on March 16, 1987.

They had car trouble and managed to barely make it to Sonora. After asking one of your local businesses for a recommendation, they took their car to Black's Automotive. Although they had second thoughts after looking at the outside of the building (definitely not like San Angelo), they drove in. Barry stopped the work he was doing and immediately began to fix their car. A bearing had gone out and the tire rim and rear axle were too hot to even work with. After spending an hour or so, he determined that parts would need to be found or ordered and an overnight stay was required. The couple called their family in Del Rio to come up and pick them up. Since they had two large dogs, there was really no place for them to go. Barry offered to let them stay in the office part of his shop until the transportation arrived since a large thunderstorm had moved over Sonora. Yes, he left two total strangers in his shop--the total means to his livelihood--while he went home for the night.

The trip from Del Rio turned out to be a tragic one. On the way to Sonora, with the 12-year-old son of the couple lying down sick in the back seat of a van, a tire blow-out, strong gust of wind or mini-twister threw the van off the road. As it left the road the young boy was thrown out and pinned under the van--killed instantaneously. After the Emergency Medical Services team and hospital doctor attempted and failed to revive the boy, the couple was devastated and in shock. A call to Barry Black resulted in complete use of the shop to hold the two large dogs and possessions until an answer to the situation could be determined. In 20 minutes, Barry and his wife, Janice, were at the hospital to share the family's grief. Without knowing anything more, they offered their house for the night, or coffee for the remainder of the family, now enroute. They stayed at the hospital offering what comfort they could for several hours until the couple finally departed with their family and friends who had driven down from San Angelo to help take people, dogs and luggage back to San Angelo.

During the next few days and at considerable investment of his personal time, Barry tried to track down the required parts around Sonora. The parts finally had to be shipped from San Angelo. He finished repairing the vehicle and when it was picked up, had obviously charged only the bare minimum--for parts.

Others also helped. The people at the hospital and on the Emergency Services team were all exceptionally competent and helpful. We cannot say enough nice things about them. Scott Gilmore the hospital administrator, volunteered his personal time to assist us in any possible way. He basically put himself on call to help us in any way for the remainder of the night--it was already 8:00 p.m.

Why am I relating this to you, the citizens of Sonora? Because you deserve to know that you have many fine citizens who

by Dede Doran

With Clean Up Week looking us in the face just next week, I have been doing some looking around town and I am appalled at the trash I see around Sonora! When I travel to work every morning the sun is just right to show all the empty bottles in their spender. Why are these never picked up? Who is responsible? First of all, we are because we are the ones who throw them out in the first place!! But why are the roadsides never cleaned up? Now, you must understand that these are the same bottles I have been looking at all winter! Just a few more are added every day. If we would keep our areas clean in the first place, then there would be very little to clean up on a monthly basis. Think of the road side as your house. Would you let your home look that dirty? Of course not!! This next week, I hope that everyone will clean up their own space and go a bit further, and clean up one more space. That should make Sonora Beautiful! Our name for the clean up is SONORA PROUD and our slogan is "Take Pride, Sonora, Wide." That pretty much says it all! Remember that the tourists are NOT impressed with the trash that is along the highways and streets and in the yards and vacant lots.

The Sonora Proud Beautification Committee has met and will be working around the city trying to beautify and clean up, but a few people cannot do this alone. Everyone, do your part! I will have "Don't Mess With Texas" trash bags available in my office and I hope you will come by and get one or several to use in your car so that you do not have to throw that unsightly trash out. City Hall also has some bags, so you can also get some there. I will try to have them at several locations around town for your convenience. So-go to it!!!

Now, I am off my soapbox for a little while. I need your help in securing goats for the Goat Cook Off on May 16. We will need a maximum of 13 goats. If you are willing to donate these to the Chamber, please take them to the Branding Iron Smokehouse and just tell Royce. He will tend to them. The sooner, the better, please. We plan to have 25 cooking teams here and we need to be sure that we can give each one 1/2 a goat.

Congratulations to The Pizzeria for being the Sonora Chamber of Commerce Business of the Month for April. Dr. and Mrs. Lonnie Pollard are doing a fantastic job with this business and all of their employees are very pleasant and good workers! If you haven't been in the Pizzeria, go by and eat there. I promise that you will enjoy it!

Jo Ann Jones and I will be in Midland April 21 and 22 for a "teach the teacher" seminar for retail businesses. We will then come back and put on some seminars for our retail merchants to help them with their relationships with customers, etc. I am looking forward to going and learning so that we can pass the information on to our merchants.

I am sorry that I missed the "Luncheon on the Lawn" sponsored by the Sonora Woman's Club, but I understand that it was just wonderful. Of course, these ladies always do a great job and are to be commended for their community work.

I also, regrettably, missed the performance of "The Highest Place." I know it was great and I hope this will become an annual performance. That would be wonderful! I also hope that everyone will attend the church of their choice this Easter Sunday and feel a new awakening of their life as we celebrate the Resurrection of Our Lord.

A big "thank you" to these individual members of the Chamber: Mr. and Mrs. Cleve T. Jones III, Mrs. Alice Jones, Rev. and Mrs. Monte Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Mayfield, and Mr. and Mrs. Seco Mayfield. We do appreciate your membership.

Remember the Chamber Get Together on April 23. I do hope we can count on our members to be there! It should be a lot of fun. Happy Easter!!

ONE MAN'S OPINION

by T. Driskell

India was once divided into two distinct groups—a group to whom cows were holy and a group to whom the cows were a source of protein (beef). The only solution was a division into a cow worshiping group, India, and a cow consuming group, Pakistan. Over simplification, it is true, for the purpose of illustrating the adherence of man to his own herd of anointing bovines (holy cows).

We certainly have an impressive herd of holy cows here in the United States and with zealots' fervor we hang on to them, even in the face of positive evidence that they are carriers of unknown diseases that are choking us to death. True, most of our ethereal cows were inherited as calves and nurtured into full grown snorting beasts by the defacto legislative, and unwritten amendment, powers of our major cowherd, the judiciary.

The herd is a strange one, a conglomerate of breeds, infested with hoof and mouth, undulant fever, and a dozen other diseases. Some of our animlas are so ill they have only a spiritual existence.

Look at the beasts: "All men are created equal." There is no test that can be given to confirm equality, nor will equal reaction to stimuli be encountered. The Constitution alluded to equality in rights, but interpretation smeared that across the gamut of existence.

The equal rights bit caused millions of gallons of fossil fuel to be wasted and produced a "bussing" trauma in which the educational effect was hemorrhoidal rather than cranial. That seems to be ebbing now. The beauty of defacto legislation is that you are not required to solve the funding problems.

Our conceptual expansion of the equal rights cow, however, has given us a faulted educational system. Recognizing that it cannot make silk purses out of sows ears, our educational system has compromised, to the production of a socially adjusted examples of mediocrity, imposing on our democracy, as we know it, a defacto sentence of death through the loss of our technical capabilities.

The "Created Equal" cow, the greatest menace we face, should be, but will not, be relegated to the "canner" group.

The second cow is the barren "free enterprise" cow. One of the most numerous and tenacious of the "pie in the sky" exponent's herd. Free enterprise is much like communism, a gorgeous system so long as you only read or tell about it. Try to apply it to human beings and it simply does not work. We talk it, but do not practice it. Those areas where free enterprise is practiced suffer while the subsidies provided in other areas contribute to the deficit hanging over our children's future.

We have too big a holy-cow herd to list, but in our national economic situation it would appear that a herd reduction is in order.

helped us that night, but particularly two true Christian Samaritans in your midst. Many of you know this already—the rest should. I know that Barry and Janice Black feel like they only did what was normal or right and will be highly embarrassed by all of this attention. That's OK. That's what makes this such a wonderful act of compassion. We have spread the word in San Angelo. If you see out-of-towners stopping at Black's Auto, perhaps that's why. You should know about this...and perhaps support a fine citizen and a Good Christian who took the time to help strangers in your town in the hour of their darkest tragedy. At the very least, give both of them a hug or pat on the back from an out-of-town family.

Breast Cancer Toll
Every 15 minutes, three women develop breast cancer and one woman dies of the disease. Breast cancer continues to be a major cancer killer of American women, reports the American Cancer Society.

American Cancer Society

"C Days" fund, education crusade

An American Cancer Society volunteer will be knocking on your door sometime in April with some good news about early detection of breast cancer, as part of the Society's 1987 Residential Education and Fund-raising Crusade.

According to Dorothy Baker, Chairman of this year's Residential "C-Days" in Sutton County, the purpose of the drive is to distribute lifesaving information on cancer, as well as to raise funds for the Society's research, education, and service program.

"Last year, more than $9000.00 was raised during C-Days," Baker said. "For 1987, we hope to raise more." She added that April was designated Cancer Control Month by Congress.

The theme of this year's drive is mammography—a highly effective tool in the early detection of breast cancer. A mammogram is a low-dose X-ray of the breast which can detect tumors as small as a freckle. "A mammogram can reveal a breast cancer before it becomes large enough to be felt," Baker said. "Then, if a tumor is detected, it can be removed through less extensive forms of surgery and when the survival rate is highest." According to Baker, chances of survival can approach 100 percent if breast cancer is detected at its onset.

The American Cancer Society urges women without symptoms between the ages of 35 to 39 to get a baseline mammogram, for future comparisons. Women between the ages of 40 to 49 should undergo this test every one to two years, as recommended by their physician. Women 50 and over should have mammograms taken annually.

Baker said volunteers will distribute the folder. "Now, Breast Cancer Has Virtually Nowhere to Hide" to Sutton County residents. The Society's guidelines are included in the pamphlet. Call Lou Faulks for information 387-3269.

"OVER the HILL GANG"

News from the Nursing Home
by Doris Cahill

The National Honor Society sent an arrangement of pretty white flowers to the Nursing Home last week.

Bible Study Tuesday morning was "The Crucifixion," narrated and illustrated, by Mary Hoffman, as early morning in Jerusalem, 2000 years ago, on Mount Calvary at the site of "The Skull," where Romans practiced crucifixions, and the three crosses: Jesus on the middle, a written notice "The King of The Jews" above it, with a criminal on either side, described as 1. Reception, 2. Redemption, and 3. Rejection before death. Mary's mother "Granny" Webb played the piano and we sang "At The Cross", "At Calvary" and "Amazing Grace." A concluding acknowledgment of Easter and the Resurrection "He Lives" was sung.

Winners at Bingo Wednesday morning were: Cox 3, Brotherton 3, Hamilton 2, Drennan 2, Reiley 2, Cahill 1, Rodriguez 1, and Hinojosa 1. Lilia called. We thank Scott and Charlotte Gilmore for leading the Sing-Along Wednesday afternoon, and Leona Bishop for playing the piano.

Beauty shop volunteers Mary Hoffman, Gertrude Webb, Sheryl Lock, Ethelda Holland, and Phyllis Jones were on hand Friday morning, and welcomed with open arms.

Residents took advantage of pleasant weather during the week by sitting in the park, and rambling around the grounds-with supervision, of course. Jo Ann Denton has recently "joined the ranks" as a Nursing Assistant.

Palm Sunday services from the First United Methodist Church were heard over the radio at 11 o'clock a.m., and Alice Hardy and Ozelle Jones played the piano and sang for us that afternoon. Ozelle has been ill and unable to visit lately. It was my pleasure to attend another "Sonora Proud" event-a splendid presentation of "The Highest Place", chock full of talent-Sunday night with Jimmie Sue Griffith, one of our super Nursing Assistants, and our special escort young Tommy Fincher.

Out of town guests were: Sue Long-Del Rio; Charla Ray-Eldorado; Violet Jarrett-Del Rio; Tuffy Whitehead-Del Rio; Lori Mesa and Mary Mesa and kids-Medford, Oregon; Arturo M. Gandar-San Angelo; Rudy Theirs-San Antonio; Marion and Doris Wood-Talpa, and Dick and Linda Hearn-Del Rio.

Local guests were: Susen McCleery, Laura Chalk, Martha Wallace, Jane and Heather Lawson, Joan Cusenbary, Monica DuRussell, Ronnie Cox, Ted Nugent, Jack Kerbow, Marie Aldwell, Gene Gonzales, Ruth Lee Eaton, Lois McCalmont, Jannette, Cynthia Gaile and Little Albert Borrego, Edwina and Joey Gandar, Mary Earwood, Juanita Mesa, Ozelle Jones, Jewel Jennings, Jeanne Jackson, Hazel McClelland, Guila Vicars, Faye McClelland, Lori Ann Galindo and Baby Albert, Amalia Galindo, Mr. and Mrs. T.B. Gonzales, Lena Belle Ross, and Jeannie Lozano.

Easter eggs were blessed, colored, exchanged, and eaten as part of the spring rites before Christian times. As Christianity spread, the egg was adopted as a symbol of Christian Resurrection. For centuries eggs were among the foods forbidden by the Church during Lent, so it was a special treat to have them again at Easter.

Bueno Bye-until next week-and have a blessed and joyous Easter!

Long term interest rate reduced by Federal Land Bank

The Federal Land Bank will reduce its interest rates for long-term mortgages on June 1, according to Jack B. Smith, Jr., president of the Federal Land Bank Association of Sonora. Don Rogge, president of the Federal Land Bank of Texas, announced the rate change at the bank's annual meeting.

Smith and other officials of the Federal Land Bank Association of Sonora were among the more than 500 Federal Land Bank Association stockholders who met in Austin recently. Local association officials attending the annual meeting with Smith were Directors Lee F. Allison of Rocksprings, Pleas L. Childress, Jr. of Ozona, A.E. Prugel and Glen Richardson of Sonora, James T. Williams, Jr. and Otis Deal of Eldorado.

The Land Bank's new variable rates will be 10.25 percent on farm and ranch loans and 10.50 percent on farm related business loans and rural residence loans. The decrease represents a one-half of one percent reduction on farm and ranch loans and a three-quarters of one percent reduction on farm related business loans and rural residence loans.

"In some ways, our situation looks a little better today than it did last year at this time," says Smith.

"For the most part, the Texas District has the authority to set its own interest rates. Until last fall, that was all being determined by the Farm Credit Administration in Washington, D.C.," says Smith. "Also, we were pleased with the recent court decisions regarding the assessments on the Texas District."

Federal judges in both Texas and Massachusetts ruled earlier this year that at least one of the regulations which required stronger banks like Texas to transfer funds to troubled banks in the system was invalid.

Rogge also announced a new loan program he said the FLB plans to initiate within the next 60 days. The program carries an even lower interest rate for loans to buy rural real estate.

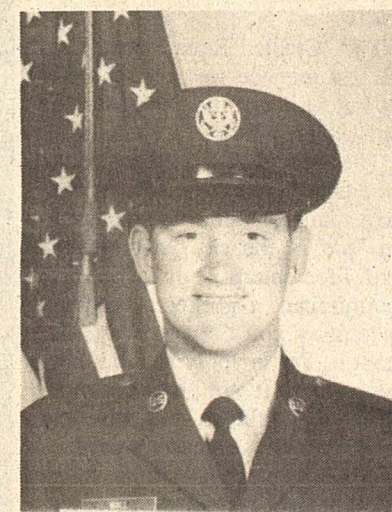

The Federal Land Bank makes loans for a term of 35 years. This program will provide a fixed rate for the first 10 years of the loan. Rogge said he anticipates the rate will be set at approximately 8 7/8 percent. He added that the lower interest rate will be available only for a limited time.

Aimed at stimulating the state's sagging real estate market, Rogge said the plan possibly would encourage other real estate lenders to initiate similar programs, further enhancing land price stabilization efforts. He said details of the plan will be available soon.

The Federal Land Bank and 44 Federal Land Bank Associations make farm and ranch loans and long-term real estate loans. As of December 31, 1986, the bank and associations had $2.38 billion in loans outstanding on 37,000 loans to approximately 100,000 Texas farmers and ranchers. The bank and associations have a combined net worth of $216 million. Reserves for loan losses stood at $103 million on December 31.

Federal Land Bank Association of Sonora has almost $38 million in loans outstanding to approximately 209 area farmers and ranchers who are Land Bank members in a four-county region including Edwards, Crockett, Schleicher and Sutton Counties.

Library function of Sonora Woman's Club

The Library has been the primary function of the Sonora Woman's Club since the Library was opened in 1920.

Growing from a few "books to loan" to several thousands of titles has been no easy job but the members of the Woman's Club have worked tirelessly through the years to continue the task.

Many books and other informative and entertaining materials have been donated to the Library but the major funding has come through efforts of members of the Sonora Woman's Club.

The annals of Sutton County history speak frequently of different fund-raising events hosted by the Woman's Club. Shortly after each event, a list of new offerings at the Library was published.

Until last Sunday's Spring Picnic, perhaps the best remembered event was the fashion show last March, celebrating Texas' Sesquicentennial with "150 Years of Fashion and Song".

Long hours of work were very much in evidence as the Fashion Show unveiled clothing from the first settlers in Sutton County through to the present.

The Fashion Show was one of the highlights of the Texas Birthday Celebration.

What happened to the proceeds from the Fashion Show? As with any Woman's Club endeavor, the proceeds went into the betterment of the Library. In this case, the profits were used to help with the major remodeling which enlarged the Childrens Section of the Library.

Is it any wonder that when the Sonora Chamber of Commerce decided to salute an organization at the Chamber Banquet, the Sonora Woman's Club was the first recipient? The Chamber cited the Woman's Club for the formation of the Library and for their continuing contributions to the Library.

A trip to the Library will quickly dispell any misconceived notion that a library is a dark, quiet place premeated with the musty smell of old books.

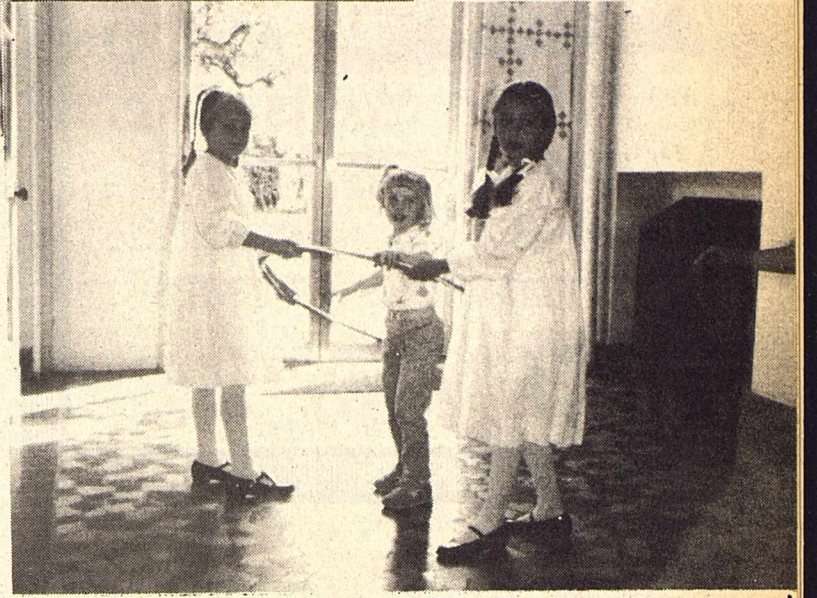

The Sutton County Library is open and airy, the laughter and enthusiasm of small children often filling the quiet as through innovative programs, they learn to appreciate books and the stories they tell.

The Library is open Tuesday through Friday from 9 am to 5 pm.

No, it isn't a circus. It was a Story Hour which was conducted outside several summers ago. But what child wouldn't enjoy hearing a story told by a clown? Story Hour is held each Friday morning at 10 at the Library.

OUT OF THE PAST

March 22, 1940

At a meeting of the Lions Club, Rex Cusenbary suggested that the local Lions make some effort to assist the Sonora Woman's Club by helping support the library. In the past, the woman's organization has shouldered the burden of providing school students and citizens of the town with a supply of free reading, and have done an excellent job in maintaining a library which has remained open and active throughout the summers as well as the winters.

The suggestion was approved by the entire membership of the (Lions) club.

January 11, 1946

Several new books have been added to the Sonora Woman's Club Library. Some were donated to the library and others were bought by the library.

Mr. and Mrs. Sol Mayer, of San Angelo dedicated "Main Street's Neighbors", by Marvin K. Whiteleather, to the memory of the late J.W Wilson of San Angelo.

"Immortal Wife" by Ervin Stone, "Black Rose" by Thomas B. Costain, Hilton's "So Well Remembered" and "Up Front" by Bill Mauldin were given by Mrs. E.F. VanderStucken.

July 12, 1946

Five new books have been added to the Sonora Woman's Club Library it was announced this week by Mrs. Cusenbary.

Two of the books were given in the memory of the late Mr. B.M. Halbert, Sr. "Son of the Wilderness" was given by Mr. and Mrs. W.E. Friend, Jr. and "America is West" given by Mr. and Mrs. Lea Allison.

The three other books added to the Library are: "The Marriage of Josephine" by Majorie Coryn, "The Foxes of Harrow" by Frank Yerby and "The River Road" by Frances Parkinson Keyes.

February 8, 1973

The Sonora Woman's Club members at their Thursday meeting, set Match 29 as the date for the clubs annual fund raising project for the purpose of supporting the library, which is maintained for public use.

Members plan to display and sell handicraft articles at the bazaar to be held in the downtown area.

In other business, the women voted to open the club library three afternoons weekly, instead of two as previously.

March 15, 1983

The following books were placed on the shelves at the Woman's Club Library during February: "I'm O.K., You're O.K." by Thomas A. Harris, MD, "The Camerons" by Robert Crichton, "Hello, Mrs. Piggie-Wiggle" by Betty MacDonald, "Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde" by Robert Louis Stevenson, (and the list continues through thirteen more titles).

The books were donated to the library.

Library receives J. Frank Dobie Award

The Sutton County Library was notified this past week that they are one of the 1987 recipients of the prestigious J. Frank Dobie Award. Through the award the Library has been given $5,375 to be spent on books over the next three years.

J. Frank Dobie was a famous writer and historian of Texas. Before his death in 1964, he was awarded the Presidential Freedom Medal.

In his honor, the J. Frank Dobie Grant was established to be awarded to deserving rural libraries.

Nine winners of the J. Frank Award were chosen this year. The Sutton County Library was one of only three selected for the West Texas region.

In order to be eligible for the award, libraries must meet requirements in the area of community response to the Library programs, community support of the library as far as tax dollars and personal support, library usage, and building and expansion programs.

The Sutton County Library, and specifically the Sonora Woman's Club, was cited for the continuing effort to bring quality library services to Sutton County.

The library was established in 1920 by the Sonora Woman's Club.

The Club donated the books shelving, and supplies to the County six years ago. At that time, the Lea Roy Aldwell family gave the present building to the County to be used as a library.

In 1986, at the cost of $6,000 the Woman's Club added on to the children's area. At this time more of the space in the building was opened up, and additional books and shelving added.

Many programs are conducted at the Library

What type of services does the Sutton County Library offer to the community? The answer to this question is simply many!

The Library employees a Green Thumb worker. The Green Thumb program is federally funded and provides employment to Senior Citizens in the area.

Tours for elementary and middle school students are also provided on a regular basis.

Story Hour

Each Friday, Virginia Epps conducts a Story Hour for preschoolers. In Mrs. Epps absence, another volunteer from the Woman's Club hosts the story telling time.

This is a tremendous opportunity for young children to become acquainted with books.

The children actively participate in the story time which begins at 10 am and lasts approximately 50 minutes.

Literacy Class

On two evenings a week, Suzie Ramirez teaches a class in Adult Literacy. In this class, adults of the area are learning to both read and write English. Currently there are fifteen students in the class and the class has a waiting list. Additional volunteers are needed to teach.

According to the training manuals, the teachers need not be bilingual but it is helpful. The teachers must be dedicated however, and are screened carefully.

Summer Reading Program

For the purpose of stimulating area youth to form good reading habits, the Summer Reading Program is conducted for two months during the summer.

As an incentive to the children, prizes are given for reading books and an awards party is held at the end of the summer.

The past several years, this program has served over 100 children each summer providing them with wholesome summer activity.

Movietime

Movies are shown each Wednesday morning at 10 am during the summer.

The movies are G rated type movies for children age three through twelve.

Approximately forty children take advantage of the Movietime each week during the summer.

In both the Summer Reading Program and Movietime volunteers are always needed. If you are interested in helping with either of these programs, please call the Library at 387-2111.

An Open House was held by the Sonora Woman's Club at the Library to celebrate the donation of the Library to Sutton County in 1981. Sonorans turned out for the event and also learned more about the hospitality and services of the Library.

Through Ministerial Alliance program

Christ's last days dramatized

The Sonora Ministerial Alliance, this past week-end, presented a musical dramatization of Christ's last days on earth entitled "The Highest Place".

The drama, brilliantly done under the direction of Rev. Monte Jones and Brother George Morris, was a tremendous homage to this Holy Season.

Created by David T. Clydedale, the drama began with a Celebration Fanfare, continuing to the arrest, crucifixion and the resurrection.

Narration was done by Rev. Monte Jones who portrayed an older Peter.

Soloists for the performance were Chris James as Jesus, Sherry Viertel as a follower of Jesus, Ruth Ann Dickenson as Procula, Chad Stewart as Pilate, Betty Stephen as Mary, mother of Jesus and Scott Gilmore as Peter.

The choir included Rhonda Akins, Jane Alexander, Dixie Bible, Molly Cook, Ruth Ann Dickenson, Lydia Galindo, Scott Gilmore, Elizabeth Hemphill, Warren Hemphill, Monte Jones, Vera Jones, Cynthia Kepler, Anita Lane, Joe Lane, Carol Love, Leah Morris, Carol Parker, Maria Porras, Rose Spencer, Betty Stephen, Chad Stewart, Brenda Surber, Kyle Viertel, Sherry Viertel and Joe Wootton.

The cast was made up of Sam Caldwell, Tony Cook, Bobby

Dickenson, Preston Faris, Jim Garrett, Chris James, William Jones, Kent Kepler, Dean McLain, Jamie Parker, Dennis Purvis, Tony Renfro, Lance Shook and Randy Surber.

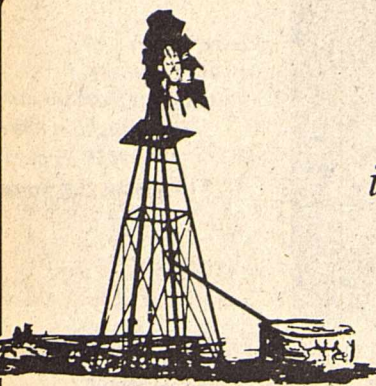

The childrens cast was comprised of Kathy Cooke, Laura Hearn, Melissa Hearn, Jennifer James, Kelsey Lykins, Chris Neal, Jenny Purvis, Cody Renfro, Candi Sessom, Shawna Shook and Shawn Wallace.

Sets, costumes, make-up and performances were all of top quality, reminding us once more of considerable amount of talent in Sonora.

Contributed article

The field of education is in a state of crisis. Tuition at colleges is going up at a dramatic rate. The result is that many deserving students are unable to get the college education they want and need because they can't meet the high cost of education.

Surprisingly, over 140 million dollars of college financial aid went unclaimed last year. Thousands of scholarships and grants go unclaimed each year because students don't know where to find help.

College Aid Guidance is affiliated with a nationwide electronic research organization that has developed and refined a technique and much-needed service for college students.

The students complete a short questionnaire so that their backgrounds and other information may be matched to the requirements of the funding sources and scholarships. College Aid Guidance guarantees to match a minimum of five financial sources to which the student is nominally qualified or will refund the processing fee. This program is designed to fill a critical need of students.

Information about this service is available in this area through College Aid Guidance, P.O. Box 727, Del Rio, Texas 78841

Seek ye the Kingdom

by Gerald Gartman
Children's Pastor
Templo Jerusalem'

Jeremiah 8:20 Harvest is past, summer is ended, and we are not saved.

The prophet Jeremiah is weeping over the circumstances of Judah. God's people had fallen away from seeking and following after Him. God's judgement had been set against them and it was irreversible. They were to be defeated and taken into slavery by a foreign nation. Their freedom, properties and riches were to be lost because their sins had found them out. God's judgement had fallen on Judah and He refused to relent. The sowing was done. The harvest was past due. Jeremiah cries out to God saying, "For my people I am broken, I mourn and dismay has taken hold of me." "God why hasn't my people been restored?"

In Jeremiah Chapter Nine God begins speaking. He is actually presenting His case and making His defense. God gives a list of the sins that brought His judgement upon Judah. The following things had become a common place in the lives of the people. They had become adulterers, slanderers, liars, treacherous and a deceitful people who refused to know the Lord. They were a people no one could trust, who wearied themselves going from evil to evil.

So God cries out "What else can I do?" "Shall I not punish these people for these things?" "Shall I not avenge Myself?" "Behold, I will refine and essay them!"

I am sure by now the question has risen in many about how is this relevant to me? The answer being because of the amount of knowledge of Jesus Christ as Lord and Savior that is in America. In this land, for two centuries, Jesus has been preached that He is the Son of God, that God raised Him up from the dead and made Him (Jesus) both Lord and Savior. This leaves people without excuse. People know right from wrong. People know God and His way, yet many willfully choose not to follow God.

Also the relevancy of God's dealing with Judah pertains to us in that God is no respecter of persons. The judgement and discipline that befell Judah could fall upon America. You can see the very things that caused Judah to fall and be taken into slavery becoming common place happenings in our personal lives in business circles in governmental offices, and in the ministry of God's Word. Greed, adultery, personal ambitions, dishonesty and unfaithfulness have become common experiences for all areas of life. All the sins God charged against Judah are common to us.

Proverbs 14:34 says "Sin is a disgrace to any people."

The remedy for these problems is not in judging and accusing your neighbor but in judging yourself and making amends. Search your heart in light of God's expectations and repent. Confess your faults to God and forsake them. Then insist that truth and righteousness prevail. Insist that they be your way of life as you walk with God and live with your neighbor.

Matthew 6:33 Jesus speaking- "But seek ye first the kingdom of God and His righteousness; and all these things (your needs and even your desires) shall be added unto you." Added means given!

"Praise God"

A pilgrim came to Jerusalem fair
To keep Passover while he was there.

Jesus came to Jerusalem too
To be lamb for worlds made new.

Both suffered in ways unfair
But each kept his faith atop despair.

The lesson of the Day of Palms
Is the lesson of discipleship not sunk in qualms.

Praise God, my friend,
Praise Him on the straight and around the bend.

Praise Him as you see the waters rise,
On your patio praise Him while you watch the sun as it dies.

In the midst of Tuesday and Thursday stand and sing you praise.
And from the mounds and months of your life your spirit will be raised.

For Jesus came to Jerusalem fair
And disciples can but praise and dare.
For sin he did ours bear
And with hope we trust his daily care.
Every day is Palm Sunday.
Every Saturday and every Monday.
Praise God
Beneath and above the sod.

West Texas Utilities elects new director

James M. Parker of Abilene was elected to the Board of Directors of West Texas Utilities Co. during the company's annual stockholders meeting Tuesday. He is president of Parker and Associates of Abilene and is former owner of Super Duper Food Stores, Inc.

As a new WTU director he succeeds Cearly R. Kinard, retired partner of Davis Kinard & Co. of Abilene, who is retiring from the board. Kinard was elected a WTU director in 1969 and has served longer than any current member of the board.

Parker is a native of Roby and is a 1947 graduate of Newman High School in Sweetwater and a 1951 graduate of Hardin-Simmons University.

He serves as a director of the Abilene Industrial Foundation, a director of Hendrick Medical Foundation and is past-president of the Abilene Chamber of Commerce, the Chamber Foundation and the Better Business Bureau. He is past-chairman of Hendrick Medical Development Corp. and the H-SU Board of Development.

Parker is a member of the Abilene Rotary club and is a deacon at the First Baptist Church.

Others on the 13-member WTU Board are Robert H. Alvis, Richard Bacon, Glen L. Churchill, Ralph N. Hooks, Jerry Johnson, G.H. King, Randal Meador, Tommy Morris, and Don Welch, all of Abilene; F.L. Stephen and Dr. Lloyd D. Vincent of San Angelo; and Durwood Chalker of Dallas.

Parents dealing with teen depression

Recent highly publicized teenage suicides in other states have once again focused Texas parents' concerns closer to home.

"Like adolescents everywhere, many Texas youngsters are under a great deal of stress," says the family life education specialist Diane Welch. "This stress may lead to distress and then to depression."

"Depression takes many forms and has a wide variety of symptoms. It can range in intensity from a case of the blues to a chronic and recurring state of despair so severe that outside help is needed to overcome it," she adds.

Many mental health professionals think adolescents experience masked depression or behaviors that are indirect evidence of their depression, Welch says. These indirect signs include low school achievement, school phobia, drug and alcohol abuse, anorexia nervosa, social isolation, sexual promiscuity and delinquency.

"While depression is associated with a wide variety of behaviors, it's not always clear whether depression precedes or follows the behaviors," she emphasizes.

According to the Texas A&M University Agricultural Extension Service home economist, parents may help reduce stress and the possibility of depression in their teenagers.

"Recognize that youngsters can be under stress even from daily school activities such as getting good grade, succeeding in sports or making friends," she says. "Major life changes such as the death of a parent, friend or family member, pregnancy, parents' divorce or starting to take drugs are even greater stressors."

The specialist advises parents to communicate acceptance to their teenagers. "Communication is a key to positive parent-teen relations. It is as important to listen as well as speak. Be willing to share your feelings as well as accept differences."

Providing clear guidelines is also important, says Welch. Even though teenagers may outwardly reject parental authority, they need clear guidelines and expectations. They will respect you for providing responsible standards and explaining the reasons behind the rules.

"Don't feel rejected," she says. "Accept the fact that teenagers turn to the peer group for emotional support and acceptance as part of growing up. The teenager is not rejecting you as much as reaching out for new relationships and independence."

Help is available in many communities for parents who want to improve their parenting and communication skills, the specialist emphasizes. Courses and workshops are offered through churches, community education and county Extension offices and other programs in most Texas communities.

"Parents who are concerned that their child is at risk of serious depression which may lead to suicide should not hesitate to call a local hospital, mental health clinic or suicide hotline for help," she advises.

Plan now for severe weather

Although tornadoes, severe thunderstorms, and floods can strike virtually any part of Texas at any time, spring seems to bring an increase in violent weather.

You can take precautions to assist yourself and your family in the event of a tornado.

Periodically hold a tornado drill so that family members know what to do and where to go if the National Weather Service issues a tornado warning. The safest part of a house during a tornado traditionally is the basement, but be aware of the potential for flooding if there is heavy rain in the area. Interior bathrooms, hallways, and closets on the first floor also offer protection from tornadic winds. Avoid windows and outside walls. Take along blankets or sleeping bags to protect yourself from falling debris and shattering glass, which are frequently the cause of death and injury during a tornado.

Make certain you have a portable radio and several flashlights (and fresh batteries for both), as well as bottled water, extra prescription medications and a first aid kit in your shelter area. If a tornado strikes, electricity may be off for several days.

Mobile homes and automobiles are dangerous places to be during a tornado. If you live in a mobile home, make sure all family members know where the nearest substantial shelter is. If you are in your mobile home or car and can't get to a better shelter; go outside, lie down in the nearest ravine, ditch or culvert and cover your head with your hands. Again, be aware of the possibility of flooding in low-lying areas. Do not hide under your mobile home or car, because both can easily be picked up and carried away by a tornado.

Your local (city or county) emergency management office can provide you with additional information on severe weather precautions through the Governor's Division of Emergency Management and the Federal Emergency Management Agency.

The centers for disease control estimates that 605,000 new cases of Diabetes are reported each year, and that the Diabetic population increases 4.7% yearly. Diabetes is an especially serious problem in Texas. More than three million Mexican-Americans live in Texas, and they have a three to five-fold risk of developing Diabetes. In the Rio Grande Valley's Starr County, where 97% of the population is Hispanic, 17% of its middle-aged residents suffer from Diabetes--more than four times the National average.

As the threat from diabetes grows, however, so does research into that causes and treatment of the disease. Scientists have learned that Diabetes is a group of diseases rather than just one Malady.

Type I, or insulin-dependent diabetes, usually occurs in children and young adults and is characterized by the absence of insulin in the body. Persons with insulin-dependent diabetes must rely upon daily insulin injections for survival. An estimated 10% of all diabetes patients have insulin dependent diabetes.

Type II, or non-insulin dependent patients, afflicts the vast majority of diabetes patients. It usually affects persons past the age of 35, is prone to strike obese individuals and can often be controlled through diet and exercise alone, although oral medication or insulin may be required in difficult cases.

Gestational diabetes is usually a temporary form of the disease that strikes women during pregnancy.

As with any serious health problem, questions relating to diabetes should be directed to your doctor. We at Lillian Hudspeth are pleased to be of service to Sutton County. We have a fully-staffed, full-service hospital available 24 hours a day. Call 387-2521.

Second grade class enjoys pizza party

For the past five months, Mrs. Moore's Second Grade class participated in a unique, reading incentive program called BOOK IT! The purpose of the program was to motivate students to read more by offering immediate rewards when they achieved their reading goals.

The goal set for each month was five books. Any child who met that goal monthly earned a free Pizza Hut single-topping Personal Pan Pizza. If the child achieved his reading goal in all five months, he received a BOOK IT! honor diploma signed by the principal of the school. If all the children in a class achieved their reading goals in any four out of the five months, the entire class received a free Pizza Hut pizza party.

On Friday, March 27 the class enjoyed a Pizza Hut pizza party. Pizza Hut provided the pizza and each child brought something for their very own salad bar. Beverly Brown and Carol Covey made a decorated cake for the party. Everyone enjoyed the lunch and it was decided that a little hard work does pay off.

The students that earned a BOOK IT! honor diploma were

Local children invited to participate in track meet

The Midland Parks and Recreation Department and ARCO Oil and Gas Company are sponsoring the ARCO Jesse Owens Games to be held Saturday, May 9, 1987, at Midland Memorial Stadium. Permian Basin boys and girls born from 1973 through 1980, are invited to participate in the meet, and last year, there were over 800 participants. There are no entry fees, and T-shirts will be distributed on a first come, first serve basis. Information and entry forms may be obtained by sending a self-addressed stamped envelope, to the Midland Parks and Recreation Department, 300 Baldwin, Midland, Texas 79701. Completed entry forms must be received by the Midland Parks and Recreation Department by Wednesday, May 6, 1987, at 5:00 p.m. Entries will not be accepted the day of the meet.

The ARCO Jesse Owens Games is a nationwide program begun in 1964. The Midland meet is one of 600 events to be held nationwide, with more than a million participants. The Games are based on Jesse Owen's belief that organized recreational competition is an effective tool for developing and building character in children, and for promoting the ideals of friendship and sportsmanship. The recreational track and field program emphasizes participation by beginning athletes in a friendly competition and also offers opportunities for children to advance as far as the Southwest Regional Championships to be held in Dallas in July, and the National Championships to be held in Los Angeles in August.

Meet directors will sponsor 42 separate events, 21 for boys, and 21 for girls, that will include 50, 100, 200, 400, and 1500 meter races as well as the running long jump, running high jump, and softball throw. Entrants may only compete in one event. First, second and third place winners in each event will be presented with Olympic-style medallions to acknowledge their achievement, and those born 1973-1980 placing first in their event will receive a free trip to the Regional Championships in Dallas in July. Winners in Dallas who were born 1973-1980, will advance to the National Championships in Los Angeles. The championship trips to Dallas and Los Angeles are all expenses paid.

For more information, contact the Midland Parks and Recreation Department at (915) 683-4281 ext. 316 or 322.
