The ICD Family Shelter holds support and counseling for victims of domestic violence and their supporters every Tuesday at 7 p.m. The sessions are open to the public and activities are available for children.

For more information call 655-5774. Outside of San Angelo, call toll-free 1-800-749-8631.

Hotline Number

Violence need not be a part of your life. Call the Family Shelter in San Angelo at 655-5774 or 1-800-749-8631. Transportation is available.

City takes step toward single-member districts

By Griffin B. Cole
DRN Editor

The Sonora City Council voted unanimously Tuesday morning to proceed planning for single-member districts.

City Secretary Becky Covington said the next step is to form a voting-member committee to work with the city council to come up with a plan and to hire a firm to do a study.

The decision to "volunteer" for single-member district came after City Attorney Beth Wallace informed the council. "It appears the courts really do favor single-member districts."

Wallace said she had talked with officials in other cities who had faced the same issue and found a lawsuit be expensive.

"We're looking at a real steep cost factor either way (win or lose)," said Wallace.

Despite the latest move by the council Wallace said, "Drawing lines (for districts) is a long way

Absentee voting strong

Absentee voting continued to be popular to the last minute on Tuesday. At 4:45 p.m. Tuesday, 275 people had voted absentee in the runoff election between Bob Mooney and Lemuel Lopez for the final spot on the city council.

While absentee voting closed Tuesday, the candidates and city officials continue to wonder what the turnout will be on Saturday for the regular election.

The polls will be open from 7 a.m. to 7 p.m. Voting will take place at city hall.

Officials are expecting a light turnout with the Memorial Day weekend in progress and the day after graduation.

The first election drew 387 voters to the polls.

The winner of the election will take the final spot on the council which is currently void. Both Lopez and Mooney were incumbents.

The pair tied at 181 votes each in the regular election.

Wallace informed the council that a committee needs to be formed to study a plan. After that, a municipal election would have to be held and the city would then have yet to get clearance from the Justice Department for the plan. An election before January 1992 would be difficult said Wallace.

Discussion again centered on effective representation for the city.

Councilwoman Margaret Cascadden said, "What I'm opposed to is me representing a small amount of people. I like the Please see Districts, page 2

Galindo appeal goes through

By Griffin B. Cole
DRN Editor

SAN ANTONIO - Jose Alfredo Galindo is expected to be a free man this week after his conviction on a drug charge was reversed and remanded by the Fourth Court of Appeals in San Antonio late last week.

The Court of Appeals reversed the verdict of the Galindo trial due to the State improperly excluded Mexican-Americans from the jury.

Galindo's attorney, Domingo Garcia of Dallas, stated it more strongly. "The decision was reversed on the basis of intentional discrimination by your district attorney (J.W. Johnson Jr.)."

The exclusion of jurors due strictly to race is in violation of the Batson Supreme Court ruling.

In its' opinion filed May 15, the Court of Appeals wrote the trial courts ruling that there was no Batson violation was in error.

Favela appeal filed

SAN ANTONIO - Following on the heels of the successful Alfredo Galindo appeal, Tomas "Tiny" Favela has appealed his conviction to the Fourth Court of Appeals in San Antonio.

Favela was one of 14 people arrested during an undercover narcotics operation in 1989.

In October 1989, Favela was tried and found guilty of selling methamphetamines to Lonnie Hood, an undercover agent. Favela was sentenced to 90 years.

Garcia said it is back to square one concerning a trial.

"It is strictly discretionary on the part of the District Attorney as to whether there is another trial," Favela's attorney, Fred Tinsely of Dallas, said the appeal was based on sufficiency of evidence. Tinsely declined to go into any further detail.

While Tinsely is representing Favela in the appeal it was Joseph Montemayor who defended Favela during the appeal.

"It is almost standard practice (to change attorney's for an appeal)," said Tinsely.

Tinsely said the appeal was filed last week and the state now has 30 days to respond to the brief.

said Garcia.

Attempts to reach Johnson were unsuccessful by the Devil's River News.

NERVOUS GRINS - Seniors Carl Vargas, Tina Vickers, Kelley Webster, and Mark Wootton participated in the Senior Baccalaureate Service on Sunday May 12th at the High School Auditorium.

Locals win two events at Sonora Sensation

Rachel Merck and Kenneth Mauldin provided victories for the hometown during last weekend's Sonora Sensation at Sutton County Park Arena.

Merck won $244.46 by winning the average in the barrel race and Mauldin finished first in average for the Seniors steer roping.

Keith Hudson placed third in the second round of the calf roping, but lost the match roping contest against Jerry Alley of Del Rio.

Other locals to finish near the top included Arnold Felts second in steer roping and John Rae Powell of Eldorado the top spot in Super Seniors steer roping.

Merck was strong in both rounds of the barrel race. She finished tied for the top spot with Diltzie Edmonson of McCaulley in the first go-round at 17.88 seconds.

Merck placed third in the second go-round at 18.05 for a combined time of 35.93.

Mandy Terry was the closest finisher at 36.32 and Rhonda Smothers finished third at 36.47.

Mauldin rode the strength of a 14.84 go in the first go-round to his victory. The time was good enough for third in the round.

When it came to total time, Mauldin finished way ahead of the field at 65.61 seconds with Joe Snievely of Pawhucka, Okla. next at 76.17. Olin Young of Jena, Louis, was third at 76.58.

Barrera visits with Governor Richards

By Griffin B. Cole
DRN Editor

Ernest Barrera came back from a visit to Austin last week with a positive outlook on Ann Richards' term as governor of Texas.

Barrera, a Sutton County Commissioner, called the visit to Austin by supporters of Richards an, "informal get together to touch on whatever you wanted to know."

Most of the visitors were from the Valley along the border where Richards picked up strong support in the election said Barrera.

"Very few were from West Texas," Barrera said.

Barrera said he views Richards, "as really being sincere. She says the state government needs to get back in the knack of knowing the people instead of big business."

The advantage Richards has is that she understands county problems since she was once a county commissioner herself said Barrera.

According to Barrera, Richards is following through with her promises by the appointments she has made. Barrera said the most important appointment was Nina Guerrero as Railroad Commissioner.

"There will be no special interest favored now. It will be fair to everybody concerned," said Barrera.

IMPORTANT VISIT - Ernest Barrera, Sutton County Commissioner, visited with Governor Ann Richards in Austin May 15. Barrera said he believes Richards will be successful as a governor.

High frustration factor

I believe I have found a sport to rival golf in becoming addictive and frustrating.

Spouses will now want to avoid having their partner take up darts. I know my friends wife would prefer her husband to drop it.

I started playing with some friends about six months ago and now hardly a day or two will pass before I have to get in a quick four or five games. Or may 10 or 15 games.

A short night will quickly stretch into midnight before one team will finally say they have had enough.

That is because nobody wants to finish the night a loser. Even if they have lost 10 games in a row.

What is even worse is how frustrating the game can be.

Just like golf, you can be shooting a great game of darts and then totally lose it for 15 minutes. By that time the game is gone and you're stuck wondering what happened.

We like to play a game called cricket. That is, hit the numbers 20 through 15 three times each then the bullseye three times.

Sounds simple enough, especially with partners.

Except when things fall completely apart. I've had times when I wouldn't be able to hit a number then 10 minutes later I'd throw all three darts in the bullseye.

That is kind of like hitting a tee shot 80 yards then nailing a 90-foot put.

It makes you go crazy.

Speaking of crazy, a few weeks ago some of us dart players thought we were good enough to enter a tournament in San Angelo. Full of confidence, we talked a great game.

Unfortunately, when it came to playing we still only talked a good game.

Of course, we found proper reasons for being knocked out early and know we'll win the tournament next time.

I was informed Tuesday I must be getting old.

Kent Kepler said I made a grievous error in last week's column and almost ruined his shiny, clean image in Sonora.

I reported last week that I had replaced Kent at the craps table during Project Graduation. Apparently that wasn't so.

Kent said couldn't have been at the craps table. He was busy dealing poker.

Oh.
See what a year will do?

Letter to the Editor

To the Editor,

It seems an appropriate time in my life to update the folks of Sutton County with a little local history.

Jack Ray recently surrendered his life to the Sutton County ranch he loved. He grew up on the Ray Ranch a few miles to the west of the Del Rio-Juno road junction.

His mother, May Murphy Ray, had deep roots in Sonora's history. The love and interest our family has in Sutton County dates back to the 1880's. Mike and Steve Murphy, May Ray's uncles, founded and operated the "The Devil's River News" until the 1920's.

Jack Ray's two sons, Patrick Murphy Ray and John Kevin Ray, hope to keep the ranching operation going. When the locals see them about town, welcome Patrick and Kevin to a life style that many Murphys before them appreciated.

Wishing for good rains to come,
Sally Ray Dalton

way it is now."

Mayor Bill Gosney contends districts will not change how the council governs, "We're still the same people that are here. Our water won't stop at district lines, our sewer won't stop at district lines."

James Trainer said, "That's not to say we couldn't govern, but there will be conflicts between the districts."

Equal representation for Hispanics was also pressed into issue.

"The reason the courts favor it (districts) is because it provides representation for the minority," said Wallace.

Sitting in the audience awaiting the outcome of this Saturday's election, Lemuel Lopez said, "There are parts of Sonora, Anglo and Hispanic, that have no representation."

"What you're saying is there needs to be more Hispanics on the council," responded Butch Campbell.

Lopez said, "It would give an Hispanic more confidence that his peers would vote for him."

Further movement on the single-member district issue is expected during the city council meeting in June.

Galindo was convicted on a charge of delivery of a controlled substance and sentenced to life in October 1989 after being arrested in March 1988 during an undercover operation conducted over four months.

Garcia had appealed the Galindo conviction on three points.

The first was improper exclusion of Mexican-Americans from the jury; second, the State failed to disclose exculpatory material until the fifth day of the trial and third, the court erred in admitting evidence of an extraneous offense.

Galindo originally filed his appeal Jan. 23, 1990. His appeal hearing came one year later to the date, followed by the decision last week.

"The court did not look at the other two points after finding reasons for reversal on the first.

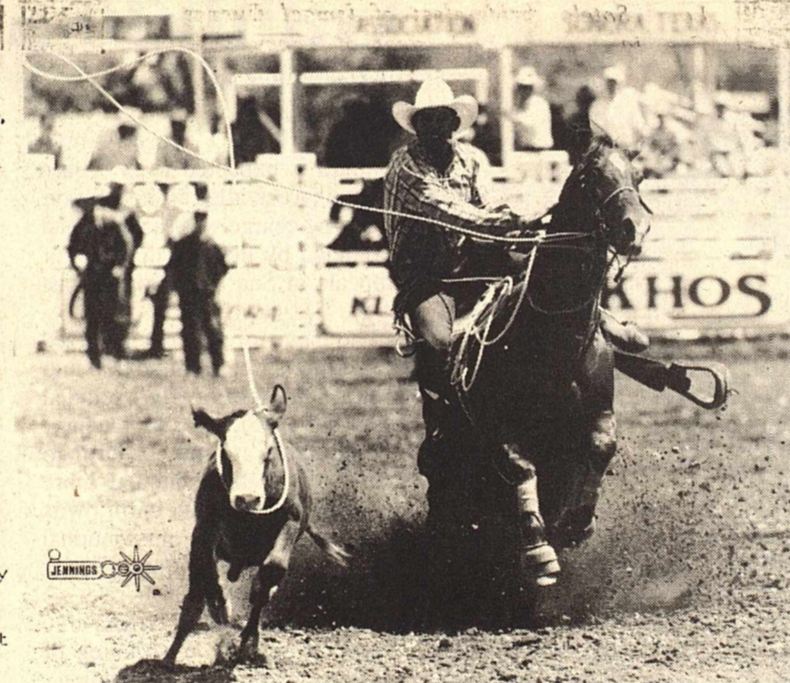

Garcia said he hopes the errors of the first trial can be avoided.

"Maybe the District Attorney will realize they have been duped by this Lonnie Hood," said Garcia in reference to the State's top witness.

Hood was the agent hired by Sutton County Sheriff Bill Webster to do the extended undercover operation in late 1988 and early 1989.

The operation resulted in 14 arrests of which eight were Hispanic.

"The District Attorney and law enforcement need to re-evaluate the arrests made by this sleaze-ball character (Lonnie Hood)...and consider dropping the charges," said Garcia.

of Vinton, Okla. in the steer roping. Felts best time came in the first go where he placed second.

Powell finished first in the first and third go-rounds in the Super Seniors steer roping on his way to a combined time of 88.93 which beat out Bill Gray of Lovington, N.M. at 115.92.

Powell was timed at 17.88 in his first try and 15.06 in his third.

James Zant of Harper won the calf roping event followed by Paul Ivy of Albany and Doug Clark of Wayne, Okla.

The team roping championship went to Chuck Lambert and Glen Hutta. John Lyne and Joe Brannon placed second and Rocky Anderson and Doug Wilson third.

World soaring comes to Uvalde

Experience the international flavor of the 22nd World Soaring Championships this summer in Uvalde, Texas. From July 19 - August 11, teams from 30 countries around the world will vie for world champion honors in this spectacular sailplane event.

Spectators will feel the excitement as 120 sleek gliders are launched by towplanes to being the day's task. At the end of the day, the skies fill with the returning aircraft, each pilot racing to prove he is worthy of the title world champion.

The World Soaring Championships, held every two years and previously in Austria, are considered the "Olympics of Soaring". The competition comes to the United States only every 20 years due to the expense for the European Competitors.

Events slated during the championships include pre-contest training July 19-26, Olympic-style opening ceremony July 27, contest flying July 28 - August 10 and closing ceremony and awards presentation August 11. Festivals, arts & crafts shows, rodeos and more will be held in conjunction with the soaring contest.

For information about the World Soaring Championships, contact WSC'91 Office, P. O. Box 1452, Uvalde, Texas 78802, (512) 278-3012.

For information about activities in Uvalde, contact the Uvalde Chamber of Commerce, P. O. Box 706, Uvalde, Texas 78802, (512) 278-3361.

Getting ready for summer

Ladies, let's get ready for summer and increase our exercise program. Beginning Tuesday, June 4, we will conduct water exercise classes at the public swimming pool. The classes will be held each Tuesday evening at 6:30 p. m. and will cost $10 per month. You can join the group by contacting my office, 387-3604, or call Melissa Teaff, 387-2773. The pool will be available only to class members on those evenings, so let's get together, and get in shape.

The Walkie Talkies for Life program is still going strong, and we are presently working on setting up aerobics classes for the summer. Watch for times and place to be announced. If you have meant to begin a weight control and exercise program but just haven't gotten around to it yet, join us on Tuesdays in the basement of First United Methodist Church at 5:00 p. m. We conduct free educational programs and walk together at the high school track.

Here's a great muffin recipe. It is good with or without butter for breakfast.

Banana Blueberry Muffins

- 2 extra-ripe medium bananas, peeled
- 2 eggs
- 1 cup packed brown sugar
- 1/2 cup butter or margarine, melted
- 1 cup blueberries, fresh or frozen
- 1 tsp. vanilla
- 2 1/4 cups all purpose flour
- 2 tsp. baking powder
- 1/2 tsp. ground cinnamon (optional)

Puree bananas in blender (1 cup). In medium bowl, combine bananas, eggs, sugar and butter until well blended. Stir in blueberries and vanilla. In large bowl, combine flour, baking powder, cinnamon and salt. Stir banana mixture into flour mixture until evenly moistened. Spoon batter into well-greased 2 1/2 inch muffin cups. Bake in 350 degree oven 25 to 30 minutes or until wooden pick inserted in center comes out clean. Serve warm. Makes 12 muffins.

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Hill
Monroe-Hill wed May 4

Judy Carole Monroe and Howard Wayne Hill, both of Austin, were united in a double-ring ceremony on May 4 in St. Austin's Catholic Church. Fr. Paul Rospond officiated.

Judy is the daughter of Lloyd and Carole Monroe of Houston. Wayne is the son of W. H. and Ann Hill of Sonora.

The bride given in marriage by her father, Lloyd Monroe, chose a white satin gown with a beaded, sequined bodice and lace applique on the train with a fingertip-length veil. The bridal bouquet was of bridal white roses, alstromeria, pink statice and baby's breath.

Maid of honor was Stephanie Monroe, sister of the bride, of Houston. Bridesmaid was Jennifer Yelle of Galveston. Flowergirl was Lana Maynard, cousin of the bride, of Corpus Christi.

Serving as best man was W. H. Hill, father of the groom, of Sonora. Groomsmen were Jonathan Spear of Austin. Ushers were Brett Ratliff and Chris Hooks.

Judy is a graduate of the University of Texas with a B. S. in Education Elementary School Math teacher.

Wayne is also a graduate of the University of Texas with a B. A. in Government and will be returning to continue his education.

After a honeymoon to San Antonio the couple are residing in Austin.

A reception was held following the wedding at the Holiday Inn on Town Lake.

Domestic Violence: Men who batter

Society teaches men to control their relationships with women. Violence or the threat of using it are ways that batterers achieve power and control over their female partners. Unchallenged, men who batter come to learn that violence is an acceptable and effective way to resolve problems.

*Men who batter come from all classes, races, religions, and income and educational levels.

*Many batterers are not violent in other relationships, such as at work or with friends.

*Many abusers have a rigid, traditional view of sex roles and parenting.

*Batterers are more focused on their own needs than on the pain of fear that their violence causes their victims.

*The majority of men who batter are not mentally ill. Viewing batterers as "sick" wrongly excuses them from taking responsibility for their actions.

*Alcoholism or drugs do not cause battering. Intoxication may only intensify an already existing violent behavior.

*Batterers characteristically deny the existence and severity of their violence. When confronted with their abusive behavior, they tend to blame their partner for provoking it or refuse to accept responsibility for their actions.

*Batters will continue to abuse their female partners until society condemns their behavior and ensures immediate and serious consequences for their actions.

The ICD Family Shelter offers a 24-hour toll-free hotline and free counseling for victims of domestic violence. For more information about the Shelter and its services call 1-800-749-8631.

Information for this article was taken from the brochure "Domestic Violence: Understanding a Community Problem", printed by the Department of Human Services.

SOCIAL SECURITY NEWS

Work affects retirement differently first year

One of the questions often asked from people planning their retirement is, "I know there's a limit on how much I can earn in a year and still get all my Social Security benefits, but what if I've already made more than that limit when I retire?"

The answer is really simple: during your first year of retirement, even if your earnings exceed the yearly limit, you can get a Social Security benefit for any month your earnings are below a special monthly limit.

Here's how it works. In 1991, the yearly earnings limit for people under 65 is $7,080, and for people 65 and older, $9,720. Beneficiaries who are 70 or older do not have an earnings limit.

When earnings exceed those limits, we withhold $1 in benefits for each $2 of earnings above the limit for people under 65. For people 65-69, we withhold $1 in benefits for each $3 of earnings.

Under the monthly test, a person can receive a full Social Security check for any whole month he or she is "retired", regardless of yearly earnings. In 1991, a person is considered retired if monthly earnings are limited to $590 for people under 65 or $810 for people 65 through 69.

Here's an example: John Smith, age 65, is retiring on June 30, 1991. By the time he retires, his earnings will have reached $18,720. That's $9,000 over the Social Security earnings limit ($18,720-9,720=$9,000). Using the $1 for $3 withholding rate, we normally would have to withhold $3,000 from John's Social Security benefit. But because this is John's first year of retirement, he can get a full Social Security benefit for any month his earnings are under $810. So, John will get Social Security checks from July through December even though he's made significantly more than the 1991 earnings limit.

The monthly earnings limits can apply for one year only. It is also applied to the Social Security benefits of children and their mothers or fathers during the first year they start receiving dependents or survivors benefits, and in the year their benefits end.

For more information, call the San Angelo Social Security Office to ask for the fact sheet, How Work Affects Your Social Security Benefits. The number is 949-4608.

Latest survey reveals Texans' health risks

Texans appear to pay more attention to certain areas of their health and safety than others, according to the 1989 Behavioral Risk Factor Surveillance Final Report recently released by the Texas Department of Health (TDH).

Some 1,490 Texans, age 18 and older, were interviewed concerning seat belt use, high blood pressure, physical activity, weight, cigarette smoking, alcohol use and preventive health practices. Some of the findings included:

*Eighteen percent were overweight, a drop from 22 percent in 1988. This change was greatest among women. The 35- to 45-year old age group reported the highest rate of being overweight.

*The overall smoking rate continued to decline slightly, reflecting a national trend. Black males reported the highest levels of current smoking (30 percent).

*Texans reported some of the highest rates of alcohol use among the 40 states in the survey, with 19 percent reporting binge drinking at least once in the past month and six percent reporting driving after drinking one or more times in the past month. Men ages 18-34 were at highest risk for alcohol abuse.

*Thirty-six percent of women age 40 and older reported that they had never had a mammogram, even though the American Cancer Society recommends a mammogram for women ages 35-

39. Texans fared better when compared to the average from 1989 surveys in 40 states. For example, 22 percent were current smokers compared to 24 percent; 0.6 percent had high blood pressure compared to 1.5 percent; 93 percent used seat belts compared to 85 percent; and 53 percent led sedentary lifestyles compared to 59 percent.

A Surgeon General's Report on Health Promotion and Disease Prevention concluded that unhealthy lifestyle habits account for about half of all illnesses, injuries and premature deaths. "This can be translated into 540,688 potential years of productive life which are lost in Texas for persons age 20 through 64 in 1989," according to Dr. Robert Bernstein, Texas Commissioner of Health.

The Behavioral Risk Factor Surveillance System is one way the Texas Department of Health determines if progress is being made in reaching the state's Year 2000 Health Objectives. The survey's results also are used to direct health promotion efforts toward Texans' most prevalent health risks.

Arthritis Answers

See your doctor if you answer "yes" to any of the questions below, which first appeared as a quiz in an advertisement in Reader's Digest:

Pain and stiffness in your joints could mean you have arthritis. If so, your doctor can help you.

1. Do you have pain, stiffness or swelling in your neck, back, fingers, knees or other joints?

2. Does the discomfort limit your ability to work, do housework, climb stairs, bathe, dress, write, cook, shop or walk; or does it affect the quality of your life in other ways?

3. Is the discomfort worse when you first wake up?

Your doctor can set you on the road to recovery with an examination, recommendations and a free Arthritis Therapy Kit from Pfizer Labs and the Arthritis Foundation. As mentioned in the ad, the kit includes a cold-and-hot pack and exercise advice.

The Arthritis Foundation is also sponsoring a series of free arthritis education seminars. To learn more about them, call 1-800-283-7800, toll-free.

GOLF HAPPENINGS

Golf auxiliary meets May 15

The Sonora Golf Auxiliary met Wednesday, May 15th, at the Sutton County Steakhouse, with Suzanne Surber and Casey Henderson as hostesses. There were nine members present.

President Lauri Smith called the meeting to order and the minutes were read by secretary Frances Tackel and then approved, and the financial report followed.

Lauri thanked all of the helpers who worked at the ladies tournament and everyone agreed that it was a great success. She also thanked everyone who worked at the Christmas in April Project and conveyed the appreciation of the Halliburton crew to the auxiliary for furnishing them the noon meal. A discussion of the use of the club house by the Tri-City Shriners for their up-coming convention followed.

A get-well card for Wanda Neville was signed by members and the auxiliary hopes she recovers quickly and will be back soon.

The meeting was then adjourned. Members present were Jane Archer, Kathy Davis, Jo Neville, Marla Percifull, Shelly Shannon, Lauri Smith, Melanie Smith, Suzanne Surber, Ebbie Sutton and Frances Tackel.

Local ladies win at area tourneys

The Annual Bluebonnet Classic was held at Bentwood Country Club in San Angelo on Saturday, May 18. Ebbie Sutton and Frances Tackel shot a 59 in the low ball format tournament, to tie for second place in the second flight. They lost on the scorecard play-off, but won the third place spot. They were awarded gift certificates for prizes. Sammie Espy and her partner, Melissa O'Harrow of Eldorado, also participated in the event.

On Sunday, May 19, the Eldorado two-lady scramble was held, with 15 teams entered, which were divided into two flights. Ethel Olson, and her partner, Jean Taylor from San Angelo, were winners of the championship flight with a 63. Sammie Espy and Melissa O'Harrow were 2nd with a 64, and Johnnie Rowoldt and Linda Faulkner, both of San Angelo, were third with a 65.

In the first flight, Jane Archer and Frances Tackel were first with a 69; Mary Bobb and Cindy O'Brian, both of Big Lake, were second with a 70; and Dorothy Schuch of San Angelo and Myrta Rathbone of Eldorado, teamed up to win third with a 71. Pam Browning and Ebbie Sutton also participated and shot a 74. Cash prizes were awarded at the hamburger supper that followed.

Sixty-nine compete in scramble

At the May 16 weekly golf scramble, there were sixty-nine participants, which were divided into eleven teams.

The winners were Jack Smith, John Barker, Alfred Enriquez, Pete Maldonado, Mike McBride, Jerry Hopkins, and Raymond Youngblood with a 9 under par.

Second place winners at 7 under, were Joe Ramirez, Allan Prather, Ed Price, Bill Savell, Mike Dillard, John D. Casparis, and John N. Casparis.

Six teams were tied at 6 under and the ensuing putt-off was divided into two rounds, with three teams putting against each other in each round, then the winners of the two rounds putted against each other to determine third place.

In the first round, Primo Gonzales sank his putt to put his team members, Gregg Tedford, Harold Martinez, Savell Shannon, Jane Archer and Rudy Martinez into the second round. The other team to win a spot in the second round was the group of Steve Thorp, Joe Turner, Robert Day, Pat Day, Jerry Northcott, and Richard Gonzales. In the second round, Jerry Northcott sank his putt to win third place for his team.

The other teams at 6 under were Ray Don Roe, Matt Davis, Todd Churchill, Frances Tackel, Ron Woodard, and Ricky Day. Also Steve Tackel, Doyle Morgan, Frank Gamboa, Quade Sutton, Ebbie Sutton, and Jimmy Crowder. Also Mike Hale, J. T. Hill, Bunk Galbreath, Virgil Burge, Orlando DeHoyos, and Mike Holley. Also Erasmo Lumberas, Oliver Wuest, Shelly Shannon, James Edmondson, James Barton and Robert Abila.

At 5 under, were the teams of Jason Donaldson, Jim Covington, Don Deel, Harvey DuRussell, Lewis Andrews, Dingo Ortiz, and Kathy Davis. Also, Bobby Taylor, Charlie Oren, Wes Henson, John Adams, Patti Prather, and George Noriega.

The team of DeVoe Smith, Phil Browning, Albert Fowler, Robert Correa, Manuel Munoz and Lencho Quezada shot 2 under.

Campfire Cookin' scheduled for June 28-30

ELDORADO - Cookers are searching for mouth-watering recipes, goat ropers are practicing hard, washer and horse shoe pitchers are warming up and the Chamber of Commerce is busy finalizing plans for its Fifth Annual World Championship Cowboy Campfire Cookin' scheduled this year for June 28, 29 and 30th according to Sherry Lux and Kim-et Nelson, this year's co-chairmen of this exciting event. If you are interested in participating in any of the events call the Schleicher County Chamber of Commerce at 915-853-3109 for more details or write to P. O. Box 1155, Eldorado, Texas 76936.

Events slated in addition to the cooking competition will be a melodrama entitled "Begone Begonia" presented by the Way Off Broadway Players and directed by Pat Ragsdale. This hilarious play will be presented on Friday night at 9:00 p. m. under the tent.

Horseshoes and washer pitching contests will begin at 10 Saturday morning. This year you may need to be there early to sign up. We hear there will be a lot of competition for this year's purse.

Always a popular event is the Fiddling Contest. The chairman again this year is Peggy Williams. To enter, call her after 5 at 915-853-3377.

A new and exciting event this year will be the All Girls Rodeo. First performance begins at 1:00 p. m. on Saturday and again that evening at 7:00. If you have never been to an all girls rodeo you will be surprised by the talent these young women have.

At 9 Saturday evening is the annual dance. Scheduled for this year is Blue Highway of Abilene. There's lots of excitement about having them come to town.

The Texas Goat Roping Association books open Sunday morning at 10, roping begins at 11:00. You won't want to miss a minute of any of the great events to be had this last week-end in June at the Rodeo grounds south of Eldorado on Highway 277. See you there!

To the voters of Sutton County, I extend my heartfelt appreciation for your continued support of me as a S.I.S.D. Board Trustee.

*Thank you,

Q&A

Q. Why is my automobile insurance so high and what can I do about it?

A. One reason is drunk driving—even if you never touch a drop. Statistics show alcohol is a factor in an estimated two million accidents a year, at a cost of nearly $15 billion. The insurance industry supports laws empowering police to suspend the licenses of drunk drivers on the spot (already the law in 24 states). Tests found a single drink is enough to impair driving skills. If you plan to drink, plan not to drive. You can also support stricter drunk driving laws and their enactment. The Independent Insurance Agents of America co-sponsors a toll-free number to answer questions about all types of insurance. To call this insurance helpline dial 800-942-4242.

Cub scouts attend Camp Sol Mayer May 18-19

by Kathy Hardgrave

On May 18 and 19, eight Cub Scouts from Sonora traveled to Camp Sol Mayer for a fun-filled "Mom 'n Me" overnight campout. Tiger Cubs attending were James Elliott, Stetson Hall, Shawn Odom, Heath Prather, and Byron Williams. Wolf Scouts on the campout were Ryan Hardgrave, Anthony Sanchez, and Bryce Williams. Each Scout was accompanied by his mother or sponsor.

After assembling tents and setting up the campsite, the Sonora campers ate a picnic lunch, then joined approximately 300 others from around our district for an opening ceremony. Saturday afternoon was filled with activities ranging from an obstacle course (yes...the Moms had to participate!) to a sponge-throw in the low-water crossing, to BB shooting and archery. Supper was served in the chow hall, then an entertaining hour of skits and songs was spent in the beautiful amphitheater overlooking the river. At nightfall, the boys were taken on a hike by all the staff, while Moms relaxed at a "cheese and cracker" social!

Following a hearty breakfast of French toast, sausage, cereal and fruit, the campers opened Sunday morning with an inspiring chapel service in the amphitheater.

Scripture readings from Psalms about the Lord's greatness being seen in all the earth were especially meaningful as the boys and mothers sat beneath a clear blue sky amid huge trees, with the river before them. Afterwards, the boys could choose from kite-flying, archery or fishing. Beads were presented to the boys during the weekend for participation in the different events.

Everyone, boys and moms, agreed the weekend was a great success.

A four-day Cub Resident Camp is scheduled for July 11-14, and is open to all registered Cub Scouts from 1st through 5th grades, and their parents and leaders. Please contact Cub Master Claudia Dempsey or Wolf leader Kathy Hardgrave by June 1 if you plan to attend, so the Pack can make plans.

Project graduation update

On Friday, May 24, the Class of 1991 will graduate from Sonora High School. This is always a proud moment for the communities as well as for the families and friends of these young people. In an effort to insure that the day ends as happily as it begins, with all those young men and women safe from the tragedies that often ensue from post-graduation celebrations which frequently involve alcohol and driving, The Sonora Community Action Team is once again heading up a "Project Graduation Party."

This alcohol-free event will run from 10:30 Friday night until 5:00 a. m. Saturday at the City Swimming Pool. All who attend (seniors and juniors from Sonora High School, only), will remain within the pool grounds, where a multitude of refreshments and door-prizes await them. During the Casino time, they will be able to win play money which will enable them to participate in the auction. All door prizes and auction items have either been purchased locally from donated funds or have been given by local merchants and interested people in the community. Many of these folks have already been recognized in previous reports, but here are the latest contributors to Sonora's Project Graduation Party:

Monetary contributions have been given by: First United Methodist Church, Jim and Rosemary Matthews, Doyle and Fae Morgan, HOMCO, Grider Trucking, Red Hoss Feeds, Good Shepherd Presbyterian Church, H & H Feeds, Judge Maxine Locklin, State Farm Insurance Companies (Sam Dillard), Pat and Shelly Briscoe, The Sonora Chamber of Commerce, Martin's Body Shop, Chavez Barber Shop, Rande Fawcett, Thorp's Laun-Dry, Jerry and Joy Kemp, Ralph and Bobbie Lou Mayer, St. John's Episcopal Church, Mr. D's Liquor and Beer, The Jug, Jimco, Larry Finklea, Margaret Galbreath, Curt and Wilna Schwiening, Clint and Gwen Roberts, Town and Country Stores and West Texas Utilities.

The following folks and businesses have donated items: Herbert and Lois Fields, Tedford Jewelry, Image, Janell Sparks, Charline Terry, Houston Headwear, Hill's Jewelry, The Hair Studio, Animal Care Clinic, Premier Designs (High Fashion Jewelry sold by Tammy Jackson), Mr. and Mrs. Pete Martinez, Live Oak 66 Station, Bill and Jeani Morriss, The Caverns of Sonora, Light Electronics (John Henry Strauch), Sonora Animal Hospital, Avon (Mandy Turk) and several T-shirts donated by Sonora High School Ex-students now attending college.

Gift certificates have been received from the following Sonora Merchants: Dono Oil Company, Flowers by Irene, Dairy Queen, Edna's House of Beauty, Country Fried Chicken and Fish, Sonic, Gosney's Department Store, Sam Perez, Sally's Rafter L, Beto's Restaurant, Chavarria's Grocery, Fide's Chevron and Pizza Hut.

A challenge has been issued by and to the oil related businesses of Sonora to pay for a D. J. from KIXY Radio to oversee music during the party, and the room for the D. J. will be furnished by the Devil's River Motel.

Donations for the breakfast to be served at the close of the party have been received from: Food Center and L & H Grocery (Herbert, Lois, and Tryon Fields), Wallace Eggs (Jerry and Keith Wallace) and Ranch house (monetary donation towards purchase of sausage).

The breakfast will be prepared and served by members of the Sonora Volunteer Fire Department.

There will be activities hosted by the newly organized Sonora Junior Chamber of Commerce members.

And a very special thanks to Preston and Linda Love and the Sutton County Steak for their many, many kindnesses shown the Class of '91, many of which have been done quietly, without fanfare or credit. Thanks for everything.

May your graduation be the beginning of a bright future that brings you success and happiness! Congratulations 1991 Seniors!

National Tree Program

How would you like:
• To increase your home's property value and reduce energy costs?
• To know that the air in your neighborhood is clean and safe to breathe; that the greenhouse effect (global warming trend) is less of a threat to your loved ones and future generations?

Many Americans are teaching their children about the importance of tree planting.

- To protect our nation's wildlife and plant life?
- To help keep national and local economies strong?

You can do all those things by planting trees around your home and/or by becoming involved in a tree planting project in your community. Technical information is available on the right way to pick a sapling, choose a location and care for your tree.

For more information on the America The Beautiful National Tree Program and how you can get involved, contact your State Forester or County Extension Office.

TO THE CLASS OF 1991:

I would like to take this opportunity to congratulate all of the seniors and express my appreciation to them for the positive influence they have had on our school. The Class of 91 is a credit not only to their parents but also to the entire community as well and I am extremely proud of them for all they have accomplished throughout high school.

The characteristics of this group of students that have impressed me the most are their sincere concern for others and the strong feelings they have toward one another. In a world that many times does not find the time to care, this class is an exception and for that they have my respect and admiration.

The Class of 1991 is a unique group and I will miss them greatly. However, the satisfaction of graduating students of this quality and character from Sonora High School is a wonderful feeling that will remain with me for years to come.

Sincerely,

Charles Russell
