Playoff bound: Broncos' 22-3 victory propels team into postseason play

by R. C. Hall
 The Sonora Broncos advanced to the Bi-District round of the University Interscholastic League football championships on the strength of a dominating victory over the Crane Golden Cranes, 22-3. The Broncos will travel to crane to face Alpine at 7:30 Friday evening.
 "We could not control what happened other places; we had to win this game," said Brian Faris, Bronco quarterback. And control the game is exactly what the Broncos did. On offense and on defense, the Broncos never let the Cranes get into the game.

 For thirteen Bronco seniors this would be the final game at Bronco Stadium, and if the Broncos lost it would be their last game, period. "We were not finished; we had to win," said Joe Buitron.
 Cole Crenwelge set the tone for the Bronco defense on the first play from scrimmage. As the Cranes' Cory Petit hit the line of scrimmage it was Crenwelge who met him head on.

 While the Cranes were able to move the ball down the field on the drive, it was ended by another excellent hit. This time the hit was from an unusual source. With the ball third down and three at the four, as Chris Jefferey, the Cranes big and fast running back, hit the corner heading perhaps for a potential score, he was crushed by Joey Guerra, better known as Bronco offensive threat. The six yard loss forced the Cranes to bring in Mario Reynoso, a five foot two inch, 97 pound kicker. He had plenty of power in his leg, though, and he drilled a 28 yard field goal, giving Crane its only points and lead of the night.

 The Broncos were not able to move the ball on their first possession. Following Lee Romero's punt, the Broncos would get the ball back after just one play when Wade Spain recovered a Phillip Hambrick fumble. Sonora took the ball at its own 34 and drove to its 15 where the drive was stalled. With the ball fourth and 12 at the 15, Armando Robles came on and hit a 34 yard field goal, tying the score with 40 seconds left on the clock.

'Shop Sonora First'

Campaign in time for the holidays

A "Shop Sonora First" campaign is being launched as a joint effort between the City of Sonora, Sonora Chamber of Commerce, and local merchants. The purpose of the effort is to encourage Sonora citizens to make an effort to shop at home before taking their retail dollars elsewhere.

The program will primarily be a consciousness-raising effort to make Sonora shoppers aware of the community-wide benefits of shopping locally. The campaign will stress that a dollar spent locally turns over in the community and stimulates the local economy.

"We realize that the average person cannot locally purchase everything they might need," Sonora City Manager John Pape explained. "We simply want to ask our citizens to patronize local merchants before going elsewhere. When a dollar is spent elsewhere, it has no local impact and represents a dollar out of local circulation."

As a part of the campaign, participating merchants will include the "Shop Sonora First" slogan in their media advertising. Bumper stickers bearing the same motto will be distributed throughout the community to serve as reminders of the benefits of shopping locally.

The campaign is a part of Pape's seven-point economic development strategy. The other elements of the plan are the development of a Small Business Counseling Center, conducting a community assessment, and community image-enhancement program. Also included are a downtown revitalization program, tourism development, and the development of a ranching and agri-business center.

Pape attends conference

As a part of the City of Sonora's ongoing economic development efforts, City Manager John Pape has returned from attending the 10th Annual Downtown Revitalization Conference in Corpus Christi. The conference is sponsored annually by the Texas Downtown Association and the Texas Historical Commission.
 The conference was designed to provide community leaders, retailer, city planners, and city officials with a broad range of practical downtown revitalization suggestions and insights. Experts from the private and public sector lead a variety of educational sessions on such issues as the Texas Main Street Program, adaptive reuse of historical structures, business recruitment, speciality shop, and tourism development and promotion.

of the most successful downtown revitalization initiatives in the country. Since the program's inception, more than $250 million has been reinvested in downtown Main Street cities; 3,549 buildings have been rehabilitated; 1,740 new businesses have come to these downtowns; and 5,451 new jobs have been created.

Downtown revitalization and participation in the Main Street Program are major elements of Pape's economic development strategy for Sonora.
 While at the conference, Pape met with Anice Read, Director of the Texas Main Street Program, to discuss Sonora's upcoming application for Main Street City designation. The application process for 1994 Main Street Cities will begin January 1, 1993, with applications to be received no later than July 31, 1993. Announcement of the selected cities will be in the late fall of 1993.
 This is the 12th year of the Texas Main Street Program, which is one

Letters

Dear Mrs. Zimmerman,
I want to express my appreciation to the following businesses for their cooperation with the school. The fourth and fifth grade ESL classes visited and observed in their establishments for an hour or more over a period of three weeks.
Each proprietor provided someone to explain exactly what was going on. The students took notes and subsequently wrote essays on "how to" do a particular job. The following gave generously of their time: The Bright Spot, Foxworth Galbraith, Hair by Shelley, Sutton Co. Steakhouse, Sonora Animal Hospital, Westerman Drug, and Animal Care Clinic.

Sincerely,

Healthcare: a right or a privilege

by Larry Milner
President and CEO of the Texas Chamber of Commerce
Health care has become one of the hottest topics of the decade as lawmakers at the state and federal levels search for workable methods to provide basic health care coverage to everyone.

However, politicians aren't the only ones struggling with this issue. Employers, health care providers, insurance companies and families are all looking for solutions that will contain increasing costs while at the same time make health care accessible to those who are uninsured or underinsured.

The key issue underlining every health care discussion can be boiled down to this one question-Is health care in America a right or a privilege? And while the discussion is seldom framed in the context of "a right versus a privilege," that is really the major philosophical issue which must eventually be addressed by any health care solution.

There is no question we should provide help to those who are unable to help themselves, as is currently the case through charitable and indigent health care programs. America and Texas have been built on that belief. However, if you carry the premise of providing a completely unconfined right of health care for everybody to its logical end, then we must provide all citizens with every conceivable medical need. There is not enough money in the world to do that.

Many believe "if people have a right to a lawyer, then they should also have a right to a doctor." That sounds simple and fair. But, how much of a right should a person have? Is it unlimited? If so, each individual would then have a right, supported by law, to every needed medical procedure whether or not they could pay for it.

Here's an extreme example: an elderly person, suffering from various effects of the natural aging process, needs a specialized and expensive procedure which doctors feel provides little hope for saving that person's life. If denied the procedure, that person or his or her family members would then be able to sue the providers involved in the decision not to operate. With unlimited health care as an unrestricted right, the providers would lose the case.

If a person could not pay for an operation, the taxpayers would be required to pick up the tab, just as we currently do for criminals who cannot afford lawyers. If taxpayers have to pay for every operation which every person needs, no matter the condition or financial capability, health care costs would skyrocket even more than now.

If a line is drawn to determine how we'll ration health care, then someone must draw it. Some government entity must decide who will receive what care and who will pay for it. The State Legislature of Oregon has attempted to answer that question. Their new "rationing" program is receiving strong opposition on both sides of the aisle in Washington.

Devil's River NEWS

TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

Ask the Historical Society

I was told that J. Marvin Hunter, of Frontier, Times Magazine fame, had lived in Sutton County. I said he did not. Did he or didn't he live here?

J. Marvin Hunter worked for the Devil's River News for a month as a typesetter in 1891 while the regular typesetter, Mark Baugh went on vacation. He also worked here for his cousin, Reed Callahan as a shepherd, an experience he never forgot.

Devil's River News of Friday, June 6, 1941 has a very interesting article entitled "Old Timer Recalls Many Interesting Experiences Around Sonora" by J. Marvin Hunter. In this article Hunter said, "Most of those old timers who lived there have passed away. They were the 'salt of the earth,' and real Texas frontier folks. Among those who lived in Sonora, who befriended men and were my friends, Sam Stokes, Charlie Nichols, Ben Cusenbary, S. Lewenthal, Uncle Billie Franklin, John Hagerlund, Mike O'Meara, Felix Vander Stucken, Steve and Mike Murphy, Jim Boggs, Max Mayer, Doc Word, O. T. Word, J. L. Davis, L. N. Brooks, Clemmie Dodson and N. H. Rose."

Mr. Hunter tells how when his cousin, Reed Callahan's shepherders quit in the Spring and Reed's wife was real sick, he volunteered to herd sheep for him. Nothing was said about wages, Mr. Hunter stated, "It mattered little to me whether he paid me anything." Callahan loaded his buckboard with supplies including frijoles, bacon, potatoes, baking powder, and a rimfire .44 calibre Winchester. He and Callahan set out for west of town where they tallied the sheep up. There were 700 ewes with about 400 lambs and 600 dry sheep. After three days of marking and castrating sheep Callahan had to get back to his sick wife so Hunter took charge of all the sheep, an entirely new experience for him.

Hunter said, "I had set type in a country printing office; had topped fodder in a cornfield; had picked cotton in a cotton patch; and have even tried to be a book agent, but here was a different occupation which, though it looked easy, turned out to be the most exasperating, profanity-producing job I had ever undertaken. It did not take me long to learn that an old sheep is about the most senseless animal on earth."

Callahan had left a horse for Hunter to use but it soon became tender-footed so Hunter was obliged to do the herding on foot. Callahan had forgotten to tell Hunter that if the sheep started to scatter just give a certain whistle or make a noise of some kind and they would immediately turn back to the flock. Hunter spent his first day running all over creation chasing those stray sheep. The next morning he learned another lesson, that sheep get up before sunup and start to leave their bed-ground and you have to be up, have breakfast, get lunch ready to take along, and be ready to leave with them.

Hunter stated, "One night just after I had crawled into my snug bed, a couple of quilts and blankets spread on the ground on a tarpaulin, I felt something moving across the foot. I could feel the weight on my feet. Thinking it was one of the obnoxious hydrophobia skunks that insist on getting in bed with a camper, I remained perfectly still for some time, thinking perhaps he would go away. But as he did not leave I eased out of bed, threw some dry cedar brush on my dying camp fire, and got ready for a battle with the intruder. It turned out to be a large rattlesnake about five feet long. I dispatched him with a cedar limb, and dragged him out of camp. Not being able to sleep well that night, I moved my camp again the next day."

When Mrs. Callahan finally recovered from her illness, Callahan joined Hunter in the sheep camp.

Hunter had lost fifty sheep while he was gone but after a couple of days Callahan recovered thirty-three of them. Shearing time was past and a couple of Mexicans came looking for a herding job. Hunter was glad to give them his. When Callahan asked what he owed Hunter he said, 'I have been paid well in experience and we will call everything square.' Callahan wouldn't accept that and outfitted his cousin with a horse, saddle, bridle and ten dollars to get him back to his home, 125 miles away.

Hunter spent several weeks in Mason, and then came back to this country, working for a while as a printer on the Devil's River News, when Mark Baugh went off to College Station to enter A&M College.

If you have any questions concerning Sutton County history send them to Ask the Historical Society, P. O. Box 885, Sonora, Texas 76950-0885 or call 387-5144 to speak with one of our volunteers.

Don't forget we are still looking for copies of pictures of anyone who has ever lived in Sutton County. We just received some wonderful pictures of a young Belle Steen and her husband Bob, taken at his goat camp and pictures of Dr. and Mrs. Blanton and their children. Pull out the old albums and see if you don't have a picture or two you could copy and give to us.

William T. "Bill" Logan

William T. "Bill" Logan, son of John Morgan and Mary Anna Merck Logan, was born January 6, 1918 in Balmorhea, Texas. He departed this life October 31, 1992 in his home near Hartville, Missouri at the age of seventy-four years, nine months and twenty-five days.

On November 12, 1946 he was united in marriage to Wilma Lea Pearl and to this union four daughters were born. He was preceded in death by his parents; and one brother, Johnny Logan.

Bill is survived by his wife, Wilma, of the home; four daughters, Donna Maxwell, and her husband, Weldon of Tucson, Arizona, Joan Douglas and her husband, Robert, of Mansfield, Missouri, Beverly Casey and her husband, Clark, of Ferndale, Washington and Joy Logan, and her fiancée, Wayne Huber of Mansfield, Missouri; one sister, Lorene Flutsch, of Fort McKavett, Texas; eleven grandchildren, two great-grandchildren, and two step grandchildren and one grandson-in-law; a number of nieces and nephews; as well as a host of other relatives and friends.

He was born and raised in West Texas and lived in his early adult years there, also. He worked as a cowboy on ranches in Texas and during this time he met and married Wilma. Shortly after they were married, they moved to Missouri and Bill started working with farmers in the dairy business. He continued in this endeavor for forty years, even after they made their home in the Hartville/Mansfield area.

Bill joined the I. O. O. F. Lodge at Mountain Grove and then moved his membership to the Hartville Lodge. He had served as a past Noble Grand. He was a member of the Top of the Ozarks R. C. and D. Council and was a representative of the University of Missouri Extension Office in the Wright County area.

He was a man of many interests and was always researching and learning about something new that intrigued him. He was well respected and thought of by the farmers with whom he worked and visited, and was greatly loved by his family and close friends. He enjoyed muzzle loading, hunting and taking fishing trips, and also was a champion bowler.

Bill was a loving husband, father, grandfather, great-grandfather and brother, and was a kind and caring neighbor and friend. He will be fondly remembered and greatly missed by all of his family and many friends.

Smoke Out scheduled for November 19

This year's Great American Smokeout (GASO) will be November 19. During the years since the first national GASO, a number of significant trends in smoking behavior have taken place: the overall decline in tobacco consumption, the drop in lung cancer rates among white men, and the recent emergence of lung cancer as the leading cancer killer of women. And there's good news, too: now, fewer than 30% of American adults smoke!

November 13, 1992 -- 6 days till GASO. PREPARE: Make a list of the reasons you want to quit smoking, you own personal reasons.

November 14, 1992 -- 5 days till GASO. PICTURE SUCCESS:

Imagine what Smokeout Day will be like at home and work. See yourself getting through the day without a cigarette.

November 15, 1992 -- 4 days till GASO. CLEAN UP: Cut down on the amount of cigarettes, ashtrays, and lighters you keep around the house, in the car, and at work. Make smoking a smaller part of your life.

November 16, 1992 -- 3 days till GASO. PICK REWARDS: Use your imagination and make a long list of rewards for not smoking. Look ahead to a period of fun and celebration. You deserve it!

November 17, 1992 -- 2 days till GASO. PLOT STRATEGIES: Make a list of nonsmoking places to spend time, friends who will be supportive, and relaxation exercises. Plot strategies for all obstacles you can imagine.

November 18, 1992 -- 1 day till GASO. STOCK UP: Stock up today on all the things you'll need tomorrow--stick cinnamon, fresh fruit and vegetables, fruit juices, diet drinks, and chewing gum. Especially stock up on courage, commitment, and a lot of pride!

November 19, 1992 -- Smokeout Day. DO IT: Today is the day you've been planning for. You've done a lot of thinking about stopping smoking. Now you're ready to do it. Congratulations!

Lung cancer greater risk to smokers

Using statistics from the A. C. S. Cancer Prevention Study (2), researchers announced that lung cancer has replaced coronary heart disease as the single leading cause of excess mortality among cigarette smokers in the United States.

Harmon Eyre, MD, past president of the American Cancer Society, Donald Shopland and Terry Pechacek, PhD, of the National Cancer Institute, co-authored the study which was published in the August 21, 1991 issue of the Journal of the National Cancer Institute.

"Lung cancer will account for the vast majority of the projected excess cancer deaths attributable to cigarette smoking--more than 123,000 deaths," the study notes.

Slightly more than 90% of male and 79% of female lung cancer deaths are directly attributable to cigarette smoking. Overall, cigarette, pipe, and cigar smoking directly contributes to 45% of all cancer deaths in men, and cigarette smoking contributes to 21.5% of all cancer deaths in women.

Heart disease risk from smoking drops much faster than cancer risk after a smoker quits. This helps explain why lung cancer has replaced heart disease as the leading cause of excess mortality among smokers.

"The medical and public health communities have done a good job of reducing factors which effect heart disease," says Dr. Eyre. "But now it's time to get serious about controlling this nations number one cause of early death and disability--SMOKING."

Warnings Required

Promotional items that display the brand name or logo of a smokeless tobacco product must now also carry a health warning, according to a new Federal Trade Commission regulation. The ruling results from a lawsuit filed by the Coalition on Smoking or Health (the American Cancer Society, American Heart Association, and American Lung Association.)

When the Smokeless Tobacco Health Education Act was passed in 1986, the FTC exempted so-called utilitarian items, such as T-shirts and caps, from showing the health warning. With Public Citizen acting as its lawyer, the Coalition

Gas safety tips from Lone Star gas

With winter quickly approaching, Lone Star Gas is ready to help Texans get ready for the coldest season of the year. Following is a list of informative tips on the sage use of gas appliances:

- Buy only appliances with the American Gas Association's Blue Star seal. That ensure that appliance meets national safety standards.

- Have qualified service people install and maintain all gas appliances.

- Always follow the manufacturer's instructions for the installation and operation of each appliance.

- Never store or use gasoline or any flammable liquids (such as paint, paint thinner, cleaning fluids, etc.) in the same room with any gas appliance.

- Never store rags, paper or other combustibles near any appliance with a pilot light or open flame.

- Never store combustibles near floor or wall furnace grills.

- Use a gas appliance only for its intended purpose. An oven, for example, should not be used to heat a room.

- If an appliance's pilot goes out, turn off the gas at the appliance for several minutes before you attempt to re-light it. You should find instructions attached to the appliance.

- When re-lighting a pilot light, strike the match and hold it to the opening first. Then slowly turn on the gas.

- Before you dig in your yard, take precautions against disrupting underground gas lines by calling your local plumber.

- Contact your local plumber to make periodic inspections of gas lines under your home and gas lines on your property.

In the event you ever do smell the odor of gas in your home, follow these three steps:

1. Do not switch anything electrical on or off. Do not use your own telephone (telephones use small amounts of electricity). Do not strike a match, and do not do anything that might cause a spark.

2. Have everyone leave the house immediately, leaving the doors open for ventilation.

3. Go to the nearest telephone and call Lone Star Gas Company. Wait until we have found the cause of the odor before returning to your home.

If you ever smell gas outside your home or, for that matter, anywhere in the community, contact Lone Star Gas immediately. Lone Star Gas is always ready to answer any additional questions concerning the safe usage of natural gas.

Winterizing your home

The weather outside is still warm, and protecting your house from heat loss and cold air gain may be the last thing on your mind. But cold winter weather will be here before you know it, so why not take advantage of the pleasant autumn temperatures to make your house snug for the winter? The Texas Energy Service offers the following energy-saving tips.

Survey your house for ways to save energy by checking for air leaks. Start with windows and doors, but also check for some less obvious but potential leak sites such as wall outlets, switch plates, recessed ceiling fixtures and attic doors.

Although closing up air leaks will help control air going in and out of your house, you need to make sure your attic has proper ventilation. In other words, do not block or close off turbine ventilators with plastic bags or plugs. This is important because proper ventilation is necessary for adequate moisture control in the attic where the insulation must stay dry. Blocking or closing off turbine ventilators has not been shown to significantly reduce heat loss when an attic's ceiling is adequately insulated.

Next, check your heating equipment. Arrange for a maintenance check of your heating equipment by a heating and cooling contractor or repair service. In addition, your air filter should be changed once a month regardless of the season to ensure the most efficient operation.

For more ideas on how to save energy in the winter, call the Texas Energy Hotline at 1-800-643-SAVE. The hotline is operated by the Texas Energy Extension Service, which is a public service program of the Governor's Energy Office.

VARSITY FOOTBALL

Following Robles' kick to the Cranes, again the Bronco defense gain stood strong. On first down hane Keller came through and dashed Jefferey for a five yard loss. The Broncos were able to keep the cranes in the hole. Following a Hambrick punt to the 33, again the Broncos were unable to get the ball moving and the teams exchanged punts. After the exchange the Broncos took the ball and drove it to the Crane 30, where they fumbled the ball back to the cranes. On the second play from scrimmage Jefferey was tackled by Chris Perez and the ball popped loose into the hands of Joe Buitron, who sprinted down the field for 38 yards and a score. The Point After was missed. On the score two of the Cranes were called for unsportsmanlike conduct, which resulted in 30 yards of penalties being assessed on the kickoff which came from the Cranes 30 rather than the Bronco 40. The Cranes were never not able to get out of the bad field position for the rest of the half and the half would end with the score Sonora 9 - Crane 3. The Broncos were able to take the second half kick off and drive for core. With the ball third down and thirteen at the Cranes 45 the Broncos used the old "Interstate statue of Liberty" play to score. For an explanation of the origin of the play please see the sidebar story accompanying this account.) The play was a hand off to Guerra who was coming on a reverse and took the ball from Faris who was apparently about to be sacked. As the Broncos set up a solid wall down the left sideline Guerra ran untouched for a touchdown. The two point conversion failed. Again the Broncos were able to put the Cranes deep in the hole because of a unsportsmanlike conduct call. The ensuing kickoff came from the Crane 45.

Both defenses seemed to be in charge during the rest of the quarter. The final Sonora score came with 4:01 left in the game. The Broncos drove the ball 56 yards on the running of Guerra and Tracy Crites. Crites set up the score with a 19 yard run bringing the ball to the 3. On the next play Guerra ran right for the score. Robles' kick was good and the score was Sonora 22 Crane 3.

Crane came back throwing and was moving the ball down field on four straight completions from Hambrick to Lance Baze. The drive was ended with an interception by Hadley Smith. As the clock wound down the Broncos playoff hopes were still in tact.

Broncos face Alpine in playoffs

by R. C. Hall

"We have a score from Kermit." Mrs. Claudia Dempsey was making her announcing debut as the clock wound down on the Broncos's 22-3 victory over the Crane Golden Cranes during a very pregnant pause (she has a good flair for the dramatic) one could feel the tension all over Bronco stadium. "With three minutes in the game the score is Midland Greenwood 22 - Kermit 14." Pandemonium!!! With the Greenwood victory, the Broncos are off to the Bi-District playoffs against Alpine in Crane this Friday at 7:30 p. m.

The Sonora Broncos did their job and were having to hope against hope that Greenwood would be able to keep their end of the bargain, and they did.

"We have worked so hard to get where we are. We knew what our job was and we did it," said Sonora head coach Bob Bellard. "It was really a great effort by our team. We could not worry about Greenwood. We had to keep our end of the bargain and hope that Greenwood would win. This was not luck, this was a team that won because it worked hard for it. This was a great win!"

The game turned on two key and very unusual plays. With the Broncos leading 3 to 0 and locked in an apparent defensive struggle, Crane got the ball on its own 35. On the first play of the possession the ball was given to big Chris Jefferey, a 200 pound, 6 foot three inch, tail back. As he broke through the line it looked like it was going to be a good gainer for the Cranes. Then disaster struck for Crane in the form of a great strike by Chris Perez, the Broncos outstanding defensive tackle. Just as Jefferey seemed to be breaking through, BOOM!!!

"When I saw him breaking back I was able to get a good angle on him. When I hit him, I knew it was a good solid hit, I just did not know I had knocked the ball loose 'til I saw Joe streaking by," said Perez. "He was flying."

Joe, was Joe Buitron. "I looked down and I realized that the ball had bounced into my arms. I was starting to jog back toward the

JV ends season with loss

by R. C. Hall

The Sonora Junior Varsity traveled for their final game to Crane to face the Golden Crane JV. They played well and were in the game until the last, but they came up short in a 12-0 loss.

"We should have won-it but I can't fault the kids," said JV head coach John Creek. "They really worked hard all year and we are proud of the effort. We all learned a lot."

The game was played on a cold, wind swept field. The temperature of 45 sometimes seemed to be matched by the speed of a north wind. The kickoff went to Gilbert Vara who managed to return the ball to the 15. The offense, led by Vara's running and the quarterbacking of Jason Morley, quickly ran up two first downs only to be bogged down at the fourth and one at the 42 where Chris Gutierrez punted. Crane took possession for the first time at its own 24.

The Golden Cranes marched the ball 76 yards and worked 6:57 seconds off the clock as it went to its first score. The Cranes depended on the running of Eric and Deric Thomas and on the leadership of quarterback Toopie Wood. The drive was highlighted by the running game. They had no long gainers and were aided by several ill-timed penalty calls against the Broncos. The Point After Try was blocked by Jack Pruitt. The score at 9:43 in the second quarter was Crane 6, Sonora 0.

Sonora took its second possession of the game to the Crane 4 only to come up short. After the kickoff was taken by Vara to the 25, the long Sonora drive began. On the first play of the drive Vara spurred up the middle for 11. On the next play Morley gained 5 on a quarterback keeper. Again the ball went to Vara who picked up 8, then 10, then 11 yards. As it seemed the drive might be stalled and with the ball third and five at the 25, Vara broke tackles and dragged two Cranes with him as he gained 10 yards on a sweep to the right. Again it seemed as if the drive was going to bog down at the 15 with the ball being held at third down with 11 yards to go when another excellent play kept the Broncos alive. This time it was a pass play from Morley to Mike House who scampered down to the 3. With the ball first and three at the three the wheels came off the Bronco wagon. On first down a fumble which was recovered by the Broncos brought the situation to second and six. Vara pushed the ball to the original line of scrimmage on the next play. Then Crane was called for holding, moving the ball to the two. The call at third and two at the two was Vara up the middle for an apparent touchdown only to be ruled to have had his knee touch at the one. Fourth and one at the one and disaster struck the Broncos. As they seemed poised for six points they were called on a motion penalty. On the fourth and six call the Broncos were stopped and the ball went over to Crane.

The Cranes ran the ball and the clock out as the half ended.

The second half was a defensive struggle. Casey Fitzgerald, Shane Deel, Josh Burnham, and Gutierrez all were standouts as the Broncos defense shut down the Crane offense.

Several times in the second half it seemed that the Broncos were on the edge of moving the ball into range for a score only to have a fumble or penalty held them. The punting of Gutierrez was instrumental to the game of the field position that was being played.

In the end, though, the Bronco offense was unable to score. The final score of the game came after a short drive by the Cranes as the clock was winding down. The score came on a run by Deric Thomas from the 3. The Point After Try was again no good and the final score was 12 - 0.

Colts win last game

by Breg Hughes

Thursday night on October 29 the Colts played Reagan County for the last game of the season. The Colts played in constant rain and gushing winds.

The Colts drove down the field so steady and then surprised the Owls when Justin House broke loose on an 83 yard TD burst. Then Joey Gandar made the 2 point conversion making the score 8 to 0 with 1:04 left in the first quarter.

The next time the Colts got the ball they drove steadily until Andy Mirike broke loose on a 50 yard TD run, and Joey Gandar made the 2 point conversion making the score 16 to zero with 4:33 left in the first half.

The Owls then got the ball and finally scored but failed to make the 2 point conversion making the score 16 to 6. The Colts battled back and Andy Mirike scored on an option from 9 yards out with :25 left in the half making the score 22 to 6.

In the second half Justin House scored from 650 yards with Andy Mirike on the 2 point conversion with 3:03 left in the 3rd quarter making the score 30 to 6 finishing off the Owls.

Andy Mirike threw 1 for 2 for 9 yards; Joey Gandar had 53 yards on 6 carries; Justin House had 245 yards on 10 carries and 2 TD's. Andy Mirike had 66 yards on 5 carries and 2 TD's; Walker Wallace had 18 yards on 4 carries and on defense Justin House and Kelly Morrow both had 6 tackles and Raymond Rainer had 5 tackles.

The Colts had a great season!

challenged this exemption and won the case in 1989. The new regulation, issued after an extended time for comments by interested parties, stipulates that warnings must be in conspicuous type within the prescribed circle and arrow format and must be permanently affixed to the object.

Warning labels for smokeless tobacco products read: Warning: This product may cause mouth cancer. Warning: This product may cause gum disease and tooth loss. Warning: This product is not a safe alternative to cigarettes.

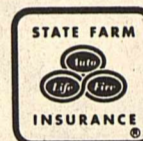

BUTTS OUT

The overall percentage of smokers in the population is declining. The American Cancer Society estimates that there are over 40 million ex-cigarette smokers in the U. S. today. Kick the habit and join the ranks of the nonsmokers!

CALL ME.

Like a good neighbor, State Farm is there.

uddle after the hit that Chris put on I knew that the play was over. Then I looked down and realized I had the ball so I just took off down the side line. I guess they (the Cranes) were as surprised as I was 'cause no one was really chasing me. It was really weird," said Buitron. "I never got one like that before."

The other strange play was a naked reverse variation of the Old Statue of Liberty play. Just as Bronco quarterback Brian Faris looked as if he were going to be sacked for a significant loss, Joey Guerra came streaking up and took the ball from Faris and streaked down the left side line. Every Bronco carried off his responsibility and every one of the Cranes was caught flat footed and watched as Guerra ran in for six. As different as the play was, nothing was as strange as the origin of this variation of a play that has its origin with Knute Rockne.

It seems that a friend who once worked with Coach Bellard's father, Emory, was passing through Sonora one afternoon three games into the season. While stopped at a local service station this friend of a friend who might also be distantly related to Bellard called.

"Coach I got a play that will win a football game for you. I was passing through on the Interstate and I just had to stop." Thus became the origin of the "Interstate Play." "When someone guarantees a win for you, you have to listen," said Bellard with tongue pressed firmly in cheek. Then he became serious. "This guy came by the office and showed me this play. It looked like it might work so we tried it. What can I say? It worked. When I first said that we were going to try it, I think my assistants thought I should be committed. They aren't so sure of themselves now," said Bellard with a chuckle.

"When I saw them swarming Brian I knew that the play was going to go," said Guerra. "It was really kind of a strange play but it worked."

Guerra, who had 103 yards on the night and who has gained 1043 yards on the year thru 9 games, made sure that his lineman got credit for success on the play and on the season. "The play was successful because lineman knocked the other guys down, anyone could run behind those guys. They are the ones who made it go."

Annette Gamez wins Halloween Queen title

Two queen titles in a three-week span ain't nothing to sneeze at.

Just ask Annette Gamez. Annette was crowned Homecoming Queen at festivities held during halftime of the October 9 football game against Colorado City.

Then, in an unprecedented move, Annette was announced Halloween Queen during last Friday's pep rally. The Halloween Queen is normally crowned to begin the annual Halloween Carnival.

However, with the band going to area marching contest in Fort Worth the same day as the scheduled carnival, the decision was made to crown the Halloween Queen during the pre-Halloween pep rally for the Reagan County game.

Checkin' out the ACT

Scores aren't the only items of interest on report

Editor's note: This is the second in a four-part series on college admissions tests.

Like most students, the first thing you will look for when you receive your ACT results is your score.

There is so much important information on your report, don't stop looking once you check out how well you scored. Your ACT score report has a lot of information to share with you; information about you, your interests, and your college choices.

Second in a four-part series

Look at your test scores first; then you can quit worrying about them. You receive a score between 1 and 36 for each of the four tests—English, mathematics, reading, and science reasoning. Your composite is the average of the four test scores; it is the number most people refer to when reporting their ACT scores. To further reflect your academic preparedness, you also receive subscores in three of the four tests. Your subscores may not add up to that test's score—that's okay. In order to give some perspective to your scores, check how they relate to those of other ACT-tested students, both nationwide and in the state.

The next section of your score report is titled "Your College Planning". It has information about you and how you compare to the students attending the colleges in which you are interested. If the colleges to which you sent your scores permit ACT to release their information, this comparison will be right on your report. If you haven't selected a college yet, read Section 2 of Using Your ACT Assessment Results, the booklet that comes with your ACT score report.

Even if you feel certain you know what you want to study and what career you want to pursue, review "Educational/Occupational Planning" portion of your score report. The results of your ACT Interest Inventory could lead you to consider a career you might enjoy but never knew existed. It is not uncommon for people to change majors or careers, but the sooner you learn more about yourself, different jobs, and the match between the two, the sooner you'll make the best choice for you.

Following the suggested activities in Section 3 of Using Your ACT Assessment Results is a great way to find that match.

If you have either an Apple or IBM type computer, you can use the ACTion software from ACT to conduct college searches and identify majors and occupations that may be right for you, as well as get help interpreting your ACT scores. It costs $19.95. See Counselor Mrs. Jeryl Fields to find out more. Also, you may want to use the College/Planning Search book to learn about the college search process. It probably is available in the counselor's office.

Remember, your parents and counselor want to help you reach the difficult decisions that are before you right now, so never hesitate to discuss with them the question and concerns you have. The information provided by your ACT Score Report is a great start for questions.

Next week: More on the ACT in installment three.

To read or not to read

Accelerated Reader program introduced to freshmen

By Aurora Luna
Staff Writer

Accelerated Reader started in the Sonora School District several years ago in the Junior High. On the first of October, the high school introduced A-R to freshman students.

This year's freshmen began the A-R program when they were sixth graders. Students get points toward their grade and rewards by reading books.

Books are worth a certain number of points according to degree of difficulty. The books are labeled by colored dots. A red dot signifies that the book is worth less than 10 points. A yellow dot means that the book is worth 10-20 points. A green dot means that the book is worth more than 20 points.

Each student is required to read two A-R books per six weeks period, and must score at least one point or 60 per cent on a test to get credit on the book.

All tests must be taken by the fifth week of each six weeks period.

Students will have the first 15 minutes of each class period to read their A-R books, or to take an A-R test. When a student is ready to take an A-R test, he or she may get his or her folder located in the teacher's classroom in A-R files and proceed to the library.

After taking the test, the number of points awarded will be recorded under the supervision of the librarian.

The students will then return to class. Only one student may leave class to take an A-R test.

Immediate rewards will include pencils, pens, bookmarkers, typing paper, folders, rulers, protractors, and erasers. These will be awarded upon successful completion of a test.

Forty points will receive a $5 gift certificate at Hasting's in Sunset Mall or a free movie pass to a theater in San Angelo. Seventy-five points will be given a whole hour for lunch at the Pizza Hut buffet during part of fifth period. One-hundred-twenty-five points receives a choice of a t-shirt, fitted cap, or free pass to the next concert of your choice. For 200 points, a week day at Sunset Mall in San Angelo including a movie and meal and 275 points will include a trip to Fiesta Texas.

A new way to research

Proquest an added resource

By Elsa Rodriguez
Staff Writer

Proquest, a computer of abstract-and-index database of popular periodicals, is new to the Sonora High School library.

"A student may find several hundred articles on a particular subject," Mr. Kirkpatrick said.

There are 85 complete periodicals and 130 articles, from the years of 1988 to October of 1992. Proquest gives students quick access to magazines, has a state-of-the-art work station, flexible searching capabilities, you get true article pages, images, and it actually expands users' research skills—letting them do research more quickly, and with less help from the student or teacher.

When the student locates an article, which is pertinent to his topic, he/she can print the article and have it located in the high school periodical room.

The Proquest has been popular with students and faculty. This computer was first placed in the junior high school one year ago.

Some of the magazines are Rolling Stone, Sports Illustrated, Time, and Business Week.

Variety is the spice of life

Librarian serves many roles

By Norma Quiroz
Staff Writer

Libraries have many good sources for information, but at the S.H.S. library, there is one source that's easy to find and is more than glad to help the students and teachers who ask for help, librarian Mr. Warren Kirkpatrick.

Mr Kirkpatrick was born in Weatherford, Texas. Mr. Kirkpatrick's father worked with the Texas Highway system and, therefore, the family moved a great deal during his childhood. Mr Kirkpatrick attended the first grade in Granbury, Texas. The family moved back to Weatherford, and he attended the second through sixth grade there. He attended the sixth and seventh grade in Snyder, Texas. He attended the eighth grade in Aspermont, Texas and the ninth in Pecos, Texas. Mr. Kirkpatrick's family moved to Roby where he attended the 10th grade. The family moved back to Weatherford where Mr. Kirkpatrick graduated.

During his high school years in Weatherford, Mr. Kirkpatrick worked at the town's flower shop.

"The flower shop's owner was Oscar Barthold, who was related to the sculptor of the Statue of Liberty, Federic Bartholdi," Mr. Kirkpatrick said.

While working at the flower shop Mr. Kirkpatrick met many famous and important people. Among these people were Larry Hagman (J.R. on the television show, Dallas) and Douglas Chandor.

"Douglas Chandor was the only portrait painter who Eleanor Roosevelt ever sat for. He also painted a portrait of Queen Elizabeth," Mr. Kirkpatrick.

After he graduated, Mr. Kirkpatrick attended North Texas State University and received a B.A. degree in Art Education. After he received his B.A., Mr. Kirkpatrick served three years in the army and was stationed in Japan.

From the service, Mr. Kirkpatrick went on to teach art at Temple High School for 20 years. Mr. Kirkpatrick had always wanted to be a librarian, so he went back to school and received his Master's Degree in Library Science at the University of Texas in Austin in 1980. After receiving his Masters, Mr. Kirkpatrick came to Sonora and was hired as the Sonora High School librarian.

Mr. Kirkpatrick has now been here 11 years, and he has seen many changes in librarian duties.

Some of Mr. Kirkpatrick's duties are taking care of Channel One transmission, taping the classroom channel, taking care of audio-visual equipment and materials, purchasing and cataloging library materials, assisting teachers and students with research, assisting with Proquest research and having the library open before school and during lunch for the convenience of the students. A new duty has been helping students with the Accelerated Reader program.

"I receive invaluable help from my library aides, Chase Wardlaw, Lance Castro, Brandy Bauldree, and Norma Quiroz," Mr. Kirkpatrick said

Mr. Kirkpatrick, being a very active person, loves reading (of course), listening to classical music, watching television, and attending the theater whenever possible.

Mr. Kirkpatrick said, "The most exciting opera I've attended was after the war (WWII). It was a Japanese version of Madame Butterfly." Mr. Kirkpatrick also likes taking care of plants and flowers in the library, and taking care of his "little white dogs, Koko and Lulu."

Last, but not least, Mr. Kirkpatrick says, "I think the clue to life is a well-rounded curiosity and the use of your creativity."

Thanksgiving issue

The next issue of Caballo Diablo will be published Thanksgiving Day, November 26. Pick up your copy at newsstands.

Movie reviews

Three stars for the 'Mohicans'

By Roy Ivy
Film Critic

Last of the Mohicans - three stars
Rated R for graphic violence.

It's no Dances With Wolves, but then again, Wolves didn't have such realistic scalplings. The battle sequences are stunning, and almost every frame of the film is a Kodak moment, but the characters never seemed complete. Our hero, Hawkeye, (played with gusto and spiffy American accent by Daniel Day-Lewis) seemed like a rough draft of a real character. Then again, as long as he can tomahawk the bad guys, who cares?

Hellraiser III - two stars
Rated R for 94,000 gallons of blood, sexual situations, and some words that you should wash your mouth out with soap for using.

This film should have been called "Attack of the Crazy Blind Fisherman." More fishhooks rip into people's skin than I could begin to count. I forgot about the story. I was too busy laughing at the guy who gets his head chopped to pieces by a bunch of flying compact discs. The moral of the film is - if you have a box that can open up the gates of hell, for crying out loud, DON'T OPEN IT!

1492 - one and a half stars
Rated PG-13 for violence and a lot of Native American nudity, just like those old National Geographic pictures.

How in the world I still awoke through this movie is still a mystery. It is the entertainment equivalent of twenty of Mr. Carroll's library assignments, but at least I learn something from those. All that I learned from 1492 was Native Americans were exploited (really???) and sailing long distances isn't very much fun. The photography is beautiful, but the film isn't interesting. It just goes on and on and on and on until you are just nearly screaming, "Hurry up and die, Columbus! I don't want to miss my graduation!"

Mr. Baseball - two stars
Rated PG-13 for language and a bunch of guys' butts in the locker room.
yawn.

Pure Country - three stars
Rated PG for a little cussin'.

Pure Country surprised me. Number One: George Strait looks cool with a beard and a ponytail. Number Two: He can actually act. Number Three: It is a very fun film. Actually I laughed a lot during Pure Country. Sure, I laughed at some things that I probably shouldn't have, but nevertheless, I had a great time. It's a very enjoyable little movie, and everybody, especially fans of country music, should have a good time watching it. Still, if you want to see a real terrific film starring a musician, rent John Mellencamp's Falling From Grace.

Candyman--two and a half stars
Rated R for graphic violence and even yuckier nudity.

Candyman, or "Scary Flying Black Guy with a Hook for a Hand," could have been amazing. The commercials say, "The scariest film since 'The Care Bears Movie.'" Still it has some original ideas--kissing while bees swarm in your mouth was a new one--and the music was great, but overall, it's just a bloody mess.

Thanks

The class of '94 would like to thank everyone who participated in this year's Halloween carnival raffle.

The following people were winners in the drawing:
$100 Food Center certificate went to DeAnn San Miguel
234 Winchester rifle went to Linda Tankersley
12 gauge shotgun went to Claudio Flores

Special thanks to Food Center, Butch Campbell, and Buck Bloodworth.

TIPS ON STAYING SAFE AND SOUND WITH NATURAL GAS.

For more than 80 years, Lone Star Gas has been providing safe, dependable energy to its customers. By following a few simple rules, you can help make sure you and your family stay safe and sound with natural gas:

- Always have qualified service people install, regularly check and maintain all gas heaters and appliances, following the manufacturer's instructions for installation, ventilation, and operation.
- Always use a gas appliance only for its intended purpose. An oven, for example, should not be used to heat a room.
- Always keep flammable materials and substances away from gas heaters and appliances. Remember, a pilot light is constantly burning.

IF YOU SMELL GAS

in your home, or know you have a gas leak, follow these rules:

- 1 Everyone should leave the house immediately, leaving the doors open for ventilation.
- 2 Do not switch anything electrical on or off.
- 3 Do not use your telephone (telephones use small amounts of electricity).

- 4 Do not strike a match or do anything else that might cause a spark.
- 5 Go to the nearest telephone and call Lone Star Gas Company. Wait until we have found the cause of the gas leak before returning to your home.

If you smell gas while you're outside, contact Lone Star Gas immediately.

CONTRACTORS, BEFORE YOU DIG, call your local Lone Star Gas Office, and we'll help you avoid any potential problems.

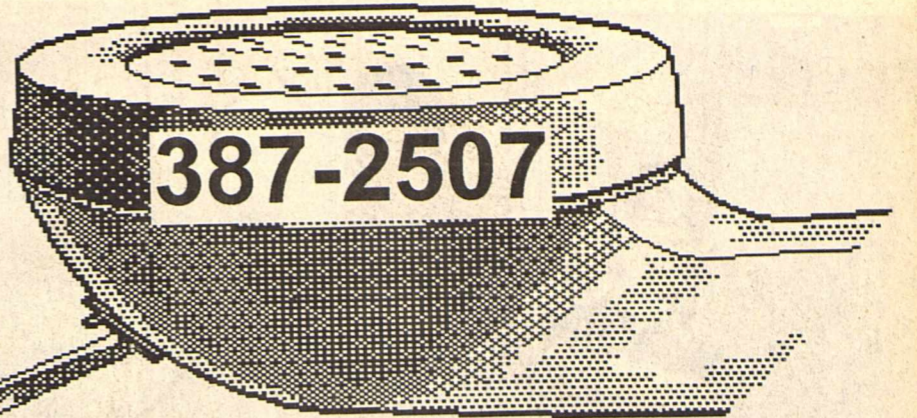

SAFETY TIPS. We've put together a brochure that includes safety tips designed to educate your whole family about the proper usage of natural gas. For a copy, or if you have any questions, call us at 1-800-545-3427.

Fort McKavett to come alive Nov. 14

Life in the late 1800's will become a reality on November 14 as Fort McKavett State Historical Park hosts the 1880 Saddletramps, a group who performs various living history demonstrations interpreting life of a frontier town in November 1883.

Fort McKavett SHP is an 1850s-1880s military post on the western edge of Menard County. The 1880 Saddletramps, a group of about 20 civilian reenactors from San Antonio, will portray 1880s businessmen, ranchers, cowboys, Texas Rangers and frontier women and children.

Featured will be businesses or occupations that portray a mercantile store, a non-alcoholic saloon, representative gamblers, a representative post office, a medicine show and other activities that portray life at a frontier town. The Saddletramps strive for authenticity and public enjoyment when performing their activities, so the event should be a lot of fun for adults and children of all ages.

Passport are free. A small store operates near the park for visitor's convenience.

The park is located on Ranch Road 864. For further information, call the park at 915/396-2358.

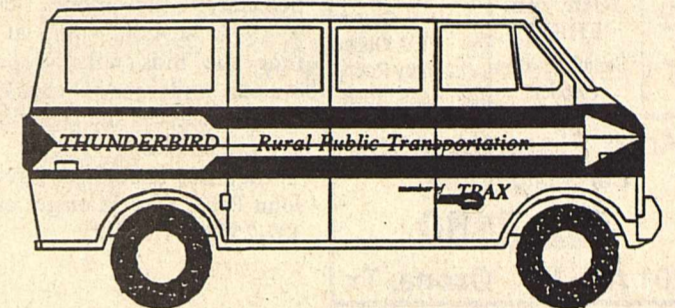

Special meeting to be held

A special organization meeting is being held at noon on Saturday, November 14, in the School House at Fort McKavett State Historical Park for individuals interested in supporting the park's volunteer program. The event is being sponsored by the Kimble, Schleicher, Sutton and Menard County Historical Societies and will feature a free lunch, with beans, cornbread, drinks and "trimming," door prizes and speakers explaining the various and fun roles interested individuals could play in helping operate and develop Fort McKavett.

The meeting is being held in conjunction with a special living history program - the 1880 Saddletramps -- for the visitor's enjoyment and to help promote the park.

Individuals who bring this newspaper article, register on the special "potential volunteer" sign-up log at the park and attend the Volunteer "Support the Fort" Organizational Meeting at noon in the School House will be admitted to the park free. For further information, call the park at 915/396-2358 between 8 a. m. and 5 p. m.

Girls home schedules tea

More than 260 girls have been helped over the past 19 years through the Concho Valley Home for Girls in San Angelo. And in celebration, the home is sponsoring a Harvest Tea on November 22.

This year, the focus will be "A Time to Grow." The tea will celebrate the new begun construction of the third home-- Tucker Home. The project should be completed in June and will be home for eight more girls.

The tea, conducted each fall, is a fund-raising event sponsored by the home's supporters from Sutton County will come and see the progress toward the third home," said Sharon Holman, Sonora member of the CVHG Regional Advisory Council.

"We're hoping many of the home's supporters from Sutton County will come and see the progress toward the third home," said Sharon Holman, Sonora member of the CVHG Regional Advisory Council.

"Former staff and residents are encouraged to attend, as are members of the general public," said Sammie Ruppeck, the CVHG director. The tea will include a tour of both homes and the construction site at 331 Preusser.

The girls home first began accepting residents in 1973. It offers a constructive alternative for girls faced with a destructive home situation. Residents attend San Angelo public schools and are encouraged to participate in social, cultural, and religious activities of the community. On-site tutoring and individual and group counseling are provided.

Hunting with Artificial lights prohibited

Texas hunters, especially archery and rifle hunters, are reminded that state law forbids the use of artificial light to hunt certain birds and other animals, including some equipment being sold at stores.

Under Section 62.005 of the Parks and Wildlife Code, it is unlawful to hunt any game animal or game bird at any time with the aid of any artificial light. This includes headlights, hunting lamps or any other artificial light used on or about the head or attached to a vehicle.

"There are a lot of hunting gadgets on the market today that may be illegal," said Chester Burdett, director of law enforcement at the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department. "There are a number of sights for bows and rifles that may be illegal. If they use artificial light they are illegal for game animals. They may be lawfully used to hunt non-protected birds and animals and fur-bearing animals."

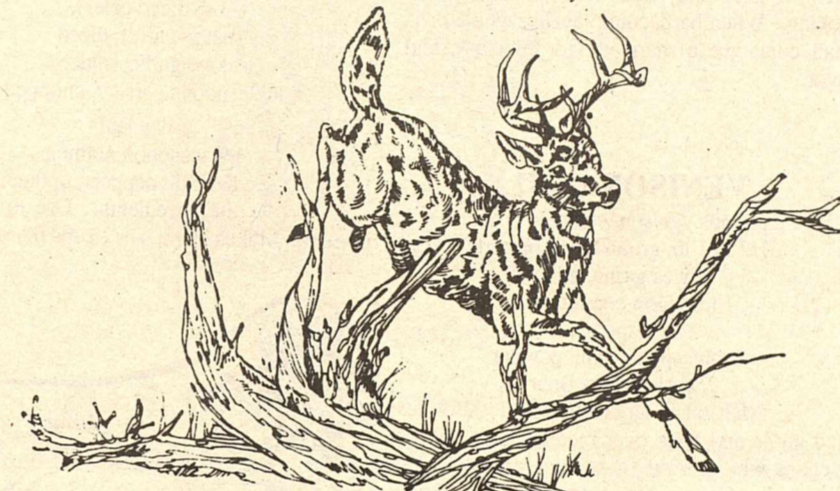

The artificial lights in question include lighted sights on bows, lighted rifle scopes, laser sights or anything that artificially illuminates sights or scopes, Burdett said.

"If the device is lighted up to aid the hunter, that's why the law was passed," he said. "This includes any device to facilitate the aiming at targets. Those particular lights are used about the head. Simply because a gadget is for sale doesn't mean that it's lawful for game animals and game birds."

"These things are perfectly lawful to hunt coyotes, rabbits, feral hogs and fur-bearing animals, but not game animals."

Hunting with artificial light is a Class B Parks and Wildlife Code Misdemeanor for the first charge, punishable by a fine of $200-$1,000, a jail term not to exceed 180 days or both. After the first conviction, the charge increases to a Class A Misdemeanor, punishable by a fine of $500-$2,000, a jail term not to exceed one year or both.

Many thanks to the warm and friendly people of Sonora who have made our first year a great success.

Onion rings
Canned tomatoes, drained
Before cooking, sprinkle roast with salt and pepper and dredge in flour. Brown on both sides. Add onion rings and drained, canned tomatoes. Cover and simmer slowly for 2 hours or more depending on size.

JAVELINA

The meat from javelina is fine grained and pink to light red in color. The musk gland must be removed when dressing or the meat will not be suitable for eating. Care should be taken to keep the meat from drying out in cooking. When barbecuing javelin, whole or in small cuts, use a marinade for moisture and flavor.

VENISON CHILI

2 pounds venison, coarsely ground
1/2 to 1 lb. ground beef or pork
2 cloves garlic, minced
1 teaspoon comino seed
2 tablespoons fat
4 tablespoons chili powder
2 tablespoons flour
Melt fat in large saucepan. Add meat and garlic and cook over medium heat until all meat is white. Add seasonings and flour and mix well. Cover with water and cook slowly until meat is tender. (About one hour).

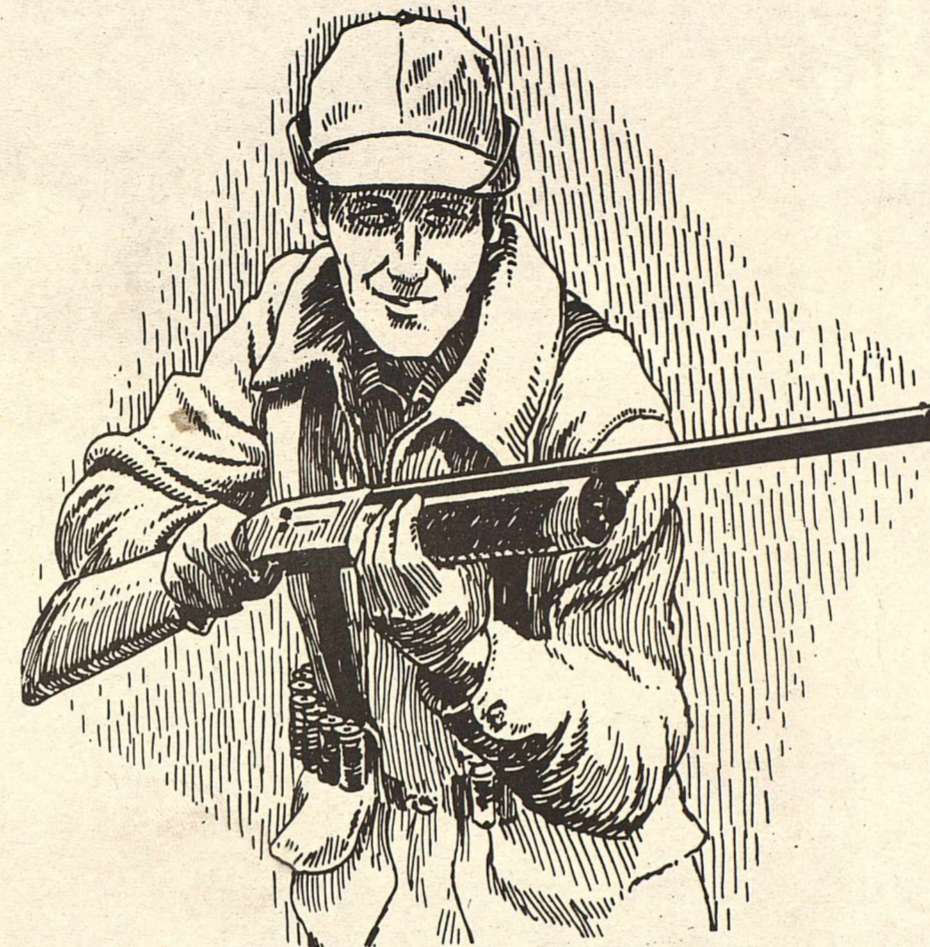

JAVELINA CHOPS

6 javelina loin chops, cut about 1 inch thick
2 1/4 cups marinade
Salt and pepper
1/4 c. bacon drippings or vegetable oil
Marinate chops for 4 hours turning every hour. Drain, pat dry and sprinkle with salt and pepper. Sear both sides of chops in hot drippings or oil. Remove from pan and broil about 7 minutes on each side. Serves six.

MARINADE

3/4 c. lime or lemon juice
1/2 c. orange juice
1/2 c. vinegar
2 cups apple cider
1 med. onion, sliced
1 c. diced celery
1 large carrot, diced
1 clove garlic, minced
2 tablespoons parsley, chopped
1 bay leaf
1/4 teaspoon nutmeg
2 seeded chili peppers, optional
Mix all ingredients. Use to marinate javelina. Makes about 4 1/2 cups marinade.

Hunters should know...
Co-Op facilities are never in season

Hunting season is a much anticipated time for many Texans-but often a dreaded time for electric co-op linemen. Each year hunting season brings with it an increase in vandalism of electric facilities. Whether by accident or intent, insulators, poles, transformers, power lines, meters, and other hardware often become "targets" for hunters.

Not only is the damage expensive to repair, it can also create an extremely dangerous condition. A damaged insulator can cause a power line to fall posing a risk of electrocution and fire. Damaged facilities also present a substantial risk for linemen who must work to repair the damage.

And the danger doesn't stop there. Loss of service to a home with life-support equipment can quickly create a life-threatening situation. An outage can also affect traffic signals and security lighting.

Your Electric Cooperative wants this hunting season to be a good one for you and your Co-Op. So please take careful aim before you shoot and be certain that there is nothing between you and your target-and that your target is in season.

Deer population surveys completed in Sutton County

Wildlife personnel with the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department recently completed annual deer population surveys here in Sutton County. The counts resulted in an estimate of 125 deer per 1,000 acres or about 120,000 deer county wide.

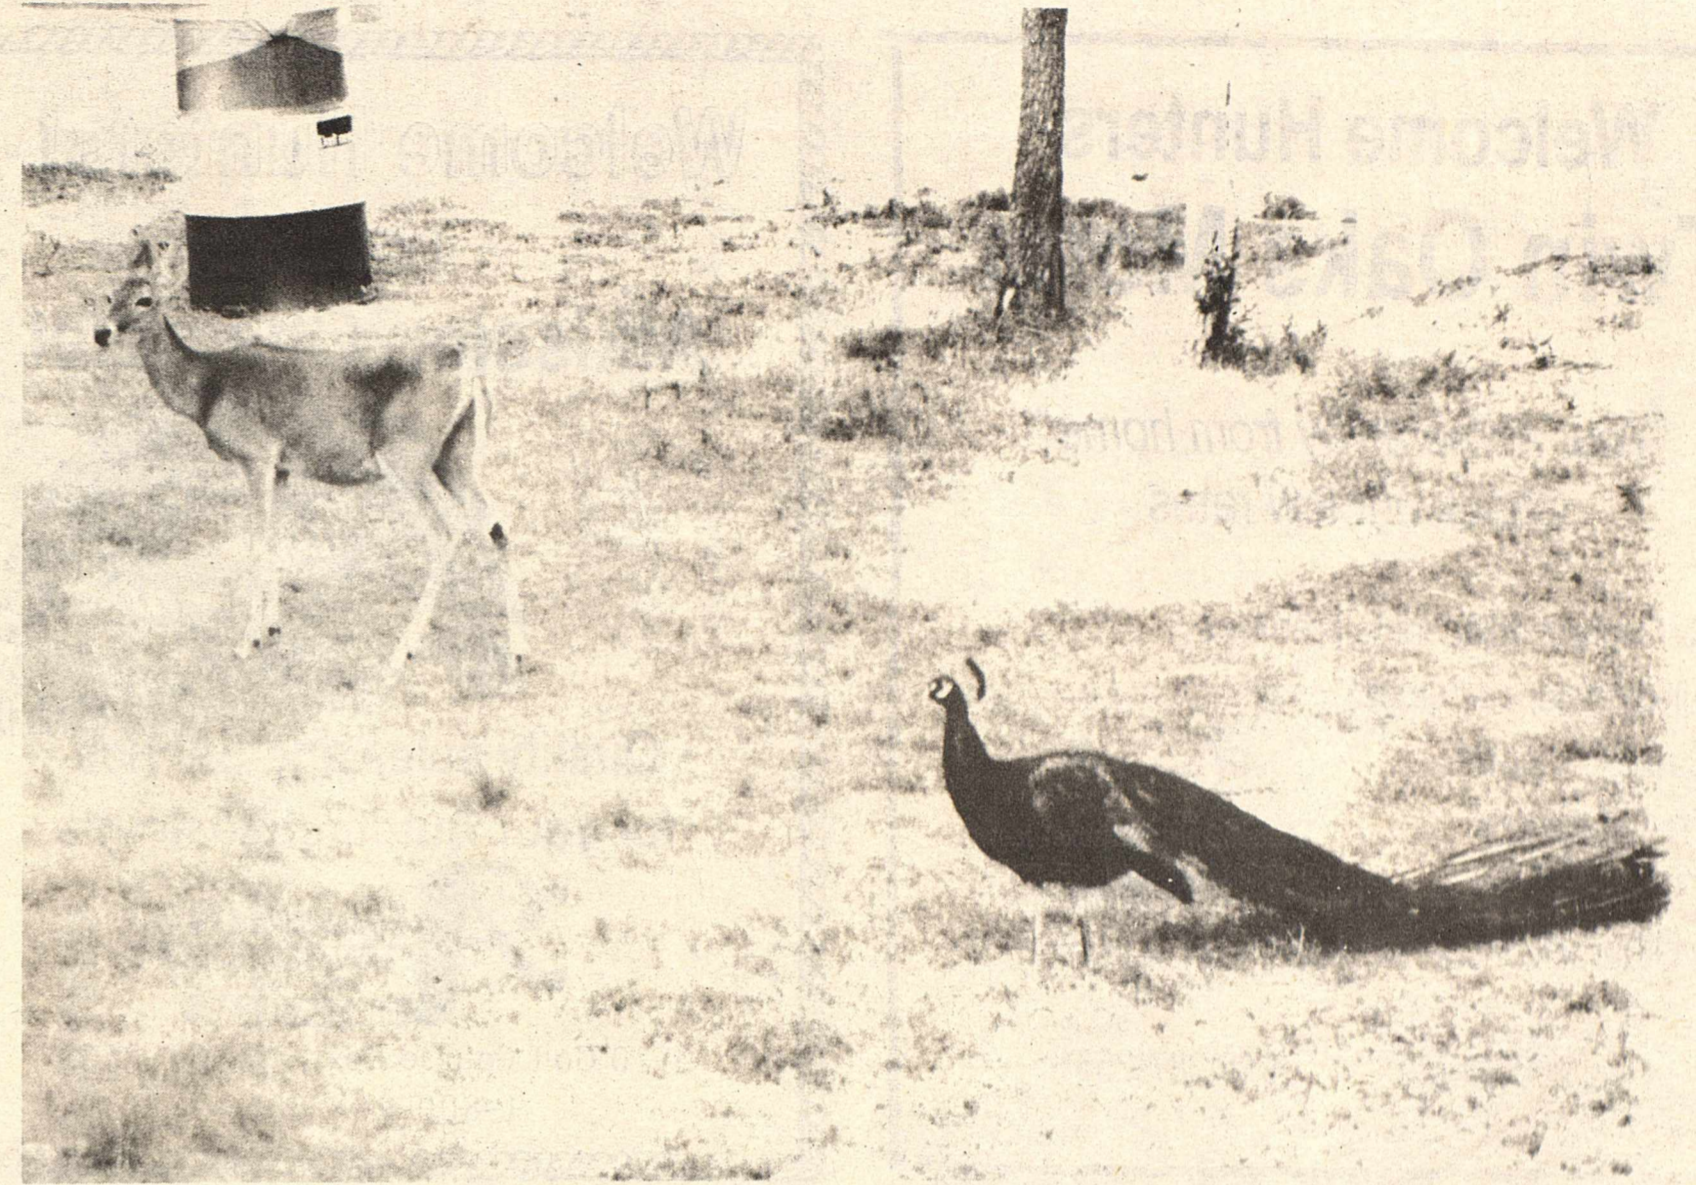

This year in Sutton County the deer season opens on Saturday, November 7 and runs through Sunday, January 3. The bag limit is the same as last year - 4 deer, no more than 2 antlered bucks.

Most Sutton County landowners are already aware that, as has been the case for several years now, doe permits or special doe tags will not be issued nor required to harvest antlerless deer here in the Edwards Plateau. Hunters will need only the appropriate tag off of their hunting license, and landowner permission, to bag doe or antlerless deer in Sutton and the other "either-sex" counties this year.

After reviewing the results of the recently deer population surveys, local wildlife personnel are recommending that Sutton County landowners located in the north-eastern half of the county try for a harvest of 1 doe or antlerless deer for every 125 acres and 1 buck for every 250 acres. Those landowners in the remaining southwestern half of the country should try for a harvest of 1 doe for every 75 acres and 1 buck for every 230 acres. The recommended rates result from the need to better balance the sex ration observed in the herd and from a desire to produce a healthier deer population that is properly matched to the existing supply of deer foods in the county.

These general harvest rates are based on county averages and may not be completely suitable for each individual ranch in the county. Landowners interested in closely managing their local deer herd need to conduct their own on-site fall population surveys, with resulting harvest recommendations that meet their specific management objectives.
