SONORA SENSATION - Jim Davis of Abilene ropes a calf at last years Sonora Sensation. This year the Sensation is set for May 14-16.

Project Graduation set for May 28

"There will be many good reasons to celebrate throughout your life. But there will never be a good reason to drink and drive." A card with this message is included in the graduation announcements of every senior. And to prove that we mean it, Sonora will again sponsor a Project Graduation Party after commencement on May 28.

Last year youngsters and oldsters alike stayed up a good part of the night after graduation, but they weren't worrying about the kids, they were partying with the kids. 200 or more individuals, clubs, and businesses were responsible for making last year's PROJECT GRADUATION a success, not by staying up all night, but by donating money and prizes. PROJECT GRADUATION is a community-supported project to provide our youth an all-night, alcohol-free party after graduation. High school juniors and seniors will "lock in" in the high school for an evening of fun including a casino, carnival booths, contests, volleyball tournaments, putt-putt golf, music, food and prizes. . lots of prizes! Coca-Cola has agreed to provide free drinks all night long. Auctioneer Preston Faris coordinates the early-morning auction, where kids bid on valuable prizes with the play money they have won during the night.

We are beginning to plan for PROJECT GRADUATION '93, and again we will be asking Sonora for support in terms of volunteers for casino workers, cash donations, or prize donations. Clubs and organizations are invited to participate by sponsoring a carnival booth. We supply the prizes, you supply the ideas and the people. If you would like to donate money, call Rex Ann Friess at 387-2809 or make checks payable to Project Graduation and mail to 300 East Oak, Sonora; if you would like to donate a prize, call Sylvia Ponce at 387-6533; if your club or organization would like to sponsor a booth, call Mary Loud Hudman at 3-3893, or to know more about PROJECT GRADUATION, call Jeryl Fields at 387-6533. Let's send our kids the message that Sonora supports them, and that they can have a great and safe time. . chemical free!

City manager appointed to TML

Sonora City Manager John L. Pape has been appointed to serve on the prestigious Small Cities Advisory Council of the Texas Municipal League (TML). The appointment was made by Abilene Mayor Gary D. McCaleb, 1993 President of the TML.

The Small Cities Advisory Council is made up of elected and appointed officials from cities of less than 25,000 population. Created in 1989, the role of the Council is to serve as an advisory committee to the TML Board of Directors on issues of concern to the small cities of Texas. Almost 700 of the TML's nearly 960 member cities are general law cities, like Sonora, with populations of less than 5000 people.

"I am pleased and honored to be appointed to the Council," Pape said. "This will give Sonora an opportunity to provide input on a state-wide basis on issues that vitally concern us as a city. Through the work of the Council, we can find new, innovative, and more efficient ways to serve our citizens."

The Texas Municipal League is the second-largest organization of its kind in the United States. The League provides cities throughout Texas with legislative representation, legal services, information and research, professional training, and numerous programs and services. Currently, over 12,000 municipal officials are members of the Texas Municipal League.

Area publisher buys DRN

Reggie Boles of Boles Publishing Company announced last week that Gary Clayton Smith of Eldorado had purchased the Devil's River News.

Said Boles, "We are pleased with this turn of events. We believe that local ownership of the newspaper will improve the overall operation of the business."

According to Smith, Linda Bowers of Sonora will assume responsibilities of editor.

Said Smith, "Linda is a very capable and talented newspaper person. I believe she will do an outstanding job."

"I am looking forward to my new responsibilities," said Bowers. "I believe that we have an opportunity to really serve Sonora." Bowers began working for the DRN in 1989.

Smith stated that the Devil's River News will continue to offer a variety of community services including printing (commercial and personal), photography and computer consulting. Stated Smith, "Although I foresee some minor adjustments in production and publication, the newspaper will remain pretty much the same. I am hoping that we can have more local input and more news about Sonora and Sutton County. I anticipate great things for our newspaper and our community."

Karole Hunt will continue as office manager and Gina Holt will continue in advertising sales.

All subscriptions and regular business of the Devil's River News will continue without interruption.

The public is encouraged to submit news and comments, but contributors will be asked to sign their names for recognition.

Letters to the Editor

April 5, 1993

Dear Editor,

Opponents of the proposed hazardous waste dump near Dryden will be presenting information on newly discovered cave systems and evidence of faulting and sinkhole collapse at or near the site at a meeting in Austin on April 13 with Texas Water Commission scientific and technical staff.

Rick Lowerre and Jim Saunders, attorneys for the opponents, and their experts - Pat Bolden, H. C. Clark and Robert Kier - will present facts and analyses on geology and hydrology at the meeting. Lowerre hopes to videotape the meeting and use it as part of a public presentation in Del Rio and/or Sanderson this summer.

The April 13 meeting is in anticipation of an "Initial draft decision" from the Texas Water Commission staff, currently expected sometime in July. This will be a preliminary analysis from TWC technical staff of how safe or dangerous they believe the site to be. The public hearings will come later.

The apparent calm in recent months in the case of Chemical Waste Management's application to install one of the country's biggest hazardous waste dumps near Dryden in Terrell County has masked a behind-the-scenes battle by attorneys on both sides of the case.

Discovery and depositions are underway in which each side has a chance to review the documents and evidence compiled by the other side and question its experts. This process takes place mostly away from the public eye and is the natural playground for the lawyers involved. This is the time for delaying tactics and for those hired by the side with the deepest pockets to make their weight felt.

Lawyers for those protesting the application have filed four motions in recent months. One alleges that ChemWaste has produced hundreds of thousands of documents, but provided no index or method of knowing what is there. A second motion seeks to compel ChemWaste's experts to bring supporting documentation with them to their depositions, because "protestants have no idea whose documents are whose."

A third motion alleges that ChemWaste has been unhelpful in identifying information on computer files and providing instructions on the hardware and software needed to access those files. A fourth motion alleges that ChemWaste has in effect denied the opposition's experts access to the proposed site near Dryden by demanding that the experts sign a document waiving their right to seek damages if they should be injured while on the site.

The three did, however, make one site visit in February, which they say led to the discovery of signs of faulting and sinkhole collapse at or near the site. Another site visit is scheduled for early May.

ChemWaste has responded with its own allegations of time wasting and delays. The TWC hearings examiner also has ruled that ChemWaste has the right to charge for the time its non-testifying experts spend in depositions, a ruling thought to be a first for a TWC application.

"All of this is time consuming and costly," said Lowerre. "They are abusing the process and making it difficult for us to get information from their experts and on their application. It is costing us money they know we don't have." Those opposing the application include the City of Del Rio, several US citizens' groups, including SCAT, led by Lloyd Goldwire of Sanderson, and several private and public entities in Mexico.

Money is a big part of what is going on behind the scenes. Here is a rough guide of the fees paid to the attorneys and experts in a case such as this. ChemWaste's attorneys, Vinson and Elkins, bill at $250 to $350 an hour, depending on the seniority of the attorney. Lowerre, in Austin, and his co-counsel Saunders, in San Antonio, bill at $125 per hour.

Vinson and Elkins sends three or four lawyers to each meeting while Lowerre and Saunders usually take turns.

Chem Waste has paid more than 60 experts and consultants from $50 to $150 an hour plus expenses to do the scientific work at the site and to testify. Lowerre and Saunders have paid their experts in the same range per hour. The total amount ChemWaste has spent so far is estimated at more than $3 million the proposed first site, which was east of Dryden, and over $4 million on the current site, west of Dryden. The estimated cost so far for all opponents is less than $150,000.

Here is a list of the information produced by ChemWaste as part of the discovery process:

(1) 60 to 70 file boxes and 60 computer disks and a computer tape located at Vinson and Elkins' Austin office;

(2) two file cabinets of documents, two 5-foot bookshelves of documents and photographs, more than 100 oversized maps, photos and drawings, a shelf of videotapes, numerous cores, chips and other materials at one consultant's office and at a "remote" office in Terrell County; and

(3) numerous other documents at an office in east Texas.

May 3, 1993

Some less than familiar faces were in town early this week working at the proposed hazardous waste dump site west of Dryden. They were Richard Lowerre, one of the attorneys for the dump's opponents, and technical experts Pat Bolden, H. C. Clark and Robert Kier. Opponents of the Chemical Waste Management dump application, which is before the Texas Water Commission (TWC) in Austin, had three days to look at the geology and hydrology of the site. Their first site visit had taken place in February.

Also in town to visit the site were several TWC technical staff members and a TWC attorney.

Lowerre, Bolden, Clark and Kier also were the main presenters at a meeting in Austin April 13 with some of the same TWC staff who were in Dryden earlier this week. The April 13 was the first official chance for opponents to present to the TWC some of the technical information they have gathered. They stressed the difficulty of monitoring leaks, with Bolden pointing out the area's land structure and faulting patterns and Kier concentrating on the movement of the region's ground water.

Those who have followed the application will remember that the specifications for monitoring wells were among the items changed by ChemWaste when it produced an additional nine volumes of application materials in late 1992. The new volumes included a redesign of the critical groundwater monitoring plans for the site from 750 feet apart to 200 feet apart.

The TWC prohibited videotaping of the April 13 meeting. The opponents have had wall-sized maps drawn of the area and these were used during the presentation.

In the audience were ChemWaste's technical experts from Cook-Joyce Engineering Consulting and Intera, and observers from the National Park Service and the U. S. Geological Survey. Also present were Florencio Saucedo, Lee Weathersbee and Najla Willis from the City of Del Rio and Madge Belcher, leader of the citizens' group in Kenney County opposing a proposed dump there.

Another meeting in which opponents will present additional evidence to the TWC has been scheduled May 25 in Austin. All are welcome to attend.

The TWC has delayed from July to August its "initial draft decision" on the Dryden site. This decision is a preliminary analysis by TWC technical experts of whether the site is appropriate for its intended use. Public hearings will come later. Elaine Davenport

AN OPEN LETTER TO MOLLY ZIMMERMAN:

Dear Molly,

I am writing this letter to wish you the very best of luck in your forthcoming ventures.

You have made a definite impact upon this community and I have heard some very favorable comments about you. One person stated that you were the backbone of this newspaper. Another person said that if I did half as good a job as you have done, then I would be successful in this position.

Molly, I hope the best for you. May you be as successful in your future endeavors as you have been in the past.

Sincerely,

Hello Sonora. Let me tell you, it is good to be here. My name is Gary Smith. Some of my friends call me "Country."

Now some folks would be offended by other folks calling them country, but I guess I just don't know any better

You see, when I think of country, I think of good things.

I think of farming.
I think of planting and growing.
I think of an honest days work for an honest days wage.
I think of neighbors.
I think of trust.
I think of directness and simplicity.
I think of courage.
I think of conviction.
I think of forgiveness.
I think of family.
I think of friends.

I think of looking for the good things in life.

For the first time in many years, the Devil's River News is owned by an individual rather than a corporation. Our staffs dedicated to making this a wonderful newspaper. We want it to be a publication that you will enjoy. But we think you will recognize some minor changes.

1. Don't expect us to print tons of bad news. There is no way we can compete with the Standard-Times and CNN.

2. Don't look for news from other areas. We are dedicated to Sonora and Sutton County.

3. Expect Country.

It's good being here.

Until the next time...

The return of the red hot movie reviews

by Roy Thomas Ivy

Howdy! Did you miss me. Well, I sure have missed all of you. It got lonely inside of the Davidian Compound. The only movies we got to watch were Ernest Scared Stupid, which is very funny under the influence of tear gas, and, of course, The Towering Inferno. Luckily, I'm out of retirement, just in time to slam America's current number one movie.

Indecent Proposal
Rated R for language and Demi Moore nekkid as a jaybird.

2 and 1/2 stars

Unless you've been in a cave for the last month, you know the story. Billionaire Robert Redford offers Woody Harrelson one million dollars to sleep with his wife (Demi Moore.) After lots and lots of moral mumbblings, she decides to do it. Just to be nice, I won't give away the rest of the film, even though the last hour is so incredibly stupid that you won't care if all of the characters fall into a spinning helicopter blade.

It's not all bad. The first hour is an interesting ride. Redford is fantastic when he is sleazy and manipulative. But after the deal is made, and Demi and Woody's marriage begins to fall apart, so does the movie. Suddenly Redford's billionaire winds up being a nice guy who just wants to be loved. Demi Moore has two emotions, pouting and crying. Half of the Pacific Ocean must have been irrigated into her tear ducts for her to cry so much. Woody Harrelson gets to prove that he can play more than lovable idiots. He can also yell and throw things and look angry and pout. He doesn't cry like Demi does, but he is a great pouter.

This movie has become a major conversation topic in America. One day on Oprah, there were hundreds of schmucks saying, "By golly gee, I wouldn't let my wife do that!" As for me, not only would I take the million dollars, I'd also sit, watch, and give advice. I'd even let him borrow my cologne.

Still, we have nothing to worry about. Indecent Proposal tells us that we are all cheap, but in the end, we'll all get a happy ending. Aw, how sweet. I think I'm going to be sick.

The Sandlot
Rated PG for a smidgen of profanity and some hilarious gross out scenes. Three and 1/2 stars

Okay, it's not exactly original. It's sorta like The Bad News Bears meets the The Wonder

Years meets Stand By Me meets The Goonies meets Cujo, but it's a blast to watch. What makes it special is that it's the first kids' movie where adults have little to do with the plot. The only parents shown are on the screen maybe five minutes. The rest focuses on the love of baseball and the joys of youth. This is a very American film, and it's suitable for everyone. Warning: The lifeguard scene is lethally funny. Some guy next to me laughed so hard that a whole hot dog flew out of his nose. You have been warned.

Benny and Joon
Rated PG-13 for profanity
Four Stars

It is impossible not to love this film. Johnny Depp, in his tender Buster Keaton/ Edward Scissorhands mode, is perfect in his role of Sam, a happy-go-lucky dyslexic. He falls for Joon, a pretty happy-go-lucky schizophrenic played with typical gusto by Mary Stuart Masterson. Aidan Quinn, as Joon's overprotective brother Benny, is the perfect everyman, a true guy's kinda guy, holding this wonderful romance together. While it is flawed in its vague depiction of mental illness, the performances are charming. It'll warm even the coldest heart. Any film that allows insane people to be happier, more interesting, and even more sane than normal people is a good friend of mine. Warning: this is a very popular dating film. If you're not prepared to listen to 12 year olds smooching behind you, don't go. And make sure you bring a date, because if you don't you'll start to feel like a lonely dork, and before you know it, you'll find yourself trying to put your arm around one of those twelve year olds: yes, the film is THAT romantic. You'll love it.

TxDOT holds safety awards

"SAFETY CHOICES" was the theme of the annual safety awards program for District 7 of the Texas Department of Transportation (TxDOT) held recently in Junction. Safety at all times, on and off the job, is the goal of the department for all its employees. Preventing accidents saves lives, lost time, and money.

The department provides regular safety training for its employees to increase their awareness of potential hazards and how to prevent them. Safe working areas and the necessary equipment are provided the employees, but it is the individual who must take the proper action to prevent an accident.

To emphasize safety, TxDOT annually recognizes those employees who regularly drive state-owned equipment in the course of their work and do not have an accident. This year, the top award went to Junction Maintenance employee William L. (Bill) Chenault, who received a certificate for 35 years of accident-free driving. Other awards, 240 in all, ranged down to 1 year awards for those newer employees. Awards for District 7 represent 2,865 years of safe driving by these employees.

Also presented during the program was a certificate for 2,000 days without a lost time accident to the San Angelo Area Office. Area Engineer Jose E. Morales, P. E. accepted the award for his office, and thanked his employees for their "SAFETY CHOICES" of being accident-free.

Receiving awards from Sutton and Schleicher counties were: Sonora Maintenance - 3 years - Delbert W. Dietz and Marty D. Lipham; 5 years - Betty S. Kohutek and Ruben H. Meza; 6 years - Celia S. Gonzalez and James R. Hughes; 8 years - Martin Alonzo; 10 years - Domingo V. Ausces, Jr. and George L. Wipff, Jr.; 12 years - Jesus E. Gutierrez; 14 years - Heraldo F. Martinez; 16 years - Juan A. Castro; 17 years - Rutilio V. Robledo; 18 years - Ernest P. Carroll; 23 years - Louis Olenick; 27 years - Manuel V. Martinez.

Sonora Area Office - 2 years - William R. Galbreath; 3 years - Ronnie L. Geske; 6 years - David Sanchez; 10 years - James C. Doyle; and 22 years - Donald F. Mahannah.

This represents 226 years of operating a vehicle without an accident.

Cutting calories at picnics

Nothing could be greater than to enjoy a springtime picnic of Southwestern foods in one of the beautiful state parks. With springtime already upon us, picnics conjure up thoughts of all-American favorite foods, such as fried chicken, hot dogs, hamburgers, fajitas, potato salad, cakes, cookies, etc. How can you eat according to the dietary guidelines when so many picnic foods are high in fat, sodium, sugar, and calories? Here are some suggestions:

- Grill chicken instead of frying it; remove the skin. If fried chicken is served, skip the skin.
- Grill hamburgers, fajitas, and steaks so that the fat runs off during cooking.
- Trim visible fat from steaks.
- Go easy on salt and butter or margarine added to corn-on-the-cob, baked potatoes or other vegetables.
- Load up on mixed green salad or vegetable relishes. Eat smaller helpings of coleslaw, potato salad, and macaroni salad made with lots of mayonnaise or prepare lighter version of the salads by substituting light mayonnaise.

- Live up your lean hamburger with lettuce, tomatoes, onions, or other vegetables. Go easy on the barbecue sauce, catsup, mustard, relishes and pickles.
- Enjoy fresh melons, bananas, grapes, cherries, peaches, plums, berries, and other fresh fruits.
- Choose fruit juices or sweetened iced tea rather than soft drinks.

In addition to keeping the picnics healthy, also keep them safe. Keep hot foods hot, cold foods cold and keep them covered until eaten. Use ice chests, thermos bottles and airtight containers for food safety.

National Day of Prayer set for May 6

Dear Citizens,

The first Thursday of May each year has been set aside for NATIONAL DAY OF PRAYER. This year it will fall Thursday, May 6th.

The Ministerial Alliance will hold a Prayer Service at the County Park that day from 12:30 to 1:00 p. m. The schools have also been provided with the needed information for them.

We realize it will be impossible for every one to leave their jobs to attend at that hour, so we are requesting that you take a few moments and join us, alone or in groups, in your respective places of business. If it can't be done during that time period, please find some convenient time during the morning.

God promises in II Chronicles 7:14, "If my people who are called by my name will humble themselves and pray and seek my face and turn from their wicked ways, then will I hear from heaven and will forgive their sins and will heal their Land."

We know that God is not man that he should lie, and he never breaks a promise. We also know that our land does need healing.

Please spare a few moments of your time and join this much needed pray time.

Thank you,
National Day of Prayer Task Force

By the President of the United States of America:
A Proclamation
For a National Humiliation Fasting and Prayer

Whereas, the Senate of the United States, devoutly recognized the Supreme Authority and Just Government of Almighty God, in all the affairs of men and of nations, has, by a resolution, requested the President to designate and set apart a day for National prayer and humiliation:

And whereas, it is the duty of nations, as well as of men, to own their dependence upon the overruling power of God, to confess their sins and transgressions, in humble sorrow, yet with assured hope that genuine repentance will lead to mercy and pardon; and to recognize the sublime truth, announced in the Holy Scriptures and proven by all history, that those nations only are blessed whose God is the Lord:

And, insomuch as we know that, by His divine law, nations, like individuals, are subjected to punishments and chastisements in this world; may we not justly fear that the awful calamity of civil war, which now desolates the land, may be but a punishment inflicted upon us for our presumptuous sins, to the needful end of our national reformation as a whole People? We have been the recipients of the choicest bounties of Heaven. We have been preserved, these many years, in peace and prosperity. We have grown in numbers, wealth, and power as no other nation has ever grown. But we have forgotten God. We have forgotten the gracious hand which preserved us in peace, and multiplied and enriched and strengthened us; and we have vainly imagined, in the deceitfulness of our hearts, that all these blessings were produced by some superior wisdom and virtue of our own.

Intoxicated with unbroken success, we have become too self-sufficient to feel the necessity of redeeming and preserving grace, too proud to pray to the God that made us! It behooves us, then to humble ourselves before the offended Power, to confess our national sins, and to pray for clemency and forgiveness.

Now, therefore, in compliance with the request, and fully concurring in the views of the Senate, I do, by this my proclamation, designate and set apart Thursday, the 30th day of April, 1863, as a day of national humiliation, fasting, and prayer. And I do hereby request all the People to abstain on that day from their ordinary secular pursuits, and to unite, at their several places of public worship and their respective homes, in keeping the day holy to the Lord, and devoted to the humble discharge of the religious duties proper to that solemn occasion.

All this being done, in sincerity and truth, let us then rest humbly in the hope authorized by the Divine teachings, that the united cry of the Nation will be heard on high, and answered with blessings, no less than the pardon of our national sins, and restoration of our now divided and suffering country, to its former happy condition of unity and peace.

In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand, and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

Down at the city of Washington this thirtieth day of March, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, and of the Independence of the United States the eighty-seventh.

CLEAN UP - Casey Thorp and Larry Finklea wash up after working during the Christmas in April work day.

Keeping you posted from the post

by Carole Thorp

Carole's Corner - May is Older Americans Month, it is also Older Texans Month, and, locally, officials will declare the 21st to be Senior Citizen Appreciation Day in Sonora and Sutton County. During this month we will offer some type of special program each week. We will either host a program here at the Senior Center or we will visit other sites.

Now, say what you will, but the fact is that each and every one of us is aging. From the day we are born, including every precious, carefree day of our childhood, we are growing older. There is no crime in admitting that fact! So rather than letting yourself be dragged kicking and screaming into the "twilight years", step forward proudly and gracefully. Embrace each day and live it to the fullest! Be active, involved, and Happy!

This month you will have the opportunity to meet many other senior citizens who share your problems, your joys, and the sheer strength in the numbers of Americans who just happen to be over age 60. I hope you'll decide to join us in exploring them all!

Cinco De Mayo - On May 5th, we'll have a table set up at Liberty Park to sell chances on a beautiful afghan made by Dona Eulojia Flores for donations of $1.00. We'll hold the drawing during the festivities sometime between 6 and 10 p. m. Chances are available from Committee on Aging Members and at the Center. Viva Mexico-Viva Estados Unidos-Viva Sonora!!

Senior Mom of 1993 - On Monday, May 10th, we will celebrate Mother's Day with the La Raspa Dancers from Busy Bees Day Care. We will also announce the winner of our Senior Mother of the Year for 1993. The S. M. O. T. Y. is selected by putting the names of all senior moms in a box and drawing out the name of this year's lucky winner. Prizes will include hair and beauty treatments, dinner, and gifts from area merchants. The festivities begin right after lunch. Happy Mother's Day.

Senior Spring Fling - "Everybody's doing a brand new dance now - Come on Baby do the Local Motion!" Climb aboard "Paloma Blanca" (the center's Ford Van) and head for San Angelo on May 19th for the Annual Senior Spring Fling at the Coliseum. We'll take all comers to enjoy lunch catered by McGowan's, Bingo, Door Prizes, Health Screening and lots of entertainment. Reserve your spot by calling Carole, Lesa or Juana right away.

Memorial Day - In observance of Memorial Day, the Senior Center will be closed May 31st. It is fitting that we express our sincere thanks to the members of our local VFW post for the donation last fall of $100.00 to benefit the Senior Center. Thank you for all the good things you do for this community!

Appreciation Day - Senior Citizen Appreciation Day is May 21st. This day is set aside to honor, not only Senior Citizens, but also the individuals, civic groups and businesses that contribute to the success of our Senior Center. The list is long! We hope that when you receive your invitation, you will allow us to honor you by being present to receive your award. We'll be serving Turkey & dressing that day and guest tickets are only $4.00. Mayor Lopez and Judge Garner will make official proclamations declaring the 21st Senior Citizen Appreciation Day.

Health Fair - The Senior Center will have a booth at the Health Fair at the 4-H Center on May 12th beginning at 1:00 p. m. Stop by and see us!

Kelly Lewis will bring a special guest to her Nutrition program on the 27th. Be there!

Memorial Donations - Memorial donations enhance Senior Center Building fund and honor the memories of people we love with a bronze engraving.

Donations have been given in memory of Dolores Salinas by the Senior Center Staff; Bill Wade - Pete and Bobbye Thompson and Hershel Davenport; David Shurley - Pete and Bobbye Thompson and Steve and Carole Thorp.

This is the 30th anniversary of older American's Month. Join us in pledging to preserve the quality of life they deserve.

May Birthdays - The May Birthday Party will be held on May 26th.

Happy Birthday to Ruth Lee Eaton, Nancy Taylor, Virginia Valera, Beto Duran, Minnie Gonzales, Santos Hernandez, Mandy Turk, Ramona Noriega, J. W. Sutton, Betty Hardegree, Dorothy Redman and Georgia Middleton.

WTU PRESENTS- Darolyn Moore and Robert Noriega presented a program on electrical safety at the Intermediate School last week.

WTU presents safety program

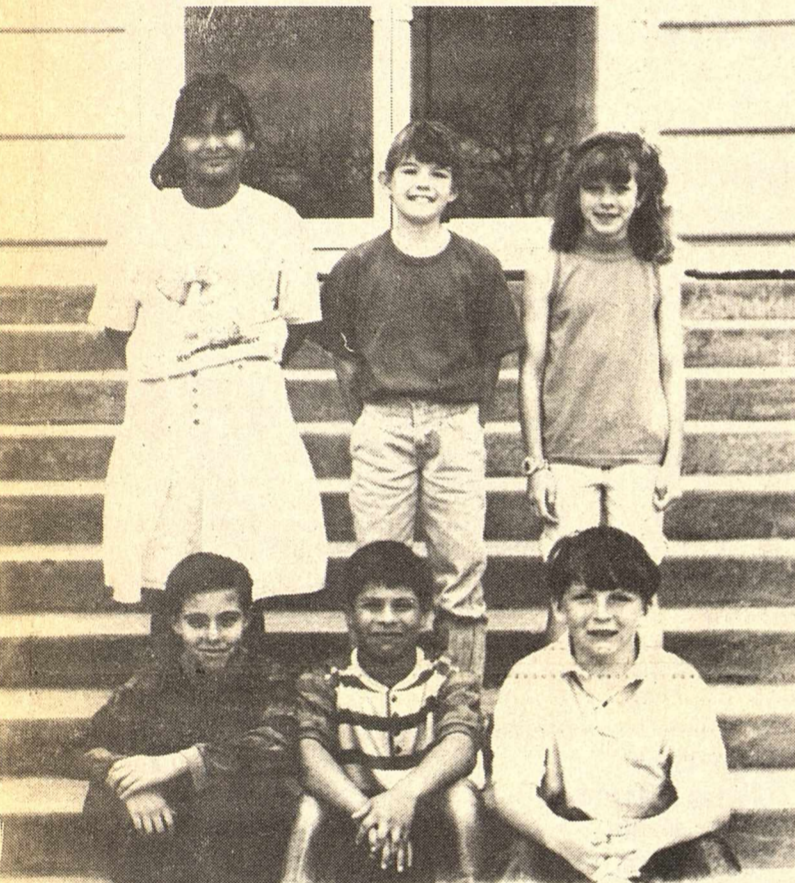

Fourth grade students at Sonora Intermediate School were presented a program on Electrical Safety by West Texas Utilities Co. Communication Specialist, Darolyn Moore of San Angelo.

The students watched a video entitled PLAY IT SAFE AROUND ELECTRICITY and learned to avoid electrical dangers such as flying kites or climbing trees near power lines, staying away from downed lines and substations and observing overhead lines when working or playing.

Mrs. Moore discussed the nature of electricity and what to do in case of accidents. After the program, students were given an opportunity to ask questions.

WTU Area Manager, Robert Noriega of Sonora was also present to meet the students and answer questions. Each student was given a booklet of safety information to take home.

Another year has ended for the Cub Scouts of Sonora's Pack 19, but at the same time, a new year will begin with the boys having advanced into the next levels of scouting. On Monday evening, April 26th, the Cub Scouts, their leaders and families gathered at City Park near the golf course for an outdoor graduation ceremony. The opening ceremony was led by members of Den 1, third grade Bears. With the colorful flags waving in the brisk breeze, the ceremony had a special feeling to it, reflecting the "outing" in "scouting."

Tigers all received one year service stars and paws for attending den and pack meetings. Those receiving these were Wilson Wallace, David Cook, James Ross, Payton Holenkamp, Jason Hulsey, Joseph Ainsworth and Trapper Valliant.

Second Grade - Seth Prather, 3 silver arrow points, 1 & 2 years service pin. Scottie Moore - 3 silver arrow points, 1 & 2 years service pins. Shane Benson - 3 silver arrow points, 1 year & 2 years service pin. Norbert Ortiz - 4 silver arrow points, 1 year & 2 years service pin.

Third Grade - Heath Prather - 1 gold and 1 silver arrow points, basketball belt loop, 2 & 3 years service pin. Ruben Brown - 1 gold and 1 silver arrow points, 1 year service pin. Manuel Campos - 1 year service pin.

Baldemar Hernandez - 1 year service pin, basketball belt loop. Matt Batchelor - 1 & 2 years service pin, basketball belt loop. Stetson Hall - 2 & 3 years service pin, basketball pin, 1 gold and 1 silver arrow points, Ultimate belt loop. Alex Zimmerman - 2 & 3 year service pins, Basketball pin, Ultimate Belt loop. Two Year Service Pins - Callaway Hall, Allen Prather, Carla Wilson, Gus Ward and Pete Samaniego. Three Year Service Pin - Joe Weingart. Four Year Service Pin - Kathy Hardgrave. Eight Year Service Pin - Claudia Dempsey.

The high point of this pack meeting was the advancement ceremony. Claudia Dempsey, Scoutmaster, narrated special readings as each group walked across the little wooden bridge into the next level of scouting, being welcomed by older scouts on the other side of the bridge. The closing ceremony was organized by the first grade Tiger Cubs. All the Cub Scouts joined hands and made a big circle, then each boy told what was the best part about scouting to him. Refreshments were provided by Den 3, the second grade Wolves; Den 2, 3rd grade Bears, and the 4th grade Webelos.

It is not too late to register for the second "Mom 'N Me" overnight campout on May 15th and 16th. Please send your registration in to the San Angelo office, or call one of the local scout leaders for more information.

To the people of Precinct One,

I would like to thank each and everyone of you who voted for me on Saturday, May 1st, for Sonora ISD Board of Trustees. I will continue to serve and to represent all the children in our school system.

Thanks again,

Tiger Cubs graduate to rank of wolf

On April 23, 1993, at the regular pack meeting the seven first grade Tiger Cubs, Joseph Ainsworth, David Cook, Jason Hulsey, Payton Holenkamp, James Ross, Trapper Valliant and Wilson Wallace, graduated into the ranks of Wolf Scouts. They are looking forward to second grade and Wolf Scout activities.

On Saturday, May 1, Joseph, Payton, Trapper and Wilson, with their moms, went to Camp Sol Mayer for the "Mom and Me" campout.

The moms worked hard, setting up tents at a nice river camp-site and trying to clear the campsite of ticks, ants, bugs, etc. Then the fun began with many activities for the boys and moms. These boys wanted to do everything and they did! There was an obstacle course, (lots of exercise for moms) archery, horseshoe throw, penny toss, washers, b-b guns, steer roping and canoeing. Only one boy and mom tipped over their canoe!

The boys received beads for their participation in the events and all of them received a special gold bead for doing good deeds at camp.

Later, the boys and moms enjoyed skits, sings and stories around the campfire. Then everyone made their way back to their tents to prepare for the night when suddenly the wind began blowing, the skies opened up with torrential rains, lightning was flashing and the camp alarm bell began ringing. We had been warned to drop everything and run to the mess hall if we heard the bells, especially if at a river camp-site! We were under a tornado watch and that was enough for one boy and his mom. They left and drove home - They think they were pretty brave to drive home in the storm! The others stayed in the mess hall during the storm and were encouraged to spend the night there although some did go back to their soggy tents after the storm. The next morning they packed up their wet things and decided they had attended "Survival Camp."

Webelos go on first over-night

On Saturday, April 17th, the 4th grade Webelos Scouts went on their first over-night campout as a den. Accompanied by leaders Gary Hardgrave and Joe Weingart, eight boys worked on their Outdoorsman badge, learning many skills in the process. The boys who made this trip to Camp Sol Mayer were Chris Weingart, Daniel Ward, Corey Scheidemann, Pete Samaniego, Dusty Padilla, Jason Moore, Jeremiah McLaughlin, and Ryan Hardgrave.

The boys set up tents, built a campfire, and prepared meals, to fulfill requirements for earning the badge. All the boys caught at least one fish on a pole, and Jeremiah and Ryan, with the help of the others, caught a 14" bass in a minnow seine! The scouts had fun playing in the water, as the weather cooperated magnificently. Daniel Ward spoke for the others by saying, "That was the best weekend I ever had in my life!"

These Webelos are encouraged to work on their handbook requirements over the summer, with the help of parents, so that by next February, all will be able to advance to the rank of Boy Scout.

RESULTS OF THE SPECIAL CALF & YEARLING SHOW AND SALE
Monday MAY 3, 1993
915-347-6361

Receipts totaled 642 head. Two to three inches of rain in the area curtailed receipts but certainly did not dampen the market at all. Buyer's attendance was very good with extremely active bidding and the market sold $2 to $5 higher on most all classes of stocker and feeder calves and yearlings. A large percentage of the cattle were in ideal flesh to make a rapid gain in the pasture or in a feedlot which is what the buyers are looking for this time of year. Slaughter cows sold steady while bulls were $1 to $2 higher. Stocker cows sold steady.

Do you have any information on a shooting in Christoval, around 1910, between two doctors?

Devil's River News, April 8, 1911 had the following article entitled "Killing At Christoval."

Professional jealousy, and bitter feelings engendered by the threatened removal of shade trees along his yard fence, resulted Friday afternoon in the death of Dr. L. A. McCord, a physician living at Christoval. He was shot through the head, heart and stomach. Dr. J. A. Salmon, a physician also living at Christoval, sustained a bullet wound through the left hand. His revolver was the only one used, and he was held to the grand jury on a $7000 bond.

The shooting occurred in front of the Grove Hotel at 4 o'clock and if there were any eye witnesses to it, that fact could not be learned at the Friday afternoon hearing. Miss Birdie Belle Salmon, a daughter of Dr. Salmon, hearing the shots, ran in the direction of the explosion but did not see the shooting. R. D. Welch, who testified that Dr. McCord died a few minutes after he reached him, and G. M. Holland, were among the first to reach the body.

But three shots were fired, and owing to the fact that Dr. McCord was wounded three times and Dr. Salmon once, the bullet entering the back of his hand, and to the further fact that Dr. Salmon says Dr. McCord wrested the revolver from him and shot him (Salmon) through the hand, the officers are puzzled. The revolver, which belongs to Dr. Salmon, shows but three exploded cartridges and three loaded ones. The revolver was a 41 Colt, six chambers.

Dr. Salmon when interviewed at 6 o'clock said: "I had just arrived up town and met him in front of the hotel. He grabbed me on the neck, pulled my revolver from my pocket and shot me through the hand. Then . . . As a result of the extreme nervousness under which Dr. Salmon was laboring, and also the opiates which had been administered, he was unable to finish the statement and began mumbling. He refused, however previously to discuss the cause of the tragedy.

Examination of the body of Dr. McCord, which was carried to his home almost adjoining that of Dr. Salmon, shows three bullet wounds. One bullet which struck him in the abdomen went through his body. Another bullet entered his breast directly over the heart. A third bullet wound is visible on the top of his head. His hair was also powder burned and the shirt he wore was ignited over the breast wound by the exploding powder. Dr. McCord, who was 45 years old is survived by his widow, who describes jealousy and the threatened removal of shade trees as the cause of the tragedy.

Devil's River News - May 11, 1912

After deliberating 19 hours the jury in the Dr. Salmon murder trial at Coleman returned verdict of guilty at noon Saturday and fixed the penalty at 14 years in the penitentiary. Dr. Salmon had made a plea of self defense. According to the papers, they thought the attorney would appeal the case but we were unable to find any further follow up stories on this case.

If you have any questions concerning Sutton County history or an old article in the Devil's River News, send them to "Ask the Historical Society" P. O. Box 885, Sonora, Texas 76950-0885 or give one of our researchers a call at 387-5144.

HAPPY MOTHER'S DAY

OIL BIDNESS . . .

By Reg Boles ©1993

There is a significant story developing that highlights the contrast between the U. S.'s and other countries' attitudes toward petroleum exploration and production.

The story involves a new, potentially major discovery offshore Cuba.

The interesting thing about the discovery is the role geography plays in the whole thing.

But first, some history. (sounds like school-history-geography?)

The state of Florida wants no drilling within 100 miles of its coast. Tankers are fine, but drilling wells are a no-no. This nonsense is based on faulty logic, because tankers spill more oil than offshore wells ever could.

So great was the state's desire to prevent drilling, that it was able to win a moratorium off both its coasts in Congress.

Unfortunately for Florida, Cuba is only 90 miles offshore.

And, Cuba has just announced a seismic find that could possibly be a very large oil field, and that discovery is located north of Cuba. North of Cuba is south of Florida, and the find is right smack dab between Cuba and Florida.

A French company has the concession on the find, and it will very likely begin exploration drilling in the near future to ascertain the feasibility of the find. That will mean drilling off of Florida, within the 100 mile forbidden zone.

The most significant thing that is coming out of this development is the response by the U. S. and Cuba. They are quite different and really point up the differences in philosophy held by the rest of the world as opposed to the U. S. position when it comes to oil and gas.

Cuba says development of the prospect is very welcome, and would be pleased if work were to start immediately.

The U. S. and Florida are horrified at the thought of the development actually taking place. Most of the members of each Congress believe that it means impending doom. At least, that is the way it seems based on their pleadings with the French company not to develop the prospect.

One might say that Cuba is in dire need of oil, and we are not. Therefore, it is easier for them to want development in spite of potential environmental hazards. After all, Cuba's energy situation is much different than ours, right?

Let's review. Cuba is smaller than the U. S., and their reserves are also small. But, they do have about 100 million barrels of reserves, and they do have domestic production. The ration of production to inhabitants of Cuba is not that much different than the ration of production to inhabitants of the U. S.

As a matter of fact, they import about 60% of their petroleum requirement. We import about 55%.

As you see, the only real difference between us and them is that their government feels that domestic production is something that should be supported and allowed to increase. In the U. S., that is obviously not the case.

There is hope for the U. S., though. When the I. R. S. hears that we may be able to claim part of the reservoir as U. S. property, it will salivate at the opportunity to get the thing producing. After all, with all of the taxes that can be collected on oil and gas properties at stake, the I. R. S. won't stop until the thing is producing.

Death and taxes. . .

I would like to take this opportunity to thank all of the voters of Sutton County for their interest and support in the School Board election. I sincerely enjoyed speaking and (in some cases) meeting each and every one of you that I was able to get in touch with.

Though I will be the newest member on the Board, I promise you that I will listen, learn & speak for all of you whenever you are concerned about any issue, so that we can bring about harmonious, constructive, and positive solutions.

I want to thank Bob, Carol, and Ram for running a good campaign and for all of you that took the time to vote. Sonora is a great family town and it will continue to be so as long as we all work together.

Thank You-
Michelle R. Anderson
