Manager Thomas Ramon, John Brown, Breg Hughes, Tanner Fields, Ty Harrelson, Fernie Emiliano, David Arrevelo, Mayer Anderson, David Mayer, Homer Lozano, and Lupe Ramon.

This past weekend, the Bronco baseball team traveled to Brackettville to play in the 1st Annual Tiger Invitational Baseball Tournament. For the first game, the Broncos faced the team from La Pryor. The men in red came out on the short end as they lost 5-7. Brad Legan and Homer Lozano shared the pitching duties giving up 7 runs, with only 3 of these being earned, on 7 hits with Legan striking out 5 of the La Pryor players. Andy Mirike continued his steady play by going 1 for 2 at the plate and scoring 2 of the Bronco runs. This game proved to be a growing game for the Broncos, as the team began to come together as a group.

The second game pitted the Sonora boys against the lads from Asherton. Fernie Emiliano was given the start and recorded his first have fun. win of the season. In this outing Emiliano gave up 5 runs on 5 hits, striking out 6 and only issuing 1 walk. Homer Lozano came on to David Mayer took the mound and record his first save of the young for 4 innings pitched flawless baseseason, facing 4 batters, striking out ball as the Broncos took a com-

2 and walking 1 and only giving up a seeing eye single. This game found many of the men in red playing positions that they had really practiced for, and they rose to the occasion committing only 3 errors and playing some very good team ball. David Mayer once again gained his form at the plate as he went 2 for 3. John Brown was perfect at the plate going 2 for 2 with a walk and scoring 2 runs. Mayer Anderson, Ty Harrelson, Fernie Emiliano, Lupe Ramon, and Brad Legan each had a hit. Tanner Fields, though not having a hit, walked twice and each time with his base running ability was able to get the Trojans' attention allowing a Bronco to score each time. The Broncos really began to come together, and most important of all, they began to manding lead of 0-6. In the 5th inning Sabinal began to get their timing down and fought back to 6 to tie. In the bottom of the 5th inning with two outs and with the time having expired, Sabinal decided to bring their ace pitcher in to close the game out and salvage a tie. Sonora had Breg Hughes at third base and Tanner Fields at the plate. The first pitch was a strike and a wild pitch, but Hughes was not able to advance. Fields fouled the next pitch off for strike 2. With the next pitch, Sonora haseball is put in the history book as it scored as a wild pitch, and Hughes was able to cross the plate for the winning run which gave the Bronco baseball program its first ever trophy !!! Congratulations Broncos!!!

This week the Broncos played Eldorado on Tuesday and will travel to Alpine on Thursday to partici-

O. I am enclosing a poem I found in an old family album. Do you know who Rita is?

A. Possibly Rita Pool? How about it readers, who is the Rita who wrote this poem that was published in the Devil's River News of April 11, 1930?

Sonora

Midst the hills of Western Texas, Near the border of the Rio Grande, Lies a quiet, remote little valley In the heart of the ranchman's land.

In this peaceful, happy valley, Far from the world where tumults arise: Nestles Sonora, the little queen city,

"The Capital of the Stockman's Paradise.'

For pictures unsurpassed by California. Painted by the strokes of a Master's hand, For pure and balmy south sea

zephyrs, Come to Sonora, in the Lone Star

Land.

Where Italian skies and golden sunlight.

And great open spaces furnish many thrills,

Where, like a cameo in a beautiful setting,

Nestles Sonora encircled by purple hills.

Q. Where was the San Angelo draw in Sonora?

* A. Good question, took a little while to come up with positive identification on this as the maps through the years do not list this draw under this name.

In the Devil's River News of June 10, 1899, we found the following: both draws at Sonora were unusually high Monday night. The San Angelo draw being almost as high as five years ago, and the McKavett draw was higher than it has been in five years.

Since the McKavett draw is now called Lowery draw, I would think that the San Angelo draw mentioned above was what we now call Meckel draw. This runs into the Dry Devil's River in town and runs into town from the north, through the golf course and under I-10.

There is a note that the San Saba River at McKavett was higher from the rains Sunday, Monday, and Tuesday than ever before in the knowledge of the oldest inhabitant. A family living in the old G.W. Morris place, spent Monday night in the trees.

In Menardville that same Monday night at 2:30 a.m. a rise came up in the San Saba River that had water seven feet deep on the business street of the town. John Callan's drug store was washed about four blocks and stranded in front of the Australian Hotel; Henry Tipton's beer saloon, Chas. Graham's barber shop, Dr. McKnight's office, Suchardt's lumfor a considerable distance. Many places below town were totally destroyed including the barn and crops of W. W. Lewis, valued at $1700, and Philip Hockingsmith lost everything. The Noyes farm lost several ranch houses. A Mexican who couldn't be induced to leave his home was drowned. John Callan and Mac Russell had narrow escapes, having to swim out. The water stood 22 inches in Henry VanderStucken & Co.'s store, and all other places on Main Street were in about the same depth of water. Old timers had predicted for years that this would happen. They said that before the town was built there was evidence of earlier high water marks, and they had tried to warn people it could happen again. Devil's River tank is full of water. Hobson, who lived in East Sonora. attempted to cross the McKavett draw Monday afternoon and had to swim out. He lost one horse in the river and another had been in the water so long that it died shortly after being taken out of the river. It was noted that the draws were running as high as they did in 1894. Theo Savell and Joe Caldwell spent Monday night in the mail buggy on the side of the draw six miles above town. Owing to the old road being fenced off, they could not get around the swollen draw and were stuck there. People think gates should be put up so that the old road could be used in wet weather. And some people complain that it never rains in Sutton County! It rains; it definitely rains. Sometimes it rains so much that we need boats to get across the draws. Sonora could use Morton Salt's motto then, "When it rains it pours." That's Texas for you, when we do something we don't fool around; we do it BIG.

Maida and Robert Bryson would like to personally thank Dr. Gutierrez and the staff at Lillian Hudspeth Memorial Hospital for the recent treatment of Bobbie Bryson. They did a wonderful job under the frail condition Bobbie was in when she was admitted. Their professional attitudes and compassionate care for her was one that needs to be recognized and praised. We were all scared and under a great deal of stress to do those things to save her life, and Dr. Gutierrez and the staff at the hospital passed the test with flying colors.

Sonora and the surrounding area needs to realize just how lucky and fortunate we all are for having these people and such a wonderful facility. Thank you Doctor and your professional staff.

Texas Water Bill Could Limit Right of Capture

by Mike Smith SCUWCD

I was in Austin this past week monitoring Senate Bill 1 (SB1). This is a bill that deals with water law in the state of Texas (surface & groundwater). Hearings are underway on the substitute this week. This bill is on a very fast track and has the blessing of Lt. Gov. Bob Bullock. We have been told this bill will pass in some form because of its importance (hence the #1).

The drought conditions this past year and the water problems of the down stream users (Corpus Christi, San Antonio, etc.) have brought water issues in the state of Texas to the forefront. The area that concerns "ground-direct oversight by the Texas Natural Resource Conservation Commission (TNRCC). We feel we have oversight by a locally elected Board of Directors and a district that is funded by local taxpayers. However, the bill includes provisions for a regional management plan to which we must comply. If we do not comply, the TNRCC can dissolve the district, replace the board, and obtain the assets of the district. The problem with this oversight is the fact that almost two hundred (200) counties in the state have no water districts. What are they doing to manage the groundwater in their areas? The state will give them water districts" such as ours is the

the chance to form a water district and if the election fails, the state will manage their water.

Management of Groundwater Districts is laid out in Chapter 36 of the Water Code. However, the TNRCC has chosen not to enforce several laws already in place. We (Texas Alliance of Groundwater Districts-TAGD) will continue to monitor this bill. The bill will go to the House of Representatives this week for hearings. Hopefully, some favorable changes will come from the house side. If so, the bill will go to conference committee. At this point, I understand no hearings will take place, and the bill moves to become

In my personal opinion, this bill (SB1) as it now stands could greatly affect the water law in the state of Texas. These regulations are the first step in limiting an individuals "right of capture." Although some changes are necessary, this bill appears to intrude on an individual's private property rights.

If you have any questions, please contact me at 222 N. Main, Suite 101, or call me at 387-2369.

8th Boys Singles

Bryce Williams defeated Justin Lozano 7-6, 6-3 in the championship match to take first place. Bryce handled adverse wind conditions and a 4-1 deficit in the first set and cruised to victory in the second.

8th Boys Doubles Shane Mathews and Ryan Hardgrave defeated Parker and Barnes of Reagan Co. in the championship match to take first place. After splitting the first two sets, Shane and Ryan easily took the third set 6-3.

8th Girls Singles

Heather Felts took second place in a weather shortened championship match loss to Kayla McCravey of Eldorado. Heather played very well and had the match been of regular length she may have been able to pull it out. 8th Girls Doubles

Crystal Montgomery and Lindsey Bowers defeated Robledo and Barton of Eldorado in the championship match to take first place honors. Crystal and Lindsey had very little trouble in any of their matches and really controlled each point well. Stephanie Hard and Mary Jo Galvan also had a strong showing and took consolation runner-up honors.

7th Boys Singles Justin Routh defeated Ramon Barajas of Eldorado in the championship match to take first place. Justin was never in trouble in any of his matches and dominated all his opponents.

Sean Fields took 4th place after two marathon matches against evenly matched opponents. In either match one or two more points in Sean's favor would have given him the victory.

7th Boys Doubles

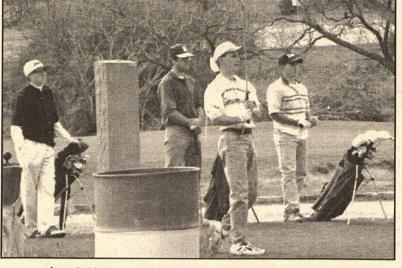

Chance Dillard and James Elliot defeated Beau Hughes and Tyler Seaton in an all Sonora final. Both teams competed very hard and both had to overcome split set matches in the semi-finals.

7th Girls Singles

Ashley Bible took second place in this event after defeating Amanda McNeill of Reagan Co. in the semifinals.

Overall, both the 7th and 8th grade teams took second place in the tournament. Points were awarded to each team according to their teams results in each event. Although Sonora competitors either won or took second place in every event entered, second and third place finishes by Reagan Co. and a 1st and 2nd in 7th girls doubles allowed them a total 67 to Sonora's 62 points. In the eighth grade the total was 70 to 61 in favor of Reagan Co. Due to a conflict with a band concert, several of our students could not enter the tournament, and this left the team with only 1 entry in most events while Reagan Co. had 3 or 4. This allowed Reagan Co. to accumulate more points even though they failed to win many events.

Sonora will host its own tournament this weekend, and with a full squad this week, they hope to not only win every event but also the team competition as well. Sonora will compete against Ozona, Reagan Co., Irion Co., and Eldorado in this week's tournament.

Jacob West follows through after a great shot.

Gayla Bradford and Shirley Poynor of Assault Victim Services presented a program to the children at the Headstart Program. According to Assault Victim Services, one in every three girls and one in every four to six boys will be sexually assaulted by age 18. Education and prevention are crucial to help stop the violence. CAPP, Child Assault Prevention Project, teaches children the warning signs of abusive behavior and who and how to tell if faced with an abusive situation.

Tennis Team Wins Second

submitted

The Sonora High School tennis team attended the Eldorado Invitational Tournament on March 14 and 15. Sonora came away with a total of 30 points coming in second, behind Eldorado with 42 points.

Girls singles took home third and fourth, playing each other in the final round. Playing in the tournament were Ashley Brockman, Angela Mayfield, and Johnna Wade. Wade won her first match with scores of 1-6, 6-1, 6-1, but played the second seed of the tournament in the second round and lost. Mayfield won her first two rounds hands down 6-0, 6-0 both times. In the third round, she also had to play the second seed and lost but was able to go on. She played an extremely long split set match and did not win, but she went on to play for third. Brockman won all her matches until the fourth round when she played the first seed. In the final round Brockman and Mayfield played a split set match with Brockman taking third and Mayfield fourth.

Boys singles included Clint Bowers and David Benson. Bowers got to the third round but was then beaten by a Reagan County player. Benson got to play two rounds but also lost.

Girls doubles had a good experience playing teams that are very different from most. Kristi Burge and Katy Key got a bye in the first round, a default in the second round, and were defeated by a Rocksprings team. Crystal Ponsetti and Lizzie Chavez played and won the first two rounds but lost to Martinez and Tarr of Ozona. Tracy McKnight and Kristen Hardgrave also played and won in the first round but lost to a team from Forsan. Stacey Becknell and Allison Benson went to the tournament and played three rounds. In the last round, they lost by a score of only 8-6.

Boys doubles did an excellent job last weekend. Matt Routh and Dustin Dillard were playing in the tournament because Drew Dempsey had prior obligations. They played very well but lost to the winners of the tournament by only 6-2, 6-4. David Fisher and Justin House played the best that they thought they ever had played. They had no problem getting into the finals. In the finals, Fisher and House split sets with the number one Reagan County team and had scores of 5-7,6-4,3-6.

Everyone did an excellent job in this tournament, and we are looking forward to Uvalde this weekend.

Emergency Farm/Ranch Loan Applications Being Accepted

Applications for emergency farm/ranch loans due to damages and losses caused by hail and high winds are being accepted at the Farm Service Agency (FSA) office located in San Angelo, FSA Farm Credit Manager, Fred J. Greenway said today.

Concho, Crockett, Irion, Kimble, Menard, Sutton, Schleicher, and Tom Green counties are among the counties in Texas recently named by Secretary of Agriculture Dan Glickman for loans to cover part of actual physical losses resulting from hail and high winds which occurred on November 6, 1996.

Fred J. Greenway said farmers/ranchers may be eligible for loans of up to 80 percent of their actual losses or the operating loan needed to continue in business, whichever is less. For farmers/ranchers unable to obtain credit from private commercial lenders, the interest rate is 3.75 percent.

"As a general rule, a farmer/rancher must have suffered at least a 30 percent loss of physical loss to be eligible for an FSA emergency loan," Fred J. Greenway said. Farmers/ranchers participating in the Federal Crop Insurance program will have to figure in proceeds from those programs in determining their loss.

"Applications for loans under this emergency designation will be accepted until September 29, 1997, but farmers/ranchers should apply as soon as possible. Delays in applying could create backlogs in processing and possibly over into the new farming season, Greenway said.

FSA is a credit agency of the U.S. Department of Agriculture. It is authorized to provide disaster emergency loans to recognized farmers/ranchers who work at and rely on farming/ranching for a substantial part of their living. Eligibility is extended to individual farmers/ranchers who are U.S. citizens and to farming/ranching partnerships, corporations, or cooperatives in which U.S. citizens hold a majority interest.

The FSA office in San Angelo is open from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. Monday through Friday.

Child Passenger Safety Seats Not Effective Unless Used Properly

(DM)-More than 70% of child passenger deaths can be prevented. Two-thirds of child passenger injuries can be reduced. And hospitalizations of child passengers can be cut in half. According to SafetyBeltSafe U.S.A., all this can be accomplished by learning about, and adopting the correct, consistent use of safety seats and safety belts.

That is why Mitsubishi Motor Sales of America, Inc. (MMSA) and SafetyBeltSafe U.S.A., a leading non-profit organization dedicated to child safety in automobiles, have joined together to present the Miles For Child Safety Tour, a 25 city tour where the proper use of child safety seats and safety belts will be demonstrated. In case the Miles For Child Safety Tour does not visit your city, the child passenger safety tips listed provide basic child passenger safety information, but they are just tips. Learn all you can about child passenger safety.

For more information call SafetyBeltSafe U.S.A. at 800-745-SAFE (English) or 800-747-SANO (Spanish).

• Try it before you buy it! Not all safety seats fit properly in all vehicles. Look for the federal safety seal.

· Read your vehicle owner's manual for important safety seat information

· Place safety seats for infants rear facing in the back seat of your vehicle until they are at least one year old and weigh more than 20 pounds.

· Children old enough to face forward require safety seats with snug harnesses until they are too heavy or tall to fit.

· Booster seats which place children properly in shoulder/lap safety belts are needed until they are tall enough to use safety belts alone.

· Always make sure the safety belt straps are on the child's shoulders and not on the arms.

· Fasten the safety belt to hold the child safety seat securely.

Remember, children under age 12 should always ride in the back seat and be properly and safely restrained. Whether or not there is a passenger-side air bag in the car, the back seat is further from the point of impact in most collisions.

John Lopez Jr. finishes wiring 523 holes drilled for a new rig location on the Balch Ranch. On this particular job 4,250 lbs. of ammonium nitrate were used to carve out the rock to begin the leveling process. Lopez stated, the use of timing the charges with delays is very important. When this method is used it causes all of the debris to fall toward the center of the location versus scattering to the sides. Lopez stated, he received most of his knowledge about explosives from Monte and Mike Dilliard of Sonora, and has thoroughly enjoyed this trade for over 15 years.

Drilling and production has picked up in Texas. Currently there are 329 active rigs in the state this week, last year during this time there were 256.

Nature Conservancy Tax Exemption Ruled Unconstitutional

It is the opinion of Attorney filed legal briefs with the attor-General Dan Morales that a 1969 law exempting the Nature Conservancy of Texas from paying property taxes is unconstitutional. The Texas Constitution specifically prohibits the legislature from enacting a local or special law authorizing the exemption of property from taxation. The opinion, issued on February 28, 1997, was in response to Rep. Warren Chisum's (R-Pampa) request for an opinion as to the law's constitutionality. Rep. Chisum was among several members of the Texas House whose last session signed on to a bill to repeal the special tax exemption. The bill died in the Ways and Means Committee.

The Nature Conservancy (TNC) is an international nonprofit organization with chapters in all 50 states of the United States. The organization is best known for its role as a buyer and seller of environmentally sensitive land. TNC works closely with the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service (USFWS) to locate and purchase land from individuals who would be prevented from using the property because of the presence of endangered species or their habitat. The organization then frequently resells the land to ney general, arguing that the Nature Conservancy's tax exemption was unconstitutional. TTHA is a nationally-recognized organization dedicated to the protection of private property rights. The state-wide heritage association was formed in September of 1992 by the Davis Mountains Trans-Pecos Heritage Association (DMTPHA) in response to numerous requests by Texas landowners who wanted to participate in the Heritage movement but had no particular ties of West Texas. DMTPHS, a regional association under the parent umbrella of TTHA, was formed in March 1989, after West Texas landowners joined together to fight an effort to turn thousands of acres of private property in the Trans-Pecos into a national park. Regional sister association, the Hill Country Heritage Association (HCHA), formed in August 1994, when 32 counties in the Texas Hill Country were threatened with designation of critical habitat for the Golden checked warbler. TNC owns over 54,000 acres in Texas. The largest tracts are in Val Verde county with 18,552 acres; Brewster County with 9,785 acres; Matagorda County

Denis said, supply is the most important thing now, and hope the ranchers will help meet the 5,000 kills per week (breakeven point). Monford will compete with us, stated Denis, but RLOT can offer the same or better price, with less freight, and cheaper kill.

We will offer various types of financing arrangements for lambs on feed and we have a few pens that can feed 150, however we recommend 300, said Denis. If you need more information concerning RLOT please contact Ray Ellis at the plant (915) 659-4004.

Zane Williard, spoke briefly on the failed (unofficial) Sheep Referendum and further discussed the checkoff program to help with funding.Williard stated, that hopefully something will pass in late spring.

TNC locates the environmentally sensitive land through the use of its Natural Heritage Program database, which in Texas was maintained by the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department (TPWD). Until the last legislative session, database information about the presence of endangered species or their habitat on private property was shared with the USFWS through a cooperative agreement between TPWD and USFWS.

In 1995, former state Rep. Susan Combs and Rep. Bob Turner passes legislation which prohibits TPWD employees from entering private land to collect scientific data without the landowner's written permission. Furthermore, data cannot now be entered into the database or shared with anyone with out the landowner's written permission. TPWD has since reorganized the Natural Heritage Program.

with 3,148 acres; Hardin County with 2,249 acres; Pecos County with 1,501 acres and Galveston County with 1,361. When TNC bought several thousand acres in Brewster County, the property tax revenue shortfall led to an economic hardship in the county and the school district.

"The Nature Conservancy is one of the richest organizations in the world, and it claims to be a charity. Brewster County is not a rich county, yet when the school board asked for a payment in lieu of taxes, the Nature Conservancy refused to help," said TTGA president Desmond Smith. "We didn't think that was very charitable. Furthermore, we could never understand why an organization whose principal function is buying and selling real estate qualifies for a tax exemption. We are elated by the attorney general's opinion," continued Smith.

The attorney general was asked, but did not rule upon the question of whether, TNC owes back taxes to school districts and county governments.
